11 And the heart of the king of Syria was troubled for this thing, and he called for his ſeruants, and ſaide vnto them, Will ye not ſhewe mee which of our men betrayeth me to the king of Iſrael?

12 And one of his ſeruantes ſaide, None, my lord O king: but Eliſeus the Prophet, that is in Iſrael, telleth the king of Iſrael, yea, the wordes that thou ſpeakeſt in thy priuie chamber.

13 He ſayd, Go, and ſpie where he is, that I may ſend & fetche him. And one tolde him, ſaying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

14 Therefore ſent hee thither horſes, and charets, and a mightie hoſte: and they came by night, and compaſſed the citie about.

15 And when the ſeruant of the man of God roſe vp earely to goe out, beholde, there was an hoſte rounde about the towne, with horſes and charets: and his ſeruant ſaide vnto him, Alas maſter, what ſhall we doe?

16 He answered, Feare not: for they that be with vs, are moe then they that bee with them.

17 And Eliſeus prayed, and ſayd, Lord, I beſeech thee open his eyes, that hee may ſee. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he looked: and beholde, the mountaine was full of horſes, and charets of fire, round about Eliſeus.

18 And when they came downe to him, Eliſeus prayed vnto the Lord, and ſaide, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindneſſe. And he ſmote them with blindneſſe, according to the word of Eliſeus.

19 And Eliſeus ſayde vnto them, This is not the way, neither is this the towne: followe me, and I will bring you to the man whome ye ſeeke. But hee led them to Samaria.

20 But when they were come to Samaria, Eliſeus ſaide, Lorde, open their eyes, that they may ſee. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they ſawe, and beholde, they were in the middes of Samaria.

21 And the king of Iſrael ſaide vnto Eliſeus when he ſawe them, My father, ſhal I ſmite them, ſhall I ſmite them?

22 And he answered, Thou ſhalt not ſmite them: but ſmite thoſe that thou haſt taken with thine owne ſworde, and with thine owne bowe: but rather ſet bread and water before them, that they may eate and drinke, and goe to their maſter.

23 And he prepared a great refection for them, & when they had eaten & drunke, he ſent them away, and they went to their maſter: and ſo the ſouldiers of Syria came no more into the land of Iſrael.

24 After this, Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his hoſte, and went vp, and beſieged Samaria.

25 But there was a great dearth in Samaria: and beholde, they beſieged it, vntill an aſſes head was ſolde for foureſcore ſiluer pence, and the fourth part of a b cab of doues dong for fiue pieces of ſiluer.

b The Hebrues write, that they burned it in the ſiege for lacke of wood, 26 And as the king of Iſrael was going vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, ſaying, Helpe mee my lorde, O king.

27 He ſayde, If the Lord doe not ſuccour thee, wherewith can I helpe thee? with the barne, or with the wine preſſe?

28 And the king ſaid vnto her, What wilt thou? She answered, Yonder woman ſayde vnto me, Bring thy ſonne, that we may eate him to daye, and wee will eate mine to morowe.

29 And ſo we dreſſed my ſonne, and did eate him: and I ſayd vnto her the other day, Bring thy ſonne, that we may eate him: and ſhe hath hid her ſonne.

30 And when the king heard the wordes of the woman, hee rent his clothes, and went vp on the wall, and the people looked, and beholde, hee had a ſackcloth vnder vpon his fleſh.

31 Then he ſaid, God doe ſo, and more alſo to me, if the head of Eliſeus the ſonne of Saphat, ſhall ſtand on him this day.

c Thus hypocrites ſeeing Gods iudgement, thinke to pleaſe him with outward ceremonies, whom in proſperitie they will not knowe.

32 But Eliſeus ſate in his houſe (and the elders ſate by him) and the king ſent a man before him: but per the meſſenger came to him, hee ſaid to the elders, Haue ye not ſeene howe that the ſonne of this murderer hath ſent to take away mine head? See circumſpect when the meſ-

senger commeth, and shut the doore, and hold him at the doore: Is not the sound of his masters feete behind him?

33 While her yet talked with them, beholde, the messenger came downe vnto him, and said, Behold, this euill is of the Lord, and what more shall I looke for of the Lorde?

The vii. Chapter.

Eliseus prophecieth plente of victuale and other things in Samaria.

1 Then Eliseus said, Heare ye the worde of the Lord. Thus saieth the Lord, To morowe this time shall a measure of fine flowre be solde for a sicle, and two measures of barley for a sicle, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a certaine lorde (on whose hande the king leaned) answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the Lord would make windowes in heauen, might this saying come to passe? He said, Beholde, thou shalt see it with thine eies, but shalt not eate thereof.

3 And there were foure leprous men at the entring in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit wee here vntill we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the citie: behold, the dearth is in the citie, and we shall die therein: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let vs fle vnto the host of the Syrians: if they saue our liues, we shall liue: if they kill vs, then are we dead.

5 And they rose vp in the twylight, to goe to the host of the Syrians: and when they were come to the vttermost part of the host of Syria, beholde, there was no man there.

6 For the Lorde had made the host of the Syrians to heare a noyse of charets, and a noyse of horses, and the noyse of a great host: insomuch that they said one to another, Loe, the king of Israel hath hired against vs the kings of the Hethites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come vpon vs.

7 Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tentes, and their horses, and their asses, & the field which they had pitched, euen as it was, [a] and fled for their liues.

a The wicked neede no greater enemie, then their owne conscience to pursue them.

8 And when these lepers came to the edge of the host, they went into a tent, and did eate and drinke, and caried thence siluer, and golde, and rayment, and went and hid it, and came againe, and entred into another tent, and carped thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then said one to another, We doe not well, this day is a day to bring good tydings, and we hold our peace. If we tarry til the day light, some mischiefe will come vpon vs: now therefore come, that we may goe, and tell the kings houshold.

10 And so they came, and called vnto the porters of the citie, & told them, saying, We came to the campe of the Syrians, and see, there was no man there, neither voyce of man, but horses and asses tied, & the tents were as they were wont to be.

11 And the porters cried, and declared it to the kings house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and sayde vnto his seruants, [b] I will shewe you nowe what the Syrians haue done vnto vs: They knowe that we be hungry, and therefore are they gone out of the campe, to hide themselues in the field, saying, When they come out of the citie, we shall catch them alive, and get into the citie.

b He mistrusted the Prophets wordes, and as one more politike then godly, cast more perils then needed.

13 And one of his seruants answered, and said, Let men take, I pray you, fiue of the horses that remaine and are left in the multitude: (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in the citie: behold, I say they are euen as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and we will send, and see.

14 They tooke therefore two horses of two charets, and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Goe, and see.

15 And they went after them euen vnto Iordane, and loe, all the way was full of clothes, and vessels, which the Syrians had cast from them in their haste: and the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoyled the tents of the Syrians: and so it came to passe, that a measure of fine flowre was solde for a sicle, and two measures of barley for a sicle, according to the worde of the Lord.

17 And the king appointed that lorde (on whose hand he leaned) to bee at the gate: and the people [c] trode vpon him in the gate, and he died according to the worde of the man of God, which he spake when the king came downe to him.

c The faithlesse derider of Gods prophet punished.

18 And so came the thing to passe that the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a sicle, and a measure of fine flowre for an other, shalbe to morow this time in the gate of Samaria.

19 Wherevnto that lorde answered the man of God, and said, Yea, & if the Lord made windowes in heauen, might it come to passe? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, and shalt not eate thereof.

20 And euen so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

The viii. Chapter.

Eliseus prophecied vnto the Sunamite the dearth of seuen yeares.

1 Then spake Eliseus vnto the woman (whose sonne hee had restored to life againe) saying, [a] Vp, and goe thou and thine houle, and sojourne wheresoeuer thou canst: for the Lorde hath called for a dearth, And the same shall come vpon the land seuen yeeres. [a] 4. King. 4. 38.

2 And the woman arose, & did after the saying of the man of God: and went both she and her houshold, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seuen yeeres.

3 And

3 And at the seuen yeres end, the woman came againe out of the land of the Philistines, and went out to call vpon the king for her house and for her land.
4 And the king talked with Gehezi the seruant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great deedes that Eliseus hath done.
5 He tolde the king how he had restored a dead bodie to life againe: but in the meane time the woman, whose sonne hee had raised vp againe, cried to the king for her house and for her land: And Gehezi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whom Eliseus raised vp againe.
6 And when the king asked the woman, shee told him: And so the king deliuered her a chamberlaine, saying, Restore vnto her all that are hers, and all the a fruites of the field, since the day that she left the land, vnto this time.
a The king caused that to be iustly restored, which was wrongfully holden from her.
7 And Eliseus came to Damascus, and Benhadad the king of Syria was sicke, and one tolde him, saying, The man of God is come hither.
8 And the king said vnto Hazael, Take a present in thine hande, and goe meete the man of God, that thou mayest enquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease?
9 And so Hazael went to meete him, and tooke the present with him, and of euerie good thing of Damascus, euen as much as fourtie camels could beare: and came and presented himselfe before him, and said, Thy sonne Benhadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease?
10 And Eliseus said vnto him, Goe, and say vnto him, Thou shalt b recouer: howbeit, the Lorde hath shewed me that hee shall surely die.
b Meaning, that he should not die of that disease, yet he should die by the hand of Hazael the messenger.
11 He looked vpon him stedfastly, vntill he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.
12 And Hazael saide, Why weepeth my lord? He answered, For I know the euil things that thou shalt doe vnto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fire, and their young men shalt thou slay with the sworde, and shalt dash out the wiues of their sucking children, and all to teare their women with childe.
13 But Hazael sayde, What is thy seruant a dogge, that I should do this great thing? And Eliseus answered, The Lord hath shewed me that thou shalt be king of Syria.
14 And so he departed from Eliseus, and came to his master, which sayde to him, What sayde Eliseus to thee? Hee answered, He tolde mee that thou shouldest recouer.
15 And on the morowe, he tooke a thicke cloth, and dipt it in water, and c spread it on his face: and he died, and Hazael reigned in his stead.
c Hazael vnder reuerence to resemble the king, fained him with this cloth.
16 *The fifth yere of Ioram the sonne of Achab king of Israel, Iosaphat being also king of Iuda, Ioram the sonne of Iosaphat king of Iuda began to reigne.
17 Thirtie and two yeres olde was hee when he began to reigne, and he reigned eight yeres in Hierusalem.
18 And hee walked in the waies of the kings of Israel, as they that were of the house of Achab: for the daughter of Achab was his wife, and he did euill in the sight of the Lord.
19 And the Lord would not destroy Iuda, because of Dauid his seruants sake, * as hee promised, to giue him alway a light among his children.
2. Sam. 7. 13.
20 In those dayes Edom rebelled against Iuda, & made them a king of their owne.
21 So Ioram went to Zair, he, & all his charets with him, & he rose by night, and smote the Edomites, which compassed him in with the captains of his charets, and the people fled into their tents.
22 But Edom rebelled, so that he would not be vnder the hand of Iuda vnto this day: the Libnah rebelled that same time.
23 The rest of the workes that concerne Ioram, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?
24 And Ioram rested with his fathers, and was buried beside his fathers, in the citie of Dauid: * And Ahazia his sonne reigned in his stead.
2. Chro. 22. 1.
25 In the twelfth yere of Ioram the sonne of Achab, king of Israel, did Ahazia, the sonne of Ioram king of Iuda, begin to reigne.
26 Two and twentie yeres olde was Ahazia when he began to reigne, & he reigned one yere in Hierusalem, & his mothers name was Athalia, the daughter of Omri, king of Israel.
27 But he walked in the way of the house of Achab, and did euill in the sight of the Lord, as did the house of Achab: for he was the sonne in law of the house of Achab.
28 And he went with Ioram the sonne of Achab, to warre against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Ioram.
29 And king Ioram went backe againe to bee healed in Iezrahel, of the woundes which the Syrians had giuen him at Ramoth, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria: and Ahazia the sonne of Ioram king of Iuda, went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Achab in Iezrahel, because he was sicke there.

The ix. Chapter.

Iehu is made king of Israel, 24. And killeth Ioram the king thereof.

1 AND Eliseus the Prophet called one of the children of the Prophets, and said vnto him, * Girde vp thy loynes, & take this boxe of oyle in thine hand, and get thee to Ramoth in Gilead.
3. King. 19. 17.
2 And when thou commest thither, looke where is Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, and goe to him, & make him arise vp from among his brethren, and carry him to a secrete chamber.

3 Then

3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, and saye, Thus saieth the Lord, I haue anoynted thee to be king ouer Israel: and then open the doore, and flee without any tarying.

4 And so the seruant of the Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead:

5 And when he came in, beholde, the captaines of the host were sitting together, and hee saide, I haue an errand to thee, O captaine.

6 And Iehu saide, Vnto which of all vs? Hee sayde, To thee, O captaine. And hee arose, and went into the house, and hee powred the oyle on his head, and saide vnto him, Thus saieth the Lorde God of Israel, I haue anoynted thee to bee king ouer the people of the Lorde, euen ouer Israel.

a This anoynting was for kings, priestes, and prophets, which were all figures of Messias, in whom these three offices were accomplished. 3. King. 21, 21.

7 Thou shalt smite the house of Achab thy master, that I may auenge the blood of my seruants the Prophets, and the blood of all the seruants of the Lord, * of the hand of Iezabel:

8 For the whole house of Achab shall be destroyed, and I will destroy from Achab, him that maketh water against the wall, and him that is pulled and forsaken in Israel:

9 And I will make the house of Achab, like the * house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, and like the * house of Baasa the sonne of Ahia.

10 And as for Iezabel, the dogges shall eate her in the fielde of Iezrahel, & there shall be none to burie her. And he opened the doore, and fled.

11 Then Iehu came out to the seruants of his lorde, and one sayd vnto him, Is all well? Wherefore came this mad felow to thee? And he said vnto them, Ye know what maner of man it is, and what his communication is.

12 They sayd vnto him againe, It is not so, tell vs. He said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saieth the Lorde, I haue anoynted thee to bee king ouer Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and tooke euery man his garment, and put it vnder him on the top of the stayres, and blewe with trumpets, saying, Iehu is king.

14 And so Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, conspired against Ioram: (Ioram kept Ramoth Gilead, he, and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.

15 And king Ioram returned to bee healed in Iezrahel, of the wounds which the Syrians had giuen him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Iehu sayd, If it be your mindes, then let no man depart, and escape out of the citie, to go and tell in Iezrahel.

16 So Iehu gate vp into a charet, & went to Iezrahel, where Ioram lay: and Ahazia king of Iuda, was come downe thither to see Ioram.

17 And the watchman that stoode on the towre in Iezrahel, spied þ cõpany of Iehu as he came, and saide, I see a company. And Ioram sayde, Take an horseman, and sende to meete them, that hee may aske whether it be peace.

18 And so there went one on horsebacke to meete him, & saide, Thus saieth the king, Is it peace? And Iehu sayd, What hast thou to doe with peace? ‖ turne thee behinde me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he commeth not againe.

‖ Or follow me.

19 Then he sent out another on horseback, which came to them, and saide, Thus sayeth the king, Is it peace? Iehu answered, What hast thou to doe with peace? turne thee behinde me.

20 And the watcheman tolde, saying, He came to them also, and commeth not againe: and the driuing is like the driuing of Iehu the sonne of Nimsi, for he driueth the charet as hee were madde.

21 And Ioram said, Make ready. And the charet was made ready, & Ioram king of Israel, and Ahazia king of Iuda, wet out either of them in his charet, against Iehu, and met him in the fielde of Naboth the Iezrahelite.

22 And when Ioram sawe Iehu, he said, Is it peace, Iehu? He answered, What peace shoulde there bee, so long as the whoredomes of thy mother Iezabel, & her witchcrafts are so great?

23 And Ioram turned his hand, and fled, and sayde to Ahazia, There is treason, O Ahazia.

24 And Iehu toke a bowe in his hande, and smote Ioram betweene the armes, & the arrowe went thorow his heart, and he fell downe flat in his charet.

25 Then sayd Iehu to Bidkar a captaine, Take him, and cast him in the plat of the ground of Naboth the Iezrahelite: for I remember, that whe I and thou rode together after Achab his father, the Lorde ‖ layde this heauie burden vpon him:

‖ Or, spake this prophecie against him.

26 * I haue seene yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sonnes, saith the Lord, and I will quite it thee in this ground, saith the Lord. Now therefore take & cast him in the plat of ground, according to the word of the Lord.

3. King. 21. 29.

27 But when Ahazia the king of Iuda sawe this, he fled by the way of the garden house: & Iehu followed after him, & said, Smite him also in the charet, at the going vp to Gur, by Ibleam. And hee fled to Megiddo, and there died.

28 And his seruants carped him in a charet to Hierusalem, and buried him there in his sepulchre with his fathers, in the citie of Dauid.

29 And in the eleuenth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Achab, began Ahazia to raigne ouer Iuda.

30 And when Iehu was come to Iezrahel, Iezabel heard of it, and painted her face, and tyred her head, and looked out at a windowe.

31 And as Iehu entred at the gate, shee sayde, b As though she would say, treason can haue no good successe.

3. King. 16.10.

sayde, Had b Zimri peace * which slewe his master?

32 And he lift vp his eyes to the window, and said, Who is on my side, who? And there looked out to him two or three chamberlaynes.

33 And he said, Throwe her downe. So they threwe her downe, and her blood dashed toward the wall, and toward the horses: and he trode her vnder foote.

34 And when he was come in, he did eate and drinke, and saide, Goe and visite, I pray you, yonder cursed creature, & burye her, for she is a kings daughter.

35 And so when they came to burye her, they found no more of her then the skull, and the feete, & the palmes of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came againe, and told him, and he said, This is the word of the Lorde, * which he spake by the hande of his seruant Elias the Thesbite, saying, In the fielde of Iezrahel shall dogges eate the flesh of Iezabel.

3. King. 21.21.

37 And so the carkeise of Iezabel was euen as dounge vpon the earth in the fielde of Iezrahel, so that no mã might say, This is Iezabel.

The x. Chapter.

6 Iehu causeth the seuentie sonnes of Achab to be slayne. 25 He killeth also all the priests of Baal.

1 AChab had threescore & ten sonnes in Samaria: and Iehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria vnto þ rulers of Iezrahel, to the elders, and to them that brought vp Achabs children, saying,

2 Nowe when this letter commeth to you (ye þ haue with you your masters sonnes, yee haue with you both charets and horses, a strong citie haue yee also, and harnesse,)

3 Looke which of your masters sonnes is best and most meete, and set him on his fathers seate, and fight for your lordes house.

4 But they were exceedingly afrayd, and saide, See, two kinges were not able to stande before him: how shall we then be able to stande?

5 And hee that was gouernour of Achabs house, & he that ruled the citie, the Elders also, and the tutours, sent to Iehu, saying, We are thy seruants, and wil doe all that thou shalt bidde vs, we will make no man king: therefore doe thou what seemeth good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye be mine, and will hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heads of the men that are your masters sonnes, & come to mee to Iezrahel by to morowe this time: (& the kings sonnes were threescore and tenne persons, and they were with the great men of the citie, which brought them vp.)

7 And when the letter came to them, they tooke the kings children, and slewe them, euen threescore and ten persons, & layde their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Iezrahel.

8 And there came a messenger, and tolde him, saying, They haue brought þ heads of the kings sonnes. And he said, Let the lay them on two heapes in the entring in of the gate, vntill the morning.

9 And when it was day, hee went out, and stoode, and said to all the folke, Ye be righteous: beholde, I conspired against my master, and slewe him: But who slewe all these?

10 Learne here, that there shall fall vnto the earth nothing of the woorde of the Lorde, * which he spake concerning the house of Achab: for þ Lord hath brought to passe the things that hee spake by the hand of his seruant Elias.

3. King. 21.29.

11 And so Iehu slewe all that remained of the house of Achab, in Iezrahel, and all that were great with him, and his kinsfolkes, and his priestes, so that he let nothing of him remaine.

12 And hee arose, and departed, and came to Samaria: and when Iehu was in the wape of the house where the shepheards did sheare their sheepe, 13 Hee met with the brethren of Ahazia king of Iuda, and sayde, What are ye? They answered, We brethren of Ahazia are we, and goe downe to saiute the children of the king and of the queene.

14 And he said, Take them aliue. Whome when they had taken aliue, they slewe them at the well which was beside the house where the sheepe are shorne, euen two and fourtie men, neither left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, hee met with Ionadab the sonne of Rechab, comming against him, & he blessed him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as mine heart is true with thine? And Ionadab answered, Yea that it is. Then giue me thine hande. And when hee had giuen him his hand, he tooke him vp to him into the charet, 16 And said, Come with mee, and see my zeale that I haue for the Lorde. And so they made him ride in his charet.

17 And when hee came to Samaria, hee slewe all that remained vnto Achab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the Lord which he spake to Elias.

18 * And Iehu gathered all the people together, and saide vnto them, Achab serued a Baal a litle, but Iehu shall serue him more.

3. King. 16.32.

a Baal signifieth Astaroth, the idol of the Sidonians, 1. Reg. 16.

19 Nowe therefore, call vnto mee all the prophets of Baal, all such as serue him, and all his priestes, and let none be lacking, for I haue a great sacrifice to doe to Baal, and therfore whosoeuer is missed, he shall not liue. But Iehu did it for a subtiltie, to the intent that hee might destroy the seruants of Baal.

20 And Iehu sayde, ‡ Proclaime an holy conuocation for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

‡ Heb. Sanctifie.

21 And Iehu sent vnto all Israel, and all the seruants of Baal came, that there was wolde lefte a man left behinde that came vnto them: they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from the one end to another.

22 And he sayde vnto him that was the keeper of the vestrie, Bring forth garments for all the seruants of Baal. And he brought them out garments.

23 And when Iehu went with Ionadab the sonne of Rechab into the house of Baal, he said vnto the seruants of Baal, Search, and looke that there be here with you none of the seruants of the Lord, but the seruants of Baal onely.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifice and whole burnt offering, Iehu appointed foure score men without, and said to them, If any of the men whome I haue brought vnder your handes escape, he that letteth him goe, shall die for him.

25 And as soone as he had made an ende of offering the whole burnt sacrifice, Iehu said to the men of warre, and to the captaines, Go in and slay them, let none come out. And they smote them with the edge of the sword: and the men of warre, and the captaines, cast them out, and went to the citie of the temple of Baal, 26 And fet the images out of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they brake the Image of Baal, and brake the house of Baal, and made a draught house of it, vnto this day.

28 Thus Iehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 But from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne, Iehu departed not from them neither from the golden calues that were in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iehu, Because thou hast done right well in bringing to passe the thing that is right in mine eyes, and hast done vnto the house of Ahab according to all things that are in mine heart, * therefore shall thy children, vnto the fourth generation, sit on the seate of Israel.

4.Kin.15.12.

31 But Iehu cared not for this, to walke in the lawe of the Lorde God of Israel, with all his heart: for he departed not from the sinnes of Ieroboam, which made Israel to sinne.

32 In those dayes the Lorde began to cut Israel short, and Hazael smote them in all the coastes of Israel, 33 From Iordane eastward, euen all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, and them that were of Manasses, from Aroer (which is by the riuer Arnon) euen Gilead and Basan.

34 The rest of the wordes that concerne Iehu, and all that he did, and all his power, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Iehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Ioachas his sonne reigned in his stead.

36 And the time that Iehu reigned vpon Israel in Samaria, is twentie and eight yeres.

The xi. Chapter.

Athalia seeketh to destroy all the kings seede, except Ioas the sonne of Ochozias. 15 Iehoiada accuseth Athalia to be slaine. 18 Baal and his priests are destroyed.

1 AND * Athalia the mother of Ahazia, when she sawe that her sonne was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the kings seede. 2.Chro.22.10.

2 But Iosaba the daughter of king Ioram and sister of Ahazia, tooke Ioas the sonne of Ahazia, and stale him from among the kings sonnes that were slaine, and his nurse with him in the bedchamber, and hid him from Athalia, that he was not slaine.

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the Lord six yeres: and Athalia did reigne ouer the land.

4 And the seuenth yere Iehoiada sent and fet the rulers ouer hundreds, with the captaines, and them of the gard, and tooke them to him into the house of the Lorde, and made a band with them, and tooke an othe of them in the house of the Lord, and shewed them the kings sonne. 2.Chro.23.1.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is it that ye must doe, One third part of you, whose duetie is to come in on the Sabboth day, shall keepe the watch of the kings house.

6 And another third part shall keepe the gate of Sur, and another third part shall keepe the gate which is behind them of the garde: and so shall ye keepe the watch of the house of Messah.

7 And two partes of you, that is, al that goe out on the Sabboth day, shall keepe the watch of the house of the Lord about the king.

8 And ye shall compasse the king round about, & euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand: and whosoeuer commeth within the ranges, let him be slain: and see that ye be with the king, as he goeth out and in.

9 And the captaines ouer the hundreds did according to all things that Iehoiada the priest commanded: and they tooke euery man his men that were to come in on the Sabboth daye, with them that should go out on the Sabboth, and came to Iehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captaines ouer the hundreds, did the priest giue king Dauids speares and shields, that were in the temple.

11 And they of the gard stoode, and euery man had his weapon in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought out the kings sonne, and put the crowne vpon him, and deliuered him the [a] witnesse, and made him king, and anointed him, and they clapt their handes, and said, God saue the king. a Meaning, the lawe of God,

13 And when Athalia heard the noyse of the running of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the Lord.

b Where the kings place was in the temple.

14 b And when she looked, beholde, the king stode by a pillar, as the maner was, and the singers, and the trumpetters by the king, and all the people of the lande reioyced, and blewe with trumpets: and Athalia rent her clothes, & cried, Treason, treason.

15 But Iehoiada the priest, commaunded the captaines of the hundreds, that had the rule of the hoste, and sayd vnto them, Haue her forth of the ‖ ranges, and if any follow her, kill him with the swoorde. For the priest had sayd, She may not be slayne in the house of the Lord.

‖ Or, out of the Temple.

16 And they layd hands on her, till she came into the way by the which the horses went into the kings palace, and there was she slaine.

17 And Iehoiada made a bond betweene the Lorde, and the king, and the people, that they should bee the Lordes people, & also betweene the king and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and destroyed it, his altars also, and his images brake they downe lustily, and slewe Mathan the priest of Baal, before the altars: and the priest set watch ouer the house of the Lord.

19 And tooke the rulers ouer hundreds, the captaines, and them of the garde, and all the people of the land, & they brought the king from the house of the Lorde, and came by the way of the gate of them of the garde, to the kings palace, and he sate him downe on the seate of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land reioyced, and the citie was in quiet, and they slue Athalia with the swoorde, beside the kings palace.

21 Seuen yeres olde was Ioas when he began to raigne.

The xii. Chapter.

Ioas maketh prouision for the repairing of the temple. 20 Ioas is killed by two of his seruants.

2. Chron. 24. 1.

1 And Ioas began to raigne in the seuenth yere of Iehu, fourtie yeres raigned he in Hierusalem, and his mothers name was Zebiah, of Beerseba.

2 And he did that which was good in the sight of the Lord, as long as a Iehoiada the Priest enfourmed him.

a So long as rulers giue eare to the true ministers of God, they prosper.

3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people offered, and burnt incense yet vpon the high places.

4 And Ioas sayd to the Priests, All the siluer of the dedicate things b be brought to the house of the Lord, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euery man is set at, and all the money b euery man with a willing heart giueth, and bringeth into the house of the Lord:

5 Let the Priests take it to them, euery man of his acquaintance, to repayre the broken places of the house, wherelouer any decay is found.

6 And so it came to passe, that vnto the three and twentieth yeere of king Ioas, the Priests had mended nothing that was decayed in the temple.

7 Then king Ioas called for Iehoiada the Priest, and the other Priests, & sayde vnto them, Why repaire ye not the broken places of the temple? now therefore see that yee receiue no more money of your acquaintance, except ye deliuer it to repaire the temple withall.

8 And the Priests consented to receiue no more money of the people, except to repaire the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Iehoiada the Priest tooke a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side, as euery man commeth into the temple of the Lord, and the Priests that kept the vessels, put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

10 And when they sawe there was much money in the chest, the kings scribe and the high Priest came vp, and tolde the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and put it into a bagge.

11 And they gaue the money sealed into the hands of them b executed the worke, and that had the ouersight of b house of b Lord: and they brought it out to the Carpenters and builders that wrought vpon the house of the Lord,

12 And to Masons and hewers of stone: and they brought timber and free stone to repaire the decay in the house of the Lorde, and to all that went out to mend the temple.

13 Howbeit, there was not made for the house of the Lorde, bowles of siluer, instrumets of muscke, basons, trumpets, or any vessels of gold, or vessels of siluer, of the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

14 But they gaue that to the workemen, and repaired therewith the house of the Lord.

15 Moreouer, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hands they deliuered b money to be bestowed on workemen: for they did their businesse vpon trust.

16 Howbeit, trespasse money, and sinne money, was not brought into the house of the Lorde, for it was the priests.

17 Then came Hazael king of Syria vp, and fought against Geth, and tooke it: and Hazael set his face to goe vp to Hierusalem.

18 And Ioas king of Iuda, tooke all the halowed things that Iosaphat, Ioram, and Ahazia his fathers kings of Iuda had dedicate, and that he himselfe had dedicated, and all the golde that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and in the kings house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria, and so he departed from Hierusalem.

19 The remnant of the wordes that concerne Ioas, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

20 And

20 And his own seruants arose, and conspired, and slewe Ioas in † the house of Pillo, in the way going downe to Silla:
21 Iozachar the sonne of Semaah, and Iozabad the sonne of Somer, his seruants smote him, and hee died: and they buried him with his fathers in the cite of Dauid, and Amazia his sonne raigned in his stead.

The xiii. Chapter.

Ioachaz the sonne of Iehu is deliuered into the hands of the Syrians. 3. He prayeth vnto God, and is deliuered.

1 IN the three and twentieth yere of Ioas the sonne of Ahazia king of Iuda, Ioachaz the sonne of Iehu began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, seuentene yeres.
2 And hee wrought that which was euill in the sight of the Lorde, and followed the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.
3 And the Lord was angry with Israel, & deliuered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, all their dayes.
4 And Ioachaz besought the Lorde, and the Lord heard him: for he considered the trouble of Israel, wherewith the king of Syria troubled them.
5 (And the Lorde gaue Israel a deliuerer, so that they went out from vnder the subiection of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tentes as before time.

‡ Heb. As yesterday before yesterday.

6 Neuertheless, they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Ieroboam, which made Israel sinne, but walked in them: and there remained a groue still also in Samaria.)
7 Neither did he leaue of the people to Ioachaz, but fiftie horsemen, tenne charets, and ten thousand footemen: for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made the like the dust.
8 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ioachaz, and all that he did, and his power, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?
9 And Ioachaz slept with his fathers, & they buried him in Samaria, and Ioas his sonne raigned in his stead.
10 In the thirtie and seuenth yere of Ioas king of Iuda, began Ioas the sonne of Ioachaz to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, sixteene yeres, 11 And did that which is euill in the sight of the Lord, and departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam † sonne of Nabat, that made Israel sinne: for hee walked therein.
12 The remnant of the wordes that concerne Ioas, and all that he did, & his power, wherewith he fought against Amazia king of Iuda, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of † kings of Israel?
13 And Ioas slept with his fathers, and Ieroboam sate vpon his seat: and Ioas was buried in Samaria, among † kings of Israel.
14 When Eliseus was fallen sicke of his sicknesse wherof he died, Ioas the king of Israel came downe vnto him, & wept before him, and sayde, O my father, my father, the charret of Israel, & the horsemen of the same.
15 Eliseus said vnto him, Take bowe and arrowes. And hee tooke vnto him bowe and arrowes.
16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand vpon the bowe. And hee put his hand vpon it: and Eliseus put his hands vpon the kings hands, 17 And said, Open a windowe eastward. And whē he had opened it, Eliseus said, Shoote. And he shot. And hee sayde, The arrowe of health of the Lord, and the arrowe of health against Syria: for thou shalt smite Syria in Aphec, til thou haue made an ende of them.
18 And he said, Take the arrowes. And he tooke them. And he sayde vnto the king of Israel, Smite the grounde. And hee smote thrise, and ceased.
19 And the man of God was angry with him, and said, Thou shouldest haue smitten fiue or sixe times, and then thou haddest smitten Syria til thou haddest made an ende of them: where now thou shalt smite Syria but thrise.
20 And so Eliseus died, and they buried him: and the souldiers of the Moabites came into the land † the same yeere.
21 And as they were burying a man, § they spied the souldiers, they cast the man into † sepulchre of Eliseus: and when the man was rolled downe, * and touched the bones of Eliseus, he reuiued, & stood vp on his feete.
22 But Hazael king of Syria, vexed Israel all the dayes of Ioachaz.
23 And the Lord had mercie on them, and pitied them, and had respect vnto them, because of his couenant made with Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast hee them from him as yet.
24 So Hazael the king of Syria died, and Benhadad his sonne reigned in his stead.
25 And Ioas the sonne of Ioachaz went againe, and toke out of the hand of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, † cities, which hee had taken away out of the hande of Ioachaz his father in warre: foure times did Ioas beate him, and restored the cities vnto Israel againe.

The xiiii. Chapter.

Amazia the king of Iuda putteth to death them that slewe his father. 7 And after fighteth Edō.

1 THE † second yeere of Ioas sonne of Ioachaz king of Israel reigned Amazia the sonne of Ioas king of Iuda.

† 2. Chro. 25. 1.

2 Hee was twentie and fiue yeres olde when he begamne to reigne, and reigned twentie and nine yeres in Hierusalem: & his mothers name was Joadan of Hierusalem.

3 And he did that which is good in the sight of the Lord, yet not like Dauid his father: but did according to all things as Joas his father did.

4 Neither were the high places taken away: for as yet the people did sacrifice, & burnt incense on the high places.

5 And as soone as the kingdome was setled in his hande, hee slewe his seruants which had killed the king his father.

6 But the children of those murderers he slewe not, according vnto it that is written in the booke of the lawe of Moses, wherein the Lord commanded, saying, Deut.24.16. ezech.18.20. *Let not the fathers die for the children, nor let the children be slaine for y fathers: but let euery man bee put to death for his owne sinne.

7 He slew of Edom in the salt valley, ten thousand, and tooke the castle on y rocke in the same battell, and called the name of it Iocthеel vnto this day.

8 Then Amazia sent messengers to Joas the sonne of Joachaz sonne of Jehu king of Jsrael, saying, Come, a let vs see eche other.

a Let vs fight and trie it by battaile.

9 And Joas y king of Jsrael sent to Amazia king of Juda, saying, Did not a thistle that is in Libanon, sende to a Cedar tree that is in Libanon, saying, Giue thy daughter to my sonne to wife? And the wild beast that was in Libanon went & trode downe the thistle.

10 Thou hast smitten Edom, thine heart hath made thee proud: enioy this glory, and tary at home: why doest thou prouoke to mischief, that thou shouldest bee ouerthrowen, and Juda with thee?

11 But Amazia would not heare: and Joas king of Jsrael went vp, and he, and Amazia king of Juda, saw either other at Bethshames, which is in Juda.

12 And Juda was put to the worst before Jsrael, and they fledde euery man to their tentes.

13 And Joas king of Jsrael tooke Amazia king of Juda, the sonne of Joas, the sonne of Ahazia, at Bethshames, & came to Hierusalem, and brake downe the wal of Hierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim, to the corner gate, foure hundred cubites.

14 And he tooke al the gold, and siluer, and all the vessels that were found in y house of the Lorde, and in the treasures of the kings house: and the children tooke hee to be his wardes, and returned to Samaria againe.

15 The rest of the actes of Joas which hee did, and his power, and how hee fought with Amazia king of Juda, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Jsrael?

16 And Joas slept with his fathers, and was buried at Samaria among the kings of Jsrael, & Jeroboam his sonne raigned in his stede.

17 Amazia the sonne of Joas king of Juda, liued after the death of Joas sonne of Joachaz king of Jsrael, fiftene yeres.

18 And the remnant of the wordes that concerne Amazia, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

19 * But they conspired treason against him in Hierusalem: and when he fled to Lachis, they sent after him to Lachis, and slew him there. 2.Chro.25.9.

20 And they brought him on horses, and hee was buried at Hierusalem with his fathers, in the citie of Dauid.

21 * And all the people of Juda tooke Azaria (which was fiftene yeres olde) and made him king for his father Amazia. 2.Chro.26.1.

22 He built Elath, and brought it againe to Juda, after that the king was layd to rest with his fathers.

23 In the fiftenth yere of Amazia the sonne of Joas king of Juda, was Jeroboam the sonne of Joas made king ouer Jsrael in Samaria, and reigned fourtie and one yeres:

24 And wrought that which was euill in the sight of the Lord, neither turned he away from all the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Jsrael to sinne.

25 He restored the coast of Jsrael, from the entring of Hemath, vnto the sea of the wildernesse, according to the word of the Lord God of Jsrael, which hee spake by the hande of his seruant Jonas, the sonne of Amithai the prophet, which was of Geth Hepher:

26 For the Lord saw how that the affliction of Jsrael was exceeding ‡ bitter, in so much y the prisoned and y forsaken were at an ende, and there was none to helpe Jsrael. ‡Heb. changeable

27 And the Lord saide not, that he would put out the name of Jsrael from vnder heauen: but he helped them by the hand of Jeroboam the sonne of Joas.

28 The rest of the wordes that concerne Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his strength, & how he fought in the warres, and how he restored Damascus and Hemath to Juda in Jsrael, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Jsrael?

29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, euen with the kings of Jsrael, and Zacharia his sonne reigned in his stead.

The xv. Chapter.

Azaria the king of Juda becommeth a leper.

1 In the twentie and seuen yere of Jeroboam king of Jsrael, begainne Azaria sonne of Amazia king of Juda, to reigne.

2 Sixtene yeres olde was he when he was made king, and he reigned two and fiftie yeres in Jerusalem: & his mothers name was Jecholia of Hierusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all things as did his father Amazia.

4 Saue that the high places were not put away: for the people offered, and burnt incense incense still on the high places.

2.Chro.26.21. 5 *And the Lord smote the kyng, and he was a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt in a seuerall house at libertie, and Iotham the kings sonne gouerned the palace, & iudged the people of ꝑ land.

6 The rest of the woꝛdes that concerne Azaria, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chꝛonicles of the kings of Juda?

7 And so Azaria slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. and Iotham his sonne reigned in his stead.

8 In the thirtie and eight yere of Azaria king of Juda, did Zacharia the sonne of Ieroboam reigne vpon Israel in Samaria sixe moneths:

9 And wꝛought that which was euill in the sight of the Lorde, as did his fathers: and turned not away from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne.

10 And Sallum the sonne of Jabes, conspired against him, and smote hym in the sight of the people, and killed him, and reigned in his stead.

11 The rest of the woꝛdes that concerne Zacharia, behold, they are wꝛitten in the booke of the Chꝛonicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This is also the woꝛde of the Lorde, 2.Reg.10.30. which he spake vnto Jehu, saying, *Thy sonnes shall sit on the seate of Israel, vnto the fourth generation after thee. And so it came to passe.

13 Sallum the sonne of Jabes began to reigne in the nine and thirtie yere of ‖Azaria king of Juda, and he reigned a moneth in Samaria. ‖Or, Ozias.

14 Foꝛ Manahem the sonne of Gadi, went vp from Thirza, and came to Samaria, and smote Sallum the sonne of Jabes in Samaria, and slewe him, and reigned in his stead.

15 The rest of the woꝛdes that concerne Sallum, and the treason which he conspired, behold, they are wꝛitten in the booke of the Chꝛonicles of the kings of Israel.

16 The same time Manahem destroyed Thyphsah, and all that were therein, and the coastes thereof from Thirza: and because they opened not to him, he smote it, and ript vp all the women with childe.

17 The nine and thirtieth yere of Azaria king of Juda, began Manahem the sone of Gadi to reigne vpon Israel ten yeeres in Samaria.

18 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, and turned not away all his dayes from the sinne of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne.

19 And Phul the king of Assyria came vpon the lande: and Manahem gaue Phul a thousand talents of siluer, that his hand might be with him, and stablish the kingdome in his hand.

20 And Manahem made a proclamation foꝛ the money in Israel, that all men of substance should giue the king of Assyria fiftie sicles of siluer a piece: and so the king of Assyria turned backe againe, and taried not there in the lande.

21 The rest of the woꝛdes that concerne Manahem, and all that he did, are they not wꝛitten in the booke of ꝑ Chꝛonicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Manahem slept with his fathers, and Pecahia his sonne did raigne in his stead.

23 In the fiftieth yeere of Azaria king of Juda, began Pecahia the sonne of Manahem to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria two yeeres, 24 And did that which was euill in the sight of the Lord, and left not off from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel sinne.

25 But Pecah ꝑ sonne of Romelia, which was a captaine of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, euen in the place of the kings house, with Argod and Aria, and with him were fiftie men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his roume.

26 The rest of the woꝛdes that concerne Pecahia, and all that he did, behold, they are wꝛitten in the booke of the Chꝛonicles of the kings of Israel.

27 In the fiftie and two yere of Azaria king of Juda, began Pecah the sonne of Romelia to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria twentie yeeres.

28 And did euill in the sight of the Lorde, and turned not away from the sinnes of Ieroboam ꝑ sonne of Nabat, that made Israel sinne.

29 In the dayes of Pecah king of Israel, came Theglah Phalasar king of Assyria, and tooke Jion Abel, Beth-maacha, Janoah, Cedes, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee, and all the lande of Nephthali, and caried them away to Assyria.

30 And Hosea the sonne of Ela, conspired against Pecah the sonne of Romelia, and smote him, and slewe him, and reigned in his steade, in the twentieth yeere of Iotham the sonne of ‖Ozias. ‖Or, Azarias.

31 The rest of the woꝛdes that concerne Pecah, and all that hee did, behold, they are *wꝛitten in the booke of the Chꝛo- 2.Chro.27.2. nicles of the kings of Israel.

32 The second yere of Pecah the sonne of Romelia king of Israel, began Iotham the sonne of Ozias king of Juda to reigne.

33 Fiue and twentie yeeres olde was hee when he began to reigne, and he reigned sixtene yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name was Ierusa, the daughter of Sadoc.

34 And hee did that which is right in the sight of the Lord: euen according to all as did his father Ozias, so did he.

35 But the high places were not put away, for the people offered and burnt incense still in the high places: He built the higher doꝛe of the house of the Lord.

36 The rest of the woꝛdes that concerne

Iotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?
37 (In those dayes the Lord began to send into Iuda Rezin the king of Syria, and Pecah the sonne of Romelia.) 38 Iotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie
of Dauid his father, and Achaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

The xvi. Chapter.

1 Achaz king of Iuda consecrateth his sonne in fire.

2. Chro. 28. 1. a A wicked sonne of a godly father.

1 THe *seuenth yere of Pecah the sonne of Romelia king of Israel, a Achaz the sonne of Iotham king of Iuda began to raigne.
2 Twentie yeeres olde was he when he was made king, and raigned sixteene yeere in Hierusalem, and did not that which was right in the eyes of the Lorde his God, like Dauid his father:
3 But walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea and made his sonne to goe thorowe the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lorde cast out before the children of Israel.
4 And he offered and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hils, and vnder euery thicke tree.

Esai. 7. 1. 5 *Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pecah sonne of Romelia king of Israel, came vp to Hierusalem to fight: and they fought against Achaz, but could not o-uercome him.
6 At the same time Rezin king of Syria, brought Elath againe to Syria, and rid the Iewes thence: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt therein vnto this day.
7 So Achaz sent messengers to Theglah Phalasar king of Assyria, saying, I am thy seruant, and thy sonne, come vp, and deliuer me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise vp against me.

b Neglecting Gods helpe, he spoiled the temple of God, to procure mans helpe, Esai. 8.

8 b And Achaz tooke the siluer and golde that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the kings house, and sent a rewarde to the king of Assyria.
9 And the king of Assyria consented vnto him: for the king of Assyria went vp against Damascus, and when he had taken it, he caried the people away to Cir, and slew Rezin.
10 And king Achaz went to Damascus, to meete Theglah Phalasar king of Assyria, and when king Achaz sawe an altar that was at Damascus, he sent to Uria the priest the paterne of the altar, and the fashion of it, and all the worke-manship thereof.
11 And Uria the priest made an altar, in c There is no prince so wicked but he shall find flatterers, and false ministers to serue his turne.

c all poyntes like to the paterne which king Achaz had sent from Damascus, euen so did Uria the priest make it, against king Achaz came frō Damascus.
12 And so when the king was come from Damascus, he sawe the altar: and the king went to it, and offered thereon, 13 And he burnt his whole burnt offering, and his meate offering, and powred his drinke offering, and sprinckled the blood of his peace offerings vpon the altar.
14 And he the brasen altar which was before the Lorde, and set it without the temple betweene the altar and the temple of the Lorde, and put it on the North side of the altar.
15 And king Achaz commanded Uria the priest, and sayde, Upon the great altar, set on fire in the morning the whole burnt offering, and in the euen the meate offering, and the kings whole burnt sacrifice, and his meate offering, with the whole burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meate offerings, and their drinke offerings, and powre there-vp all the blood of the whole burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice:
and the brasen altar shall be at my will.
16 And Uria the priest did according to all things as king Achaz commanded him.
17 And king Achaz brake the sides of the bottomes, and tooke the lauer from them, and tooke downe the lauatorie from the brasen oxen that were vnder it, and put it vpon a pauement of stones.
18 And the baile for the Sabboth that they had made in the house, and the kings entrie without, turned he to the house of the Lorde, for feare of the king of Assyria.
19 The rest of the words that concerne A-chaz, what hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?
20 And Achaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie
of Dauid, and Hezecia his sonne reigned in his stead.

The xvii. Chapter.

5 Hoseā king of Israel is taken.

1 IN the twelfth yeere of Achaz king of Iuda, began Hosea the sonne of Elah to reigne in Samaria vpon Israel nine yeres:
2 And did that which was euill in the sight of the Lord, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.
3 And Salmanasar king of Assyria came vp against him, and Hosea became his seruant, and gaue him ‖ presents. ‖ Or, tribute.
4 And the king of Assyria found treason in Hosea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the king of Assyria from yeere to yere: and therefore the king of Assyria shut him vp, and bound him in the prison house.
5 And then the king of Assyria came vp thorowout all the land, and gate vp against Samaria, and besieged it three yeeres.

7 For Syrians.

7 For it came to passe, that the children of Israel sinned against the Lord their God, which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from vnder the hand of Pharao king of Egypt, and feared other gods.

8 And they walked in the ceremonies of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel, and in the ceremonies which the kings of Israel had made.

9 And the children of Israel went about to hide those things that were not well, from the Lord their God: and they built them high places in all their cities, both in the towers where they kept watch, and also in the strong townes:

10 And they made them images & groues Heb. greene. in euery high hil and vnder euery thicke tree:

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whome the Lord caried away before them, and wrought wicked things to anger the Lord withall:

12 For they serued idols, whereof the Lorde had said vnto them, Ye shall doe no such thing.

13 And the Lord testified in Israel, and in Iuda, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, *Turne from your wicked waies, and keepe my commandements, and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruants the prophets. Jere.25.5.

14 Notwithstanding, they would not heare, but rather hardened their neckes, like to the stubburnnes of their b fathers, that did not beleeue in the Lord their God.

b It is not safe to followe our fathers, except it may appeare they were godly.

15 For they refused his statutes, and his couenat that he made with their fathers, and the witnesses wherewith he witnessed vnto them, and they followed vanitie, and became vaine, and went after the heathen that were rounde about them, concerning whom the Lord had charged them, that they should not doe like them.

16 But they left all the commandements of the Lord their God, and made them images of metal, euen two calues, and made groues, and worshipped al the c hoste of heauen, and serued Baal.

c That is, the sunne, and the moone, and the starres. Chap.16.3. 3.king.21.25.

17 And they sacrificed their sonnes and their daughters in fire, and vsed witchcrafts, and enchantments, *euen selling themselues to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lord, and to anger him.

18 And the Lorde was exceeding wroth with Israel, & put them out of his sight, that there was left but the tribe of Iuda onely.

19 Neuertheles, Iuda also kept not the commandements of the Lord their God, but walked in the ceremonies of Israel which they made.

20 And the Lord cast off all the seede of Israel, and vexed them, and deliuered them into the hands of spoilers, vntil hee had cast them out of his sight:

21 *For d he rent off Israel from the house of Dauid, & made them a king, euen Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, and Jeroboā drew Israel away, that they should not follow the Lord, and made them sinne a great sinne. 3 King.12.16.

d That is, the ten tribes, 1.Sam.12.16.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sinnes of Jeroboam which he did, & departed not therefrom, 23 Until the Lorde put Israel away out of his sight, *as he had said by all his seruants the prophets: & so was Israel caried away out of their owne land to Assyria, euen vnto this day. Jere.25.9.

24 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, from e Cutha, fro Ana, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria, in stead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

e Of these people came the Samaritanes, of whom mention is made in the gospel.

25 And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lord, and the Lord sent lions among them, which slew them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast translated & put in the cities of Samaria, know not the law of the God of the lande: therefore hee hath sent lions vpon them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the maner of worshipping the God of the lande.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whome ye brought thence, and let him go and dwell there, and teach them the fashion how to serue the god of the countrey.

28 And then one of the priests, whom they had caried from Samaria, came & dwelt in Bethel, and taught them howe they should feare the Lord.

29 Howbeit, euery nation made the gods of their owne, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 The men of Babylon made Succoth Benoth, & the men of Cuth made Nergal, & the men of Hamath made Asima, 31 The Auites made Nibhaz and Tharthac: and the Sepharuites burnt their children in fire to Adramelech, and Anamelech, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And so they feared the Lord, and made them priests of the basest of them, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 And so they feared the Lord, & serued their owne gods, after the maner of the people whom they caried thence.

f We cannot worship God & idols.

34 And vnto this day they doe after the olde maner: and neither feare God, neither doe after their ordinances and customes, nor doe after the lawe and commaundement which the Lorde commanded the children of Iacob, *whome he called Israel. Gen.32.28. 3.king.18.31.

35 And the Lorde made a couenant with them, and charged them, saying, Feare none other gods, nor bow your selues to them, nor serue thē, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But feare the Lorde, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, with great power and a stretched out arme, him feare, and to him bowe, and to him doe sacrifice.
37 The statutes, ordinances, lawe, & commandement which hee wrote for you, see that ye bee diligent to doe for euermore, and feare not any other gods.
38 And the couenant that I haue made with you, see ye forget not, and feare none other gods:
39 But the Lord your God ye shall feare, & he shall deliuer you out of the handes of all your enemies.
40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but did after their olde custome.
41 And so these nations feared the Lorde, and serued their images also, like as did their fathers children, and their childrens children: euen as did their fathers, so do they vnto this day.

The xviii. Chapter.

Hezecia king of Juda putteth downe the brasen serpent, and destroyeth the idols, 7 and prospereth

2.*Chro.*28.28. and 29.1. 1 In the third yeere of * Hosea sonne of Ela king of Israel, it came to passe þ Hezecia the sonne of Achaz king of Juda did reigne.
2 Twentie and fiue yeeres olde was hee when he began to reigne, and reigned twentie and nine yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Abi, the daughter of Zacharia.
3 And hee did that which is right in the sight of the Lorde, according to all as did Dauid his father.
a It appertaineth to a good prince to purge the Church of God. 4 He a put away the high places, & brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and all to brake the brasen serpent * that Moses had made: for vnto those dayes the children of Israel did burne sacrifice to it: and he called it Nehustan.
*Num.*21.8. 5 He trusted in the Lorde God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among al the kings of Juda, neither were there any such before him.
6 For he claue to the Lorde, and departed not from him: but kept his commandements, which the Lorde commaunded Moses.
7 And the Lord was with him, so that he prospered in al things which he tooke in hande: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and serued him not.
8 He smote the Philistines, euen vnto Aza, and the coastes thereof, both castles where they kept watches, and strong cities.
9 And in the fourth yeere of king Hezecia, (which was the seuenth yeere of Hosea, sonne of Ela king of Israel) Salmanazar king of Assyria, came vp against Samaria, and besieged it.
4.*King.*17.1. 10 * And after three yeeres they tooke it: euen in the sixt yeere of Hezecia (that is to say, the ninth yeere of Hosea king of Israel) Samaria was wonne.
11 And the king of Assyria did carie away Israel vnto Assyria, & put them in Halah & in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, & in the cities of the Medes:
12 Because they would not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde their God, but transgressed his couenant, and all that Moses the seruant of the Lorde commaunded, and would neither heare thē, nor doe them.
2.*Chro.*32.1. *esa.*36.1. *ecclu.*48.19. 13 * Therefore in the fourteenth yeere of king Hezecia, did Sennacherib king of Assyria come vp against all the strong cities of Juda, and tooke them.
14 And Hezecia king of Juda, sent to the king of Assyria to Lachis, saying, I haue offended, depart from me: and all that þ puttest on mee, that will I beare. And the king of Assyria appointed vnto Hezecia king of Juda three hundreth talents of siluer, & thirtie talents of golde.
15 And Hezecia gaue him all the siluer, þ was founde in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the kings house.
16 At the same season did Hezecia rent off the doores of the temple of the Lord, and the pillars which the saide Hezecia king of Juda had couered ouer, and gaue the to the king of Assyria.
b After certaine yeeres when Hezecia ceassed to pay the appointed tribute, the king of Assyria sent his captaines against him. 17 And the king of Assyria sent * Tharthan and Rablaris, and Rabcath, from Lachis to king Hezecia, with a great host, against Hierusalem: and they went vp, and came to Hierusalem, and gate them vp, and stoode by the conduite of the vpper poole, which is in the way of the fullers fielde.
*Mat.*1. 18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them * Eliacim the sonne of Elcia, which was stewarde of the houshold, and Sobna the scribe, and Joah the sonne of Asaph the recorder.
19 And Rabsaceh said vnto them, Tell ye Hezecia, I pray you, thus saith the great king, euen the king of Assyria, What cōfidence is this that thou hast?
*Esai.*36.5. 20 * Thou thinkest, surely I haue eloquēce, but counsel & strength are for the warre: on whom then doest thou trust, that þ rebellest against me?
21 Doest thou trust to þ staffe of this broken reede Egypt, on which if a mā leane, it wil goe into his hande, and pearce it? euen so is Pharao king of Egypt vnto all that trust on him.
c Idolaters thinke that Gods religion is destroyed, when idolatry and superstition is remoued. 22 If ye say vnto me, We trust in þ Lorde our God: is not that he whose high places, and whose altars Hezecia hath put downe, and hath saide to Juda and Hierusalem, Ye shal worship before this altar here in Hierusalem?
23 Nowe therefore, I pray thee giue pledges to my lorde the king of Assyria, and I will deliuer thee two thousande horses, if thou be able to set riders vpon them.
24 Why thinkest thou scorne at the presence sence of one of the least Dukes of my masters seruants, and trustest to Egypt for charets and horsemen?

25 Moreouer, am I come nowe without the bidding of the Lorde to this place, to destroy it? The Lord said to me, Goe vp to this land, and destroy it.
26 And Eliacim the sonne of Helcia, and Sobna, and Joah, saide vnto Rabsaceh, Speake, I pray thee, to thy seruants, in the Syrians language (for we vnderstande it) and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the eares of this people that are on the wall.
27 And Rabsaceh sayde vnto them, Hath my master sent mee to thy master and thee, to speake these wordes? Hath hee not sent me because of the men which sit on the wal, that they may eat their owne dongue, and drinke their owne ‡ pisse with you?
‡ Heb. the water of their feete.
28 And so Rabsaceh stoode, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes language, and spake, saying, Heare the words of the great king, euen of the king of Assyria.
29 Thus saieth the king, Let not Hezecia beguile you, for he shall not be able to deliuer you out of mine hand:
30 Neither let Hezecia make you to trust in the Lorde, saying, The Lord shall surely deliuer vs, and this citie shall not bee giuen ouer into the hande of the king of Assyria.
31 Hearke not vnto Hezecia: for thus sayeth the king of Assyria, Deale kindly with me, and come out to me, and then eate euery man of his owne Vine, and of his owne Figge tree, and drinke euery man of the water of his owne Well, 32 Till I come, and fet you to as good a land as yours is, a land of corne & wine, a land of bread and Vineyardes, a lande of oyle, of Oliue trees, and of honie, that ye may liue, and not die: and hearken not vnto Hezecia, for hee beguileth you, saying, The Lord shall deliuer vs.
33 Hath euery one of the gods of the nations, deliuered his land out of the hande of the king of Assyria?
34 Where is the god of Hamath and of Arphad? and where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena, and Iuah? Did they deliuer Samaria out of mine hand?
35 And what god is among all the gods of the nations, that hath deliuered his lande out of mine hande? d Shall the Lorde deliuer Hierusalem out of mine hande? d An execrable blasphemie to compare dead idols, with the liuing God.
36 But the people held their peace, & answered not him a word: for the king had commanded, saying, Answere him not.
37 Then Eliacim the sonne of Elcia, which was the Steward of the houshold, and Sobna the Scribe, and Joah the sonne of Asaph the Recorder, came to Hezecia with their clothes rent, and told him the wordes of Rabsaceh.

The xix. Chapter.

6 God promiseth Esai victorie to Hezecia.

1 SO it came to passe, *that when king Hezecia heard it, he rent his clothes, Esai. 37.1.
and put on sackcloth, and came into the house of the Lord, 2 And sent Eliacim, which was the Steward of the houshold, and Sobna the Scribe, and the elders of the Priestes, clothed in sacke, to Esai the prophet the sonne of Amos.
3 And they said vnto him, Thus saith Hezecia, This day is a day of tribulation, and of rebuke and blasphemie: for the children are come to the birth, and there is no strength to be deliuered.
4 Peraduenture the Lorde thy God will heare all the words of Rabsaceh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to raile on the liuing God, and to rebuke him with wordes which the Lorde thy God hath heard: and lift thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are left.
5 So the seruants of king Hezecia came to Esai.
6 And Esai said vnto them, So shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the Lord, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the yong men of the king of Assyria haue rayled on me.
7 Behold, *I will send a blast vpon him, Esai. 37.9.
and he shal heare tidings, & so returne to his owne land, and I will bring to passe that he shall fall vpon the sword, euen in his owne lande.
8 And Rabsaceh went backe againe, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libna: for he had heard how that he was departed from Lachis.
9 And when he heard men say of Thirhacah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he departed, and sent messengers vnto Hezecia, saying,
10 Thus speake to Hezecia king of Iuda, saying, Let not thy God deceiue thee, in whom thou trustest, saying, Hierusalem shall not be deliuered into the hand of the king of Assyria.
11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria haue done to all landes, howe they haue vtterly destroyed them: & shalt thou escape?
12 Haue the goddes of the heathen deliuered them which mine auncestors haue destroyed? As Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were in Thelassar?
13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, the king of the citie of Sepharnaim, and of Hena, and Iua?
14 And Hezecia receiued the letter of the hād of the messengers, & read it: and Hezecia went vp into the house of the Lord, and layd it abroade before the Lord.
15 And Hezecia *prayed before the Lorde, and said, O Lorde God of Israel, which dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth, thou hast made heaue & earth.
a It is the true refuge and succour in all dangers to flee vnto the Lord by earnest prayer, 16 Lorde, bowe downe thine eare, and heare: open Lorde thine eyes, I beseech thee, thee, and ſée: and heare the wordes of Sennacherib which hath ſent this man to raile on the liuing God.

17 Of a trueth, Lord, the kings of Aſſyria haue deſtroyed nations and their lands, 18 And haue ſet fire on their gods: for they were no goddes, but the worke of the hands of man, euen of wood and ſtone: and they deſtroyed them.

19 Nowe therefore, O Lord our God, I beſeech thee, ſaue thou vs out of his hād, that all the kingdomes of the earth may know that thou onely art the Lord God.

20 And Eſai the ſonne of Amos ſent to Hezecia, ſaying, Thus ſaieth the Lorde God of Iſrael, That which thou haſt praied me concerning Sennacherib king of Aſſyria, I haue heard it.

21 This is therfore the word that the Lord hath ſaid of him, b The Virgin, euen the daughter of Sion hath deſpiled thée, and laughed thée to ſcorne O thou king of Aſſyria, the daughter of Hieruſalem hath ſhaken her head at thée.

b Hieruſalem is called Virgin, becauſe as yet it had not bene taken by the enemie.

22 Whom haſt thou railed on? and whom haſt thou blaſphemed? Againſt whom haſt thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes ſo high? euen againſt the holy one of Iſrael.

23 By the hande of thy meſſengers thou haſt railed on the Lord, and ſaid, With the multitude of my charets, I am come vp to the toppes of the mountaines, along by the ſides of Libanon, & I will cut downe the high Cedar trées, & the luſtie Firre trées thereof: and I will go into the lodging of his borders, & into the wood of his Carmel.

24 I haue digged and dronke ſtrange waters: and with the ſteppe of my going will I drie all the water pooles that are beſieged.

25 Haſt thou not heard how I haue ordeined ſuch a thing a great while agoe, and haue prepared it from the beginning? And ſhall I not now bring it forth, that it may deſtroy and bring ſtrong cities into waſte heapes of ſtones?

26 And the inhabiters of them ſhall be of litle power, and faint hearted, and confounded, and ſhall be like the graſſe of the field, or greene herbe, or as the hay on the tops of the houſes, or as the corne that is vnripe, and ſmitten with blaſting.

27 I know thy dwelling, thy cōming out, and thy going in, & thy furp againſt me.

28 And becauſe thou rageſt againſt me, & thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I will put my hooke in thy noſtrels, & my bit in thy lips, & I will bring thée backe againe the ſame way thou cameſt.

29 And this ſhall be a ſigne vnto thée, O Hezecia, Ye ſhall eate this yeere of ſuch things as growe of themſelues, and the next yeere ſuch as come vp of thoſe that did growe of their owne accorde, and the thirde yeere ſowe yée and reape, plant Vineyardes, and eate the fruites thereof.

30 And it that is eſcaped and left of the daughter of Iuda, ſhall yet againe take rooting downeward, and beare fruite vpward.

31 For out of Hieruſalem ſhall goe a remnant and a number that ſhall eſcape out of mount Sion: the zeale of the Lorde of hoſtes ſhall bring this thing to paſſe.

32 Wherefore thus ſaieth the Lord concerning the king of Aſſyria, Ye ſhall not come to this citie, nor ſhoote an arrow into it, nor come before it with ſhield, nor caſt a banke againſt it:

33 But ſhall go backe againe the way hée came, and ſhall not come into this citie, ſaieth the Lord.

34 For I will defend this citie, to ſaue it, for mine owne ſake, and for Dauid my ſeruants ſake.

35 And the ſelfe ſame night the * angell of the Lord went out, & ſmote in the hoſt of the Aſſyrians an hundred foureſcore and fiue thouſand: and when the remnant were vp early in the morning, behold, they were all dead coarſes.

*Tob.1.21.

36 And ſo Sennacherib king of Aſſyria departed, and went againe and dwelt at Ninme.

c This was the iuſt iudgement of God for his blaſphemie, that he ſhould be ſlaine before that idol which hee preferred before the liuing God: and by them by whom he ought by nature to haue bene defended.

37 And as hee was in a temple worſhipping Niſroch his god, Adramelech and Sarezar his owne ſonnes c ſmote him with the ſworde: and they eſcaped into the land of Armenia, and Aſarhaddon his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Hezecia being ſicke, 7 receiueth the ſigne of his health.

IN * that time was Hezecia ſicke vnto death: & the prophet Eſai the ſonne of Amos came to him, & ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Put thine houſhold in an order, for thou ſhalt die, and not liue.

*2.Chro.32.24. eſai.38.1.

2 And Hezecia turned his face to the wal, and prayed vnto the Lord, ſaying, 3 I beſeech thée, O Lord, remember now how I haue walked before thée in truth, and with a perfect heart, and haue done that which is good in thy ſight: And Hezecia wept ſore.

4 And afore Eſai was gone out into the middle of the court, the word of the Lord came to him, ſaying,

5 Turne againe & tel Hezecia the captaine of my people, Thus ſaith the Lorde God of Dauid thy father, a I haue heard thy prayer, and ſeene thy teares, & behold, I will heale thée, ſo þ on the third day thou ſhalt go vp vnto the houſe of the Lord:

a God is moued with true prayer and vnfaigned repentance.

6 And I will adde vnto thy daies yet fiftene yeeres, & I will deliuer thée & this citie out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria, & wil defend this citie, for mine own ſake, and for Dauid my ſeruants ſake.

7 And Eſai ſaid, Take a lumpe of dryed figges. And they tooke and laide it on the ſore, and he recouered.

8 And Hezecia ſaid vnto Eſai, What ſhal be the ſigne that the Lord will heale me, and that I ſhall goe vp into the houſe of the Lord the third day?

9 Esai answered, This signe shalt thou haue of the Lorde, that the Lorde will doe that he hath spoken: shall the shadowe goe forwarde ten degrees? or goe backe againe ten degrees?

10 Hezecia answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go downe ten degrees, I desire not that: but let the shadowe go backwarde ten degrees.

11 And Esai the Prophet called vnto the Lord, and he brought the shadowe tenne degrees backwarde, by which it had gone downe in the Dial of Achaz.

Esai.39.1. 12 The same season * Berodach Baladan, the sonne of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters & a present vnto Hezecia: for he had heard howe that Hezecia was sicke.

‡Heb. heard them. 13 And Hezecia ‡ was glad of them, and shewed them all his treasure house, siluer, golde, odours, precious ointment, all the house of his armorie, and all that was founde in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, & in all his realme, that Hezecia shewed them not.

14 And Esai the Prophet came vnto king Hezecia, and said vnto him, What saide these men? and from whence came they vnto thee? And Hezecia sayde, They be come from a farre countrie, euen fro Babylon.

15 And he saide againe, What haue they seene in thine house? Hezecia answered, All the things that are in my house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed them.

16 And Esai said vnto Hezecia, Heare the word of the Lord.

17 Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and whatsoeuer thy fathers haue laide vp in store vnto this Iere.20.27. day, shalbe caried into Babylon: * and nothing shalbe left, saith the Lord.

18 And of thy sonnes that shall procéede out of thée, and which thou shalt beget, shall they take away, and they shall bee chamberlaines in the palace of the king of Babylon.

b He humbleth himselfe vnto the word of the prophet. 19 And Hezecia sayde vnto Esai, b Welcome be the word of the Lord, which thou hast spoken. And he said, Shall there not be peace and trueth in my daies?

20 The remnant of the woordes that concerne Hezecia, and all his power, and howe he made a poole and a conduite, & brought water into the citie, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

21 And Hezecia slept with his fathers, & Manasse his sonne reigned in his steade.

The xxi. Chapter.

3 King Manasse restoreth idolatrie, 16 and vseth great cruelte.

2.Chro.33.1. 1 MAnasse was * twelue yeeres olde when hée began to raigne, and reigned fiftie and fiue yeeres in Hierusalé: his mothers name also was Hephziba.

2 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, euen after the abominations of the heathen, whome the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he went and built vp the high places, which Hezecia his father had destroyed, and he reared vp altars for Baal, and made grones, as did Achab king of Israel, and worshipped all the host of heauen, and serued them.

4 * And he built altars in the house of the Lorde, of which the Lord said, In Hierusalem will I put my name. 2.Sam.7.10. iere.32.34.

5 * And he built altars for all the host of heauen, euen in two courtes of the house of the Lord. Chap.16.3.

6 And he offered his owne sonne in fire, and gaue heede vnto witchcrafte & sorcerie, and maintened workers with spirits, and tellers of fortunes, & wrought much wickednesse in þ sight of the Lord, to anger him.

7 * And he put an image of a grone that he had made, in the temple, of which the Lorde saide to Dauid and Solomon his sonne, In this house, and in Hierusalé, which I haue chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for euer, 3.King.9.3.

8 Neither will I make the féete of Israel moue any more out of the lande which I gaue their fathers: so that they will obserue and doe al that I haue commanded them, and according to all the lawe, that my seruaunt Moses commanded them.

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasse led them out of the way, to doe more wickedly then did the heathen people, whome the Lorde destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the Lorde spake by his seruantes the Prophets, saying,

11 * Because Manasse king of Juda hath done such abominations, and hath wrought more wickedly the all þ Amorites which were before him did, & hath made Juda sinne also with his idols: Iere.15.4.

12 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Beholde, I will bring such euill vpon Hierusalem and Juda, that who so heareth of it, both his eares shall ‡ tingle. ‡Be astonished.

13 And I will stretche ouer Hierusalem the squaring line of a Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Achab: and I will wipe out Hierusalem, as a man wipeth a dish, and when he hath wiped it, turneth it vpside downe. a As I haue destroyed Samaria and the house of Achab: so will I destroy Juda.

14 And I will leaue the b remnãt of mine inheritance, & deliuer them into the hand of their enemies, & they shalbe robbed & spoyled of all their aduersaries: b Meaning, Juda & Beniamin.

15 Because they haue done euill in my sight, and haue angred me since the time their fathers came out of Egypt, vnto this day.

16 And Manasse c shed innocent blood exceeding much, till he replenished Hierusalem from corner-to corner, beside his sinne wherwith he made Juda to sinne, and to doe euill in the sight of the Lord. c The Hebrues write that he slue Esaias the prophet.

17 The rest of the woordes that concerne Manasse,

Manasse, and all that hee did, and his sinne that he sinned, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of þ kings of Juda?

18 And Manasse slept with his fathers, & was buried in the garden of his owne house, euen in the garden of Oza, and Amon his sonne reigned in his steade.

19 Amon was twentie and two yeeres olde when he began to reigne, & he reigned two yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Harus of Iotbah.

20 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, as his father Manasse did:

21 And walked in all the way that his father walked in, and serued the idols that his father serued, and worshipped them:

22 And he forsoke the Lord God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord.

23 And the seruants of Amon conspired against him, and slue the king in his own house.

24 And the people of the lande slue all them that had conspired against king Amon, and the people made Iosia his sonne king in his steade.

25 The rest of the wordes that concerne Amon, what things he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

‖ Or, he (to wit Iosia his sonne.)

26 And ‖ they buried him in his sepulchre, in the garden of Oza, and Iosia his sonne reigned in his steade.

The xxii. Chapter.

4 Iosia repayreth the Temple. 8 Helcia findeth the booke of the lawe, and causeth it to be presented to Iosia, 14 who sendeth to Hulda the prophetisse to enquire the Lordes will.

1 IOsia was eight yeeres olde when hee began to raigne, * and he reigned thirtie and one yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Iedida, the daughter of Adaia of Bostcath.

* 2.Chro. 34.1.

2 He did that which is right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the wayes of Dauid his father, and a bowed neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

a His zeale was prophecied of, and his name mentioned by Iddo the prophet, more then three hundred yeeres before, 1.King. 13. and being but eight yeeres olde, he sought the God of his father Dauid, 2.Chro. 3.

3 And in the eightéene yeere of the reigne of king Iosia, the king sent Saphan the sonne of Malia, the sonne of Meshulam the Scribe, to the house of the Lord, saying,

4 Goe vp to Helcia the high Priest, that hee may summe the siluer which is brought into the house of þ Lorde, which the keepers of the porche haue gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliuer it into the hand of them that doe the worke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lorde: & let them giue it to them that worke in the house of the Lorde, to repaire the decaied places of the temple.

6 Euen vnto carpenters and masons, & workers vpon the walles, and for to buy timber & free stone, to repaire the temple.

7 Howbeit, let no reckoning bee made with them, of the money that is deliuered into their hande, but let them doe it vpon trust.

8 And Helcia the high Priest saide vnto Saphan the Scribe, b I haue found the booke of the law in the house of the Lord. And Helcia gaue the booke to Saphan, and he read it.

b This was the copie that Moses left them, as appeareth, 2. Chro. 34. which eyther by the negligence of the priestes had bene lost or els by the wickednesse of idolatrous kings had bene abolished, ‡ Heb. melted.

9 And Saphan the Scribe came to the king, and brought him worde againe, & sayd, Thy seruants haue ‡ gathered the money that was founde in the Temple, and haue deliuered it vnto them that doe the worke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord.

10 And Saphan the Scribe shewed the king, saying, Helcia the Priest hath deliuered me a booke: and Saphan read it before the king.

11 And when the king had heard þ wordes of the booke of the lawe, hee rent his clothes.

12 And the king commaunded Helcia the priest, and Ahicam the sonne of Saphã, and Achbor the sonne of Michaia, and Saphan the Scribe, and Asahia a seruant of the kings, saying,

13 Goe ye, and enquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Juda, concerning the wordes of this booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against vs, because our fathers haue not hearkened vnto the wordes of this booke, to doe according vnto all that which is written therein for vs.

14 So Helcia the high Priest, and Ahicam, Achbor, and Saphan, and Asahia, went vnto Hulda the prophetesse, the wife of Sallum the sonne of Thicua, the sonne of Harhas, keeper of þ wardrobe: (which prophetesse dwelt in Hierusalem in the c house of the doctrine) and they communed with her.

c Or the College which was neare to the temple, & where the learned assembled to intreate of the scriptures and doctrine of the prophets.

15 And she answered them, Thus sayeth the Lorde God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saieth the Lord, Beholde, I will bring euill vpon this place, and on the inhabiters thereof, euen all the wordes of the booke which the king of Juda hath read:

17 Because they haue forsaken mee, and haue burnt incense vnto other goddes, to anger me withall, the d works of their handes: my wrath also shalbe kindled against this place, and shall not bee quenched.

d The workes of mans hand here signifieth all that man inuenteth beside the word of God, which are abominable in Gods seruice.

18 But to the king of Juda, which sent you to aske counsell of the Lorde, so shall ye say, Thus sayeth the Lord God of Israel, as touching the wordes which þ haue heard:

19 Because thine heart did e melt, and because thou hast humbled thy selfe before þ Lord, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabiters of the same, howe that they should be destroyed and accursed: and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before mee, I also haue heard it, saith the Lord.

e Meaning, that he did repent.

20 Beholde therefore, I will receiue thee vnto vnto thy fathers, and thou shalt be put into thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the euill, which I will bring vpon this place. And they brought the king word againe.

The xxiii. Chapter.

Iosias readeth the lawe before the people. 3 He maketh a couenant with the Lorde. 4 He putteth downe the idols after he had killed their priests. 22 He keepeth the Passeouer. 24 He destroyeth the Coniurers. 29 He was killed in Megiddo. 30 And his sonne Ioachas reigned in his steade. 33 After he was taken, his sonne Ioachim was made king.

1 And then the king sent, * and there gathered vnto him all the elders of Iuda and of Hierusalem.

2.Chro.34.30.

2 And the king went vp into the house of the Lorde, with all the men of Iuda, and all the inhabiters of Hierusalem, with the priests and prophets, and all the people both small & great: and he read in the eares of them all, the wordes of the booke of the couenant which was found in the house of the Lord.

3 And the king a stode by a pillar, & made a couenant before the Lorde, that they should walke after the Lorde, and keepe his commandements, his witnesses, and his statutes, with all their heart, and all their soule, and make good the wordes of the sayd couenant, that were written in the foresayde booke: and all the people consented to the conenant.

a Where the king had his place, 2.King.11.

4 b And the king commanded Helcia the high priest, and the inferiour priests, and the ‖ keepers of the ornamentes, to bring out of the temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, for the groues, & for all the host of heauen: and he burnt them without Hierusalem in the fields of Cedron, and caried the ashes of them vnto Bethel.

b King Iosias zealoully purgeth the temple of God, and destroyeth all the monuments of idolatrie and superstition.

‖ Or, dore keepers.

5 And he put downe the priests of Baal whom the kings of Iuda had founded to burne incense in the high places and cities of Iuda that were rounde about Hierusalem, and also them that burnt incense vnto Baal, to the sunne, to the moone, to the planets, and to all the host of heauen.

c Heremoued that groue which idolaters for deuotion had planted neare to the temple, contrary to the commandement of the Lord, Deut. 16. or as some reade, the similitude of a groue which was hanged in the temple.

6 And he brought out the groue from the temple of the Lord, without Hierusalem, vnto the booke Cedron, & burnt it there at the booke Cedron, and stampt it to pouder, & cast the dust thereof vpon the d graues of the children of the people.

d Both in contempt of the idols, and reproch of them which had worshipped them in their liues.

7 And he brake downe the celles of the male strewes that were by the house of the Lord, where the women woue hangings for the groue.

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Iuda, & defiled the high places where the priests had burnt incense, euen from Geba to Beersheba, and destroyed the high places of the gates that were in the entring in of the gate of Iosua the gouernour of the citie, which were on the left hand as a man goeth in to the gate of the citie.

9 * Neuertheless, the priests of the high places came not vp to the altar of the Lorde in Hierusalem, saue only they did eate of the vnleuen bread among their brethren.

e Iosias thought not meete that those priestes which had serued idols, should be ministers in the temple of God, Ierem. 7.

10 And he defiled Thopheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, because no man should offer his sonne or his daughter in fire to Moloch.

11 He put downe the horses that the kings of Iuda had giuen to the sunne, at the entring in of the house of the Lorde, by the chamber of Nathanmelech the chamberlaine, which was ruler of the suburbs, and burnt the charets of the sunne with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the parlour of Achaz, which the kings of Iuda had made, and the altars which Manasse had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord, did the king breake downe, and ran thence, and cast the dust of them into the booke Cedron.

13 And the high places that were before Hierusalem, on the right hande of the mount e Olinet, * which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Astaroth, the abomination of the Sidons, and for Chamos, the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milchom, the abomination of the children of Ammon, those the king defiled:

e A mount that was full of Idols. 3.King.11.7.

14 And brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 * Moreouer, the altar that was at Bethel, the high places made by Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel sinne, both the altar and also the high place he brake downe, and burnt the high place, and stampt it to pouder, and burnt the groue.

3.King.12.28.

16 And as Iosia turned himselfe, he spied the graues that were in the mount, and sent and fet the bones out of the graues, and burnt them vpon the altar, to pollute it, according to the word of the Lord that the man of God proclaimed, which tolde the same wordes.

17 Then he saide, What title is that that I see? and the men of the citie tolde him, * It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Iuda, and tolde the selfe same things that thou hast done to the altar of Bethel.

3.King.13.2.

18 And he said, Let him alone: see that no man moue his bones. And so his bones were saued, with the bones of a prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria, which the king of Israel had made to anger the Lorde withall, those Iosia put out of the way, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel.

20 And he sacrificed all the priests of the high places that were there, vpon the altars, & burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Hierusalem.

21 * And the king commaunded all the people,

people, saying, Kepe the feast of Passeouer vnto the Lorde your God, as it is written in the booke of this couenant.

22 There was no Passeouer holden like that, from the dayes of the iudges þ iudged Israel, and in all the dayes of the kings of Israel, & of the kings of Iuda.

23 In the eightéene yéere of king Iosia, was this Passeouer holden to the Lorde in Hierusalem.

24 And moreouer, workers with spirits, & soothsayers, images, idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the lande of Iuda, & in Hierusalem, those did Iosia put out of the way, to performme the wordes of the lawe, which were written in the booke that Helchia the priest found in the house of the Lord.

25 Like vnto him was there no king before him, that turned to the Lorde with all his heart, with all his soule, and all his might, according to all the lawe of Moses, neither after him arose there any such as he.

26 Notwithstanding, the Lord turned not from the fiercenes of his great wrath, wherewith he was angry against Iuda, because of all the prouocations that Manasse had prouoked him withall.

27 And the Lord said, I will put Iuda also out of my sight, as I haue done away Israel, & will cast off this citie Hierusalē, which I haue chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shalbe there.

28 The rest of the wordes that concerne Iosia, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

2. Chro. 35. 20. 29 * And in his dayes Pharao Necho king of Egypt, went vp against the king of Assyria to the riuer of Euphrates: and king Iosia went against him, and was slaine of him at Megiddo, when he had seene him.

30 And his seruantes carried him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Hierusalem, and buried him in his owne sepulchre: * and the people of the lande tooke Ioachas the sonne of Iosia, and anointed him, and made him king in his fathers steade. b. Chro. 36. 1.

31 Ioachas was twentie and thrée yeres olde when he began to reigne, and reigned thrée monethes in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Hamital, the daughter of Jeremia, of Libna.

32 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, according to all things as his fathers had done.

33 And Pharao Necho put him in bonds at Ribla in the land of Hamath, while he reigned in Hierusalem, and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talentes of siluer, and a talent of gold.

34 And Pharao Necho made Eliacim the sonne of Iosia king, in the roome of Iosia his father, and turned his name to Ioacim, & tooke Ioachas away: which when he came to Egypt, died there.

35 And Ioacim gaue the siluer and the golde to Pharao, and taxed the lande, to giue the money, according to the commandement of Pharao: requiring of euery man according to their ability, siluer and gold, euen of the people of the lande, to giue vnto Pharao Necho.

36 Ioacim was twentie and fiue yéeres old when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yéeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Zebuda, þ daughter of Pedaia of Ruma.

37 And he did that which was euil in the sight of the Lord, according to all things as his fathers had done.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Ioacim made subiect to Nabuchodonosor rebelleth. 5 He and his people are carried to Babylon. 17 Zedecia is made king.

1 In his dayes came Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon vp, and Ioacim became his seruant thrée yéeres: & then turned, and rebelled against him. [Or, Nabuchadnezer,

2 And the Lord sent against him bandes of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Ammonites, and sent them against Iuda, to destroy it, according to the saying of the Lord, which he spake by his seruantes the prophets.

3 Onely at the bidding of the Lorde came this vpon Iuda, to put them out of his sight for þ sinnes of Manasse, according to all that he did,

4 And for the innocent blood that he shed, and filled Hierusalem with innocent blood: and the Lorde would not be reconciled.

5 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ioacim, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

6 And so Ioacim slept with his fathers: and Ioachin his sonne reigned in his steade. a Not that he was buried with his fathers, for he dyed in the way as they caried him prisoner toward Babylon, Ier. 22.

7 And the king of Egypt came no more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the riuer of Egypt, vnto the riuer of Euphrates, all that pertey-ned to the the king of Egypt.

8 Joachin was eightéene yéeres old whe he began to reigne, and reigned in Hierusalem thrée monethes: his mothers name also was Nehusta, the daughter of Elnathan, of Hierusalem.

9 And he did that which was euil in the sight of the Lord, according to all as his father had done.

10 * In that time came the seruants of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon vp, against Hierusalem, and the citie was besieged. Dan. 1. b.

11 And Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came against the citie, and his seruants did besiege it.

12 And Joachin the king of Iuda b came out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother, his seruants, his lordes, and his chamberlaines: and the king of Babylon tooke him in the c eight yéere of his reigne. b That is, he yeelded himself vnto him.

c In the reigne of the king of Babylon.

13 And

13 And he caried out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasure of the kinges house, and brake all the vessels of golde which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lord, as the Lord had said.
14 And hee caried away all Hierusalem, and all the lordes, and all the strong men of warre, euen ten thousand, into captiuitie, and all the craftesmen, and [d] keepers, none remaining, saue the poore cõmon people of the land.
15 * And he caried away Joachin to Babylon, and the kings mother, and the kings wiues, his chamberlaines, and them that were mightie in the lãd, those caried hee away into captiuitie, from Hierusalem, to Babylon.
16 And all the active men of warre, euen seuen thousand, and craftesmẽ, and [e] porters, a thousand, all that were strong & apt for warre, did the king of Babylon bring to Babylon captiue.
17 * And the king of Babylon made Mathania his fathers brother king in his steade, & changed his name to Zedecia.
18 Zedecia was twentie and one yeeres olde when he began to reigne, & he reigned elenen yeeres in Hierusalẽ: his mothers name also was Hamital, ꝑ daughter of Jeremia, of Libna.
19 And he did euill in ꝑ sight of the Lorde, accozding to all as Joachin had done.
20 For the wrath of the Lord was mouned against Hierusalem and Juda, vntill he [f] cast them out of his sight: and Zedecia rebelled against the king of Babylon.

f Out of Hierusalem and Iuda into Babylon.

The xxv. Chapter.

1 Hierusalem is beseged of Nabuchodonosor, and taken. 9 The sonnes of Zedecia are slayne before his eyes, and after, his owne eyes put out.

Jere.39.1. and 52.4.

1 AND in ꝑ ninth yeere of his reigne, the tenth day of the tenth moneth, came Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came, he, & all his hoste, against Hierusalem, and pitched against it, & made engins against it, on euery side.
2 And the citie was beseged vnto the eleuenth yeere of king Zedecia.
3 And the ninth day of the moneth, there was so great a hunger in the citie, that there was no bread for ꝑ people of ꝑ lãd.
4 And the citie was broken vp, and all the men of armes fled by night, by a way through a gate which is betweene two walles by the kings garden (the Chaldees lying about the citie) and the king went the way toward the plaine.
5 And the souldiers of the Chaldees followed after the king, & tooke him in the plaine of Jericho: and all his armie were scattered away from him.
6 So they tooke the king, and brought him to Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, to Ribla, where they gaue iudgement vpon him.
7 And they slue the sonnes of Zedecia before his eyes, and he put out the eyes of Zedecia, and fettered him with chaines, and caried him to Babylon.
8 And the seuenth day of the fifth moneth (which is the nineteenth yeere of king Nabuchodonosor king of Babylõ) came Nabuzaradan, a seruaunt of the king of Babylon, and chiefe captaine of the men of warre, vnto Hierusalem:
9 And burnt the house of the Lorde, and the kings house, and all the houses of Hierusalem, and all great houses burnt he with fire.
10 And all the souldiers of the Chaldees that were with the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, brake downe the walles of Hierusalem round about.
11 But the rest of the people that were left in the citie, and them that were fled to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the comunon people, did Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, carp away.
12 But the captaine of the souldiers left of the poore of the lãd to dresse the vines, and to till the ground.
13 And the pillars of brasse that were in the house of the Lorde, and the sockets, and the brasen lauatorie that was in the house of the Lorde, did the Chaldees breake, and caried al the brasse of them to Babylon.
14 And the pots, shouels, instruments of musicke, spoonkes, and all the vessels of brasse that they ministred in, tooke they away, 15 And the firepannes, and basons, and such things as were of golde & of siluer, them tooke the chiefe captaine away:
16 Euen two pillars, one lauatorie, & the sockets which Solomon had made for the house of the Lorde: the brasse of all these vessels was without weight.
17 * The height of ꝑ one pillar was eighteene cubites, and the pommell thereof was brasse: and the height of the pommel was with weathen worke three cubites, & pomegranates vpon the pommell roũnde about, all of brasse: and of the same fashion was the second pillar, with a wreathen worke. 3.King.7.15. Jere.52.21. 2.chro.3.15.
18 And the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, tooke Saraia the chiefe priest, and Zephonah the high priest saue one, and the three keepers of the holy things:
19 And out of the citie hee tooke a chamberlaine, that had the ouersight of the mẽ of warre, and fiue mẽ of them that were euer in the kings presence, which were founde in the citie, and him that was scribe to the captaine of the hoste, which brought out the people of the lande to warre, & three score men of the people of the land that were found in the citie.
20 And Nabuzaradan the chief captaine of the mẽ of warre, tooke these, & brought them to the king of Babylon, to Ribla.
21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slue them at Ribla in the lãd of Hamath: and so Juda was caried away out of their lande.
22 * Howbeit, there remayned people Jere.40.5.

in the land of Iuda, whome Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon left, and made Gedalia the sonne of Ahicam, the sonne of Saphan, ruler ouer them.

23 And all the captaines of the souldiers, they, and theirs, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedalia gouernour, and there came to Gedalia to Mispah, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, Iohanan the sonne of Carea, Saraia the sonne of Thanhumeth the Netophatite, and Iaazania the sonne of Maachati, they, and their men.

24 And Gedalia sware to them, and to the men whom they had with them, and said unto them, ‖ Feare not ye to be the seruants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serue the king of Babylon, and ye shall be well.

25 But in the seuenth moneth, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, ꝑ sonne of Elisama, of the kings blood, came, and tenne men with him, & smote Gedalia, that he died:

‖ Or, be ye not afrayde of the seruants of the Chaldees.

and so did they the Iewes and the Chaldees that were with him at Mispah.

26 And all the people both small and great, and the captaines of warre, arose, & came to Egypt: for they were afraide of the Chaldees.

27 Notwithstanding, yet in the seuen and thirtieth yeere after Ioachin king of Iuda was caried away, the seuen and twentieth daye of the twelfth moneth, Euilmerodach king of Babylon, the same yeere that he began to raigne, did lift vp the head of Ioachin king of Iuda out of prison,

28 And spake kindely to him, and set his seate aboue the seate of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 29 And changed his prison garmentes, & he did euer eate bread before him all the dayes of his life.

30 His portion was a continuall portion that was alligned him of the king, euery day a certaine, as long as he liued.

43 And smote the rest of the Amalekites that were escaped, and they dwelt there vnto this day.

The v. Chapter.

1 The byrthright taken from Ruben, and giuen to the sonnes of Ioseph. 3 The genealogie of Ruben, 11 and Gad, 23 And of the halfe tribe of Manasse.

1 THe sonnes of Ruben, the eldest sonne of Israel (*for as much as he was the eldest, and had defiled his fathers bed, his byrthright was giuen vnto the sonnes of Ioseph the sonne of Israel: howbeit, the genealogie is not reckoned after his birthright. Gen.35.22. and 49.4.

2 *For Iuda preuayled aboue his brethren, and of his tribe came the chiefe, & the birthright was giuen to Ioseph.) Gen.49.9.

3 * The sonnes then of Ruben the eldest sonne of Israel, were Henoch, Phalu, Ezron, and Charmi. Gen.46.9. exod.6.14.

4 The sonnes of Joel, Samaiah his sonne, Gog his sonne, and Semei his sonne,

5 Micah his sonne, Reaia his sonne, and Baal his sonne,

6 Beera his sonne, whom Thiglath Pilnezer king of Assyria caried away: for he was a great Lord amõg the Rubenites.

7 And when his brethren in their kinreds reckoned the genealogie of their generations, Ieiel and Zachariah were the chiefe.

8 And Bala the sonne of Azan, the sonne of Sema, the sonne of Joel dwelt in Aroer, and so forth vnto Nebo, and Baalmeon.

9 And Eastwarde he inhabited vnto the entring in of the wildernes, from the riuer Euphrates: for they had much cattel in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the dayes of Saul, they warred with the Hagarites, which were ouerthrowen by their hande: and they dwelt in their tentes throughout all the East land of Gilead.

11 And the children of Gad dwelt ouer against them in the lande of Basan, euen vnto Salcha:

12 And in Basan Johel was the chiefest, and Saphan the next: then Janai, and Saphat.

13 And their brethren of the houlholde of their fathers, were Michael, Meshullam, Seba, Jorai, Jachan, Zia, Eber, seuen.

14 These are the children of Abihail the sonne of Huri, the sonne of Jaroah, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Michael, the sonne of Jeshisai, the sonne of Jahdo, the sonne of Buz:

15 Ahi the sonne of Abdiel, the sonne of Guni, was a captaine of the houlholde of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Basan, & in her townes, and in all the suburbes of Saron, and in their borders.

17 And these were reckoned by kinreds, in the dayes of Jotham king of Juda, and in the dayes of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 The sonnes of Ruben, & of Gad, and of the halfe tribe of Manasse, were fighting men, & able to beare shield & sworde, & to shoote in bowe, exercised in warre, euen foure & fourtie thousand, seuen hundred, and three score, that went out to the warre.

19 And they fought with the Hagarites, with Jetur, Nephis, and Nodab.

20 And they were holpen of the Lorde against them, and the Hagarites were deliuered into their hande, and so were all that were with them: for they cryed to God in the battel, and he heard them, because they put their trust in him.

21 And they tooke of their cattel, and of their camels, fiftie thousand, & two hundred, and fiftie thousand sheepe, and two thousande asses, and of the soules of men an hundred thousand.

22 And there fell many wounded, because the warre was of God: And they dwelt in their steades, vntil the time that they were carped away.

23 And the children of the halfe tribe of Manasse dwelt in the land, from Baasan vnto Baal Hermon, & Senir, and vnto mount Hermon, for they were growen to a great multitude.

24 And these were the heades of the houholdes of their fathers: Epher, and Jesi, Eliel, and Azriel, Jeremia, and Hodauia, and Jahdiel, strong men and valiãt, famous men, & heades of the houlholds of their fathers.

25 And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whooring after the gods of the people of the land, whome God destroyed before them.

26 And the God of Israel stirred vp the spirit of Phul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Thiglath Pilneser king of Assyria, and carped them away: euen the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manasse, and brought them vnto Halah, Habor, Hara, & to the riuer Gosan, vnto this day.

39 And the sonnes of Esec his brother, were Ulam his eldest, Jehus the second, and Eliphelet the third.
40 And the sonnes of Ulam were mightie men, and strong archers, and had many sonnes, and sonnes sonnes, an hundred and fiftie: All these are the sonnes of Beniamin.

The ix. Chapter.

1 All Israel and Juda numbred. 10 Of the Priests and Leuites, 11. 18 and of their offices.

1 AND so all Israel was nombred by kinreds, behold, they are written in the booke of the kings of Israel and of Juda, and were caried away to Babylon for their transgression:
2 Euen the olde inhabiters that dwelt in their owne possessions and cities, the Israelites, the Priests, Leuites, and Nathinei.
Nehem.11.1. 3 * And in Hierusalem dwelt of the children of Juda, of the children of Beniamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasse:
4 Vthai the sonne of Ammihud, the sonne of Omri, the sonne of Imri, the sonne of Bani, of the children of Pharez the sonne of Juda.
5 And of Siloni: Asaia the eldest, and his sonnes.
6 And of the sonnes of Zerah, Jehuel, & their brethren sixe hundred and ninetie.
7 And of the sonnes of Benjamin, Salu the sonne of Mesullam, the sonne of Hodauia, the sonne of Asana.
8 And Ibneia the sonne of Jeroham, and Ela the sonne of Vzi, the sonne of Michri: and Mesullam the sonne of Sephatia, the sonne of Reuuel, the sonne of Ibnia.
9 And their brethren, according to their kinreds, nine hundred, fiftie and sixe: All these were principall men, and auncient in the houses of their fathers.
10 And of the Priestes: Jedaia, Jehoiarib, and Jachin, 11 Azaria the sonne of Elcia, the sonne of Mesullam, the sonne of Sadoc, the sonne of Maraioth, the sonne of Ahitob, the chiefest in the house of God.
12 And Adaiah the sonne of Jeroham, the sonne of Phashur, the sonne of Melchia: & Maasi the sonne of Adiel, the sonne of Jezezrah, the sonne of Mesullam, the sonne of Mesillamith, the sonne of Immer.
13 And their brethren which were heads of the ancient houses of their fathers, a thousand seuen hundred and threescore, active men for the worke of the seruice of the house of God.
14 And of the Leuites, Semeia the sonne of Hasub, the sonne of Azricam, the sonne of Hasabia, of the sonnes of Merari.
15 And Backbakar Heres, and Galal: and Mathania the sonne of Micah, the sonne of Zicri, the sonne of Asaph.
16 And Obadia the sonne of Semeia, the sonne of Galal, the sonne of Idithun: and Berechia the sonne of Asa, the sonne of Elcana, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.
17 The porters were Sallum, Accub, Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brother: Sallum was the chiefe.
18 For they watched hitherto, euen vnto the kings gate Eastwardeby course, of the children of Leui.
19 And Sallum the sonne of Core, the sonne of Abiasaph, the sonne of Corah, and his brethren, the Corathites of the house of their father, had their businesse and office to keepe the porches of the tabernacle: and their fathers being ouer the hoste of the Lorde kept the entring.
20 And Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar was their foreguide, and the Lorde was with him.
21 And Zacharia the sonne of Meselemia, kept the watch before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.
22 All these were chosen men to keepe the threesholdes, euen two hundred and twelue: and thorowout all the genealogie were they numbred in their villages: and them did Dauid and Samuel the Seer institute, ‖ because of their fidelitie.
23 So they and their children had the ouersight of the gates of the house of the Lorde, euen of the tabernacle, ‖ to keepe them.
24 In foure quarters did they keepe the watch: toward the East, West, North, & South.
25 And their brethren remained in the countrey, and came after seuen dayes from time to time with them.
26 For the Leuites which had the ouersight of the vestries and treasures of the house of God, were vnder the custodie of foure notable porters.
27 And they lay round about the house of God, because the keeping thereof pertained to them, and they had the charge to open it euery morning.
28 And certaine of them had the rule of the ministring vessels, and brought them in and out by tale.
29 Some of them were appointed to ouersee the vessels, and all the ornaments of the sanctuarie, and the floure, wine, oyle, frankincense, and sweete odours.
30 And certaine of the sonnes of the Priestes made ointments of the sweete odours.
31 And Mathathia one of the Leuites (which was the eldest sonne of Sallum the Corathite) had the ouersight of the things that were made in the frying panne.
32 And other of their brethren the sonnes of Caath, had the ouersight of the shewe breade, which they prepared euery Sabboth.

33 These

33 These are the singers, euen ancient fathers of the Leuites, which dwelt in separate chambers, & were free: for they had to doe in the temple both day and night.
34 These were ancient fathers of the Le-uites in their generations, and dwelt at Hierusalem.
35 And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gi-beon, Iehiel, whose wife was called Maacha.
36 His eldest sonne was Abdon, then Zur,
Cis, Baal, Ner, and Nadab, 37 Gedor, Ahio, Zacharia, and Micloth, 38 And Micloth begate Simeam: & they also dwelt with their brethren at Hieru-salem, euen hard by them.
39 *And Ner begate Cis, and Cis begate 1.Sam.8.33.
Saul, and Saul begate Jonathan, Mal-chisua, Abinadab, and Eshaal.
40 And the sonne of Jonathan, was Meribbaal: and Meribbaal begate Michah.
41 And the sonnes of Michah, were Pithon, Melech, and Thahrea.
42 And Ahaz begate Jahra, Jahra begate Alameth, and Azmaueth, and Zimri, Zimri begate Moza, 43 Moza begate Benea, whose sonne was Rephaia, and his sonne was Elasa, and his sonne Azel.
44 And Azel had sixe sonnes, whose names are these: Azricam, Bochru, Ismael, Searia, Obadia, and Hanan: These are the sonnes of Azel.

The x. Chapter.

1 The battell of Saul against the Philistines 4 In which he dieth. 5 And his sonnes also. 13 The cause of Sauls death.

1 AND *the Philistines fought a- 1.Sam.31.1. gainst Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, & were ouerthrowen and wounded in mount Gilboa.
2 And the Philistines followed after Saul and his sonnes, & the Philistines smote Jonathan and Abinadab, and Malchi-sua, the sonnes of Saul.
3 And the battel went sore against Saul, Or, hit him and the archers ‖found him, and he was wounded of the archers.
4 Then said Saul to his harnesse bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therwith, that these vncircumcised come not and do me shame. But his harnesse bearer would not, for he feared excesdingly: So Saul caught a sworde, and fell vpon it.
5 And when his harnesse bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell on a sworde also and died, 6 And thus Saul and his three sonnes, and all they of his house, died together.
7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley, saw howe they fled, and that Saul & his sonnes were dead, they forsoke their cities, and ranne away: and the Philistines came & dwelt in them.
8 And on the morowe when the Philistines came to stripp the dead bodies, they founde Saul and his sonnes ouerthrown in mount Gilboa.
9 And when they had stript him, they tooke his head and his harnesse, and sent them into the lande of the Philistines round about, to shewe them vnto their idoles, and to the people.
10 And they put his harnesse in the house

vnto Dauid the sonne of Jsai.

The xi. Chapter.

5 The Iebusites rebell against Dauid, from whom he taketh the towre of Sion.

1 THen all *Israel gathered themselues 2.King.5.1.
to Dauid vnto Hebron, saying, 2 Behold, we be thy bones, and thy flesh: and moreouer in time past euen when Saul was king, thou leddest Israel out and in: and the Lorde thy God said vnto thee, Thou shalt feede my people Israel, and thou shalt be captaine ouer my people Israel.
3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron, and Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they anoynted Dauid king ouer Israel, according to the worde of the Lord, by the hand of Samuel.
4 And Dauid and all Israel went to Hierusalem, (which is Jebus, where as were the Jebusites, the inhabiters of the lande.)
5 And the inhabiters of Jebus saide to Dauid, Thou comest not in here. Neuer-theles, Dauid wanne the Castle of Sion, which is called the citie of Dauid.
6 And Dauid saide, Whosoeuer smiteth the Jebusites first, shall be the principall captaine, and a lord. So Joab the sonne of Zeruia went first vp, and was made the chiefe captaine.
7 And Dauid dwelt in the castle of Sion, & therefore they called it the citie of Dauid.
8 And he built the citie on euery side, euen from Millo, round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the citie.
9 And Dauid prospered, and waxed great, and the Lord of hostes was with him.
10 *These are the principall men of power 2.Sam.23.8.
whom Dauid had, and that claue to him in his kingdome, with al Israel, to make him king, according to the worde of the Lord ouer Israel.
11 And this is the number of the mightie men

men whom Dauid had: Iasobeam the sonne of Hachmoni, the chiefe among thirtie: he lift vp his speare against three hundred, and wounded them at one time.

12 After him was Eleazar the sonne of Dodi, an Ahohite, which was one of the three mightiest.

13 He was with Dauid at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battel: and there was there a parcell of ground full of barley, and the people fled before the Philistines.

14 And they stept forth into the middest of the field, & saued it, & slue the Philistines, *and the Lord gaue a great victorie.

15 And the three of the thirtie chiefe captaines, went to a rock, to Dauid, into the caue Adullam: and the host of the Philistines abode in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And when Dauid was in the holde, the Philistines watch was at Bethlehem that same time.

17 And Dauid longed, and saide, Oh that one would giue me drinke of the water of the wel that is at the gate at Bethlehem.

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, & drew water out of the wel that was by the gate at Bethlehem, and tooke it, & brought it to Dauid: Nertheleſſe, Dauid would not drinke of it, but rather offered it to the Lord.

19 And said, My God forbid it me that I should do this thing: Shall I drinke the [a] blood of these men, that haue put their liues in ieopardie? for with the iopardy of their liues they brought it: therefore hee would not drinke it. And this did these three mightiest.

20 And Abisai the brother of Ioab, he also was captaine among three: For hee lift vp his speare against three hundred, and wounded them, and had a name among the three.

21 Yea among three, he was more honourable then the two, for he was their captaine, howbeit, he attained not to the first three.

22 Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada, the sonne of a verie strong man, which had done many actes, of Cabzeel, hee slewe two strong ‖ Lions of Moab, and went downe, and slewe a Lion in a pit in time of snowe.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, whose stature was fiue cubites long, and in the Egyptians hand was a speare like a weauers beame: and he went downe to him with a waster, and pluckt the speare out of the Egyptians hande, and slew him with his owne speare.

24 Such things did Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada, and had the name among the three mightiest.

25 And was honourable among thirtie, but attained not to the first three: and Dauid made him of his counsell.

26 The other men of armes were these, Asahel the brother of Ioab, Elhanan his vncles sonne, of Bethlehem:

27 Shammoth the Harodite, Helez the Pelonite,

28 Ira the sonne of Ikes the Thecoite, Abiezer the Anathothite, 29 Sibbecai the Husathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the sonne of Baana the Netophathite, 31 Ithai the sonne of Ribai of Gibea, that pertained to the children of Beniamin, Banaia the Pirathonite, 32 Hurai of the riuers of Gaas, Abiel the Arbathite,

33 Azmaueth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

34 The sonnes of Hashem the Gezonite: Ionathan the sonne of Sage, an Hararite, 35 Ahiam the sonne of Sachar the Hararite, Eliphal the sonne of Ur.

36 Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahia the Pelonite,

37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the sonne of Ezbai,

38 Ioel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the sonne of Agarai,

39 Zelec the Ammonite, Naharai a Berothite, the bearer of the harnesse of Ioab the sonne of Zaruia, 40 Ira the Ithrite, & Gareb a Gethrite,

41 Uria the Hethite, and Zabad the sonne of Ahlai, 42 Adina the sonne of Siza a Rubenite, a captaine of the Rubenites, and thirtie with him.

43 Hanan the sonne of Maacah, and Iosaphat a Mithnite, 44 Uzia an Asherathite, Sama, & Iehiel, the sonnes of Hotham, an Aroerite:

45 Iediel the sonne of Zimri, and Joha his brother, a Thosaite, 46 Eliel a Mahanite, Ieribai, and Iosaia the sonnes of Elnaan, and Ithma a Moabite, 47 Eliel and Obed, and Iasiel a Mesobaite.

The xii. Chapter.

1 What they were that went with Dauid when hee fledde from Saul. 23 What they were that came to him vnto Hebron out of euery tribe, to make him king.

1 These are they that came to Dauid to Ziclag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the sonne of Cis: and they were verie strong helpers in battell.

2 They were weaponed with bowes, and could hurle stones with the right hande, and with the left, and shoote arowes out of a bowe, and were of Sauls brethren, euen of Beniamin.

3 The chiefest were Ahiezer and Ioas the sonnes of Samaa a Gibeonite, and Iesiel and Pelet the sonnes of Azmaueth, and Beracah, & Iehu the Anathothite,

4 And Ismaia a Gibeonite, a mightie man among thirtie, and more then the thirtie: Jeremia, Jahaziel, Iohanan, and Iosabad of Gedor, 5 Elenzai, Jerimoth, Bealia, Semaria, and Saphatia, the Haruphite.

6 Elcana, Iesia, Azarael, Joezer, Jos-beam, Corahites.
7 Joela and Zebadiah the ſonnes of Je-roam of Gedor.
8 And of the Gadites there ſeparated them ſelues, ſome vnto Dauid vnto the holde of the wildernesse, men of might, and men apt for the warre, and that could handle ſhielde and ſpeare, whoſe faces were like the faces of a Lions, and they were as ſwift as the Roes in the mountaines.
a Meaning, fierce and terrible.
9 Ezer the firſt, Obadia the ſeconde, and Eliab the thirde,
10 Mismana the fourth, Jeremia the fifth,
11 Attai the ſixth, Eliel the ſeuenth,
12 Johanan the eight, Elzabad the ninth, 13 Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbanai the eleuenth.
14 Theſe were of the ſonnes of Gad, and were captaines ouer the men of warre:
one of the leaſt could reſiſt an hundred, & the greateſt a thouſand.
15 Theſe are they that went ouer Jordane in the b firſt moneth, when he had filled ouer all his bankes, & they put to flight all them of the valley, both toward the East and West.
b March, 16 And there came of the children of Beniamin and Juda, to the holde vnto Dauid.
17 And Dauid went out to mete them, & answered, and ſaid vnto them, If ye become peaceably vnto me, to helpe mee, mine heart ſhalbe knit vnto you; but if ye come to betrap me to mine aduerſa-ries, ſeeing there is no wickednesse in mine handes, the God of our fathers looke thereon, and rebuke it.
18 And the c ſpirite came vpon Amaſai, which was the chief among thirtie, and ſayde, Thine are wee Dauid, and on thy ſide, thou ſonne of Iſai: Peace, peace be vnto thee, and peace be to thy helpers, for thy God is thy helpe. Then Dauid receiued them, and made them heades of companies of the men of warre.
c The ſpirite of boldneſſe, 19 And there fell ſome of Manaſſe to Da-uid, when he came with the Philiſtines againſt Saul to battell, but they helped them not: for the lordes of the Phili-ſtines tooke aduiſement, and ſent him awap againe, ſaying, * He will fall to his maſter Saul, to the ieopardie of our heads.
* 1. Sam. 29. 4.
20 As he went to Ziclag, there fell to him of Manaſſe, Adna, Jozabad, Je-diel, Michael, Jozabad, Eliihu, and Zilthai, heads of the thouſands that were of Manaſſe.
21 And they holpe Dauid againſt d the rouers: for they were all mighty men of warre, and captaines in the hoſt.
d The Amalechites, which had burned the citie Ziclag.
22 For at that time there came one or other to Dauid, day by day to helpe him, vntil it was a great hoſt, like the hoſt of God.
23 And this is the number of the chiefe captaines that were prepared to battell, and came to Dauid to Hebron, to turne the kingdome of Saul to him, according to the worde of the Lord.
24 The children of Juda that bare ſhielde and ſpeare, were ſixe thouſand, and eight hundred, ready prepared to the warre.
25 Of the children of Simeon, men of might to warre, ſeuē thouſand, and one hundred.
26 Of the children of Leui, foure thouſand and ſixe hundred.
27 And Jehoiada was the chiefe of them of e Aaron, and with him three thouſand and ſeuen hundred.
e Of the Leuites which came by diſcent of Aaron.
28 And Zadoc a yong man, ſtrong and valiant, and of his fathers houſholde twentie and two captaines.
29 And of the children of Beniamin the brethren of Saul, three thouſand: and a great part of them did vnto that time followe the houſe of Saul.
30 And of the children of Ephraim, twen-tie thouſand and eight hundred, mightie men of warre, and famous men in the houſholde of their fathers.
31 And of the halfe tribe of Manaſſe, eigh-teene thouſand, which were appointed by name, to come, & make Dauid king.
32 And of the children of Iſachar, which were men that had vnderſtanding of the times, to know what Iſrael ought to do, the heads of them were two hundred: & all their brethren were at their will.
33 And of Zabulon, which went out to battell: expert in warre, and in all inſtruments of warre, fiftie thouſand, which could ſet the battell in arap, they were not of double heart.
34 And of Nephthali a thouſande captaines, and with them, with ſhielde and ſpeare thirtie and ſeuen thouſand.
35 And of Dan, expert in battell, twentie & eight thouſand, and ſixe hundred.
36 And of Aſer, that went out to the warre, and kept the forefront of the battell, four-tie thouſand.
37 And of the other ſide of Jordane, of the Rubenites and Gadites, and of the halfe tribe of Manaſſe, with all maner of in-ſtruments of warre, an hundred & twen-tie thouſand.
38 f All theſe were men of warre, keeping the forefront of the battell and with perfect heart came to Hebron to make Da-uid king ouer all Iſrael: and all the reſt of Iſrael was of one accord to make Da-uid king.
f So the whole hoſt were three hundred twenty and two thouſand, two hundred twentie and two.
39 And there they were with Dauid three dayes eating & drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.
40 Moreouer, they that were nigh them, euen vnto Iſachar, Zabulon, & Neph-thali, brought bread on Aſſes, Camels, Mules, & Oxen, & meate, flowre, figges, raiſings, wine, & oyle, Oxen, & Sheepe a hundantly: for there was ioy in Iſrael.

The xiii. Chapter.

The arke is brought againe from Cariath-Iarim to Hieruſalem. 9 Vzzaheth, becauſe he toucheth it.

1 AND Dauid conſulted with the captaines of thouſands & hundreds, & with all the lords,

2 And

2 And saide vnto all the congregation of Israel, If it seeme good to you, and that it be of the Lord our God, we will sende abroade vnto our brethren that are left in all the landes of Israel, and with them also to the Priests & Leuites which are in their suburbes, to gather them together vnto vs:

a His first care was to restore religion.

3 And we will bring againe the a arke of our God to vs: for we regarded it not in the dayes of Saul.

4 And all the congregation was content that he should doe so: for the thing seemed good in the eyes of all the people.

2.Sam.6.2.

5 * So Dauid gathered all Israel together, from b Sihor in Egypt, vnto the entring of Hemath, to bring the arke of the Lord from Ciriath-iarim.

b That is, Nilus.

6 And Dauid went vp, and all Israel, to an high place towarde Ciriath-iarim, that was in Iuda, to fetche thence the Arke of the Lorde God that dwelleth betweene the Cherubims, where his name is called on.

7 And they caried the arke of God in a newe cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Oza & his ‖ brother guided the cart.

‖ Or, Abio.

8 And Dauid and all Israel, played before the arke of God with all their might, with singing, and Harpes, Psalteries, and Timbrels, and Cimbales, and Trumpets.

9 And when they came vnto d threshing floore of Chidon, Oza put forth his hand to hold the arke, for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the Lord was wroth with Oza, & e smote him, because he put his hand to the arke: and there he died before God.

d Oza punished because he tooke vpon him an office whereunto he was not called, for it was the priestes office, Num.4.15: so that all good intentes be condemned, except they be commãded by the word of God.

11 And Dauid was out of quiet, because the Lord had rent a rent in Oza: and he called the name of that place, The renting of Oza, vnto this day.

12 And Dauid was afraide of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the arke of God home to me?

13 And so Dauid brought not the arke home to him to the citie of Dauid: but caried it into the house of Obed Edom, a Gethite.

14 And the arke of God remained with Obed Edom, euē in his house, three monethes: and the Lord blessed the house of Obed Edom, and all that he had.

The xiiii. Chapter.

1 Hiram sendeth wood and workemen to Dauid. 8 14 By the counsel of God, he goeth against the Philistines, and ouercommeth them.

2 King.5.11. 3 Hor.

1 SO * Hiram the king of ‡ Tyre sent messengers to Dauid, and timber of Cedar trees, with masons and carpenters to builde him an house.

2 And Dauid perceiued that the Lorde had confirmed him king vpon Israel, and that his kingdome was lift vp an high, because of his a people Israel:

a Because of Gods promise made to the people of Israel.

3 And Dauid tooke yet moe wiues at Hierusalem, and begate moe sonnes and daughters.

4 These are the names of his children which were borne vnto him at Hierusalem, Samua, Sobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 Ibhar, Elisua, and Elipheiet,

6 Noga, Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 Elisama, Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 And when the Philistines heard that * Dauid was anoynted king vpon all Israel, all the Philistines went vp to seeke Dauid: and Dauid heard of it, and went out against them.

2 King.5.17.

9 And the Philistines came in & spread them selues thorowe the valley of Rephaim.

10 And Dauid b asked counsaile at God, saying, Shall I goe against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliuer them into mine hand? b Dauid asked counsell at God before he enterprised warre, 11 And the Lord sayde vnto him, Goe vp: for I will deliuer them into thine hande. And so they came vp to Baal Perazim, and Dauid smote them there, and Dauid saide, God hath deuided mine enemies with mine hande, as a man wounde deuide water: and therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, Dauid gaue a commandement, & they were burnt with fire.

13 And the Philistines came together againe, and ‖ rushed into the valley.

‖ Or, spread abroad.

14 And Dauid asked againe at God, and God saide vnto him, Goe not vp after them, but turne away from them, * that thou mayest come vpon them ouer against the Mulberie trees.

2.Sam.5.23.

15 And when thou hearest a sounde goe in the toppes of the Mulberie trees, then goe out to battell: for God is gone forth before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 Dauid therefore did as God commanded him, and they smote the hoste of the Philistines, from Gibeon, to Gazer.

17 And the fame of Dauid went out into all landes, and the Lorde made all nations feare him.

The xv. Chapter.

25 Dauid bringeth the arke with ioy. 29 And dauncing before it, is despised of his wife Michol.

1 AND Dauid made him houses in the citie of Dauid, and prepared a place for the arke of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then Dauid saide, * The arke of God ought not to be caried but of the Leuites: for them hath the Lorde chosen to beare the arke of the Lord, and to minister vnto him for euer.

Num.4.2.

3 And Dauid gathered all Israel together to Hierusalem, to fetche the arke of the Lord vnto his place which he had ordeined for it.

4 And Dauid brought together the children of Aaron and the Leuites.

5 Of the sonnes of Caath, was Vziel the chiefe, and of his ‖ brethren, there were an hundred and twentie.

‖ Or, kinsemen.

6 Of the children of Merari, Asaia the chiefe, and of his brethren, two hundred and twentie.

7 Of

7 Of the sonnes of Gerson, Joel the chiefe, and of his brethren, an hundred and thirtie.
8 Of the children of Elizaphan, Semaia the chiefe, & of his brethren, two hundred.
9 Of the sonnes of Hebron, Eliel the chiefe, and of his brethren, foure score.
10 Of the sonnes of Oziel, Aminadab the chiefe, and of his brethren an hundred and twelue.
11 And Dauid called Zadoc, and Abiathar the Priestes, & the Leuites, Uziel, Asaia, Joel, Semaia, Eliel, and Aminadab, 12 And sayde vnto them, Ye that are the principall fathers of the Leuites, sanctifie your selues both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring the arke of the Lorde God of Israel, vnto the place that I haue prepared for it.
1.Chro.13.10. 13 * For because ye were not there at the first, the Lorde our God made a rent among vs, for that we sought him not as the fashion ought to be.
14 So the Priests and the Leuites sanctified themselues, to fetch the arke of the Lord God of Israel.
15 And the children of the Leuites bare the arke of God vpon their shoulders, with staues thereon, * as Moses commanded, according to the worde of the Lord.
Exod.25.14.
16 And Dauid spake to the chiefe heades of the Leuits, that they should appoint certaine of their brethren to sing, & instruments of musicke, Psalteries, Harpes, & Cimbals, that they might make a sound, and to sing on high with ioyfulnesse.
17 And the Leuites appointed Heman the sonne of Joel, and of his brethren, Asaph the sonne of Berechia, and of the sonnes of Merari, and of their brethren, Ethan the sonne of Cusaia.
18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zacharia, Ben-Jaziel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaia, Maasiah, Mathathia, Eliphale, Mienia, Obed Edom, and Jeiel, porters.
19 So Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, the singers, made a sound with Cimbales of brasse.
20 And Zacharia, Aziel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maasia, & Benaia, played | with Psalteries to sing with.
Or, Alamoth.
21 Mathathia, Eliphale, Mienia, Obed Edom, Jeiel, and Azaia, played with Harps of eight strings, to prouoke them to sing.
22 And Chenania the chiefe of the Leuites was master of the song: for hee taught other to sing, because he was a man of vnderstanding.
23 Berechia, and Elcana kept the doore of the arke.
24 And Sebania, Josaphat, Nathanael, Amasai, Zacharia, Benaia, and Eliezer the Priests, did blowe with Trumpets before the arke of God: & Obed Edom, and Jehia were keepers of the doore of the arke.
2.King.16.12. 25 * And Dauid, and the elders of Israel, and the captaines ouer thousands, went to fetch the arke of the couenant of the Lorde out of the house of Obed Edom with gladnesse.
26 And when a God helped the Leuites that bare the arke of the couenant of the Lord, they b offered seuen Oxen, and seuen Rammes.
a That is, gaue them strength to execute their office.
b Beside the oxe and the fat beast which Dauid offered at euery six pace, 2.Sa.6.
27 And Dauid had on him a linnen garment, like as had also all the Leuites that bare the arke, and so had the singers, and Chenania, the ruler of the song, with the singers: and Dauid had vpon him an Ephod of linen.
28 And all they of Israel brought the arke of the Lordes couenant, with shouting and blowing of the Shaulme, & Trumpets, making a noise with Cymbales, Psalteries, and Harpes.
29 And as the arke of the couenant of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michol the daughter of Saul looking out at a windowe, sawe king Dauid dauncing and playing, and she despised him in her heart.
c It is called a couenant, because it is the signe or sacrament whereby they were put in remembrance of the Lordes couenant made with them.

The xvi. Chapter.

1 The arke being placed, they offer sacrifices. 8 Dauid appointeth a notable Psalme to be sung in the prayse of the Lorde.

1 SO they brought in the arke of God, & set it in the midst of the tent that Dauid pitched for it: and they offered whole burnt sacrifices, and peace offerings before God.
2 And when Dauid had made an ende of offering the whole burne offerings, and peace offerings, a he blessed the people in the name of the Lord.
a He called vpon the name of God, desiring him to prosper the people, and giue good successe to their beginnings.
3 And he dealt to all Israel, both man & woman, a cake of breade, and a piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.
4 And he appointed certaine of the Leuites to minister before the arke of the Lord, and to b shew forth and to thanke and prayse the Lord God of Israel.
b The benefites of God toward his people.
5 And Asaph was the chiefe, and next to him Zacharia, Jeiel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Mathathia, Eliab, Benaia, Obed Edom, and Jeiel, with instrumentes, Psalteries, and Harpes: but Asaph made a sound with Cymbales.
6 Banaia and Jahaziel, Priestes, blewe with Trumpets continually before the arke of the couenant of God.
7 And that same time Dauid did appoint chiefly to thanke the Lord by Asaph and his brethren.
c Dauid gaue them this Psalme to prayse the Lord, signifiyng that in all our doings, the name of God ought to be praysed, and called vpon.
8 * Confesse ye it vnto God, call vpon his name: cause the people to vnderstand his deuises.
9 Sing vnto him, sing Psalmes vnto him: talke ye of all his wonderous workes.
10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them reioyce that do seeke God.
11 Seeke God and his strength: seeke his face euermore.
12 Remember the marueilous workes that he hath done: his wonders, and the iudgements of his mouth.
13 O ye seede of Abraham his seruant, yee his chosen children of Jacob, he is God our Lorde: his iudgements are in all the earth.

14 Be hath bene mindfull alwayes of his couenant (for he promised a worde to a thousand generations:) euen of his couenant that hee made with Abrahám, and of his othe vnto Isahac.

15 And he appointed the same vnto Iacob for a law, and to Israel for an euerlasting couenant, 16 Saying, Vnto thée I will giue the lande of ‡Chanaan, ‡the lot of your inheritance.

17 When they were a few men in number, and had bene strangers but a litle while in it: and when they went from one nation to another, from one kingdome to another people, 18 Hee suffered no man to ‡doe them wrong: yea, he reproued euen kings for their sakes.

19 *Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harme.

20 *Sing vnto the Lord all the earth: and shew from day to day his saluation.

21 Tell of his glory among the heathen: his wonderfull dœdes among al nations.

22 For great is the Lorde, and worthie to be praysed exceedingly: he is to be feared aboue all gods.

23 For all the gods of the people are ‖but idoles: but the Lord made heauen.

24 Praise and honour are in his presence: strength and gladnesse are in his place.

25 Giue vnto the Lorde, yee kinredes of people: giue vnto the Lorde glorie and dominion.

26 Giue vnto the Lord the glory due vnto his name: bring sacrifices, and come before him, and worship the Lorde in his glorious sanctuarie.

27 Let all the earth feare him: surely the world shalbe stable, and not moue.

28 Let the heauens reioyce, & let the earth be glad: and let men tell among the nations that the Lord is king.

29 Let the sea roare, and the fulnesse thereof: let the fields reioyce, and all that is therein.

30 Then shall the trées of the wood reioice at the presence of the Lorde: because hee commeth to iudge the earth.

31 O giue thankes vnto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth euer.

32 And say ye, Saue vs, O God our saluation, gather vs together, and deliuer vs frō among the heathen, that we may giue thankes to thy holy name, and triumph in the praise of thee.

33 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for euer and euer: and let all the people say, Amen, and praise the Lord.

34 And so he left there before the arke of the Lords couenant, Asaph & his brethren, to minister before the arke continually, euery day ‖his dayes worke.

35 And Obed Edom & his brethren, three score and eight: and Obed Edom the sonne of Idithun, & Hosa were appointed to be porters,

36 And Sadoc the Priest, and his brethrē the Priests, were before the tabernacle of the Lord in the high place that was at Gibeon, 37 To offer whole burnt offerings vnto the Lord, vpon the whole burnt offering altar, perpetually in the morning and euening, according to all that which is written in the law of the Lord, which hee commanded Israel.

38 And with them were Heman and Idithun, and other that were chosen, whose names were expressed, to giue thanks to the Lord, that his mercy lasteth euer.

39 And with them did Heman and Idithun sing with Trumpets & Cimbales, making a sweete melodie with instruments of musicke, and godly songs, and the sonnes of Idithun were porters.

40 And all the people departed euery man to his house, & Dauid returned to bleste his house.

The xvii. Chapter.

Christ is promised vnder the figure of Solomon.

1 AND ‖when Dauid dwelt in his house, he said to Nathan the Prophet, Lo, I dwel in an house of Cedar trée, but the arke of the Lordes couenant remaineth vnder curtaines.

2 And Nathan said vnto Dauid, Do all that is in thine heart, for God is with thee.

3 And the same night the worde of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Goe and tell Dauid my seruant, Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not build mée an house to dwell in:

5 For I haue dwelt in no house since the day that I brought out the children of Israel, vnto this day, but haue gone frō tent to tent, & from one dwelling place to another.

6 And wheresoeuer I haue walked with all Israel, spake I euer one worde to any of the Iudges of Israel, whome I commanded to fede my people, saying, Why haue ye not built mee an house of Cedar trée?

7 Now therefore, thus shalt thou say vnto my seruant Dauid, Thus sayeth the Lorde of hostes, I tooke thée from the sheepe coat, & from following the sheepe, that thou shouldest be captaine ouer my people Israel:

8 And I haue bene with thée whithersoeuer thou hast walked, and haue wasted out all thine enemies out of thy sight, & haue made thée a name, like the name of the greatest men that are in the earth.

9 And I haue ordeined a place for my people Israel, and made it fast, so that now they may dwell in their place, and moue no more: neither shall the children of wickednesse waste them any more, as at the beginning.

10 And since the time that I commanded iudges to be ouer my people Israel, I haue subdued all thine enemies: and I tolde thee that the Lord would build thée an house.

11 This also shall come to passe: when thy dayes dayes be expired, that thou must go vnto thy fathers, I will raise vp thy seede after thee, which shalbe of thy sonnes, and I will stablish his kingdome.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his seate for euer.

2.King.9.14. 13 * I will bee his father, and he shall bee my sonne, and I will not take my mercie away from him, as I tooke it from him that was before thee.

14 But I will stablish him in mine house and my kingdome for euer, and his seate shall be sure for euermore.

15 According to all these wordes, and according to all this vision, did Nathan tell king Dauid.

16 And Dauid the king came, and sate before the Lorde, and said, What am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast promoted me thus farre?

17 And yet this seemed litle in thine eyes, O God: but thou hast also spoken of thy seruats house for a great while to come, and hast looked vpon me, as vpon a man of high degree, O Lord God.

18 What shall Dauid desire more of thee, for the honour of thy seruant? For thou hast knowen thy seruant.

19 O Lorde, for thy seruants sake, euen according to thine owne heart, hast thou done all this magnificence, to shewe all great things.

20 Lord, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we haue heard with our eares.

21 Moreouer, what nation on the earth is like thy people Israel, to whome God hath vouchsafed to come, and redeme them to be his own people, and to make thee a name of excellencie and terriblenesse, with casting out nations from before the people whome thou hast delimed out of Egypt?

22 Thy people of Israel diddest thou make thine owne people for euer, & thou Lord becamest their God.

23 Therefore now Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruant and his house, be true for euer, that thou Lord doe as thou hast said.

24 Let it come to passe, that thy name may bee magnified for euer, that it may bee saide, The Lorde of hostes is the God of Israel, euen the God of Israel, and the house of Dauid thy seruant endureth stable before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast told thy seruaunt that thou wilt builde him an house, and therefore thy seruant hath founde in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now Lorde, thou art God, & hast promised this goodnesse vnto thy seruat.

27 Now therefore, let it be thy pleasure to blesse the house of thy seruat, that it may continue before thee for euer: For whom thou blessest, O Lorde, the same is blessed for euer.

The xviii. Chapter.

1 The battel of Dauid against the Philistines. 2 And against Moab, 3 Zoba, 5 Aram, 12 and Edom.

1 AFter this, * Dauid smote the Philistines, and subdued them, & tooke Geth, and the townes that longed thereto, out of the handes of the Philistines. 2.Sam.8.1.

2 And he smote Moab, & the Moabites became Dauids seruants, and payed him tribute.

3 And Dauid smote Hadarezer king of Zoba, vnto Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominō by ꝑ riuer Euphrates.

4 And Dauid tooke from him a thousand charets, and seuen thousand horsemen, and twentie thousand footemen, and destroyed all the charets, but reserued of them an hundred charets.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to helpe Hadarezer king of Zoba, Dauid slue of the Syrians twentie and two thousand.

6 And Dauid put souldiers in Syria Damascus, and the Syrians became Dauids seruants, and brought him tribute: and the Lord preserued Dauid in al that he went to.

7 And Dauid tooke the shieldes of golde that were on the seruants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Hierusalem.

8 And from Thebhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought Dauid exceeding much brasse, wherewith Solomon made the brasen lauatorie, the pillars, and the vessels of brasse.

9 And when Thoqu king of Hemath heard, howe Dauid had beaten all the ‖strength of Hadarezer king of Zoba, ‖Or, host.

10 He sent ‖Hadoram his sonne to king Dauid, to make peace with him, and to blesse him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and beaten him (for Thogu had warre with Hadarezer) and Hadoram brought all maner of iewels of gold, siluer, and brasse, with him. ‖Or, Ioram.

11 And king Dauid dedicated them vnto the Lorde, with the siluer and golde that he brought from all nations, from Edom, from Moab, from the children of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalec.

12 And Abisai the sonne of Zaruia slue of the Edomites in ꝺ salt valley, eightene thousand, 13 And put souldiers in Edom, and all the Edomites became Dauids seruats: thus the Lord kept Dauid in all that hee tooke in hand.

14 And Dauid raigned ouer all Israel, & executed iudgement and righteousnesse among all his people.

15 And Joab the sonne of Zaruia was ouer the hoste, and Josaphat the sonne of Ahilud recorder.

16 And Zadoc the sonne of Ahitob, and Ahimelech the sonne of Abiathar, were the Priestes, and Susa was scribe, 17 And Banaia the sonne of Jehoiada, was ouer the Cherethites, and Phelethites: and the sonnes of Dauid were next vnto the king.

The xix. Chapter.

4 Hanon king of the children of Ammon doeth great iniuries to the seruants of Dauid. 6 He prepareth an armie against Dauid, 15 and is ouercome.

2.Sam.10.2. 1 After this,* Nahas the king of the children of Ammon died, and his sonne raigned in his steade.

2 And Dauid said, I will shewe kindnes vnto Hanon the sonne of Nahas, because his a father dealt kindly with mee.
And Dauid sent messengers to comfort him ouer the death of his father: and the seruants of Dauid came into the land of the children of Ammon, to Hanon, to comfort him.

3 But the lordes of the children of Ammon said to Hanon, Thinkest thou that Dauid doeth honour thy father in thy sight, that he hath sent comforters vnto thee? Are not his seruauntes come to b search, to looke, and espie out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanon tooke Dauids ser-uants, and c shaued them, and cut off their coates hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 And there went certaine and tolde Da-uid howe the men were serued: and the king sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the king said, Tarry at Jericho, vntil your beards be growen, and then returne.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they stanke in the sight of Dauid, Hanon and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of siluer, to hire them charets and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria Maacha, and out of Zoba.

7 And they hyred thirtie and two thousand charets, and the king of Maacha & his people, which came and pitched before Medeba: and the children of Ammō gathered themselues together from their cities, and came to battell.

8 And when Dauid heard of it, hee sent Joab and all the host of strong men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put themselues in arap to battel, before the gate of the citie: and the kings that were come, kept them by themselues backe in the fielde.

10 When Joab also sawe that the front of the battel was against him before and behinde, he chose out of all the chosen mē of Israel, and put them in arap against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people hee deliuered vnto the hand of Abisai his brother, and they put themselues in arap against the children of Ammon.

12 And he saide, If the Syrians bee too strong for me, thou shalt succour me, and if the children of Ammon prenaile against thee, I will helpe thee.

13 Plucke vp thine heart, and let vs play the men for our peoples sake, and for the cities of our God: and the Lord shall do that which is good in his owne sight.

14 So Joab & the people that were with him, drue nigh, before the Syrians, vnto the battaile: and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fledde, they ran awap likewise before Abisai his brother, and gate them into the citie: and Joab came to Hierusalem.

16 And when the Syrians sawe that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and set out the Syrians that were beyond the ‖ riuer: and Sophach the captaine of the hoste of Hadarezer, went before them. ‖ Or, Euphrat.

17 And it was tolde Dauid: and hee gathered all Israel, and went together ouer Jordane, and came, & set vpon them:
and when Dauid had put himselfe in arap against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel, &
Dauid destroyed of the Syrians, seuen thousand charets, and fourtie thousand footemen, and killed Sophach the captaine of the host.

19 And when the seruants of Hadarezer sawe that they were put to the worse before them of Israel, they made peace with Dauid, and became his seruantes:
neither would the Syrians helpe the children of Ammon any more.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Rabba destroyed. 3 The Ammonites tormented. 4 The Philistines are thrise ouercome, with their Giantes.

2.Sam.10.1. 1 And* after the yere was expired, about the time that kings goe out a warfare Joab caried out the ‖ armie of the host, and destroyed the countrey of the children of Ammon, and came, and besieged Rabba: (but Dauid taried at Hierusalē) while Joab smote Rabba, and destroyed it. ‖ Or, strength of the armie.

2 And Dauid tooke the crowne of their king from his head, and founde that it had the weight of a talent of golde, and there were precious stones in it, and it was set vpon Dauids head: and hee brought also exceeding much spoyle out of the citie.

3 And he brought out þ people that were in it, and tormented them with sawes & harrowes of yron, and with other sharp ‖ instrumentes, and so dealt Dauid with ‖ Or, axes, all the cities of the children of Ammon:
and Dauid & all the people came againe to Hierusalem.

4 After this,* there arose warre at Ga- 2.Sam.21.18.
zer with the Philistines: at which time Sobochai þ Hushathite slue Sippai that was of the children of Rephaim, and they were subdued.

5 And there was battell againe with the Philistines, and Elhanan the sonne of Jair slue Lahemi the brother of Goliah the Gethite, whose speare staffe was like a Weauers beame.

6 And yet againe there was warre at Gath, where as was a mā of a great stature, with foure and twentie fingers and toes, sixe on euery hande, and sixe on e-uery foote, & was the sonne of ‖ Raphah. ‖ Or, a giant.

7 But

7 But when he defyed Israel, Jonathan the sonne of Simea Dauids brother slue him.

8 These were borne vnto Raphah at Geth, & were ouerthrowen in the hande of Dauid, and in the hand of his seruats.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Dauid causeth the people to be numbred. 14 And there die seuentie thousand men of the pestilence.

1 AND Satan stode vp against Israel, & * prouoked Dauid to number Israel. 1.Sam.24.1.

2 And Dauid sayde to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go yee, and number Israel, from Beersheba to Dan: and bring it to me, that I may knowe the number of them.

3 And Joab answered, The Lorde make his people an hundred times so many moe as they be: but my Lorde, O king, are they not al my lordes seruants? why then doeth my lorde require this thing? why will my lorde bee a cause of a trespasse to Israel?

a Dauid offended in numbring the people, partly because he did it of ambition, but chiefely for that he payed not to the vse of ỹ temple, for euery one numbred halfe a sickle, according to the lawe.

4 Neuertheles, the kings word preuailed against Joab: and Joab departed, and walked thorowout all them of Israel, and came to Hierusalem againe,

5 And gaue the summe of the number of the people vnto Dauid: and all they of Israel were a thousand thousand, and an hundred thousand men that drue sworde: and Juda was foure hundred, threescore, and ten thousande men that drue sworde.

6 But the Leuites and Beniamin counted hee not among them: for the kings worde was abominable to Joab.

7 And the Lord was displeased with this thing, and smote Israel.

2.Sam.24.9. 8 And Dauid sayde vnto God, * I haue sinned exceedingly in doing this thing: and now I beseech thee, doe away the wickednesse of thy seruant, for I haue done very foolishly.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Gad, Dauids ‖Seer, saying,

‖Or, prophet.

10 Goe, and tell Dauid, saying, Thus saith the Lorde, I giue thee the choyse of three things: chuse thee one of them, that I may doe vnto thee.

11 And Gad came to Dauid, and sayd vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Choose thee

12 Either three yeres famine, or three monethes to bee destroyed before thine aduersaries, and that the sworde of thine enemies may ouertake thee: or else the sworde of the Lorde, and pestilence in the land three dayes, and the angel of the Lord destroying thorowout all ỹ coastes of Israel: and now aduise thy selfe what worde I shall bring againe to him that sent me.

13 And Dauid sayd vnto Gad, I am in an exceeding straite: let me fall now into the hand of the Lorde (for passing great are his mercies) but let me not fall into the hand of men.

14 So the Lord sent pestilence vpon Israel: and there were ouerthrowen of Israel three score and ten thousand men.

15 * And God sent the angel vnto Hierusalem to destroy it: and as he was about to destroy, the Lord beheld, and had compassion on the euill, and sayd to the angell that destroyed, It is enough, let nowe thy hand ceasse. And the angel of ỹ Lorde stode by the threshing flore of ‖ Ornan the Jebusite. 2.Sam.24.16.

‖Or, Arauna.

16 And Dauid lyft vp his eyes, and sawe the angell of the Lorde stande betweene the earth and heauen, hauing a drawen sworde in his hand, stretched out toward Hierusalem: then Dauid and the elders of Israel which were clothed in sacke, fel vpon their faces.

17 And Dauid said vnto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbred? It is I that haue sinned, and done euill in deede: & what haue these sheepe done? Let thine hand, O Lord my God, be on me, and on my fathers house: but b not on thy people, that they should be punished.

b Thus he shewed true repentance, and a fatherly care toward his people.

18 * And the angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to Dauid, that Dauid should goe vp, and set vp an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing flore of Ornan the Jebusite. 2.Chron.3.1.

19 And Dauid went vp, according to the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the Lord.

20 And Ornan turned about, and saw the angel, and his foure sonnes were with him, and hid themselues: but Ornan was threshing wheate.

21 And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan looked and sawe Dauid, and went out of the threshing flore, and bowed himselfe to Dauid, with his face to the ground.

22 And Dauid sayde to Ornan, Giue me the place of the threshing flore, that I may build an altar therein vnto ỹ Lord: thou shalt giue it me for as much money as it is worth, that ỹ plague may ceasse from the people.

23 And Ornan sayd vnto Dauid, Take it to thee, and let my lorde the king do that which seemeth good in his eyes: lo, I giue thee Oxen also for whole burnt sacrifices, and threshing instruments for wood, and wheate for meate offering, I giue it all.

2.Sam.24.24. c God declared that he heard his request, in that he sent downe fire from heauen, for els they might vse no fire in sacrifice, but of that which was reserued still vpon the altar, Leuit. Chap.6.verse.13. and came downe from heauen, Leuit.Chap.9. verse.14 as appeared by the punishment of Nadab and Abihu, Leuit. Chap. 10.verse.2.

24 And king Dauid sayd to Ornan, Not so, but I will bute it for as much money as it is worth: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lorde, nor offer whole burnt offerings without cost.

25 * And so Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place sixe of golde, sixe hundred by weight.

26 And Dauid built there an altar vnto the Lorde, and offered whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings, and called vpon the Lorde, and he heard him from heauen in c fire vpon the altar of whole burnt offering.

27 And when the Lorde had spoken to the angel, he put vp his sworde againe into the sheath of it.

28 At that time, when Dauid sawe that the Lorde had heard him in the threshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite, hee vsed to offer there:

29 (For the tabernacle of the Lord which Moses made in the wildernesse, and the altar of whole burnt offring, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon:

30 And Dauid could not goe before it to aske counsell at God, for he was afrayde of the sworde of the angel of the Lorde.)

The xxii. Chapter.

2 Dauid prepareth things necessarie for the building of the temple.

1 AND Dauid sayde, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar for the whole burnt offering of Israel.

2 And Dauid commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the lande of Israel, and he set Masons to hewe and polish stones for the building of the house of God.

3 And Dauid prepared plentie of iron for nailes, and doores of the gates, and to ioyne withall, and abundance of brasse without weight,

4 And Cedar trees without number: for the Sidons and they of Tyre brought much Cedar wood to Dauid.

5 And Dauid sayde, Solomon my sonne is young and tender, and the house that is to bee builded for the Lorde, must bee magnificall, excellent, and of great fame & dignitie throughout all countreyes: I will therefore make ordinances for it. And so Dauid prepared many things before his death.

6 And he called Solomon his sonne, and charged him to builde an house for the Lord God of Israel.

7 And Dauid said to Solomon, My sonne, I thought in my heart to build an house vnto the name of the Lord my God:

8 But the worde of the Lord came to me, saying, Thou hast shed much blood, and hast made great battels: thou shalt therefore not builde an house vnto my name, for thou hast shed much blood vpon the earth in my sight.

1.*Chro.*28.5.
a This declareth how greatly God abhorreth the shedding of blood, seeing Dauid for this cause is stayed to builde the temple of the Lord, albeit he tooke no warre in hand, but by Gods commandement, and against Gods enemies.

9 Beholde, a sonne is borne to thee, and he shalbe a man of rest, for I will giue him rest from all his enemies rounde about: for his name is Solomon, and I will send rest and peace vpon Israel in his dayes.

10 He shall builde an house for my name, and he shalbe my sonne, and I will be his father, and I will establish the seate of his kingdome vpon Israel for euer.

11 Now therefore my sonne, the Lorde be with thee, and prosper thee, & thou shalt builde an house to the Lord thy God, as he hath sayd of thee.

12 And the Lord shall giue thee wisedome and vnderstanding, and shall giue thee ‖commandements for Israel, that thou mayest keepe the lawe of the Lord thy God.

Or, charge.

13 For then thou shalt prosper, euen when thou takest heede, and fulfillest the statutes and lawes which the Lorde charged Moses with for Israel: plucke vp thine heart therefore, and be strong, dread not, nor be discouraged.

14 Behold, according to my ponertie haue I also prepared for the house of the Lord an hundred thousand talents of golde, and a thousand thousande talents of siluer: and as for brasse and iron, it cannot be numbred (for it is verie much) and I haue prepared timber and stone: & thou mayest prouide more thereto.

15 Moreouer, thou hast workemen with thee prowe, and Masons, and Carpenters, to worke in stone and timber, & many men that bee actiue for euery worke.

16 And of golde, siluer, brasse, and iron, there is no number: vp therefore and be doing, and the Lord shalbe with thee.

17 And Dauid commaunded all the lords of Israel to helpe Solomon his sonne, saying,

18 Is not the Lord your God with you? and hath he not giuen you rest on euery side? for he hath giuen the inhabitours of the lande into my hand, and the lande is subdued before the Lorde, and before his people.

19 Now therefore set your hearts and your soules to seeke the Lord your God: vp, and build ye the temple of the Lorde God, to bring the arke of the couenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God, into the house so built for the name of the Lord.

The xxiii. Chapter.

1 Dauid being olde, ordaineth Solomon king. 13 Aaron and his sonnes are for the high priests.

1 SO when Dauid was olde and full of daies, he made Solomon his sonne king ouer Israel.

2 And then hee gathered together all the lordes of Israel, with the priestes and the Leuites.

3 And the Leuites were numbred from the age of thirtie yeares and aboue: and the number and summe of them was thirtie and eight thousand men.

4 Of which twentie and foure thousand were set to further the worke of the house of the Lord: and sixe thousand were officers and iudges.

5 Foure thousande were porters, and foure thousand praysed the Lorde with such instruments as were made to praise withall.

6 *And so Dauid made the ordinances among the children of Leui, namely to Gerson, Caath, and Merari.

1.*Chro.*6.1. *exod.*6.17.

7 Of the Gersonites was Laadan, and Semei.

8 The sonnes of Laadan, the chiefe was Jehiel, Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sonnes of Semei, Selomith, Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the ancient fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sonnes of Semei, were Jahath, Zina, Jeus, and Beria: these foure were the sonnes of Semei.

11 And Jahath was the chiefe, Zina the seconde:

second: but Ieus & Beria had not many sonnes, therefore they were in one reckoning according to their fathers householde reckoned for one.

12 The sonnes of Caath, Amram, Izaar, Hebron, and Oziel, foure.

Exod.6.20. Heb.5.4.

13 The *sonnes of Amram, Aaron, and Moses: and *Aaron was separated to haue the rule of the holy thinges in the place most holy, he and his sonnes for euer, and to burne incense before the Lord, and to minister vnto him, and to blesse in his name for euer.

Exod.2.22.

14 The* children of Moses þ man of God, were named in the tribe of a Leui.

a They were but of the order of the Leuites, and not of the priestes as Aaron's sonnes.

15 The sonnes of Moses, Gersom, and Eliezer.

16 Of the sonnes of Gersom, Sebuel was the chiefe.

17 The sonnes of Eliezer, Rehabia the chiefe: & Eliezer had none other sonnes, but the sonnes of Rehabia were very many.

18 The sonnes of Izahar, Selomith the chiefe.

19 The sonnes of Hebron, Jeria the first, Amaria the seconde, Jahaziel the thirde, and Jecmaam the fourth.

20 The sonnes of Oziel, Micha the first, & Iesia the second.

21 The sonnes of Merari, Mahli, and Musi. The sonnes of Mahli, Eleazar & Cis.

22 And Eleazar dyed, and had no sonnes, but daughters: and their brethren the sonnes of Cis tooke them.

23 The sonnes of Musi, Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

Num.10,24.

24 These are the children* of Leui after the houshold of their fathers, euen the ancient of the fathers according to their offices, and after the number & summe of the names of the þ did the worke in the seruice of the house of the Lord, from the age of twentie yeres and aboue.

25 And Dauid sayde, The Lorde God of Israel hath giuen rest vnto his people, that they may dwell in Hierusalem for euer, 26 That the Leuites also should now no more beare the tabernacle, and all the vessels for the seruice thereof.

27 For according to the last wordes of Dauid, the Leuites were numbred from twentie yeres and aboue.

28 And their office was vnder the hande of the sonnes of Aaron, for the seruice of the house of the Lorde, in the courts and celles, and in the purifying of all holy things, and in the worke of the seruice of the house of God:

29 In the shew breade, in the fine flowre, in the meate offering, in the wafers of sweete bread, in the frying pan, in the gredyron, and in all maner of measures and size:

30 And to stande euery day in the morning to thanke and praise the Lorde, and so likewise at Euen:

31 And to offer all whole burnt sacrifices vnto the Lorde in the Sabbothes, in the newe moones, and on the feastful dayes, by number and custome continually as they were commaunded, before the Lord.

32 And that they should waite on the tabernacle of the congregation, and on the holy place, and on the sonnes of Aaron their brethren, in the seruice of the house of the Lord.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

Dauid assigneth offices vnto the sonnes of Aaron.

1 THese are the diuisions of the sonnes of Aaron. The sonnes of Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

‖Or, ordinances. Leuit 10.4. num. 3.4.

2 Nadab also and Abihu, died before their father, and had no children: but Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priests office.

3 And Dauid ordred them on this maner, Sadoc, of the sonnes of Eleazar, and Ahimelec, of the sonnes of Ithamar were according to their offices in their ministration.

4 And there were moe auncient men founde among the sonnes of Eleazar, then þ sonnes of Ithamar: & thus were they ordered together. Among þ sonnes of Eleazar there was sixteene rulers, according to the householde of their fathers, and eight among the sonnes of Ithamar, according to the householde of their fathers.

5 And thus were they put in order by lot the one sort from the other, and so were there rulers in the sanctuarie, and lordes before God alwel of the sonnes of Eleazar, as of the sonnes of Ithamar.

6 And Semeia the sonne of Nathanael the scribe, of the kinred of the Leuites, wrote them before the king & the lordes, and before Sadoc the priest, and Ahimelec the sonne of Abiathar, and before the auncient fathers of the priests and Leuites, one principall householde being referued for Eleazar, and one for Ithamar.

7 And the first lot fell to Iehoiarib: and the second to Iedaia,

8 The thirde to Harim, and the fourth to Seborim,

9 The fifth to Melchia, and the sixth to Miiamin,

10 The seuenth to Hacos, and the eyght to Abia,

11 The ninth to Iesua, and the tenth to Secaniah,

12 The eleuenth to Eliasib, & the twelfth to Iacim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppa, & the fourteenth to Iesebeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilga, & the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seuenteenth to Hezir, & the eyghteenth to Aphses, 16 The nineteenth to Iechdeia, and the twentieth to Iehezkel.

17 The twentie and one to Jachin, and the twentie and two to Gamul, 18 The twentie and three to Delaia, and the twentie and foure to Maasia.

19 These are the ordinances of them in their offices, when they came into the house of the Lord, according to their maner, vnder Aaron their father, as the Lord God of Israel had commaunded him.

20 The rest of the sonnes of Leui, are these: of the sonnes of Amram, Subael: of the sonnes of Subael, Jehedia.

21 Of the sonnes of Rehabia, the first, Jessia.

22 Of the Jezaharites, Selomoth: of the sonnes also of Selomoth, Jahath.

23 His sonnes, Jeria the first, Amaria the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jecameam the fourth.

24 Of the sonnes of Oziel, Micha: of the sonnes of Micha, Samir.

25 The brother of Micha was Jllia: of the sonnes also of Jllia, Zecharia.

26 The sonnes of Merari, were Mahli, & Musi: the sonne of Jaazia, Beno.

27 The sonnes of Merari by Jaazia, Beno, Soham, Zacur, and Jbri.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, and he had no sonnes.

29 Of Cis: the sonne of Cis, Jerahmeel.

30 The sonnes of Musi, Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth: these are the children of the Leuites, after the houlholde of their fathers.

31 And these cast lottes next to their brethren the sonnes of Aaron, in the presence of Dauid the king, and Sadoc, and Ahimelec, & the ancient fathers of the priests and Leuites, euen the principall fathers, before their younger brethren.

The xxv. Chapter.

The singers are appointed, with their places and lottes.

1 AND so Dauid and the captaines of the host, appointed out to doe seruice the sonnes of Asaph, and Heman, and ‖Jeduthun, which should prophecie with Harpes, Psalteries, & Cymbales: and there was a multitude of the men that were appointed to doe the seruice and ministration:

‖Or, Idithun.

2 Of the sonnes of Asaph, Zacur, Joseph, Nathania, and Asarela, the sonnes of Asaph, that waited on Asaph, which prophecied according to the commandemēt of the king.

3 Of Jeduthun: the sonnes of Jeduthun, Gedalia, Zeri, Jesaia: Hasabia, and Mathathia, sixe, vnder the hands of their father Jeduthun, which prophecied with a Harpe, for to giue thankes and praises vnto the Lord.

4 Of Heman: the sonnes of Heman, Buccia, Mathania, Oziel, Sebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliatha, Geddalthi, Romamthi Ezer, Joshbecasa, Malothi, Hothir, and Mahaziloth.

5 All these were the sonnes of Heman, which was the kings Seer in the words of God, to lift vp the horne of ỹ regal dignitie: and God gaue to Heman fourteene sonnes, and three daughters.

6 All these also were at the hande of their father, singing in the house of the Lord, with Cymbales, Psalteries, & Harpes, when Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman, executed the seruice in the house of God at the kings commandement.

7 And the multitude of them, with their brethren, ỹ were instructed in the songs of the Lord, euen all that were cunning, were two hundred fourescore and eyght.

8 And they cast lottes among themselues, how they shoulde waite, as well for the small, as for the great, for the scholler, as well as for the schoolemaster.

9 And the first lot in Asaph fell to Joseph, the second to Gedalia, with his brethren and sonnes, which men were twelue.

10 The third fell to Zacur, with his sōnes and brethren, being twelue persons.

11 The fourth to Jzri with his sonnes & brethren, twelue persons.

12 The fifth to Nathania, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

13 The sixth to Buccia, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

14 The seuenth to Jesarela, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

15 The eight to Jesaia, with his sonnes & brethren, twelue persons.

16 The ninth to Mathania, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

17 Thetenth to Semei, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

18 The eleuenth to Azareel, wh his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

19 The twelfth to Hasabia, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

20 The thirteenth to Subael, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

21 The fourteenth to Mathathia, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

22 The fifteenth to Jeremoth, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

23 The sixteenth to Hanania, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

24 The seuenteenth to Joshecasa, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

25 The eighteenth to Hanani, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

26 The nineteenth to Malothi, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

27 The twentieth to Eliatha, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

28 The twentie and one to Hothir, wh his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

29 The twentie & two to Geddalthi, with his sonnes and brethē, twelue persons.

30 The twentie and three to Mahazioth, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

31 The twentie and foure to Romamthi Ezer, with his sonnes and brethren, twelue persons.

4 The sonnes of Obed Edom, Semeia the eldest, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, and Nathanael the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seuenth, Peulthai the eight: for God blessed him.

6 And vnto Semeia his sonne, were sonnes borne, that ruled in the house of their father: for they were men of might.

7 The sonnes of Semeia, Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, and his brethren were strong men, Elihu, & Samachia.

8 All these were of the children of Obed Edom: they and their children, and their brethren, active men, and of strength to doe seruice, euen threescore and two of Obed Edom.

9 And Meshelemia had sonnes and brethren, active men, eighteene.

10 The sonnes of Hosa of the children of Merari, Simri the chiefe, and though he was not the eldest, yet his father set him in the chiefest place:

11 Helcia the second, Tebalia the third, and Zecharia the fourth: all the sonnes and brethren of Hosa were thirteene.

12 Among these was diuided the office of the porterlhip, that they should be ancient men, to waite with their brethren, when they ministred in the house of the Lord.

13 And they cast lottes betweene the great and small, after the houshold of their fathers for euery gate.

14 And the lot on the East side fell vpon Selemia: and for Zacharia his sonne (which was a wise counseller) they cast lots, and his lot came out towarde the North.

15 And Obed Edoms lot fell to the South: and for his sonnes fell the houses of a Assuppim, a Assuppim, that is to say, the counsell house, Thasm, the dongue port.

16 For Suppim and Hosa towarde the West, with the gate Shallecheth, by the paued streete that goeth vpward: one watch being ouer against another.

17 In the East were sixe Leuites, and towarde the North foure a day, towarde the South foure a day, and toward Assuppim two and two.

b Which was an house wherein they kept the instruments of the temple.

18 In b Parbar toward the West, two at the going vp, and two in Parbar.

19 These are the diuisions of the porters among the sonnes of Coreh, and among the sonnes of Merari.

20 And of the Leuites, Ahiah had the ouerlight of the treasures of the house of God, and of the treasures of the dedicate things.

21 As concerning the sonnes of Laadan, which were the children of the Gersonites of Laadan, came ancient fathers, euen of Laadan, there came Gersuni, & Jehieli, 22 The sonnes of Jehieli, Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were ouer the treasures of the house of the Lord.

23 Of the Amramites also and Izeharites, Hebronites, and Uzielites.

24 And Shubael the sonne of Gerlom the sonne of Moses, was a ruler ouer the treasures.

25 And of his brethren the sonnes of Eliezer, was Rehabia, whose sonne was Jesaia, whose sonne was Joram, whose sonne was Zichri, whose sonne was Shelomith.

26 Which Shelomith & his brethren were ouer all the treasures of the dedicate things, which Dauid the king, and the ancient fathers, the captaines ouer thousandes and hundreds, and the captaines of the host, had dedicated.

27 Out of the spoiles wonne in battelles they did dedicate to maintaine the house of the Lorde.

28 And all that Samuel the Seer, and Saul the sonne of Cis, and Abner the sonne of Ner, & Joab the sonne of Zeruia had dedicated: and whosoeuer had dedicated any thing, it was vnder the hand of Shelomith and of his brethren.

29 Of the Izeharites was Chenania and his sonnes, appointed to the businesse c without ouer Israel: for they were officers and iudges.

c Meaning, of things that were out of the citie.

30 And of the Hebronites, Hasabia and his brethren, men of actiuitie, a thousand and seuen hundred, were officers among them of Israel beyond Jordane Westward, in all businesse belonging to God, and seruice of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites was Jedia the chiefest, euen a prince among the Hebronites and fathers of his kinred: and in the fourtieth yeere of the kingdome of Dauid they were sought for, and there were founde among them men of actiuitie at Jazer in Gilead.

32 And his brethren were men of actiuitie, euen two thousande and seuen hundred ancient fathers: whom king Dauid made rulers ouer the Rubenites, Gadites, and ouer the halfe tribe of Manasse, for euery matter pertaining to God, and for the kings businesse.

The xxvii. Chapter.

Of the princes and rulers that ministred vnto the king.

1 The children of Israel, after the number of the ancient heads & captaines of thousands & hundreds, and their officers that serued the king by diuers courses, which came in and went out moneth by moneth, throughout all the monethes of the yeere: and in euery course were twentie and foure thousand.

2 Ouer the first course for the first moneth, was Jasoboam the sonne of Zabdiel, and in his course were twentie and foure thousand.

3 And the chiefest of all the captaynes of the host for the first moneth, was of the children of Pharez.

4 Ouer the course of the second moneth, was Dodai an Ahohite, and in his course was Micloth a ruler, his helper: and in his course were twentie and foure thousand.
5 The chiefe captaine of the thirde host of the thirde moneth, was Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada the high priest, and in his course were twentie and foure thousand.
6 This is that Banaia which was most mightie among thirtie, & aboue thirtie: & in his part was Amizabad his sonne.
7 The fourth captaine for the fourth moneth, was Asahel the brother of Ioab, and Zadadaia his sonne after him, and in his course were twentie and foure thousand.
8 The fifth captaine for the fifth moneth, was Samhut the Izrahite, and in his course were twentie and foure thousand.
9 The sixth captaine for the sixth moneth, was Ira the sonne of Ikces a Thecuite, and in his course were twetie and foure thousand.
10 The seuenth captaine for the seuenth moneth, was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim, and in his course were twentie and foure thousand.
11 The eight captaine for the eight moneth, was Sibbechai an Husathite, of the kinred of Zarhi, and in his course were twentie and foure thousand.
12 The ninth captaine for the ninth moneth, was Abiezer an Anathothite, of the sonnes of Iemini, and in his course were twentie and foure thousand.
13 The tenth captaine for the tenth moneth was Maharai the Netophatite, of the Zarahites, and in his course were twentie and foure thousand.
14 The eleuenth captaine for the eleuenth moneth, was Banaia the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim, and in his course were twentie & foure thousand.
15 The twelfth captaine for the twelfth moneth, was Heldai the Netophatite, of Othoniel, & in his course were twentie and foure thousand.
16 And the rulers ouer the tribes of Israel were these: among the Rubenites was Eliezer the sonne of Zichri: among the Simeonites also, was Saphathia the sonne of Maacha.
17 Among the Leuites, Hasabia the sonne of Cemuel: among the Aaronites, Sadoc.
18 Among them of Iuda, Elihu, of the brethren of Dauid: among them of Issachar, Omri the sonne of Michael.
19 Among them of Zabulon, Ismaia the sonne of Obadia: among them of Nephthali, Ierimoth the sonne of Azriel.
20 Among the children of Ephraim, Hosea the sonne of Azaria: in the halfe tribe also of Manasse, Ioel the sonne of Pedaia.
21 Of the halfe tribe of Manasse in Gilead, Iddo the sonne of Zacharia: among them of Beniamin, Iaasiel the sonne of Abner.
22 Among them of Dan, Azarel the sonne of Ieroham. These are the lordes of the tribes of Israel.
23 But Dauid toke not the number of them vnder twentie yeeres, because the Lord sayd he would encrease Israel like vnto the starres of the skie.
24 And Ioab the sonne of Zaruia began to number: *but he finished it not, because that there fell wrath for it against Israel, neither was the number put into the chronicles of king Dauid. *1.Chro.21.7.
25 Ouer the kings treasures was Asmaueth the sonne of Adiel: and ouer the treasures of the fields, in the cities, and villages, and castles, was Ionathan the sonne of Ozia.
26 And ouer the workemen in the fieldes that tilled the ground, was Ezri the sonne of Chelub.
27 And the ouerlight of the vineyardes had Semei the Ramathite: ouer the encrease also of the vineyards, and ouer the wineselles, was Habdi the Saphonite.
28 And ouer the olyue trees and mulberie trees that were in the valleis, was Baal Hanan the Gederite: and ouer the treasure of ople, was Ioas.
29 Ouer the oxen that fed in Saron, was Setrai the Saronite: and ouer the oxen that were in the valleis, was Saphat the sonne of Adlai.
30 Ouer the camels, Obil the Ismaelite: and ouer the asses, was Iehdeia the Meronothite.
31 Ouer the sheepe, was Iazez the Hagerite: all these were the rulers of the substance of king Dauid.
32 And Ionathan Dauids vncle, a man of counsell and of vnderstanding, was a scribe, he and Iehiel the sonne of Hachmoni was with the kings sonnes instructing them. a A man learned in the word of God, 33 And Ahitophel was of the kings counsell: Chusai the Arachite was the kings companion.
34 And next to Ahitophel was Iehoiada the sonne of Banai and Abiathar: and the captaine of the kings warre was Ioab.

The xxviii. Chapter.

5 Because Dauid was forbidden to build the temple, he willeth Solomon and the people to performe it, 8 Exhorting him to feare the Lord.

1 AND Dauid gathered all the lordes of Israel, the lordes of the tribes, the lordes of the companies that ministred to the king by course, the captaines ouer the thousandes, and ouer the hundreds, and the lordes that had the oversight ouer all the substance and possession of Dauid, and of his sonnes, with the chamberlaines, and all the mightie and valiant, and all active men, vnto Hierusalem.
2 And king Dauid stood vp vpon his a So he called the arke, because he and my people, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the arke of the couenant of the Lord, and for the a footestoole of our GOD, and had made ready cause on it God shewed himselfe present by myracles.

die for the building.

2.Sam.7.13. 3 *But God said vnto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast bene a man of warre, and hast shed blood.

4 Moreouer, the Lord God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father, to be king ouer Israel for euer: for in Iuda vvould he chuse a captaine, and of the houshold of Iuda is the house of my father, and among the sonnes of my father he had a lust to mee, to make me king ouer all Israel.

Leu.9.7. 5 *And of all my sonnes (for the Lord hath giuen me many sonnes) hee hath chosen Solomon my sonne, to sit vpon the seate of the kingdome of the Lord in Israel.

6 And hee saide vnto mee, Solomon thy sonne, hee shall builde mee an house and courts: I haue chosen him to bee my sonne, and I will be his father.

7 I will stablish his kingdome for euer, if hee will be strong to do my commandements and my lawes, as it goeth this day.

8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keepe and seeke for all the commandements of the Lorde your God, that ye may enioy a good land, and leaue inheritance for your children after you for euer.

1.Sam.17.7. psal.7.10. ier.17.1. 9 *And thou Solomon my sonne, know thou the God of thy father, & serue him with a pure heart, and with a willing minde: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and vnderstandeth all the imaginations of thoughts: and if thou seeke him, hee will be found of thee: but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for euer.

10 Take heede now, for the Lord hath chosen thee to builde him an house of a sanctuarie: be strong therefore, and play the man.

11 And Dauid gaue Solomon his sonne the paterne of the porche, and of the houses that longed thereto, of the store houses, vpper chabers, inner parlours, and of the house of the mercie seate:

12 And the example of all that hee had in his minde, for the courtes of the house of the Lorde, and for all the celles rounde about, for the treasures of the house of God, and for the treasures of the dedicate things:

13 For the diuisions of the Priestes & Leuites that waited by course, and for al the workemanship that should serue for the house of the Lord, and for al the vessels that should serue in the house of the Lord:

14 For gold, and for the waight of golde, for all vessels of sundry ministrations, for all maner of vessels of siluer in waight, & for all vessels whatsoeuer purpose they serued vnto:

15 The waight of golde for the candlesticks, and the golde for their lamps, with the waight for euery candlesticke, and for the lampes thereof, and for the candlesticks of siluer by waight, both for the candlesticke & also for her lamps, according to the diuersitie of the vse of euery candlestick.

16 And by waight (he gaue) golde for the tables of shewe bread, euen for euery table, and likewise siluer for the tables of siluer, 17 And pure gold for the fleshhookes, cups, and drinking pots: and pure golde in waight for basons, euen for euery bason: and likewise siluer by waight, for euery bason of siluer.

18 And for the altar of incense pure golde by waight, and gold for the paterne of the charet of the Cherubims that stretched out their wings, and couered the arke of the couenant of the Lord.

19 All he sayd was giuen mee by writing of the hand of the Lorde, which made me vnderstand al the workemanship of the paterne.

20 And Dauid said to Solomon his sonne, Be strong, and of good courage, and doe manfully: feare not, nor be faint hearted, for the Lord God, euen my God, is with thee, and he shal not faile thee, nor forsake thee, vntil thou hast finished al the worke that must serue for the house of the Lord.

21 Beholde, the Priestes and Leuites are diuided in companies, for all maner of seruice of the pertaineth to the house of God, they are with thee for al maner of workemanship, and so are al that excel in wisedome for any maner of seruice. thou hast also the princes and al the people wholy at thy commandement.

The xxix. Chapter.

The offering of Dauid, and of the princes, for the building of the temple.

1 AND Dauid the king sayde vnto all the congregation, God hath specially chosen Solomon my sonne, which is yet yong and tender, & the worke is great: for the house shal not bee for man, but for the Lord God. ‖Others reade, my onely sonne.

2 Moreouer, I haue prepared with al my might for the house of my God, gold, for vessels of golde, siluer, for them of siluer, brasse, for things of brasse, iron, for things of iron, and wood, for things of wood, and Onix stones, and stones to be set, ‖glistring stones, and of diuers colours, and all maner of precious stones, and marble stones in great abundance. ‖Some reade, Carbuncle stones.

3 And because I haue lust to the house of my God, I haue of mine owne proper good, of gold and siluer which I haue giuen to the house of my God, beside all that I haue prepared for the holy house, a He was not onely liberall himselfe toward the building of Gods house, but also prouoked other.

4 Euen three thousand talents of golde of Ophir, and seuen thousande talentes of tried siluer, to ouerlay the walles of the house withall.

5 The gold, for things of golde, siluer, for them of siluer, and for al maner of worke by the hands of artificers: and whosoeuer is b willing, may this day consecrate his hand vnto the Lord. b That is, may offer to the building of the house of the Lord.

6 And the auncient fathers, and the lordes of the tribes of Israel, the captaines of thousands, & hundreds, with the lordes that were rulers ouer the kings worke, were willing:

7 And gaue for the seruice of the house of God, fiue thousand talents of gold, and tenne thousande pieces of golde, and ten thousand talents of siluer, and eighteene thousand talents of brasse, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whome precious stones were found, gaue them to the treasure of the house of the Lord, by the hand of Iehiel the Gersonite.

9 And the people reioyced when they were willing to giue their goods, and with a perfect heart they offered willingly to ꝑ Lord, and Dauid the king reioyced with great gladnesse.

10 And Dauid blessed the Lorde before all the congregation, and saide, Blessed bee thou, Lord God of Israel, our father, for euer and for euer.

11 Thine, O Lord, is greatnes, and power, glory, victory, and prayse: for all ꝑ is in heauen and in earth, is thine, and thine is the kingdome, O Lord, and thou exceliest aboue all, euen as the head of all.

12 And riches and honour come of thee, and thou raignest ouer all, and in thine hand is power and strength, and in thine hande it is to make great, and to giue strength vnto all.

13 And now our God, we thank thee, and prayse thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to giue these things so willingly? but all things come of thee, and of that which we receiued at thine hand, we haue giuen thee.

15 For wee bee but strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: *our dayes on the earth also are but as a shadow, and there is none abiding.

16 O Lord our God, all this stuffe that wee haue prepared to build thee an house for thy holy name, cōmeth of thine hād, and is all thine.

17 I wote also, my God, that thou triest ꝑ hearts, & hast pleasure in vnfainednes: & in ꝑ vnfainednesse of mine heart, I haue willingly offered all these things: & now haue I seene thy people which are found here to offer vnto thee willingly, & with gladnesse.

18 O Lord God of Abraham, Isahac, and of Israel our fathers, keepe this for euer in the desire of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their hearts vnto thee.

19 And giue vnto Solomon my sonne a perfect heart, to keepe thy commandements, thy testimonies, & thy statutes, & to do all, & build the house for the which I haue made prouision.

20 And Dauid said to all the congregation, Nowe blesse the Lorde your God. And all the congregation blessed ꝑ Lord God of their fathers, and bowed downe their heads, and worshipped the Lord, & the king.

21 And they offred offrings vnto the Lord: & on the morow after the said day, they offered whole burnt offerings vnto the Lord, euē a thousand yong oxē, a thousand rammes, and a thousande shéepe, with their drinke offerings, many sacrifices offered they for al Israel.

22 And did eate and drinke before the Lord the same day with great gladnes, & they made Solomon the sonne of Dauid king the second time, and anointed him prince before the Lorde, and Sadoc to bee the high Priest.

23 And Solomon sate on the seate of the Lord, and was king in steade of Dauid his father, and prospered: and all they of Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the lordes, and men of power, and al the sonnes of king Dauid submitted themselues, and were vnder king Solomon.

25 And the Lord magnified Solomon in dignitie, in the sight of all them of Israel, and gaue him so glorious a kingdome, as no king had before him in Israel.

26 *And so Dauid the sonne of Isai raigned ouer all Israel. *3.King.2.11.

27 And the space that he raigned ouer Israel, was fourtie yéeres: Seuen yéeres raigned he in Hebron, & thirtie and three yeeres raigned he in Hierusalem.

28 And he died in a good age, full of daies, riches and honour: and Solomon his sonne reigned in his steade.

29 The actes of Dauid the king first and last, beholde, they are written in the booke of Samuel the Seer, and in the booke of dNathan the prophet, and in the booke of Gad the Seer, d The bookes of Nathan and Gad are perished.

‖Or, Salomon.

3.King.3.1.

‖Or, greatly.

2 And Solomon spake vnto all Israel, to the captaines ouer thousands, to the captaines ouer hundreds, to the iudges, and to euery officer in all Israel, and to the ancient fathers.

3 And so Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon: for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the seruant of the Lord made in the wildernesse.

4 But the arke of God had Dauid brought fro Kiriath-iarim, into the place which Dauid had made therefore: for hee had pitched a tent for it at Hierusalem.

Exod.38.1. 5 *Moreouer, the brasen altar that Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur had made, was there before the tabernacle of the Lord: and Salomon and the congregation went to visite it.

6 And Salomon went vp there before the Lord, to the brasen altar that was before the tabernacle of the congregation, and offred a thousand whole burnt offerings vpon it.

7 And the same night did God appeare vnto Salomon, and said vnto him, Aske what I shall giue thee.

8 And Salomon said vnto God, Thou hast shewed great mercie vnto Dauid my father, and hast made me to reigne in his steade.

9 Nowe therefore, O Lord God, let thy promise, which thou madest vnto Dauid my father, bee true: *for thou hast made me king ouer a people which is like the dust of the earth in multitude:

3.King.3.9.

Sept.9.7.

10 *Giue me nowe wisdome and knowledge, that I may be able to a goe in and out before this people: for who else can iudge this people that is so great?

a That I may gouerne this people.

11 And God saide to Salomon, Because this was in thine heart, & because thou hast not asked treasure, & riches, nor honour, nor the b liues of thine enemies, neither yet long life, but hast asked wisdome and knowledge for thy selfe, to iudge my people, ouer who I haue made thee king:

b That is, to be reuenged on thine enemies.

12 Wisedome and knowledge is granted vnto thee, and I will giue thee treasure, and riches, and glory: so that among the kings that haue bene before thee, or after thee, none was or shalbe like thee.

13 And so Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon, to Hierusalem, from the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned ouer Israel.

14 *And Solomon gathered charets, and horsemen: and hee had a thousande and foure hundred charets, and twelue thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and with the king at Hierusalem.

16 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linnen: the kings marchants receiued the fine linnen for a price.

17 They came also, and brought out of Egypt a charet for sixe hundred pieces of siluer, euen an horse for an hundred and fiftie: and so brought they horses for all the kings of the Hethites, and for the kings of Syria, by their owne hande.

The ii. Chapter.

3 Salomon sendeth to Hiram the king of Tyrus for wood and workemen.

1 AND Solomō determined to build an house for the name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdome.

2 And Salomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to beare burdens, and fourescore thousand men to hewe stones in the mountaine, and a three thousande and sixe hundred to ouersee them.

a It is to be vnderstand of all sortes of officers and ouerseers.

3 *And Salomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deale with Dauid my father, and diddest send him Cedar wood to builde him an house to dwell in, euen so deale with me:

3.King.5.2.

4 Behold, I build an house for the name of the Lord my God, to offer vnto him holy things, and to burne sweete incense, and to set shewe bread before him continually, to offer whole burnt sacrifices of the morning, and euening, on the Sabboth dayes, in the first day of euery new moone, and in the solemne feasts of the Lord our God: for it is an ordinance to be continually kept of Israel.

5 And the house which I builde shall bee great: for great is our God, aboue all goddes.

6 But who is able to build him an house? when that heauen, and heauen aboue all heauens is not able to receiue him, what am I then, that shoulde build him an house? nay, but euen to burne sacrifice before him shall this building be.

with

with the cunning men that are with me in Iuda and Hierusalem, whom Dauid my father did prepare.

8 Send me also Cedar trées, pine trées, and e algume trées out of Libanon: for I wote that thy seruants can skill to hewe timber in Libanon: and behold, my men shall be with thine, 9 That they may prepare me timber enough: for the house which I am determined to build, shalbe wonderfull great.

10 And behold, for the vse of thy seruants the cutters and hewers of timber, I haue giuen twentie thousand measures of beaten wheate, and twentie thousand measures of barley, and twentie thousand battes of wine, and twentie thousand battes of oyle.

11 And Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the Lord hath loued his people, therfore hath he made thee king ouer the.

12 And Hiram said moreouer, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, which made heauen and earth, and that hath giuen Dauid the king a wise sonne, & one that hath discretion, prudence, and vnderstanding, to build an house for the Lorde, and a palace for his kingdome.

13 And now I haue sent a wise man, and a man of vnderstanding, whom my father Hiram did vse:

14 The sonne of a woman of the d daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, and he can skil to worke in gold, and siluer, in brasse, and iron, in stone, and timber, in purple, and yealow silke, and fine white, and crimson, & can graue sundrie maner of grauings, and to finde out diuers maners of subtile worke that shal be set before him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lorde Dauid thy father.

15 Now therefore, the wheate, and barley, oile, & wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send vnto his seruants:

16 And we will cut wood in Libanon, as much as thou shalt neede, and will bring it to thee in flotes by sea to Japho, from whence thou mayest carry them to Hierusalem.

17 And Solomon numbred all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the number of them whome his father Dauid had numbred: & they were found an hundred, fiftie, and three thousand, and fiue hundred.

18 And he set threescore and ten thousand to beare burdens, and fourescore thousand to hew stones in the mountaine, and three thousand and fiue hundred officers to set the people a worke.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The temple of the Lord, and the porch are builded, with other things thereto belonging.

1 THen Solomon began to build the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem in mount a Moria, where the Lord appeared vnto Dauid his father, euen in the place that Dauid prepared in the

2 threshing floore of || Ornan the Iebusite. And hee began to build in the seconde day of the seconde moneth, the fourth yeere of his reigne.

3 And these are the paternes whereby Solomon was instruct to build the house of God: the length was threescore cubites, after the olde measure, and the breadth twentie cubites.

4 And the porch that was before the length in the front, according to the breadth of the house, was twentie cubites, and the heigth was an hundred and twentie cubites: and he ouerlaide it on the inner side with pure golde.

5 And the greater house hee sieled with firre trée, which hee ouerlaid with the best golde, and graued thereto palme trées, and chaines.

6 And he ouerlaide the house with pretious stone beautifully: and the gold was gold of Paruaim.

7 The house I say, the beames, postes, walles and doores thereof, ouerlayde he with golde, and graued Cherubims on the walles.

8 And he made the house most holy: whose length was twentie cubites, like to the breadth of the house, & the breadth thereof was also twentie cubits: and he ouerlayd it with good golde, euen with fiue hundred talents.

9 And the waight of the nailes of golde was fiftie sicles: and he ouerlaid the vpper chambers with gold.

10 And in the house most holy, hee made two Cherubims of image worke, like children, and ouerlaid them with golde.

11 And the wings of the Cherubims were twentie cubites long: the one wing was fiue cubites, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise fiue cubites, reaching to the wing of the other Cherub.

12 And euen so the one wing of the other Cherub was fiue cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: & the other wing was fiue cubits also, and reached to the wing of the other Cherub.

13 So that the wings of the saide Cherubims were stretched out twentie cubits: and they stoode on their feete, and looked inwards.

14 *And he made a forehanging of yealow silke, purple, crimson, and fine white, and caused the pictures of Cherubims to be broidered thereon.

15 And he made before the house* two pillars of thirtie and fiue cubites high, and the head that was aboue on the toppe of euery one of them, was fiue cubites.

16 And hee made chaynes of worsted worke for the quier, and put them on the heades of the pillars, and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chaines.

17 And he reared vp the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left: and called the right Iachin, and the left Boaz.

1 Alſo he made an altar of braſſe, twēty cubites long, and twēty cubites broade, and ten cubites high. 1.King.7.23.

2 And he caſt a braſen lauatorie of ten cubites from brimme to brimme, rounde in compaſſe, and fiue cubites high, and a line of thirtie cubites did compaſſe it rounde about.

3 And vnder it, was the faſhion of oxen, which did compaſſe it rounde about: with tenne cubites did they cōpaſſe the lauatorie rounde about, and there were two rowes of oxen, which were caſt like molten worke.

4 And it ſtoode alſo vpon twelue oxen: three looked toward the North, three toward the Weſt, three toward the South, and three towarde the Eaſt, and the lauatorie was ſet vpon them: and all their backes were toward the lauatorie.

5 And the thicknelle of it, was an handbreadth, and the brimme like the brimme of a cup, with flowers of lillies, & it receiued and held three thouſand bates.

6 And hee made ten lauers, and put fiue on the right hand, and fiue on the left, to waſh and cleanſe in them ſuch things as they offred for a whole burnt offering: but the great lauatorie was for the prieſts to waſh in.

7 And hee made tenne candleſtickes of golde, according to the paterne that was giuen of them, and put them in the temple, fiue on the right hande, and fiue on the left.

8 And he made alſo ten tables, and put them in the temple, fiue on the right ſide, and fiue on the left: and he made an hundred baſons of gold.

9 And he made the court of the Prieſts, and the great court, and doores to it, and ouerlaid the doores of them with braſſe.

10 And hee ſet the great lauatorie on the right ſide of the Eaſt ende, ouer againſt the South.

11 And Hiram made pottes, ſhouels, and baſons, and finiſhed the worke that he was appointed to make for king Solomon in the houſe of God.

The things dedicated by Dauid, are put in the temple.

1 Alſo all the worke that Solomon made in the houſe of the Lord was finiſhed: and Solomon brought in all the things that Dauid his father had dedicated, with the ſiluer and gold, & all the iewels, and put them among the treaſures of the houſe of God. 1.King.7.51.

2 Then Solomon gathered the Elders of Iſrael together, and all the heads of the tribes and auncient fathers of the children of Iſrael, vnto Hieruſalem, to bring the arke of the couenant of the Lord out of the citie of Dauid, which is in Sion.

4 And all the Elders of Iſrael came, and the Leuites tooke vp the arke.

5 And the Prieſts & the Leuites brought away the Arke of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the holy veſſels that were in the Tabernacle, and they bare them.

6 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Iſrael, that were aſſembled vnto him before the arke, offered ſheepe and oxen, ſo many, that they could not be told, nor numbred, for multitude.

7 And the Prieſts brought the arke of the couenant of the Lord vnto his place, euen into the quier of the temple, within the place moſt holy, and ſet it vnder the winges of the Cherubims,

8 So that the Cherubims ſtretched out their winges ouer the place of the arke, and the Cherubims couered both the arke and her barres aboue on high.

9 And the barres of the arke were ſo long, that the ‖ heads of the barres were ſeene without the arke, within the quier, but not without: and there the arke remained vnto this day.

3 Solomon bleſſeth the people. 4 He praiſeth the Lord. 14 He prayeth vnto God for thoſe that ſhal pray in the Temple.

3.King.8.12. 1 Then Solomon ſayde, * The Lorde hath ſpoken, how that he will dwell in the darke cloude.
2 And I haue buylt thee an houſe of habitation for thee, & a place for thy dwelling for euer.
3 And the king turned his face, and bleſſed the whole congregation of Iſrael (and all the congregation of Iſrael ſtode.)
4 And he ſayd, Bleſſed be the Lorde God of Iſrael, which hath with his ‖ handes fulfilled it that he ſpake with his mouth to my father Dauid, ſaying,
5 Since the day that I brought my people out of the lande of Egypt, I choſe no citie among all the tribes of Iſrael to buylde an ‖houſe in, that my name might be there, neither choſe I any man to be a ruler ouer my people Iſrael:
6 Sauing that I haue choſen Hieruſalem, that my name might be there, and haue choſen Dauid to be ouer my people Iſrael.
7 And when it was in the heart of Dauid my father, to buylde an houſe for the name of the Lord God of Iſrael,
8 The Lorde ſayde to Dauid my father, For as much as it was in thine heart to buylde an houſe for my name, thou didſt well that thou thoughteſt in thine heart.
9 Notwithſtanding, thou ſhalt not buylde the houſe: but thy ſonne, which ſhall come out of thy loynes, he ſhal buylde an houſe for my name.
10 The Lorde therefore hath made good his ſaying that he hath ſpoken: and I am riſen vp in the rowme of Dauid my father, and am ſet on the ſeate of Iſrael, as the Lord promiſed, and haue buylt an houſe for the name of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

16 And nowe Lorde God of Iſrael, kepe with thy ſeruant Dauid my father, the things that thou promiſedſt him, ſaying, Thou ſhalt in my ſight not be without a man that ſhall ſit vpon the ſeate of Iſrael, ſo that thy children take heede to their wayes, to walke in my lawe, as thou haſt walked before me.
17 And nowe Lord God of Iſrael, let thy ſaying be true, which thou ſpakeſt vnto thy ſeruant Dauid.
18 (And wil God in very deede dwel with men on earth? Beholde, heauen, & heauen aboue all heauens, doe not containe thee, howe much leſſe the houſe which I haue buylded?)

1 The fire consumeth the sacrifice. 2 The glorie of the Lord filleth the Temple.

1 AND when * Solomon had made an ende of praying, there came downe fire from heauen, and consumed the whole burnt offering, and the sacrifices, and the house was filled with the glorie of the Lord.

2.Mac.2.10.

2 And the Priestes could not go into the house of the Lorde, because the glorie of the Lord had filled the Lords house.

3 And when al the children of Israel saw how the fire and the glorie of the Lorde came downe vpō ṗ house, they fel downe flat vpon their faces to the earth, vpon the pauement, and worshipped, and confessed vnto the Lorde, That he is gratious, and that his mercy lasteth euer.

4 And the king, and all the people, offered sacrifices before the Lord.

5 *And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twentie and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twentie thousand sheepe: and so the king and all the people, dedicated the house of God.

3.King.8.63.

6 And the Priests waited on their offices, and the Leuites had the instruments of musicke of the Lorde, which king Dauid had made to confesse vnto the Lord, That his mercy lasteth euer, Dauid praising God by them, and the Priests blew with trumpets before them, and all they of Israel stoode.

7 Moreouer, Solomon halowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lorde: for there he offered whole burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made, was not able to receiue the whole burnt offerings, and the meate offerings, and the fat.

8 So at the same time Solomon kept a [a] feast of seuen dayes, and all Israel with him, an exceeding great congregation, euen from the entring in of Hamath, vnto the riuer of Egypt.

a That was the feast of tabernacles,

9 And in the eight day they made an assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seuen dayes, and the feast seuen dayes.

10 And the three and twentie day of the seuenth moneth, he let the people depart into their tents, glad and merry in heart, for the goodnes that the Lord had shewed to Dauid, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

b I will cause the pestilence to cease, & destroy the beastes that hurt the fruite of the earth, and send raine in due time, 15 And from henceforth mine eyes shalbe open, and mine eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 And therefore now I haue chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for euer: and mine eyes & mine heart shalbe there perpetually.

17 And if thou wilt walke before mee, as Dauid thy father walked, to doe all that I haue commanded thee, and shalt obserue my statutes and my lawes:

18 Then will I stablish the seate of thy kingdome, according as I made the couenant with Dauid thy father, saying, Thou shalt not be without a man to bee ruler in Israel.

19 But if ye turne away, and forsake my statutes and my cõmandements which I haue set before you, and shall goe, and serue other gods, and worship them:

20 Then will I plucke them vp by the rootes, out of my land which I haue giuen them, and this house which I haue sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to bee a prouerbe and a iest among all nations.

21 And this house, which is most high, shal bee an astonishment to euery one that passeth by, and shall say, Why hath the Lord dealt on this fashion with this land, and with this house?

22 And they shall answere, Because they forsooke the Lorde God of their fathers, which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and caught holde on other gods, and worshipped them, and serued them, therefore hath hee brought all this euill vpon them.

12 Then Solomon offered whole burnt offerings vnto the Lorde, on the altar of the Lorde, which he had built before the porch:

13 Doing euery thing in his due time, and offering according to the commaundement of Moses, in the Sabboths, newe Moones, and solemne feasts, three times in the yeere, that is to say, in the feast of sweete bread, in the feast of weekes, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 And Solomon set the sortes of Priests to their offices, as Dauid his father had ordered them, and the Leuites in their watches, for to praise & minister before the Priestes day by day, and the porters by by course at every gate: for so had Dauid the man of God commanded.

15 And they omitted not the commandement of the king vnto the Priestes and Leuites, concerning any maner of thing, and concerning the treasures.

16 For Solomon made prouision for the charges from the first day that the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid, till it was finished, that the house of the Lord was perfect.

17 Then went king Solomon to Ezion Gaber, and to Eloth at the sea side in the land of Edom.

18 And Hiram sent him by the handes of his seruants, ships, and seruantes that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the seruants of Solomon to Ophir, and caried thence foure hundred & fiftie talentes of golde, and brought it to king Solomon.

15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde: and sixe hundred sicles of beaten gold were spent vpon one target.

16 And three hundred shieldes made he of beaten golde: and three hundred pieces of golde went to one shield: and the king put them in the house that was in ṗ forest of Libanon.

17 And the king made a great seate of Iuorie, & ouerlayde it with pure golde.

18 And there was sixe steppes to the seat, with a footestoole of gold fastened to the seate: and pommels on eache side of the sitting place, and two Lions standing by the pommels.

19 And twelue Lions stoode on the one side and on the other vpon the sixe steps: so that there was no such woorke made in any kingdome.

20 And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of golde, and all the vessels of the house that was in the forest of Libanon were of precious golde: for siluer was counted nothing worth in the dayes of Solomon.

21 For the kings ships went to Tharsis with the seruants of Hiram, euery three yeres once came the shippes to Tharsis, and brought golde, siluer, Iuorie, & Apes, and Peacockes.

22 And king Solomō passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisedome.

26 And he raigned ouer all the kings that were from Euphrates vnto the land of the Philistines, & to ṗ border of Egypt.

27 And

27 And the king made siluer in Hierusalem as plenteous as stones, and Cedar trees as pleteous as the Mulberie trées that growe in the valleis.

28 And they brought vnto Solomon horses out of Egypt, & out of all lands.

29 The rest of the actes of king Solomon first and last, are they not written in the sayings of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecie of Ahiah the Silonite, and in the visions of Iddo the Seer of visiõs, against Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat?

30 And Solomon raigned in Hierusalem vpon all Israel fourtie péres.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers: and they buried him in the citie of Dauid his father, and Roboam his sonne raigned in his steade.

The x. Chapter.

4 The rigour of Roboam. 13 Hee followeth lewde counsell. 16 The people rebell.

3.King.12.1. 1 AND *Roboam went to Sichem: for to Sichem were all Israel come together to make him king.

2 And whē Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat (which was fled into Egypt from the presence of Solomō the king) heard it, he returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him: And so Ieroboam and all they of Israel came, & commuued with Roboam, saying,

4 Thy father layde a grieuous yoke vpō vs: nowe therefore remitte thou somewhat of the grieuous seruice of thy father, and of his heauie yoke that he put vpon vs, and we will serue thee.

5 And he sayd to them, Come againe vnto me after thrée dayes. And the people departed.

6 And king Roboam counselled with the Elders that had stande before Solomon his father, while he yet liued, & he saide, What counsell giue yee mee to answere this people againe?

7 And they tolde him, saying, If thou be kinde to this people, and shewe thy selfe lowly to them, and speake louing words to them, they will bee thy seruants for euer.

8 But he left the counsell which the Elders gaue him, and tooke counsell with the yong men that were growē vp with him, and a that stoode in his presence.

a Which were of his counsell and secretes.

9 And he sayd vnto them, What aduice giue ye, that we may answere this people, which haue communed with mee, saying, Abate somwhat of þ yoke which thy father did put vpon vs?

10 And the yong men that were growen vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answere þ people that spake vnto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heauie, but make thou it somewhat lighter for vs: thus shalt thou say vnto them, My litle finger shall bee thicker then my fathers lopnes.

11 For where my father put a heauy yoke vpon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whippes, but I will chastise you with ‖ scourges.

‖ Or, Scorpions.

12 And so Ieroboam and all the people came to Roboam the thirde dape, as the king bade, saying, Come againe to mee the third day.

13 And the king answered them cruelly, & king Roboam left the counsell of the aged men, 14 And answered them after the aduice of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke grieuous, and I will adde thereto: my father chastised you with whippes, but I will chastise you with scourges.

15 *And so the king hearkened not vnto the people: but the occasiō came of God, that the Lord might make good his saying, which he spake by the hand of Ahia the Silonite, to Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat. 3.King.12.31,

16 And when al Israel sawe that the king would not agree vnto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portiō haue we in Dauid? For we haue no inheritance in the sonne of Isai: Euery man to his tent, Oh Israel, and nowe Dauid see to thine owne howse. And so all Israel gate them to their tentes.

17 So that Roboam raigned ouer no moe of the children of Israel then dwelt in the cities of Iuda.

18 Then king Roboam also sent Hadoram that was ruler ouer the tribute, and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died: but king Roboam made speede to get him vp to his charet, to flee to Hierusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of Dauid vnto this day.

The xi. Chapter.

4 Roboam is forbidden to fight against Ieroboam.

1 AND when Roboam was come to Hierusalē, he gathered of the house of Iuda and Beniamin, nine score thousand chosen men of warre, to fight against Israel, & to bring the kingdome againe to Roboam. 3.King.12.22.

2 * And the woorde of the Lorde came to Semeia the man of God, saying,

3 Speake vnto Roboam the sonne of Salomon king of Iuda, and to all them of Israel that are in Iuda and Beniamin, and say,

4 Thus saith the Lorde, Ye shall not goe vp, nor fight against your brethren: returne euery man to his house, for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the woordes of the Lord, and returned from going against Ieroboam.

5 And Roboam dwelt in Hierusalem, & built strong cities in Iuda.

6 He built vp Bethlehem, and Etam, & Thecoa,

7 Bethzur, Socho, and Adullam,

8 Gath, and Mareia, and Ziph,

9 Aduraim, Lachis, and Azecah,

10 Zoraa, Aialon, and Hebron, which is in Iuda and Beniamin, strong cities.

11 And he repayred the strong holdes, and put captaines in them, and store of victaile, and wine, and oyle:

12 And

12 And in all cities he put shieldes and speares, and made them exceeding strog, hauing Juda and Beniamin on his side.
13 And the Priestes and the Leuites that were in all Israel, resorted to him out of all their coastes.
14 For the Leuites left their suburbes, and their possession, and came to Juda and Hierusalem: for Jeroboam and his sonnes had cast them out frō ministring vnto the Lord.
15 And hee ordeined him Priestes for the high places, for the a deuils, and for the calues which he had made.
16 And after the Leuites, there went out of the tribes of Israel, such as submitted their hearts to seeke the Lord God of Israel, and came to Hierusalem, to offer vnto the Lorde God of their fathers.
17 And so they strengthened the kingdome of Juda, and made Roboam the sonne of Solomon mightie three yeeres long: for three b yeres they walked in the way of Dauid and Solomon.
18 And Roboam toke him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the sonne of Dauid to wife, and Abihael the daughter of Eliab the sonne of Jsai:
19 Which bare him children, Jeus, Samaria, and Zaham.
20 And after her hee toke c Maacha the daughter of Absalom, which bare him Abia, Attai, Ziza, and Selomith.
21 And Roboam loued Maacha þ daughter of Absalom aboue all his wiues and concubines: for he toke eightene wiues and threescore concubines, and begate twentie and eight sonnes, and threescore daughters.
22 And Roboam made Abia, the sonne of Maacha, the chiefe ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.
23 d And he played wisely, and scattered al his children throughout all the countreys of Juda and Beniamin, vnto euery strong citie: and he gaue them abundance of victaile, and obteined many wiues.

The xii. Chapter.

Roboam forsaketh the Lord, and is punished by Sesac.

1 AND when Roboam had stablished the kingdome, and became mightie, he forsooke the lawe of the Lord, and a all Jsrael with him.
2 And in the fifth yeere of king Roboam, Sesac king of Egypt came vp against Hierusalem (because they had transgressed against the Lord)
3 With twelue hundred charets, & three score thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt: Lubim, b Sukim, and the Ethiopians.
4 And he toke the strong cities in Juda, and came to Hierusalem.
5 Then came Semeia the Prophet to Roboam, and to the lords of Juda that were gathered together within Hierusalem for Sesac, and sayde vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lorde, Ye haue left me, and therefore haue I also e left you in the handes of Sesac.
6 Wherupon the lords of Jsrael and the king humbled themselues, and said, The Lord is righteous.
7 And when the Lord sawe that they submitted themselues, the word of the Lord came to Semeia, saying, They submit themselues, therefore I will not destroy them, but I wil deliuer them somewhat, and my wrath shall not bee powred out vpon Hierusalem by the hand of Sesac.
8 Neuertheless, they shal be his seruants: to knowe what difference is betweene d my seruice, and the seruice of the kingdomes of the world.
9 And so Sesac king of Egypt came to Hierusalem, and toke away the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kings house, he toke all: and he caried away the shieldes of golde which Solomon made.
10 In steade of which, king Roboam made shieldes of brasse, and committed them to the handes of the chiefe of the garde, and that kept the entrance of the kings house.
11 And when þ king entred into the house of the Lord, the garde came and fet them, and brought them againe vnto the garde chamber.
12 And when hee humbled himselfe, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, that hee would not destroy altogether: and in Juda all was well.
13 * And so king Roboam waxed mightie, and raigned in Hierusalem: and Roboam was one and fourtie yeres old when he began to raigne, and hee raigned seuentene yeeres in Hierusalem, the citie which the Lorde had chosen out of all the tribes of Jsrael to put his name there: & his mothers name was Naama, an Ammonitesse.
14 And hee did euill, because he prepared not his heart to seeke the Lord.
15 The actes also of Roboam first and last, are they not written in the sayinges of Semeia the Prophet, and of Jddo the Seer, which noted the genealogie? and there was warre alway betweene Roboam and Jeroboam.

1 THe eightenth yere of king Jeroboam, began Abia to raigne ouer Juda.
2 And he raigned three yeres in Hierusalem: (His mothers name also was Michaia, the daughter a of Uriel of Gibea:) and there was warre betweene Abia and Jeroboam.

foure hundred thouſand cholen men: and Ieroboam ſet himſelfe in arap to fight againſt him, with eight hundred thouſande picke men, which were ſtrong, and men of armes.

4 And Abia ſtoode vp vpon Zemaraim, an hill which is in mount Ephraim, and ſayde, Heare me thou Ieroboam and all Iſrael.

5 Doe not you knowe how that the Lord God of Iſrael gaue the kingdome ouer them of Iſrael to Dauid for euer, euen to him, and to his ſonnes, with a [b] ſalted couenant?

6 And Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat the ſeruant of Solomon the ſonne of Dauid, is riſen vp, and hath rebelled againſt his Lord.

7 And there gathered vnto him lewde men, the children of Belial, and preuayled againſt Roboam the ſonne of Solomon, when Roboam was [c] yong and tender hearted, and could not ſtand before them.

8 And nowe ye ſay that ye be able to preuayle againſt the kingdome of the Lorde, which is in the hande of the ſonnes of Dauid, and ye be a great multitude, and haue the golden calues which Ieroboam made you for gods.

9 And haue ye not caſt out the Prieſtes of the Lorde the ſonnes of Aaron and the Leuites, and haue made you prieſtes after the maner of the nations of other lands? ſo that whoſoeuer commeth and conſecrateth his hande with a yong ore and ſeuen rammes, the ſame may be a prieſt of them that are no gods.

10 But we belong vnto the Lord our God, whome wee haue not forſaken, and the Prieſtes are the ſonnes of Aaron which miniſter vnto the Lorde, and the Leuites waite vpon their office.

11 They burne vnto the Lorde euery morning and euening, whole burnt ſacrifices, and ſweete incenſe: the ſhewe bread ſet they in order vpon a pure table, and prepare the candleſticke of golde, with the lampes of the ſame, to burne euer at Euen: and truely we keepe the watch of the Lorde our God, but ye haue forſaken him.

12 And beholde, God himſelfe is our captaine, and his Prieſtes blowe with the Trumpets, and cry alarum againſt you. O ye children of Iſrael, fight not againſt the Lord God of your fathers: for it will not proſper with you.

13 But for all that, Ieroboam conueied men priuily about, to come behind them: and ſo they were before Iuda, and the lyers in wayte were behind them.

14 And when they of Iuda looked about, beholde, the battell was before and behind, and they cryed vnto the Lorde, and the Prieſtes blewe with the Trumpets.

15 And the men of Iuda gaue a ſhoute: and as the men of Iuda ſhouted, it came to paſſe that God ſmote Ieroboam and all Iſrael, before Abia and Iuda.

16 And the children of Iſrael fledde before Iuda, & God deliuered them into their hand.

17 And Abia and his people ſlewe a great ſlaughter of them: there fell downe wounded of Iſrael fiue hundred thouſande cholen men.

18 And ſo the children of Iſrael were brought vnder at that time, and the children of Iuda preuailed, [d] becauſe they leaned vnto the Lord God of their fathers.

19 And Abia followed after Ieroboam, and tooke cities from him, Bethel with the townes belonging thereto, Ieſana with the townes that belonged thereto, and Ephron with her townes.

20 And Ieroboam recouered no ſtrength againe in the dayes of Abia: and the Lord plagued him, and he dyed.

21 But Abia waxed mightie, and married foureteene wiues, and begate twentie & two ſonnes, and ſixteene daughters.

22 The reſt of the acts of Abia, his maners and his ſayings, are written in the ſtory of the prophet Iddo.

The xiiii. Chapter.

Aſa deſtroyeth Idolatrie, and commandeth his people to ſerue the true God.

1 SO Abia ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Dauid, *And Aſa his ſonne raigned in his ſteade, in whoſe dayes the land was in quietneſſe tenne yeeres. 3.King.15.b

2 And Aſa did that was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God.

3 For he tooke away ſtrange altars, and the high places, and brake downe the images, and cut downe the groues:

4 And commanded Iuda to ſeeke the Lord God of their fathers, and to doe according to the law and commandement.

5 And he put away out of all the cities of Iuda, the high places and the images: and the kingdome was quiet before him.

6 And he built ſtrong cities in Iuda, becauſe the lande was in reſt, and he had no warre in thoſe yeeres: for the Lorde had giuen him reſt.

7 Therefore he ſayde vnto Iuda, Let vs build theſe cities, and make about them walles, towres, gates, and barres, for the lande is yet in reſt before vs: becauſe we haue ſought the Lorde our God, we haue ſought him, and hee hath giuen vs reſt on euery ſide. And ſo they built, and it proſpered with them.

8 And Aſa had an armie of men that bare ſhieldes and ſpeares, out of Iuda three hundred thouſand, and out of Beniamin that bare ſhieldes, and drewe bowes, two hundred and foureſcoure thouſande: all theſe were valiant men.

9 And there came out againſt them Zarah of Ethiopia, with an hoſt of ten hundred thouſand, and three hundred chariots, and came as farre as Mareſa.

and sayde, Loyde, it is no harde thing with thee to helpe with many, or them that haue no power: helpe vs therefore, O Loyd our God, for wee trust to thee, & in thy name wee goe against this multitude: thou art the Loyd our God, and no man shall preuaple against thee.

12 So the Loyde smote the Ethiopians before Asa and Juda, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that was with him followed after him vnto Gerar: and the Ethiopians fell was ouerthowen, that there was none of them left, but were destroyed before the Loyde and before his hoste: and they caried awap a mightie great pray.

14 And they smote all the cities rounde about Gerar, for the feare of þ Loyd came vpon them: and they spoyled all the cities, and there was exceeding much spoyle in them.

15 They smote also the tentes of cattel, & caried awap plentie of sheepe and camels, and returned to Hierusalem.

The xv. Chapter.

1 The exhortation of Azaria. 8 Asa purgeth his countrey of idolatrie. 14 They sweare together to serue the Lorde. 16 He deposeth his mother for her idolatrie.

1 AND the spirit of God came on Azaria the sonne of Obed.

2 And he went out to meete Asa, and said vnto him, Heare me, Asa, & all Juda & Beniamin, þ Loyd is with you, while ye be with him: and when yee seeke him, hee will bee founde of you: and againe, when ye forsake him, hee also wil forsake you.

a For the space of twelue yeeres vnder Roboam, and three yeeres vnder Abia, true religion was neglected, and idolatry planted.

3 Nowe for a long a season Israel hath bene without the true God, and without Priests to teach, and without lawe.

4 And when any man in his trouble did turne vnto the Loyd God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in that time there was no peace to him that did goe out and in, but great sedition was there among all the inhabiters of the earth.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, & citie of citie: for God did moue all aduersitie among them.

7 Play yee therefore the men, and let not your hands slacke: for your worke shal bee rewarded.

8 And when Asa heard those woordes, and the prophecie of b Azaria the sonne of Obed the Prophet, hee tooke courage, and put awap the abominable idoles out of all the lande of Juda and Beniamin, and out of the cities which hee wanne in mount Ephraim, and renued þ altar of the Loyd that was before þ porch of the Loyd.

b He had two names, both Azaria, and Obed.

9 And hee gathered all Juda and Beniamin, and the strangers with them, out of Ephraim, Manasse, and Simeon: for there fell many to him out of Israel, whe they sawe that the Loyde his God was with him.

10 So they assembled together at Hierusalem the c third moneth, the fifteenth yere of the raigne of Asa.

11 And they offered vnto the Loyd þ same time, of þ spoyle which they had brought, seuen hundred oxen, and seuen thousand sheepe.

12 And they made a couenant to seeke the Loyd God of their fathers with all their heart, and all their soule.

1 IN the thirtie & fyre yere of the raigne of Asa, came Baasa king of Israel against Juda, and buylt Rama, to the intent that he would let none passe out or in to Asa king of Juda.

2 And Asa fet out golde and siluer out of the treasures of the house of the Loyde, & out of the kings house, and sent to Benhadad king of Syria that dwelt at ‖ Damascus, saying,

‖ Or, Damascus.

3 There is a confederation betweene me and thee, betweene my father and thine: beholde, I haue sent thee siluer and gold, that thou wilt come & breake thy league with Baasa king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Benhadad graunted vnto king Asa, and sent the captaines of his armies to the cities of Israel: and they smote Ijon, Dan, and Abilmaim, and all the strong cities of Nephthali.

5 And when Baasa heard this, hee left buylding of Rama, & let his worke cease.

6 And then Asa the king tooke all Juda, and caried awap the stones and timber of Rama wherewith Baasa was a buylding, and hee buylt therewith Geba and Mispah.

7 At that time Hanani the Seer came to 14 And they buried him in his owne sepulchre, which he had made for himselfe in the citie of Dauid, and layde him in the bedde which was filled with diuers kindes of spices, and swete odours, made by the craft of the apothecaries: and they made a very great burning.

The xvii. Chapter.

Iosaphat trusting in the Lord, prospereth in riches & honour. 6 He abolisheth idolatrie, 7 and causeth the people to be taught.

1 AND Iosaphat his sonne raigned in his steade, and preuailed against Israel.

2 And he put souldiers in all the strong cities of Juda, and set rulers in the land of Juda, & in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had wonne.

3 And the Lorde was with Iosaphat, because he walked in the former wayes of his father Dauid, & sought not Baalim:

4 But sought the Lord God of his father, and walked in his commandementes, & not after the doings of Israel.

5 And the Lord stablished the kingdome in his hande, and all Juda brought him presents, so that hee had abundance of riches and honour.

6 And he lift vp his heart vnto the wayes of the Lord, and he put downe yet more of the high places & groues out of Juda.

a Iosaphat sent visitours abroad into the countreys to see religion reformed, and the people truely instructed

7 In the third yeere of his raigne he sent to his lordes, euen to Benhail, Obadia, Zacharia, Nethanel, and to Michaia, p they should teache in the cities of Juda:

8 And with them he sent Leuites, euen Semeia, Nethania, Zebadia, Asael, Semiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonia, Tobia, and Tob adonia, Leuites: and with them Elisama and Joram, Priestes.

9 And they taught in Juda, and had the booke of the law of God with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Juda, and taught the people.

10 And the feare of the Lorde fell vpon all the kingdomes of the landes that were round about Juda, and they fought not against Iosaphat.

11 And some of the Philistines brought Iosaphat gifts, and tribute siluer, and the Arabians brought him cattel, euen seuen thousand & seuen hundred rāmes, and seuen thousand and seuen hundred he goates.

12 And so Iosaphat prospered and grewe vp an high: and hee buylt in Juda castles, and cities of stone.

13 And he had great substance in the cities of Juda: but the men of armes & stroggest souldiers were in Hierusalem. ‖Or, great workes.

14 And these are the offices of them in the house of their fathers: the captaines ouer thousands in Juda, Adna the captaine, and with him of fighting men, three hundred thousande. ‖Or, number.

15 And next to his hande was Jehonana captaine, and with him two hundred & fourescore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasia the sonne of Zichri, which of his owne good will offered him selfe vnto the Lord, and with him two hundred thousand mightie men of warre.

17 And of the children of Beniamin, Eliada a man of might, and with him armed men with bowe and shielde two hundred thousande.

3 And Achab king of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat king of Juda, Wilt thou goe with me to Ramoth in Gilead? And hee answered him, I will be as thou, and my people shalbe as thine, and wee will goe with thee to the warre.

4 And Iosaphat sayde vnto the king of Israel, Seeke counsel, I pray thee, at the worde of the Lord this same day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of Prophets foure hundred men, and sayde vnto them, Shall wee goe to Ramoth in Gilead to fight, or should I ceasse? And they said, Goe vp, and God shall deliuer it vnto the kings hand.

and

6 But Iosaphat sayde, Is there yet here neuer a Prophet more of the Lorde, that we might aske of him?

7 And the king of Israel sayd vnto Iosaphat, There is yet one man, by whome we may aske the Lorde, but I hate him, for he neuer prophecied me good, but alway euill: and the same is Micheas the sonne of Jemla. And Iosaphat sayde, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called one of his chamberlaines, and sayde, Fetch hither quickly Micheas the sonne of Jemla.

9 And the king of Israel and Iosaphat king of Juda sate either of them in his seate in their apparell, in a threshing floore beside the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets prophecied before them.

10 And one Zedecia the sonne of Chanaana had made him hornes of yron, and sayde, Thus sayeth the Lord, With these thou shalt push Syria, vntill they bee brought to nought.

11 And all the prophets prophecied euen so, saying, Go vp to Ramoth in Gilead, and it shall prosper with thee: for the Lorde shall deliuer it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micheas, spake to him, saying, Beholde, the wordes of the prophetes speake good to the king with one assent: let thy words therefore, I pray thee, bee like one of theirs, that thou speake that which is pleasant.

13 And Micheas said, As the Lord liueth, euē what my God saith, that will I speake.

14 And when hee was come to the king, the king sayd vnto him, Micheas, shoulde we goe to Ramoth in Gilead to fight, or leaue off? And he sayde, Goe vp, and all shalbe well, and they shal be deliuered into your hand.

15 And the king sayde to him, So and so many times doe I charge thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me, in the name of the Lorde.

16 Then he sayde, I did see all Israel scattered in the mountaines, as sheepe that haue no shepheard, and the Lorde sayde, These haue no master: let them returne euery man therfore to his house in peace b He propheci-eth howe the people should be dispearsed, & Achab slayne.

17 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would not prophecie good vnto me, but euill?

18 But he sayde againe, Therefore heare the worde of the Lord: I saw the Lorde sit vpon his seate, and all the company of heauen stoode on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the Lord sayde, Who shall deceiue Achab king of Israel, that he may go vp and be slaine downe at Ramoth in Gilead? and one said this, another said that.

20 And there came out a spirite, and stoode before the Lorde, and sayde, I will deceiue him. And the Lorde sayd vnto him, wherein?

21 And he sayde, I will goe out, and be a lying spirite in the mouth of all his prophetes. And the Lord sayde, Thou shalt deceiue him, and shalt preuaile: goe out, and doe euen so.

c They that will not beleeue the trueth, God sendeth strong delusions, that they should beleeue lyes.

22 And nowe therefore beholde, the Lorde hath put a lying spirit in the mouthes of all these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken euill against thee.

23 Now Zedecia the sonne of Chanaana went to, and smote Micheas vpon the cheeke, and sayde, Tush what way went the spirite of the Lord from me, to speake with thee?

d Thus the hypocrites boast of the spirit which they haue not, and declare their malice against them in whom the true spirit is.

24 And Micheas sayd, Behold, thou shalt see the day when thou shalt go from chamber to chamber for to hide thy selfe.

25 And the king of Israel sayde, Take Micheas, and bring him to Amon the gouernour of the citie, & to Joas the kings sonne.

26 And ye shall say, Thus sayeth the king, Put this fellowe in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction, and water of trouble, vntill I come againe in peace.

27 And Micheas said, If thou come againe in peace, then hath not the Lorde spoken by me. And he sayde, Hearken to me, ye people euery one of you.

28 And so the king of Israel and Iosaphat the king of Juda went vp to Ramoth in Gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said vnto Iosaphat, I will change me when I go to the battel: but see that thou haue thine owne apparell vpon thee. And the king of Israel changed himselfe, and they came to the battell.

30 But the king of Syria had commanded the captaines of the charets that were with him, saying, See that ye fight not against small or great, saue against the king of Israel onely.

31 And when the captaines of the charets sawe Iosaphat, they sayd, It is the king of Israel: and therefore they compassed about him to fight. * But Iosaphat cried out, and the Lorde helped him, and God ‖ chased them away from him.

1. King. 22. 32.

‖ Or, moued them to depart from him.

32 For when the captaines of the charets perceiued that it was not the king of Israel, they turned backe againe from him.

33 And a certaine man drewe a bowe ‖ at a aduenture, and smote the king of Israel betweene the ioynters of his habergin: and hee sayd to his charetman, Turne thine hand, that thou mayst carry me out of the hoste, for I am wounded.

‖ Or, in his simplicitie.

34 And the battell encreased that day: howbeit, the king of Israel caused his charet to stand still against the Syrians, vntill euen, and about the time of the sunne going downe, he dyed.

e He dissembled his hurt, that his souldiers might fight the more courageously.

The xix. Chapter.

1 After Iosaphat was rebuked by the Prophet, he calleth againe the people to the honouring of the Lord.

1 And Iosaphat the king of Iuda returned home againe in peace to Hierusalem.
2 And Iehu the sonne of Hanani the seer, went out to meete him, and sayde vnto king Iosaphat, Wouldest thou helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the Lorde? Therefore is wrath come vpowne thee from before the Lorde:
3 Neuertheles, there are some good acts found in thee, in that thou hast hewen downe the groues out of the lande, and hast prepared thine heart to seeke God.
4 And Iosaphat dwelt at Hierusalem, and turned, and went out to the people from Beersheba tomount Ephraim, and brought them againe vnto the Lord God of their fathers.
5 And he set iudges in þ land, throughout all the strong cities of Iuda, citie by citie, 6 And sayde to the Iudges, Take heede what ye doe: for ye execute not the iudge-ments of man, but of GOD, which is with you in the iudgement.
7 Wherefore now let the feare of the Lord be vpon you, and take heede, and be doing: the thing that pleaseth him: for there is no vnrighteousnesse with the Lorde our God, that hee should haue any respect of persons, or take rewardes.
8 Moreouer, in Hierusalem did Iosaphat set of the Leuites and of the Priestes, and of the auncient fathers ouer Israel, in the iudgement and cause of the Lorde, and they returned againe to Hierusalem.
9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye doe in the feare of the Lord faithfully, and with a pure heart:
10 What cause soeuer come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, betweene blood and blood, betweene lawe and commandement, betweene statutes and ordinances: ye shal warne them that they trespasse not against the Lorde, and so wrath come vpon you and your brethren: thus doe, and ye shall not offend.
11 And beholde, Amaria the high Priest is among you in all matters of the Lord, and Zebadia the sonne of Ismael, a ruler of the house of Iuda, for all the kings matters: There bee officers of the Le-uites also before you, take courage to you therefore, and bee doing manfully, and þ Lorde shalbe with such as be good.

The xx. Chapter.

Iosaphat and the people pray vnto the Lorde. 22 The marueilous victorie that the Lorde gaue him against his enemies. 30 His raygne and actes.

1 After this also, the children of Moab and the children of Ammon, and with them other of þ Ammonites, came against Iosaphat to battell.
2 And there came some that tolde Iosa-phat, saying, There commeth a great multitude against thee from the other side of the sea, and out of Syria, and behold, they be in Hasason Thamar, which is in En-gadi.
3 And Iosaphat feared, and set himselfe to seeke the Lord, and proclaymed fasting throughout all Iuda.
4 And Iuda gathered themselues together, to aske counsel of the Lord: and they came out of all the cities of Iuda, ‖to make intercession to the Lorde.
5 And Iosaphat stoode betweene the congregation of Iuda and Hierusalem, in the house of the Lorde, before the newe court,
6 And sayde, O Lord God of our fathers, art not thou God in heauen, and raignest not thou on all the kingdomes of the heathen, and in thine handes power and might, and there is no man that is able to withstand thee?
7 Art not thou our God which diddest cast out the inhabiters of this land before thy people Israel, and gauest it to the seede of Abraham thy louer, for euer?

thee a temple therein for thy name, saying, whome thou wouldest not let them of Israel goe, when they came out of the lande of Egypt, but they departed from them, and destroyed them not:

11 See how they reward vs, to come to cast vs out of thy possession, which thou hast giuen vs to inherite.
12 O our God, wilt thou not iudge them?
for we haue no might against this great company that commeth against vs: neither wote we what to doe, but our eyes a be vnto thee.
13 And all Iuda stoode before the Lorde, with their yong ones, their wiues, and their children.
14 And there was Iahaziel the sonne of Zacharia, the sonne of Benaia, the sonne of Iehiel, the sonne of Matthania, a Leuite, of the sonnes of Asaph, and vpon him came the spirite of the Lorde in the middes of the congregation:
15 And he sayde, Hearken all Iuda, and ye inhabiters of Hierusalem, and thou king Iosaphat, Thus saieth the Lorde vnto you, Be not afraid, nor faynt hearted, by reason of this great multitude: for the battell is not yours, but Gods.
16 To morowe goe yee downe against them: beholde, they come vp by the clift of Ziz, and ye shal finde them at the ende of the brooke, before the wildernesse of Ieruel.
17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battel, but stey forth, and stande, and beholde
the helpe of the Lord which is with you:
feare not, nor let your hearts faple you,
O ye of Iuda and of Hierusalem, to mo-rowe goe out against them, for the Lorde will be with you.
18 And Iosaphat b bowed his face to the earth,

earth, and al Iuda and the inhabiters of Hierusalem fell before the Lorde, worshipping the Lorde.

19 And the Leuites of the children of the Caathites, and of the children of the Corahites, stood vp to praise the Lord God of Israel, with a loude voyce on high.

20 And when they arose early in the morning, they gate them out vnto the wildernes of Thecoa: and as they went out, Iosaphat stode, and saide, Heare me, O Iuda, and ye inhabiters of Hierusalem: Beleue in the Lorde your God, so shall ye be sure: beleue his prophets, and so shall ye prosper.

21 When he had consulted with the people, and set some to sing vnto the Lorde, and to praise him in the beautie of holynesse, and to goe out before the armie, & to say, Praise the Lorde, for his mercie endureth euer.

22 And when they began to reioyce, and to praise, the Lord the Lorde layde ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Iuda, and they were ouercommen.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab, rose against the inhabiters of mount Seir, and slew and destroyed them: and when they had made an ende of the inhabiters of Seir, euery one helped to destroy another among themselues.

24 And when Iuda came toward Mispah in the wildernes, they looked vnto the multitude, & behold, they were dead carkeises fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Iosaphat and his people came to take away the spoyle of them, they found among them abundance of goods, rayment, and precious iewels, which they toke for themselues, more then they could beare away: so that they were three dayes in gathering of the spoyle, it was so much.

26 And the fourth day they assembled in the valley of Berachah: for there they blessed the Lord, and therefore they called the name of the same place, The valley of Berachah, vnto this day.

a Gaue thankes vnto the Lord for that victorie.

27 And so all the men of Iuda and Hierusalē, returned with Iosaphat their head, for to go again to Hierusalē with gladnesse: for the Lord had made them to reioyce ouer their enemies.

28 And they came to Hierusalem with Psalteries, and Harpes, & Trumpets, vnto the house of the Lord.

29 And the feare of God fell on the kingdomes of all lands, when they had heard that the Lord fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 And so the realme of Iosaphat was in tranquilitie, and his God gaue him rest on euery side.

31 And Iosaphat raigned vpon Iuda, and was thirtie and fiue yeere olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned twentie and fiue yeere in Hierusalem: and his mothers name was Azuba, the daughter of Silhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and turned not therefrom, doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord.

33 Howbeit, the high places were not taken away: for the people had not yet prepared their hearts vnto the God of their fathers.

1. King. 22. 43.

34 The rest of the acts of Iosaphat first and last, beholde, they are written among the sayings of Iehu the sonne of Hanani, which were put them in the booke of the kings of Israel.

35 After this did Iosaphat king of Iuda ioyne himselfe with Ahazia king of Israel, whose manner was to doe wickedly:

36 He ioyned himselfe with him, to make shippes to goe to Tharshis: and they made the shippes in Ezion Gaber.

37 And Eliezer the sonne of Dodauah of Maresa, prophecied against Iosaphat, saying, Because thou hast ioyned thy selfe with Ahazia, the Lord hath broken thy workes. And the shippes were broken, that they were not able to goe to Tharshis.

d God would not haue his to ioyne in societie with idolaters and wicked men.

The xxi. Chapter.

Iosaphat dyeth. 2. Ioram succeedeth him. 4. Which killeth his brethren. 16. He is oppressed of the Philistims. 18. His miserable ende.

1 Iosaphat also slept with his fathers, & was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid: and Ioram his sonne raigned in his steade.

2 And he had brethren which were the sonnes of Iosaphat, Azaria, Iehiel, Zacharia, Azaria, Michael, & Seychatia: all these are the sonnes of Iosaphat king of Iuda.

3 And their father gaue them many great gifts of gold and siluer, and other precious substance, with strong cities in Iuda: but the kingdome gaue he to Ioram, for he was the eldest.

4 And Ioram rose vp against the kingdome of his father, and preuailed, and slewe all his brethren with the swoorde, & diuers of the lordes of Israel.

5 Ioram was thirtie and two yeere olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned eight yeere in Hierusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab, for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: & he wrought euil in the eyes of the Lord.

a It is dangerous to marry one of a strange religion.

7 Howbeit, the Lorde would not destroy the house of Dauid, because of the couenant that he had made with Dauid, as he promised, to giue a light to him and to his sonnes for euer.

2. King. 8. 19.

8 In his dayes the Edomites rebelled, so that they were vnder the dominion of Iuda, and made them selues a king.

9 And Ioram went forth with his lordes, and all his chariots were with him: & he rose vp by night, & smote the Edomites, which compassed him in: and the captaines of the hundreds 21 But Ioram reigned thus, so that they could not be vnder the power of Iuda this to this day: that same time did Libnah rebell vnder his hande, because he had forsaken the Lord God of his fathers.

b Meaning idolatrie, because the idolater breaketh promise with God, as doeth the adultereſſe woman with her husband, 11 Moreouer, he made high places in the mountaines of Iuda, and caused the inhabiters of Hierusalem to b commit fornication, and prouoked Iuda to idolatrie.

12 And there came a writing to him from Eliahu Prophet, saying, Thus saieth the Lord God of Dauid thy father: Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of Iosaphat thy father, and in the wayes of Asa king of Iuda:

13 But walkedst in the wayes of the kings of Israel, and hast made Iuda, and the inuiters of Hierusalem, to goe a whoring like to the whoredome of the house of Achab, and hast slaine thy brethren euen thy fathers house, which were better then thou:

14 Behold, with a great plague will the Lord smite thy folke, thy children, thy wiues, and all thy goods.

15 And thou shalt suffer great paine, euen a disease of thy bowels, vntill thy guttes fall out by reason of thy sickenesse day by day.

16 And to the Lorde stirred vp against Ioram the spirit of the Philistines, c the Arabians that were beside d Ethiopians.

17 And they came vp into Iuda and wasted it and tooke away all the substance that was found in the kings house, and his sonnes, & his wiues, so that there was neuer a sonne left him, saue ‖ Ioahaz, which was e youngest among his sonnes.

‖ Or, Ahazia.

18 And after all these thinges, the Lorde smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And in processe of time, after the end of two yeeres, his guttes fell out in his sickenesse, and so he died of very euil diseases: and they made no burning for him like the burning of his fathers.

‖ Or, deposed, chap. 22. 4. Kyng. 8. 24.

20 When he began to raigne, he was thirtie and two yeeres olde, and raigned in Hierusalem eight yeeres, & lived ‖ vnrechedly: & when he died, they buried him in the citie of Dauid, but not among the sepulchres of the kings.

The xxii. Chapter.

Ahaziahs parents & death. The kings lineage.

1 And the inhabiters of Hierusalem made Ahazia his yongest sonne king in his steade: for the men of warre that came with the hoste of the Arabians, had slayne all his eldest sonnes. And so Ahazia the sonne of Ioram king of Iuda was made king.

2 a Fourtie and two yeeres olde was he when he began to raigne, and he raigned one yeere in Hierusalem: his mothers name was Athalia, b daughter of Amri

3 And her walked also in the wayes of the house of Achab: for his mother by her counsell stirred him to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did that which was euil in the sight of the Lorde, as did they that were of the house of Achab: for they were his counsellours after the death of his father, to his destruction.

d Euill counsellours maketh euill king.

5 And he walked after their counsaile, and went with Ioram sonne of Achab king of Israel, to fight against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth in Gilead: & the Syrians smote Ioram.

6 And he turned to be healed in Iezrahel, of the woundes which were giuen him at Rama, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria: and Ahazia the sonne of Ioram king of Iuda, went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Achab at Iezrahel, because he was diseased.

7 And it came of God that Ahazia should be destroyed for his comming to Ioram: for when he was come, he went out vnto Ioram against Iehu the sonne of Nimsi, whome the Lorde had anointed to destroy the house of Achab.

8 And when Iehu was executing iustice vpon the house of Achab, and founde the rulers of Iuda, and the sonnes of the brethren of Ahazia that waited on Ahazia, he slue them.

9 And he sought Ahazia: and they caught him (where he was hid in Samaria) & brought him to Iehu, and when they had slaine him, they buried him: because (said they) he is the sonne of Iosaphat, which sought the Lord with all his heart: And the house of Ahazia had no power to keepe still the kingdome.

10 ‖ But when Athalia the mother of Ahazia, sawe that her sonne was dead, she arose and e destroyed all the kinge seede in the kinred of Iuda.

11 And Iosabeth the daughter of the king, tooke Ioas the sonne of Ahazia, and stale him from among the kings sonnes that were slaine, and put him and his nurse in a parlor chamber: and so Iosabeth the daughter of king Ioram, the wife of Iehoiada the Priest, (for she was sister of Ahazia) hid him from Athalia, that he was not slaine.

12 And so he was with them hidde in the house of God, sixe yeeres: and Athalia raigned ouer the land.

The xxiii. Chapter.

Ioas the sonne of Ahazia is made king. Athaliah is slaine. The kinges seruice restored.

1 And in the seuenth yeere, Iehoiada being bolde, tooke the captaines of hundreds, Azaria the sonne of Ioram, and Ismael the sonne of Iehohanan, Azaria the sonne of Obed, Maasia the sonne of Adaia, and Elisaphat the sonne of Zichri, and made a bond with them.

3 And

3 And all the congregation made a bond with the king in the house of God: and he saide vnto them, Beholde, the kings sonne must reigne, as the Lord hath saide of the children of Dauid.

4 This is it therefore that ye shall doe, The third part of you shall of the Sabboth come to the Priestes, Leuites, and keepers of the porches.

5 And another third part shall be by the kings house, and another third part shal be at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall bee in the courts of the house of the Lord.

6 But there shal none come into the house of the Lord, saue the Priests and Leuites that minister, they shal go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keepe the watch of the Lord.

7 And the Leuites shal compasse the king round about, and euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand, and what other man soeuer doth come into the house of the Lord he shall bee slaine: and let them bee with the king when he commeth in, and when he goeth out.

8 And the Leuites, and all Iuda, did according to all things that Iehoiada the Priest had commanded, and tooke euery man his men that came in on the Sabboth, with them that went out on the Sabboth day: neither did Iehoiada the Priest let the companies depart.

9 And Iehoiada the Priest, deliuered to the captaines of hundreds, speares, shields, and bucklers, that had pertained to king Dauid, and were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people (euery man hauing his weapon in his hand) from the right side of the temple, to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, round about the king.

11 And they brought out the kings sonne, and put vpon him the crowne, and the testimonie, and made him king: and Iehoiada and his sonnes annointed him, and said, God saue the king.

12 When Athalia heard the noyse of the people running, and praysing the king, she came to the people in the house of the Lorde.

13 And she looked, and beholde, the king stoode [a] in his place at the entring in, and the lords and the trumpets were by the king, and all the people of the lande reioyced, blowing with trumpets: also the singers were with instruments of musicke, and such as could sing prayse: but Athalia rent her clothes, and said, Treason, treason.

14 And Iehoiada the Priest went out to the captaines of hundreds, that were ouer the armies of the host, and said vnto them, Haue her forth of the ranges: and [b] who so followeth her, let him be slaine with the sworde: For the Priest sayde, That they should not slay her in the house of the Lord.

15 And they layde handes on her, till shee was come to the entring of the horse gate, beside the kings house, and there they slue her.

16 And Iehoiada made a bond betweene him, and all the people, and the king, that they should be the Lords people:

17 And all the people went out to the house of Baal, and destroyed it, and brake his [c] altars and his images, & slew Matthan the Priest of Baal, before the altars.

18 And Iehoiada [d] put the officers for the house of the Lord vnder the hande of the Priests and Leuites, as Dauid had distributed them in the house of Lorde, to offer whole burnt offrings vnto the Lord, as it is writte in the law of Moses, with reioycing, and singing, as it was ordeyned by Dauid.

19 And hee set porters by the gates of the house of the Lord, that none which was vncleane in any thing, should enter in.

20 And he tooke the captaines of hundreds, and all the nobles, and the gouernours of the people, and all the folke of the land, and caused the king to come downe out of the house of the Lorde, and they came throwe the high gate into the kinges house, and set the king vpon the seate of the kingdome.

21 And all the people of the land reioyced, & the citie was in tranquilitie after that they had slaine Athalia with the sword.

3 And Iehoiada gaue him two wiues, & he begate sonnes and daughters.

4 And after this, Ioas was minded to renew the house of the Lord.

5 And he gathered together the Priestes, and the Leuites, and saide to them, Goe out vnto the cities of Iuda, and gather of all Israel, money to repaire the house of your God, from yere to yere, and see that ye haste the thing: Howbeit the Leuites were slacke.

6 And the king called Iehoiada [b] that was the chiefest, and said vnto him, Why requirest thou not of the Leuites to bring in out of Iuda and Hierusalem, the collection of money, according to the commandement of Moses the seruat of the Lord, and of the congregation of Israel, for the Tabernacle of witnesse?

7 For wicked Athalia and her children, brake vp the house of God, and all the things that were dedicate for the house of the Lord, did they bestow vpon Baalim.

11 And at the same time they brought in the chest, vnto them which were in the kings business, by þ hand of the Leuites, & when they saw that there was much money: the kings scribe, and one appointed by the high priest, came and emptied the chest, and tooke it, and caried it to his place againe. Thus they did day by day, and gathered much money.

12 And the king and Iehoiada gaue it to such as did labour & worke in the house of the Lord, and hired Masons and Carpenters to repaire the house of the Lord, & so did they artificers in yron & brasse, to mend the house of the Lord.

13 And so the workemen wrought, and the worke mended throughow their hands: and they made the house of God as it ought to be, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Iehoiada, and therewith were made vessels for the house of the Lord, euen vessels to minister withall, & chargers, and spoones, vessels of gold and siluer: and they offered whole burnt offerrings in the house of the Lord continually, all the dayes of Iehoiada.

Or, morters, or bowles.

15 But Iehoiada waxed olde, and died full of dayes: for an hundred & thirtie yeeres olde was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the citie of Dauid, among the kinges, because he dealt well with Israel, and with God, & with his house.

17 And after the death of Iehoiada, came the e lordes of Iuda, and made obeisance to the king: and the king hearkened vnto them.

e Which were flatterers and idolaters.

18 And so they left the house of the Lorde God of their fathers, and serued groues and idoles, and then came the wrath of God vpo Iuda and Hierusalem for this their trespasse sake.

19 And he sent prophets to them, to bring them againe vnto the Lorde, & they testified vnto thē, but they would not heare.

20 And the spirit of God came vpon Zacharia the sonne of Iehoiada the priest, which stood by the people, and said vnto them, Thus saith God, Why transgresse ye the commandements of the Lorde, that ye can not prosper? for because ye haue forsaken the Lord, he also hath forsaken you.

21 Wherefore they conspired against him, d and stoned him with stones, at the commandement of the king, euen in the court of the house of the Lord.

d Idolaters are euer cruel.

22 And Ioas the king remembred not the kindnesse which Iehoiada his father had done to him, but slue his sonne, and when he died, he said, The Lord looke vpon it, and requite it.

Matt. 23. 35.

23 And when the yeere was out, the host of Syria came vp against him, and they came against Iuda and Hierusalem, and destroyed all the lords of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoile of them vnto the king to Damascus.

24 For the Syrians came with a small companie of men, & the Lord deliuered a very great host into their hande, because they had forsaken the Lorde God of their fathers: & they gaue sentēce against Ioas.

25 And when they were departed from him, they left him in great diseases: and his owne seruants conspired against him, for the blood of the e children of Iehoiada the priest, and slewe him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the citie of Dauid, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him: Zabad þ sonne of Shimeath, an Ammonite, and Iehosabad the sonne of Shimrith, a Moabite.

27 f And his sonnes, and the summe of the rate that was raised in his time, and the repairing of the house of God, beholde, they are written in the storie of the booke of the kings: and Amazia his sonne reigned in his stead.

f That is, concerning his sonnes.

The xxv. Chapter.

3 Amazia punisheth them to death which slew his father. 14 He falleth to idolatrie.

1 AMazia was twentie & fiue yeeres olde when he began to reigne, and he reigned twenty and nine yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name was Iehoaddan, of Hierusalem.

2 And he did that which is right in þ sight of the Lord, but not with a perfect heart.

a Meaning in respect of his predecessours, albeit he had his imperfection.

3 And as soone as the was setled in the kingdome, he slue his seruants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, because it is written thus in the lawe and booke of Moses, where the Lorde commanded, saying, * The father shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers: but euery man shall die for his owne sinne.

Deut. 24. 16. 4. king. 14. 6. Ezech. 18, 20.

5 And Amazia gathered Iuda together, and made them captaines ouer thousands, and ouer hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Iuda and Beniamin: & he numbred them from twentie yeeres olde and aboue, and found among them three hundred thousand chosen men able to go to battell, and that could handle speare and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousande strong fighting men out of Israel, for an hundred talents of siluer.

7 And there came a man of God to him, and said, O king, let not the armie of Israel come with thee: for the Lorde is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt needs be fashioned, rome on, & take the battel in hand, & God shall make thee fall before the enemie: for God hath power to helpe, and to cast downe.

9 And

9 And Amazia saide to the man of God, What shall we doe then for the hundred talents which I haue giuen to the hoste of Israel? The man of God answered, The Lord is able to giue thee much more then they be.

10 And Amazia separated the armie that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home againe: wherefore they were exceeding wroth with Juda, and returned home in great anger.

11 And Amazia tooke heart, and caried out his people, and went to the salt valley, and smote of the children of Seir, ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand did the children of Juda take aliue, and caried them vnto the top of a rocke, and cast them downe from the top of ꝑ rocke, that they all to burst.

13 But the souldiers of the [b] armie which Amazia sent alway that they should not goe with his people to battell, fell vpon the cities of Juda, from Samaria, vnto Bethhon, and smote three thousand of them, and tooke much spoyle.

14 And after that Amazia was come frō the slaughter of ꝑ Edomites, he brought the goddes of the children of Seir, and set them vp to be his goddes, and bowed himselfe before them, and burned incense vnto them.

15 Wherefore the Lord was wroth with Amazia, and sent vnto him a Prophet, which saide vnto him, Why hast thou sought the goddes of the people, which were not able to [c] deliuer their owne people out of thine hand.

16 And as the Prophet talked with him, the king said vnto him, Haue men made thee of the kings counsell? Ceasse, why wilt thou be beaten? And the Prophet ceassed, and sayde, I am sure that God is minded to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and agreest not vnto my counsell.

17 Then Amazia king of Juda, tooke aduice, and sent to Joas the sonne of Joahaz the sonne of Jehu king of Israel, and said, Come, ꝑ we may see one another.

18 And Joas king of Israel, * sent to Amazia king of Juda, saying, * A thistle that is in Libanon, sent to a Cedar tree of Libanon, saying, Giue thy daughter to my sonne to wife: and there came a wilde beaste of Libanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites, and thine heart maketh thee proude to glorifie thy selfe: Nowe therefore bide at home, why doest thou prouoke vnto euill, that thou mayest perish, both thou, and Juda with thee?

20 But Amazia would not hearken to him: for it came of God, euen to deliuer them into the hande of their enemies, because they sought counsell at the gods of Edom.

21 And so Joas the king of Israel came vp, and they sawe either other, both hee, and Amazia king of Juda at Bethsames, which is in Juda.

22 And Juda was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled euery man to his tent.

23 And Joas the king of Israel tooke Amazia king of Juda the sonne of Joas, the sonne of Joahaz, at Bethsames, and brought him to Hierusalem, and tare the wall of Hierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim, vnto the corner gate, foure hundred cubites.

24 And he tooke away also all the golde and siluer, and all the vessels that were founde in the house of God with Obed Edom, and the treasures of the kinges house, the childrē also ꝑ were in hostage, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amazia ꝑ sonne of Joas king of Juda, lined after ꝑ death of Joas sonne of Joahaz king of Israel, fiftēne yeres.

26 The rest of the actes of Amazia first & last, are they not written in the booke of the kinges of Juda and Israel?

27 And after the time that Amazia did turne away from the Lord, they conspired treason against him in Hierusalem, & when he was fled to Lachis, they sent to Lachis after him, and slewe him there:

28 And brought him vp with hoyses, and buried him with his fathers in the citie of Juda.

The xxvi. Chapter.

1 Ozias obeying the Lord, prospereth in his enterprises. 16 Hee waxeth proude, and vsurpeth the Priestes office.

1 THen all the people of Juda * tooke Ozias, which was sixtēne yeres olde, & made him king in the roume of his father Amazia. * 4. King. 14. 21. and. 15. 1.

2 And he buylt Eloth, and brought it again to Juda, after that the king was layde to sleepe with his fathers.

3 Sixteene yeeres olde was Ozias when he began to raigne, and hee raigned fiftie and two yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Jecholia, of Hierusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in ꝑ sight of the Lord, according to all as did his father Amazia.

5 And he sought God in ꝑ dayes of [a] Zacharia, who had vnderstanding in the visions of God: and as log as hee sought the Lord, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went to battel against the Philistines, and brake downe the wall of Geth, and the wall of Jabne, & the wall of Asdod, and built cities about Asdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God holpe him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians ꝑ dwelt in Gur baal, and Hamehunim.

8 And the Ammonites gaue tribute to Ozias, and his name spread abroade euen to the entring in of Egypt; for hee played the man exceedingly.

9 Moreouer, Ozias built towres in Hierusalem by the corner gate, & by the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and a This was not that Zacharia which was the sonne of Iehoiada, but some other Propher of that name.

b That is, the hundred thousand of Israel.

c That which can not deliuer others, nor saue it selfe, is no God, but an idole.

* 2. King. 14. 8. 2. Chr. 14. 9.

10 And he builte towres in the wildernesse, & digged many welles: for he had much cattell in the valleis and playnes, plowmen, and vinedressers in the mountaines, and in Charmel: for he loued husbandrie.
11 And Ozias had an host of fighting men, that went out to warre in the armie, according to the number of their office, vnder the hand of Ieiel the Scribe, and Maasia the ruler, and vnder the hand of Hanania, which was one of the kings lords.
12 And the whole number of the auncient fathers, and of the men of might, were two thousand, and fiue hundred.
13 And vnder the hand of them, was the armie of the men of warre, euen three hundred and seuen thousand, & fiue hundred, that made warre with the power of an armie, helping the king against the enemies:
14 And Ozias prouided them throughout all the host, shields, speares, helmets, habergines, bowes, and slinges for to cast stones.
15 And he made subtile engins in Hierusalem, which hee inuented, and layde on the towres & corners, to shoote arrowes and great stones withall: and his name spread farre abroad, because he had prepared to himselfe marueilous strength.
b Prosperitie puffeth vp the heart of man, & maketh him often to forget God.
16 But in his strength b his heart arose to his destruction: for hee transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord, to burne incense vpon the altar of incense.
17 And Azaria the Priest went in after him, and with him foure score Priestes of the Lord, that were valiant men:
18 And they stoode against Ozias the king, & said vnto him, It pertaineth not to thee, Ozias, to burne incense vnto the Lorde, but to the Priests the children of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense: c come therefore out of the sanctuarie, for thou hast trespassed, and it is no worship for thee before the Lord God.
c Though his zeale and intention seemed good, yet because they were not ruled by Gods word, his fact was wicked, & iustly punished.
19 And Ozias was wroth, and had incense in his hand to burne it, & so while he had indignation against the Priests, the leprosie sprang in his forehead before the Priestes in the house of the Lorde, euen beside the incense altar.
20 And Azaria the chiefe Priest, with all the other Priests looked vpon him, and beholde, hee was become a leper in his forehead, & they thrust him from thence, and he hasted to go out, because the Lord had smitten him.
1.Sam.15.5. Iosuae.13.46.
21 * And Ozias the king continued a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt seuerall in an house, being a leper, & shut out of the house of the Lord: & Iotham his sonne had the gouernance of the kings house, and iudged the people of the land.
22 The rest of the actes of Ozias first and last, did Esai the Prophet, the sonne of Amos, write.
23 And so Ozias slept with his fathers, & they buried him with his fathers in the field of the buriall which was beside the sepulchres of the kings: for they sayde, He is a leper. And Iotham his sonne raigned in his stede.

The xxvii. Chapter.

1 Iotham reigneth, and ouercommeth the Ammonites. 8 His raigne, and death. 9 Achas his sonne reigneth in his stede.

1 IOtham * was twentie and fiue yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned sixteene yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Ierusa, the daughter of Sadoc. 2.King.15.33.
2 And hee did that which was right in the sight of the Lorde, in all points as did his father Ozias, saue that hee came not into the a temple of the Lorde: and the people did yet wickedly. a To wit, to offer incense against Gods word, as Ozias his father did, Chap.26.16.
3 He buylt the high gate of the temple of the Lorde, and on the wall (where the house of ordinance was) he buylt much.
4 Moreouer, he buylt cities in the mountaines of Iuda, and in the wood countrey he buylt castels and towres.
5 He fought with the king of the children of Ammon, and preuailed against them, and the children of Ammon gaue him the same yere an hundred talentes of siluer, and ten thousand measures of wheate, and ten thousand of barley: so much did the children of Ammon giue him the seconde yere, and the third also.
b All prosperity cometh of God, who neuer fayleth them that put their trust in him.
6 So Iotham became mightie, b because he directed his wayes before the Lorde his God.
7 The rest of the actes of Iotham, and all his warres, and his conuersation, loe, they are written in the booke of the kings of Israel and Iuda.
8 Hee was fiue and twentie yeres olde when hee began to reigne, and reigned sixteene yeres in Hierusalem.
9 And Iotham slept with his fathers, & they buried him in the citie of Dauid: and Achas his sonne reigned in his stede.

The xxviii. Chapter.

1 Achas an idolater is giuen into the handes of the Syrians and the king of Israel. 23 Achas encreaseth his idolatrie. 26 His death, and sucessour.

1 ACHAS * was twentie yeres olde when he began to reigne, & reigned sixteene yeeres in Hierusalem, & he did not that which is right in the sight of the Lord, as did his father Dauid: 4.King.16.2.
2 * For hee walked in the wayes of the kings of Israel, & made molten images for Baalim. 4.King.16.3.
3 He offered incense in the valley of the sonne of Hinnom, and burnt his children in fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.
4 He offered also, and burnt incense in the high places, and on mountains, and vnder euery greene tree.
5 Wherefore the Lord his God deliuered him into the hande of the king of the Syrians, which smote him, and caried away away a great multitude of his captiue, and brought them to Damascus: and hee was deliuered into the hande of the king of Israel, which smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pecah the sonne of Romelia slewe in Juda an hundred and twentie thousand in one day, which were all fighting men: and that because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers.

[Or, very mighty.]

7 And Zichri a ‖ mightie man of Ephraim, slew Maasia the kings sonne, and Azrica the gouernour of the house, and Elcana that was next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel toke prisoners of their brethren, two hundred thousand women, sonnes, & daughters, and caried away much spoyle of them, and brought the spoile to Samaria.

9 But there was a prophet of the Lords, whose name was Obed: and he went out before the hoste that came to Samaria, and said vnto them, Behold, because the Lord God of your fathers is wroth with Juda, he hath deliuered them into your hand, and ye haue slaine them with crueltie that reacheth vp to heauen.

1 All victorie commeth of God.

10 And now ye purpose to keepe vnder the children of Juda and Hierusalem, and to make them bondmen and bondwomen: & doe ye not lade your selues with sinne in the sight of the Lord your God?

11 Nowe heare me therefore, and deliuer the captiues againe which ye haue take of your brethren: for else shall the great wrath of God be vpon you.

12 Wherefore certaine of the heads of the children of Ephraim, as Azaria the sonne of Johanan, Berechia the sonne of Meshillemoth, and Ezechias the sonne of Sallum, and Amasa the sonne of Hadlai, stoode vp against them that came fro the warre:

13 And said vnto them, Bring not in the captiues hither: for where as wee haue offended toward God already, ye intend to adde more to our sinnes and trespasse: for our trespasse is great already, & there is a fierce wrath against Israel.

14 And vpon that, the men of armes left the captiues and the spoile before the lordes and all the congregation:

15 And the men that were now rehearsed by name, rose vp, & toke the prisoners, and with the spoile clothed all that were naked among them, and arayed them, and shoed them, and gaue them to eate and to drinke, & anointed them, & caried all that were feeble of them vpon asses, and brought them to Jericho the citie of palme trees, to their brethren: and then they returned to Samaria againe.

16 At that same time did king Achas send vnto the kings of the Syrians, to haue helpe of them.

17 And the Edomites came againe, & slue some of Juda, & caried away captiues.

18 And the Philistines inuaded the cities in the lowe countrey, and towarde the South of Juda, and toke Bethshames, and Aialon, & Gederoth, and Socho, with the townes belonging thereto, and Thimna with the townes belonging thereto, Gimso & the townes thereof, and dwelt there.

19 For the Lorde brought Juda lowe, because of Achas king of ‖ Juda, which made Juda naked, and transgressed sore against the Lord.

[Or, Israel.]

20 And Thilgath Phalnasar king of the Assyrians, came vpon him and troubled him, rather then strengthened him.

21 For Achas toke away a portion out of the house of the Lord, & out of the kings house, and out of the lords houses, and gaue vnto the king of the Assyrians: and yet it helped him not.

22 And in the very time of his tribulation, did king Achas trespasse yet more against the Lord.

23 For hee offered vnto the gods of Damascus, which [b] smote him, and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria helpe the, therefore will I offer to them, that they may helpe mee also: but they were his destruction, and the destruction of all Israel.

b As he falsly supposed.

24 And Achas gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and brake them, and shut vp the doores of the house of the Lord, and made him altars in euery corner of Hierusalem.

25 And in all the cities of Juda he made high places, to burne incense vnto other gods, and angred the Lorde God of his fathers.

26 The rest of his acts, and his workes first and last, behold, they are written in the booke of the kings of Juda and Israel.

27 And Achas slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Hierusalem: but brought him not vnto the sepulchres of the kings of Israel, and Ezecia his sonne reigned in his stead.

The xxix. Chapter.

Hezecia repaireth the temple, and aduertiseth the Leuites of the corruption of religion.

1 HEzecia * began to reigne when hée was fiue and twentie yéeres olde, and hee reigned nine and twentie yéeres in Hierusalem: and his mothers name was Abia, the daughter of Zacharia.

* 4. King. 18. 1.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lorde in all poynts, as did Dauid his father.

a Which Achas had shut vp.

3 He opened the [a] doores of the house of the Lord, in the first yeere and first [b] moneth of his reigne, and repaired them.

b An example for all princes, that first of all they establish the true religion of God.

4 And he brought in the Priests and the Leuites, and gathered them together into the East streete, c Meaning all the idols, altars, groues, & whatsoeuer was occupied in their seruice, and wherewith the temple was defiled.

5 And said vnto them, Heare me, ye Leuites, and now be sanctified, and hallowe the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and bring filthinesse out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers haue trespassed, & done euill in the eyes of the Lorde our God, and haue forsaken him, & turned away their faces from the ‖ habitation of the Lord,

[Or, tabernacle.]

Lord, and turned their backes on it.

7 And beside that, they haue shut vp the doores of the porch, and quenched the lampes, and haue neither burnt incense, nor offered whole burnt offerings in the holy place vnto the God of Israel.

d The contempt of religion, is the cause of Gods plagues.

8 d Wherefore the wrath of the Lorde fell on Juda and Hierusalem, and he hath brought them to trouble, to be wondred on, and to be hissed at, euē as ye see with your eyes.

9 For lo, our fathers were ouerthrowen with the sword, & our sonnes, our daughters, and our wiues were caried awap captiue for the same cause.

10 And nowe it is in mine heart to make a conenāt with the Lord God of Israel, that he may turne awap his heauie indignation from vs.

11 Now therefore, my sonnes, be not negligent: for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before him, and for to minister and serue him, and to burne incense.

12 Then the Leuites arose, Mahath the sonne of Amasai, and Joel the sonne of Azaria, of the children of the Caathites: and of the sonnes of Merari, Cis þ sonne of Abdi, and Azaria the sonne of Jahaleel: and of the sonnes of the Gersonites, Joah the sonne of Simma, and Eden the sonne of Joah:

13 And of the sonnes of Elizaphan, Simri and Jehiel: & of the sonnes of Asaph, Zacharia and Matthania:

14 And of the sonnes of Heman, Jehiel, and Simei: and of the sonnes of Jdithun, Semaia, and Oziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and purified themselues, & came according to the commandement of the king, and the wordes of the Lord, for to cleanse the house of the Lord.

16 And the Priestes went into the inner partes of the house of the Lord, to cleanse it, and brought out all the vncleannesse that they found in the temple of þ Lord, into the court of the house of the Lorde: and the Leuites took it, to carp it out into the brooke Cedron.

17 They began the first day of the first moneth to purifie, and the eight day of the moneth came they to the porch of the Lord: so they sanctified the house of þ Lord in eight dayes, and in the sixteenth day of the first moneth they made an ende.

18 And they went in to Hezecia the king, and said, We haue cleansed all the house of the Lorde, the altar of whole burnt offering, with all his vessels, & the Shewe bread table, with all his ‖ apparell:

‖ Or, vessels.

19 And all the vessels which king Achas did cast aside when he reigned and transgressed, them we haue prepared & sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the Lord.

20 And Hezecia the king rose early, and gathered the lords of the citie, and went vp to the house of the Lord.

21 And they brought seuen oxen, seuen rams, seuen shepe, & seuen he goates, to be a sinne offering, for the kingdome, for the sanctuarie, and for Juda: and he cōmāded the priests, the sonnes of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the Lord.

22 And they slue the oxen, & the priests receiued the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise when they had slaine the rams, they sprinkled the blood vpon the altar: they slew also the shepe, and they sprinkled the blood vpon the altar.

e For without sprinkling of blood, nothing could be sanctified.

23 And then they brought forth the he goates for the sinne offering, before the king & the congregation, and f put their hands vpon them.

f They that offred a sinne offring, must lay their handes vpon it: meaning that they themselues had deserued that death: and also that they did consecrate it to God, thereby to be sanctified, Leuit. 29.10.

24 And the priests slue them, and with the blood of them they cleansed the altar, to make satisfaction for all Israel: for the king commanded that the whole burnt offering and the sinne offering shoulde be made for all Israel:

25 And set the Leuites in the house of the Lord, with cymbals, psalteries, & harps, according to the commandement of Dauid, and of Gad the kings Seer, & Nathan the prophet: for so was the commādement of the Lord through the hand of his prophets.

26 And the Leuites stoode, hauing the instruments of Dauid: and the priests held the trumpets.

27 And Hezecia commanded to offer the whole burnt offering vpon the altar: And when the whole burnt offering began, the song of the Lord began also, and the trumpets, with the instrumēts that were ordeyned by the hande of Dauid king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, singing a song, and blowing with the trumpets: and all this continued vntill the whole burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an ende of offering, the king and all that were present with him, bowed themselues, and worshipped.

30 And * Hezecia the king, and the lords spake to the Leuites, to praise the Lorde with the wordes of Dauid and of Asaph the Seer: and they sang prayses with gladnesse, and the other bowed themselues, and worshipped.

* 1. Chro. 16. &

31 And Hezecia answered and said, Now ye haue cōsecrated your hands vnto the Lord: go to therefore, and bring the sacrifices and thanke offerings in to the house of the Lord. And þ cōgregation brought in the sacrifices and thanke offerings, and whole burnt offerings, as many as were of a free liberall heart.

32 And the number of the whole burnt offerings, which the cōgregation brought, was three score and ten oxen, an hundred rammes, and two hundred shepe: which were all for the whole burnt offering of the Lord.

33 And there were dedicated sixe hundred oxen, and three thousand shepe.

34 And the priests were too few to slay all the whole burnt offrings: but their brethren the Leuites did helpe them, till they had had ended the worke, & vntill the priests were sanctified: for þ Leuites were more hearted to be sanctified thē þ priests.

35 And thereto the whole burnt offrings were many, with the fatte of the peace offerings, and the drinke offerings that belong to the whole burnt offering: and so the seruice, pertaining to the house of the Lord, was finished.

36 And Ezechia reioyced, and all the people, that God had made the folke so ready, & that the thing was so soone done.

The xxx. Chapter.

The keeping of the Passeouer by the kings commandements.

1 And Ezechia sent to all Israel and Juda, and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasse, that they should come to the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, & keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord God of Israel.

2 And the king helde a counsell with his Lordes, and all the congregation of Hierusalem, to keepe the feast of passeouer in the [a] second moneth:

a Though they ought to haue done it in the first moneth, as Exod. xii. yet if any were not cleane or had a long iourney, they might deferre it to the second moneth, as Num. 9. 10.

3 For they could not keepe it at þ time, because the Priestes were not sanctified sufficiently, neither was the people gathered together to Hierusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 And they decreed that it should be proclaimed throughout all Israel, from Beerseba to Dan, that they should come and hold the feast of Passeouer vnto the Lord God of Israel at Hierusalem: for they had not done it of a great season as it was [b] written.

b That is, in such sort and perfection as God had appointed.

6 So the postes went with letters of the kings and of his lordes, throughout all Israel and Juda, and at the commaundement of the king they said, Ye children of Israel, turne againe vnto the Lorde God of Abraham, Isahac, and Israel, & he will returne to the remnant that are escaped of you out of the hand of þ kings of the Assyrians.

7 And be not ye like your fathers & your brethren, which trespassed against the Lord God of their fathers, which gaue them vp to be destroyed, as ye see.

8 And nowe be not ye stiffenecked like as were your fathers: but yeeld your selues vnto the Lorde, and enter into his holy place, which he hath sanctified for euer, and serue the Lorde your God, & the fiercenesse of his wrath shall turne awap from you.

9 For if ye turne againe vnto the Lorde, then shall your brethren and your children finde compassion in the presence of them that tooke them captiue, and they shall come againe vnto this land: for the Lord your God is gracious and mercifull, and will not turne awap his face from you, if ye conuert vnto him.

10 And so the postes went from citie to citie, through the land of Ephraim, and Manasse, euen vnto Zabulon: but they laughed them to scorne, & mocked them.

11 Neuertheless, yet diuers of Aser, Manasse, and of Zabulon, submitted themselues, and came to Hierusalem.

12 And the hand of God was in Juda, & he gaue them one heart to doe the commandement of the king, and of the rulers, according to the word of the Lord.

13 And there assembled to Hierusalem much people, and there was present a mightie great cōgregatiō, to hold þ feast of sweete bread in the second moneth.

14 And they arose, and remooued the altars that were in Hierusalem: and al the altars for incense did they awap, & cast them into the brooke Cedron.

15 And they slew the Passeouer the fourteenth dap of the second moneth: and the Priestes & Leuites which were [c] ashamed, sanctified themselues, and brought in the whole burnt offerings into the house of the Lord.

c Seeing their own negligence, and the readines of the people.

16 And they stood in their office after their maner, and according to the law of Moses the man of God: and the Priestes sprinckled the blood which they receiued of the hande of the Leuites.

17 For there were many in þ congregatiō that were not sanctified, & therfore þ Leuites had the charge of the killing of the Passeouer for euerp one that was not cleane, to sanctifie him vnto the Lord.

18 For many of the people, and verp many of Ephraim, Manasse, Isachar, and Zabulon, were not cleansed, and pet did eate the Passeouer, against the lawe appointed: but Ezechia praped for them, saping, The good Lorde be mercifull toward euerp one,

19 That prepareth his heart to seeke the Lord God, þ God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuarie.

20 And the Lord heard Ezechia, and [d] healed the people.

d That is, did accept them as purified.

21 And the children of Israel that were present at Hierusalem, helde the feast of sweete bread seuen dapes with great gladnesse: and the Leuites & the priests praised the Lord dap by dap, singing with loud instruments vnto the Lord.

22 And Ezechia spake ‖ comfortably vnto all the Leuites that had good knowledge to sing vnto the Lord: and they did eate throughout that feast seuen dapes long, and offered peace offerings, and thanked the Lord God of their fathers.

‖ Or, to the heart.

23 And the whole assemblie tooke counsel to do so other seuen dapes: and they held those seuen dapes with gladnesse.

24 For Ezechia king of Juda, did giue to the congregatiō [e] a thousand pong oxe, and seuen thousand sheepe: and the lordes gaue out to the congregation a thousand oxen, and ten thousand sheepe, and a great number of the Priests were sanctified.

e Hezecia bestowed his goods liberally, for the setting forth of Gods glory.

25 And all the congregation of Juda, with the Priestes and Leuites, and all the congregation þ came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the lande land of Israel, and that dwelt in Juda, reioyced.

26 And there was great gladnesse in Hierusalem: for since the time of Solomon the sonne of Dauid king of Israel, there was no such ioy in Hierusalem.

27 And the Priestes and the Leuites arose, and blessed the people: and their voyce was heard, and their prayer came vp vnto heauen his holy dwelling place.

The xxxi. Chapter.

1 The people destroy idolatrie. 2 Hezecia appointeth Priestes and Leuites, 4 and prouideth for their liuing.

1 AND when all these things were finished, all Israel that were present in the cities of Juda, went out and brake the images, and cut downe the grones, and all to brake the high places and altars throughout all Juda & Beniamin, in Ephraim also and Manasse, vntill they had vtterly destroyed them all: and all the children of Israel returned euery man to his possession, and to their owne cities.

2 And Hezecia appointed sundry companies of the Priests and Leuites, after the diuersitie of their ministrations, euery man according to his office, both Priestes & Leuites, for the whole burnt offring, and peace offrings, to minister, & to giue thankes and prayse in the gates of the [a] host of the Lord.

a That is, in the temple where they assembled.

3 And the kings portion of his substance that he gaue, were daily whole burnt offerings in the morning and euening, and whole burnt offerings for the Sabboth dayes, new moones, and solenne feasts, according as it is written in the lawe of the Lord.

4 And he bade the people that dwelt in Hierusalem, to giue a [b] part to ꝑ Priests and Leuites, that they might with more courage applie themselues to the lawe of the Lord.

b The tithes and first fruites for the maintenance of the Priests & Leuites.

5 And as soone as the kings commandement came abroade, the children of Israel brought abundance of first fruites, of corne, wine, oyle, honie, & of all maner of fruites of ꝑ field, & the tithes of all maner of things brought they in plenteously.

6 And the children of Israel and Juda, that dwelt in the cities of Juda, they also brought in the tithes of oxen & sheepe, and other holy tithes, which were consecrate vnto the Lord their God, and layde them all by heapes.

7 In the third moneth they began to lay the heapes in maner of a foundation, and finished them in the seuenth moneth.

8 And when Hezecia and the lords came and sawe the heapes, they blessed ꝑ Lord, and his people Israel.

9 And Hezecia questioned with ꝑ Priests and the Leuites concerning the heapes.

10 And Azaria the chiefe Priest, of the house of Sadoc, answered him, and said, Since ꝑ people began to bring the heaue offrings into the house of the Lord, [c] we also haue had enough to eate, and yet remaineth plentie: for the Lord hath blessed his people, and this heape is left.

c The ministers were liberally prouided for.

11 And Hezecia bade prepare the [*] chambers in the house of the Lorde: and they did prepare them,

*Or, Storehouses.

12 And caried in the first fruits, the tithes, and the dedicate things faithfully, ouer which Chonenia the Leuite had ꝑ rule, and Semei his brother next to him:

13 And Jehiel, Azaria, Nahath, Asael, Jerimoth, Iosabad, Eliel, Ismachia, Mahath, and Banaia, were ouerseers, ordeined by Chonenia, and Semei his brother was an officer of Hezecia the king, and Azaria was the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Chore the sonne of Imma the Leuite, and porter of the East doore, had the ouersight of the things that were offered of a free will vnto God, to distribute the oblations of the Lorde, and the holy things that were consecrate.

15 And vnder his hande were Eden, Miniamin, Jesua, Semaia, Amaria, and Sechania, in the cities of the Priestes, appointed of their fidelitie to giue to their brethren their partes, as well to ꝑ small, as to the great:

16 Also to their generation, being males, from three yeeres old and vpward, euen vnto euery one that entreth into ꝑ house of the Lord, they shall giue day by day for their ministration, and for their giuing attendance, and for their diuers waitings by course,

17 Both to the generation of the Priests and Leuites, throughout the houshold of their fathers, from twentie yeeres and aboue, to wayte when their courses came:

18 And to the families of all their babes, wiues, sonnes and daughters, throughout all the congregation: for vpon the fidelitie of ꝑ, were ꝑ holy things bestowed.

19 And to the children of Aaron ꝑ priests which were in the fieldes and suburbes of their cities, citie by citie, ꝑ men whose names were expressed afore, should giue portions, to all the males among the Priestes, and to all the Leuites, according to their number.

20 And of this maner did Hezecia throughout all Juda, and wrought that is good and right and true before ꝑ Lord his God.

21 And in all the woorkes that he began for the seruice of the house of God, according to the lawe & the commandements, he sought his God: and that did he with all his heart, and prospered.

The xxxii. Chapter.

1 Sennacherib inuadeth Juda. 3 Hezecia prepareth for the warre. 7 He exhorteth the people to put their truste in the Lord.

1 AFter that these dedes were faithfully done, [*] Sennacherib king of the Assyrians came, and entred into Juda, and compassed the strong cities, & thought to winne them for himselfe.

*4. King. 18, 13. Esa. 36. 1. Eccle. 48, 19.

2 And

2 And so when Ezecia sawe that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Hierusalem,
3 He tooke counsell with his lordes and men of might, to stoppe the water of the fountaines without the citie: and they did helpe him.
4 For there gathered many of the people together, and stopt all the wels, and the brooke that ran throwe the middes of the land, saping, Why shall the kings of the Assyrians come and finde much water?
5 And Ezecia went to lustily, and built up the wall where it was broken, and made the towers, & another wall without, and repaired Millo in the citie of Dauid, and made many darts & shields.
6 And he set captaines of warre ouer the people, and gathered them together to him in the large strete of the gate of the citie, and spake gently to them, saping,
7 Plucke up your hearts, and be strong, bee not afraid nor discouraged for the king of the Assyrians, and for al the multitude that he hath with him: for there be moe with us then with him.
8 With him is an arme of a flesh, but with us is the b Lord our God, for to helpe us, and to fight our battels. And the people tooke a courage through the wordes of Ezecia king of Juda.
9 After this did Sennacherib king of the Assyrians, send of his seruants to Hierusalem (but he himselfe remained beside Lachis, hauing all his power with him) unto Ezecia king of Juda, and unto all Juda that were at Hierusalem, saping, 10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of the Assyrians, Wherein doe ye trust, O ye that dwell in Hierusalem which is besieged?
11 Doth not Ezecia entice you to give over your selues unto death, hunger, and thirst, saping, The Lorde our God shall rid us out of the hand of the king of the Assyrians?
12 Hath not the same Ezecia put downe his high places & his c altars, and commanded Juda and Hierusalem, saping, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burne incense upon the same?
13 Know ye not what I and my fathers haue done unto al the people of the lands? Were the gods of the people of other lands able or mightie to saue their lands out of my hand?
14 Which of all the gods of those nations that my fathers destroyed, could deliuer his people out of my hand? And shall your GOD be able to deliuer you out of my hand?
15 Wherefore now let not Ezecia deceiue you, nor perswade you of this fashion, nor yet beleeue him: For as no God among all nations and kingdomes was able to ridde his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: howe much lesse shall your gods bee able to keepe you out of my hand?
16 And yet moe things did his seruants speake against the Lord God, and against his seruant Ezecia.
17 And Sennacherib also wrote a letter to raple on the Lord God of Israel, and spake against him, saping, As the gods of the nations of other landes haue not bene able to deliuer their people out of my hand: euen so shall not the God of Ezecia deliuer his people out of my hand.
18 And they cried with a loude voyce in the Jewes speach unto the people of Hierusalem that were on the wall, to feare them, and to make them faint hearted, and that they might take the citie.
19 And they spake against the God of Hierusalem, as against the gods of the nations of the earth, which were the worke of the hands of men.
20 But Ezecia the king, and the prophet Elai the sonne of Amos, d prayed against that blasphemie, and cried up to heauen.
21 And the Lord sent an Angell, which destroyed all the men of warre, and the lordes and captaines of the hoste of the king of the Assyrians, that he turned his face agayne with shame towarde his owne land: and when he was come into the house of his God, they that came of his owne body slew him there with the sword.
22 And so the Lord saued Ezecia and the inhabiters of Hierusalem out of the hand of Sennacherib the king of the Assyrians, and from the hand of all other, and mainteined them on euery side.
23 And many brought offerings unto the Lord to Hierusalem, and presents to Ezecia king of Juda: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.
24 In those dayes e Ezecia was sicke to the death, and prayed unto the Lorde: which answered him, and shewed him a wonderfull miracle.
25 But Ezecia did not againe unto God according to it that he had shewed him: for his heart arose, and there came wrath upon him, and upon Juda and Hierusalem.
26 Notwithstanding, Ezecia submitted him selfe, after that his heart was risen up, hee, & the inhabiters of Hierusalem: and the wrath of the Lord came not upon them in the dayes of Ezecia.
27 And Ezecia had exceeding much riches and honour: and he gate him treasures of siluer and gold, precious stones, and spices, shields, and of al maner pleasant iewels, 28 And made store houses for the fruites of corne, for wine and oyle, and stalles for al maner of beasts, and coates for sheepe.
29 And he made him cities, and had of sheepe and oxen great aboundance: for God had giuen him substance exceeding much.
30 This same Ezecia stopped the vpper water spring of f Gion, and brought them

† God tempteth his faithfull, to trie them.

32 The rest of the deedes of Ezecia, and his goodnesse, beholde, they are written in the vision of Esai þ prophet the sonne of Amos, in the booke of the kings of Juda and Israel.

33 And Ezecia slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the most worthy place of the sepulchres of the sonnes of Dauid, and all Juda and the inhabiters of Hierusalem did him honour at his death: and Manasses his sonne raigned in his stead.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

1 Manasses an idolater, 9 causeth Juda to erre, 11 he is led prisoner into Babylon.

4. King. 21. 1. 1 MAnasses * was twelue yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and hee raigned fiftie & fiue yeeres in Hierusalem:

2 But did euill in the sight of the Lorde, like vnto the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lorde cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he went backe, and built the high places which Ezecia his father had broken downe: & he reared vp altars for Baalim, and made groues, and worshipped all the hoste of heauen, and serued them.

4 And he built altars in the house of the Lord, where as þ Lord had said, * In Hierusalem shall my name be for euer. 2. King. 7. 10.

5 And he builded altars for all the hoste of heauen, in the two courtes of the house of the Lord.

6 And hee burnt his children in fire in the valley of the sonne of Hinnom: he was a sorcerer, he regarded the crying of birdes, vsed enchauntments, and maintained workers with spirites, and seers of fortunes, and wrought much euill in the sight of þ Lord to anger him withall.

7 And he put the carued image, and an idoll which he had made, in the house of God: * of which house God said to Dauid and to Solomon his sonne, In this house, and in Hierusalem which I haue chosen aboue all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for euer. 2. King. 7. 10. 3. King. 8. 16.

8 Neither wil I make the foote of Israel to remoue any more out of the lande which I haue ordeined for your fathers, if so be that they will be diligent, and doe all that I haue commanded them in all the lawe and statutes, and ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 And so Manasses made Juda, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem to erre, and to doe worse then the heathen whome the Lorde destroyed before the children of Israel.

a Meaning by his prophets. 10 And the Lorde spake ª vnto Manasses, and to his people: but they would not regard.

11 Wherefore the Lord brought vpon them the captaines of the hoste of the king of the Assyrians, which tooke Manasses, and bounde him with fetters & chaines, and caried him to Babylon.

12 And when hee was in tribulation, hee besought the Lorde his God, and humbled himselfe excedingly before the God of his fathers, 13 And made intercession to him: and God was ᵇ intreated of him, and heard his prayer, and brought him againe to Hierusalem into his kingdome: and then Manasses knewe that þ Lord was God.

b Affliction giueth vnderstanding.

14 After this he built a wall without the citie of Dauid, on the West side of Gion, in the valley as they come to þ fish gate, and round about Ophel, and brought it vp of a very great height, and put captaines of warre in all the strong cities of Juda.

15 And he tooke away strange gods, and images out of the house of God, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of God and Hierusalem, and cast them out of the citie.

16 And he prepared the altar of the Lorde, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings, and thanke offerings, and charged Juda to serue the Lord God of Israel.

17 Neuertheless, the people did offer still in the high places, howbeit vnto the Lord their God onely.

18 The rest of the actes of Manasses, and his prayer vnto his God, and the words of the Seers that spake to him in the name of the Lord God of Israel, behold, they are written in the sayings of the kings of Israel.

19 And his prayer, and how that he was heard, & all his sinnes, and his trespasse, and the places where he made high places, and set vp groues and images before he was humbled, beholde, they are written among the sayings of the Seers.

20 And Manasses slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his ᶜ owne house, and Amon his sonne raigned in his roome.

c Because he had so horribly offended against the Lord, they did not bury him in the sepulchre of the kings, but in the garden of the kings house.

21 Amon was two and twentie yeres old when he began to raigne, and raigned two yeeres in Hierusalem.

22 But he did euil in the sight of þ Lord, like as did Manasses his father: for Amon sacrificed to all the carued images which Manasses his father had made, and serued them.

23 And submitted not himselfe before the Lord, as Manasses his father had humbled himselfe: but Amon trespassed greatly.

24 And his owne seruants conspired against him, and slewe him in his owne house.

25 But the people of the land slewe all them that had conspired against king Amon: and the same people of the lande made Josias his sonne king in his roome.

The xxxiiii. Chapter.

1 Iosias destroyeth the idols, 8 and reformeth the temple. 14 The booke of the lawe is founde.

4.King.22.1. 1 IOsias was eight yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and reigned in Hierusalem thirtie and one yeeres.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, & walked in the waies of Dauid his father, and bowed neither to the right hand nor to the left.

3 In the eight yeere of his raigne, when he was yet a childe, hee beganne to seeke after the God of Dauid his father: and in the twelfth yeere hee beganne to purge Iuda and Hierusalem, from the high places, groues, carued images, and images of mettal.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim euen in his a presence: and other images þ were in greater honour then they, hee caused to be destroyed: and þ groues, carued images, and images of mettal, he brake, and made dust of them, & strowed it vpon the graues of them þ had offred vnto them.

a Hewould see the reformation with his owne eyes.

5 And he burnt the bones of the priestes vpon the altars of them, and cleansed Iuda and Hierusalem:

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasse, Ephraim, Simeon, vnto Nephthali, and in the wildernesse of them round about.

b The godly zeale of this good prince, is a worthy example for all princes to followe.

7 He plucked asunder the b altars and the groues, and did beate the images, and stampe them to powder, and cut downe all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, and returned to Hierusalem againe.

8 In þ eighteenth yere of his raigne, whē he had purged the land and the temple, hee sent Saphan the sonne of Azalia, and Maasiah the gouernour of the citie, and Joah the sonne of Joahaz the recorder, to repaire the house of the Lord his God.

9 And when they came to Helciah þ high priest, they deliuered the money þ was brought into the house of God, which þ Leuites that kept the entries had gathered of the hande of Manasse and Ephraim, and of all that yet remained in Israel, and of al Iuda and Beniamin, and they returned to Hierusalem.

10 And they put it in the handes of the workemen þ had the ouersight of þ house of the Lorde, & they gaue it to the labourers, that wrought in þ house of þ Lord, to repaire and mend the house.

11 Euen to masons and carpenters, gaue they it, to get hewed stone, and timber, for couples, and for beames of the houses, which þ kings of Iuda had destroyed.

c Faithfull officers.

12 And the men did the worke c vpon trust: and the ouerseers of them to conraye them forward, were Iahath and Obadia, Leuites, of the children of Merari: and Zecharia and Meshillam of the children of the Caathites, & other of the Leuites, which all could skill of instruments of musicke.

13 And ouer the bearers of burdens, and ouer all that wrought in whatsoeuer workemanship it were, were there scribes, officers, and porters of the Leuites.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, Helcia the priest found the booke of the law of the Lord giuen by Moses.

15 And Helcia answered and said to Saphan the scribe, I haue found the booke of the lawe in the house of the Lord. And Helcia gaue the booke to Saphan.

16 And Saphan d caried the booke to the king, and brought the king word againe, saying, All that was committed to thy seruants, that doe they.

d For the king was commanded to haue continually a copie of this booke, and to reade therein day and night, Deut.17.

17 And they haue gathered together the money that was found in the house of þ Lord, & haue deliuered it into the hands of the ouerseers of the worke, and to the handes of the workemen.

18 And when Saphan the scribe shewed þ king, saying, Helcia the Priest hath giuē me a booke: & Saphan reade in it before the king.

19 And when the king had heard the wordes of the lawe, he e tare his clothes.

e For sorowe that the word of God had bene so long suppressed.

20 And the king commanded Helcia, and Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micah, and Saphan the scribe, & Asaa, a seruant of the kings, saying,

21 Goe and enquire of the Lorde for mē, & for them that are left in Israel and Iuda, concerning the wordes of the booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is fallen vpon vs, because our fathers haue not kept the worde of the Lorde, to do after al that is written in this booke.

22 And Helcia, and they that the king had appointed, went to Hulda a prophetisse, the wife of Sallum the sonne of Thecuath, the sōne of Hasra, keeper of the wardrobe (for she dwelt in Hierusalem within the second wall) and so they communed with her.

23 She answered them, Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Tell yee the man þ sent you to me,

24 Euen thus saith the Lorde. Beholde, I will bring euil vpon this place, and vpon the inhabiters thereof, euen al the curses that are written in the booke which they haue reade before the king of Iuda:

25 Because they haue forsaken mee, and haue offred vnto other gods, to angerme with all maner workes of their handes: therefore is my wrath set on fire against this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Iuda, which sent you to enquire of the Lorde, so shall yee say vnto him, Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, concerning the wordes which thou hast heard,

27 Because thine heart did f melt, and þ diddest humble thy selfe before God, when thou heardest his wordes against this place, & against the inhabiters thereof, & humbledst thy selfe before mee, and f The end of Gods threatnings, is for our repentance.

tarēdst thy clothes, and diddest weepe before me, I haue heardit also, saith the Lord.
28 Behold, I will take thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt bee put in thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the mischiefe that I will bring vpō this place and vpon the inhabiters of the same.
4.King.23.1. * And they brought the king worde againe.
29 Then the king sent, and gathered together all the elders of Iuda and Hierusalem:
30 And the king went vp into the house of the Lord, & all the men of Iuda, and the inhabiters of Hierusalē, and the Priests and Leuites, and al the people great and smal, and the king did read in their eares all the wordes of the booke of the couenant that was found in the house of the Lorde.
31 And the king stoode at his standing, and made a couenant before the Lorde, to follow the Lord, and to keepe his commandements, his witnesses, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with al his soule, and to fulfill the wordes of the couenant written in the said booke.
32 And hee set in their roome al them that were founde in Hierusalem and Beniamin: and the inhabiters of Hierusalem did according to the couenant of the Lord God of their fathers.
33 And Iosias put away all maner of abominations out of all landes that pertained to the children of Israel, & constrained al that were founde in Israel, to serue the Lord their God: & they turned not aside frō the Lord God of their fathers, as long as he liued.

& Because he had charge ouer all, and must answere for euery one that perished, he thought it his duetie to see that all should make profession to receiue the word of God.

9 Cononia, Semeia, and Nathanael, his brethren, and Hazabiah, and Iehiel, and Iosabad rulers of the Leuites, gaue vnto the Leuites Passeouer offerings, fiue thousande sheepe, and fiue hundred oxen.
a Liberall prouision for the ministerie.
10 And so the seruice was prepared, and the priests stoode in their places, and the Leuites in their distinct companies, at the kings commandement:
11 And they slue the Passeouer, and the Priests sprinckled the blood with their handes, & the Leuites pulled of the skinnes of the beasts.
12 And they set away the whole burnt offerings, to giue them vnto the people that were diuided by auncient houses: & that they should offer vnto the Lord, like as it is written in the booke of Moses: and so did they with the oxen also.
13 And they dressed the Passeouer with fire, as the maner was: and the other dedicate beastes sodde they in pottes, caldrons, and pannes, & diuided them speedily among all the people.
14 And afterwarde they made ready for themselues, and for the priestes: for the priests the children of Aaron were busied in offering of whole burnt offerings, and the fat vntil night: therefore the Leuites prepared for themselues, and for the priests the sonnes of Aaron.
15 And the singers the children of Asaph stoode in their standing, according to the commandement of Dauid, and Asaph, Heman, and Idithun, the kings b Seer: and the porters waited at euery gate, & might not depart from their seruice: for their brethren the Leuites prepared for them.
b Meaning, the prophet.
16 And so all the seruice of the Lord was prepared the same day, to offer the Passeouer and to offer whole burnt offerings vpon the altar of the Lorde, according to the commandement of king Iosias.
17 And the children of Israel that were present, kept the Passeouer the same time, & the feast of Swete bread, seuen daies.
18 And there was no Passeouer like to that kept in Israel, from the dayes of Samuel the prophet, neither did all the kings of Israel hold such a Passeouer as did Iosias, and the priestes, & Leuites, &

all all Iuda and Israel that were present, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem.

19 This Passeouer was holden in the eighteenth yeere of the reigne of Iosias.

20 After all this, * when Iosias had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came vp to fight against Charcamis, beside Euphrates: and Iosias went out against him.

4.King.23.29.

21 Which sent messengers to him, and said, What haue I to doe with thee, thou king of Iuda? ‖ Be not thou against thy selfe this day, for my warre is against another house, and God bade me make haste: leaue off therefore, and meddle not with God which is with me, least he destroy thee.

Or, I come not against thee this day, but against the house of mine enemie.

22 Neuertheless, Iosias would not turne his face from him, ‖ but rather tooke aduice to fight with him, & hearkened not vnto the words of Necho, * out of the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

Or, changed his apparell to fight with him.

Exod.12.11.

23 And the shooters shot darts at king Iosias: & the king sayd to his seruants, Carie me away, for I am sore wounded.

24 His seruants therefore had him out of that charet, and put him in another charet that they had: and when they had brought him to Hierusalem, he dyed, and was buryed in the sepulchre of his fathers: and all Iuda and Hierusalem mourned for Iosias.

25 And Jeremias lamented Iosias, and all singing men, and singing women mourned for Iosias in their lamentations, to this day, and made the same lamentations an ordinance in Israel, and beholde, they are written in the lamentations.

26 The rest of the acts of Iosias, and his goodnesse, as it is written in the lawe of the Lord, 27 And his sayings first and last, beholde they are written in the booke of the kings Israel and Iuda.

The xxxvi. Chapter.

1 After Iosias, reigneth Ioahaz. 4 After Ioahaz, Ioacim. 8 After him, Ioiacin. 11 After him, Zedecia, 14. 17. In whose time all the people were caried away to Babylon, for contemning the admonitions of the prophets.

4.King.23.30. 1 AND * the people of the lande tooke Ioahaz the sonne of Iosias, and made him king in his fathers steade in Hierusalem.

2 And Ioahaz was twentie and three yeres olde when he began to reigne, and he reigned three moneths in Hierusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt put him downe at Hierusalem, and condemned the lande in an hundred talentes of syluer, and a talent of golde.

Mat.1.13.

4 And * the king of Egypt made Eliacim his brother king vpon Iuda and Hierusalem, and turned his name to Ioacim: and Necho tooke Ioahaz his brother, and caried him to Egypt.

5 Ioacim was twentie and fiue yeeres olde when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yeres in Hierusalem, and he did euill in the sight of the Lorde his God.

6 Against him came vp Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and bound him with two chaines, to carie him to Babylon.

7 Nabuchodonosor also caried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 The rest of the actes of Ioacim, and his abominations which he did, * and that which was found vpon him, beholde, they are written in the booke of the kings of Israel & Iuda, and Ioacin his sonne reigned in his steade.

4.King.24.8. iere.37.1.

10 And when the yere was out, king Nabuchodonosor sent, and set him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the Lord, and made Zedecia his fathers brother king ouer Iuda and Hierusalem.

11 Zedecia was twentie and one yeres olde when he began to reigne, and reigned eleuen yeres in Hierusalem.

12 * And he did euill in the sight of the Lorde his God, and humbled not himselfe before Jeremie the prophet at the mouth of the Lord.

Iere.52.1.

13 And he rebelled against king Nabuchodonosor, which had receiued an othe of him by God: but he was stiffenecked, and too hard hearted, to turne vnto the Lord God of Israel.

14 Moreouer, all the chefe of the priests, and the people, transgressed wonderfully, after all maner of abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lord, which he had halowed in Hierusalem.

15 And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising vp betimes, and sending: for he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place.

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his wordes, and misused his prophetes, vntill the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, and till there was no remedie.

17 And so he brought vpon them the king of Chaldee, which slue their young men with the sworde in their holy temple, and spared neither young man, mayden, olde man, nor him that stowped for age: he gaue them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, both great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lorde, & the treasures of the king, and of his Lords: all these caried he to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake downe the wal of Hierusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, & destroyed all the goodly iewels thereof.

20 And the reſt that had eſcaped the ſword, caried he to Babylon: where they were bondmen to him and his children, vntill the time that Perſia had the Empire:

21 To fulfill the word of the Lorde by the mouth of Jeremie, vntill the land had her pleaſure of her Sabbothes: for as long as ſhée lay deſolate, ſhe kept Sabboth, vntill threeſcore and ten yéeres were fulfilled.

22 And the [b] firſt yere of * Cyrus king of Perſia (when the word of the Lord, ſpoken by the mouth of Jeremie, was finiſhed) the Lord ſtirred vp the ſpirit of Cyrus king of Perſia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdome, and that by writing, ſaying, 23 Thus ſayth Cyrus king of Perſia, All the kingdomes of the earth hath the Lord God of heauē giuen me, and hath [c] charged me to builde him an houſe in Hieruſalem, that is in Juda: Wherefore whoſoeuer is among you of al his people, the Lord his God bee with him, and let him goe vp.

Xerxes the ſonne of the ſaide Darius ſucceeded him: but is not heere placed in ỹ number of the monarchies, for that hee left his kingdome to Darius longhande his ſonne (according to the cuſtome of ỹ Perſians) when he went to warre againſt ỹ Greekes. The Greeke hiſtoriographers not reſpecting that cuſtome, number the ſaid Xerxes, and Cambyſes aboue mentioned, among the ſaid Monarchies ſucceſſiuely in order, which is the cauſe that they count more yeres in the ſaide Monarchie, that is to ſay 226. yeeres.

As touching their confuſed names, ye ſhal vnderſtand, that among the Perſians, Darius ſignifieth, he ỹ ſubdueth: Xerxes, a warryour. Artaxerxes, a great warryour. Alſo, that this name Aſſuerus, is drawen from the Hebrewes, in ſteade of Artaxerxes. Further, that Artaxerxes was the common name of all kinges of Perſia, as Pharao was the common name of the kinges of Egypt, and Cæſar of the Romiſhe Emperours. Therefore where yee finde many indifferently named Darius, or Artaxerxes, or both together, ỹ is the cauſe of the difficultie, how to vnderſtande vnder what king that happened, which is recited in the ſayde bookes of Eſdras, Nehemias, Eſther, Daniel, and other places of the holy ſcriptures, except eye wil marke thẽ, & well vnderſtande the contentes of this table.

The first Booke of Esdras. or Ezra.

The first Chapter.

a Cyrus sendeth againe the people that was in captiuitie, & restoreth them their holy vessels.

a After that he and Darius had won Babylon. 2.Chro. 36.22. ier. 25.12.

1 IN the a first yeere of Cyrus king of Persia, (that the woorde of the Lord, spoke by the mouth of Jeremie, might be fulfilled) the Lord stirred up the spirite of Cyrus king of Persia, that he caused to be proclaimed throughout all his Empire, and to be written, saying, b For he was chiefe monarch of the world, and had many nations vnder his dominion.

2 Thus sayth Cyrus the king of Persia, The Lord God of heauen hath giuen me b all the kingdomes of the earth, & hath commaunded me to build him an house at Hierusalem, which is in Juda.

3 Whosoeuer nowe among you is of his people, the Lord his God be with him, & let him goe vp to Hierusalem in Juda, & build the house of the Lord God of Israel, (he is the God) that is at Hierusalem.

4 And whosoeuer remaineth yet in any maner of place, where he is a stranger, let the men of that place helpe him with siluer and gold, with good and cattel, beside that which they willingly offer for the house of God that is at Hierusalem.

5 Then gate vp the principall fathers of Juda and Beniamin, & the Priests and Leuites, and all they whose spirite God had raised to go vp, & to build the house of the Lord which is at Hierusalem.

c The Babylonians and Chaldeans gaue them these gifts. Thus rather then the children of God should want for their necessities, he would stirre vp the hearts of very infidels to helpe them.

6 And c all they that were about them, strengthened their hand with vessels of siluer and gold, with goods and cattel, and iewels, besides al that was willingly offered.

7 And king Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nabuchodonosor had taken out of Hierusalem, & had put in the house of his God.

8 Those did Cyrus the king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithridates the treasurer, and numbered them vnto d Sesbazer the prince of Juda.

d So the Chaldeans called Zorobabel, who was the chiefe gouernour: so that the preeminence stil remained in the house of Dauid.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of siluer, twentie and nine kniues:

10 Thirtie basons of golde, and of other siluer basons, foure hundred and ten: and of other vessels, a thousand.

11 All the vessels of golde and siluer, were fiue thousand and foure hundred: al these did Sesbazer carrie away with them that came vp out of the captiuitie of Babylon vnto Hierusalem.

The ii. Chapter.

The number of them that returned from the captiuitie.

1 THese e are the children of the prouince that went vp out of the captiuitie, whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon had caried away vnto Babylon, & came againe vnto Hierusalem, and vnto Juda, euery one vnto his citie.

e 3.Esdras. 5.9.

2 They that came with b Zorobabel, are these: Jesue, Nehemia, Saraia, Raelaia, Mardochai, Bilsan, Mispar, Biguai, Rehum, Baana. This is the number of the men of the people of Israel.

b Who was a chiefe captaine, and Iosue the high priest.

3 The children of Pharos, two thousand, an hundred, seuentie and two.

4 The children of Sephatia, three hundred, seuentie and two.

5 The children of Arach, fiue hundred, seuentie and fiue.

6 The children of the captain of Moab, of the children of Jesue and Joab, two thousand, eight hundred and twelue.

7 The children of Elam, a thousand, two hundred, fiftie and foure.

8 The children of Zathu, nine hundred, and fourtie and fiue.

9 The children of Zaccai, seuen hundred, and threescore.

13 The children of Adonicam, fiue hundred, fiftie and fiue.

14 The children of Biguai, two thousand, fiftie and fiue.

15 The children of Adin, foure hundred fiftie and foure.

16 The children of Ater of Hezecia, ninetie and eight.

17 The children of Bezai, three hundred, twentie and three.

18 The children of Jora, an hundred, and twelue.

19 The children of Hasum, two hundred, twentie and three.

20 The children of Gebbar, ninetie & fiue.

21 The children of Bethlehem, an hundred, twentie and three.

22 The men of Netopha, fiftie and fiue.

23 The me of Anathoth, an hundred, twentie and eight.

24 The children of Asmaueth, fourtie and two.

25 The children of Cariath-iarim, of Cephira, and Beeroth, seuen hundred, fourtie and three.

26 The children of Harama & Geba, fiue hundred, twentie and one.

27 The men of Michmas, an hundred, twentie and two.

28 The men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred, twentie and three.

29 The children of Nebo, fiftie and two.

30 The children of Magbis, an hundred, fiftie and fiue.

and twentie.
33 The children of Lodhadid and Ono, seuen hundred, twentie and fiue.
34 The children of Jericho, three hundred, fourtie and fiue.
35 The children of Senaa, three thousand, fiue hundred, and thirtie.
36 The priests: the children of Iedaia, of the house of Iosue, nine hundred, seuentie and three.
37 The children of Immer, a thousande, fiftie and two.
38 The children of Phashur, a thousand, two hundred, fourtie and seuen.
39 The children of Arim, a thousand and seuenteene.
40 The Leuites: the children of Iesua and Cadmiel, of the children of Hodauia, seuentie and foure.
41 The singers: the children of Asaph, an hundred, twentie and eight.
43 The Nethinims: the children of Siha, the children of Asupha, the children of Tabaoth, 44 The children of Ceros, the children of Siaa, the children of Padon, 45 The children of Libana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Accub, 46 The children of Agab, the children of Semlai, the children of Hanan, 47 The children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Reaia, 48 The children of Rezin, the children of Necoda, the children of Gasam, 49 The children of Aza, the children of Phaleah, the children of Belai, 50 The children of Asna, the children of Mehunim, the children of Nephusim, 51 The children of Bacbuc, the children of Hacupa, the children of Harhur, 52 The children of Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsa, 53 The children of Barcos, the children of Sisara, the children of Thamah, 54 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.
55 The children of Solomons seruants, the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perruda,
58 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomons seruants, were altogether three hundred, ninetie and two.
59 And these went vp from Thelmelah, and from Thelharsa, Cherub, Addon, & Immer, but they could not discerne their fathers house, and their seede, whether they were of Israel.
60 The children of Delaia, the children of Tobia, the children of Necoda, six hundred, fiftie and two.
61 And of the children of the Priests: the children of Habaia, the children of Accos, the children of [d] Berzillai, which tooke one of the daughters of Berzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name.
62 These sought the register of their petigree, and were not found, therefore were they put from the priesthood.
63 And Hathirsatha said vnto them, that they should not eate of the most holy, till there rose vp a Priest to weare Urim and Thummim.
64 The whole congregation together was fourtie and two thousand, three hundred and three score:
65 Beside their seruants and maidens, of whom there were seuen thousand, three hundred, thirtie and seuen: and there were among them two hundred singing men and women.
66 Their horses were seuen hundred, thirtie and six: their mules, two hundred, fourtie and fiue.
67 And their Camels, foure hundred, thirtie and fiue: their Asses, six thousande, seuen hundred and twentie.
68 And certaine of the chiefe fathers, when they came to the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, they offered themselues willing for the house of God, to set it vp in his place:
69 And gaue golde after their ability, vnto the treasure of the worke, three score and one thousand pieces, and fiue thousand pounde of siluer, and an hundred Priests garments.
70 So the Priests, and the Leuites, and certaine of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

d Of him is made mention 2. king. 17. and 19 and because the priests office was had in contempt, these would haue changed their estate by their name, & so by Gods iust iudgement both lost the estimation of the world and the dignitie of their office.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The Israelites build the altar of God. 6 They offer to the Lord. 7 They prepare for the Temple. 11 and sing vnto the Lord.

1 AND when * the seuenth moneth came, and the children of Israel were now in their cities, ♁ people came together as one man, to Hierusalem.

* Or, light and perfectest.

3.Esd.5.49.

2 And there stoode vp Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and his brethren the priests, and Zorobabel the sonne of [a] Salathiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer whole burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

a That is, the nephew of Salathiel, for he was the sonne of Pedaia, Reade 1. Chro. 3.19.

3 And the altar set they vpon his sockets: for there was a fearefulnesse among them, because of the people of those countreis, therefore they offered whole burnt offerings thereon vnto the Lorde, euen whole burnt offerings, morning and euening.

4 And they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, * and offered whole burnt sacrifices daily, according to the number and custome day by day,

Exod.23.16.

5 After-

5 Afterward they offered daily whole burnt offerings also, and in the newe moones, and in all the feast dayes that were consecrated vnto the Lorde, and all maner of free will offerings, which they did of their owne free will offer vnto the Lord.

6 From the first day of the seuenth moneth began they to offer whole burnt sacrifices vnto the Lorde: but the foundation of the Temple of the Lorde was not yet layde.

7 They gaue money also vnto the Masons and ‖ Carpenters, and meate, and drinke, and oyle, vnto them of Sidon & of Tyre, to bring the Cedar timber fro Libanus by sea vnto Joppa, according to the graunt that they had of Cyrus the king of Persia.

‖Or, workemen.

8 In the second yeere of their comming vnto the house of God at Hierusalem in the second moneth, began Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Jesue the sonne of Josedec, and the remnant of their brethren, the Priests and Leuites, and all they that were come out of the captiuitie vnto Hierusalem: and appointed the Leuites from twentie yeeres olde, and aboue, to see that the worke of the house of the Lorde went forward.

9 And Jesue stoode with his sonnes and brethren, and Cadmiel, with his sonnes, and the children of Juda, as one man, to set forwarde the workemen of the house of God, the children of Henadad, with their children, and their brethren the Leuites.

10 And when the builders laide the foundation of the Temple of the Lorde, they appointed the Priestes in their ‖araye with Trumpets, and the Leuites the children of Asaph, with Cymbales, to prayse the Lord after the ‖maner of Dauid king of Israel.

‖Or, apparel.

‖Or, ditie.

11 And they sang together whe they gaue prayse and thankes vnto the Lord, Because he is gratious, & because his mercie endureth for euer vpon Israel: And all the people shouted loude in praysing the Lorde, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was layde.

2 And they came to Zorobabel, & to the principall fathers, and saide vnto them, We will builde with you, for wee seeke thee Lord your God, as ye doe, and wee haue done sacrifice vnto him since the time of Asor Haddon the king of Assur, which brought vs vp hither.

3 And Zorobabel, and Jesue, and the other ancient fathers of Israel saide vnto them, It can not be that you and we together shoulde build the house vnto our God: for wee our selues will builde alone vnto the Lorde our God of Israel, as Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded vs.

4 And the folke of the land ‡ discouraged the people of Juda, and troubled them as they were building:

‡Heb. made their handes weake.

5 And hyred counsellers against them, to hinder their deuise, as long as Cyrus the king of Persia liued, vntill the reigne of Darius king of Persia.

6 * And in the reigne of b Asuerus, at the beginning of his reigne, wrote they vnto him a complaint against the inhabiters of Juda and Hierusalem.

3. Esdras, 2. 4.

b He was also called Artaxerxes, which is a Persian name, and signifieth an excellent warriour.

7 And in the dayes of Artaxerxes, wrote Mithridath, Tabel, and the other of his counsell, vnto Artaxerxes the king of Persia, with faire wordes: and the writing of the letter was in the Syrians speache, and interpreted in the language of the Syrians.

12 Be it knowen vnto the king, that the Iewes which came vp from thee to vs, are come vnto Hierusalem, a citie seditious and froward, and buylde the same, & set vp the walles thereof, and lape the foundations.

13 Be it knowen now vnto the king, that if this citie bee builded, and the walles made vp againe, then shall not they giue toule, tribute, and custome, and so they shall hinder the kings tribute.

14 And nowe wee remembring that wee were brought vp in the kings palace, & would not loger see the kings dishonour, therefore sent we out also, and certified the king,

3 At the same time came to them Thathanai, which was captaine beyond the the water, and Sthar buzanai, and their companions, and said thus vnto them, Who hath commanded you to builde this house, and to make vp these walles?

4 Then said we vnto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the ᵇ eye of their God was vpon the elders of the Iewes, that they could not cause them to ceasse, till the matter was brought to Darius: and then they answered vp letters thereunto.

6 This is the tenor of the letter that Thathanai, which was captaine beyonde the water, and Sthar buzanai, & the counsellers of Apharsath, which were beyond the water, sent vnto king Darius.

7 And ᵇ matter that they sent vnto him, was writē thus within the letter, Vnto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it knowen vnto the king, that wee went into the prouince of Iury, to the house of the great God, which is builded with mightie great stones, and beames are layde in the walles, and the woorke goeth fast forth, and prospereth in their handes.

9 Then asked we the elders, and said vnto them thus, Who commanded you to builde this house, and to make vp the walles thereof?

10 We asked their names also, that wee might certifie thee, and write the names of the men that were their rulers.

11 But they answered vs with these wordes, and sayde, We are the seruantes of the God of heauē and earth, and build the house that was builded of olde and many yeeres agoe, which the great king of Israel builded, and set vp.

12 But after that our fathers had prouoked the God of heauen vnto wrath, hee gaue them ouer into the hand of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, and of the Chaldees, which brake downe this house, and carried the people away captiue vnto Babylon.

13 But in the first yeere of Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus gaue commandement concerning this house of GOD, that it shoulde bee buylt againe.

14 And the vessels of golde and siluer of the house of God, which Nabuchodonosor tooke out of the temple that was at Hierusalem, and brought them into the temple at Babylon: those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple at Babylon, and they were deliuered vnto one Sathbazar by name, whome he made captaine,

15 And said vnto him, Take these vessels, and goe thy way, and set them in the temple that is at Hierusalem, & let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sathbazar, and layde the foundatiō of the house of God, which is at Hierusalem: since that time also, vntill nowe hath it bene in building, and yet it is not finished.

The vi. Chapter.

1 At the commandement of Darius the king of Persia, after the Temple was builded and dedicate, the children of Israel keepe the feast of vnleauened bread.

1 Then* comanded king Darius, that search should be made in the librarie of the kings treasure house, which lay at Babylon: *Esd.4.28.

2 And there was found in a coffer in the palace that is in the prouince of the Medes, a volume, and therein was it thus written as a memoriall,

3 In the first yeere of king Cyrus, gaue the same king Cyrus commandement concerning the house of God at Hierusalem, that the same house should be builded in the place where they offer the sacrifices, and to ioyne the walles together of three score cubites height, and three score cubites breadth,

4 Three rowes of rough stones, and one rowe of newe tymber: and the expences shalbe giuen of the kings house.

5 And let the gold and siluer vessels of the house of God, which Nabuchodonosor tooke out of the Temple at Hierusalem, and brought vnto Babylon, be restored, & brought againe vnto the temple at Hierusalem to their place, in the house of God.

6 Nowe therefore thou Thathanai captaine beyond the water, and Setharbuzanai, and your counsellours, and Apharsachei, which are beyonde the water, get ye away from them.

7 Let the worke of the house of this God alone, that the captaine of the Iewes, & their elders may build the house of God in his place.

8 I haue commanded what ye shall doe to the elders of Iuda for the building of the house of God, that of the kings goods, euen of the tribute beyonde the water, forthwith expences bee giuen vnto the men, that they be not hindred.

9 And if they haue need of calues, rams, and lambes for the whole burnt offring of the God of heauen, wheate, salt, wine, and oyle, after the custome of the Priests at Hierusalem, let the same be giuen them dayly, that there be no default:

10 That they may haue to offer swéete sauours vnto the God of heauen, & pray for the kings life, and for his children.

11 And such a commandement haue I giuen, that what man soeuer he be that altereth this worde, there shall a beame be taken from his house, and set vp, and he shalbe hanged thereon, & his house shall be made a dounghill for the same thing.

12 And the God that set his name there, destroy all kings and people that put to their hand to alter and to breake downe this house of God which is at Hierusalem. I Darius haue made a decree that this be done with speede.

13 *Then Thathanai the captaine of the countrey beyond the water, and Setharbuzanai, with their counsellours, according to that which king Darius had sent, so they did speedily. 3.Esd.7.1.

14 And the elders of the Iewes builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Aggeus the Prophet, and Zachart the sonne of Iddo, and they builded, and they finished it according to the commaundement of the God of Israel, and after the commaundement of Cyrus & Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia.

15 And this house was finished the three dap of the moneth Adar, euen in the sixt yeere of the reigne of king Darius. a That is, the twelfth moneth, and conteineth part of Februarie, and part of March.

16 And the children of Israel, the Priests, the Leuites, and the other children of the captiuitie, held the dedication of this house of God with ioy.

17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred calues, two hundred rammes, foure hundred lambs: and for the reconciling of all Israel, twelue hee goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel: b Which was the two and fourtieth yeere after their first returne from Babylon.

18 And set the Priests in their sundry courses, & the Leuites in their diuers offices, to minister vnto God at Hierusalem, *as it is written in the booke of Moses. Num.3.6.and 8.9.

19 And the children of the captiuitie helde the Passeouer vpon the fourteenth day of the first moneth:

20 For the Priests and Leuites were purified altogether, and killed the Passeouer for all the children of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the Priests, and for themselues.

21 And the children of Israel which were come againe out of captiuitie, & all such as had separated them selues vnto them, from the filthinesse of the heathen of the land, to seeke the Lord God of Israel, did eate, 22 And held the feast of vnleauened bread seuen dayes with ioy: for the Lorde had made them glad, and turned the heart of the king of Assur vnto them, to strengthē their hands in the worke of the house of God, euen the God of Israel.

Aaron the chiefe Priest.

6 This Esdras came vp from Babylon, and was apperfect ᵇ scribe in the lawe of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel did giue: and the king gaue him all that he required, according to the hand of the Lord his God which was vpon him.

7 And there went vp certaine of the children of Israel, of the Priests, Leuites, singers, porters, and of the Nethinims, vnto Hierusalem, in the seuenth yeere of king Artaxerxes.

8 And he came to Hierusalem in the fifth moneth, euen in the seuenth yeere of the king.

9 For vpon the first day of the first moneth, began he to goe vp from Babylon: and on the first day of the fifth moneth, came he to Hierusalem, according to the ᶜ good hande of his God that was vpon him.

10 For Esdras prepared his heart to seeke the lawe of the Lorde, and to doe it, and to teach the precepts and iudgements in Israel.

11 And this is the tenor of the letter that king Artaxerxes gaue vnto Esdras the Priest, and scribe, which was a writer of the wordes and commandements of the Lord, and of his statutes ouer Israel.

12 Artaxerxes king of kings, vnto Esdras the Priest and scribe of the lawe of the God of heauen, peace and saluation.

13 I haue commanded that all they of the people of Israel, and of the Priests and Leuites in my realme, which are minded of their owne good will to goe vp to Hierusalem, go with thee.

14 And therefore art thou sent of the king and of his seuen counsailers, to visit Iuda and Hierusalem, according to the law of God, which is in thine hand:

15 And that thou shouldest take with thee siluer, and golde, which the king and his counsailers offer of their owne good will vnto the God of Israel, whose habitation is at Hierusalem:

16 And all the siluer and golde that thou canst find in all the ‖countrey of Babylon, with it that the people offer of their owne good will, and the Priestes giue willingly for the house of their God which is at Hierusalem:

17 That thou mayest buie diligently with the same money, oxen, rams, & lambes, with their meate offerings, and drinke offerings, and thou shalt offer them vpon the altar of the house of your God which is at Hierusalem.

18 And loke what liketh thee and thy brethren to doe with the remnant of the siluer and golde, that doe after the will of your God.

19 And the vessels that are giuen thee for the ministration in the house of thy God, those deliuer thou before God at Hierusalem.

20 And whatsoeuer thing more shall bee needfull for ỹ house of thy God which is necessary for to spend, ỹ shalt receiue the charges out of the kings treasure house.

21 I king Artaxerxes haue commanded all the treasurers beyond the water, that loke whatsoeuer Esdras the Priest and scribe in the lawe of the God of heauen requireth of you, * that ye fulfill the same speedily, 22 Vntil an hundred talents of siluer, and till an hundred quarters of wheate, and till an hundred batts of wine, and til an hundred batts of ople, and salt without measure.

23 Whatsoeuer also is the cõmandement of the God of heauen, let the same bee done without any delay for the house of the God of heauen, that he be not wroth against the realme, and against the king and his children.

24 And we certifie you, that ye haue no authoritie to require taxing & custome, and peerelp rents, vpon any of the Priests, Leuites, singers, porters, Nethimins, and ministers in the house of his God.

25 And thou Esdras, after the wisdome of thy God, that is in thine ‖ hand, set iudges and arbiters by my authoritie to iudge all the people that is beyonde the water, euen all such as know the lawe of thy God: and them that knowe it not, those see that ye teach.

26 And whosoeuer will not fulfill the law of thy God, and the kings lawe, let him haue his iudgement without delay, whether it be vnto death, or to be rooted out, or to bee condemned in goodes, or to bee put in prison.

27 Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which so had inspired the kings heart, to garnish the house of the Lorde that is at Hierusalem:

28 And hath enclined mercie vnto mee in the presence of the king and his counsailours, & before all the kings high estates: and I was comforted euen as the hand of the Lord my God was vpon me, & so gathered I the heads of Israel together, that they might go vp with me.

‖ Or, pardoned our iniquities.

c That is, hast not vtterly cast vs downe, and destroyed vs for our sinnes.

14 Should we returne to breake thy commandements, and ioine in affinitie with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angrie towards vs, till thou hadest consumed vs, so that there should be no remnant, nor any escaping?

15 O Lord God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remaine yet escaped, as it is yet to see this day: Beholde also, in thy presence are we in our trespasses, & because of it may we not stand before thee.

The x. Chapter.

1. The people repent and turne, and put away their strange wiues.

1 AND when Esdras prayed after this maner, and knowledged, wept, and lay before the house of God, there resorted vnto him out of Israel a verie great congregation, of men, and women, and children: and the people wept verie sore.

a His sinnes, and the sinnes of the people.

2 And Sechania the sonne of Jehiel, one of the children of Elam, answered and said vnto Esdras, We haue trespassed against our God, and haue taken strange wiues of the people of the land: Yet now there is b hope in Israel concerning this thing.

b Meaning, that Israel may repent, and God receiue them to mercy.

3 For nowe wee will make a couenant with our God, & put away al the wiues and such as are borne of them, according to the counsell of the Lorde, and of those that feare the commandements of our God, that we may doe according to the lawe.

4 Get thee vp, for this matter belongeth vnto thee, we also will be with thee: be of good comfort therefore, and do it.

5 Then arose Esdras, and tooke an othe of the chiefe Priests and Leuites, and of all Israel, that they should do according to this worde: and they sware.

6 *And Esdras rose vp from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanna the sonne of Eliasib: and whē he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drinke water: for hee mourned, because of the transgression of the people that had bene in captiuitie.

1. Esd. 9. 1.

7 And they caused a proclamation to go throughout Juda and Hierusalem, vnto all the children of the captiuitie, that they should gather themselues together vnto Hierusalem:

8 And that whosoeuer came not within three dayes, according to the deuice of the rulers and Elders, all his substance should be forfaited, and he should be put out from the congregation of them of the captiuitie.

9 Then all the men of Juda and Benjamin, gathered themselues together vnto Hierusalem, within three dayes, euen the twentieth day of the ninth moneth, and all the people sate in the streete of the house of God, and trembled, because of this matter, and for the raine.

10 And

10 And Esdras the priest stoode vp, and sayd vnto them, Ye haue transgressed, and haue taken strange wiues, to make the trespasse of Israel yet more.
Or, giue prayse. 11 ¶ Confesse now therefore vnto the Lord God of your fathers, & doe his pleasure:
and separate your selues from the people of the lande, and from the strange wiues.
12 And all the congregation answered, and sayd with a loude voyce, It shalbe so, and we will do as thou hast sayde.
13 But the people are many, and it is a rayne weather, and the people are too faint to tarry without in þ stréete, neither is this a worke of one day or two: for
Or, yet are many that haue offended in this thing. ¶ we haue offended very sore in this thing.
14 Let our rulers stand therefore in all the congregation, & let all them which haue taken strange wiues in our cities, come at the time appointed, and let the elders of euery citie and their iudges bee with them, till the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from vs.
15 Then were appointed Jonathan the sonne of Asahel, and Jahasia the sonne of Thecua ouer this matter: and Mesullam & Sabbathai þ Leuites helped them.
16 And the children of the captiuitie did euen so: and Esdras the Priest, and the ancient heads throwe the house of their fathers, all men of great fame, separated themselues, and sate them downe in the first day of the tenth moneth, to examine the matter.
17 And vntill the first day of the first mo-neth, they were finishing the businesse, with all the men that had taken strange wiues.
18 And among the children of the priests, there were men found that had taken strange wiues: namely, among the children of Josue the sonne of Josedec, and of his brethren, Maasiah, and Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedalia.
19 And they gaue their hands, that they would put away their wiues: and they that had trespassed, gaue a ramme for their trespasse.
20 And among the children of Immer, Hanani, and Zebadia.
21 Among the children of Harim, Maasia, Elia, Semeia, Jehiel, Ozias.
22 Among the children of Pashur, Elioe-nai, Maasia, Ismael, Nethanael, Jozabbad, and Elasah.
23 Among the Leuites, Jozabad, Semei, and Selaia (which same is Calitah) Phathaiah, Juda, and Eliezer.
24 Among the singers also, Eliasib: and among the porters, Sellum, and Telem, and Uri.
25 And of Israel, among the children of Pharaos, Remeia, Jesia, Melchia, Miamun, Eliezer, Melchia, and Benaiah.
26 Among the children of Elam, Mathania, Zacharia, Jehiel, Abdi, Jerimoth, and Elia.
27 Among the children of Zatthu, Elioe-nai, Eliasib, Mathania, Jerimoth, Za-bad, and Aziza.
28 Among the children of Bebai, Jehohanan, Hanania, Zabbai, and Athalai.
29 Among the children of Bani, Mesul-lam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jasub, Saal, and Jeramoth.
30 Among the children of the captaine of Moab, Adna, Chelal, Banaia, Maasia, Mathania, Bezaleel, Bennui, & Manasse.
31 Among the children of Harim, Eliezer, Isshiah, Melchia, Semeia, and Simeon,
32 Beniamin, Malluch, and Semariah.
33 Among the children of Hasum, Mat-thenai, Mathatha, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasse, and Semei.
34 Among the children of Bani, Maadai, Amram, and Uel,
35 Banea, Badaia, Chelian,
36 Vaniah, Maremoth, Eliasib,
37 Mathaniah, Mathanai, Jasi,
38 Bani, Bennui, and Semei,
39 Selemia, Nathan, Adaiah,
40 Machnadebai, Sasai, Sarai,
41 Azarel, Selemia, and Semariah, 42 Sallum, Amaria, and Joseph.
43 Among the children of Nebo, Jehiel, Mathathia, Zabad, Zabina, Jadau,
Joel, and Banaia.
44 All these had taken strange wiues, and among the same there were some that had children.

The end of the first booke of Esdras.

The booke of Nehemias, or second booke of Esdras.

The first Chapter.

1 Nehemias bewayleth the calamitie of Hierusalem. 5 He confesseth the sinnes of the people, and prayeth to God for them.

1 THe wordes of Nehemi-as the sonne of Hachaslia. In þ moneth a Chis-len, in the twentieth yere, as I was in the castel at Susan,
2 Came Hanani, one of my brethren, he and the men of Iuda: & I asked them howe the Iewes did that were deliuered and escaped from the captiuitie, and howe it went at Hieru-salem.
3 And they sayd vnto me, The remnant that are left of the captiuitie there in the lande, are in great affliction and rebuke:
the wall of Hierusalem also is broken downe, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.
4 And when I heard these wordes, I sate downe and wept, and mourned certaine dayes,

a Which conteineth part of November and part of December, and was their ninth moneth.

Meaning, of the common people: for before he spake of the Priestes.

dayes, and faſted, and prayed before the God of heauen:

Deut.9.4. 5 And ſayde, O Lorde God of heauen, thou great and terrible God, thou that kœpeſt couenant and mercie for them that loue thee, and obſerue thy commandements:

6 Let thine eares hearken, I beſeech thee, and let thine eyes be open, that thou mayeſt heare the prayer of thy ſeruant, which I nowe pray before thee day and night, for the children of Iſrael thy ſeruants, and knowledge the ſinnes of the children of Iſrael, which wee haue ſinned againſt thee: both I and my fathers houſe haue ſinned.

7 Wee haue grieuouſly ſinned againſt thee, and haue not kept thy commandements, ſtatutes, and iudgements, which thou commandedſt thy ſeruant Moſes.

8 I beſeech thee call to remembrance the worde that thou commandedſt thy ſeruant Moſes, and ſaideſt, Yee will tranſgreſſe, and I will ſcatter you abroade among the nations.

9 But if ye turne vnto me, and keepe my commandements, and do them: though ye were caſt out vnto the vtterꝛmoſt part of heauen, yet will I gather you from thence, and will bring you vnto the place that I haue choſen to ſet my name there.

10 They are thy ſeruants and thy people whome thou haſt deliuered through thy great power, and in thy mightie hand.

11 O Lorde, I beſeech thee, let thine eare hearken to the prayer of thy ſeruant, and to the prayer of thy ſeruants, whoſe deſire is to feare thy name: and let thy ſeruant proſper this day, and graunt him mercie in the ſight of b this man. For I was the kings Butler.

b That is, of king Artaxerxes.

The ii. Chapter.

After Nehemias had obtayned letters of Artaxerxes, 11 he came to Hieruſalem, 17 and buylded the walles.

a Which was the firſt moneth of the yeere, and conteineth part of March and part of April.

1 IN the moneth a Niſan, in the twentieth yere of king Artaxerxes, the wine ſtoode before him: and I tooke vp the wine, and gaue it vnto the king: and I had not bene before heauie in his preſence.

2 And the king ſayde vnto mee, Why lookeſt thou ſo ſadly, ſeeing thou art not ſicke? It is nothing els, but that thou art heauie hearted. And I was ſore afrayde,

3 And ſayde vnto the king, God ſaue the king for euer: howe ſhould I not looke ſadly, when the citie and place of my fathers burpals lye waſte, and the gates thereof are conſumed with fire?

4 And the king ſayde vnto mee, What is then thy requeſt? I made my prayer alſo to the God of heauen.

5 And ſayd vnto the king, If it pleaſe the king, and if thy ſeruant haue found fauour in thy ſight, ſend mee vnto Iuda, vnto the citie of my fathers burials, that I may buylde it.

6 And the king ſayde vnto mee, (the Quéene ſitting by him) Howe long ſhall thy iourney continue, and when wilt thou come againe? And it pleaſed the king to ſende me, and I ſet him a time,

7 And ſayd vnto the king, If it pleaſe the king, let him giue me letters to the captaines which are beyond the water, that they may conuey me ouer, till I come into Iuda:

8 And letters vnto Aſaph the lorde of the kings wood, that he may giue me tymber, to make beames for the gates of the palace which is hard by the houſe, and for the walles of the citie, & for the houſe that I ſhal enter into. And the king gaue me accoꝛding to the ‖ hande of my God which was good vpon me. ‖ Or ſeaſon.

9 And when I came to the captaines beyond the water, I gaue them the kings letters: and the king had ſent captaines of the armie, and horſemen with me.

10 Sanaballat alſo the Horonite, and Tobia a ſeruant the Ammonite, heard of it, and it grieued them ſore that there was come a man which ſought the wealth of the children of Iſrael.

11 And I came to Hieruſalem, and was there three dayes.

12 And I gate me vp in the night ſeaſon, and a fewe men with me, neither tolde I any man what God had giuen me in my heart to doe at Hieruſalem: and there was not one beaſt with me, ſaue it that I rode vpon.

13 And I departed in the night by the valley poꝛt, before the dragon well, and to the doung poꝛt, and conſidered the walles of Hieruſalem, howe they were broken downe, and the poꝛtes thereof conſumed with fire.

14 And I went ouer vnto the well poꝛt, and to the kings ‖ conduite, and there was no roume for the beaſt that was vnder me to paſſe. ‖ Or, fiſh poole, 15 Then went I in the night by the brooke ſide, and conſidered the wall, and turned backe, and came home againe by the valley poꝛt.

16 And the rulers knewe not whither I went, or what I did, neither did I as yet tell it vnto the Iewes, to the Prieſtes, to the noble men, to the rulers, and to the other that laboured in the worke.

17 Afterwarde ſayde I vnto them, Ye ſee the miſerie that we are in, howe Hieruſalem lyeth waſte, and howe the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come therefore, and let vs buylde vp the wall of Hieruſalem, and that we bee no more a rebuke.

18 Then I tolde them of the hand of my God, that it was gracious ouer mee, and the kings woꝛdes that he had ſpoken vnto me: and they ſayde, Let vs get vp, and builde. And they b ſtrengthened their handes to good.

b They were encouraged & gaue themſelues to doe well, and to trauayle in this worthy enterpriſe.

19 But when Sanaballat the Horonite, & Tobia the ſeruant an Ammonite, and Gesem the Arabian heard it, they laughed vs to ſcorne, and deſpiſed vs, and ſayde,

What

What is this þ ye do? Will ye ſtal away from the king?

20 Then anſwerd I them, and ſayd, The God of heauen, he it is that hath graūted vs proſperitie, and we his ſeruants wil get vp and build: as for you ye haue no portion, nor right, nor remembrance in Hieruſalem.

Or, rebell.

c Thus the wicked when they will burden the children of God, euer lay treaſon vnto their charge, both beeauſe it maketh them moſt odious to the world, and alſo ſtirreth the hatred of princes moſt againſt them.

The iii. Chapter.

The number of them that buylded the walles.

1 ANd Eliaſib þ high Prieſt, gate him vp with his brethren the Prieſtes, & they buylded þ ſhepe gate, they repayred it, and ſet vp the doores of it: euen vnto the towre Mea repayred they it, & vnto the towre of Hananeel.

a In Hebrewe, they ſanctified it, that is, they finiſhed it, & ſo dedicated it to the Lord by prayer, in deſiring him to maintaine it.

2 Next vnto him alſo buylded the men of Iericho: and beſide him buylded Zachur the ſonne of Amri.

3 But the fiſh port did the children of Aſnaa buylde, which alſo laid the beames therof, and ſet on the doores, lockes, & barres of it.

4 And next vnto them buylded Meremoth þ ſonne of Uria, the ſonne of Haccos: and next vnto them buylded Meſullam the ſonne of Barachia, the ſonne of Meſezabel: and next vnto them buylded Zadoc the ſonne of Baana.

5 And next vnto him builded they of Thecoa: but the great men that were among them b put not their neckes to the worke of their Lord.

b The rich and mightie would not obey them which were appoynted officers in this worke, neither would they helpe thereunto.

6 The olde gate buylded Iehoiada the ſonne of Paſeah, and Meſullam the ſone of Beſodia, they layde the beames therof, & ſet on the doores, lockes, & barres of it.

7 Next vnto them buylded Melatiah of Gibeon, and Iadon of Maronia, men of Gibeon, and of Miſpah, vnto the throne of the Duke which was beyonde the riuer.

8 Next vnto him buylded Eziel the ſonne of Harhaiah, of the goldeſmithes: next vnto him alſo buylded Hananiah the ſonne of Haracahim, and they repayred Hieruſalem vnto the broad wall.

9 Next vnto them buylded Raphaiah the ſonne of Hur, the ruler of the halfe part of Hieruſalem.

10 Next vnto him buylded Iedaia the ſonne of Harumaph ouer againſt his houſe: and next vnto him buylded Hattus the ſonne of Haſabnia.

11 But Melchia the ſonne of Harim, and Haſub the ſonne of the captaine of Moab, buylded the other piece, and the towre beſide the furnaces.

12 Next vnto him buylded Sallum the ſonne of ||Hallohes, the ruler of the halfe part of Hieruſalem, he, & his daughters.

||Or, the enclouſure ſouſe.

13 The valley gate buylded Hanun, and the citizens of Zanoa, they buylded it, & ſet on the doores, lockes, & barres therof, and a thouſande cubites on the wall, vnto the doung port.

14 But þ doung port buylded Melchiah the ſonne of Rechab, þ ruler of the fourth part of Bethacharem: hee repayred it, and ſet on the doores, lockes, and barres therof.

15 But the wel gate repaired Sallum the ſonne of Cholhoſah, the ruler of þ fourth part of Miſpah: he buylded it, and couered it, and ſet on the doores, lockes, and barres therof: and the wall vnto the fiſh poole Siloah by the kings garden, and vnto the ſteppes that go downe from the citie of Dauid.

16 After him buylded Nehemias the ſonne of Azboc, the ruler of the halfe part of Bethzur, vntil the other ſide ouer againſt the ſepulchres of Dauid, and to the fiſh poole that was repaired, and vnto the houſe of the mightie.

17 After him buylded the Leuites, Rehū the ſonne of Bani: and next vnto him buylded Haſabia the ruler of the halfe part of Ceilah in his quarter.

18 After him builded their brethren Banai the ſonne of Henadad the ruler of the halfe part of Ceilah.

19 And after him buylded Ezer the ſonne of Ioſue, the ruler of Miſpah, the other piece, hard ouer againſt the goyng vp to the houſe of armour that was in the corner.

20 Againe, After him brake forth Baruch the ſonne of Zachai, of c indignation, and repayred the other piece frō the turning corner, vnto the doore of the houſe of Eliaſib the high Prieſt.

c Againſt himſelfe, conſidering his owne ſlacknes.

21 After him alſo buylded Merimoth the ſonne of Uria, the ſonne of Haccos, the other peece from the doore of the houſe of Eliaſib, euen as long as the houſe of Eliaſib extended.

22 After him buylded the Prieſtes, the d men of the playne.

d Which dwelt in the plaine countrey by Iordane & Iericho, and yet had houſes in Hieruſalē.

23 After him buylded Beniamin and Haſhub, ouer againſt their houſe: and after him wrought Azaria the ſonne of Maaſia, the ſonne of Anania, by his houſe.

24 After him alſo buylded Bennui the ſonne of Henadad, the other piece, from the houſe of Azaria, vnto the turning of the wall, and vnto the corner.

25 After him buylded Pala the ſonne of Uſai, ouer againſt the corner, & the high towre which lyeth out ouer from the kinges houſe that was beſide the court of the priſon: after him, Phadaia þ ſonne of Pharos.

26 * As for the Nethinims, they dwelt in the ſtrong holde, vnto the water gate, toward the Eaſt, and to the towre that lyeth out.

*1. Eſdr. 243.

27 After him buylded they of Thecua the other piece ouer againſt the great towre that lyeth outwarde, vnto the wall of the ſtrong holde.

28 But from about the horſe gate forth, buylded the Prieſtes euery one ouer againſt his houſe.

29 And after them buylded Zadoc the ſonne of Immer, ouer againſt his houſe:

after him buylded alſo Hemeia the ſone of Sechania the keeper of the Eaſt gate.
30 After him buylded Hanania the ſonne of Selemia, and Hanun the ſonne of Talaph the ſixth, the other piece: and after him buylded Meſullam the ſonne of Barachia ouer againſt his ‖ ſtore houſe.
31 After him buylded Melchia the goldeſmithes ſonne, vnto the houſe of the Nethinims, and of the marchantes, ouer againſt the gate Mephead, & to the parlour in the corner.
32 And betweene the parlour of the corner, vnto the ſheepe gate, buylded þ goldſmithes and the marchants.

‖ Or, chamber.

The iiii. Chapter.

7 The buylding of Hieruſalem is hindered. 15 But God breaketh their enterpriſe. 17 The Jewes buylde with one hand, and holde their weapon in the other.

1 BVt when Sanballat heard that wee buylded the wall, hee was wroth in him ſelfe, and tooke great indignation, and mocked the Jewes:
2 And ſayde before his brethren, and the ſouldiers of Samaria, What doe theſe impotent Jewes? ‖ will the Heathen ſuffer them? ſhall they offer? ſhall they perfourme it in one day? ſhall they make the ſtones whole againe that are brought to duſt, and brent?
3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beſide him, and ſaide, Though they builde, yet if a fore goe vp, hee ſhall breake downe their ſtony wall.
4 Heare, O thou our God, for we are deſpiſed, turne their ſhame vpon their owne head, and giue them ouer ‖ vnto deſpiling in the land of their captiuitie.

‖ Or, will they ſortifie themſelues?

‖ Or, for a preye.

5 a Couer not their wickednes, and let not their ſinne be put out in thy preſence: for they haue prouoked the buylders.
6 And ſo buylded we the wall, and it was ioyned whole together vnto the halfe height thereof: and the people were minded to labour.
7 But when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, Ammonites, and Aſdodites, heard that the walles of Hieruſalem were made vp, and þ the breaches begamne to bee ſtopped, they were verp wroth, 8 And conſpired al together to come and fight againſt Hierulalem, ‖ and to make an ‡ hinderance therein.
9 Neuertheleſſe, we made our prayer vnto our God, and ſet watchemen by them day and night, becauſe of them.
10 And Juda ſayde, The ſtrength of the bearers is feeble, and there is yet much moze moyter, and we are not able to buylde on the wall.
11 And our aduerſaries ſaide, They ſhall not know, neyther ſee, till we come in the middes among them, and ſlape them, & cauſe the wozke to ceaſſe.
12 But when the Jewes (which dwelt beſide them) came, they tolde vs b ten times, that in all places where we goe vnto, they are appoynted to fal vpon vs.
13 Therefoze ſet I the people after their kinreds, with their ſwozds, ſpeares, and bowes, beneath in the lowe places behinde the wall, vpon the toppes of the ſtones.
14 And I looked, and gate me vp, & ſaide vnto the chiefe men, to the rulers, and to the other people, Be not yee afrayde of them: but thinke rather vpon the great Lozde which ought to bee feared, and fight foz your brethren, your ſonnes, your daughters, your wiues, and your houſes.
15 Neuertheleſſe when our enemies heard that wee had gotten wozde of it, God brought their counſel to nought: and we turned all againe to the wall, euerp one vnto his labour.
16 And from that time forth, the halfe part of the pong men did the labour, and the other halfe part of them helde the ſpeares, ſhields, bowes, and bzeſt plates, & the rulers ſtood c behinde all the houſe of Juda.
17 Thep which buyl ded on the wall, and thep that bare burdens, and thoſe that laded them, with one hand did euerp one his wozke, and with the other helde his weapon.
18 Foz euerp one that builded, had his ſwozde girded vp his thigh, and ſo builded thep: And he that blew the trumpet, was beſide me.
19 And I ſayde vnto the principall men, to the rulers, and to the other people, The wozke is great and large, and wee are ſeparated vpon the wall one farre from an other.
20 Looke in what place therefoze ye heare the noyſe of the Trumpet, reſoꝛt yee thither vnto vs, and our God ſhal fight foz vs:
21 And we wil be labouring in the wozke. And the halfe part of them helde their ſpeares, from the morning ſpring, til the ſtarres came foꝛth.
22 And at the ſame time ſaide I vnto the people, Let euerp one with his ſeruant lodge within Hieruſalem, that in þ night ſeaſon we may watch, and labour on the day time.
23 As foz mee, and my brethren, my ſeruants, & the men of the watch which folowed me, we put neuer off our clothes, ſaue onelp becauſe of the waſhing.

a Let thy plagues declare to the worlde, that they ſet themſelues againſt thee and thy Church: thus he prayeth onely, hauing reſpect to Gods glorie, and not for any priuate affection or grudge.

‡ Heb. make a ſtay.

The v. Chapter.

1 The people are oppreſſed, and in neceſſitie. 7 Nehemias forbiddeth vſurie.

1 AND there aroſe a great complaint of the people and their wiues againſt their brethren the Jewes.
2 Foz there were ſome that ſayde, Our ſonnes, and daughters, and we are verp many: therefoze will wee take coꝛne foz them, that we may eate and liue.
3 Some alſo there were that ſayd, Let vs ſet our lands, vineyardes, and houſes to pledge, and take vp coꝛne in the dearth.
4 But ſome there were that ſayde, We c To ouerlie them, and to encourage them in their worke.

haue borowed money for the kings tribute, and that vpon our lands and vineyardes.

5 And nowe our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, and our children as their children: and lo, we bring into subiection our sonnes, and our daughters, as seruants, and some of our daughters are subdued vnto bondage alreadp, and no strength is there in our handes to redeeme them, and other men haue our lands and vineyardes.

6 And when I heard their complaint, and such woords, it displeased me sore.

7 And I aduised so in my minde, that I rebuked the counsellers, and the rulers, & said vnto them, Euery one of you taketh vsurie of his brother. And I brought a b great congregation against them,

8 And said vnto them, We after our ability haue redeemed our brethren the Iewes, which were solde vnto the heathen: and will you sell your brethren againe? and shall they be solde vnto vs? Then held they their peace, and could finde nothing to answere.

9 And I said, It is not good that ye doe: ought ye not to walke in the feare of our God, because of the c rebuke of the heathen that are our enemies?

10 I, and my brethren, and my seruants, do lend them money and corne: I pray you let vs leaue off this vsurie.

11 Therefore, this same day, I pray you, see that ye restore them their landes againe, their vineyardes, olive gardens, and their houses, and remit the hundred part of the money, of the corne, wine, and ople, that ye haue exacted of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them againe, and will require nothing of them, and will doe as thou hast spoken. And I called the Priestes, and tooke an othe of them, that they should doe according to this promise.

13 And I shooke my lap, & said, God shake out euery man after the same maner frō his house & labour, that maintaineth not this woorde, euen thus be hee shaken out, and bodie. And all ꝑ congregation said, Amen, and praysed the Lorde: And the people did according to this promise.

14 And from the time forth that the king committed vnto mee to bee captaine of them that were in the lande of Iuda, euen from the twentieth peere, vnto the thirtie and two pere of king Artarerxes, that is twelue peres, I with my brethren lined not of such sustenance as was giuen to a captaine.

15 For the olde captaines that were before me, had bene chargeable vnto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside fourtie sicles of siluer, yea and their seruants had oppressed the people: but so did not I, and that because of the feare of God.

16 ‖ But I laboured also in the woorke vpon the wall, and wee bought no lande: and all my seruants came thither together vnto the worke.

17 Moreouer, there were at my table an hundred and fiftie of the Iewes and rulers, which came vnto vs from among the heathen that are about vs.

18 And there was prepared for me daylp an ore, and fiue chosen sheepe, and birdes were prepared for me: and euer once in ten dayes wine for all in abundance: Yet required not I the ‖ liuing of a captaine, for the bondage was grieuous vnto the people.

19 Thinke vpon me my God vnto the best, according to al that I haue done for this people.

The vi. Chapter.

1 Nehemies answereth with great wisedome and zeale to his aduersaries. 11 He is not discouraged by the false prophets.

1 AND when Sanballat, Tobia, and Gesem the Arabian, and the other of our enemies heard, that I had builded the wall, and that there were no moe ‖ gaps therein: (howbeit, at the same time had I not hanged the doores vpon the gates,)

2 Sanballat and Gesem sent vnto mee, saying, Come, that we may meete and take counsell together in the villages that are in the plaine of the citie Ono. Neuertheleile, they thought to doe mee euill.

3 And I sent messengers vnto them, saying, I haue a great businesse to doe, and I can not come downe: Why shoulde the woorke cease, whiles I leaue it, and come downe to you?

4 Howbeit, they sent vnto mee foure times after the same maner: and I gaue them the same answere.

5 Then sent Sanballat his seruant againe vnto mee the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.

6 Wherein was written, It is tolde the heathen, and Gesem hath sayde it, that thou and the Iewes thinke to rebell: for the which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these a woordes:

7 And hast ordeyned the prophets to preach of thee at Hierusalem, and to say, Hee is king of Iuda. And now shall this come to the kings eares: come nowe therefore, and let vs take our counsell together.

8 And I sent vnto him, saying, There is no such thing done as thou sayest, for thou faignest them of thine owne heart.

9 For they were al minded to make vs afraid, saying, They shal withdrawe their hands from their woorke that it shall not be finished: Nowe therefore, strengthen thou my hand.

10 And I came vnto the house of Semaia the sonne of Delaia, the sonne of Mehetabeel, and hee had shut himselfe within, and sayde, Let vs come together in the house of God, euen vnto the middes of the Temple, and shut the doores of the Temple, for they will come to slaye thee, a That is, although we are of the kinred and stocke that our rulers be of: yet they not regarding our necessitie, doe take our children and landes to gage: and so bring vs in like bondage as our brethren which remaine still in the captiuitie.

b Or multitude of people, either because they should be moued with pitie, or els ashamed, seeing howe many were oppressed by them, and also might heare the iudgement of others, which should be as it were witnesses of their cruel dealing towarde their brethren.

c Who by this occasion will blaspheme the name of God, seeing that our doings are no better then theirs, pea, euen in the night will they come to put thee to death.

11 And I ſaid, Should any ſuch man as I flee? Who is, that being as I am, will go into the Temple to ſaue his life? I will not go in.

12 And lo, I perceiued that God had not ſent him, but that he pronounced this prophecie againſt mee: for Tobia and Sanballat had hired him for money.

13 Therefore was he hired, that thorough feare I ſhould ſo doe, and ſinne, that they might haue an euill report of me, to lay to my charge.

14 My God, thinke thou vpon Tobia, and Sanballat, according vnto theſe their workes, and on the prophetеſſe Noadia, and the other prophets that would haue put me in feare.

15 And the wall was finiſhed in the twentie and fifth day of the moneth b Elul, in c fiftie and two dayes.

b Which was the ſixth moneth, and conteineth part of Auguſt, and part of September.

16 And when all our enemies heard thereof, all the heathen that were about vs, were afraide, and their courage fayled them: for they perceiued that this worke came of our God.

c After that I had ſent Sanballat his anſwere.

17 And at the ſame time were there many of the chiefe of Iuda, whoſe letters went vnto Tobia, and againe from Tobia vnto them.

18 For there were many in Iuda that were ſworne vnto him: for hee was the ſonne in law of Sechania the ſonne of Arah, & his ſonne Johanan had d daughter of Meſullam the ſonne of Barachia.

19 And they ſpake good of him before mee, and tolde him my words: and Tobia ſent letters to put me in feare.

58 The children of Iaala, the children of Darcon, the children of Giddel, 59 The children of Sephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Phocereth of Sabaim, the children of Amon.
60 All these Nethinims, and the children of Solomons seruants, were three hundred, ninetie and two.
61 *And these went vp also from Thelmela, Thelharsa, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not shewe their fathers house, nor their seede, and that they were of Israel. 1.Esdr.5.43.
62 The children of Dalaiah, the children of Tobia, and the children of Necoda, six hundred fourtie and two.
63 And of the priestes: the children of Habaiah, the children of Haccos, the children of Barzillai, which tooke one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gilradite to wife, & was named after their name.
64 These sought their writing in the register of their generatiō, but they were not founde: therefore they were put from the priesthoode.
65 And [b] Athirsatha sayd vnto them, that they should not eate of the most holy, till there came vp a Priest which shoulde weare ‖ Urim and Thummim. b Meaning, Nehemias, as Chap. 8. vers. 9. For Athirsatha in the Chalde tongue, signifieth a Butler.
66 *And so the whole congregation together, was fourtie & two thousand, three hundred and threescore, 67 Beside their seruants and maydens, of whom there were seuen thousand, three hundred, thirtie & seuen: & they had two hundred, fourtie and five singing men & women. ‖ Light and perfection. Exod. 28. 30.
68 Their horses, seuen hundred, thirtie & sixe: and their mules, two hundred, fourtie and five:
69 The Camels, foure hundred, thirtie and five: sixe thousand, seuen hundred & twentie Asses.
70 And certaine of the auncient fathers gaue vnto the woorke: Athirsatha gaue to the treasure a thousande ‖ pieces of golde, fiftie basons, fiue hundred and thirtie Priests garments. ‖ Or, drammas.
71 And some of the chiefe fathers gaue to the treasure of the woorke, twentie thousand pieces of golde, and two thousand and two hundred pound of siluer.
72 And the other people gaue twentie thousand pieces of golde, and two thousand pounde of siluer, and threescore and seuen priests garments.
73 And the Priestes, and Leuites, the porters, and the singers, and the other of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities: and when the seuenth moneth came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

The viii. Chapter.

2 Esdras gathereth together the people, and readeth the lawe to them.

1 AND all the people gathered themselues together as one man, in the stréte that was before the water gate, * and they sayde vnto Esdras the scribe, that he should fetch the booke of the law of Moses which the Lord commanded to Israel. 1.Esdr.3.1. 1.Esdr.7.6.
2 And Esdras the Priest brought the law before the congregatiō, both of men, and women, and all that could vnderstand, did hearken vnto it, vpon the first day of the seuenth moneth.
3 And hee reade therein in the stréte that was before the water gate, frō the morning vntill the noone day, before men & women that did hearken to it: and the eares of all the people were enclined vnto the booke of the lawe.
4 And Esdras the scribe stood vpon a pulpet of wood which they had made for ꝑ preaching, and beside him stoode Mathathia, Sema, and Anaiah, Uriah, Helcia, and Maasiah, on his right hād: and on his left hand stoode Hedaia, Misael, and Melchia, and Hasum, Hasbadana, Zachari, and Mesullam.

5 And Esdras opened the booke before all the people (for he stood above all the people:) and when hee opened it, all the people stoode vp.

6 And Esdras prayed the Lord the great God: and all the people answered, Amen, Amen, lifting vp their handes, and bowed them selues, and worshipped the Lord, falling downe vpon their faces to the ground.

7 And Iosue, Bani, Serebia, Iamin, Accub, Sebethai, Hodaia, Maasia, Celita, Azariah, Iosabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Leuites caused the people to giue heede vnto the lawe: and the people stoode in their place.

8 And they read in the booke of the lawe of God distinctly, and gaue the sense, and caused them to vnderstande the reading.

9 And Nehemias, which is Athirsatha, & Esdras the Priest and scribe, and the Leuites that caused the people to take heede, said vnto all the people, This day is holy vnto the Lord your God, bee not sorie, and a weepe not. For all the people wept when they heard the wordes of the lawe.

a The Leuites do not reproue them for mourning for their sinnes, but assure them of Gods mercies, forasmuch as they are repentant.

10 And he said vnto them, Go your way, and eate the fatte, and drinke the sweete, and sende part vnto them also that haue not prepared for themselues, for this day is holy vnto our Lorde: bee not sorie therefore, for the ioy of the Lorde is your strength.

11 And the Leuites stilled all the people, & said, Hold your peace, for the day is holy, be not sad therefore.

12 And all the people went their way to eate, and to drinke, and to sende part vnto other, and to make great mirth, because they had vnderstande the wordes þ were declared vnto them.

13 And on the next day were gathered together the chiefe fathers among all the people, and the Priests, and the Leuites, vnto Esdras the scribe, that they might vnderstand the wordes of the lawe.

14 And they founde written in the lawe which the Lord had commaded by Moses, that the children of Israel shoulde dwell in boothes in the feast of the seuenth moneth:

15 And that they should cause it to bee declared and proclaimed in all their cities, and thorowout Hierusalem, saying, Goe forth vnto the mount, and fetche Oline branches, Pine branches, Myrtill branches, Palme branches, and branches of the thicke tree, to make boothes, as it is written.

16 And so the people went forth, and fet them, and made them boothes, euery one vpon the roofe of his house, and in their courtes, and in the courtes of the house of God, & in the streete by the water gate, and in the streete of the port of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come againe out of the captiuitie, made boothes, and sate vnder þ boothes: for since the time of Iosua the sonne of Nun, vnto this day, had not the children of Israel done so: and there was very great gladnesse.

18 And euery day, from the first day vnto the last, read Esdras in the booke of the lawe of God: and seuen dayes helde they the feast, and on the eight day they gathered together, according vnto the maner.

The ix. Chapeter.

1 The people repent, and forsake their strange wiues.

2 And they that were of the seede of Israel, were separated from all the strange childre, and stood, and knowledged their sinnes, and the wickednesse of their fathers:

3 And stoode vp in their place, and read in the booke of the lawe of the Lorde their God foure times on the day, and they knowledged, and worshipped the Lord their God foure times on the day.

4 Then stoode vp vpon the stayres of the Leuites, Iosue, Bani, Cadmiel, Sabaniah, Bunni, Serebiah, Bani, and Chanani, and cryed loude vnto the Lorde their God:

5 And the Leuites, Iosue, and Cadmiel, Bani, and Halabnia, Serebiah, and Hodia, Sebania, and Phathahia, sayde, Stand vp, and praise þ Lord your God for euer, and let thankes bee giuen vnto the name of thy glory, which excelleth al thankes giuing and praise.

6 Thou art Lorde alone, thou hast made heauen, and the heauen of all heauens, with all their host, the earth, and all thinges that are therein, the sea, and all that is therein, and thou preserueth them all, and the host of heauen worshippeth thee.

9 And hast considered the miserie of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their complaint by the red sea,

10 And shewed tokens and wonders vpon Pharao and all his seruants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they were presumptuous and cruel against them: and so madest thou thee a name, as it is this day.

16 But they, and our fathers, were proud and hardnecked, so that they followed not thy commandements:

17 And wouldē not obey, neither were mindfull of the wonders that thou didst for them: but hardened their neckes, and had in their heades to returne to their bondage by their rebellion: but thou, O God of mercies, gracious, & full of compassion, of long suffering, and of great mercie, yet forsookest them not.

Exod.32.4.mem. 14.14.1.cor.10.7 18 *Moreouer, when they had made them a molten calfe, and said, This is thy god that brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and did blaspheimies:

21 Fourtie yeres long diddest thou fede them in the wildernes, so that they lacked nothing: their clothes waxed not olde, and their feete swelled not.

22 And thou gauest them kingdomes and nations, and didst scatter them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sehon, and the lande of the king of Hesbon, and the land of Og king of Basan.

b Meaning, the Heathen, Num.21.

23 And their children multipliedst thou as the starres of heauen, and broughtest them into the land whereof thou haddest spoken to their fathers, that they should go into it, and haue it in possession.

24 And the children went in, and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabiters of the land, euen the Chanaanites, & gauest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the lande, that they might doe with them what they would.

25 And they won their strong cities, and a fat land, & tooke possession of houses that were full of all maner of goods, ‖Welles digged out, vineyards, olive gardens, & many fruitfull trees, & they did eate, and were filled, and became fat, and liued in pleasure through thy great goodnesse.

28 But when they came to rest, they turned backe againe, to do euill before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had dominion ouer them: & when they conuerted, & cried vnto thee, thou heardest them frō heauen, and many times hast thou deliuered thē, according to thy great mercie,

29 And ‖testifiedst vnto them, that thou mightest bring them againe vnto thy law: notwithstanding, they were proud, and hearkened not vnto thy commaundements, but sinned ‖in thy lawes, which if a man doe, he shall liue in them: and c turned the shoulder awap, and were stiffenecked, and would not heare.

30 Yet many yeres diddest thou forbeare them, and ‖testifiedst vnto them through thy spirite by the hand of thy prophets, and yet would they not heare: therefore gauest thou them into the hande of the nations of the lands.

‖Or, protestedst.

31 And for thy great mercies sake thou hast not vtterly consumed them, neither forsaken them: for thou art a gracious and mercifull God.

32 Nowe therefore our God, thou great God, mightie and terrible, thou that keepest couenant and mercie, regarde not a litle all the trauaile that hath come vnto vs, & our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, and our fathers, and all the people since the time of the kings of Assur, vnto this day.

33 And truly thou art iust in all that thou hast brought vpon vs, for thou hast done right: as for vs, we haue bene vngodly.

34 And our kings, and our princes, our priests, and our fathers haue not done thy lawe, nor regarded thy commandements, and thy ‖earnest exhortations wherewith thou hast ‖exhorted them.

‖Or, protestations, ‖Or, protested amongest them.

‖Or, fat.

36 Beholde, we are in bondage this day, and so is the land that thou gauest vnto

our

our fathers to eate the fruits & goodnesse thereof, behold, there are we bondmen.
37 And great is the encrease of it vnto the kings, whome thou hast set ouer vs, because of our sinnes, and they haue dominion ouer our bodies and cattel, euen as they will themselues: and we are in great trouble.
38 Now because of all this, make wee a sure couenant, and write it, & our princes, Leuites, and priests seale vnto it.

32 And wee decreed a statute vpon our selues, to giue yeerely the thirde part of a sicle to the ministration in the house of our God.
33 To the shewe bread, to the dayly meate offering, to the dayly whole burnt offering, of the Sabboths, of the newe Moones, and feast dayes, & to the things that were sanctified, and to the offerings of atonement, to reconcile Israel withall, and to all the businesse in the house of our God.
34 And we cast the lot among the Priests, Leuites, and the people, for the offering of the wood, to be brought vnto ‖ house of our God from yeere to yeere, after the houses of our fathers, that it might be burnt at times appointed vpon ‖ altar of the Lord God, as it is written in the law.
‖ Or, chambers,
35 And to bring the first fruits of our land, and the firstlings of our fruits of al trees yere by yere vnto the house of the Lord.
36 And the first borne of our sonnes, and of our cattell (as it is written in the law) and the firstlings of our oxen and of our sheepe, which wee should bring to the house of our God, vnto the Priests that minister in the house of our God:
37 And that wee should bring the first fruites of our dough and our heaue offerrings, and the fruites of all maner of trees, of wine also, and of oyle, vnto the Priests, to the ‖ chestes of the house of our God, and the tythes of our land vnto the Leuites, that the Leuites might haue the tithes in al the cities of our ministration.
‖ Or, chambers,
38 And the Priest the sonne of Aaron shal be with the Leuites, * when the Leuites take tythes, so that the Leuits shal bring vp the tythes of their tythes vnto the house of our God, to the store houses, & to the treasure houses.
Num. 18. 26.
39 For the children of Israel, and the children of Leui, shall bring vp the heaue offerings of the corne, wine, and oyle, vnto the store houses there as are the vessels of the Sanctuarie and the Priests that minister, & the porters, and singers, & we will not forsake the house of our God.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Who dwelled in Hierusalem after it was builded.
21 And who in the cities of Iuda.

1 ANd the rulers of the people dwelt at Hierusalem: the other people also cast lots, that among ten one part should goe to Hierusalem, into the holy citie to dwell, and nine partes to be in the cities.
a The people were vnwilling to dwell in Hierusalem, because of the continuall troubles of their enemies, which often times inuaded them, and therefore the rulers vsed this 2 And the people thanked al the men that were willing to dwell at Hierusalem.
3 These are the heades of the Prouince that dwelt in Hierusalem, & in the cities policie, that the citie might be replenished with men, of Iuda, euery one in his possession, and in their cities, they of Israel, the priests, Leuites, the Nethinims, and the children of Solomons seruants.

4 And at Hierusalem dwelt certaine of the children of Iuda, and of Beniamin: of the children of Iuda, Athai the sonne of Vzia, the sonne of Zacharia, the sonne of Amaria, the sonne of Saphatia, the sonne of Mahalaleel, of the children of Phares.

5 And Maasia the sonne of Baruch, the sonne of Chol Hoza, the sonne of Phalaia, the sonne of Adaia, the sonne of Ioiarib, the sonne of Zacharia, the sonne of Silomi.

6 All these were the children of Phares that dwelt at Hierusalē, euen foure hundred three score and eight valiant men.

7 These are the children of Beniamin: Salu the sonne of Mesullam, the sonne of Joed, the sonne of Pedaia, the sonne of Colaia, the sonne of Maasia, the sonne of Ithiel, the sonne of Esai, 8 And after him Gabai, Sellai, nine hundred and twentie and eight.

9 And Joel the sonne of Zichri had the ouerlight of them: and Iuda the sonne of Senua was the second ouer the citie.

10 Of the Priestes: Iedaiah the sonne of Ioiarib, Jachin, 11 Saraiah the sonne of Elcia, the sonne of Mesullam, the sonne of Sadoc, the sonne of Meraioth, the sonne of Achitob, was b chiefe in the house of God.

b That is, was the high priest.

12 And their brethren that did the worke in the Temple, eight hundred and twentie and two: and Adaia the sonne of Ieroham, the sonne of Pelaliah, the sonne of Amzi, the sonne of Zachari, the sonne of Phashur, the sonne of Malchia,

13 And his brethren chiefe among the fathers, two hundred and fourtie and two: and Amasai the sonne of Azrael, the sonne of Mahasai, the sonne of Mosolemoth, the sonne of Immer, 14 And their brethren valiant men, an hundred and twentie and eight: their ouerseer was Zabdiel, a t sonne of one of the great men.

t Hagedolim.

15 Of the Leuites: Semaia the sonne of Hasub, the sonne of Azaricam, the sonne of Phalabia, the sonne of Buni.

16 And Sabathai, & Iosabad of the chiefe of the Leuites had the ouerlight of the outward businesse of the house of God.

17 And Mathania the sonne of Micha, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Asaph, was the principall to beginne the thankes giuing and prayer: and Bacbukia the second among his brethren, and Abda the sonne of Sammua, the sonne of Galal, the sonne of Iedithun.

18 All the Leuites in the holy citie, were two hundred, fourescore and foure.

19 And the porters, Accub and Talmon, and their brethren that kept the c portes, were an hundred and seuentie and two.

c Of the temple.

20 As for the residue of Israel, of d priests and Leuites, they were in all the cities of Iuda, euery one in his inheritance.

21 And the Nethinims dwelt ‖ in Ophel: and Ziha and Gispa were set ouer the Nethinims.

‖ Or, in the furnace.

22 The ouerseer of the Leuites at Hierusalem was Vzzi the sonne of Bani, the sonne of Hasabia, the sonne of Mattania, the sonne of Micha: of the children of Asaph singers were ouer the businesse in the house of God:

23 For it was the kings commandement concerning them, that the singers should deale faithfully euery day.

24 And Pathaia the sonne of Mesezabel, of the children of Zerah the sonne of Iuda, was ‖ next the king in all matters concerning the people.

‖ Or, was at the kings hand.

25 And in the villages in their fields, some of e the childe of Iuda dwelt at Kiriatharba, and in the villages thereof, and in Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Iecabzeel, and in the villages thereof:

26 At Iesua, Molada, Bethphalet,

27 And in the towne of ‖ Hasar Sual, Beersheba, and in the villages thereof:

‖ Or, Hasersual.

28 At Siklag, and Mecona, and the villages thereof:

29 And at Enrimmon, Zarah, Jerimuth,

30 Zanoa, Odollam, & in their villages: at Lachis, and in the fields thereof: at Aseca, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Beersheba, vnto the valley of Hinnom.

31 The children also of Beniamin, from Geba, dwelt at Michmas, Aia, Bethel, & in their villages,

32 And at Anathoth, Nod, Ananiah,

33 Hazor, Ramah, Gethaim,

34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballath,

35 Lod, and Ono, in the carpeters valley.

36 And the Leuites had portion both in Iuda and in Beniamin.

The xii. Chapter.

The Priests and Leuites which came with Zorobabel vnto Hierusalem, are numbred, 27 and al the wal is dedicated.

1 THese * are the Priests and Leuites that went vp with Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and with Iosue: Saraia, Jeremia, and Esdras,

* 1. Esd. 2. 1.

2 Amaria, Malluch, Hattus,

3 Sechania, Rehum, Meremoth,

4 Iddo, Genthon, Abia,

5 Miamin, Madaia, Belga,

6 Semaia, Ioiarib, Jedaia,

7 Salu, Amoc, Helcia, and Iedaia: these were the heads among the Priestes, and their brethren in the dayes of Iosue.

8 The Leuites were these: Iesua, Bennui, Cadmiel, Sarebia, Iuda, and Mathania, which was ouer the office of thanksgiuing, he and his brethren.

9 Bacbukia, and Hanni, & their brethren, were about them in the watches.

10 * Iosue begate Joacim, Joacim also begate Eliasib, & Eliasib begate Ioiada.

* 1. Chro. 3. 3. 6.

11 Ioiada begate Jonathan, and Jonathan begate Iaddua.

12 In the dayes of Joacim were these the chiefe fathers among the Priestes:

21 Vnder Helchia, Hasabia: vnder Iedaia, Nathanael:

22 And in the time of Eliasib, Ioiada, Iohanan, and Iadua, were the chiefe fathers among the Leuites & the Priests, written in the raigne of Darius the Persian.

23 The children of Leui the principall fathers were written in the Chronicles, vntill the time of Ionathan the sonne of Eliasib.

24 And these were the chiefe among the Leuites: Hasabia, Serebia, and Iesua the sonne of Cadmiel, and their brethren ‖ in their presence, to giue prayse and thankes, according as Dauid the man of God had ordeined it, one watch ouer against another.

‖Or, about them.

25 Matthania, Bacbucia, Obadia, Meshullam, Talmon, and Accub, were porters ‖ in the watch, at the thresholdes of the gates.

‖Or, keeping the ward.

26 These were in the dayes of Ioiacim the sonne of Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and in the dayes of Nehemias the captaine, & of the Priest Esdras the scribe.

27 And in the dedication of the wall at Hierusalem, they sought the Leuites out of all their places, that they might bee brought to Hierusalem, to keepe the dedication and gladnesse with thankesgiuings, and singing with cymbales, ‖ psalteries, and harpes.

‖Or, vialles.

28 And the children of the singers gathered themselues together from euery side, out of the plaine countrey about Hierusalem, and from the villages of * Nethophathi, a Which were a certaine familie, and had their possessions in the fieldes, as 2. chro. 2. 54.

29 From the house of Gilgal, and out of the countreyes of Geba, and Asmaueth: for the singers had builded the villages round about Hierusalem.

30 And the Priestes and Leuites were purified, and cleansed the people, & the gates, and the wall.

31 And I brought the princes of Iuda vpon the wall, and appointed two great ‖ quiers of men to giue thankes, which went on the right hande of the wall toward the Dung gate.

‖Or, companie.

32 And after them went Hosaia, and half of the princes of Iuda, 33 And Azaria, Esdras, and Meshullam,

34 Iuda, Beniamin, Semeia, & Ieremi,

35 And certaine of the Priestes children with trumpets: namely Zachari the sonne of Ionathã the sonne of Semeia, the sonne of Matthania, the sonne of Michaia, the sonne of Zaccur, the sonne of Asaph.

36 And his brethren, Semeia, Asarael, Melalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nathanael, and Iuda, and Hanani, with the musical instrumẽts of Dauid the man of God: and Esdras the Scribe went before them.

37 And beside the well gate, they went vp ouer against them vpon the steppes of the citie of Dauid at the going vp of the wall, beyond the house of Dauid vnto the water gate Eastwarde.

38 The other quier of them that gaue thankes, went ouer against them, and I after them, and the halfe part of the people, vpon the wall beyonde the furnace gate, vnto the broade wall, 39 And beyond the port of Ephraim, and beyonde the olde gate, beyonde the fish gate, and the towre of Hananeel, and the towre of Mea, euen vnto the Sheepe gate, and they stoode still in the ‖ prison gate.

‖Or, the gate of the warde.

40 And so stoode the two quiers of them that gaue thankes in the house of God, and I & the halfe of the rulers with mee:

41 And the Priestes, namely Eliacim, Maasia, Miniamin, Michaia, Elioenai, Zachari, and Hanania, with trumpets:

42 And Maasia, Semeia, Eleazar, Azzi, Iehohanan, Melchiah, Elam, & Ezer: and the singers sang loude, hauing Iesrahiah for their ouerseer.

43 And the same day they offered great sacrifices, and reioyced: for God had giuen them great gladnesse, so that both the wiues and children were ioyfull, and the myrth of Hierusalem was heard farre off.

44 * At the same time were the men appointed ouer the treasure houses, wherein were the heaue offerings, the firstlings, and the tythes, that they should gather them out of the fieldes about the cities, to distribute the vnto the Priests and Leuites according to the lawe: for Iuda was glad of the Priests and Leuites that serued.

2. Chro. 31. 11.

45 And both the singers and porters kept the warde of their God, and the warde of the purification, * according to the commandement of Dauid, and of Solomon his sonne.

2. Chro. 24. 25.

46 For in the time of Dauid & Asaph of olde were the chiefe singers ordeined, and the songes of praise and thankesgiuing vnto God.

47 In the time of Zorobabel and Nehemias, did all Israel giue portions vnto the singers and porters euery day his portion: and they ‖ gaue tythes vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites ‖ gaue tythes againe vnto the children of Aaron.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 The law is read. 3 They separate from them all strangers. 30 An ordinance to serue God.

1 AND that day did they read in the booke of Moses in the audience of the people, and therein was found written, that the Ammonites and Moabites shoulde neuer come into the congregation of God:

Num.22.5. deut.23.3.

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and water, but hyred Balaam agaynst them, that he shoulde curse them: And but God turned the curse into a blessing.

Num.22.5.

3 Nowe when they had heard the lawe, they separated from Israel euery one that had ſtraunge himſelfe therein.

Or, strangers, a That is, before the children of Israel had separated the ſtrangers from among them.

4 And before *this had the prieſt Eliaſhib the ouerſight of the treaſurie of the houſe of God, and he was kynſman vnto Tobia,

5 And had made him a great chamber, and there had they afore time layde the offerings, frankincenſe, veſſels, and the tythes of corne, wine, and oyle, which was commanded to be giuen to the Leuites, ſingers, and porters, and the heaue offerings of the prieſts.

6 But all this time was not I at Hieruſalem: for in the two and thirtieth yeere of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I vnto the king, and after certaine dayes obteined I licence of the king to come to Hieruſalem.

7 And I gate knowledge of the euill that Eliaſhib did for Tobia, in that he had made him a chamber in the court of the houſe of God.

8 And it grieued me ſore: therefore I caſt forth all the veſſels of the houſe of Tobia out of the chamber,

9 And commaunded them to cleanſe the chambers, and thither brought I againe the veſſels of the houſe of God, with the meate offring, and the incenſe.

10 And I perceiued that the portions of the Leuites had not bene giuen them, and that euery one was fledde to his land, euen the Leuites and Singers that executed the worke.

11 Then reproued I the rulers, and ſayd, Why is the houſe of God forſaken? And I gathered them together, and ſet them in their place.

12 Then brought all Iuda the tythes of corne, & wine, & oyle, vnto the treaſures.

b He proteſteth that he did his ductie with a good conſcience: yet he iuſtifieth not himſelfe herein, but deſireth God to fauour him, and to be mercifull vnto him for his owne goodnes ſake, as verſ. 22.

13 And I made treaſurers ouer the treaſure, Selemiah the Prieſt, and Zadoc the Scribe, & of the Leuites, Phadaia: and vnder their hande was Hanan the ſonne of Zaccur the ſonne of Mattha-nia: for they were counted faithfull, and their office was to diſtribute the portions vnto their brethren.

14 Thinke vpon me, O my God, herein, and wipe not out my mercie that I haue ſhewed on the houſe of my God, and on the officers thereof.

Or, kindneſſe.

15 And the ſame time ſawe I in Iuda ſome treading wine preſſes on the Sabboth, and bringing in sheaues, & which laded Aſſes alſo with wine, grapes, and figges, and all burdens, & brought them into Hieruſalem vpo the Sabboth day: and I rebuked them earneſtly the ſame day that they ſold the victualles.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre alſo therein, which brought fiſhe and all maner of ware, and ſold on the Sabboth vnto the children of Iuda in Hieruſalem.

17 Then reproued I the rulers in Iuda, and ſayde vnto them, What euill thing is this that ye do, and breake the Sabboth day?

18 Did not your fathers euen thus, and our God brought all this plague vpon vs, and vpon this citie? and ye make the wrath more yet vpon Iſrael, in that ye breake the Sabboth?

19 And when the yates of Hieruſalem began to be darke in the euening before the Sabboth, I commaunded to ſhut the gates, and charged that they ſhould not be opened till after the Sabboth: & ſome of my ſeruants ſet I at the gates, that there ſhould no burden be brought in on the Sabboth day.

c About the time that the ſunne went downe, for the Sabboth laſted from the ſunne going downe of the one day, to the ſunne ſetting of the other.

20 Then remained the chaffmen & marchants once or twise ouer night without Hieruſalem with all maner of wares.

21 Then reproued I them ſore, and ſayd vnto them, Why tarie ye all night about the wall? If ye doe it once againe, I will lay handes vpon you: from that time forth came they no more on the Sabboth.

22 And I ſayde vnto the Leuites, that they ſhoulde cleanſe themſelues, and that they ſhoulde come and keepe the gates, to hallowe the Sabboth day: Thinke vpo me, O my God, concerning this alſo, and ſpare me according to thy great mercie.

23 In thoſe dayes alſo ſawe I Iewes that married wiues of Aſdod, of Ammon, and of Moab, 24 And their children ſpake halfe in the ſpeach of Aſdod, and could not ſpeake in the Iewes language, but according to the language of the one people, and of the other people.

d That is, did excommunicate them, or driue them out of the congregation.

25 Then I reproued them, and curſed them, and ſmote certaine of them, and ſmote them bare and made an othe of them by God, Ye ſhall not giue your daughters vnto their ſonnes, neither ſhall ye take their daughters vnto your ſonnes, or for your ſelues.

Or, plucke off their heare.

26 Did not Solomon king of Iſrael ſinne by theſe things? and yet among many heathen was there no king like him, which was deare vnto his God, & God made him king ouer all Iſrael: and yet men cauſed euen him to ſinne.

3. King. 3.7.

3. King. 11.1.

27 Shall we then obey vnto you, to do all this great euill, & to tranſgreſſe againſt our God, and marrie ſtrange wiues?

28 And one of the children of Ieholada, the ſonne of Eliaſhib the high prieſt, was the the sonne in lawe of Sanaballat þ Horonite: but I chased him from me.

29 O my God, thinke thou vpon them that defile the priesthood, and the couenant of the priesthood, & of the Leuites.
30 Thus cleansed I them from all such as were outlandish, and appointed the courses of the priests and Leuites, euery one in his office:
31 And to offer the wood at times appointed, and the first fruites. Thinke thou vpon me, O my God, for the best.

The Booke of Esther.

The first Chapter.

King Ahasuerus maketh a royal feast. 10 Whereunto the Queene Vasthi will not come. 19 For which cause she is put away. 20 The kings decree touching the preeminence of man ouer his wife.

1 NOw in the dayes of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned fro India vnto Ethiopia ouer an hundred & twentie and seuen prouinces,)
2 In those dayes, when þ king Ahasuerus sate on his [a] seate royal, which was in þ palace of Susan:
3 In the third yere of his reigne, he made a feast vnto all his princes and seruants: and the mighty men of Persia & Media, the captaines also and rulers of his countreys were before him.
4 And he shewed the riches and glorie of his kingdome, and the glorious worship of his greatnesse many dayes long, an hundred and fourescore dayes.
5 And when these dayes were expired, the king made a feast vnto all the people that were in the palace of Susan, both vnto great and small, seuen dayes long, in the court of the garden by the kings palace,
6 Where there hanged white, greene, and ‖yelow clothes, fastened with cordes of fine linke and purple in siluer rings, vpon pillars of marble stones: the beddes also were of golde and siluer made vpon a pauement of ‖greene, white, yelow, and blacke marble.
7 And they dranke in vessels of gold and changed vessell after vessell, and royall wine in abundance, according to the power of the king.
8 And the drinking was by an order, none ‖compelled: for so the king had appointed to all officers of his house, that they should do according to euery mans pleasure.
9 And the queene Vasthi made a feast also for women in the palace of Ahasuerus.
10 And on the seuenth day when the king was merie after the wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Charchas, the seuen chamberlaines that did seruice in the presence of king Ahasuerus, 11 To fetch the Queene Vasthi with the crowne regall into þ kings presence, that he might shewe the people and princes her fairenesse: for she was beautifull.
12 But the queene Vasthi would not come at the kings word by his chamberlains: then was the king verie wroth, and his indignation kindled in him.
13 And the king spake to the wise men which [b] knew the times (for so was the kings maner towards all that knew the law and the iudgements:
14 And the next vnto him were Carsena, Sethar, Admatha, Tharsis, Mares, Marsena, & Memuchan, the seuen princes of Persia and Media, which [c] saw the kinges face, and sate the first in the kingdome.)
15 What, shal we do vnto the queene Vasthi according to the lawe, because she did not according to the word of the king Ahasuerus, which he commanded by his chamberlaines?
16 And Memuchan answered before the king and the princes, The queene Vasthi hath not only done euil against the king, but also against all the princes, and against all the people that are in all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus.
17 For this deede of the queene shal come abroad vnto all women, so that they shal despise their husbands before their eyes, and shall say, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vasthi the queene to be brought in before him, but she would not come.
18 And so shall the princesses in Persia and Media say likewise this day vnto all the kings princes whe they heare of this deede of the queene: thus shall there arise too much despite & wrath.
19 If it please the king, let there go a commandement from him, and let it be written according to the lawes of the Persians and Medians, and not to be transgressed, that Vasthi come no more before king Ahasuerus, and let the king giue her royall estate vnto another that is better then she.
20 And when this commandement of the king, which shall be made, is published throughout all his empire, which is great, all wiues shal hold their husbands in honour both among great and small.
21 This saying pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the worde of Memuchan, a That is, had rest and quietnesse.

22 For

b That is, which were learned men, and knewe the lawes and actes of their elders in times past.

c Which were his chiefe counsellers, & might haue alwayes accesse vnto him.

22 For he sent letters forth into all the kings prouinces, into euery land according to the writing thereof, and to euery people after their language, that euery man shoulde be lorde in his owne house: and this to bee published after the language of his people.

The ii. Chapter.

2 After the queene is put away, certaine young maidens are brought to the king. 14 Esther pleaseth the king, and is made queene.

1 AFter these actes, when the displeasure of king Ahasuerus was nowe ‖ alayed, hee thought vpon Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

‖ Or, appeased.

2 Then said the kings seruants that ministred vnto him, Let there be faire young virgins sought for the king.

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the prouinces of his empyre, that they should bring together all the fayre young virgins vnto the palace of Susan to the womens ‖ building, vnder the hande of Hegai the kings chamberlayne that kept the women, to giue them ‖ their apparell.

‖ Or, house.

‖ Or, things for purification, verse. 12.

4 And that the mayden which pleased the king, shoulde bee queene in Vashtis steade. And this pleased the king, and he did so.

5 In ♱ palace of Susan there was a certaine Iewe, whose name was Mardocheus, the sonne of Iair, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cis, a man of Ieminy,

4. King. 24. 15. 6 * Which was caried away from Hierusalem with the captiuitie, when Iechonia the king of Iuda was led away, whome Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon caried thence:

7 And he nourished Hadassa (that is Esther) his vncles daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, & she was a faire and beautifull maiden, whome Mardocheus (when her father & mother were dead) reckned for his owne daughter.

8 So when the kings commandement and commission was published, & many maydens were brought together vnto the palace of Susan vnder the hande of Hegai, Esther was brought also vnto the kings house vnder the hande of Hegai the keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she founde fauour in his sight: and he caused ‖ ornaments to be giuen her presently, and such things as belonged to her, and appointed her seuen comely maydens out of the kings house, ‖ and fauoured both her and her gentlewomen singularly in the house of the women.

‖ Or, her things for purification,

‖ Or, and he gaue change to her, and to her maydens, of the best in the house of the women.

10 But Esther shewed not her people & her kindred: for Mardocheus had charged her, that she should not reueale.

11 And Mardocheus walked euery day before the court of the womens house, ♱ he might knowe how Esther did, & what should become of her.

12 Also when the appointed time of euery maiden came, that shee should goe in to the king Ahasuerus, after that shee had bene twelue monethes according to the maner of the women (for so were the dayes of their purification accomplished, sixe monethes with oyle of myrrhe, and sixe monethes with sweete odours, and in the purifying of the women:

13 And thus went the maydens vnto the king) whatsoeuer she required, that must be giuen her, to goe with her out of the ♱ women house vnto ♱ kings palace.

♱ There were three houses appointed for women: one for virgins, another for concubines, the thirde for queenes. ‖ Or, house.

14 In the euening shee went, and on the morow she returned into the seconde house of the women, abiding vnder the hande of Saasgaz the kings chamberlaine, which kept the concubines: and shee came in vnto the king no more, except it pleased the king to haue her, & that she were called by name.

15 Now when the course came of Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the vncle of Mardocheus (which had received her as his owne daughter) that shee should come in vnto the king, shee desired nothing but what Hegai the kings chamberlaine the keeper of the women sayd: and Esther found fauour in the sight of all them that loked vpon her.

16 And Esther was taken vnto king Ahasuerus into his house royall, in the tenth moneth (which is ♱ moneth Tebeth) in the seuenth yeere of his reigne.

♱ Which conteineth part of December, and part of Ianuarie.

17 And the king loued Esther aboue all the women, and she found grace and fauour in his sight, more then all the virgins, so that he set the crowne of the kingdome vpon her head, & made her queene in steade of Vashti.

18 And the king made a great feast vnto all his princes and seruants, which feast was her feast of Esther, and caused the prouinces to be at quietnesse, and gaue gifts as became the royalte of a king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the seconde time, Mardocheus sate in the kings gate.

20 And as yet had not Esther shewed her kinred & her people, according as Mardocheus had bidden her: for Esther did after the worde of Mardocheus, like as if she had bene yet vnder his gouernance.

21 In the same time (while Mardocheus sate in the kings gate) two of the kings chamberlaines, Bigthan and Theres, which kept the porte, were wroth, and sought to lay their handes on the king Ahasuerus.

22 Whereof also Mardocheus gate knowledge, and told it vnto queene Esther, & Esther certified the king thereof in Mardocheus name.

23 And when inquisition was made, it was found so, and they were both hanged on tree: and it was written in the Chronicles before the king.

The iii. Chapter.

1 Haman after hee was exalted, obteyned of the king, that all the Iewes shoulde bee put to death, because Mardocheus had not done him worship as other had.

1 After

1 After these actes did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite, & set him on high, and set his seate above all the princes that he had with him.

2 And all the kings seruants that were in the kings gate, bowed their knees, & reuerenced Haman, for the king had so commanded concerning him: but Mardocheus * bowed not the knee, neither did him reuerence.

a This fact of Mardocheus seemed to come by the singular motion of Gods spirit, to the end he might execute his iust iudgement against wicked Haman, and also bring Mardocheus to honour for the preseruation of his people: for otherwise to obey magistrates in all ciuil behauiour, is Gods commãdement, Nehe. 2.

3 Then the kings seruants which were in the kings gate, saide vnto Mardocheus, Why transgressest thou ꝓ kings commandement?

4 And though they spake this daily vnto him, yet would he not heare them, therfore they told Haman, that they might see howe Mardocheus matters would stande, for he had told them that he was a Iewe.

5 And when Haman sawe that Mardocheus bowed not the knee vnto him, nor did reuerence vnto him, hee was full of indignation.

6 And thought it too litle to lay handes vnelp on Mardocheus, for they had shewed him the nation of Mardocheus: wherefore hee sought to destroy all the Iewes that were throughout the whole empire of Ahasuerus, and that were of the nation of Mardocheus.

b To knowe what moneth and day should be good to goe about this thing, that it might haue good successe, but God disappointeth their lots & expectation.

7 In the first moneth (that is the moneth Nisan) in the twelfth yere of king Ahasuerus, they cast Phur, that is, ‖ lot, before Haman from day to day, and from moneth to moneth, to the twelfth moneth, that is, the moneth Adar.

8 And Haman saide vnto king Ahasuerus, There is a people scattered abroad, and dispersed among all people in all the ꝓuinces of thine empire, & their lawes are diuerse from all people, & they not kepe the kings lawes, therefore it is not the kings profite to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it bee written, that they may be destroyed: and to will I ‖ weigh downe ten thousand talentes of siluer, by the handes of them that haue the charge of this businesse, to bring it into the kings treasurie.

10 And the king tooke his ring from his hand, & gaue it vnto Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite the Iewes enemie.

11 And the king saide vnto Haman, Let the siluer be thine, and do with that people as it pleaseth thee.

12 Then were the kings ‖ scribes called, on the thirteenth day of the first moneth, and there was written according as Haman commanded vnto all the kings officers, and to the captaines that were ouer euery ꝓuince, and to the rulers of euery people in the countreys euerie side, according to the writing thereof, and to euery nation after their language, in ꝓ name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the kings ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the kings ꝓuinces, to roote out, to kill, and to destroy all Iewes both young and olde, children and women, in one day, vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, (which is the moneth Adar) and to spoile them as a pray.

14 * This was the tenor of the writing, that there should be a commaundement giuen in all ꝓuinces, and published vnto all people, that they should be ready against the same day. Reade verse 7.

15 And the posters went in all haste according to the kings commandement, and in the palace of Susan was the commaundement deuised: and the king and Haman sate and dranke, when in the meane time the c citie of Susan was disquieted. c That is, the Iewes which were in Susan.

The iiii. Chapter.

Mardochem giueth the queene knowledge of the cruel decree of the king against the Iewes. 16 She willeth that they pray for her.

1 When Mardochens perceiued all ꝓ was done, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the middes of the citie, and cried loude and lamentably,

2 And came before the kings gate, but he might not enter within the kings gate, because he had sackcloth on.

3 And in all ꝓuinces, countreys, and places, as farre as the kings worde and commandement came, there was great lamentation among the Iewes, fasting, weeping, and mourning, and many lay in sackcloth and in ashes.

4 So Esthers maydens, and her chamberlaynes came, and told it her: then was the queene exceedingly abashed, & she sent rayment ꝓ Mardocheus should put on, and lay the sackcloth from him: but Mardocheus would not take them.

5 Then called Esther Hathach, one of the kings chamberlaynes, which stoode before her, and gaue him a commandement vnto Mardocheus, to knowe what it was & wherefore he did so.

6 So Hathach went foorth to Mardocheus vnto the streete of the citie, which was before the kings gate.

7 And Mardocheus tolde him of all that had come vnto him, and of ‖ the summe of siluer that Haman had promised to weigh downe vnto the kings treasurie, because of the Iewes, ꝓ hee would destroy them. Heb. declaration.

8 And he gaue him the copie of the kings commaundement that was deuised at Susan to destroy them, that hee might shewe it vnto Esther, and to speake to her, and to charge her that she should go in vnto the king, and make her prayer & supplication vnto him for her people.

9 And when Hathach came in, shee told Esther the wordes of Mardocheus.

10 And againe Esther spake vnto Hathach, and commanded him to say vnto Mardocheus,

11 All the kings seruants, and the people in the ꝓuinces of the king knowe, that whosoeuer whosoeuer commeth within the court vnto the king, whether it be man or woman, which is not called, ‖ there is but one commandement to it, that the same shall die, except the king holde out the golden scepter vnto him, for then he shall liue: but I haue not bene called to come in vnto the king now this thirtie dayes.

‖Or, there is a law for it.

12 And when Mardocheus was certified of Esthers wordes,

13 Mardocheus bade laye againe vnto Esther: Thinke not with thy selfe that thou shalt escape in the kings house more then all the Iewes.

14 For if thou holdest thy peace at this time, then shall the Iewes haue ‖ helpe and deliuerance out of an other place, & thou and thy fathers house shalbe destroyed: And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdome ‖for this cause sake?

‖Or, breathing. a This Mardocheus spake in the confidence of that faith which all Gods children ought to haue, which is, that God would deliuer them by one meanes or other ‖Or, for such a time.

15 Esther bade them giue Mardocheus this answere.

16 Goe and gather all the Iewes that are founde at Susan, and fast ye for me, that ye eate not and drinke not in three daies, neither day nor night, I & my maidens will fast likewise: and so will I go in vnto the king, which thing is yet contrarie to the commandement, and b if I perish, I perish.

b I will put my life in danger, and referre the successe to God, seeing it is for his glorie, and deliuerance of his people.

17 So Mardocheus went his way, and did according to al that Esther had commanded him.

The v. Chapter.

1 Esther entreth in vnto the king, and bideth him and Haman to a feast. 11 Haman prepareth a gallous for Mardocheus.

1 AND on the third day Esther put on her ropall apparell, and stode in the court of the kings palace within, ouer against the kings house: and the king sate vpon his ropall seate in the kings palace, ouer against the gate of the house.

2 And when the king sawe Esther the queene standing in the court, she founde grace in his sight: and the king held out the golden scepter that was in his hand: So Esther went forth, and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then sayde the king vnto her, What wilt thou, queene Esther? and what requirest thou? aske euen the halfe of the empire, and it shalbe giuen thee.

4 And Esther answered, If it please the king, let the king and Haman come this day vnto the banquet that I haue prepared for him.

5 And the king sayde, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may doe as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 And the king sayde vnto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, that it may be giuen thee? And what requirest thou? If it be euen the halfe of the empire, it shalbe done.

7 Then answered Esther, and saide, My petition and desire is,

8 If I haue founde grace in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to giue me my petition, and to fulfill my request, then let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and to morowe I doe to morowe as the king hath said.

9 Then went Haman forth the same day ioyfull and merie in his minde: but when Haman sawe Mardocheus in the kings gate, that he stoode not vp, nay moued for him, he was full of indignation at Mardocheus.

10 Nerthelesse, Haman refrained himselfe, & when he came home he sent & called for his friendes, and Zares his wife.

11 And Haman tolde them of the glorie of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him so greatly, and howe that he had set him aboue the princes & seruants of the king.

12 Haman sayde moreouer, Yea, Esther the queene did let no man come in with the king vnto the banquet that he had prepared, except me: and to morowe am I bidden vnto her also with the king.

13 But in all this am I not satisfied, as long as I see Mardocheus the Iewe sitting at the kings gate.

14 Then said b Zares his wife, and all his friendes vnto him, Let them make a gallous of fifte cubites high, and to morowe speake thou vnto the king that Mardocheus may be hanged thereon: then goe thou in merily with the king vnto the banquet. And Haman was well content with all, and caused the gallous to be made.

a Thus the wicked when they are promoted, in stead of considering their charge, and humbling themselues, waxe ambitious, disdainfull, and cruell.

b The comfort and counsell which he receiued of his wife, and friendes, through the prouidence of God, was turned to his destruction.

The vi. Chapter.

1 The king turneth ouer the Chronicles, and findeth the fidelitie of Mardocheus, 10 and commandeth Haman to cause Mardocheus to be had in honour.

1 THe same night could not the king sleepe, and hee commanded to bring the ‖ Chronicles and stories: and they were read before the king.

‖Or, the booke of records, and the Chronicles.

2 Then it was founde written, howe Mardocheus had tolde that Bigthana & Theres the kings two chamberlains which kept the ‖doores, sought to lay handes on king Ahasuerus.

‖Or, three olds.

3 And the king sayde, What honour and dignitie hath bin giuen to Mardocheus therefore? Then said the kings seruants that ministred vnto him, There is nothing at all done for him.

4 And the king sayd, Who is in the court? (for Haman was come into the court without before the kings house, that he might speake vnto the king to hang Mardocheus on the tree that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the kings seruants sayd vnto him, Beholde, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 And when Haman came in, the king sayde vnto him, What shalbe done vnto the man whom the king would fauor? (Haman thought in his heart, Whom desireth the king to bring vnto worthy more then me?)

7 And Aman answered the king, Let the man whome the king pleaseth to bring vnto worship, be brought hither,

8 That he may be arayed with the royall garmets which the king vseth to weare, and the horse that the king rideth vpon, and that the croune royall may bee set vpon his head:

9 And let this rayment and horse be deliuered vnder the hand of one of the kings most noble princes, that they may arap the man withall, whom the king is disposed to bring to honour, and cause him to ride vpon the horse through the streete of the citie, and proclaime before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whome the king pleaseth to bring to honour.

10 And the king saide to Haman, Make haste, and take as thou hast sayd, the rayment and the horse, and doe euen so vnto Mardocheus the Iewe, that sitteth before the kings gate: and let nothing fayle of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then tooke Haman the rayment, and the horse, and arayed Mardocheus, and brought him on horsebacke through the streete of the citie, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done vnto the man whom the king is disposed to honour.

12 And Mardocheus came againe to the kings gate: but Haman gate him home in all the haste mought ring, and his head couered.

13 And told Zares his wife, and all his friends, euery thing that had befallen him. Then sayde his wise men, and Zares his wife vnto him, If it be Mardocheus of the seede of the Iewes, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not preuayle against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And whyle they were yet talking with him, came the kings chamberlaines, and caused Haman to make haste to come vnto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

The vii. Chapter.

The queene prayeth for her selfe, and her people.
6 She accuseth Haman, and he is hanged on the gallowes which he had prepared for Mardocheus.

1 AND the king and Haman came to banquet with queene Esther.

2 And the king sayde againe vnto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wyne, What is thy petition, queene Esther, that it may be giuen thee? and what requirest thou? if it bee euen to halfe of the Empire, it shalbe done.

3 And Esther the queene answered, and sayde, If I haue fownde grace in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, then graunt me my life at my desire, and my people for my petitions sake.

4 For we are solde, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slaine, & to perish: and would GOD that we were solde to bee bondmen, and bondwomen, then would I holde my tongue: although the enemie could not recompence the kings losse.

5 The king Ahasuerus answered, and sayde vnto queene Esther, Who is he? and where is he that dare presume in his minde to doe after that maner?

6 And Esther sayde, The enemie and aduersarie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was exceedingly afraide before the king and the queene.

7 And the king arose from the banquet, and from the wine in his displeasure, and went into the palace garden: and Haman stoode vp, and besought queene Esther for his life: for he sawe that there was a mischiefe prepared for him of the king already.

8 And when the king came againe out of the palace garden into the place where they dranke wine, Haman had layde him vpon the bed that Esther sate vpon. Then sayde the king, Will hee force the queene also before mee in the house? As soone as that word went out of the kings mouth, they couered Hamans face.

9 And Harbona, one of the chamberlaines that stoode before the king, sayd, Behold, there standeth yet a gallous in Hamans house, fifty cubites high, which he had made for Mardocheus, that spake good for the king. Then the king saide, Hang him thereon.

10 So then hanged Haman on the gallous that he had made for Mardocheus: Then was the kings wrath pacified.

The viii. Chapter.

After the death of Haman, was Mardocheus exalted. 14 Comfortable letters are sent vnto the Iewes.

1 THe same day did king Ahasuerus giue the house of Haman the Iewes enemie, vnto queene Esther. and Mardocheus came before the king: for Esther told what he was vnto her.

2 And the king tooke off his ring which he had taken from Haman, and gaue it vnto Mardocheus. And Esther set Mardocheus ouer the house of Haman.

3 And Esther spake yet more before the king, and fell downe at his feete weeping, and besought him that hee would put away the wickednesse of Haman the Agagite, and his deuice that he had imagined against the Iewes.

4 And the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. Then rose Esther, and stoode before the king,

5 And sayd, If it please the king, and if I haue found grace in his sight, and it be acceptable before the king, and I please him, then let it be written, that the letters of the deuice of Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite may bee called again, which letters he wrote to destroy the Iewes which are in all the kings prouinces.

6 For howe can I suffer and see the euill that shall come vnto my people? or how can I beare and looke vpon the destruction of my kinred?

7 And a Thus God sometime putteth in the mouth of a very wicked, to speake that thing which he hath decreed to come to passe.

a Meaning, the tribute which the Iewes payed vnto the king.

b This was the maner of the Persians, when one was out of the kings fauour.

7 And the king Ahasuerus saide vnto the queene Esther, and to Mardocheus the Iewe, Beholde, I haue giuen Esther the house of Haman, whom they haue hanged vpon a tree, because he laide hande vpon the Iewes.
8 Write ye also for the Iewes as it liketh you in the kings name, and seale it with the kings ring: For the writings that were written in the kings name, and sealed with the kings ring, durst no man disanull.
9 Then were the kings scribes called at the same time, euen in the third moneth (that is in the moneth Siuan) on the three and twentieth day thereof, and it was written according to all as Mardocheus commaunded vnto the Iewes, and to the princes, to the deputies and captaines in the prouinces which are from India vnto Ethiopia, namely, an hundred, twentie and seuen prouinces, vnto euery prouince accordingly as the writing thereof, and vnto euer y people, after their speache, and to the Iewes according vnto their writing and language.
10 And hee wrote in the king Ahasue-rus name, and sealed it with the kings ring, and by postes that rode vpon horses, and swift young Mules, sent hee the writings,
11 Wherein the king granted the Iewes, in what cities so euer they were, to gather themselues together, and to stand for their life, and for to roote out, to slay, and to destroy all the power of the people and prouince that would trouble the, both children and women, and to spoile their goodes:
12 Vpon one day in all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, which is the moneth Adar.
13 The tenor of the writing was, howe there should be a commandement giuen in all and euery prouince, and published among all people, and that the Iewes shoulde be readie against that day to auenge themselues on their enemies.
14 And so the postes that rode vpon the swift Horses and Mules, made haste with all speede to execute the kings word: and the commandement was deuised in the palace of Susan.
15 And Mardocheus went out from the king in royal apparel of yelow & white, and with a great crowne of gold, being arayed with a garment of silke and purple: and the citie of Susan reioyced and was glad.
16 And vnto the Iewes there was come light and gladnesse, ioy and worship.
17 In all prouinces and cities into what place soeuer the kings worde and commandement reached, there was ioy and mirth, a feast and good dayes among Iewes: insomuch that many of the people in the land became Iewes, for feare of the Iewes came vpon them.

a Which conteineth part of May, and part of Iune, b That is, to defend themselues against all that would assayle them,

The ix. Chapter.

At the commandement of the king, the Iewes put their aduersaries to death. 14 The tenne sonnes of Haman are hanged.

1 In the twelfth moneth, (that is, the moneth Adar) vpon the thirteenth day of the same, when the kings worde and commandement drew neare to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Iewes hoped to haue power ouer them, it turned contrary: for the Iewes had rule ouer them that hated them.
2 For then gathered the Iewes together in their cities within all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as would doe them euil, and no man could withstand them: for the feare of them was come ouer all people.
3 And all the rulers in the prouinces, and princes, and deputies, and officers of the king, promoted the Iewes: for the feare of Mardocheus came vpon them.
4 For Mardocheus was great in the kings house, and the report of him was noised in all the prouinces: for this man Mardocheus waxed greater & greater.
5 Thus the Iewes smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would vnto their enemies.
6 And at the palace of Susan, the Iewes destroyed a fiue hundred men.
7 And slue Pharsandatha, Dalphon, Afphatha,
8 Phorattha, Adalia, Aridatha,
9 Pharmashtha, Arisai, Ariuai, & Vaizatha, 10 The ten sonnes of Haman the sonne of Hamadatha, the enemie of the Iewes:
but on his goodes they laid no handes.
11 At the same time was the king certified of the nũber of those that were slaine in the palace of Susan.
12 And the king said vnto queene Esther,
The Iewes haue slaine and destroyed
fiue hundred men in the palace of Susa, and the tenne sonnes of Haman: What haue they done thinkest thou in other lands of the king? And what is thy petition, that it may be giuen thee: or what requirest thou more to be done?
13 Esther answered, If it please the king, let him suffer the Iewes which are in Susan, to morowe also to doe according vnto this dayes decree, that they may hang Hamans tenne sonnes vp-on the tree.
14 And the king charged to do so: and the decree was deuised at Susan, and they hanged Hamans ten sonnes.
15 For the Iewes that were in Susan, gathered themselues together vpon the foureteenth day of the moneth Adar, and slew three hundred men at Susan:
but on their goods they layde no hands.
16 As for the other Iewes that were in kings prouinces, they came together, & stoode for their liues, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their enemies fourtie and fiue thousand, howbeit, they layd no handes on their goods.

a Beside those three hundred that they slue the second day, as verse. 15.

[Or, on the prey.

17 This they did on the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same moneth rested they, which day they helde with feasting and gladnes.

18 But the Iewes that were at Susan, came together both on the thirteenth day, & on the fourteenth: and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and held that day with feasting and gladnes.

19 And therefore the Iewes that dwelt in the villages and unwalled townes, held the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar with gladnes and feasting, and b kept holy day, and euery one sent presents unto his neighbour.

b As the Iewes doe vnto this day, calling it in the Persians language Phurim, that is, the day of lottes.

20 And Mardocheus wrote these words, and sent letters unto all the Iewes that were in all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, both nigh and farre:

21 That they should make a lawe among themselues, and holde the fourteenth & fifteenth day of the moneth Adar perely, 22 As the dayes wherin the Iewes came to rest from their enemies, and as a moneth wherein their paine was turned to ioy, and their sorowe into a ioyful day: & that in those daies they shoulde make feastes and gladnesse, and one to sende giftes unto an other, and to distribute unto the poore.

23 And the Iewes promised to doe as they had begun, & as Mardocheus had written unto them:

24 Because Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite, al the Iewes enemie, had deuised against the Iewes, howe he might destroy them, and caused to cast Phur, (that is, a lot) for to consume thē, and to bring them to nought.

Esther 3.7. 25 *But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters, that his wicked deuice, which he imagined against the Iewes, should be turned upon his owne head, and that hee and his sonnes should be hanged on the tree.

26 For the which cause they called these dayes Phurim, because of the name of the lot, and because of all the wordes of this writing, and what they themselues had seene, & what had come unto them:

27 And the Iewes ordeined, and tooke it upon them and their seede, and upon all such as ioyned themselues unto them, that they would not misse, but obserue these two dayes perely according as they were writte and appointed in their season.

28 And that these dayes are to be remembred, and to be kept of children children among all kinreds in all landes and cities, in these dayes of Phurim, which are not to bee ouerslipt among the Iewes, and the memorial of them ought not to perish from their seede.

29 And Quene Esther the daughter of Abihail, and Mardocheus the Iewe, wrote with all authoritie to confirme this second writing of Phurim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Iewes, to the hundred twentie and seuen prouinces of the empire of Ahasuerus, with wordes of peace and trueth:

31 To confirme these dayes of Phurim in their time appointed, according as Mardochens the Iewe, & Esther the Queene had appointed them: and they bounde their soule and their seede to fasting and Or, fame. prayer.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these wordes of Phurim, and was written in the booke.

33 And the king Ahasuerus layde tribute upon the land, & upon the yles of the sea.

34 And al the actes of his power, and of his might, and the declaratiō of the dignitie of Mardocheus, wherewith the king magnified him, be they not written in bookes of the Chronicles of the kings of Medes and Persia?

35 For Mardocheus the Iewe, was the second next unto king Ahasuerus, & great among the Iewes, and accepted among the multitude of his brethre, as one that seeketh the wealth of his people, & speaketh peaceably for al his seede.

The first. Chapter.

1 The holines and riches of Iob, 5 the care of Iob for his children. 11 Satan hath permission to tempt him. 13 He tempteth him by taking away his substance, and his children. 20 His faith and patience.

1 THere was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Iob, and the same was a perfect and a iust man, one that feared God, & eschewed euil.

a This Iob was a Gentile, declaring hereby that God hath his, euen among the heathen.

2 And he had seuen sonnes, and three daughters.

3 His substance also was seuen thousande sheepe, and three thousande camels, fiue hundred yoke of oxen, and fiue hundred shee asses, and a very great household: so that he was one of the most principal ‡ men among all them of the b East countrey.

‡ Heb. children.

b As well Arabians, Chaldeans, Idumeans, as others.

4 And his sonnes went and banqueted in their houses, euery one his day, and sent and called for their three sisters to eate and drinke with them.

5 And when the dayes of their banqueting were gone about, Iob sent & sanctified tified them, and gate vp early, and offered for euery one a whole burnt offering: for Iob sayd, It may be that my sonnes haue done some offence, and haue ben vnthankefull to God in their hearres. Thus did Iob euery day.

6 And vpon a day when the d children of God came and stood before the Lord, Satan came also among them.

7 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Whence commest thou? Satan answered the Lord, and said, From compassing the earth to and fro, and from walking thorough it.

8 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Hast thou not considered my seruant Iob, how there is none like him in the earth? a perfect and a iust man, one that feareth God, and escheweth euill?

9 Satan answered, & said vnto the Lord, Doeth Iob feare God e for nought?

10 Hast not thou ‡ preserued him and his house, and all that he hath on euery side? thou hast blessed the worke of his hands, & his possession is increased in the lande.

11 But lay thine hand now vpon him, and touch all that he hath, and he shall f curse thee to thy face.

12 And the Lord sayd vnto Satan, Loe, all that he hath be in thy ‖ power, onely vpon himselfe se that thou lay not thine hand. And Satan went forth from the s presence of the Lord.

13 And vpon a certaine day when his sonnes and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house,

14 There came a messenger vnto Iob, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 h And the Sabees came violently, and tooke them away: yea, they haue slaine thy seruants with the edge of the sword, and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came an other, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heauen, and hath burnt vp thy sheepe, and seruants, and consumed them, and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 And while he was yet speaking, there came another, and said, The Chaldees made out three bands, and fell vpon the camels, and haue caried them away, yea, and slaine thy seruants with the sword, and I only am gotten away alone to tell thee.

18 And while he was yet speaking, there came another, and said, Thy sonnes and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house, 19 And beholde, there came a mightie great wind from beyond the wildernesse, and smote the foure corners of the house, which fell vpon thy children, and they are dead, & I am gotten away alone to tell thee.

20 Then Iob stood vp, i rent his clothes, and shaued his head, fell downe vpon the ground, worshipped, 21 And sayd, * Naked came I out of my mothers woumbe, & naked shall I turne k thither againe: the Lorde gaue, and the Lorde hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord.

22 In all these things did Iob not offend, nor charged God foolishly.

The ii. Chapter.

Iobs wife tempted him to forsake God. 11 His three friends visite him.

1 AND on a day, the children of God came and stood before the Lorde, and Satan came also among them, and stode before the Lord.

2 And the Lord said vnto Satan, From whence commest thou? Satan answered the Lord, and said, I haue gone about the land, and walked thorough it.

3 And the Lord sayde vnto Satan, Hast thou not considered my seruant Iob? howe there is none like vnto him in the earth, a perfect and a iust man? one that feareth GOD, and escheweth euill, and continueth still in his vprightnesse, although thou mouedst me against him, to destroy him a without cause.

4 And Satan answered the Lorde, and sayd, b Skinne for skinne, yea, a man will giue all that euer he hath for his life.

5 But lay thine hande now vpon him, and touch his bone and his flesh, and hee shall curse thee to thy face.

6 And the Lord sayd vnto Satan, Loe, he is in thine hand, but saue his life.

7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lorde, and smote Iob with sore biles, from the sole of his foote, vnto his crowne.

8 And he tooke a potshard to scrape him: and he sate downe among the ashes.

9 Then sayde his wife vnto him, Doest thou continue yet in thy perfectnesse? c curse God, and die.

10 But he sayd vnto her, Thou speakest like a foolish woman: shall wee receiue good at the hand of God, and d not receiue euill? In all these things did not Iob sinne with his lips.

11 Now when Iobs three friends heard of all the trouble that came vpon him, they came euery one frō his owne place, namely Eliphaz the Themanite, Bildad the Suhite, and Sophar the Naamathite: for they were agreed together, to shew their compassion vpon him, and to comfort him.

12 So when they lift vp their eyes a farre off, they knew him not: then they cried, and wept, and euery one of them rent his clothes, and sprinckled dust vpon their heads ‡ in the aire.

13 They sate them downe by him also vpon the ground seuen dayes and seuen nights, and none spake a word vnto him, for they sawe that his griefe was very great.

The iii. Chapter.

1 Iob complaineth, and curseth the day of his birth. 11 He desireth to die, as though death were the end of all mans miserie.

Eccle.5.14. 1.tim.6.7.

k Whereby is meant the belly of the earth, whichis the mother of vs all.

a God alloweth Iobs innocencie, because he ceased not to feare God, although God tryed him with plagues causelesse, at Satans request.

b That is, as a man will be content with the losse of another mans skinne, so he may spare his owne: so is Iob content to beare the losse of his children & kinnes, liues, and bodies in patience, rather then to suffer his owne skin and bodie: o be touched.

c For death was appointed vnto him that blasphemed & cursed God, as Leuit. 24 15.

d That is, to be patient in aduersitie, as we reioyce when he sendeth prosperitie.

‡ Heb. Toward the heauen.

e The Hebrue is, blesse God, which is sometimes taken for to curse, or blaspheme, as here, & 1. King. 21.

d Meaning the angels which are called the children of God, because they are willing and readie to execute his will.

e He feareth thee, not for thine owne sake, but for the commoditie that he receiueth by thee.

‡ Heb. made an hedge about him.

f The Hebrue is, blesse thee, as it is before taken, the fifth verse to curse.

‖ Or, hand.

g That is, went to execute that which God had permitted him to doe, for els he can neuer goe out of Gods presence.

h That is, the Arabians, so called of Sheba the sonne of Reima, of whom Arabia felix was named the region of Saba.

i Not of impatience, but as mourners vse to doe, thereby declaring that he was some thing mooued according to the weakenesse of mans nature in afflictions.

1 AFter this, opened Iob his mouth, and cursed his day.
2 And Iob answered, and said,
3 *Let the day perish wherein I was borne, and the night in the which it was said, There is a man child conceiued.
4 The same day bee turned to darkenesse and not regarded of GOD from aboue, neither let the light shine vpon it.
5 But let it bee stained with darkenesse and the shadowe of death, let the dimme cloude fall vpon it, which may make it terrible, as a most bitter day.
6 Let the darke stourme ouercome that night, and let it not be ioyned vnto the dayes of the yeere, nor counted in the number of the moneths.
7 Desolate bee that night, and without gladnesse.
8 Let them that curse the day, and that be readie to raise vp mourning, giue it also their curse.
‡ Heb. twilight. 9 Let the starres of that ‡ night be dimme thereof, let it looke for light, but haue none, neither let it see the dawning of the day:
c The Hebrewe speach is, the eyelidde of the morning. 10 Because it shut not vp the doores of my mothers wombe, nor hid sorowe from mine eyes.
11 Why died I not in the birth? Why did not I perish as soone as I came out of the wombe?
12 Why set they mee vpon their knees? Why gaue they mee sucke with their breastes?
13 Then should I nowe haue lien still, I should haue slept, and bene at rest, ‡ Heb. Counsellours. ‡ Heb. desolate. 14 Like as the kings and ‡ lordes of the earth, which haue builded themselues ‡ speciall places:
15 Or as the princes that haue had golde, and their houses full of siluer.
16 Or why was not I hid, as a thing borne out of time, either as yong children which neuer sawe the light?
d That is, death is the ende and helpe from the tyrannie and wickednesse of them. 17 There d must the wicked cease from their tyrannie, and there such as laboured valiantly, be at rest.
18 There the e prisoners rest together, they heare no more the voyce of the oppressour:
e Here Iob declareth the sore plagues he bare, counting himselfe in worse state then the vilest persons, and bound prisoners: 19 There are small and great, and the seruant is free from his master.
20 Wherefore is the light giuen to him that is in miserie? and life vnto them that haue heauie hearts?
21 Which long for death, and finde it not, though they search more for it, then for treasures:
22 Which reioyce exceedingly, and be glad when they can finde the graue,
23 From whom their endes are hyd, and concealed by God?
24 For my sighes come before I eate, and my roarings are powred out like the water:
f That is, aduersitie, which being in prosperitie, he feared, 25 For the thing that f I feared is come vpon mee, and the thing that I was afrayde of, is happened vnto me.
26 Was I not happie? Had I not quietnesse? Was I not in rest? and now commeth such miserie vpon me.

The iiii. Chapter.

Eliphas blameth Iob for impaciencie, & vniustice, and for the presumption of his owne righteousnesse.

1 AND Eliphas the Themanite answered, and sayde,
2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou bee discontent? a But who can withhold himselfe from speaking?
3 Behold, thou hast bene an instructer of many, and hast strengthened the b weary hands.
4 Thy wordes haue set vp him that was falling, thou hast refreshed the weake knees.
5 But nowe it is come vpon thee, and thou art grieued: it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.
6 Is this thy feare, thy confidence, thy hope, and thy c vpright liuing?
7 Consider, I pray thee, who euer perished being an innocent? or when were the godly destroyed?
8 For as I haue proued by experience, they that plowe iniquitie, and sowe wretchednes, reape the same.
9 With the blast of God they perish, with the breath of his nostrels are they consumed away.
10 The roaring of the lion, and the voyce of the lion, and the teeth of lions whelps are pulled out.
11 The d lion perisheth for lacke of pray, and the lions whelpes are scattered abroad.
12 But where as a thing was e hid from mine, yet mine eare hath receiued a little thereof.
13 In the thoughts and visions of the night, when sleepe commeth on men, 14 Feare came vpon me, and dread, which made all my bones to shake.
15 The winde passed by before my presence, and made the heares of my flesh to stand vp.
16 It stoode, and I knewe not the face thereof, an image there was before mine eyes, and in the stilnesse heard I a voyce.
17 Shall man be more iust then God? or shall a man be purer then his maker?
18 Behold, hee found not trueth in his seruants, * and in his angels there was follye:
19 How much more in them that dwell in f houses of clay, and whose foundation is but dust, which shall bee consumed, as it were with a mothe?
20 They shall bee smitten from the morning vnto the euening: yea they shal perish for euer, when no man regardeth them.
21 Is not their roialtie gone away with them? they shall die truely, and not in wisedome.

a Because of thy sore affliction, and thy impaciencie.
b Meaning, thou hast holpen and comforted many in miserie, and canst thou not rule thy selfe nowe?
c By this he gathereth that Iob was but an hypocrite, and had not perfect feare nor trust in God.
d That is, God will punish tyrants, which are compared to lyons, although men neglecting their office, doe wink at them. e Here Eliphas sheweth the manner of diuine reuelation by holy Ghost, saying which he will nowe declare, is not humane reason, but as reuealed vnto him from God. 2. Pet. 1. 4.
f Meaning, mans body, which is nothing but dust and clay, 1. Cor. 5. 1.

The v. Chapter.

1. 2 Eliphas sheweth the difference betweene the children of God, and the wicked.

1 Cric

1 CRie, I pray thée, if there be any that will answere thée, and a looke thou vpon any of the holy.
2 As for the foolish man, wrathfulnes killeth him, & enuie slayeth the ignorant.
3 I haue séene my selfe when the foolish was deepe rooted, and suddenly I cursed his habitation.
4 His children were without prosperitie, & they were slaine in the gate, and there was no man to deliuer them.
5 His harueſt was eaten of the hungry, & taken from among the thornes, and the thirstie drunke vp their labour.
6 It is not the earth that bringeth foorth iniquitie, neither commeth sorowe out of the ground:
7 But man is borne vnto labour, like as the sparkes flie vp.
8 But b I would aske counsell at þ Lord, and talke with God:
9 Which doth great things, & vnsearchable, and marueils without number.
10 He giueth raine vpon the earth, and powreth water vpon the stréetes, 11 To set vp them that be of lowe degree, & that those which are in heauines may be exalted to saluation.
12 He destroyeth the deuises of þ subtile, so that their handes are not able to performe that which they do enterprise.
13 *He compasseth the wise in their owne craftinesse, and maketh foolish þ counsell of the wicked.
14 They run into c darkenes by faire day, & grope at the noone day, as in þ night.
15 But hee deliuereth the poore from the sword, from their threatnings, and from the violence of the mighty.
16 Yee is the hope of the poore, and the mouth of the wicked shalbe stopped.
17 Beholde, *blessed is the man whome God correcteth, therefore refuse not thou the chastening of the almightie.
18 For he maketh a wound, and he healeth: he smiteth, and his hande maketh whole againe.
19 He shall deliuer thée in d sixe troubles, & in the seuenth there shall no euil come to thée.
20 In hunger he shall saue thée frō death, and when it is warre, from the power of the sword.
21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of þ tongue, and when destruction commeth, thou shalt not neede to feare.
22 In destruction and dearth thou shalt be merry, and shalt not be afraid of þ beasts of the earth.
23 For the e stones of the land shalbe confederate with thée, and the beastes of the fielde shall be at peace with thée.
24 And thou shalt know þ thy dwelling place shall be in rest, and thou shalt visite thy habitation, and shalt f not sinne.
25 Thou shalt sée also that thy séede shall bee great, and thy posteritie as the grasse vpon the earth.
26 Thou shalt come also to thy graue in a full age, like a corne sheafe cut downe in due season.
27 Loe, this wee our selues haue prooued by experience, & euen thus it is: hearken thou to it also, þ thou mayest take heede to thy selfe.

a He willeth Iob to consider the example of all that haue liued godly, whether any of them were plagued in such sort as he was.
b If I were in thy case, I would craue helpe of God, saith Eliphas.
1.Cor.3.19.
c That is, in thinges manifest and plaine, they want godly wisdome and grace to see.
Pro.3.11. Iam.1.12. heb.12.5.
d Alluding to the sixe dayes of Gods first worke, and the seuenth day he rested, meaning, that of all thy cares and troubles, God will deliuer thee, and bring thee to rest, as in the seuenth day.
e Shewing that when we haue God our friend, all creatures of his, wil serue to our good.
f God shall so blesse thee, that thou shalt haue occasion to reioyce in all thinges, and not to be grieued.

The vi. Chapter.

Iob answereth, that his paine is more grieuous thē his fault. 8 He wisheth death. 14 Hee complaineth of his friends.

1 BVt Iob answered, and said,
2 O that my complaint were a truely weighed, and my punishment laid in the ballances together:
3 For nowe it would bee heauier then the sand of the sea: and this is the cause that my words faile me.
4 For the arrowes of the almightie are vpon me, the poison thereof hath drunke vp my spirit, and the terrible feares of God are set against me.
5 Doeth the wilde asse roare when he hath grasse? or loweth the oxe when hee hath fodder?
6 That which is vnsauerie, b shall it be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egge?
7 The things that sometime I might not away withal, are now my meate. For very sorowe.
8 O that I might haue my desire, and that God would graunt me the thing that I long for:
9 O that God would begin and smite me, that he would let his hand goe and take me cleane away:
10 Then should I haue some comfort, yea, I would desire him in my paine that he would not spare, c for I will not denie þ words of the holy one.
11 For what power haue I to endure? & what is mine ende, that my soule might be patient?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brasse?
13 Is it not so? þ there is in me no helpe: & that my ‡substance is taken from me?
14 He that is in tribulation, ought to bee cōforted of his neighbour: but the feare of the almightie is cleane away.
15 Mine owne brethren passe ouer by me, as þ water brooke, & as the ouerflowing of waters which do hastily goe away.
16 Which are blackish by reason of þ yce, and wherein the snow is hid.
17 Which when they haue passed by, doe vanish: & when the heate commeth they faile out of their place.
18 They depart from the course of their wonted chanel to other places, they run in vayne, and perish.
19 They that went to e Theman considered them, and they that went to Saba waited for them.
20 But they were confounded in their hope, they came thither, and were ashamed.

or to saue me fro the hand of ye tyrants?
24 Teach me, and I wil holde my tongue:
and wherein I haue erred, cause me to them?

26 Do ye imagine to reproue f wordes, that the talke of the afflicted should be as the winde?

ges: turne againe, and yee shal see mine

righteousnesse in my tongue, or vaine

The vii. Chapter.

1 Iob sheweth the shortnesse and miserie of mans life.

1 IS there not an appointed time to man vpon earth? are not his dayes also like the dayes of an a hired seruant?
2 For like as a bondeseruant desireth the shadow, and as an hireling would faine haue the reward of his worke:
3 Euen so haue I laboured whole mo-neths long in vaine, and many a carefull night haue I told.
4 When I laid me downe to sleepe, I said, O when shall I arise? and b measuring the euening, I am euen full with tossing to and fro vnto the dawning of the day.
5 My flesh c is clothed with wormes, and dust of the earth: my skinne is withered and become horrible.
6 My dayes passe ouer more speedily then a Weauers shuttle, and are spent without hope.
7 O remember that my life is but a winde, and that mine eye shall no more see pleasures:
8 Yea, and the eye that hath seene me, shal see me no more: for yet thou d fasten thine eye vpon me, I come to nought.
9 The cloud is consumed and vanished away: so hee that goeth downe to ye graue
e shal come no more vp,
10 Nor turne againe into his house, neither shal his place know him any more.
11 Therefore f I will not spare my mouth, but I will speake in the trouble of my spirit, and mule in the bitternesse of my minde.
12 Am I a sea or a whale fish, that thou keepest me so in prison?
13 When I say, My bed shal comfort me,
I shal haue some refreshing by talking to my selfe vpon my couche:
14 Then fearest thou me with dreames,
& makest me so afraide through visions,
15 That my soule wilheth rather to perish and die, then my bones to remaine.
16 I am wearie, I shall not liue alway:
h O spare me then, for my dayes are but vanitie.
17 What i is man that thou doest magnifie him? and that thou settest thy heart vpon him?
18 Thou visitest him early and euery day, euery moment doest thou trie him.
19 Why k goest thou not fro me, nor lets tell me alone, so long till I may swalow downe my spittle?
20 I haue offended, what shall I do vnto thee, O thou preseruer of men? Why hast thou set me as a marke against thee, so that I am a burden to my selfe?
21 Why doest thou not pardon my trespasses, and take away mine iniquitie?
Behold, now must I slepe in the dust, & if thou seekest me in the morning, I shall not be.

The viii. Chapter.

Bildad sheweth that Iob is a sinner, because God pu-nisheth the wicked, and preserueth the good.

1 THen answered Bildad the Suhite, and said,
2 How long wilt thou talke of such thinges? howe long shall the wordes of thy mouth be as a mightie winde?
3 Doeth God peruert the thing that is lawful? or doeth the almightie destroy ye thing that is right?
4 For seeing that b thy sonnes sinned against him, did not he send them into the place of their iniquitie?
5 If thou wouldest now resort vnto God betimes, and make thy prayer to the al-mightie,
6 If thou wouldest liue a pure and godly life: shoulde hee not awake vp vnto thee immediately, and make the habitation of thy righteousnesse prosperous?
7 Insomuch that wherein so euer thou haddest little afore, thou shouldest haue now great aboundance.
8 Enquire, I pray thee, c of the former age,
& search diligently among their fathers:
9 (* For wee are but of d yesterday, and consider not that our dayes vpon earth are but a shadowe.)
10 Shall not they shew thee, and tell thee, and vtter the words of their heart?
11 May a e rush growe without moistnes?
or may the grasse grow without water?
12 No, but whilest it is now in his greene-nesse, though it bee not cut downe, yet withereth it before any other herbe:

and the hypocrites hope shall come to nought.

i As though Iob had said, there is no cause why thou shouldest esteeme man.
k Why doest thou not cease to punish me?

a He declareth that those mens wordes which will diminish any thing from the iustice of God, are but as a puffe of winde, that vanisheth away.
b And therefore are iustly plagued, but thou rather art more bound to God, because he hath giuen thee space to repent.

thed with shame, and the dwelling of the vngodly shall come to nought.

The ix. Chapter.

Iob declareth the mightie power of God, & that mans righteousnesse is nothing.

1 IOb answered, and sayd,
2 I knowe it is so of a trueth: for how may a man compared vnto God, bee
a iustified?
3 If he will argue with him, he cannot answere him one thing of a thousand.
4 He is wise in heart, and mightie in strength: who hath bene fierce against him, and hath prospered?
5 He b translateth the mountains or ever they be aware, it is he that ouerthroweth them in his wrath.
6 He remoueth the earth out of her place, that the pillars thereof shake withall.
7 He commaundeth the sunne, and it ri-seth not: he closeth vp the starres as vnder a seale.
8 He himselfe alone spreadeth out the heauens, and goeth vpon the ‖ waues of the sea.
9 He maketh the waines of heauen, c the Dzion, the seuen starres, and the secrete places of the South.
10 He doth great things d vnsearchable:
yea, and wonders without number.
11 Loe, d when he goeth by me, I shall not see him, and when he passeth, I shall not perceiue him.
12 If he be hastie to take away, who will make him e restore it? or who will say vnto him, What doest thou?
13 God will not withdraw his anger, and the most mightie do stoupe vnder him.
14 How much lesse shall I answere him?
or howe should I find out my wordes
with him?
15 For though I were righteous, yet might I not giue him one word againe, but mee|ely submit my selfe to him as my iudge.
16 If I had called vpon him, and he had answered me, f yet would I not beleeue that he heard my voyce:
17 He troubleth mee so with the tempest, and wounded me out of measure without a cause.
18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitternesse.
19 If men will speake of strength, loe, hee is strong: if men will speake of iudgement, who shall be my pleader?
20 If I will g iustifie my selfe, mine owne mouth shall condemne mee: if I will be a perfect man, he shall proue me a wicked doer.
21 Though I were perfect, yet I knowe not my soule, and am wearie of my life.
22 This is one point, and therefore I sayde, He destroyeth both the perfect and vngodly.
23 And though he slay suddenly with the scourge, will he laugh at the punishment of the innocent?
24 As for the earth, it is giuen ouer into the hand of the wicked, and he shall h couer the faces of the iudges thereof: if not, where is he, or who is he? that can shewe the contrarie?
25 My daies are more swift then a runner, they are gone, & haue seene no good thing.
26 They are passed away as the ships that be good vnder saile, & as the Eagle that flieth to the pray.
27 If I say, I will forget my complaining, I will cease from my wrath, and comfort my selfe:
28 Then am I afrayd of all my sorowes, for I know that thou wilt not iudge me innocent.
29 If I bee wicked, why then i labour I in vaine?
30 If I wash my selfe with snow water, and make mine hands neuer so cleane
at the well:
31 Yet shalt thou ‖ dip me in the mire, and k mine owne clothes shall defile me.
32 For he that I must giue answere vnto, and with whom I go to the lawe, is not a man as I am:
33 Neither is there any dayes man to lay his hand betweene vs.
34 Let him take his rod away frō me, yea, let him make me no more afraid of him, 35 And then shall I answere him without any feare: but ‖ because I am not so, I hold me still.

g If I would stand in mine owne defence, yet God hath iust cause to condemne me, if he examine mine heart and conscience.

a Iob answered to Eliphas and Bildads orations, confessing mans iustice to be nothing, being compared to God.
b Here followeth the infinite power of God, whereby doth appeare mans weakenesse the more.
‖ Or, height.
c These be the names of certain starres, declaring that the powers of heauen are at his commandement.
d Though his wonderous works be before mine eyes, yet am I not able to comprehend them. e Declaring that God doth all things iustly, and is vnsearchable in his doings, which not one can controll.
f A miserable case when man is brought to such desperatiō, where as God himselfe saith, before they cry I will heare thē.

h That they cannot see to do iustice.
i As if he had said, If I be wicked and shall be indged as the vngodly, why tarriest thou so long to thrust me into y graue, why doe I abide al this in vayne?
‖ Or, plunge me in the pit.
k Shewing our righteousnesse before God, to be nothing but as a defiled cloth.
‖ Or, I haue nothing to make for me.

The x. Chapter.

1 Iob is wearie of his life, & setteth out his frailnesse before God. 20 He desireth him to stay his hand.
22 A description of death.

1 MY soule is a cut off though I line,
I will powre out my complaint against my selfe, & will speake out of the verie ‖ heauinesse of my soule.
2 I will say vnto God, O b doe not condemne me, but shew me wherefore thou contendest with me?
3 Thinkest thou it well done to oppresse me? to cast me off, being the workes of thy handes? and to c maintaine the cōs-sell of the vngodly?
4 Hast thou fleshly eyes? or doest thou looke as a man looketh?
5 Or are thy dayes as the dayes of d man?
and thy yeres as mans yeres?
6 That thou makest such inquisition for my wickednes, & searchest out my sinne?
7 Thou knowest e that I haue not done thou wast woont to bee, mercifull and good to Iob?

a I am more like to a dead man, then to one that liueth.
‖ Or, bitternesse.
b That is, in thy secret iudgement doe not lay things to my charge.
c Wilt thou helpe the wicked, & leaue me destitute?
d That is, chāge.able, as though he would say, Art thou not the same God that e That is, I can not offende, by reason thou keepest mee lowe in affliction, wicwickedly, and that none can deliuer mee out of thine hand.

8 Thy hands haue made me, and fashioned me altogether round about, wilt thou then destroy me?

9 Remember, I beseech thée, that thou madest me as the mould of the earth, and shalt bring me into dust againe.

10 Hast thou not powred mee as it were milke, & turned me to cruds like cheese?

11 Thou hast couered me with skinne and flesh, & ioyned me together with bones and sinowes.

12 Thou hast granted me life, and done me good: and thy f visitation hath preserued my spirit.

f Thy fatherly care and prouidence whereby thou preseruest me.

13 Thou hast hidde these things in thine heart, yet I am sure that thou remembrest this thing.

14 If I did sinne, thou haddest an eie vnto me, and shalt not pronounce me innocent from mine offence.

15 If I haue done wickedly, wo is mée therefore: if I haue done righteously, yet dare I not lift vp my head, so full am I of confusion, & see mine owne miserie.

g That is, I will walke in meeke humilitie.

16 And let it increase, hunt me as a lion, but thou wilt returne and shew thy selfe marueilous vpon me.

‖Or, plagues.

17 Thou bringest freth ‖ witnesse against me, and thy wrath increasest thou vpon me: diuerse and many are the plagues that I am in.

18 Wherefore hast thou brought me out of the wombe? O that I had perished, and that no eye had séene me, 19 And that I were as though I had not bene, but brought from the wombe to the graue.

20 Are not my dayes few? Let him then leaue off from me, and let me alone, that I may comfort my selfe a litle,

21 Before I go thither from whence I shal not turne againe, euen to the lande of darknesse and shadow of death:

22 Yea a lande as darke as darknesse it selfe, & into the shadowe of death where is k none order, but the light is there as darkenesse.

k That is, no difference betweene light & darkenesse.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Iob is vniustly blamed of Sophar. 7 The maiestie of God cannot be searched. 14 God is mercifull to the repentant. 18 The godly shall liue in safetie.

1 THen answered Sophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not he that maketh many wordes bee answered? Should he that a babbleth much be commended therein?

a For not he that speaketh much, but he that speaketh truely, speaketh well.

3 Should thy lies make men holde their peace? and when thou mockest others, shall no man make thee ashamed?

b Here Sophar layeth to Iobs charge wordes that he spake.

4 For thou hast saide, b My doctrine is pure, and I am cleane in thine eyes.

c Sophar goeth about to proue Iob to be iustly plagued.

5 But O c that God would speake, and open his lips against thée,

6 That he might shewe thee the d secrets of wisedome, howe thou hast deserued double, according to right: Know therefore that God hath forgotten thee for thine iniquitie, d Which is, not to stand in iustifying thy selfe.

7 Art thou able to find out the secretes of God? Or wilt thou attaine to the perfectnesse of the almightie?

8 Ye is e higher then heauen, what art thou able to doe? deeper then hell, howe wilt thou then know him?

e If man be not able to comprehend the heigth of heauen, the depth of hell, the length of the earth, and the breadth of the sea, which are but creatures, howe can he attaine to the perfect knowledge of the creator?

9 The measure of him is longer then the earth, and broader then the sea.

10 Though hee turne all things vpside down, close them in, & gather them together, who wil turne him frō his purpose?

11 For hee it is that knoweth vaine men, he seeth their wickednes also, though hee not then consider it?

12 Yet vaine man would be wise, though man new borne, is like a wild asses colt.

13 If thou preparedst thine heart, and litedst vp thine hands toward him:

14 If thou wouldest put away the wickednes which thou hast in hand, so that no vngodlinesse dwell in thine house:

15 Then mightest thou f lift vp thy face without ‖ shame, and then shouldest thou be sure, and haue no neede to feare.

f Such are the quiet mindes of those that truely repent.

16 Then shouldest thou forget thy miserie, and thinke no more vpon it then vpō the waters which passe by.

‖Or, spot.

17 Then should thy ‖ life be as cleare as the noone day, thou shouldest shine foorth, and be as the morning.

‖Or, age.

18 Then mightest thou be bolde, because there is hope, and take thy rest quietly, as compassed with a trench.

19 *Then mightest thou lie downe, & none to make thee afraied, yea, many one should make suite vnto thée.

*Leuit. 26. 5.

20 As for the eyes of the vngodly, they shall faile, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be sorow of minde.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Iob accuseth his friends of ignorance. 7 He declareth the might and power of God 17 And how God changeth the course of things.

1 SO Iob answered, and said,

2 Then no doubt ye are the people, and a wisedome shall perish with you.

a As though he should say, your wisdome exceedeth all other, and when ye die, all wisedome should perish with you.

3 But I haue ‡ vnderstanding as well as ye, and am not inferiour to you: yea, who knoweth not these things?

‡ An heart. Pro. 14. 1.

4 *I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth vpon God, and he heareth him: the iust and the vpright is laughed to scorne,

5 Being as a light b despised in the hearts of the rich, and as one ready to fall.

b That is, as he that despiseth the light in the night season may soone stumble, so they that refuse the afflicted which shine before Gods face, doe get to themselues his wrath to their perill.

6 The houses of robbers are in wealth and prosperity, and they that maliciously meddle against God, dwell without care in those things that God hath c giuen richly with his hand.

c The Hebrues reade, whom God hath brought in with his hand.

7 Aske the cattell, d and they shal enforme thee: the foules of the aire, and they shall tell thee, d For euen ‡ cattell, & all creatures do declare Gods power, as it is said, The heauens declare the glory of God.

8 Speake to the earth, and it shall shewe thée: or to the fishes of the sea, and they shall certifie thee.

9 What

9 What is hee, but hee knoweth that the hand of the Lord made all these?

f For God doth not onely create his creatures, but also nourisheth, cherisheth and preserueth them still. ‖Or, flesh, Esa.22.22. 40c.3.7.

10 In whose hand is the f soule of euery liuing thing, & the breath of al ‖mākind?

11 Doeth not the eares discerne þ words? and the mouth taste the meate?

12 Amōg old persons there is wisedome, and in age is vnderstanding.

13 Yea, with God is wisdome & strength, counsell, and vnderstanding.

g Here Iob prooueth that nothing is comparable to Gods power, or can preuayle against it.

14 *Beholde, if he g breake down a thing, who can set it vp againe? if hee shut a thing, who will open it?

h He sheweth that nothing is done in this worlde, without Gods will and ordinance.

15 Beholde, if he withholde the waters, they drie vp: if he let them goe, they destroy the earth.

16 With him is strength and wisedome, both the deceiuer and he that is deceiued are h his.

17 Hee carieth away þ wise men as it were a people, and maketh the iudges fooles.

18 He loseth the rule of kings, & girdeth their lopnes with a bond.

19 He leadeth away the great men into captiuitie, and turneth the mightie vpside downe.

20 Hee stoppeth the mouth of them that speake trueth, & disappointeth the aged of their vnderstanding.

21 Hee powreth contempt vpon princes, and maketh the strength of the mightie weake.

22 Looke what lieth hid in darkenes, hee declareth it openly, & the very shadowe of death bringeth he to light.

23 He encreaseth the people, and destroyeth them, he maketh them to multiplie, and diminisheth them.

24 He taketh away the heart of them that be heads of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wāder in the wildernesse out of the way.

25 They grope in þ darke without light, and hee maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

The xiii. Chapter.

Iob prayeth vnto God that he wouldē not handle him rigorously.

a Meaning, I know the power of God as well as you.

1 Lo, a all this haue I seene with mine eye, heard with mine eare, and vnderstand it.

2 What ye know, that same do I know also, neither am I inferiour vnto you.

b That is, you are vnmeete for my disease, which seeke not the medicine to cure it, but rather to encrease it, with your lies and tales to trouble me.

3 Neuertheless, I talke with the almightie, and my desire is to commune with God.

4 As for you, ye are workmasters of lies, and b vnprofitable physitiōs altogether.

5 Would God ye kept your tongue, for then might ye be taken for wise men.

6 Now heare my reasoning, and ponder the argument of my lippes.

c Marke what I shall lay against you, for I blame you not in that ye declare Gods power, but because you faine a carnall and humane iustice to be in him: and so of true thinges ye conclude lyes,

7 Will you speake c wickedly for Gods defence, & talke deceitfully for his cause?

8 Will yee accept the person of him? or will yee contend for God?

9 Shall that helpe you when hee calleth you to reckoning? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mocke him?

10 He shall surely reproue you, if ye do secretly accept any person.

11 Shall not his excellencie make you afraid? shall not his feare fall vpon you?

12 Your d remembrance is like vnto dust, and your bodies like the clay.

d Your fame shall come to nothing.

13 Holde your tongues before me, that I may speake, and let come on mee what will.

14 Wherefore do I e teare my flesh with my teeth, and f put my soule in mine handes?

e That is, sore vexe and torment my selfe as though I should rent and teare my flesh with teeth.

15 Loe, though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will reproue mine owne wayes in his sight.

f That is, to set my life in dangers.

16 He shalbe my saluation: for there may no g hypocrite come before him.

g Here it appeareth that Iobs trust and hope in God was not all perished, discharging himselfe of hypocrisie, wherewith they charged him.

17 Heare diligently my words, & ponder my sayings with your eares.

18 Beholde, nowe haue I prepared my iudgement, and knowe that I shall bee founde h righteous.

h That is, not condemned for my sinnes, as you doe reason.

19 What is he that will i go to lawe with me? if I now hold my tongue, I die.

i To proue that God plagueth me for mine offences.

20 Neuertheless, do not these two things vnto mee, and then will I not hide my selfe from thee:

21 Withdrawe thine hand farre from me, and let not þ feareful dread of thee make me afraide.

22 Then call, & I will answere: or let me speake, and giue thou me an answere.

23 Howe many are my misdeedes and sinnes? let me knowe my transgressiōs and offences.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thy enemie?

25 Wilt thou breake a leafe driuen to and fro, & wilt thou pursue the drie stubble?

26 For thou layest sharply to my charge, and punishest mee for the sinnes of my youth.

27 Thou puttest my feete also in þ k stocks, and lookest narowly vnto al my pathes, and makest the print therof in the heeles of my feete:

k Thou makest me thy prisoner, and doest so oppresse me, that I cannot stirre hand nor foote.

28 And I as a rotten thing doe consume away, as a garment that is moth eaten.

The xiiii. Chapter.

Iob describeth the shortnesse and miserie of the life of man. 14. Hope sustaineth the godly. 22 The condition of mans life.

1 Man that is borne of a woman hath but a short time to line, and is full of miserie.

a This expresseth mans shortnesse of life, and the vnstablenes thereof, being compared to a flowre, to a shadowe, and to the grasse in the fielde.

2 He cōmeth vp, and is cut downe a like a floure: he fleeth as it were a shadowe, and continueth not.

3 Doest thou b open thine eyes vpon such one, & bringest me into thy iudgement?

b Meaning, that seeing man is so fraile, he shoulde not handle him so extremely,

4 Who can make it cleane that commeth of an vncleane thing? no body.

5 The dayes of man surely are determined, the number of his moneths are knowen onely vnto thee, thou hast appointed him his bounds which hee can not goe beyond.

6 Goe from him, that he may rest, vntill his his hap c come which he looked for, like as an hyrelyng doeth.

c That is, death which he desireth as the hireling waiteth in the end of his labour to receiue his wages.

7 For if a tree be cut downe, there is some hope yet that it will sprowte, and shoote forth the branches againe,

8 Though the roote of it be waxen olde in the earth, and the stocke thereof bee dead in the grounde:

9 Yet when it getteth the sent of water, it will bud and bring forth boughes, like as a tree that is planted.

d Iob sayeth not this as hauing no hope of immortalitie, but as one sore tormented.

10 d But as for man, when he is dead, perished, and consumed awap, what becõmeth of him?

11 As the waters passe from the sea, and as the flood decayeth and drieth vp:

12 So man after hee is a sleepe riseth not, he shall not wake till the heauens bee no more, nor rise out of his sleepe.

13 O that thou wouldest hide mee in the graue, and keepe mee secrete, vntill thy wrath were past, & to appoint me a time wherein thou mightest remember me.

14 May a dead man liue againe? All the dayes of my life will I waite still, til my changing shall come.

e Thou plaguest me nowe, yet when thou shalt call me vp at doomes day, I shall answere thee, for thou art mercifull.

15 Thou shalt e call me & I shall answere thee, || despise not thou the woorke of thine owne handes.

||Or, thou shalt loue.

16 For nowe thou numbrest all my goings, and giuest no delay vnto my sinne.

17 Mine iniquitie is sealed vp as it were in a f bagge, and thou addest punishment vnto my wickednesse.

f That is, thou hast al my deeds numbred, spare me therefore.

18 The mountaines fall awap at the last, the rocks are remoued out of their place.

19 The waters pearse through the verp stones by litle and litle, the floods wash awap the granell and earth: so shalt thou destroy the hope of man.

g Thou keepest all my sinnes in store, and sufferest none vnpunished.

20 Thou preuaylest still against him, so þ hee passeth awap: thou changest his ||estate, and puttest him from thee.

||Or, face.

21 And whether his children come to worship or no, he can not tell: and if they be men of lowe degree, he knoweth not.

h While he liueth.

22 But while his h flesh is vpon him, it must haue sorowe: and his soule shall mourne within him.

The xv. Chapter.

Eliphas blameth Iob, because he challengeth wisedome and pureneſſe to himſelfe.

1 THen answered Eliphas the Themanite, and saide, a Wordes to no effect spoken, are likened to the East winde, which driueth vp the moysture as soone as it falleth: so foolish words vainely perish as soone as they be spoken.

2 Shall a wise mans answere be as þ winde, & fill his belly with the a winde of the East?

3 Shall he reprooue with a worde that is nothing worth, and speake the things which can do no good?

4 Surely thou hast cast off feare, and restrainest prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth setteth forth thine owne iniquitie, seeing thou hast chosen the tongue of the craftie.

6 Thine owne mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea thine owne lippes shape an answere against thee.

7 b Art thou the first man that euer was borne? or wast thou made before þ hils?

b That is, art thou so ancient that all wisedom is in thy head?

8 Hast thou heard the secrete counsell of God? and doest thou restraine wisedome to thy selfe?

9 What knowest thou that wee knowe not? and what vnderstandest thou, but we can the same?

10 * With vs are both old & aged men, yea, such as haue liued longer then thy father.

Eccle. 18. 12.

11 Thinkest thou it a small thing of the consolations of God? || with thee is a lying worde.

||Or, is there any secrete thing with thee?

12 Why doeth thine c heart so bewitche thee? and wherefore winkest thou with thine eyes, c As one standing in thine owne conceite.

13 That thy minde is so d puft vp against God, and lettest such wordes goe out of thy mouth?

d So reade, answering him at thy pleasure: the Hebrewe is, answering him in thy spirite.

14 What is man, that he should be cleane? and he which is borne of a woman, where vp he might be righteous?

15 Behold, he doeth not trust his saintes, yea þ heauẽs are not cleane in his sight:

||Or, among his saintes there is none without fault.

16 Howe much more then an abominable and vile man, which e drinketh wickednesse like water.

e Which hath a desire to sinne as he that is thirsty to drinke.

17 I will tell thee, heare mee, and I will shewe thee that I haue seene:

18 Which wise men haue tolde, and haue not hid that which they receiued from their fathers:

19 Vnto whom alone the earth was giuẽ, and no stranger went among them.

20 The f vngodly sorowerth all the dayes of his life, as it were a woman with childe, and the & number of a tyrantes yeeres are vnknowen.

f Here hee speaketh certaine places of the Leuiticall lawe for his proofe, which in deede the fathers so spake, but did not vnderstand them, as Eliphas did, 21 A fearefull sound is euer in his eares, and when hee is in peace, the destroyer shall come vpon him.

22 He beleeueth neuer to be delinered b out of darkenesse: for the sworde is alwayes before his eyes.

g He shall be alwayes in feare day and night, not knowing any thing certaine.

23 He wandreth abroade for bread where it is, knowing that the day of darkenesse is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish will make him afraide, they shall prenaile against him, as a king with his armie.

h That is, out of the troubles & feares which fall vpon him.

25 For he hath stretched out his hande against God, and armed him selfe against the almightie.

26 He runneth proudely vpon him, & with a stiffe necke fighteth he against him.

27 Where as he i couereth his face with farnesse, & maketh his body wel liking.

i That is, abundance of riches hath made him so proude, that he forgetteth God.

28 Therefore shall his dwelling bee k in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, but are become heapes of stones.

k That is, he shall haue no certaine and sure place to dwell in.

29 He shall not be riche, neyther shall his substance continue, neyther shall the prosperitie thereof bee prolonged vpon the earth.

30 He shal neuer depart out of darkenesse, the flame l shall dype vp his branches, with the blast of the mouth of God shall he be taken away.

l That is, such blessing as God gaue him, shall be turned into curssing.

31 He beleeueth not that he erreth in vanitie, & yet vanitie shalbe his recompence.

32 He shall perish afore his time be worne out,

m That is, his progenie or offspring shall not continue.

out, & his m branch shall not be greene.
33 He shall be pluckt off as an vnripe grape from the vine, & shall let his flowre fall as the olive doeth.
34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and the fire shall consume the houses of such as are gredie to receive gifts.
35 * He conceiveth trauaile, and beareth vanitie, and their belly bringeth forth deceipt.

*Esa.59.4.& Psalm.7.15.

The xvi. Chapter.

Iob wonder by the importunacie of his friends, & counteth in what extremitie he is, 19 and taketh God to witnesse of his innocencie.

1 IOb answered, and sayd,
2 I haue oft times heard such things: a miserable gisters of comfort are ye, all the sort of you.

a For they more bite him with cruell wordes, then comfort him. ‖Or, wordes of winde.

3 Shall not haue wordes come yet to an ende? or what maketh thee bold so to answere?
4 I could speake as ye do also: but would God that your b soule were in my soules stede, then could I frame wordes for you, and shake my heade at you:
5 I would strengthen you with my mouth, and release your paine with the talking of my lippes.

b Would ye suffered that which I suffer.

6 For all my wordes my sorow will not cease: and c though I holde my tongue, what am I eased?
7 But now he hath made me weary, thou hast made desolate all d my congregation.
8 And that thou e hast filled mee with wrinckles, my flesh is recoyld, & my leanesse riseth vp against me, and beareth witnesse thereof in my face.

c For God will haue his pleasure ouer me.
d My household, children, and substance.
e Not by reason of yeres, but by reason of my griefe, shewing his extreme paynes.

9 His wrath hath torne me, he hateth me, and gnasheth vpon mee with his teeth: mine enemie looketh fiercely vpon mee with his eyes.
10 They haue opened their mouthes wide vpon me, & f smitten me vpon the cheeke despitefully, they gather themselues together against me.
11 God hath shut me vp with the vngodly, and deliuered me into the handes of the wicked.
12 I was in wealth, but he hath brought me to nought: he hath taken me by the necke, he hath all to shaken me, and set me as a marke for himselfe.
13 His h archers compasse me rounde about, he woundeth my reines, and doeth not spare, my ‖ bowels hath he i powred vpon the ground.
14 He hath giuen me one wound vpon an other, and is fallen vpon me like a giant.
15 I haue sowed a sackcloth vpon my skin, and wallowed my † head in the dust.
16 My face is withered with weeping, and in mine eyes is the shadow of death.
17 Howbeit there is no wickednes in my hands, but my prayer is cleane.
18 O earth couer not thou my blood, and let my crying find no roome.
19 For loe, my witnes is in heauen, and he that knoweth me is in the height.
20 My friends gaue me many wordes to scorne, and mine eye powreth out teares vnto God.

f That is, despitefully handled me, which striking on the cheeke signifieth g To proue him, and not to destroy him.

h His plagues and afflictions wherewith he vexeth me, ‖Or, gall.
i God hath not onely stricken outwardly my body and all my substance, but also touched my inward parts.
† Heb. horne,

21 O that a body might pleade with God, as one man doeth with another.
22 Yet the number of my yeres is come, and the way that I must go is at hande, from whence I shall not turne againe.

The xvii. Chapter.

1 Iob sayeth that he consumeth away, and yet doeth patiently abide it. 10 He exhorteth his friends to repentance, 13 shewing that hee looketh but for death.

1 MY breath is corrupt, my dayes are shortened, I am hard at deathes doore.
2 a ‖ Frowarde men are with mee, and mine eye must continue in the bitternes of them.

a In al Iobs extreme afflictions, yet this one made the rest most grieuous, that they that should chearefully comfort him, did cruelly vexe him and mocke him. ‖Or, mockers.

3 O deliuer me, and b looke out one to bee my suretie in thy sight: What is he that knoweth who will promise for me?
4 For thou hast withholden their hearts c from vnderstanding, therefore shalt thou not set them vp on high.

b That is, make promise with me O God, that I may talke with thee, for I will not reason with them, for they are fooles.
c That they cannot vnderstand the cause of my punishment: but iudge me wicked, not knowing thy wisedome, whereby thou doest afflict thy children.

5 Yet that speaketh flatterie to his friend, the eyes of his children shall faile.
6 Yee hath made mee a byworde of the people, where as afore I was their ‖ stop.
7 Mine eye is dimme for very heauinesse, and all my strength is like a shadowe.
8 Vertuous men therefore shall wel consider this, and the innocent shall take part against the hypocrite.
9 The righteous also vvil d keepe his way, and he that hath cleane handes, will euer be stronger and stronger.
10 As for all you, turne you, and ‖ get you hence, I pray you, seeing I can not finde one wise man among you.
11 My dayes are past, and my counsailes and thoughts of my heart are vanished away, 12 Changing the night into day, and the light approching into darkenesse.
13 Though I tarry neuer so much, yet the graue is my house, and I haue made my bed in the darke.
14 I sayd to corruption, Thou art my father: and to the wormes, You are my mother, and my sister.
15 e Where is then nowe my hope? or who hath considered the thing that I looke for? My hope shall goe downe with mee into the pitte, and lie with mee in the dust.

Or, sabret.

d Though the godly see them selues afflicted of God as the wicked are, yet they despaire not, knowing that the iust also are punished for the proofe of them.

Or, come nowe.

e Seeing I am but corruption,

The xviii. Chapter.

1 Bildad rehearseth the paines of the vnfaithfull & wicked.

THen answered Bildad the Suhite, and sayd,
2 When will ye make an end of your wordes? Marke well, and then wee will speake.
3 Wherefore are we counted as beastes, and reputed so vile in your sight?
4 Ye destroyeth himselfe with his anger: shall the earth be forsaken, or any stone remooued out of his place a because of thee?
5 Yea the light of the vngodly shall bee put out:

a That is, shall God change the accustomed order of his operation for thee: & not afflict the wicked as his order is?

put out, and the sparke of his fire shall not shine.

b His wisedome shall perish, and from this place vnto the ende of the Chapter, Bildad goeth about to proue Iob wicked, because God plagueth him as he doeth ‖ wicked man.

6 b The light shalbe darke in his dwelling, and his candle shalbe put out with him.
7 The steppes of his strength shall be restrained, and his owne counsell shall cast him downe:
8 For his feete are taken as it were in the net: and he walketh vpon the snares.
9 The grin shall take him by the heele, and the thirstie of blood shall catch him.
10 The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a pitfall in the way.
11 Fearefulnesse shall make him afraid on euery side, & shall driue him to his feete.
12 c Hunger shall be his strength, and destruction shalbe readie at his side.
13 He shall d eate the strength of his owne skinne, euen the first borne of death shall eate his strength.
14 His hope shalbe rooted out of his dwelling, and shall bring him to the e king of feare.
15 Other men shall dwell in his house, and it shalbe none of his, and brimstone shall be scattered vpon his habitation.
16 His rootes shalbe rooted vp beneath, & aboue shall his branch be cut downe.
17 His remembrance shal perish from the earth, and he shall haue no name in the streete.
18 They shal driue him from the f light into darknesse, and chase him cleane out of the world.
19 He shal neither haue ‖children nor kinsfolkes among his people, no nor any posteritie in his dwellings.
20 They that come after him shalbe astonied at his day, and ‖they that go before shall be afrayed.
21 Such are nowe the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

The xix. Chapter.

1 Iob reproueth his friends, 15 and reciteth his miseries and grieuous paines. 25 He assureth himselfe of the generall resurrection.

1 IOb answered, and saide,
2 How long will ye vexe my soule, and trouble me with words?
3 Lo, ten times haue ye reproched me, and are not ashamed, but haue laughed me to scorne.
4 Be it that I haue erred in deede, mine errour then remaineth with mine a selfe.
5 But if yee will aduance your selues against me, and rebuke mee for the shame that is come vpon me:
6 Know this then, that it is b God which hath ouerthrowen me, and hath compassed me with his net.
7 If I complaine of the violence that is done vnto me, I cannot be heard: & if I crie, there is no sentence giuen with me.
8 He hath hedged vp my way that c I can not passe, and he hath set darkenesse in my pathes.
9 He hath spoyled me d of mine honour, & taken the crowne away from my head.
10 He hath destroyed me on euery side, and I am gone: my hope hath he taken away, as a tree plucked vp by the roote.
11 His wrath is kindled against me, he taketh me as though I were his enemie.
12 His ‖men of warre come together, which made their way ouer me, and besieged my dwelling round about.
13 He hath put my brethren farre away from me, and mine acquaintance are also become strangers vnto me.
14 Mine owne kinsfolkes haue forsaken me: and my best acquainted haue forgotten me.
15 ‖The seruants & maidens of mine owne house take me for a stranger, and I am become as an allant in their sight.
16 I called my seruant, and he gaue me no answere: no though I prayed him with my mouth.
17 Mine owne wife might not abide my breath, though I prayed her for the childrens sake of mine owne bodie.
18 Yea, the yong men despised me, & when I rose, they spake euill vpon me.
19 All my most familiars abhorred mee: and they whom I loued best, are turned against me.
20 My bone cleaueth to my skinne, and to my flesh, onely there is left me the skin about my teeth.
21 Haue pitie vpon me, haue pitie vpon me, O ye my friends, for the hand of God hath touched me.
22 Why do ye persecute me as God doth, and are not satisfied with my flesh?
23 O that my wordes were now written, O that they were put in a booke, 24 And grauen with an iron pen in lead, or in stone, to continue.
25 For I am sure that my redeemer liueth, and that I shall g rise out of the earth in the latter day, 26 And ‖ shalbe couered againe with my skin, and shall see God in my flesh:
27 Whom I my selfe shall see, & mine eyes shall behold, and none other for me: this my hope is laid vp in my bosome.
28 But ye said, Why is he persecuted? and there was a deepe matter in me.
29 h But beware of the sword: for the sword will be auenged of wickednes, and be sure that there is a iudgement.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Sophar sheweth that the wicked & the couetous shal haue a short end, 22 though for a time they florish.

1 THen answered Sophar the Naamathite, and saide,
2 For the same cause do my thoughts compell me to answere, and therefore make haste.
3 I haue sufficiently heard the b checking of my reproofe, therefore the spirit of my vnderstanding causeth me to answere.

a As though he would say, what haue you to doe with that, the fault is mine, and not yours.
b He declareth that his affliction commeth of God, though he be not able to feele the cause in himselfe.
c That is, I cannot goe from these my afflictions.
d That is, of my riches and substance.
e That is, destroyed my children: for the crowne of the aged are children children, as it is in the prouerbes.
‖ Or, vndone.
f That is his great plagues lay de on me,
‖ Or, they that dwelt with me.
‖ Or, soules.
g Some reade, that he shall stand last on the earth, meaning that Christ shall come at the later ende vnto iudgement, and raise vp them that lye in the dust.
‖ Or, though after my skin the wormes destroy this body, yet shall I &c. h That is, the iudgement of God, the reuenger of iniquitie: meaning, though their wicked endeuour tooke place now, yet God will hereafter consider him, and be reuenged of the euill.

a Because Iob bragged of his innocencie (as they thought) Sophar interrupted his talke, as though he boasted in vaine, for that God accepteth none but the repentant sinner. b For two causes Sophar spake: one, because Iob in answering toucheth him: and for that he deemed his knoweledge sufficient to answere againe.

4 Knowest thou not this of old, and since God placed man vpon earth, e Sophar euen to the end of this Chapter, alleageth true sentences: but he erreth, in that he thought Iob for impietie and hypocrisie to be plagued.
5 e That the gladnesse of the vngodly hath been short, and that the ioy of hypocrites continued but the twinckling of an eye?
6 Though her bee magnified vp to the heauen, so that his head reacheth vnto the cloudes:
7 Yet he perisheth for euer like his dong, in so much that they which haue seene him, shall say, Where is he?
8 He shall vanish as a dreame, so that hee can no more be founde, and shall passe away as a vision in the night.
9 So that the eye which sawe him before, shall haue no more sight of him, and his place shall ‖ knowe him no more.
‖ Or, see.
10 His children shall please the poore, and his hands shall restore their goods.
11 From his youth his bones are full of sinnes, which shall lye downe with him in the ‖ earth.
‖ Or, dust.
12 When wickednes was sweete in his mouth, he hid it vnder his tongue.
13 That he fauoured, that would hee not forsake, but kept it close in his throte.
14 The bread that he did eate, is turned to the poyson of serpents within his body.
15 The riches that he deuoured shall he parbreake againe: for God shall drawe them out of his belly.
16 He shall sucke the gall of serpentes, and the adders tongue shall slay him:
17 So that he shall no more see the riuers and brookes of hony and butter.
18 The thing he hath laboured for, shall he restore, and d shall not eate of it: great trauaile shall he make for riches, but hee shall not inioy them.
d For euill gotten goodes God will soone take away, and restore to them from whom they were craftily spoyled and rauened. Ecclesiast. 5.13.
19 Because he hath oppressed the poore, & not helped them: houses hath he spoyled, and not builded them.
20 * Because he could not perceiue when his belly was well, through his greedy desire, he shall not escape.
21 There e shall none of his meate be left, therefore shal no mã looke for his goods.
e That is, his heyres and executours shall gape in vayne.
22 When he had plenteousnesse of euery thing, yet was he poore, though hee was helped on euery side.
23 And it shall come to passe, that wherewith he purposed to fill his belly, God shall powre the furie of his wrath thereon, and shall cause his indignation to rayne vpon him, and vpon his meate.
24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, & the bow of steele shall strike him through.
25 The sword is drawen out, and goeth through the body, and glistereth of his gall: so feare shall come vpon him.
f That is, fire from heauen: & here Sophar toucheth Iob, for that his friends and children were consumed by fire.
26 All darkenesse shalbe hid in their secrete places, f an vnkindeled fire shall consume him: and looke what remaineth in his house, it shall be destroyed.
27 The heauē shall g declare his wickednesse, and the earth shall take part against him.
g There is nothing hid that shal not be opened, & the earth shall eyther be vnfruitfull, or bring forth thinges hurtful to the wicked.
28 The substãce that he hath in his house shalbe taken away, and perish in the day of the Lordes wrath.
29 This is the portion that the wicked man shall haue of God, and the heritage that he may looke for of God, because of h his wordes.
h Spoken against God.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Iob declareth howe the prosperitie of the wicked maketh them proude, 15 in so much that they blaspheme God.

1 IOb answered, and said,
2 O heare diligently my wordes, & that shalbe in steade of your consolations.
3 Suffer me that I may speake, and whē I haue spoken, mocke on.
4 Is it with a man that I make this disputation? which if it were so, should not my spirit then be in sore trouble?
a As though he should say, my cause is before God whom I can not escape, and not before you.
5 Marke me, and bee abashed, and b lay your hand vpon your mouth.
b That is, kepe silence.
6 For when I consider, I am afrayde, & my flesh is smitten with feare.
7 * Wherefore do wicked men liue, come to their old age, and encrease in riches?
Iere. 12.1.
8 Their ‖ children liue in their sight, and their generation before their eyes.
‖ Or, seede.
9 Their houses are safe from all feare, & the rod of God is not vpon them.
10 Their bullocke gendereth, and that not out of time, their cow calueth, and is not vnfruitfull.
11 They sende forth their children by flockes, and their sonnes dance.
12 They beare with them tabrets and harpes, and reioyce in the sounde of the instruments of musicke.
13 They spēd their dayes in wealthinesse, but c suddenly they go down to d graue.
c Not being plagued with long sickenes.
14 They say also vnto God, d Goe from vs, wee desire not the knowledge of thy wayes.
d They say this, not with tongue, but by the wickednes and impietie of their heart, they seeme so to say.
15 Who is the almightie, that we should serue him? and what profite should we haue if we should pray vnto him?
16 Loe, there is vtterly no goodnesse in their hand, therefore will I not haue to do with the counsell of the vngodly.
17 Howe oft shall the e candle of the wicked be put out, and their destructiō come vpon them? & what sorowe shall God giue them for their part in his wrath?
e That is, their great felicitie & wealth.
18 Yea, they shall be euen as hay before the wynde, and as chaffe that the storme carieth away.
f For the wicked die vnwares, and neuer endure the course of their dayes to the ende.
19 God will lay vp the sorowe of the father for his children: and when hee rewardeth him, he shall knowe it.
20 Their owne miserie shall they see with their eyes, and drinke of the fearefull wrath of the almightie.
g Meaning the wicked: where Iob sayeth, that it is not for man to reason with God, why he doeth thus plague the iust, and prosper the vniust, for who can teach God wisedome?
21 For what careth he for his house after his death, when the ‖ number of his monethes is cut short?
22 Seeing God hath the highest power of all, who can teach him any knowledge?
23 h One dieth in his full strength, being in all ease and prosperitie.
24 His breastes are full of milke, and his bones runne full of marowe.
25 Another dieth in the i bitternes of his soule, and neuer eateth with pleasure.
h And this he meaneth by the godly.

26 They

26 They shal sleepe both alike in the earth, and the wormes shall couer them.

i How ye thinke me wicked, because I am plagued.

27 Beholde, i I knowe what pee thinke, yea, and the subtilties that ye imagine against me.

28 For pee say, k Where is the princes palace, and where is the dwelling of the vngodly?

k Thus they call Iobs house by scorning and mocking at it.

29 Haue pee not asked them that goe by the way? doubtlesse pee can not denye their tokens, 30 That the wicked is kept vnto the daye of destruction, and the vngodly shall bee brought forth to the day of wrath?

l For no man can iudge by the wicked mens prosperitie what shall become of them.

31 l Who dare declare his waye to his face? who will rewarde him for that he doeth?

32 Yet shall he be brought to his graue, and dwell among the heape of the dead.

33 Then shall the m stymie valley bee sweete vnto him, all men also must follow him, as there are innumerable gone before him.

m That is, he shall be content with a homely house of clay, which before was not content with a kingly palace.

34 Howe vaine then is the comfort that ye giue me, seeing falshoode remaineth in all your answeres?

The xxii. Chapter.

1 Eliphas affirmeth that Iob is punished for his sinnes. 6 Hee accuseth him of vnmercifulnesse, 13 and that he denied Gods prouidence. 21 He exhorteth him to repentance.

1 THen Eliphas the Themanite gaue answere, and sayd,

2 May a man be profitable vnto God, as he that is wise may be profitable to him selfe?

a The whole course of this Chapter is, that man compared to God, is vniust and therefore ought to repent.

3 Is it any aduantage to the almightie, that thou art righteous? or shall it profite him that thou makest thy wayes perfect?

b They knewe not that Iob had so greatly offended: but they coniectured, because God so plagued him, which was not for his sinnes so much, as for to proue him, and therefore all their conclusions are false.

4 Is he afrayde to reproue thee, and to steppe forth with thee into iudgement?

5 Is b not thy wickednesse great, and thy vngracious deedes innumerable?

c Thou hast bene vncharitable and vniust.

6 For thou c hast taken the pledge from thy brother for nought, and robbed the naked of their clothing.

7 To such as were wearie, hast thou giuen no water to drinke, and hast withdrawen bread from the hungrie.

8 But the mightie man had the earth, & he that was in authoritie dwelt in it.

d That is, therefore art thou thus plagued euery way.

9 Thou hast sent widowes away emptie, and the armes of the fatherlesse were broken.

e Trouble.

10 Therefore art thou d compassed about with snares, and suddenly vexed with feare.

11 Shouldest thou then see no e darkenesse? thou wo not the water flood runne ouer thee?

f He reproueth Iob, as though he denied Gods prouidence, and that he could not see the things that were done in the world.

12 Is not God on high in the heauen? behold the height of the starres, how high they are.

13 Wilt thou therefore say, How f should God knowe? can he iudge through the darke clouds?

14 The cloudes couer him, that hee may not see, and hee walketh on the toppe of heauen.

15 Hast thou marked the waye of the worlde, wherein wicked men haue walked?

16 Which were cut downe out of time, and whose foundation was an ouerflowing riuer, 17 Which said vnto God, Goe from vs: and what coulde the almightie doe for them?

18 Yet filled their houses with good things: but the counsell of the vngodly bee farre from me.

19 The righteous sawe it, and were glad, and the innocent laughed them to scorne.

20 Is our substance hewen downe? As for the remnant of them, the g fire hath consumed.

g Meaning, the vngodly and euill persons.

21 Therefore h reconcile thee vnto God, and be at peace: so shal all things prosper with thee right well.

h Eliphas exhorteth Iob to repentance by the great goodnesse that cometh thereof, i God will restore vnto thee al thy substance.

22 Receiue, I pray thee, the lawe at his mouth, and lay vp his wordes in thine heart.

23 For if thou wilt turne to the almighty, thou shalt be i built vp, and put all vnrighteousnesse from thy dwelling.

24 Thou shalt lay vp golde as plentifull as the dust, and the golde of Ophir as the flintes of the riuers.

25 Yea, almightie God shalbe thy defence, and thou shalt haue plentie of siluer.

26 Then shalt thou haue thy delight in the almightie, and lift vp thy face vnto God.

27 Then shalt thou make thy prayer vnto him, and he shall heare thee, and thou shalt k keepe thy promises.

Or, pay thy vowes.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall establish it vnto thee, and the l light shall shine in thy wayes.

k Thatis, the fauour of God.

29 When the wicked be cast downe, thou shalt say, I am lifted vp: and God shall saue the humble person.

30 The innocent shall deliuer the Iland: for it shall be preserued by the pureneſſe of thine hands.

The xxiii. Chapter.

2 Iob affirmeth that hee both knoweth and feareth the power and sentence of the iudge, 10 and that he is not punished onely for his sinnes.

1 THen Iob answered, and said,

2 Though my talke be this day in bitternesse, and my plague greater then my groning.

l The place fareth the better, where the righteous are.

3 O that I a might knowe him, and finde him, and that I might come before his seate:

a Iob being admonished before to returne to God, sayeth, if I should come to him, where is he, or where might I finde him, to pleade my cause before him?

4 I would pleade my cause before him, & fill my mouth with arguments:

5 I would knowe what answere hee would giue me, and vnderstande what he would say vnto me.

6 Will hee pleade against mee with his great power? No, but he will make mee the stronger.

7 There the righteous might dispute with him, so should I bee deliuered for euer from my iudge.

8 Beholde, though I goe forwarde, I finde him not: if I goe backward, I can get get no knowledge of him:

9 If I goe on the left side where he doth his worke, I can not attaine vnto him:
10 But as for my way, hee knoweth me, and trieth me, that as the gold I may be tried.
11 My b foote doth keepe his path, his way haue I holden, and will not go out of it.
12 I will not forsake the commandement of his lips, I haue esteemed the words of his mouth more then my necessarie foode.
13 He is one, and c who can turne him? he bringeth to passe what he desireth.
14 He d performeth the thing that is appointed for mee, and many such things doeth he.
15 This is the cause that I shrinke at his presence, so that when I consider him, I am afraide of him.
16 For God maketh my heart soft, and the almightie putteth me in feare.
17 Because I am not cut off before the darkenesse, neither hath hee couered the darke from my face.

b That is, Gods wayes, prouing therefore himselfe not to deserue such grieuous plagues & afflictions for his faultes.
c For God is immutable, and his decrees stand fast.
d That is, he hath decreed thus to punish me appointed hereunto, although I can not atteine to the secrete iudgement of God therein, and therefore I doe feare his presence.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

Iob describeth the wickednesse of men, and sheweth what curse belongeth to the wicked. 12 How all things are gouerned by Gods prouidence, 17 and the destruction of the wicked.

1 WHy should not the a times be hidden from the almightie, and they b knowe him, see not his daies?
2 For some men remoone the lande markes, robbe men of their cattell, and fede of the same.
3 They driue away the asse of the fatherlesse, and take the widdowes oxe for a pledge.
4 They cause the poore to turne out of the way, so that the poore of the earth hide themselues together.
5 Behold, as wilde asses in the desert go they forth to their worke, & rise betimes to spoyle: Yea, the verie b wildernesse ministreth foode for them and their children.
6 They reape the corne fielde that is not their owne, and gather the vineyard of the vngodly which they possesse vniustly.
7 They cause the naked to lodge without garment, and without couering in the cold.
8 They are wet with the showres of the mountaines, and embrace the rocke for want of a couering.
9 They plucke the fatherlesse from the brest, and take the pledge from the poore.
10 They let him goe naked without clothing, and haue taken away the sheafe of the hungrie.
11 They that labour in their oyle milles, & treade their wine presses, suffer thirst.
12 Men of the citie cry out, the soules of the slayne also cry out, yet God regardeth not their complaint.
13 Those are they that flee from the light, thy know not his waies, nor continue in his paths.

a The doings of men are such & so variable, that it seemed to Iob that God was ignorant and careles, because he punished not the wicked, nor reuenged the godly.
b That is, they liue by robberie and theft.

14 The murderer ryseth early, and killeth the poore and needie, and in the night is as a theefe.
15 The c eye of the adulterer waiteth for the darkenesse, and sayeth, There shall no eye see me: and hideth his face.
16 In the darke they dig through houses, which they marked for themselues in the day time: they know not the light.
17 The morning is to them euen as the shadow of death: if one knowe them they are in the terrours of the shadowe of death.
18 The vngodly is d swift vpon the water: their portion shalbe cursed in the earth, and hee shall not behold the way of the vineyards.
19 As the drie ground and heate e consume the snowy waters: so shall the graue the sinners.
20 The f pitifull man shall forget him, hee shall be sweete to the wormes, he shall be no more remembred, & his wickednesse shalbe broken as a tree.
21 He hath oppressed the barren that can not beare, and vnto the widowe hath hee done no good.
22 He g drawe the mightie after him with his power, and when he was gotten vp, no man was sure of life.
23 And though they gaue him to bee in safetie, yet his eyes are vpō their wayes.
24 They are exalted for a litle, but shortly are gone, brought to vnnettie, and taken out of the way, pea, and vtterly pluct off as the eares of corne.
25 Is h it not so? who will then reproue me as a lyer, and say that my words are nothing worth?

c Not onely the tyrant, but also the adulterer escapeth free, and is not corrected.
d He fleeth to the waters for his succour.
e Although such abominable sinners liue vncorrected in this world, yet at the length hell shall deuoure them suddenly.
f Be cause they pitied not others, they shall not be pitied at all.
g That is, when they haue plagued and ouerrunne the poore and weake, they will oppresse the strong & mightie also.
h Then I lye not, and none of you can reproue me.

The xxv. Chapter.

Bildad proueth that no man is cleane, nor without sinne before God.

1 THen answered Bildad the Suhite, and sayde,
2 a Power and feare is with him, who maketh peace in his highnesse.
3 Is there any number of his armies? and vpon whom shal not his light arise?
4 But how may a man, compared vnto God, bee iustified? or howe can he bee cleane, that is borne of a woman?
5 Beholde, the moone ‡ shineth not, and the starres are vncleane in his sight.
6 How much more then man that is but ‖ corruption, and the sonne of man which is but a worme.

a Bildad would proue here that God plagueth the iust, yet after warde he prospereth, and because God deals not so with Iob, he concludeth that he was wicked.
‡ Compared with God.
‖ Or, worme.

The xxvi. Chapter.

Iob sheweth that no man can helpe God, and proueth it by his wonderfull workes.

1 IOb answered, and sayde,
2 a Whome hast thou helped? him that is without strength? sauest thou the arme that hath no strength?

a Here Iob reprehendeth Bildad, for that he speaketh not yought to Gods prayse, who needeth not mans wordes, neyther comforteth him being voyde of b That is, such thinges are in the waters without life, as metals & such like, wherein is expressed Gods great power.

c His throne of maiestie, which are the heauens, he couereth from vs.

d That is, so long as the world endureth.

e Not that heauen hath pillars, but by the pillars he vnderstandeth all things vnder heauen.

a This was the order of the Hebrues to sweare.

b That is, I will not confesse that God plagueth me for mine offence.

c Of my former life past.

d That is, because they reprehended me vnworthily, they rather might be accompted wicked, and the plague shal light on them, and be rid from me.

e What auaileth it a man if he gaine all the world, and loose his owne soule?

f We haue no greater gift of God then the spirit of prayer, whereby if we pray, God doeth heare vs.

g The hypocrite neither trusteth nor prayeth to God: yea, though he pray, God will not heare him.

5 b Are not dead things shapen vnder the waters, and in places neare vnto them?
6 Hell is naked before hym, and destruction hath no couering.
7 He stretcheth out the North ouer the emptie place, and hangeth the earth vpon nothing.
8 He bindeth the waters in his cloudes, and the cloude is not broken vnder them.
9 c He holdeth backe the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloude before it.
10 He hath compassed the waters with certaine boundes, d vntill the day and night come to an ende.
11 The e verie pillars of heaue tremble and quake at his reproofe.
12 He stilleth the sea with his power, and through his wisdome smiteth he the strength thereof.
13 His spirit hath garnished the heauens, and his hand hath made the crooked serpent.
14 Loe, these are part of his wayes: but howe litle a portion heare wee of him? who can vnderstand the thunder of his power?

The xxvii. Chapter.

The constancie and perfectnesse of Iob. 13 The reward of the wicked, and of the tyrants.

1 Moreouer Iob proceeded, and went forth in his parable, saying,
2 a As God liueth, which hath taken away my iudgement, and the almightie that hath vexed my minde:
3 While the breath is in me, and the winde that God hath giuen mee is in my nostrelles,
4 My lippes shal talke of no vanitie, and my tongue shall speake no deceite.
5 God forbidde that I shoulde graunt your cause to be right: as for mee, vntill mine ende come, will b I neuer goe from mine innocencie.
6 My righteous dealing keepe I fast, which I will not forsake: my heart shall not reproue me c of my dayes.
7 Therefore d mine enemie shal be founde as the vngodly, and he that taketh part against me, as the vnrighteous.
8 For e what hope hath the hypocrite, though he be neuer so couetous, if God take away his soule?
9 Will f God heare his cry when trouble commeth vpon him?
10 Hath he such delight in the almightie, & that he dare alway call vpon God?
11 I will teach you in the ‖ name of God, and the thing of the almightie will I not keepe from you.
12 Behold, all yee your selues haue seene it, why then doe ye thus vanish in vanitie?
13 Saying, This is the portion that the wicked haue of God, and the heritage that tyrantes shall receiue of the almightie.
14 If he haue many children they shall perish with the swoorde, and his posteritie shall haue scarcenesse of bread.
15 His remnant shalbe buried in death, and his widowes shall not weepe.
16 Though he heape vp siluer as the dust, and prepare rayment as the clay:
17 He may well prepare it, but the godly shall put it on, and the innocent shall deale out the siluer.
18 He buildeth his house as h the ‖ mothe, and as a booth that the watchman maketh.
19 When the rich man sleepeth, he shall not be gathered to his fathers: they opened their eyes, and he was gone.
20 Terrour taketh hold vpon him as waters, and the tempest stealeth him away in the night season.
21 A vehement East winde careth him hence, and he departeth, a storme hurleth him out of his place.
22 God shall cast vpon him such things and not spare him, he woulde fayne flee out of his hand.
23 Then shal men clap their handes at him, and hisse him out of his place.

The xxviii. Chapter.

Iob sheweth that the wisedome of God is vnsearchable.

1 There is a place where siluer is i brought out of, and where golde is tryed,
2 Where iron is digged out of the ground, and stones resolued into brasse.
3 God bringeth the darkenesse to an ende, and searcheth out all perfection, the stones hidden in darkenesse, and in the deepe shadowe.
4 The floodes breake out against the inhabitantes, and the waters forgotten k of the foote, which were higher then a man, are gone away.
5 l Out of the same earth commeth bread, and vnder it, as it were, fire is turned vp.
6 The m stones of it are a place of Saphires, and the dust of it is gold.
7 There is a way that the birdes knowe not, that no Vultures eye hath seene:
8 Wherein the Lions whelpes walke not, and where no Lion commeth.
9 He n putteth his hand vpon the stonie rocks, and ouerthroweth the mountaines by the rootes.
10 Riuers flowe out of the rockes, and loke what is pleasant his eye seeth it.
11 He bindeth the floods that they doe not ouerflowe: and the thing that is hid bringeth he to light.
12 Where then is wisedome found? and o where is the place of vnderstanding?
13 No man can tell how p worthy a thing it is, neither is it found in the land of the liuing.
14 The deepe saieth, It is not in me: the sea saieth, It is not with me.
15 It can not bee gotten for golde, neither may the price of it bee bought with any siluer.

h Which breedeth in an other mans garment, and is soone taken out. ‖ Or, spider.

i Which a man cannot wade thorowe.

k As the fruitfull fieldes tilled and plowed, bring forth corne: so it being deepely digged, there are found stones, out of the which fire is stroken.

l The Saphires doe shine with golden poyntes, so that here by Saphires is meant clods of golde. All these things are found, but Gods wisedome who can reach?

m Here he sheweth Gods power, the earth may be digged, hilles ouerthrowen, a fountaine made among stones, riuers turned frō their course, but Gods wisedome is not to be found.

n Gods wisedome is partly seene in these worldly thinges, but his heauenly wisedome and secret iudgement is hid and vnknowen to all men.

o That is, it passeth mans capacitie to atteine to it,

p That is, it passeth

16 No golde of Ophir, no precious Onyx stones, no Saphires may be valued with it.
17 No, neyther golde nor Diamonde shall be equall vnto it, the exchange of it shall not be for the place of fine golde.
18 No mention shall bee made of Coyall, nor of the Gabis: for wisedome is more precious then pearles.
19 The Topas of Ethiopia shall not bee equall vnto it, neyther shall it bee valued with pure golde.
20 Whence then commeth wisedome, and where is the place of vnderstanding?
21 It is hid fro the eyes of all men liuing, and hid from the foules of the ayre.
22 Destruction and death say, Wee haue hearde the fame thereof with our eares.
23 God seeth the way thereof, and knoweth the place thereof.
24 For he beholdeth the endes of the world, & looketh vpon all that is vnder heauen.
25 When he waped the windes, and measured the waters,
26 When he made a decree for the rayne, and a way for the lightnings of the thunder:
27 Then did hee see it, then declared hee it, prepared it, and knew it.
28 And vnto man he sayd, g To feare the Lord is wisedome, and to forsake euill is vnderstanding.

The xxix. Chapter.

1 Iob wisheth the prosperitie of his tyme past. 7 He setteth forth his auctoritie, 12 iustice, and equitie.

1 SO Iob proceeded and went forth in his parable, saying,
2 O that I were as I was in the moneths past, and in the dayes when God preserued me:
3 When his a light shined vpon my head, when I went after the same light, and shining euen thorow the darkenesse:
4 As it stoode with me when I was yong, when God prospered my house:
5 When the almightie was yet with mée, when my children stoode about me:
6 When I washed my b steppes with butter, and when the stonie rockes gaue me riuers of oyle:
7 When I went out to the gate, euen to the iudgement seate, and when I prepared my seate in the streete:
8 The c yong men saw me, and hid themselues, & the d aged arose, and stoode vp:
9 The e princes left off their talking, and layde their hand to their mouth:
10 The mightie kept still their voyce, and their tongue cleaued to the roofe of their mouth.
11 When the eare heard me, it blessed me: and when the eye sawe me, it gaue witnesse to me.
12 For I deliuered the poore when he cryed, and the fatherlesse, and him that had none to helpe him.
13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came vpon mee, and I caused the widowes hearts to reioyce.
14 I put vpon me righteousnesse, which couered me as a garment, and equitie was my crowne.
15 I was an eye to the blinde, and a foote to the lame.
16 I was a father to the poore: and when I knewe not the cause, I sought it out diligently.
17 I brake the iawes of the vnrighteous man, and pluckt the spoyle out of his teeth.
18 Then I sayde, I shall dye in my nest: & I shal multiplie my dayes as the sand.
19 For my roote was spread out by the waters side, and the dewe lay vpon my bowe.
20 Mine honour encreased more & more, my bowe was fresh in my hande.
21 Vnto me men gaue eare, me they regarded, and kept silence at my counsell.
22 After my wordes they answered not, and my talke dropped vpon them.
23 They f wayted for me as for the rayne, and gaped vpon mee as the ground doeth to receiue the latter showre.
24 When I laughed on them, they g beleeued it not, and the light of my countenance would they not put out.
25 I tryed out their way, I sate as chiefe, & dwelt as a king with his army about him: and when they were in heauinesse, I was their comforter.

The xxx. Chapter.

1 Iob complaineth that he is contemned of the vilest, 11.21 because of his aduersitie and affliction. 23 Death is the house of all flesh.

1 BVt a nowe they that are yonger then I, haue mee in derision: whose fathers I would haue thought scorne to haue set with the dogges of my cattell.
2 Whereto might the strength of b their handes profite me? for the time was but lost among them.
3 For very c miserie and hunger they fled into the wildernesse, a darke place, horrible, and waste, 4 Plucking vp ‖ nettles among the bushes, and the Iuniper rootes for their meate.
5 And when they were driuen forth, men cried after them, as it had bene after a theefe.
6 Their d dwelling was in the cliftes of brookes, yea in the caues and dennes of the earth.
7 Amõg the bushes went they about crying, and vnder the thornes they gathered themselues together.
8 They were the children of fooles and villaines, which are the vilest in the earth.
9 Now am I their song, and am become their iesting stocke.
10 They abhorre me, and flee farre from mee, and spayne my face with spittell.
11 Because God hath loosed my cord, e by their basenesse & their powertie, being such out casts yet now they scorne Iob, which is a great griefe to be mocked of such, a That is, when as his fauour preserued me.

b That is, when I had all things most abundantly. For milke and oyle signifie all plentifulnesse: and here Iob describeth his felicitie in times past, to the encrease of his griefe.
c As abashed at his countenance and ashamed of their youthfull lightnesse.
d Knowing both his wisedome and estimation.
e Onely to heare him: for g great wisedome that appeared in him, excelling them, caused their tongues to be in silence, g Meaning by this, that man hath so much of this excellent wisedome of God, as he doeth shewe in vertue of liuing, due obedience, and feare of him.

‖ Or, heauen.

‖ Or, haruest.

‖ Or, remued,

f Here is shewed what excellencie an vpright and vertuous life is.
g That is, they beleeued not that I dalyed with them, but that I spake in good earnest, and therefore would not diminish mine authoritie.

a Before is declared how greatly God doth blesse the godly, and here is shewed howe heauy a crosse he layeth on them to prone them.
b They nowe despise me, which with all their power when I was in prosperitie could nothing helpe me, it was so weake.
c Here Iob declareth what abiects they were that nowe reuiled him, and sheweth that they are wicked like vnto their fathers, which dyed yer they came to age.
d Meaning hereby their baseneſſe & their powertie, being such out casts yet now they scorne Iob, which is a great griefe to be mocked of such,

and humbled mée, they haue loosed the bridle before me.

12 Vpon my right hande rise the yong men against me, they haue hurt my feete, treading vpon me, as vpon the wayes which they would destroy.

e That is, they ouerthrewe all my doings, without helpe of any other.

13 My e pathes haue they cleane marred, it was so easie for them to do me harme, that they needed no man to helpe them.

14 They fell vpon mee, as it had bene the breaking in of waters, and came in by heapes to destroy me.

15 Feare is turned vpon me, and they pursue my soule as the winde, & my health passeth away as a cloude.

f That is, most swiftly.

16 Therefore is my soule nowe powred out vpon me, and the dayes of my trouble haue taken holde vpon me.

17 My bones are pearced through in the night season, & my sinowes take no rest.

18 For the vehemencie of sorowe is my garment changed, which compasseth me about, as the g collar of my coate.

g It is the maner among the Hebrues to haue their garments sowed round in euery part, sauing a hole onely in the highest of it to put forth the necke.

19 He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become like ashes and dust.

20 When h I cry vnto thée, thou doest not heare me: & though I stande before thée, yet thou regardest me not.

h This sayth not this as blaming God, but grieuous affliction moued affection.

21 Thou art become mine enemie, and with thy violent hande thou takest part against mee.

22 In times past thou diddest i set mee vp on high, to be caried as it were aboue the winde, but now hast thou giuen me a verie sore fall.

i That is, thou diddest set me in high authoritie, and suddenly thou puttest me downe.

23 Sure I am that thou wilt bring mee vnto death, euen to the lodging that is due vnto all men liuing.

24 Notwithstanding, thou wilt not stretche out thine hande against him that is in the graue, though men cry in his destruction.

25 Did not I weepe with him þ was in trouble? had not my soule compassion vpon the poore?

26 Yet whereas I looked for good, euill came vnto me: and k where I waited for light, there came darkenesse.

k In steade of comfort they gaue me mocks.

27 My bowels seethe in me without rest, for the daies of my trouble are come vpon me.

28 I went mourning without heate, I stoode vp in the congregation, & cryed.

29 I am a brother of dragons, and a fellowe of Estriches.

30 My skinne vpon me is turned to black, and my bones are brent with heate.

31 My harpe is turned to mourning, and my instruments of musicke, into þ voice of them that weepe.

The xxxi. Chapter

Iob rehearseth the innocencie of his liuing, and number of his vertues.

a In this Chapter Iob declareth his vpright liuing, not to boast against God, but to refel the false slander of his aduersaries.

1 I Made a a couenant with mine eyes, þ I would not looke vpon a mayden.

2 For how great a portion shall I haue of God from aboue: and what inheritance of the almightie from an high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and some strange thing to the workers of iniquitie?

4 Doeth not he sée my wayes, and tell all my goings?

5 If I haue walked in vanitie, or if my feete haue runne to deceite:

6 Let me be weighed in an euen ballance, & God may see mine innocencie.

7 If my steppe hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, & if any blot hath cleaued to mine handes:

8 Then shal I sowe, and another eate: yea, my posteritie shalbe cleane rooted out.

§ Or, plants.

9 If my heart hath bene deceyued by a woman, or if I haue layde waite at my neighbours doore:

10 Then let my wife b grinde vnto another man, & let other men slips with her.

b Let her be a bond slaue to another man. [Or, bowe downe vpon her.

11 For this is a wickednesse, and sinne þ is worthy to be iudged:

12 Yea, a c fire that vtterly should consume and roote out all my increase.

c Though mans punishment for adulterie be omitted, yet Gods plague will neuer rest to consume and roote it out.

13 If I euer thought scorne to doe right vnto my seruants and maydens when they had any matter against me, 14 Whe God d will sit in iudgement, what shall I doe: and when he will visite me, what answere shall I giue him?

d That is, if I in lawe haue reiected the complaint of my seruant, what should I doe when God calleth me to lawe.

15 He that e fashioned mee in my mothers woombe, made he not him also? were we not both shapen alike in our mothers bodies?

e Iob expresseth the cause why he did pitie his seruants, for þ they had one creator, & both made of the same substance.

16 If I denied the poore of their desire, or haue caused the eyes of the widowe to wayte in vayne:

17 If I haue eaten my f morsel alone, that the fatherlesse hath not eaten thereof:

f Meaning, that he hath bene beneficiall to the poore, to the fatherlesse and widowes.

18 (For frō my youth mercy hath brought me vp as a father, and hath guyded mee from my mothers woombe.)

19 If I haue seene any perish for want of clothing, or any poore lacking rayment:

20 If his loynes haue not blessed mée because he was warmed with the fleece of my sheepe:

21 If I haue lift vp mine hande against the fatherlesse, when I saw that I might helpe him in the gate:

22 Then let mine arme fall from my shoulder, and mine arme bee broken from the bone.

23 For I haue feared the vengeance of God, and knewe very well that I was not able to beare his burden.

24 Haue I put my trust in golde? or haue I sayd to the wedge of golde, Thou art my confidence?

25 Haue I reioyced because my power was great, and because my hand gat so much?

26 Did I g behold the sunne when it shined? or þ moone walking in her brightnesse?

g Did I vse to worship the sunne or moone, as other gentiles which were idolaters?

27 Hath my heart bene secretly deceiued? or did I kisse mine owne hand?

28 (That were a wickednesse worthie to bee iudged: for then should I haue denyed the God that is aboue.)

29 Haue I reioyced at þ hurt of mine enemie?

h Meaning, that he did not hold his peace, or keepe at home in the iust suit or cause of any.

i That is, I will say the booke that the aduersarie shall make vpon my shoulder, and will accept it for a great gift, meaning, he would confesse his fault, if he had offended.

k That is, with great reuerence.

l That is, if the hyreling that hath laboured in the land, hath lesse defrauded of his wages by me, m That is, if I haue by violence compelled my land to be eared, and not giuen foode to the labourers.

[Or, husbandmen, mie? or was I glad that any harme happened vnto him?

30 I neuer suffered my mouth to sinne by wishing a curse to his soule.

31 Did not the men of mine owne houshold say, Who shall giue vs of his flesh? we can not be satisfied.

32 The stranger did not lodge in the streete, but I opened my doores vnto him that went by the way.

33 Haue I kept secrete my sinne, and hid mine iniquitie in my bosome, as Adam did?

34 If I feared a great multitude, or the despising of the meaneest of a kinrede, I would haue kept silence, and not gone out of the [h] doore.

35 O that I had one which would heare me! behold my signe that the almightie will witnesse for me, though mine aduersarie write a booke against me.

36 Surely I will take it vpon my [i] shoulder, and as a garland binde it about my head.

37 I will tell him the number of my goings, and go vnto him, as vnto a [k] prince.

38 If my [l] land cried against me, or that the [m] furrowes therof made any complaint:

39 If I haue eaten the fruites thereof vnpayed for, yea, if I haue grieued the soules of the [l] maisters thereof:

40 Then let thistles growe in steade of wheate, and cockle for barley.

Here ende the words of Iob.

The xxxii. Chapter.

Elihu reproueth them of folie. 8 Age maketh not a man wise, but the spirit of God.

1 So these three men ceassed to answere Iob, because he held himselfe a righteous man.

a The Hebrues reade, was iust in his owne eyes.

2 But Elihu the sonne of Barachel the Buzite, of the kinred of Ram, was very sore displeased at Iob, because he called himselfe iust before God.

3 And with Iobs three friendes hee was angry also, because they had found no answere, and yet condemned Iob.

4 Now tarried Elihu till they had ended their communication with Iob: for they were elder then he.

5 So when Elihu sawe that these three men were not able to make Iob answere, he was mistouched.

6 Therefore Elihu the sonne of Barachel the Buzite, answered, and sayde, I am yong, & ye be men of age, I was afrayd, and durst not shewe forth my minde.

[Or, the dayes shall speake.

7 For I thought thus within my selfe, It becommeth olde men to speake, and the aged to teach wisedome.

[Or, the multitude of yeares shall.

8 Euery man no doubt hath a mind, but it is the inspiration of the almightie that giueth vnderstanding.

9 Great men are not alway wise, neither doth euery aged man vnderstande [j] the thing that is lawfull:

[Or, iudgement.

10 Therefore I say, Heare me, and I will shewe you also mine vnderstanding.

11 For when I had waited till ye made an ende of your talking, and heard your wisdome, [b] what argumentes ye made in your communication, b To proue Iob plagued for his offences.

12 Yea, when I had diligently pondered what ye sayde, I founde not one of you that made any good argument against Iob, that coulde answere his wordes, 13 Least ye shoulde say, We haue [c] founde out wisdom, God shall cast him downe, and no man.

c And flatter your selues, as though you had ouercome him,

14 He hath not spoken vnto me, and I will not answere him as ye haue done.

15 For they were so abashed, that they coulde not make answere, nor speake one worde.

16 When I had waited (for they spake not, but stoode still, and answered no more.)

17 Then answered I in my turne, and I shewed mine opinion.

18 For I am full of [d] matter, and the spirite within me compelleth me.

[Or, wordes.

19 Behold, my [e] belly is as the wine which hath no vent, like the new bottels that burst.

d That is, I should breake in the middes, if I should not speake, my mind is so hot within me.

20 Therefore will I speake, that I may take breath: I will open my lippes, and make answere.

e I will say trueth, all things layde apart.

21 I will [f] regard no maner of person, no man will I spare.

f The Hebrue word is, to alter the name, calling a rude man learned, or a wicked man iust.

22 For if I would goe about to [f] please men, I knowe not howe soone my maker would take me away.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

Elihu accuseth Iob of ignorance. 14 He sheweth that God hath diuers meanes to instruct man, and to drawe him from sinne.

1 Wherefore heare my wordes, O Iob, and hearken vnto all that I will say:

2 Behold, I haue nowe opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my throte.

3 My heart doth vtter my words aright, and my lippes talke of pure wisedome.

4 The [a] spirite of God hath made mee, and the breath of the almightie hath giuen me life.

a There is no cause why ye should despise me, although I be yong: for I am as you are, made by God

5 If thou canst giue me answere, prepare thy selfe, and stand before me.

6 Behold, [b] before God, I am euen as thou: for I am fashioned and made of [c] the same moulde.

b Iob before desired to plead his cause before God without feare, therefore sayth Elihu, I am here in Gods steade, whome c Thou needest not to feare: for I am made of the matter that thou art.

7 Behold, my terrour shall not feare thee, neither shall my hand bee heauie vpon thee.

8 [d] Now hast thou spoken in mine eares, & I haue heard the voyce of thy wordes:

d I haue heard thee boast of thy righteous life, that thou art innocent and iust, 9 I am cleane without any fault, I am innocent, and there is no wickednesse in me.

10 But loe, he hath picked a quarel against me, and taketh me for his enemie:

11 He hath put my feete in the stockes, and looketh narrowly vnto all my pathes.

12 Behold, in this hast thou not done right, I will make answere vnto thee, that God is greater then man.

13 And why doest thou then striue against him? for he shall not giue thee accompts of all his wordes.

Dd.iii. 14 For wordes.

14 For God speaketh [d] once or twise, and yet man vnderstandeth it not.
15 In dreames and visions of the night, when slumbring commeth vpon men, that they fall aslepe in their beddes, 16 He openeth the eares of men, and cor-recteth them:
17 That he may withdraw man from his purposes, and deliuer him from [e] pride, 18 And keepe his soule from the graue,
and his life from the swoorde.
19 He chasteneth him with sickenesse vpon his bedde, he layeth sore punishment vp-on his bones:
20 So that his [f] life may abhorre bread, and his soule abhorreth to eate animall daintie meate:
21 Insomuch that his flesh is cleane consumed away, and his bones are broken that they can not be seene.
22 His soule draweth vnto the graue, and his life to ‖ death.
23 Now if there be a messenger, one among a thousande, sent for to speake vnto man, and to shewe him the right way:
24 Then the Lorde is mercifull vnto him, and sayeth, Ye shall be deliuered, that hee fall not downe to the graue: for I am sufficiently reconciled.
25 Then shall his flesh bee as fresh as a childes, and shall returne, as in the dayes of his youth.
26 He shall pray vnto God, and he will be fauourable vnto him, and he shall see his face with ioye, for hee will render vnto man his righteousnesse.
27 He respect hath hee vnto men, let man then say, I haue offended, I did vnright-eously, and it hath done me no good:
28 He hath deliuered my soule from destruction, and [g] my life shall see the light.
29 Loe, all these workes God [*] alway with man, 30 That he bring backe his soule from the graue to the light, euen the light of the liuing.
31 Marke well, O Iob, and heare me: hold thee still, and I will speake.
32 But if thou hast any thing to say, then [h] answere mee, and speake, for I desire to iustifie thee.
33 If thou hast nothing, then heare mee, and holde thy tongue, and I shall teach thee wisedome.

The xxxiiii. Chapter.

Elihu chargeth Iob that he calleth himselfe righteous. 12 He sheweth that God is iust in iudgements.

1 Elihu answered, and sayde,
2 Heare my wordes, O ye [a] wise men, hearken vnto me, ye that haue vnderstanding:
3 For the eare discerneth words, and the mouth tasteth meates.
4 As for [b] iudgement, let vs seeke it out among our selues, that we may knowe what is good.
5 For Iob hath said, I am righteous, and God hath [c] taken away my iudgement.
6 In my right I must be a lyer: my wound is incurable without my fault.
7 Where is there such a one as Iob, that [d] drinketh vp scornefulnesse like water, 8 Which goeth in the companie of wicked doers, and walketh with vngodly men?
9 For he hath sayde, It profiteth a man nothing that he should walke with God.
10 Therefore hearken vnto mee, ye that haue vnderstanding: farre bee it from God that hee should meddle with wickednesse, and farre be it from the almigh-tie that he should meddle with vnrighteous dealing.
11 For hee shall reward man after his workes, and cause euery man to finde according to his wayes.
12 Sure it is that God will not doe wickedly, neither will the almightie pervert iudgement.
13 Who ruleth the earth but he? or who hath placed the whole worlde?
14 If he let his heart vpon man, & gather vnto himselfe his [e] spirite and his breath:
15 All flesh shall come to nought at once, and man shall turne againe vnto dust.
16 If thou now haue vnderstanding, heare this, and hearken to the voyce of my wordes:
17 May hee bee a [*] ruler that loueth not right? wilt thou iudge him wicked that is most iust?
18 Wilt thou say vnto a king, thou art wicked? or to princes, Ye are vngodly?
19 [*] God hath no respect vnto the persons of princes, and regardeth not the riche more then the poore: for they bee all the worke of his handes.
20 In the [f] twinckling of an eye shall they dye, and the people shall bee troubled at midnight, & passe away, & the mightie shall be taken away without hand.
21 For his eyes looke vpon the wayes of man, and he seeth all his goings.
22 There is no darkenesse nor shadowe of death, that can hide the wicked doers from him.
23 For God will not lay vpon man more then he hath sinned, that he should enter into iudgement with him.
24 Hee shall destroy the mightie without seeking, and shall set others in their stead.
25 Therefore shall he declare their works:
he shall [h] turne the night, and they shalbe destroyed.
26 The vngodly doeth he punish [i] openly,
27 Because they turned backe from him, and would not consider all his wayes:
28 In so much that they haue caused the voyce of the [k] poore to come vnto him, and now hee heareth the complaint of such as are in trouble.
29 When hee giueth quietnesse, who can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who can beholde him? whether it be vpon nations, or vpon one man only?
30 Because the hypocrite doeth raigne, and because the people are snared 31 Surely of God onely it can be sayde, I haue pardoned, I will not destroy.
32 If

d God speaketh two maner of waies vnto men, eyther by sleepe or by his rod of sickneſſe, and o-ther plagues.
e For to beate downe the pride of man, God sendeth his plagues.
f That is, sicke-neſſe that decay-eth life, can take no suſte-nance.
‖ Or, to the buryers.
g That is, my ſoule ſhall ap-peare cleare in the land of the liuing.
* Heb. twiſt or ſhriſt.
h That is, to ſhewe thy ſelfe iuſt, and not wicked.
a Here Elihu proueth that God cannot be vniuſt, becauſe he is the iudge of the worlde, the gouernour and creator of all.
b Let vs ſcan the cauſe by reaſo-ning vprightly.
c That is, he hath not dealt with me according to the equitie of my cauſe.
d That is, for his fooliſhneſſe he beareth the ſcornefull re-proofes of the mockers.
e As though Eli-hu would ſay, is it meete that the vnioſt and wicked ſhall be rulers, or inno-cents commit wickednes, or inferiours to con-troule princes or ſubiects to raiſe the king? howe much leſſe then oughteſt thou to doe ſo to God the king of all kings? Rom. 2. 11.
f That is, ſud-denly before they are aware of it.
g God exalteth one, & humbleth another, as the foure monar-chies of the world for exam-ple, that is, of the Aſſyrians, of the Perſians, of the Grecians, and of the Ro-manes: as God doth mightily, ſo doeth he iuſtly.
h That is, he ſhall bring to light that which lay in darkenes.
i That is, in the ſight of all men.
k Through their cruell and vnmercifull handling of them.

32 If

32 If I haue gone amisse, enstructe thou me: if I haue done wrong, I will leaue off.
33 Will thee perfourme thy thing through thee? for thou hast reproued his iudgement, thine is the chopse, and not mine: but speake on what thou knowest.
34 Let men of vnderstanding tell mee, and let a wise man hearken vnto mee.
35 Job hath not spoke of knowledge, neyther were his wordes according to wisedome.
36 O father, let Job be ‖ well tryed, because he hath answered for wicked men:
37 Yea, aboue his sinne he doeth wickedly, triumpheth among vs, and multiplyeth his words against God.

‖ Elihu doeth not wish to Iob any euill, but desireth God that he may acknowledge his office: the which cannot be brought to passe but by affliction.
‖ Or, vnto the ende.

The xxxv. Chapter.

Neyther doeth godlinesse profite, or vngodlinesse hurt God, but man. 18 The wicked cry vnto God, and are not heard.

1 Elihu a spake moreouer, and sayde,
2 Thinkest thou it right that thou sayest, I am more righteous then God?
3 For thou sayest, What aduantage will it be vnto thee, and what profite shall I haue if I be cleansed from my sinne?
4 I will answere thee a worde, and thy b companions with thee.
5 Looke vnto the heauen, and beholde it, consider the c cloudes, which are hygher then thou.
6 If thou hast d sinned, what hast thou done against him? if thine offences be many, what hast thou done vnto him?
7 If thou bee e righteous, what giuest ‖ him? or what will hee receyue of thine handes?
8 Thy wickednesse may hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousnesse may profite the sonne of man.
9 They which are oppressed, cry out by∣on the multitude, yea, they cry out for the power of the mightie.
10 But none sayeth, Where is God that made mee? and giueth vs occasion to praise him in the night?
11 Which teacheth vs more then the beastes of the earth, and giueth vs more wisedome then the foules of heauen.
12 If any ‖ such complaine, no man giueth answere, & that because of the wickednesse of proude tyrants.
13 For God will not heare vanitie, neither will the almightie regard it.
14 Although thou sayest to God thou wilt not regarde it: yet iudgement is before him, trust thou in him.
15 But nowe because his anger hath not visited, neither called men to accompt with great extremitie:
16 Therefore doeth Job open his mouth in vayne, and he maketh many wordes without knowledge.

a Iob holding his peace, Elihu went on in his talke.
b To such as are like to thee in obstinacie, not leauing thy great errour.
c If the cloudes are higher then thou, how much more is God excelling thee in al.
d It doeth nothing aduantage God whether we be good or euill, for he needeth not mans helpe, he is most mightie, his maiestie is most glorious.
e As though he would say, if we doe good, it is our owne: if wee doe euil, it is ours also.
‖ Or, songes,
f That is, God heareth them not, because they pray not heartily to him in faith.

The xxxvi. Chapter.

Elihu sheweth the power of God, 6 and his iustice, 9 and wherefore he punisheth. 13 The properties of the wicked.

1 Elihu also proceeded, and sayde,
2 Holde thee still a litle, and I shall shew thee what I haue yet to speak on Gods behalfe.
3 I will open vnto thee yet farre higher knowledge, and will attribe righteousnesse vnto my maker.
4 And truely my wordes shal not be haine, seeing he is with thee that is a perfect in knowledge.
5 Beholde, the great God casteth away no man, for he himselfe is b mightie in power and wisedome.
6 As for the vngodly, he shall not preserue him, but shall helpe the poore to their right.
7 He shal not turne his eyes away from the righteous, but as c kings shal they be in their throne, hee shall stablish them for euer, and they shalbe exalted.
8 But if they be layd in chaines, or bound with the bondes of trouble, 9 Then wil he d shewe them their worke, and their sinnes which they haue committed stoutely.
10 Hee openeth his eare also to discipline, & warneth them to leaue off from their wickednesse.
11 If they now will take heede and serue him, they shall weare out their dayes in prosperitie, and their yeres in pleasure.
12 But if they will not hearken, they shal goe through the sword, and perish, or euer they be aware.
13 As for the e hypocrites in heart, they shall heape vp wrath for themselues, for they call not vpon him, though they bee his prisoners.
14 Thus shall their soule perish in foolishnesse, and their life among the fornicatours.
15 The poore shall he deliuer out of his affliction, and ‖ sounde them in the eare when they be in trouble.
16 Euen so would he take thee out of the straite place, into a broade place in the which there is no straitnesse: yea, and make thy table quiet, replenished with fatnesse.
17 Neuertheles, f thou hast commended the iudgement of the vngodly, & euen such a iudgement & sentence shalt thou suffer.
18 And seeing there is g wrath with God beware least her take thee away in thy wealth, and all that thou hast to reder me thee, cannot deliuer thee.
19 Thinkest thou that he will regarde thy riches? he shal not care for golde, nor for all them that exceed in strength.
20 Spend not the night in carefull thoughts, how he destroyeth the people out of their place.
21 Beware that thou turne not aside to wickednesse, which hitherto thou hast chosen more then affliction.
22 Behalde, God is of a mightie high power: where is there such a teacher as hee?
23 Who will reprone him of his way? who a And therefore credite my sayings, for I come to pleade for Gods cause.

b And therefore he will not destroy the iust, the wise, and the godly, seeing they are therein like vnto him.
c So God doeth exalt the godly, and they that loue him.
d If he shall plague the righteous, he wil declare the cause of the same.
e Hypocrites that confesse God in their mouthes, and not in their heartes, will not acknowledge their offence, & so runne into desperation and confusion.
‖ Or, youth.
‖ Or, open their eares.
f Thou hast allowed the counsell of wicked, and layd aside the counsell of God as vniust.
g Meaning, thou shalt be in paynes which cannot be released for any price.

wil ſay vnto him, Thou haſt done wrong?
24 Remember that thou doe magnifie his worke which men doe prayſe.
25 All men ſee it, yea, men doe beholde it a farre off.
26 Behold, ſo great is God, that hee paſſeth our knowledge, h neyther can the number of his yeeres be ſearched out.
27 He turneth the water to ſmall drops, he diſtilleth his cloudes together to rayne:
28 Which rayne the cloudes doe drop, & let fall abundantly vpon men.
29 Who can conſider the i ſpreading out of his cloudes, the couerings of his tabernacle?
30 Behold, he doeth ſtreteh his light vpon it, & couereth the bottome of the ſea.
31 For by theſe ‖gouerneth he his people, and giueth them abundance of meate.
32 With the cloudes he hideth the light, & at his commandement it breaketh out.
33 Which dashing vpon the nexte cloudes, ſhewe tokens of wrath.

The xxxvii. Chapter.

Elihu prouoketh that the vnſearcheable wiſedome of God is manifeſt by his workes, 4 as by the thunder, 6 the ſnowe, 9 the whirle winde, 11 and the rayne.

1 AT this alſo my heart is aſtonied, and moued out of his place.
2 Heare b then the ſound of his voice, and the noyſe that goeth out of his mouth.
3 He directeth it vnder the whole heauen, and his light vnto the ends of the world.
4 A roring voyce foloweth it: for his glorious maieſtie giueth a thunder clap, & he will not ſtay when his voyce is heard.
5 God thundereth marueilouſly with his voice, great things doeth he, which wee can not comprehende.
6 He commaundeth the ſnowe, and it falleth vpon earth: hee giueth the rayne a charge, & the ſhowres haue their ſtrength and fall downe.
7 With the force of the rayne hee ſhutteth men vp, that all men may knowe c his workes.
8 The beaſtes d creepe into their dennes, & remayne in their places.
9 Out of the South commeth the tempeſt, and colde out from the North winde.
10 At the e breath of God the hoare froſt is giuen, & the broade waters are frozen.
11 He maketh the cloudes to labour, in giuing moyſture, and againe, with his light, he diſtileth away the cloude.
12 He turneth the heauens about by his gouernement, that they may doe whatſoeuer hee commaundeth them vpon the whole worlde.
13 Hee cauſeth rayne to come, whether it be for puniſhment, or for his lande, or to do good to them that ſeeke him.
14 Hearken vnto this, O Iob, ſtand ſtill, & conſider the wonderous workes of God.
15 Diddeſt thou knowe when God diſpoſed them? and cauſed the f light of his cloudes to ſhine?
16 Haſt thou knowen the varietie of the cloudes, and the wonderous workes of him which is perfect in knowledge?
17 And howe thy clothes are warme, when the land is ſtill through the ſouth winde?
18 Haſt thou helped him to ſpreade out the heauens, which are ſtrong, and bright as a molten glaſſe?
19 Teach vs what we ſhal ſay vnto him: for wee are vnmeete to frame our talke, becauſe of h darkeneſſe.
20 Shall it bee tolde him what I ſay? Shal man ſpeake when hee ſhalbe deſtroyed?
21 For men ſee not the light that ſhineth in the cloudes, but the winde paſſeth and cleanſeth them.
22 The ‡fayre weather commeth out of the North, the prayſe thereof is to God, who is terrible.
23 It is the almightie, wee can not finde him out: hee is excellent in power and iudgement, and abundant in iuſtice: hee afflicteth not.
24 Let men therefore i feare him: for there ſhall no man ſee him that is wiſe in his owne concepte.

The xxxviii. Chapter.

God ſpeaketh to Iob, and declareth the ignorance of man in the conſideration of his creatures.

1 THen anſwered the Lord vnto Iob out of the a whirle winde, and ſayde, 2 What is hee that b darkeneth his counſell by words without knowledge?
3 Girde vp thy c lopnes like a man: for I will queſtion with thee, giue mee an anſwere.
4 Where d waſt thou when I layde the foundations of the earth? tell me, if thou haſt vnderſtanding.
5 Who hath meaſured it, knoweſt thou? or who hath ſpread the line vpon it?
6 Whereupon are the foundations ſet? or who laide the corner ſtone thereof?
7 Where waſt thou, when the morning ſtarres prayſed mee together, & all the children of God reioyced triumphantly?
8 Who ſhut vp the ſea with dores, when it braſt forth as out of the wombe?
9 When I made the cloudes a couering for it, and darkeneſſe as his ſwadling bande, 10 When I gaue it my commaundement, making bowes and barres for it, 11 Saying, Hitherto ſhalt thou come, but no further, and here ſhalt thou lay downe thy proude waues?
12 Haſt thou giuen the morning his charge ‖ſince thy dayes, & cauſed the day ſpring e his place, 13 That it might take holde of the corners of the earth, and that the vngodly might be ſhaken out of it?
14 f They are faſhioned as is the clape to the ſeale, and ſhalbe as a garment.
15 The vngodly ſhalbe diſappointed of their riſh.

h For he is God frō euerlaſting, without beginning or ending.

i Gods maieſtie is wonderfully declared in his creatures.

‖Or, iudgeth.

a That is, at Gods wonderful creatures, as the thunder, and ſuch like.

b As though he would ſay, the thunder is the dreadfull voyce of God.

c Which works are as it were a confirmation of Gods maieſtie: for as ſoone as the thunder commeth, they flee for feare, wherein they ſhewe their owne weakenes, and doe witnes a maieſtie of God on high.

d Not onely man, but beaſtes are alſo witneſſes of Gods power and maieſtie, when they runne to their dennes for feare of the thunder.

e Meaning, the windes which are called the breath of God, which as they blowe hot or colde, ſo they freeſe or thawe the waters, making them leſſer and greater.

f That is, the lightning.

g For the clearneſſe or brightneſſe of them.

h That is, of our ignorance.

i Alluding to Iob.

a To ſhewe his maieſtie, and to inſtruct Iob, before whome he ſpake.

b That ſpeaketh ſo couertly and obſcurely.

c That is, prepare thy ſelfe to anſwere.

d Inferring by this, that if he could not conceiue Gods wonderfull workes, much leſſe his vnſearchable wiſedome.

‖Or, ſynce.

e Though the vngodly truſt in their eſtate to endure long, yet they ſhall be as weake as clay, & as a garment ſhall ſoone peryſh.

The xxxix. Chapter.

God proceedeth in declaring the ignorance of Iob, in the consideration of his marueilous workes, in beasts and foules.

1 Knowest thou the time whē the wild goates bring forth their yong amōg the rockes? or [a] lapest thou wapte when the hyndes vse to calue?

2 Canst thou number the monethes that they goe with yong? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They lie downe, they calue their yong ones, and they are deliuered of their trauaile and paine:

4 Yet their yong ones growe vp, & waxe fatte through good feeding with corne: they goe forth, and returne not againe vnto them.

5 Who letteth the wilde asse to goe free? or who loseth the bondes of the wilde Asse?

6 Euen I which haue giuen the wildernesse to be their house, and the [b] barraine land to be their dwelling.

7 She scorneth the multitude of the citie, neyther regardeth the crying of the driuer:

8 But seeketh his pasture about the mountaines, and foloweth the greene grasse.

9 Will the [c] Vnicorne do thee seruice, or abide still by thy cribbe?

10 Canst thou binde the poke about the Vnicorne in ꝑ forow, to make him plow after thee in the valleys?

11 Wayest thou trust him because her is strong, or commit thy labour vnto him?

12 Wayest thou beleeue him that he will bring home thy ‖corne, or carrie it into thy barne?

13 Gauest thou the faire wings vnto the Peacocks, or winges & feathers vnto the Estritche?

14 The Estriche leaueth her egges in the earth, and heateth them in the dust.

15 Shee remembreth not that they might be troden with fet, or broken with some wilde beast.

16 So hard is she vnto her yong ones, as though they were not hers, and [d] labour eth in vaine without any feare.

17 And that because God hath [e] taken wisdome from her, and hath not giuen her vnderstanding.

18 When the time is that she mounteth on high, she careth neither for the horse, nor the ryder.

19 [f] Hast thou giuē the horse his strength? or learned him to nep couragiously?

20 Canst thou make him afraied as the grashopper? his stoute neping is fearefull.

21 He breaketh the ground with the hooses of his feete, he reioyceth in his strength, and runneth to mete the harnest men.

22 He mocketh at feare, and is not afrayd, neither starteth he backe from the sworde.

23 Though the quiuers rattle vpon him, though the speare and shield glister:

24 Yet rusheth hee in fiercely, beating the ground,

[a] He chiefly reciteth these beastes, for they bring forth their younglings with greatest payne.

[b] Some reade, Salt places, meaning, barrein ground.

[c] If thou canst not rule the Vnicorne, canst thou knowe Gods secrets, or appoint him to doe thy will?

[d] The Estritch when she hath layd her egges, hideth them in the sand, and by the heate of the sunne, the yong are brought forth, but she leaueth the egs as careleſſe, forgetting the place where she put them, and so her labour is vaine.

[e] To be natural toward her own: f Thus in all creatures the glory of Gods maiestie is declared.

their light, and ‖ the arme of the proude shall be broken.

16 ᵉ Camest thou euer into the ‖ grounde of the sea, or walkedst in the low steppes of the deepe?

17 Haue the gates of death bene opened vnto thee? or hast thou seene the doores of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou also perceiued howe broade the earth is? If thou hast knowledge of all this:

19 Then shewe mee the way where light dwelleth, and where is the place of darkenesse?

20 That thou shouldest receiue it in the bounds thereof, and know the pathes to their houses.

21 Knewest thou aboue thou wast borne how olde thou shouldest be?

22 ᵍ Wentest thou euer into the treasures of the snow, or hast thou seene the secrete places of the haile?

23 Which I haue ‖ prepared against the time of trouble, against the time of battell and warre?

24 By what way is the light parted? and into what land breaketh the East wind?

25 Who diuideth the waters into diuers chanels? or the way of the lightning and thunder, 26 To cause it to raine on the earth, where no man is, and in the wildernesse where none inhabiteth?

27 To satisfie the desolate & waste ground, and to cause the budde of the herbe to spring forth?

28 Who is the ʰ father of the raine? or who hath begotten the drops of the deawe?

29 Out of whose wombe came ꝑ yce? who hath gendred the ‖ coldnesse of the ayre, 30 That the waters are ‖ hid as with a stone, and lie congeled about the deepe?

31 Canst thou binde the sweet starres together? or loose the bandes of Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth the morning starre in his time? canst thou also guide ‖ the euening starre with his sonnes?

33 Knowest thou the course of heauen, that thou mayest set vp the ordinance thereof vpon the earth?

34 Canst thou lift vp thy voice to ꝑ clouds, that they may powre downe a great raine vpon thee?

35 Canst thou send ꝑ lightnings, that they may go their way, saying vnto thee, Loe, here are we?

36 Who hath put wisdome in ꝑ reines? or who hath giuen the heart vnderstanding?

37 Who nubreth the clouds in wisdome? who stilleth the vehement ‖ waters of the heauen?

38 ᵏ To cause ꝑ earth to grow in hardnes, and the clots to cleaue fast together?

39 ˡ Wilt thou hunt the pray for the Lion? or fil the appetite of the Lions whelpes, 40 When they couch in their places, and tarry in the couert to lie in waite?

41 Who prouideth meate for the Rauen, when his yong ones crie vnto God, and flie about for lacke of meate?

[a] Lapest thou wapte, when the Hyndes vse to calue?

[b] Some reade, hide.

[c] The yce couered it, as though it were paued with stone.

[d] Or, Arcturus.

[e] Or, bottels.

[f] For so groweth the earth by the want of rayne.

[g] After he had shewed his marueiles aboue, he commeth to the earthly creatures, as though God would say, The thinges on ꝑ clouds are vnknowē vnto thee, yea euen things on earth thou durst not doe: howe much lesse then durst thou to reache to Gods secret wisedome?

[h] Meaning, God is the creator & maker of all thinges,

[i] The frost of the heauen,

[k] For so groweth the earth by the want of rayne.

[l] After he had shewed his marueiles aboue, he commeth to the earthly creatures, as though God would say, The thinges on ꝑ clouds are vnknowē vnto thee, yea euen things on earth thou durst not doe: howe much lesse then durst thou to reache to Gods secret wisedome?

[m] Or, stone.

[n] A iudge ought to be skilfull in the cause that he iudgeth: but seeing thou knowest none of these thinges that are visible, why wilt thou presume to iudge of thinges inuisible?

ground, he regardeth not the noyse of the trumpets:

25 But when the trumpets make most noyse, he saith, ‖Tush, for he smelleth the battell a farre off, the noyse of the captaines, and the howting.

26 Cōmeth it thy ough thy wisdome, that the Goshawke flieth with her wings toward the g South?

27 Doeth the Eagle mount vp, and make his nest on high at thy commandement?

28 He abideth in stonie rockes, and dwelleth vpon the high tops of mountaines:

29 From whence he seeketh his pray, and looketh farre about with his eyes.

30 His yong ones also sucke vp blood: and where any dead bodie lyeth there is he.

The xl. Chapter.

God declareth the weakenesse of Iob, by comparing the same to his great workes, and to the strength of Behemoth.

1 MOreouer, the Lord spake vnto Iob, and sayd,

2 Shall hee whome the almightie will chasten, contend with him? Should not he which disputeth with God, giue him an answere?

3 Then Iob a answered the Lord, saying,

4 Behold, I am vile, what shal I answer thee? therefore I will lay my hand vpon my mouth.

5 Once haue I spoken, but I will say no more: yea twise, but I will proceede no further.

6 Then answered the Lord vnto Iob out of the whirle winde, and sayde, 7 Gyrde vp thy loynes nowe like a man: I will demaund of thee, and make thou answere.

8 Wilt thou b disannull my iudgement? or wilt thou condemne mee, that thou mayest be righteous?

9 Is thy ‖power the like ꝓ power of God? maketh thy voyce a sound as his doeth?

10 Decke thy selfe nowe with excellencie and maiestie, and array thy selfe c with beautie and glorie.

11 Cast abroade the indignation of thy wrath, & behold euery one that is proud, and abase him:

12 Looke on euery one that is arrogant, and bring him low, and destroy the wicked in their place:

13 Hide them in the dust together, and couer their faces in d secrete.

14 Then will I cōfesse vnto thee also, that thine e owne right hand shal saue thee.

15 Behold the beast f Behemoth, whom I made with thee, which eateth hay as an ore:

16 Loe, how his strength is in his loynes, and what power he hath in the nauell of his belly.

17 When he will he spreadeth out his taile like a Cedar tree, ꝓ sinewes of his stones are knit together.

18 His bones are strong as brasse, yea, his bones are like staues of iron.

19 Yee is the beginning of the waies of God, hee that made him, will make his sword to approch vnto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth grasse, where all the beastes of the field take their pastime.

21 He resteth him in the shade, in the couert of the reede and fennes.

22 The trees couer him with their shadow, and the willowes of the brooke compasse him about.

23 Behold, he drinketh vp whole riuers, and feareth not, he thinketh that he can drawe vp Iordane into his mouth.

24 He is h taken with his eies, & the hunter thrusteth him thorowe the nose.

in the grounde where hee vseth to haunt, and with haie, or prouender, which so soone as he pieth, he ranneth hastily vnto it, and falleth then the hunter thrusteth him thorowe the nose, the tenderest part of him.

The xli. Chapter.

God setteth forth the malice, the members, the strength, and the pride of Leuiathan.

1 CAnst thou drawe out a Leuiathan with an hooke? or bind his tongue with a corde?

2 Canst thou put a hooke in ꝓ nose of him? or bore his iaw through with a naule?

3 Will he make many faire wordes with thee, or flatter thee?

4 Will he make a couenant with thee? or wilt thou take him for a seruāt for euer?

5 Wilt thou take thy pastime with him, as with a birde, wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 That thy companions may make a banquet of him, or shall he be parted among the marchants?

7 Canst thou fill the basket with his skin? or the fish panier with his head?

8 Lay thine hand vpon him, b remember the battell, and do no more.

9 Behold, his hope is in vaine: for shall not one perish euen at the sight of him?

10 No c man is so fierce that dare stirre him vp: Who is able to stand before me?

11 Or who hath giuen me any thing afore hand, that I may reward him again? All things vnder heauen are mine.

12 I will not kepe secret his great strength, his power nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discouer the d face of his garment? or who shall come to him with a double bridle?

14 Who e shal open the doores of his face? for he hath horrible teeth round about.

15 His scales are as it were strong shields, so fastened together as if they were sealed:

16 One is so ioyned to another, that no aire can come in:

17 One hangeth so vpon another, and sticketh so together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 His f neesings make a glistering like light, and his eyes lyke the ‖morning shine.

19 Out of his mouth go torches, & sparks of fire leape out.

20 And out of his nostrelles there goeth

a Here Iob confesseth his offence, and durst not speake: for whē God doeth reprehend, who can answere?

b Meaning, that for a man to accompt himselfe iust, is to accuse God for vniust.

‖Or, arme.

c Which no man is able to doe, for these thinges are onely perteining to God.

d That is, cause them to dye, if ye lye in thy power.

e Which God can onely doe, and therefore trusting in thine owne strength, thou compareste with God.

f The Hebrues say, Behemoth signifieth an Elephant, so called for his hugenesse, by the which may be vnderstand the deuill.

g That is, flee into the regions that are hotte, when cold commeth.

g This beast is one of the chiefest works of God among the beastes, whome though no man dare come neere yet God can kill him.

h Some write, that when men purpose to take the Elephant, they make a holow place couer the same the Elephant entreth into the pit, and the hunter thrusteth him thorowe the nose, because it is tender.

a Leuiathan, is a whale, b For it is dangerous to trust Satan in any thing, yea it is hurtful to touch him: for Leuiathan represenceth Satan.

c If the creature cannot be resisted, who can compare with the creator?

d That is, who dare pull off his skinne?

e That is, who dare looke in his mouth?

f That is, he spouteth out flames of fire out of his mouth.

‖Or, eie lidder of the morning.

a smoke, like as out of an whot seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath maketh the coles burne, & the flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his necke there remaineth strength, and nothing is too laborous for him.

23 The members of his flesh are ioyned and cleaue fast together, and cannot be moued.

24 His heart is as hard as a stone, and as fast as the ‖ Smithe that the smith smiteth vpon.

‖Or, the nether millstone.

25 When he mooueth himselfe, ᵖ mightie are afraide, and feare troubleth them.

26 If any man draw out a sword at him, he will not moue, neither for the speare, tauelin, nor brestplate.

27 Yee setteth as much by iron, as by a strawe, and as much by brasse, as by a rotten sticke.

28 Ye starteth not away from the arrow: and as for sling stones, they are as stubble vnto him.

ᵍ For the hardnes of his skinne is such, that he lieth vpon it without paine, as in the soft mire.

29 Ye counteth the dartes as strawe, hee laugheth him to scorne that shaketh the speare.

30 ᵍ Sharpe stones are vnder him, and he lieth vpon sharpe things, as vpon the soft mire.

ʰ He spouteth out water in such sort, that the seas seeme to boile.

31 Yee maketh the ʰ deepe to boile like a pot, and stirreth the sea together like an oyntment.

ⁱ With a white froth vpon the water.

32 Yee maketh the ⁱ path to shine after him, and he maketh the deepe to seeme all hoarie.

33 Vpon earth there is no power like vnto his: for hee is so made that hee feareth not.

ᵏ He despiseth all other beasts and monsters, and is the proudest of all other.

34 Ye beholdeth all the high things, ᵏ hee is a king ouer all the children of pride.

The xlii. Chapter.

6 The repentance of Iob. 9 Hee prayeth for his friendes, 12 and his goodes are restored double vnto him.

1 THen Iob answered the Lord, & said, ª Iob confesseth the omnipotencie of God, & bewaileth his offence that he spake he wist not what.

2 ª I knowe that thou hast power ouer all things, and that there is no thought hid vnto thee.

3 For who can keepe his owne counsaile so secret, but it shall bee knowen? therefore haue I spoken that I vnderstoode not, euen the things that are to wonderfull for me, and passe mine vnderstãding.

ᵇ Iob desireth to learne of God.

4 ᵇ Hearken thou vnto me also, and let me speake: answer vnto the thing that I will aske thee.

5 I haue heard of thee by the hearing of the eare, but nowe mine eye ᶜ seeth thee.

ᶜ He sawe him not but by his word, which is the face and image of God.

6 Wherefore I giue mine owne selfe the blame, and take repentance in the dust and ashes.

7 Now when the Lord had spoken these woordes vnto Iob, the Lorde saide to Eliphaz the Themanite, I am displeased with thee and thy two friendes: for yee haue not spoken of me the ᵈ thing that is right, like as my seruant Iob hath done.

ᵈ Ye tooke in hand an euill cause, in that you condemned him by his outward afflictions, and not comforted him with my mercies.

8 Therefore take you now seuen oxen, & seuen rammes, and goe to my seruant Iob, & offer vp for your selues a whole burnt offering, and my seruant Iob shall pray for you: him will I accept, & not deale with you after your foolishnesse, ᵐ in that ye haue not spoken of me the thing which is right, like as my seruant Iob hath done.

9 So Eliphaz the Themanite, and Bildad the Suhite, and Sophar the Naamathite, went, and did according as the Lord commanded them: the Lorde also accepted the ‖ person of Iob.

‖Or, the face.

10 And the Lord ᶜ turned the captiuitie of Iob when hee prayed for his friendes: yea, the Lord gaue Iob twise as much as he had before.

ᵉ He rid him frõ his troubles and plagues.

11 And then came there vnto him all his brethren, all his sisters, and all they that had bene of his acquaintance ᶠ afore, & did eate breade with him in his house, & had compassion on him, and comforted him ouer all the trouble that the Lorde had brought vpon him: euery man also gaue him a certaine summe of money, & a iewel of gold.

ᶠ That is, all they that were of his kinred.

ᵍ Here is the exceeding blessings of God towards the godly, and they that vnfainedly trust in him.

12 So the Lorde blessed the last dayes of Iob more then the first: for he had fourteene thousand sheepe, sixe thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, & a thousand shee asses,

‖Or, an earering.

13 Hee had seuen sonnes also, and three daughters.

14 The first daughter called he ʰ Jemima, the second, ⁱ Cezia, and the third, ᵏ Cerenhaphuch.

ʰ Passing in beautie as the day, and long liuing.

ⁱ As sweete as Cassia, or fine spices.

15 In all the land were no women founde so faire as the daughters of Iob: & their father gaue them inheritance among their brethren.

ᵏ The child of beautie.

16 After this, liued Iob an hundred and fourtie yeeres: so that he sawe his children, and his childrens children, vnto the fourth generation.

17 And so Iob died, being olde, and full of dayes.

The ende of the booke of Iob.

The Psalmes of Dauid.

Beatus vir qui non abiit. Psal. i.

Morning prayer.

1 BLessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsell of the vngodly, nor stand in the way of sinners: & hath not sit in the seate of the scornefull.

2 But his delight is in the lawe of the Lord: and in his lawe will he exercise himselfe day and night.

3 And he shalbe like a tree planted by the water side: that will bring foorth his fruit in due season.

4 His leafe also shall not wither: & looke whatsoeuer he doeth, it shall prosper.

5 As for the vngodly it is not so with the: but they are like the chaffe which ꝑ wind scattereth away from the face of ꝑ earth.

6 Therefore the vngodly shall not be able to stande in the iudgement: neither the sinners in the cõgregatiõ of ꝑ righteous.

7 But the Lorde knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the vngodly shall perish.

Quare fremuerunt. Psal. ii.

1 WHy doe the Heathen so furiously rage together: and why doe the people imagine a vaine thing?

2 The kings of the earth stand vp, and the rulers take counsel together: against the Lord, and against his anoynted.

3 Let vs breake their bonds asunder: and cast away their cordes from vs.

4 He that dwelleth in heauen shall laugh them to scorne: the Lord shall haue them in derision.

5 Then shall he speake vnto them in his wrath: & vexe the in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet haue I set my king: vpon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will preache the lawe, whereof the Lorde hath saide vnto mee: thou art my sonne, this day haue I begotten thee.

8 Desire of me, and I shall giue thee the Heathen for thine inheritance: and the vttermost partes of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron: and breake them in pieces like a potters vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be learned ye that are iudges of the earth.

11 Serue the Lord in feare: & reioyce vnto him with reuerence.

12 Kisse the sonne least he be angry, and so yee perish from the right waye: if his wrath be kindled (yea but a litle) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Domine quid. Psal. iii.

1 LOrde howe are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soule: there is no helpe for him in his God.

3 But thou, O Lorde, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter vp of my head.

4 I did call vnto the Lord with my voyce: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5 I laid me downe and slept, and rose vp againe: for the Lord sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid for ten thousands of people: that haue set themselues against me round about.

7 Vp Lorde, and helpe mee, O my God: for thou smitest all mine enemies vpon the cheeke bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

8 Saluation belongeth vnto the Lord: & thy blessing is vpon the people.

Cum inuocarem. Psal. iiii.

1 HEare me when I call, O God of my righteousnesse: for thou hast set me at libertie when I was in trouble, haue mercie vpon me, and hearken vnto my prayer.

2 O ye sonnes of men, how long will yee blaspheme mine honour: and haue such pleasure in vanitie, & seeke after leasing?

3 Knowe this also, that the Lorde hath chosen to him selfe the man that is godly: when I call vpon the Lorde, he will heare me.

4 Stande in awe, and sinne not: commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousnesse: and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There bee many that say: who will shewe vs any good?

7 Lord lift thou vp: the light of thy countenance vpon vs.

8 Thou hast put gladnes in my heart: since the time that their corne and wine and oyle increased.

9 I will lay me downe in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou Lord only that makest me dwell in safetie.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v.

1 POnder my wordes, O Lord: consider my meditation.

2 O hearken thou vnto the voyce of my calling, my king and my God: for vnto thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voyce shalt thou heare betimes, O Lorde: early in the morning will I direct my prayer vnto thee, and will looke vp.

4 For thou art ꝑ God that hast no pleasure in wickednes: neither shall any euil dwell with thee.

5 Such as be foolish shal not stand in thy sight: for thou hatest all them that worke vanitie.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speake leasing: the Lord will abhorre both the bloodthirstie and deceitfull man.

7 But

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house, euen vpon the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy feare will I worship toward thy holy temple.
8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousnesse, because of mine enemies: make thy way plaine before my face.
9 For there is no faithfulnesse in his mouth: their inward partes are very wickednesse.
10 Their throte is an open sepulchre: they flatter with their tongue.
11 Destroy thou them, O God, let them perish through their owne imaginations: cast them out in the multitude of their vngodlines, for they haue rebelled against thee.
12 And let all them that put their trust in thee, reioyce: they shal euer be giuing of thankes, because thou defendest them, they that loue thy name shall be ioyfull in thee.
13 For thou Lorde wilt giue thy blessing vnto the righteous: & with thy fauourable kindnesse wilt thou defend him, as with a shield.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. vi.

Euening prayer.

1 O Lorde rebuke mee not in thine indignation: neither chasten me in thy displeasure.
2 Haue mercie vpon me, O Lord, for I am weake: O Lord heale me, for my bones are vexed.
3 My soule is also sore troubled: but Lord how long wilt thou punish me?
4 Turne thee, O Lorde, and deliuer my soule: O saue me for thy mercies sake.
5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and who will giue thee thankes in the pit?
6 I am weary of my groning, euery night wash I my bed: and water my couch with my teares.
7 My beautie is gone for very trouble: and worne away because of all mine enemies.
8 Away from me all ye that worke vanitie: for the Lord hath heard the voyce of my weeping.
9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receiue my prayer.
10 All mine enemies shall be confounded and sore vexed: they shall bee turned backe, and put to shame sodenly.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vii.

1 O Lord my God, in thee haue I put my trust: saue mee from all them that persecute me, and deliuer me.
2 Least he deuoure my soule like a lion, & teare it in pieces: while there is none to helpe.
3 O Lorde my God, if I haue done any such thing: or if there bee any wickednes in my handes.
4 If I haue rewarded euill vnto him that dealt friendly with me: yea, I haue delivered him that without any cause is mine enemie.
5 Then let mine enemie persecute my soule, and take me: yea, let him tread my life downe vpon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust.
6 Stand vp, O Lorde, in thy wrath, and lift vp thy selfe: because of the indignation of mine enemies, arise vp for mee in the iudgement that thou hast comanded.
7 And so shall the congregation of the people come about thee: for their sakes therefore lift vp thy selfe againe.
8 The Lord shall iudge the people, giue sentence with me, O Lord: according to my righteousnes, and according to the innocencie that is in me.
9 Oh let the wickednes of the vngodly come to an end: but guide thou the iust.
10 For the righteous God: trieth the very hearts and reines.
11 My helpe commeth of God: which preserueth them that are true of heart.
12 God is a righteous iudge, strong and patient: & God is prouoked euery day.
13 If a man will not turne, he will whet his sworde: he hath bent his bowe, and made it ready.
14 Hee hath prepared for him the instruments of death: hee ordeineth his arrowes against the persecuters.
15 Behold, he trauaileth with mischiefe: he hath conceiued sorowe, and brought forth vngodlines.
16 He hath grauen and digged vp a pit: and is fallen himselfe into the destruction that he made for other.
17 For his trauell shall come vpon his owne head: and his wickednes shall fall on his owne pate.
18 I will giue thankes vnto the Lord, according to his righteousnes: and will praise the name of the Lord of most high.

Domine Dominus. Psal. viii.

1 O Lord our gouernour, howe excellent is thy name in all the world: thou that hast set thy glorie aboue the heauens.
2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordeined strength, because of thine enemies: that thou mightest still the enemie and the auenger.
3 For I will consider the heauens, euen the works of thy fingers: the moone and the starres which thou hast ordeined.
4 What is man that thou art mindefull of him: and the sonne of man that thou visitest him?
5 Thou madest him lower then the angels: to crowne him with glorie and worship.
6 Thou makest him to haue dominion of the workes of thy handes: and thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete.
7 All sheepe and oxen: yea, and the beasts of the field.
8 The foules of the aire, and the fishes of the sea: & whatsoeuer walketh through the pathes of the seas.
9 O Lord our gouernour: how excellent is thy name in all the world?

Confite.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. ix.

Morning prayer.

I Will giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will speake of all thy marueilous workes.
2 I will be glad and reioyce in thee: yea, my songs will I make of thy name, O thou most highest.
3 While mine enemies are driuen backe: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.
4 For thou hast maintained my right, and my cause: thou art set in the throne that iudgest right.
5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the vngodly: thou hast put out their name for euer and euer.
6 O thou enemie, destructions are come to a perpetuall end: euen as the cities which thou hast destroyed, their memoriall is perished with them.
7 But the Lord shall endure for euer: hee hath also prepared his seate for iudgement.
8 For he shall iudge the worlde in righteousnesse: and minister true iudgement vnto the people.
9 The Lord also will bee a defence for the oppressed: euen a refuge in due time of trouble.
10 And they that know thy name, will put their trust in thee: for thou Lord hast neuer failed them that seeke thee.
11 O prayse the Lord which dwelleth in Sion: shewe the people of his doings.
12 For when hee maketh inquisition for blood, he remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaint of the poore.
13 Haue mercy vpon me, O Lord, consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate me: thou that liftest me vp from the gates of death.
14 That I may shew all thy prayses within the portes of the daughter of Sion: I will reioyce in thy saluation.
15 The heathen are sunke downe in the pit that they made: in the same net which they hidde priuily, is their foote taken.
16 The Lord is knowen to execute iudgement: the vngodly is trapped in the worke of his owne hands.
17 The wicked shalbe turned into hell: and all the people that forget God.
18 For the poore shal not alway be forgotten: the patient abiding of the meeke shal not perish for euer.
19 Vp Lord, and let not man haue the vpper hand: let the heathen bee iudged in thy sight.
20 Put them in feare (O Lorde:) that the heathen may knowe themselues to bee but men.

Vt quid Domine. Psal. x.

1 WHy standest thou so farre off (O Lorde:) and hidest thy face in the needful time of trouble?
2 The vngodly for his owne lust doth persecute the poore: let them be taken in the craftie wilinesse that they haue imagined.
3 For the vngodly hath made boast of his owne hearts desire: & speaketh good of the couetous whom God abhorreth.
4 The vngodly is so proude, that he careth not for God: neither is God in all his thoughts.
5 His wayes are alway grieuous: thy iudgements are farre aboue out of his sight, and therefore defieth he all his enemies.
6 For he hath sayde in his heart, Tush, I shall neuer bee cast downe: there shall no harme happen vnto me.
7 His mouth is full of cursing, decrit, and fraud: vnder his tongue is vngodlines and vanitie.
8 Hee sitteth lurking in the thirnish corners of the stretes: and priuily in his lurking dennes doeth he murder the innocent, his eyes are set against the poore.
9 For he lieth waiting secretly, euen as a lion lurketh he in his denne: that he may ranish the poore.
10 He doth ranish the poore: when he getteth him into his net.
11 He falleth downe and humbleth himselfe: that the congregation of the poore may fall into the hand of his captaines.
12 He sayd in his heart, Tushe, God hath forgotten: he hideth away his face, and he will neuer see it.
13 Arise (O Lorde God) and lift vp thine hand: forget not the poore.
14 Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God: while he doth say in his heart, tush, thou God carest not for it?
15 Surely thou hast seene it: for thou beholdest vngodlines and wrong.
16 That thou mayest take the matter into thy hand: the poore committeth himselfe vnto thee, for thou art the helper of the friendlesse.
17 Breake thou the power of the vngodly, and malicious: take away his vngodlinesse, and thou shalt finde none.
18 The Lord is king for euer and euer: and the heathen are perished out of the land.
19 Lorde, thou hast heard the desire of the poore: thou preparest their heart, and thine eare harkeneth thereto.
20 To helpe the fatherlesse and poore vnto their right: that the man of the earth bee no more exalted against them.

In Domino confido. Psal. xi.

1 IN the Lord put I my trust: howe say ye then to my soule, that she should flee as a bird vnto the hill?
2 For loe, the vngodly bend their bowe, and make ready their arrowes within the quiver: that they may priuily shoote at them which are true of heart.
3 For the foundations will be cast downe: and what hath the righteous done?
4 The Lorde is in his holy temple: the Lords seate is in heauen.
5 His eyes consider the poore: and his eye lids trieth the children of men.
6 The Lord alloweth the righteous: but the vngodly, and him that delighteth in wickednesse doth his soule abhorre.
7 Vpon the vngodly he shal raine snares, fire, and brimstone, storme, and tempest: this shall be their portion to drinke.

8 For the righteous Lord loueth righteousnesse: his countenance will beholde the thing that is iust.

Saluum me fac. Psal.xii.

Euening prayer.

1 HElpe me Lorde, for there is not one godly man left: for the faithfull are minished from among the children of men.

2 They talke of vanitie euery one with his neighbour: they doe but flatter with their lips, and dissemble with their double heart.

3 The Lorde shall roote out all deceitfull lips: and the tongue that speaketh proud things.

4 Which haue sayd, with our tongue we will prenaile: we are they that ought to speake, who is Lord ouer vs?

5 Now for the comfortlesse troubles sake of the needie: and because of the deepe sighing of the poore.

6 I will vp (saith the Lorde) and will helpe euery one from him that swelleth against him, and will set them at rest.

7 The words of the Lord are pure words: euen as the siluer which from the earth is tried, and purified seuen times in the fire.

8 Thou shalt keepe them, O Lorde: thou shalt preserue him from this generation for euer.

9 The vngodly walke on euery side: when they are exalted, the children of men are put to rebuke.

Vsquequo Domine. Psal.13.

1 HOwe long wilt thou forget mée (O Lord) for euer: howe long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I séeke counsell in my soule, and be so vexed in my heart: howe long shall mine enemies triumph ouer me?

3 Consider and heare mee, O Lorde my God: lighten mine eyes, that I sleepe not in death.

4 Least mine enemie say, I haue prenayled against him: for if I bee cast downe, they that trouble me will reioyce at it.

5 But my trust is in thy mercie: and my heart is ioyfull in thy saluation.

6 I will sing of the Lord, because he hath delt so louingly with mee: yea, I will praise the name of the Lord most highest.

Dixit insipiens. Psal xiiii.

1 THe foole hath said in his heart: there is no God.

2 They are corrupt and become abominable in their doings: there is not one that doth good, (no not one.)

3 The Lord looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to see if there were any that would vnderstand and séeke after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is none that doth good, no not one.

5 Their throte is an open sepulchre, with their tongues haue they deceiued: the poison of aspes is vnder their lips.

6 Their mouth is full of cursing & bitternesse: their féete are swift to shed blood.

7 Destruction & vnhappinesse is in their waies, and the way of peace haue they not knowen: there is no feare of God before their eyes.

8 Haue they no knowledge, that they are all such workers of mischiefe: eating vp my people as it were bread?

9 And call not vpon the Lord, there were they brought in great feare (euen where no feare was:) for God is in the generation of the righteous.

10 As for you, ye haue made a mocke at the counsaile of the poore: because he putteth his trust in the Lord.

11 Who shall giue saluation vnto Israel out of Sion: when the Lord turneth the captiuitie of his people, then shall Iacob reioyce and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis habitabit? Psal.xv.

1 LOrde who shall dwell in thy Tabernacle: or who shall rest vpon thy holy hill? Morning prayer.

2 Euen hee that leadeth an vncorrupt life: and doth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

3 He that hath vsed no deceite in his tongue, nor done euill to his neighbour: and hath not slandered his neighbours.

4 He that setteth not by himselfe, but is lowly in his owne eyes: and maketh much of them that feare the Lord.

5 He that sweareth vnto his neighbour, and disappointeth him not: though it were to his owne hinderance.

6 He that hath not giuen his money vpon vsury: nor taken reward against the innocent.

7 Who so doeth these things: shall neuer fall.

Conserua me. Psal.16.

1 PReserue me, O God: for in thee haue I put my trust.

2 O my soule, thou hast sayde vnto the Lord: thou art my God, my goods are nothing vnto thée.

3 All my delight is vpon the saints that are in the earth: and vpon such as excell in vertue.

4 But they that run after another God: shall haue great trouble.

5 Their drinke offerings of blood will I not offer: neither make mention of their names within my lips.

6 The Lorde himselfe is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou shalt maintaine my lot.

7 The lot is fallen vnto mee in a faire grounde: yea, I haue a goodly heritage.

8 I will thanke the Lorde for giuing mée warning: my reines also chasten mée in the night season.

9 I haue set God alwayes before mée: for for he is on my right hande, therefore I shall not fall.

10 Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glorie reioyced: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

11 For why? thou shalt not leaue my soule in hell: neither shalt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

12 Thou shalt shew me the path of life, in thy presence is the fulnesse of ioy: and at thy right hand there is pleasure for euermore.

Exaudi Domine iustitiam Psal. xvii.

1 HEare the right, O Lord, consider my complaint: and hearken vnto my prayer, that goeth not out of fained lippes.

2 Let my sentence come forth frō thy presence: and let thine eyes looke vpon the thing that is equall.

3 Thou hast proued & visited mine heart in the night season, thou hast tried me, & shalt finde no wickednesse in mee: for I am vtterly purposed that my mouth shall not offende.

4 Because of mens workes that are done against the wordes of my lippes: I haue kept mee from the wayes of the destroyer.

5 O holde thou vp my goings in thy pathes: that my footesteppes slip not.

6 I haue called vpon thee, O God, for thou shalt heare mee: encline thine eare to mee, and hearken vnto my wordes.

7 Shewe thy marueilous louing kindenesse, thou that art the Sauiour of them which put their trust in thee: from such as resist thy right hande.

8 Keepe mee as the apple of an eye: hide me vnder the shadowe of thy wings.

9 From the vngodly that trouble mee: mine enemies compasse mee rounde about, to take away my soule.

10 They are incloſed in their owne fatte: and their mouth speaketh proude things.

11 They lye waiting in our way on euery side: turning their eyes downe to the grounde.

12 Like as a lion þ is gredie of his pray: and as it were a lions whelpe lurking in secret places.

13 Vp Lord, disappoint him, and cast him downe: deliuer my soule from the vngodly, which is a sworde of thine.

14 From the men of thy hande, O Lorde, from the men I say, and from the euill worlde: which haue their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hid treasure.

15 They haue children at their desire: and leaue the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will behold thy presence in righteousnes: & when I awake vp after thy likenesse, I shalbe satisfied with it.

Diligam te. Psal. xviii.

1 I Will loue thee (O Lord) my strength, the Lord is my stonie rocke and my defence: my Sauiour, my God, and my might, in whom I will trust, my buckler, the horne also of my saluation, and my refuge. Euening prayer.

2 I will call vpon the Lord, which is worthie to be praised: so shall I bee safe from mine enemies.

3 The sorowes of death compassed mee: & the ouerflowings of vngodlinesse made me afraide.

4 The paines of hell came about mee: the snares of death ouertooke me.

5 In my trouble I will call vpon þ Lorde and complaine vnto my God.

6 So shal he heare my voice out of his holy temple: & my cōplaint shall come before him, it shall enter euen into his eares.

7 The earth trembled & quaked: the very foundations also of the hilles shooke & were remoued, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out of his presence: and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coales were kindled at it.

9 Hee bowed the heauens also and came downe: and it was darke vnder his feete.

10 He rode vpō þ Cherubims, & did flie: he came flying vpō the wings of þ winde.

11 He made darkenes his secret place: his pauilion round about him, with darke water and thicke cloudes to couer him.

12 At the brightnesse of his presence his clouds remoued: haile stones and coales of fire.

13 The Lord also thundred out of heauen, and the highest gaue his thunder: haile stones and coales of fire.

14 He sent out his arrowes, and scattered them: hee cast forth lightnings and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seene, & the foundations of the round world were discouered at thy chiding, O Lorde: at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

16 He shal sende downe from the high to fetch me: and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shal deliuer mee from my strongest enemie, and from them which hate me: for they are too mightie for me.

18 They preuented mee in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my vpholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of libertie: he brought me forth, euen because he had a fauour vnto mee.

20 The Lorde shall reward mee after my righteous dealing: according to þ cleanes of my hands shal he recompence me.

21 Because I haue kept the wayes of the Lord: and haue not forsaken my God as the wicked doeth.

22 For I haue an eye vnto all his lawes: and will not cast out his commaundements from me.

23 I was also vncorrupt before him: and eschewed mine owne wickednesse.

24 Therefore shal the Lord reward me after my righteous dealing: & according vnto the cleannes of my handes in his eye sight.

25 With the holy, thou shalt be holy: and with a perfect man, thou shalt be perfect.

26 With the cleane thou shalt be cleane: & with the frowarde, thou shalt learne frowardnesse.

27 For thou shalt saue the people that are in aduersitie: and shalt bring downe the high lookes of the proude.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle: the Lord my God shall make my darkenesse to be light.

29 For in thee I shall discomfite an hoste of men: and with the helpe of my God I shall leape ouer the wall.

30 The way of God is an vndefiled way: the worde of the Lord also is tryed in the fire, he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.

31 For who is God but the Lord: or who hath any strength except our God?

32 It is God þ girdeth me with strength of warre: and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feete like hearts feete: & setteth me vp on high.

34 He teacheth my handes to fight: and mine armes shall breake euen a bowe of steele.

35 Thou hast giuen me the defence of thy saluation: thy right hand also shall hold me vp, and thy louing correction shall make me great.

36 Thou shalt make roome enough vnder me for to goe: that my footesteppes shall not slide.

37 I will follow vpon mine enemies, and ouertake them: neither will I turne againe till I haue destroyed them.

38 I will smite them that they shall not be able to stand: but fall vnder my feete.

39 Thou hast girded me with strength vnto the battell: thou shalt throwe downe mine enemies vnder me.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turne their backes vpon me: and I shall destroy them that hate me.

41 They shall crye, but there shall be none to helpe them: yea, euen vnto the Lorde shall they crye, but hee shall not heare them.

42 I will beate them as small as the dust before the winde: I will cast them out as the clay in the streetes.

43 Thou shalt deliuer mee from the strivings of the people: and thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whome I haue not knowen: shall serue me.

45 Assoone as they heare of me, they shall obey me: but the strange childrē shal dissemble with mee.

46 The strange children shall faple: and be afraid out of their prisons.

47 The Lorde liueth, and blessed bee my strong helper: and praised be the God of my saluation.

48 Euen the God which seeth that I bee auenged: and subdueth the people vnto me.

49 It is hee that deliuereth mee from my (cruell) enemies, and setteth mee vp aboue mine aduersaries: thou shalt ridde mee from the wicked man.

50 For this cause will I giue thanks vnto thee (O Lord) among the Gentiles: & sing prayses vnto thy name.

51 Great prosperitie giueth hee vnto his king: and sheweth louing kindenesse vnto Dauid his anoynted, and vnto his seede for euermore.

Cœli enarrant. Psal. xix.

1 THe heauens declare the glorie of God: and the firmament sheweth his handie worke. Morning prayer.

2 One day telleth another: and one night certifieth another.

3 There is neither speache nor language: but their voices are heard among them.

4 Their sound is gone out into all landes: and their wordes into the endes of the world.

5 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sunne: which commeth forth as a bridegroome out of his chamber, and reioyceth as a Gyant to runne his course.

6 It goeth forth from the vttermost part of the heauen, and runneth about vnto the ende of it againe: and there is nothing hid from the heate thereof.

7 The law of the Lord is an vndefiled law, converting the soule: the testimonie of þ Lord is sure, and giueth wisedome vnto the simple.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, and reioyce the heart: the commandement of the Lord is pure, and giueth light vnto the eyes.

9 The feare of the Lord is cleane, and endureth for euer: the iudgemēts of þ Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they then golde, yea, then much fine golde: sweeter also then hony, and the hony combe.

11 Moreouer, by them is thy seruaunt taught: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth: O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13 Keepe thy seruant also from presumptuous sinnes, least they get the dominion ouer mee: so shall I be vndefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

14 Let the wordes of my mouth, and the meditatiō of my heart: be alway acceptable in thy sight.

15 O Lord: my strength, and my redeemer.

Exaudiat te Dominus. Psal. xx.

1 THe Lorde heare thee in the day of trouble: the name of the God of Iacob defend thee.

2 Send thee helpe from the Sanctuarie: & strength thee out of Sion.

3 Remember all thy offerings: and accept thy burnt sacrifice.

4 Graunt thee thy heartes desire: and fulfill all thy minde.

5 We

5 We will reioyce in thy saluation, and triumph in the name of ꝺ Lord our God: the Lord perfourme all thy petitions.
6 Now knowe I that the Lorde helpeth his anoynted, and will heare him from his holy heauen: euen with the wholsome strength of his right hand.
7 Some put their trust in Charets, and some in Horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.
8 They are brought downe & fallen: but we are risen, and stand vpright.
9 Saue Lorde, and heare vs, O King of heauen: when we call vpon thee.

Domine in virtute. Psal. xxi.

1 THe king shall reioyce in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy saluation.
2 Thou hast giuen him his hearts desire: and hast not denied him the request of his lips.
3 For thou shalt preuent him with the blessings of goodnes: and shalt set a crowne of pure golde vpon his head.
4 He asked life of thee, and thou gauest him a long life: euen for euer and euer.
5 His honour is great in thy saluation: glory and great worship shalt thou lay vpon him.
6 For thou shalt giue him euerlasting felicitie: and make him glad with the ioy of thy countenance.
7 And why? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord: and in the mercy of the most highest, he shall not miscary.
8 All thine enemies shall feele thy hand: thy right hand shall finde out them that hate thee.
9 Thou shalt make them like a fierie ouen in time of thy wrath: the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.
10 Their fruite shalt thou rote out of the earth: and their seede from among the children of men.
11 For they intended mischiefe against thee: and imagined such a deuice that they are not able to perfourme.
12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the stringes of thy bowe shalt thou make readie against the face of them.
13 Be thou exalted Lorde in thine owne strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

Deus Deus meus. Psal. xxii.

Euening prayer. 1 MY God, my God, (looke vpon mee) why hast thou forsaken me: and art so farre from my health, and from the words of my complaint?
2 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou heerest not: and in the night season also I take no rest.
3 And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel.
4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou diddest deliuer them.
5 They called vpon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.
6 But as for mee, I am a worme, and no man: a very scorne of men, and the outcast of the people.
7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorne: they shoote out their lippes, and shake their head, saying.
8 He trusted in God, that he would deliuer him: let him deliuer him, if hee will haue him.
9 But thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe: thou wast my hope when I hanged yet vpon my mothers breasts.
10 I haue bene left vnto thee euer since I was borne: thou art my God, euen from my mothers wombe.
11 O goe not from mee, for trouble is hard at hand: and there is none to helpe mee.
12 Many oxen are come about me: fat Buls of Basan close me in on euery side.
13 They gape vpon me with their mouthes: as it were a ramping and roaring lyon.
14 I am powred out like water, and all my bones are out of ioynt: my heart also in the middest of my body is euen like melting waxe.
15 My strength is dried vp like a pot shard, and my tongue cleaueth to my gummes: and thou shalt bring mee into the dust of death.
16 For (many) doggs are come about me: and the counsell of the wicked laieth siege against me.
17 They pearced my hands, and my feete, I may tell all my bones: they stand staring and looking vpon me.
18 They part my garments among them: and cast lots vpon my vesture.
19 But be not thou farre from me, O Lord: thou art my succour, haste thee to helpe mee.
20 Deliuer my soule from the swoorde: my darling from the power of the dogge.
21 Saue me from the Lyons mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the hornes of the Vnicornes.
22 I will declare thy name vnto my brethren: in the middest of the congregation will I praise thee.
23 O praise the Lorde yee that feare him: magnifie him all ye of the seede of Jacob, and feare him all ye seede of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred ꝺ lowe estate of the poore, he hath not hid his face from him: but when he called vnto him, he heard him.
25 My praise is of thee in the great congregation: my vowes will I perfourme in the sight of them that feare him.
26 The poore shall eate and bee satisfied: they that seeke after the Lord, shall praise him, your heart shall liue for euer.
27 All the endes of the worlde shall remember themselues, and be turned vnto the Lord: and all the kinreds of the nations shall worship before him.
28 For the kingdome is the Lordes: and he is the gouernour among the people.

29 All such as be fat vpon earth: haue eaten and worshipped.
30 All they that goe downe into the dust shall kneele before him: and no man hath quickened his owne soule.
31 My seede shall serue him: they shalbe counted vnto the Lord for a generation.
32 They shall come, and the heauens shall declare his righteousnesse: vnto a people that shalbe borne, whome the Lorde hath made.

Dominus regit me. Psal. xxiii.

1 THe Lord is my shepheard: therefore can I lacke nothing.
2 He shall fede me in a grene pasture: and leade me forth beside the waters of comfort.
3 He shall conuert my soule: and bring me forth in the pathes of righteousnesse, for his names sake.
4 Yea, though I walke thorowe the valley of the shadowe of death, I will feare no euill: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staffe comfort me.
5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me, against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oyle, and my cup shalbe full.
6 But thy louing kindnesse and mercie shall followe me all the dayes of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for euer.

Domini est terra. Psal. xxiiii.

Morning prayer.

1 THe earth is the Lordes, and all that therein is: the compasse of the world, and they that dwell therein.
2 For hee hath founded it vpon the seas: and prepared it vpon the floods.
3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lorde: or who shall rise vp in his holy place?
4 Euen he that hath cleane handes, and a pure heart: and that hath not lift vp his minde vnto vanitie, nor sworne to deceiue his neighbour.
5 Hee shall receiue the blessing from the Lord: and righteousnesse from the God of his saluation.
6 This is the generation of them that seeke him: euen of them that seeke thy face, O Jacob.
7 Lift vp your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift vp ye euerlasting doores: and the king of glory shall come in.
8 Who is the king of glory: it is the Lord strong and mighty, euen the Lord mighty in battell.
9 Lift vp your heades, O ye gates, and be ye lift vp ye euerlasting doores: and the king of glory shall come in.
10 Who is the king of glory: euen the Lord of hostes, he is the king of glory.

Ad te Domine. Psal. xxv.

1 VNto thee, O Lorde, will I lift vp my soule, my God, I haue put my trust in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph ouer me.
2 For all they that hope in thee shall not bee ashamed: but such as transgresse without a cause, shalbe put to confusion.
3 Shewe me thy wayes, O Lorde: and teach me thy pathes.
4 Leade me forth in thy truth, and learne me: for thou art the God of my saluation, in thee hath bene my hope all the day long.
5 Call to remembrance, O Lorde, thy tender mercies: and thy louing kindnes which haue bene euer of olde.
6 Oh remember not the sinnes and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercie thinke thou vpon mee (O Lorde) for thy goodnesse.
7 Gracious and righteous is the Lorde: therefore will hee teach sinners in the way.
8 Them that bee meeke shall hee guide in iudgement: and such as be gentle, them shall he learne his way.
9 All the pathes of the Lorde are mercie and truth: vnto such as keepe his couenant and his testimonies.
10 For thy names sake, O Lord: be mercifull vnto my sinne, for it is great.
11 What man is he that feareth the Lord: him shall he teach in the way that he shal choose.
12 His soule shall dwell at ease: and his seede shall inherite the land.
13 The secrete of the Lord is among them that feare him: and he will shewe them his couenant.
14 Mine eyes are euer looking vnto the Lord: for he shall plucke my feete out of the net.
15 Turne thee vnto me, and haue mercie vpon me: for I am desolate & in miserie.
16 The sorowes of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles.
17 Looke vpon mine aduersitie and miserie: and forgiue me all my sinne.
18 Consider mine enemies howe many they are: and they beare a tyrannous hate against me.
19 O keepe my soule, and deliuer mee: let mee not bee confounded, for I haue put my trust in thee.
20 Let perfectnes and righteous dealing waite vpon me: for my hope hath bene in thee.
21 Deliuer Israel, O God: out of all his troubles.

Iudica me domine. Psal. xxvi.

1 BE thou my iudge, O Lord, for I haue walked innocently: my trust hath bene also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.
2 Examine me, O Lorde, and proue mee: try out my reines and my heart.
3 For thy louing kindnes is euer before mine eyes: & I will walke in thy truth.
4 I haue not dwelt with vaine persons: neither will I haue fellowship with the deceitfull.
5 I haue hated the congregation of the wicked:

wicked: and will not sit among the vngodly.
6 I will wash my handes in innocencie, O Lorde: and so will I goe to thine altar.
7 That I may shew the voyce of thankesgiuing: and tell of all thy wonderous workes.
8 Lord, I haue loued the habitation of thy house: and the place where thine honour dwelleth.
9 O shut not vp my soule with the sinners: nor my life with the blood thirstie.
10 In whose handes is wickednesse: and their right hands are full of giftes.
11 But as for me, I will walke innocently: O Lorde deliuer me, and bee mercifull vnto me.
12 My foote standeth right: I will praise the Lord in the congregation.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. xxvii.

Euening prayer.

1 THe Lorde is my light and my saluation, whome then shall I feare? the Lorde is the strength of my life, of whome then shall I be afraide?
2 When the wicked (euen mine enemies and my foes) came vpon me to eate vp my flesh: they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an hoste of men were laide against me, yet shall not my heart bee afraid: and though there rose vp warre against me, yet wil I put my trust in him.
4 One thing haue I desired of the Lorde, which I will require: euen that I may dwell in the house of the Lorde all the dayes of my life: to behold þ faire beautie of the Lord, and to visite his temple.
5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall bee hide me, & set me vp vpon a rocke of stone.
6 And now shall bee lift vp mine head aboue mine enemies round about me.
7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladnesse: I will sing, and speake praises vnto the Lord.
8 Hearken vnto my voyce, O Lorde, when I cry vnto thee: haue mercie vpon mee, and heare me.
9 My heart hath talked of thee, seeke yee my face: thy face Lord will I seeke.
10 O hide not thou thy face fro mee: nor cast thy seruant away in displeasure.
11 Thou hast bene my succour: leaue mee not, neither forsake me, O God of my saluation.
12 When my father and my mother forsake me: the Lord taketh me vp.
13 Teach me thy way, O Lorde: and leade me in the right way, because of mine enemies.
14 Deliuer mee not ouer into the will of mine aduersaries: for there are false witnesses risen vp against me, and such as speake wrong.
15 I should vtterly haue fainted: but that I beleeue verily to see the goodnesse of þ Lord in the land of the liuing.
16 O tarie thou the Lordes leasure: be strong and bee shall comfort thine heart, & put thou thy trust in the Lord.

Ad te Domine. Psal. xxviii.

1 VNto thee will I crye, O Lorde, my strength: thinke no scorne of mee, least if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go downe into the pit.
2 Heare the voyce of my humble petitions when I cry vnto thee: when I hold vp my handes towarde the mercy seate of thy holy temple.
3 O plucke me not away (neither destroy mee) with the vngodly and wicked doers: which speake friendly to their neighbours, but imagine mischiefe in their hearts.
4 Reward thē according to their dedes: and according to the wickednes of their owne inuentions.
5 Recompence them after the worke of their handes: pay them that they haue deserued.
6 For they regarde not in their minde the workes of the Lord, nor the operation of his handes: therefore shal he breake them downe, and not build them vp.
7 Praised be the Lorde: for hee hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.
8 The Lord is my strength and my shield, my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart daunceth for ioy, and in my song will I praise him.
9 The Lord is my strength: and hee is the wholesome defence of his anointed.
10 O saue thy people, and giue thy blessing vnto thine inheritance: feede them, and set them vp for euer.

Afferte Domino. Psal. xxix.

1 BRing vnto the Lorde (O yee mightie) bring yoong rammes vnto the Lord: ascribe vnto the Lorde worship and strength.
2 Giue the Lord the honour due vnto his name: worship the Lord with holy worship.
3 It is the Lorde that commaundeth the waters: it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder.
4 It is the Lorde that ruleth the sea, the voyce of the Lord is mightie in operation: þ voice of þ Lord is a glorious voice.
5 The voice of the Lord breaketh the Cedartrées: yea, the Lorde breaketh the Cedars of Libanus.
6 He made them also to skippe like a calfe: Libanus also and Syrion like a young Vnicorne.
7 The voyce of the Lord deuideth þ flames of fire, the voyce of the Lord shaketh the wildernesse: yea, the Lorde shaketh the wildernesse of Cades.
8 The voyce of the Lorde maketh the Hindes to bring forth yong, and discouereth the thicke bushes: in his temple doth euery man speake of his honour.

9 The Lord sitteth above the water flood: and the Lord remaineth a king for euer.
10 The Lord shall giue strength vnto his people: the Lord shall giue his people the blessing of peace.

Exaltabote Domine. Psal. xxx.

Morning prayer.

1 I Will magnifie thée, O Lord, for thou hast set mee vp: and not made my foes to triumph ouer me.
2 O Lorde my God, I cryed vnto thee: and thou hast healed me.
3 Thou Lorde hast brought my soule out of hell: thou hast kept my life from them that goe downe to the pit.
4 Sing praises vnto the Lord (O ye saints of his:) and giue thanks to him for a remembrance of his holinesse.
5 For his wrath endureth but the twinckling of an eye, and in his pleasure is life: heauinesse may endure for a night, but ioy commeth in the morning.
6 And in my prosperitie I saide, I shall neuer be remoued: for O Lorde of thy goodnesse hadst made my hill so strong.
7 Thou diddest turne thy face (fro me:) and I was troubled.
8 Then cried I vnto thee, O Lorde: and gate me vnto my Lord right humbly.
9 What profite is there in my blood: whē I goe downe to the pit?
10 Shall the dust giue thankes vnto thee: or shall it declare thy trueth?
11 Heare, O Lorde, and haue mercy vpon mee: Lord be thou my helper.
12 Thou hast turned my heauinesse into ioy: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladnesse.
13 Therefore shall euery good man sing of thy praise without ceasing: O my God, I will giue thankes vnto thee for euer.

In te Domine speraui. Psal. xxxi.

1 In thée, O Lord, haue I put my trust: let me neuer be put to confusion, deliuer me in thy righteousnes.
2 Bowe downe thine eare to mee: make haste to deliuer me.
3 And bee thou my strong rocke, and the house of defence: that thou mayest saue me.
4 For thou art my strong rocke, and my castell: be thou also my guide, and leade me for thy names sake.
5 Draw me out of the net that they haue laide priuily for mee: for thou art my strength.
6 Into thy handes I commende my spirit: for thou hast redeemed me, O Lorde, thou God of trueth.
7 I haue hated them that holde of superstitious vanities: and my trust hath bene in the Lord.
8 I will bee glad, and reioyce in thy mercie: for thou hast considered my trouble, and hast knowen my soule in aduersities.
9 Thou hast not shut mee vp into the handes of the enemie: but hast set my féete in a large roume.
10 Haue mercie vpon me, O Lorde, for I am in trouble: and mine eye is consumed for verie heauines, yea, my soule, & my body.
11 For my life is waxen olde with heauinesse: and my yéeres with mourning.
12 My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquitie: & my bones are consumed.
13 I became a reproofe among all mine enemies, but specially among my neighbours: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me, & they that did sée me without, conueied themselues from me.
14 I am cleane forgotten, as a dead man out of minde: I am become like a broken vessell.
15 For I haue hearde the blasphemie of the multitude: and feare is on euery side, while they conspire together against me, & take their counsaile to take away my life.
16 But my hope hath bene in thee, O Lord: I haue said, Thou art my God.
17 My time is in thy hande, deliuer mée from the hande of mine enemies: and from them that persecute me.
18 Shew thy seruant the light of thy countenance: and saue mee for thy mercies sake.
19 Let me not bee confounded, O Lorde, for I haue called vpon thee: let the vngodly be put to confusion, and bee put to silence, in the grane.
20 Let the lying lippes bee put to silence: which cruelly, disdainefully, and despitefully speake against the righteous.
21 O how plentiful is thy goodnes, which thou hast layde vp for them that feare thée: and that thou hast prepared for thē that put their trust in thée, euen before the sonnes of men?
22 Thou shalt hide them priuily by thine owne presence, from the prouoking of al men: thou shalt keepe them secretely in thy tabernacle, from the strife of tongues.
23 Thankes be to the Lorde: for hee hath shewed mee marueilous great kindnes in a strong citie.
24 And when I made haste, I said, I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.
25 Neuertheles, thou heardest the voyce of my prayer: when I cried vnto thee.
26 O loue the Lorde all ye his saints: for the Lord preserueth them that are faithfull, & plenteously rewardeth the proude doer.
27 Be strong, & he shal stablish your heart: all ye that put your trust in the Lorde.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxii.

Euening prayer.

1 Blessed is he whose vnrighteousnesse is forgiuen: and whose sinne is couered.
2 Blessed is the man vnto whom the Lorde imputeth no sinne: and in whose spirite there is no guyle.

guile.
3 For while I held my tongue, my bones consumed away, through my daily complaining.
4 For thy hande is heauie vpon me day and night: and my moysture is like the drought in summer.
5 I will knowledge my sinne vnto thée: & mine vnrighteousnes haue I not hid.
6 I sayd, I will confesse my sinnes vnto the Lord: and so thou forgauest the wickednesse of my sinne.
7 For this shall euery one that is godly make his prayer vnto thée in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water floods they shall not come nigh him.
8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserue me from trouble: thou shalt compasse me about with songs of deliuerance.
9 I will enforme thée, and teach thée in the way wherein thou shalt goe: and I will guide thee with mine eye.
10 Be ye not like to horse and mule, which haue no vnderstanding: whose mouthes must be holden with bit and bridle, least they fall vpon thee.
11 Great plagues remaine for the vngodly: but who so putteth his trust in the Lorde, mercie embraceth him on euery side.
12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and reioyce in the Lorde: and bee ioyfull all ye that are true of heart.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxiii.

1 REioyce in the Lorde, O ye righteous: for it becommeth well the iust to be thankefull.
2 Prayse the Lorde with Harpe: sing Psalmes vnto him with the Lute, and instrument of ten strings.
3 Sing vnto the Lord a newe song: sing prayses lustily (vnto him) with a good courage.
4 For the word of the Lord is true: and all his workes are faithfull.
5 Hee loueth righteousnesse and iudgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the Lord.
6 By the word of the Lord were the heauens made: and all the hostes of them by the breath of his mouth.
7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together, as it were vpon an heape: and layeth vp the deepe as in a treasure house.
8 Let all the earth feare the Lord: stand in awe of him, all ye that dwell in the world.
9 For he spake, and it was done: he commanded and it stoode fast.
10 The Lorde bringeth the counsell of the heathen to nought: and maketh the deuises of the people to be of none effect, & casteth out the counsailes of Princes.
11 The counsaile of the Lord shall endure for euer: and the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.
12 Blessed are the people whose God is the Lorde Iehoua: and blessed are the folke that he hath chosen to him to bee his inheritance.
13 The Lorde looked downe from heauen, and beheld all the children of men: from the habitation of his dwelling, he considereth all them that dwell in the earth.
14 He fashioneth all the hearts of them: and vnderstandeth all their workes.
15 There is no king that can be saued by the multitude of an hoste: neither is any mightie man deliuered by much strength.
16 A horse is counted but a vaine thing to saue a man: neither shall he deliuer any man by his great strength.
17 Behold, the eye of the Lord is vpon the that feare him: and vpon them that put their trust in his mercie.
18 To deliuer their soules from death: & to feede them in the time of dearth.
19 Our soule hath patiently tarried for the Lord: for he is our helpe, and our shield.
20 For our heart shall reioyce in him: because we haue hoped in his holy name.
21 Let thy mercifull kindnesse (O Lorde) be vpon vs: like as we doe put our trust in thée.

Benedicam Domino. Psal. xxxiiii.

1 I Will alway giue thankes vnto the Lorde: his prayse shall euer bée in my mouth.
2 My soule shall make her boast of the Lorde: the humble shall heare thereof, and be glad.
3 O prayse the Lord with me: and let vs magnifie his name together.
4 I sought the Lord, & he heard me: yea, he deliuered me out of all my feare.
5 They had an eye vnto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.
6 Loe, the poore crieth, and the Lord heareth him: yea, and saueth him out of all his troubles.
7 The angell of the Lorde tarieth rounde about them that feare him: and deliuereth them.
8 O taste & see how gratious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
9 O feare the Lord ye that be his saints: for they that feare him, lacke nothing.
10 The lions do lacke, and suffer hunger: but they which seeke the Lord, shal want no maner of thing that is good.
11 Come ye children, and hearken vnto me: I will teach you the feare of the Lord.
12 What man is he that lusteth to liue, & would faine see good dayes: keepe thy tongue from euill, and thy lips that they speake no guile.
13 Eschewe euill, and do good: seeke peace, and ensue it.
14 The eyes of the Lorde are ouer the righteous: and his eares are open vnto their prayers.
15 The countenance of the Lord is against them that doe euill: to roote out the remembrance of them from the earth.
16 The righteous crie, & the Lord heareth them: and deliuereth them out of all their troubles.
17 The Lorde is nigh vnto them that are of

of a contrite heart: and will saue such as be of an humble spirit.

18 Great are the troubles of the righteous: but the Lorde deliuereth him out of all.

19 He keepeth all his bones: so that not one of them is broken.

20 But misfortune shall slay the vngodly: and they that hate the righteous, shalbe desolate.

21 The Lorde deliuereth the soules of his seruants: and all they that put their trust in him, shall not be destitute.

Iudica Domine. Psal. xxxv.

Morning prayer.

1 PLeade thou my cause, O Lorde, with them that striue with mee: and fight thou against them that fight against me.

2 Lay hand vpō the shield & buckler: and stand vp to helpe me.

3 Bring forth the speare, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

4 Let them be confounded, & put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backe, and brought to cōfusion, that imagine mischiefe for me.

5 Let them be as the dust before the winde: & the angel of the Lord scattering them.

6 Let their way be darke & slipperie: and let the angel of the Lord persecute them.

7 For they haue priuily layde their net to destroy me without a cause: yea, euen without a cause haue they made a pit for my soule.

8 Let a sudden destruction come vpon him vnawares, and his net that he hath laid priuily catch himselfe: that he may fall into his owne mischife.

9 And my soule be ioyfull in the Lord: it shall reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my bones shall say, Lorde, who is like vnto thee, which deliuerest the poore from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poore, & him that is in miserie, from him that spoyleth him.

11 False witnesse did rise vp: they laide to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me euill for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

13 Neuertheless, when they were sicke, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soule with fasting: and my prayer shal turne into mine owne bosome.

14 I behaued my selfe as though it had bene my friend, or my brother: I went heauily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine aduersitie they reioyced, and gathered them together: yea, the very abiects came together against me vnawares, making mowes at me and ceased not.

16 With the flatterers, were busie mockers: which gnashed vpon mee with their teeth.

17 Lord, howe long wilt thou looke vpon this: O deliuer my soule from the calamities which they bring on me, and my darling from the Lions.

18 So will I giue thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 O let not them that are mine enemies triumph ouer mee vngodly: neither let them winke with their eies that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitfull words against them that are quiet in the land.

21 They gaped on me with their mouths, and said: Fie on thee, fie on thee, we saw it with our eyes.

22 This thou hast seene, O Lord: hold not thy tongue then, goe not farre from me, O Lord.

23 Awake & stand vp to iudge my quarrel: auenge thou my cause, my God and my Lorde.

24 Iudge me, O Lord my God, according to thy righteousnesse: and let them not triumph ouer me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, There, there, so would wee haue it: neither let them say, We haue deuoured him.

26 Let them be put to confusion & shame together that reioyce at my trouble: let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonour, that boast themselues against me.

27 Let them bee glad and reioyce that fauour my righteous dealing: yea, let them say alway, Blessed bee the Lorde, which hath pleasure in the prosperitie of his seruant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shall be talking of thy righteousnesse: and of thy prayse all the day long.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. xxxvi.

1 MY heart sheweth me the wickednesse of the vngodly: that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himselfe in his owne sight: vntill his abominable sinne be found out.

3 The wordes of his mouth are vnrighteous, and full of deceyte: he hath left off to behaue himselfe wisely, and to doe good.

4 He imagineth mischiefe vpon his bed, and hath set himselfe in no good way: neither doeth he abhorre any thing that is euill.

5 Thy mercie (O Lord) reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy faithfulnesse vnto the cloudes.

6 Thy righteousnesse standeth like the strong mountaines: thy iudgements are like the great deepe.

7 Thou Lorde shalt saue both man and beast, how excellent is thy mercy, O God: and the children of men shall put their trust vnder the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be satisfied with the plenteousnes of thy house: and thou shalt giue them drinke of thy pleasures, as out of the riuer.

9 For with thee is the well of life: and in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue forth thy louing kindnesse vnto thē that know thee: and thy righteousnesse vnto them yᵗ are true of heart.
11 O let not the foote of pride come against me: and let not the hand of the vngodly cast me downe.
12 There are they fallen (all) that worke wickednesse: they are cast downe, and shall not be able to stande.

Noli æmulari. Psal. xxxvii.

Morning prayer.

1 FRet not thy selfe, because of the vngodly: neither bee thou enuious against the euill doers.
2 For they shall soone be cut downe like the grasse: and bee withered euen as the grene herbe.
3 Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and bee doing good: dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fedde.
4 Delight thou in the Lord: and he shall giue thee thy heartes desire.
5 Commit thy way vnto the Lorde, and put thy trust in him: and bee shall bring it to passe.
6 Yee shall make thy righteousnesse as cleare as the light: and thy iust dealing as the noone day.
7 Holde thee still in the Lorde, and abide patiently vpon him: but grieue not thy selfe at him whose way doeth prosper, against the man that doeth after euill counsailes.
8 Leaue off from wrath, and let goe displeasure: fret not thy selfe, else shalt thou be moued to do euill.
9 Wicked doers shalbe rooted out: and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherite the lande.
10 Yet a litle while, and the vngodly shal bee cleane gone: thou shalt looke after his place, and he shalbe away.
11 But the meeke spirited shal possesse the earth: and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.
12 The vngodly seeketh counsell against the iust: and gnasheth vpon him with his teeth.
13 The Lord shall laugh him to scorne: for he hath seene that his day is comming.
14 The vngodly haue drawen out the sword, and haue bent their bowe: to cast downe the poore and needy, and to slay such as be of a right conuersation.
15 Their sword shal go through their own heart: and their bowe shall be broken.
16 A small thing that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of ꝓ vngodly.
17 For the armes of ꝓ vngodly shalbe broken: & the Lord vpholdeth ꝓ righteous.
18 The Lorde knoweth the dayes of the godly: and their inheritance shall endure for euer.
19 They shall not bee confounded in the perilous time: & in the dayes of dearth they shall haue ynough.
20 As for the vngodly they shall perish, & the enemies of the Lord shal consume as the fat of lambes: yea, euē as the smoke shall they consume away.
21 The vngodly borroweth, and payeth not againe: but the righteous is mercifull and liberall.
22 Such as be blessed of God, shall possesse the lande: and they that bee cursed of him shall be rooted out.
23 The Lorde ordereth a good mans going: and maketh his way acceptable to himselfe.
24 Though he fal, ye shal not be cast away: for the Lorde vpholdeth him with his hand.
25 I haue bene yong, and nowe am olde: and yet sawe I neuer the righteous forsaken, nor his seede begging their bread.
26 The righteous is euer mercifull, and lendeth: and his seede is blessed.
27 Flee from euill, and doe the thing that is good: and dwell for euer more.
28 For the Lorde loueth the thing that is right: he forsaketh not his that be godly, but they are preserued for euer.
29 The righteous shalbe punished: as for the seed of ꝓ vngodly it shalbe rooted out.
30 The righteous shall inherite the land: and dwell therein for euer.
31 The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisedome: and his tongue will be talking of iudgement.
32 The law of his God is in his heart: & his goings shall not slide.
33 The vngodly seeth the righteous: and seeketh occasion to slay him.
34 The Lord will not leaue him in his hand: nor condemne him when he is iudged.
35 Hope thou in the Lorde, and keepe his way, and he shal promote thee, that thou shalt possesse the land: when the vngodly shall perish thou shalt see it.
36 I my selfe haue seene the vngodly in great power: & flourishing like a greene Bay tree.
37 And I went by, and lo he was gone: I sought him, but his place could no where be found.
38 Keepe innocencie, and take heede vnto the thing that is right: for that shall bring a man peace at the last.
39 As for the transgressours, they shal perish together: and the end of the vngodly is, they shalbe rooted out at the last.
40 But the saluation of the righteous cōmeth of the Lorde: which is also their strength in the time of trouble.
41 And the Lord shall stand by them, and saue them: he shal deliuer them from the vngodly, & shall saue them, because they put their trust in him.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. xxxviii.

1 PVt mee not to rebuke (O Lorde) in thine anger: neyther chasten mee in thy heauie displeasure. Morning prayer.
2 For thine arrowes sticke fast in me: and thy hande presseth mee sore.
3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure: neither is there any rest in in my bones, by reason of my sinne.

4 For my wickednesses are gone ouer my head: and are like a sore burden too heauie for me to beare.
5 My woundes stinke, and are corrupt: through my foolishnesse.
6 I am brought into so great trouble and miserie: that I go mourning all the day long.
7 For my loynes are filled with a sore disease: and there is no whole part vp my body.
8 I am feeble and sore smitten: I haue roared for the very disquietnesse of my heart.
9 Lorde, thou knowest all my desire: and my groning is not hid from thée.
10 My heart panteth, my strength hath fayled me: and the light of mine eyes is gone from me.
11 My louers and my neighbours did standde looking vpon my trouble: and my kinsemen stoode a farre off.
12 They also that sought after my life, layde snares for me: and they that went about to doe me euill, talked of wickednes, & imagined deceite all the day long.
13 As for me, I was like a deafe man, and heard not: and as one that is dumbe, which doeth not open his mouth.
14 I became euen as a man that heareth not: & in whose mouth are no reprooues.
15 For in thee, O Lorde, haue I put my trust: thou shalt answere for mee, O Lord my God.
16 I haue required that they (euen mine enemies) should not triumph ouer mee: for when my foote slipt, they reioyced greatly against me.
17 And I truely am set in the plague: and my heauinesse is euer in my sight.
18 For I will confesse my wickednes: and be sorie for my sinne.
19 But mine enemies line, and are mighty: and they that hate mee wrongfully, are many in number.
20 They also that rewarde euill for good, are against mee: because I followe the thing that good is.
21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God: bée not thou farre from me.
22 Haste thee to helpe me: O Lord God of my saluation.

Dixi, Custodiam, Psal. xxxix.

1 I Said, I will take heede to my wayes: that I offend not in my tongue.
2 I will keepe my mouth (as it were with a bridle:) while the vngodly is in my sight.
3 I helde my tongue and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea euen frō good words, but it was paine and griefe to me.
4 My heart was hote within mee, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: & at the last I spake with my tongue.
5 Lord, let me knowe mine ende, and the number of my dayes: that I may bée certified how long I haue to line.
6 Behold, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long: and mine age is euē as nothing in respect of thée, & verily euery man liuing is altogether vanitie.
7 For man walketh in a vaine shadowe, and disquieteth himselfe in vaine: he heapeth vp riches, and can not tell who shal gather them.
8 And nowe Lorde, what is my hope: truely my hope is euen in thee.
9 Deliuer me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke vnto the foolish.
10 I became dumbe, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.
11 Take thy plague away from me: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy heauy hand.
12 When thou with rebukes dost chastē man for sinne, thou makest his beautie to consume away like as it were a moth fretting a garment: euery man therefore is but vanitie.
13 Heare my prayer, O Lorde, and with thine eares consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my teares.
14 For I am a stranger with thée, & a sojourner: as all my fathers were.
15 Oh spare me a litle, that I may recouer my strength: before I go hence, and be no more seene.

Expectans expectaui. Psal. xl.

1 I Waited patiently for the Lord: and he enclined vnto me, & heard my calling.
2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the myre & clay: & set my féete vpon the rocke, and ordered my goings.
3 And hee hath put a newe song in my mouth: euen a thankes giuing vnto our God.
4 Many shall sée it, and feare: and shall put their trust in the Lord.
5 Blessed is that man that hath set his hope in the Lord: & turned not vnto the proude, and to such as go about with lyes.
6 O Lord my God, great are thy wonderous workes which thou hast done: like as be also thy thoughtes which are to vsward, and yet there is no man that ordereth them vnto thée.
7 If I would declare them and speake of them: they should be mo then I am able to expresse.
8 Sacrifice & meate offring thou wouldest not haue: but mine eares hast thou opened.
9 Burnt offrings & sacrifice for sinne hast thou not required: then said I, Lo, I come.
10 In the volume of the booke it is written of me, that I should fulfil thy will, O my God: I am content to do it, yea thy law is within my heart.
11 I haue declared thy righteousnesse in the great congregation: lo, I will not refraine my lippes, O Lorde, and that thou knowest.
12 I haue not hid thy righteousnesse within my heart: my talking hath bene of thy truety, and of thy saluation.
13 I haue not kept back thy louing mercie & truety: from the great congregatiō.
14 Withdrawe not thou thy mercy from me, O Lord: let thy louing kindnesse and thy truety alway preserue me.

15 For

15 For immerable troubles are come about me, my sinnes haue taken such hold vpon me, that I am not able to looke vp: yea, they are moe in number then the heares of my head, and my heart hath fayled me.
16 O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to deliuer me: make haste (O Lord) to helpe me.
17 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seeke after my soule to destroy it: let them be driue backward and put to rebuke that wish me euill.
18 Let them be desolate & rewarded with shame, that say vnto me: Fie vpon thee, fie vpon thee.
19 Let all those that seeke thee, bee ioyfull and glad in thee; and let such as loue thy saluation, say alway, The Lorde be praysed.
20 As for me, I am poore and needie: but the Lord careth for me.
21 Thou art my helper and redeemer: make no long tarying, O my God.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xli.

Euening prayer.

1 BLessed is hee that considereth the poore (and needie:) the Lord shall deliuer him in the time of trouble.
2 The Lorde preserue him and keepe him alme, that he may bee blessed vpō earth: and deliuer not thou him into the will of his enemies.
3 The Lorde comfort him when he lyeth sicke vpon his bedde: make thou all his bed in his sicknesse.
4 I sayde, Lorde be mercifull vnto mee: heale my soule, for I haue sinned against thee.
5 Mine enemies speake euill of me: when shall he die, and his name perish?
6 And if he come to see me, hee speaketh vanitie: and his heart conceiueth falsehood within himselfe, and when he commeth forth, he telleth it.
7 All mine enimies whisper together against me: euen against me do they imagine this euill.
8 Let the sentence of guiltinesse proceede against him: and nowe that he lyeth, let him rise vp no moze.
9 Yea, euen mine owne familiar friend whom I trusted: which did also eate of my bread, hath laid great wait for me.
10 But bee thou mercifull vnto mee, O Lord: raise thou me vp againe, and I shall reward them.
11 By this I knowe thou fauourest me: that mine enemie doeth not triumph against me.
12 And when I am in my health, thou vpholdest me: and shalt set mee before thy face for euer.
13 Blessed bee the Lorde God of Israel: world without ende. Amen.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xlii.

1 LIke as the heart desireth the water brookes: so longeth my soule after thee, O God.
2 My soule is a thirst for God, yea, euen for the liuing God: when shall I come to appeare before the presence of God?
3 My teares haue bene my meate day & night: while they daily say vnto mee, Where is now thy God?
4 Nowe when I thinke therevpon, I powre out my heart by my selfe: for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God.
5 In the voyce of praise and thanks giuing: among such as keepe holy day.
6 Why art thou so full of heauinesse (O my soule:) and why art thou so disquieted within me?
7 Put thy trust in God: for I will yet giue him thankes for the helpe of his countenance.
8 My God, my soule is vexed within me: therefore wil I remember thee, concerning the land of Iordan, and the little hill of Hermon.
9 One deepe calleth another, because of the noyse of the water pipes: all thy waues and stormes are gone ouer me.
10 The Lorde hath graunted his louing kindnesse on the day time: and in the night season did I sing of him, and made my prayer vnto the God of my life.
11 I wil say vnto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgotten me: why goe I thus heauily, while the enemie oppresseth me?
12 My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword: while mine enemies (that trouble me) cast me in the teeth.
13 Namely while they say daily vnto me: Where is now thy God?
14 Why art thou so vexed, O my soule: & why art thou so disquieted within me?
15 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet thanke him which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Iudica me Deus. Psal. xliii.

1 GIue sentence with me, O God, and defende my cause against the vngodly people: O deliuer me from the deceitfull and wicked man.
2 For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put mee from thee: and why goe I so heauily, while the enemie oppresseth me?
3 O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may leade me: and bring me vnto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.
4 And that I may goe vnto the altar of God, euen vnto the God of my ioy and gladnesse: and vpon the harpe wil I giue thankes vnto thee, O God, my God.
5 Why art thou so heauie, O my soule: & why art thou so disquieted within me?
6 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet giue him thankes, which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Deus auribus. Psal. xliiii.

1 WE haue heard with our eares, O God, our fathers haue told vs: what thou hast done in their time of olde. Morning prayer.

2 Howe

2 How thou hast driuen out the heathen with thy hande, and planted them in: how thou hast destroyed the nations, and cast them out.
3 For they gate not the land in possession through their owne sword: neither was it their owne arme that helped them.
4 But thy right hande and thine arme, and the light of thy countenance: because thou hadst a fauour vnto them.
5 Thou art my king (O God:) send helpe vnto Iacob.
6 Through thee will wee ouerthrowe our enemies: and in thy name will wee treade them vnder that rise vp against vs.
7 For I will not trust in my bow: it is not my sworde that shall helpe me.
8 But it is thou that sauest vs from our enemies: and puttest them to confusion that hate vs.
9 We make our boast of God al day long: and will praise thy name for euer.
10 But now thou art farre off, and puttest vs to confusion: and goest not forth with our armies.
11 Thou makest vs to turne our backes vpon our enemies: so that they which hate vs, spoyle our goods.
12 Thou lettest vs to bee eaten vp like sheepe: and hast scattered vs among the heathen.
13 Thou sellest thy people for nought: and takest no money for them.
14 Thou makest vs to bee rebuked of our neighbours: to be laughed to scorne, and had in derision of them that are round about vs.
15 Thou makest vs to be a byworde among the heathen: and that the people shake their heads at vs.
16 My confusion is daily before me: and the shame of my face hath couered me.
17 For the voyce of the slaunderer & blasphemer: for the enemie and auenger.
18 And though all this be come vpon vs, yet do we not forget thee: nor behaue our selues frowardly in thy couenant.
19 Our heart is not turned backe: neither our steppes gone out of thy way.
20 No not when thou hast smitten vs into the place of dragons: and couered vs with the shadow of death.
21 If we haue forgotten the name of our God, and holden vp our handes to any strange God: shall not God searche it out? for he knoweth the very secrets of the heart.
22 For thy sake also are we killed all the day long: and are counted as sheepe appointed to be slaine.
23 Vp Lord, why sleepest thou: awake and be not absent from vs for euer.
24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face: and forgettest our miserie and trouble?
25 For our soule is brought lowe, euen vnto the dust: our belly cleaueth vnto the ground.
26 Arise and helpe vs: and deliuer vs for thy mercies sake.

Eructauit cor meum. Psal. xlv.

1 My heart is inditing of a good matter: I speake of the things which I haue made vnto the king.
2 My tongue is the penne: of a readie writer.
3 Thou art fairer then the children of men: full of grace are thy lippes, because God hath blessed thee for euer.
4 Gyde thee with thy sworde vpon thy thigh, O thou most mightie: according to thy worship and renoumme.
5 Good lucke haue thou with thine honour: ride on, because of the worde of trueth, of meekenesse, and righteousnes, and thy right hande shall teach thee terrible things.
6 Thy arrowes are verie sharpe, and the people shall bee subdued vnto thee: euen in the middes among the kings enemies.
7 Thy seate (O God) endureth for euer: the scepter of thy kingdome is a right scepter.
8 Thou hast loued righteousnesse, and hated iniquitie: wherefore God (euen thy God) hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy fellowes.
9 All thy garments smell of Myrrhe, Aloes, and Cassia: out of the Iuorie palaces, whereby they haue made thee glad.
10 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: vpon thy right hand did stand the Quéene in a vesture of gold (wrought about with diuers colours.)
11 Hearken (O daughter) and consider, enclyne thine eare: forget also thine owne people, and thy fathers house.
12 So shall the king haue pleasure in thy beautie: for he is thy Lord (God) & worship thou him.
13 And the daughter of Tyre shalbe there with a gift: like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.
14 The kings daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.
15 She shall bee brought vnto the king in raimēt of needle worke: the virgins that be her fellowes shal beare her company, and shall be brought vnto thee.
16 With ioy and gladnesse shall they be brought: and shall enter into the kings palace.
17 In stead of thy fathers thou shalt haue children: whom thou maiest make princes in all lands.
18 I will remember thy name from one generation vnto another: therefore shall the people giue thankes vnto thee, world without ende.

Deus noster refugium. Psal. xlvi.

1 God is our hope and strength: a verie present helpe in trouble.
2 Therefore will not we feare though the earth be moued: & though the hilles be caried into the middes of the sea.
3 Though the waters thereof rage and swel: and though the mountaines shake at the tempest of the same.

4 The

4 The riuers of the flood thereof shall make glad the citie of God: the holy place of þ tabernacle of þ most highest.
5 God is in the middest of her, therefore shall she not be remoued: God shal helpe her, and that right early.
6 The heathen make much a do, and the kingdomes are moued: but God hath shewed his voyce, and the earth shall melt away.
7 The Lorde of hostes is with vs: the God of Jacob is our refuge.
8 O come hither, and beholde the workes of the Lorde: what destruction hee hath brought vpon the earth.
9 He maketh warres to cease in all the worlde: he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the speare in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.
10 Be still then, & knowe that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.
11 The Lord of hostes is with vs: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Omnes gentes plaudite. Psal. xlvii.

Euening prayer. 1 O Clappe your handes together, (all yee people:) O sing vnto God with the voice of melodie.
2 For the Lorde is high, and to be feared: hee is the great king vpon all the earth.
3 He shal subdue the the people vnder vs: and the nations vnder our feete.
4 He shal chuse out an heritage for vs: euen þ worship of Jacob whom he loued.
5 God is gone vp with a merry noise: and the Lorde with the sound of the trumpe.
6 O sing prayses, sing praises vnto (our) God: O sing prayses, sing prayses vnto our king.
7 For God is the king of all the earth: sing ye prayses with vnderstanding.
8 God raigneth ouer the heathen: God sitteth vpon his holy seate.
9 The princes of the people are ioyned vnto the people of the God of Abraham: for God (which is very hie exalted) doeth defende the earth as it were with a shielde.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xlviii.

1 Great is the Lord, and highly to be praysed: in the citie of our God, euen vpon his holy hill.
2 The hill of Sion is a fayre place, and the ioy of the whole earth: vpon the Northside lyeth the citie of the great king, God is well knowen in her palaces, as a sure refuge.
3 For loe, the kings of the earth: are gathered and gone by together.
4 They marueiled to see such things: they were astonied, and suddenly cast downe.
5 Feare came there vpon them, and sorowe: as vpon a woma in her trauaile.
6 Thou shalt breake the shippes of the Sea: through the East winde.
7 Like as we haue heard, so haue we seen in þ citie of þ Lord of hosts, in the citie of our God: God vpholdeth the same for euer.
8 Wee waite for thy louing kindnes (O God:) in the middes of thy temple.
9 O God, according vnto thy name, so is thy prayse vnto þ worlds end: thy right hand is full of righteousnesse.
10 Let the mount Sion reioyce, and the daughters of Juda bee glad: because of thy iudgements.
11 Walke about Sion, and goe rounde about her: and tell the towres thereof.
12 Marke well her bulwarkes, set vp her houses: þ ye may tel the that come after.
13 For this God is our God for euer and euer: he shalbe our guide vnto death.

Audite hæc omnes. Psal. xlix.

1 Heare ye this all ye people: ponder it with your eares al ye that dwel in the world.
2 High & low, rich & poore: one with another.
3 My mouth shall speake of wisedome: & my heart shall muse of vnderstanding.
4 I will encline mine eare vnto þ parable: & shew my darke speech vpon þ Harpe.
5 Wherefore should I feare in þ dayes of wickednesse: & when the wickednesse of my heeles compasseth me round about.
6 There be some that put their trust in their goods: and boast themselues in the multitude of their riches.
7 But no man may deliuer his brother: nor make agreement vnto God for him.
8 For it cost more to redeeme their soules: so that he must let that alone for euer.
9 Yea, though hee liue long: and see not the graue.
10 For he seeth that wise men also dye, & perish together: as wel as the ignorant & foolish, and leaue their riches for other.
11 And yet they thinke þ their houses shal continue for euer: and that their dwelling places shal endure from one generation to another, and call þ landes after their owne names.
12 Neuertheless, ma will not abide in honour: seeing he may be cõpared vnto the beasts þ perish, this is þ way of them.
13 This is their foolishnesse: and their posteritie prayse their saying.
14 They lie in the hell like sheepe, death gnaweth vpon them, and the righteous shall haue domination of the in the morning: their beautie shall consume, in the sepulchre out of their dwelling.
15 But God shal deliuer my soule from þ place of hell: for he shall receiue me.
16 Be not afraide though one bee made rich: or if þ glory of his house be increased.
17 For he shall carry nothing away with him when hee dyeth: neither shall his pompe followe him.
18 For while he liued, he counted himselfe an happy man: & so long as þ doest well vnto thy self, me will speake good of thee.
19 He shall followe the generation of his fathers: and shall neuer see light.
20 Man being in honour, hath no vnderstanding: but is compared vnto the beastes that perish.

Deus

Deus Deorum. Psal. L.

Morning prayer.

1 THe Lord, euen the most mightie God hath spoken: and called the world, from the rising up of the sunne, vnto the going downe thereof.

2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beautie.

3 Our God shall come, & shall not kéepe silence: there shall goe before him a consuming fire, and a mightie tempest shall be stirred up round about him.

4 Hee shall call the heauen from aboue: and the earth, that hee may iudge his people.

5 Gather my saintes together vnto me: those that haue made a couenant with me, with sacrifice.

6 And the heauens shall declare his righteousnesse: for GOD is iudge himselfe.

7 Heare, O my people, and I will speake: I my selfe will testifie against thee, O Israel, for I am God, euen thy God.

8 I will not reproue thée, because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt offerings: because they were not alway before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house: nor hée goates out of thy folds.

10 For all the beastes of the forest are mine: and so are the cattels vpō a thousand hilles.

11 I know all the fowles vpon the mountaines: and the wilde beastes of the field are in my sight.

12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thée: for the whole worlde is mine, and all that is therein.

13 Thinkest thou that I will eate Bulles flesh: and drinke the blood of goates?

14 Offer vnto God thanksgiuing: and pay thy vowes vnto the most highest.

15 And call vpon me in the time of trouble: so will I heare thée, and thou shalt praise me.

16 But vnto the vngodly said God: why doest thou preache my lawes, and takest my couenant in thy mouth?

17 Where as thou hatest to bee reformed: and hast cast my wordes behinde thée.

18 When thou sawest a thiefe, thou consentedst vnto him: and hast bene partaker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy mouth speake wickednes: and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.

20 Thou satest and spakest against thy brother: yea, and hast slaundered thine owne mothers sonne.

21 These things hast thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly that I am euen such a one as thy selfe: but I will reproue thée, and set before thee the things that thou hast done.

22 O consider this, yee that forget God: least I plucke you away, and there bee none to deliuer you.

23 Who so offereth me thankes & praise, he honoureth me: and to him that ordereth his conuersation right, will I shew the saluation of God.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal. li.

1 HAue mercie vpon me (O God) after thy great goodnesse: according vnto the multitude of thy mercies, doe away mine offences.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my wickednesse: and cleanse me from my sinne.

3 For I knowledge my faultes: and my sinne is euer before me.

4 Against thée onely haue I sinned, and done this euill in thy sight: that thou mightest be iustified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art iudged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sinne hath my mother conceiued mee.

6 But loe, thou requirest truth in the inward partes: and shalt make me to vnderstande wisedome secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge mee with Hyssope, & I shalbe cleane: thou shalt wash mee, & I shalbe whiter then snowe.

8 Thou shalt make me heare of ioye and gladnesse: that the bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

9 Turne thy face from my sinnes: and put out all my misdeedes.

10 Make me a cleane heart, O God: and renewe a right spirit within mée.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: & take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 O giue me the comfort of thy helpe againe: & stablish me with thy free spirit.

13 Then shall I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked: and sinners shall bee conuerted vnto thée.

14 Deliuer mee from bloodguiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousnesse.

15 Thou shalt open my lippes, (O Lord:) and my mouth shall shewe thy praise.

16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I giue it thée: but thou delightest not in burnt offerings.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirite: a broken and cōtrite heart (O God) shalt thou not despise.

18 O bee fauourable and gratious vnto Sion: buylde thou the walles of Hierusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousnesse, with the burnt offrings and oblations: then shall they offer yong bullockes vpon thine altar.

Quid gloriaris? Psal. lii.

1 WHy boastest thou thy selfe, thou tyrant: that thou canst doe mischiefe?

2 Where as the goodnes of God: endureth yet dayly.

3 Thy tongue imagineth wickednesse: and with lies thou cuttest like a sharpe rasor.

4 Thou hast loued vnrighteousnes more then goodnesse: and to talke of lyes more then then righteousnesse.

5 Thou hast loued to speake all wordes that may do hurt: O thou false tongue.

6 Therefore shall God destroy thee for ever: he shal take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling, and roote thee out of the land of the liuing.

7 The righteous also shall see this, and feare: and shall laugh him to scorne.

8 Loe, this is the man that tooke not God for his strength: but trusted vnto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himselfe in his wickednesse.

9 As for me, I am like a greene Olive tree in the house of God: my trust is in the tender mercy of God for euer and euer.

10 I will alwayes giue thankes vnto thee for that thou hast done: and I will hope in thy name, for thy saintes like it well.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. liii.

Euening prayer.

1 THe foolish body hath said in his heart: There is no God.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickednesse: there is none that doeth good.

3 God looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to see if there were any that would vnderstand, and seeke after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abhominable: there is also none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Are not they without vnderstanding that worke wickednesse: eating vp my people as if they would eate bread? they haue not called vpon God.

6 They were afrayde where no feare was: for GOD hath broken the bones of him that besieged thee, thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

7 Oh that the saluation were giuen vnto Israel out of Sion: oh that the Lorde would deliuer his people out of captiuitie.

8 Then should Iacob reioyce: and Israell should be right glad.

Deus in nomine. Psal. liiii.

1 SAue me, O God, for thy names sake: and auenge me in thy strength.

2 Heare my prayer, O God: and hearken vnto the wordes of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen vp against me: and tyrantes (which haue not God before their eyes) seeke after my soule.

4 Behold, God is my helper: the Lord is with them that vpholde my soule.

5 He shall reward euill vnto mine enemies: destroy thou them in thy trueth.

6 An offering of a free heart will I giue thee, and prayse thy name (O Lord:) because it is so comfortable.

7 For he hath deliuered me out of all my trouble: and mine eye hath seene his desire vpon mine enemies.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. lv.

1 HEare my prayer, O God: and hide not thy selfe from my petition.

2 Take heede vnto me, and heare me: how I mourne in my prayer, and am vexed.

3 The enemy crieth so, and the vngodly commeth on so fast: for they are minded to do me some mischiefe, so maliciously are they set against me.

4 My heart is disquieted within me: and the feare of death is fallen vpon me.

5 Fearefulnes and trembling are come vpon me: and an horrible dread hath ouerwhelmed me.

6 And I said, O that I had wings like a doue: for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I get me away farre off: and remaine in the wildernesse.

8 I would make haste to escape: because of the stormie winde and tempest.

9 Destroy their tongues (O Lord) and deuide them: for I haue spyed vnrighteousnesse, and strife in the citie.

10 Day and night they goe about within the walles thereof: mischiefe also and sorowe are in the middes of it.

11 Wickednesse is therein: deceite & guyle go not out of their stretes.

12 For it is not an open enemie that hath done me this dishonour: for then I could haue borne it.

13 Neither was it mine aduersary that did magnifie himselfe against mee: for then (peraduenture) I would haue hid my selfe from him.

14 But it was euen thou my companione my guyde, & mine owne familiar friend.

15 We tooke sweete counsell together: and walked in the house of God as friendes.

16 Let death come hastily vpon them, and let them goe downe quicke into hell: for wickednes is in their dwellings, and among them.

17 As for me, I will call vpon God: and the Lord shall saue me.

18 In the euening and morning, and at noone day will I pray, and that instantly: and he shall heare my voyce.

19 It is he that hath deliuered my soule in peace, from the battell that was against me: for there were many with me.

20 Yea, euen God that endureth for euer shall heare me, and bring them downe: for they will not turne, nor feare God.

21 He layde his hands vpon such as be at peace with him: and he brake his couenant.

22 The wordes of his mouth were softer then butter, hauing warre in his heart: his wordes were smoother then oyle, and yet be they very swordes.

23 O cast thy burden vpon the Lorde, and he shall nourish thee: and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for euer.

24 And as for them: thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.

25 The bloodthirstie and deceitfull men shall not liue out halfe their dayes: nei-helpe, uertheleſſe, my truſt ſhall bée in thée, O Lord.

Miſerere mei Deus. Pſal. lvi.

Morning prayer.

1 BE mercifull vnto mée, O God, for man goeth about to deuoure me: he is dayly fighting and troubling me.

2 Mine enemies are dayly in hand to ſwallowe mée vp: for they bée many that fight againſt mee, O thou moſt higheſt.

3 Neuertheleſſe, though I am ſometime afrayde: yet put I my truſt in thée.

4 I will prayſe God becauſe of his word: I haue put my truſt in God, and will not feare what fleſh can do vnto me.

5 They dayly miſtake my wordes: al that they imagine, is to do me euill.

6 They hold al together, and keepe themſelues cloſe: and marke my ſteps, when they lay in wayte for my ſoule.

7 Shall they eſcape for their wickednelle: thou (O God) in thy diſpleaſure ſhalt caſt them downe.

8 Thou telleſt my flittings, put my teares into thy bottell: are not theſe things noted in thy booke?

9 Whenſoeuer I call vpon thée, then ſhal mine enemies bee put to flight: this I knowe, for God is on my ſide.

10 In Gods worde will I reioyce: in the Lords word will I comfort me.

11 Yea in GOD haue I put my truſt: I will not be afraide what man can do vnto me.

12 Vnto thée (O God) will I pay my vowes: vnto thée will I giue thankes.

13 For thou haſt deliuered my ſoule from death, and my féete from falling: that I may walke before God in the light of the liuing.

Miſerere mei Deus. Pſal. lvii.

1 BE merciful vnto me, O God, be merciful vnto mee, for my ſoule truſteth in thée: and vnder the ſhadow of thy wings ſhall be my refuge, vntill this tyranne be ouerpaſt.

2 I will call vnto the moſt high GOD: euen vnto the God that ſhall perfourme the cauſe which I haue in hand.

3 Hée ſhall ſende from heauen: and ſaue me from the reproche of him that would eate me vp.

4 God ſhall ſende forth his mercie and truetb: my ſoule is among Lions.

5 And I lie euen among the children of men (that are ſet on fire:) whoſe teeth are ſpeares and arrowes, and their tongue a ſharpe ſworde.

6 Set vp thy ſelfe, O God, aboue the heauens: and thy glory aboue all the earth.

7 They haue layd a net for my féete, and preſſed downe my ſoule: they haue digged a pit before mee, and are fallen into the middes of it themſelues.

8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will ſing and giue prayſe.

9 Awake vp my glory, awake lute and harpe: I my ſelfe will awake right early.

10 I will giue thankes vnto thee, O Lord, among the people: and I will ſing vnto thée among the nations.

11 For thy greatneſſe of thy mercy reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy truetb vnto the cloudes.

12 Set vp thy ſelfe, O God, aboue the heauens: and thy glory aboue all the earth.

Si vere vtique. Pſal. lviii.

1 ARe your mindes ſet vpon righteouſneſſe, O ye congregation: and do ye iudge the thing that is right, O ye ſonnes of men?

2 Yea, ye imagine miſchiefe in your heart vpon the earth: and your hands deale with wickednelle.

3 The vngodly are frowarde euen from their mothers wombe: aſſoone as they bee borne they goe aſtray, and ſpeake lyes.

4 They are as venemous as the poyſon of a Serpent: euen like the deafe Adder that ſtoppeth her eares.

5 Which refuſeth to heare the voyce of the charmer: charme he neuer ſo wiſely.

6 Breake their teethe (O God) in their mouthes, ſmite the chawe bones of the Lions, O Lorde: let them fall away like water that runneth a pace, and when they ſhoote their arrowes, let them bée rooted out.

7 Let them conſume away like a ſnayle, and be like the vntimely fruite of a woman: and let them not ſee the Sunne.

8 Or euer your pottes bée made hote with thornes: ſo let indignation vexe him, euen as a thing that is rawe.

9 The righteous ſhall reioyce when hée ſeeth the vengeance: hee ſhall waſh his footeſteps in the blood of the vngodly.

10 So that a man ſhall ſay, Verely there is a reward for the righteous: doubtleſſe there is a God that iudgeth the earth.

Eripe me de inimicis. Pſal. lix.

Euening prayer.

1 DEliuer me from mine enemies, (O God:) defend me from them that ryſe vp againſt me.

O deliuer me from the wicked doers: and ſaue mée from the bloodthirſtie men.

3 For loe, they lye wayting for my ſoule: the mightie men are gathered againſt mée, without any offence or fault of me, O Lord.

4 They runne and prepare them ſelues without my fault: ariſe thou therefore to helpe me, and behold.

5 Stande vp (O Lord God of hoſtes) thou God of Iſrael, to viſite all the heathen: and be not merciful vnto them that offend of malicious wickednelle.

6 They go to and fro in the euening: they grinne like a dog, and run about through the citie.

7 Behold, they ſpeake with their mouth, and ſwordes are in their lippes: for who doeth heare?

8 But

8 But thou, O Lorde, shalt haue them in derision: & thou shalt laugh all the Heathen to scorne.
9 My strength will I ascribe vnto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge.
10 God sheweth me his goodnesse plentifully: and God shall let me see my desire vpon mine enemies.
11 Slay them not, least my people forget it: but scatter them abroad among the people, and put them downe, O Lorde, our defence.
12 For the sinne of their mouth, and for the wordes of their lippes, they shalbe taken in their pride: & why? their preaching is of cursing and lies.
13 Consume them in thy wrath, consume them, that they may perish: and knowe that it is God which ruleth in Iacob, & vnto the endes of the worlde.
14 And in the euening they will returne: grin like a dogge, and will goe about the citie.
15 They will runne here and there for meate: and grudge if they bee not satisfied.
16 As for me, I will sing of thy power, and will praise thy mercie betimes in the morning: for thou hast bene my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.
17 Vnto thee (O my strength) will I sing: for thou, O God, art my refuge, and my mercifull God.

Deus repulisti nos. Psal. lx.

1 O God, thou hast cast vs out, & scattered vs abroad: thou hast also bene displeased, O turne thee vnto vs againe.
2 Thou hast mooued the lande, and deuided it: heale the clefes thereof, for it shaketh.
3 Thou hast shewed thy people heauie things: thou hast giuen vs a drinke of deadly wine.
4 Thou hast giuen a token for such as feare thee: that they may triumph because of the trueth.
5 Therefore were thy beloued deliuered: helpe me with thy right hand, and heare me.
6 God hath spoken in his holinesse, I will reioyce and deuide Sichem: and mete out the valley of Sucoth.
7 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head, Iuda is my lawgiuer.
8 Moab is my washpot, ouer Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia bee thou glad of me.
9 Who will leade me into the strong citie: who will bring me into Edom?
10 Hast thou not cast vs out, O God: wilt not thou, O God, goe out with our hostes?
11 O be thou our help in trouble: for vaine is the helpe of man.
12 Through God shall we doe great acts: for it is he that shal treade downe our enemies.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. lxi.

1 Heare my crying, O God: giue eare vnto my prayer.
2 From the endes of the earth will I call vnto thee: when my heart is in heauinesse.
3 O set me vp vpon the rocke that is higher then I: for thou hast bene my hope, and a strong towre for mee against the enemie.
4 I will dwel in thy tabernacle for euer: & my trust shalbe vnder the couering of thy wings.
5 For thou, O Lorde, hast hearde my desires: and hast giuen an heritage vnto those that feare thy name.
6 Thou shalt graunt the king a long life: that his yeeres may endure throughout all generations.
7 Hee shall dwel before God for euer: O prepare thy louing mercie and faithfulnesse, that they may preserue him.
8 So will I alwayes sing prayse vnto thy name: that I may daily performe my vowes.

Nonne Deo. Psal. lxii.

1 MY soule truely waiteth still vpon God: for of him cometh my saluation. Morning prayer.
2 He verily is my strength and my saluation: he is my defence, so that I shal not greatly fall.
3 How long will yee imagine mischiefe against euery man? ye shalbe slayne all the sort of you, yea as a tottering wall shall ye be, and like a broken hedge.
4 Their deuice is only howe to put him out whom God will exalt: their delight is in lies, they giue good wordes with their mouth, but curse with their heart.
5 Neuertheles, my soule waite thou still vpon God: for my hope is in him.
6 He truely is my strength and my saluation: he is my defence, so that I shall not fall.
7 In God is my health & my glory: the rocke of my might, & in God is my trust.
8 O put your trust in him alway (ye people:) powre out your hearts before him, for God is our hope.
9 As for the children of men, they are but vaine: the children of men are deceitfull vpon the weights, they are altogether lighter then vanitie it selfe.
10 O trust not in wrong and robberie, giue not your selues vnto vanitie: if riches encrease, let not your heart vpon them.
11 God spake once and twise: I haue also hearde the same, that power belongeth vnto God.
12 And that thou Lord art mercifull: for thou rewardest euery man according to his worke.

Deus Deus meus. Psal. lxiii.

1 O God, thou art my God: early will I seeke thee.
2 My soule thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee: in a barren and drie lande, where no water is.

3 Thus haue I looked for thee in holines: that I might behold thy power & glory.
4 For thy louing kindenesse is better then the life it selfe: my lips shal prayse thee.
5 As long as I liue will I magnifie thee on this maner: and lift vp my handes in thy name.
6 My soule shall bee satisfied euen as it were with marrowe and fatnesse: when my mouth prayseth thee with ioyfull lippes.
7 Haue I not remembred thee in my bed: & thought vpon thee when I was waking?
8 Because thou hast bene my helper: therfore vnder the shadow of thy wings wil I reioyce.
9 My soule hangeth vpon thee: thy right hande hath vpholden me.
10 Thefe also that seeke the hurt of my soule: they shall goe vnder the earth.
11 Let them fall vpon the edge of the sword: that they may bee a portion for foxes.
12 But the king shal reioyce in God, al they also that sweare by him, shal be commended: for the mouth of them that speake lies, shalbe stopped.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. lxiiii.

1 HEare my voyce, O God, in my prayer: preserue my life from feare of the enemie.
2 Hide me from the gathering together of the frowarde: and from the insurrection of wicked doers,
3 Which haue whet their tongue like a sword: and shoote out their arrowes, euen bitter wordes.
4 That they may priuily shoote at him which is perfect: suddenly doe they hit him, and feare not.
5 They courage themselues in mischiefe: & commune among themselues how they may lay snares, and say that no man shal see them.
6 They imagine wickednesse & practise it: that they keepe secret among themselues, euery man in the deepe of his heart.
7 But God shall suddenly shoote at them with a swift arrowe: that they shalbe wounded.
8 Yea, their owne tongues shall make the fall: insomuch that who so seeth them, shall laugh them to scorne.
9 And all men that see it, shall say, This hath God done: for they shall perceiue that it is his worke.
10 The righteous shal reioyce in the Lord, & put his trust in him: and all they that are true of heart, shalbe glad.

Te decet hymnus. Psal. lxv.

Euening prayer.

1 THou, O God, art praysed in Sion: and vnto thee shall the vowe be performed in Hierusalem.
2 Thou that hearest the prayer: vnto thee shall al flesh come.
3 My misdeedes preuaile against me: oh be thou merciful vnto our sinnes.
4 Blessed is the man whome thou chusest and receiuest vnto thee: hee shal dwell in thy court, and shalbe satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, euen of thy holy temple.
5 Thou shalt shewe vs wonderfull things in thy righteousnesse, O God of our saluation: thou that art the hope of all the endes of the earth, and of them that remaine in the broad sea.
6 Which in his strength setteth fast the mountaines: and is girded about with power,
7 Which stilleth the raging of the sea: and the noise of his waues, and the madnes of his people.
8 They also that dwell in the vttermost parts of the earth, shalbe afraide at thy tokens: thou that makest the outgoings of the morning and euening to prayse thee.
9 Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it: & makest it very plenteous.
10 The riuer of God is full of water: thou preparest their corne, for so thou prouidest for the earth.
11 Thou waterest her furrowes, thou sendest rayne into the litle valleyes thereof: thou makest it soft with the droppes of rayne, and blessest the encrease of it.
12 Thou crownest the yeere with thy goodnes: and thy cloudes drop fatnesse.
13 They shal droppe vpon the dwellings of the wildernes: and the litle hilles shal reioyce on euery side.
14 The foldes shall bee full of sheepe: the valleyes also shall stande so thicke with corne, that they shall laugh and sing.

Iubilate Deo. Psal. lxvi.

1 OBe ioyfull in God, all ye landes: sing prayses vnto the honour of his name, make his prayse to be glorious.
2 Say vnto God, O howe wonderfull art thou in thy workes: through the greatnes of thy power shall thine enemies be found lyers vnto thee.
3 For al the world shal worship thee: sing of thee, and prayse thy name.
4 O come hither, and beholde the workes of God: howe wonderfull hee is in his doing toward the children of men.
5 Hee turned the sea into drie lande: so that they went through the water on foote, there did we reioyce thereof.
6 He ruleth with his power for euer, his eyes behold the people: and such as will not beleeue, shall not bee able to exalt themselues.
7 O prayse our God (ye people:) and make the voice of his praise to be heard.
8 Which holdeth our soule in life: and suffereth not our feete to slip.
9 For thou (O God) hast proued vs: thou also hast tried vs, like as siluer is tried.
10 Thou broughtest vs into the snare: and layedst trouble vpon our lopnes.
11 Thou sufferedst men to ride ouer our heads: we went through fire and water,

and

and thou broughtest vs out into a wealthy place.

13 I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: and will pay thee my vowes which I haue promised with my lippes, and spake with my mouth when I was in trouble.

14 I will offer vnto thee fat burnt sacrifices, with the incense of rammes: I will offer bullockes and goates.

15 O come hither and hearken all yee that feare God: and I will tell you what hee hath done for my soule.

16 I called vnto him with my mouth: and gaue him praises with my tongue.

17 If I imagine vnto wickednes with my heart: the Lord will not heare mee.

18 But God hath heard me: and considered the voyce of my prayer.

19 Praysed be GOD, which hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercie from mee.

Deus misereatur. Psal. lxvii.

1 GOd be mercifull vnto vs, and bless vs: and shewe vs the light of his countenance, & be merciful vnto vs.

2 That thy way may bee knowen vpon earth: thy saluing health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations reioyce and bee glad, for thou shalt iudge the folke righteously: and gouerne the nations vpō the earth.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shal the earth bring forth her encrease: and GOD, euen our owne God, shall giue vs his blessing.

7 God shall bless vs: and all the endes of the world shal feare him.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. lxviii.

Morning prayer.

1 LEt God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him, flee before him.

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou driue them away: and like as waxe melteth at the fire, so let the vngodly perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous bee glad and reioyce before God: let them also be merry and ioyfull.

4 O sing vnto God, and sing prayses vnto his name: magnifie him that rideth vpon the heauens as it were vpon an horse, praise him in his name, yea, and reioyce before him.

5 He is a father of the fatherlesse, and defendeth the cause of the widowes: euen God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to bee of one minde in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captiuitie: but letteth the runnagates continue in scarcenesse.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people: when thou wentest through the wildernesse.

8 The earth shooke, and p heauens dropped at the presence of God: euen as Sinai also was moued at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious raine vpon thine inheritance: and refreshedst it when it was wearie.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell therein: for thou, O GOD, hast of thy goodnesse prepared for the poore.

11 The Lorde gaue the worde: great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited: and they of the house bode deuided the spoyle.

13 Though ye haue lyen among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a Doue: that is couered with siluer wings, and her feathers like golde.

14 When the almightie scattered kings for their sake: then were they as white as snowe in Salmon.

15 As the hill of Basan, so is Gods hill: euen an high hill, as the hill of Basan.

16 Why hop ye so ye high hilles? this is Gods hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell: yea, the Lorde will abide in it for euer.

17 The charets of God are twentie thousande, euen thousands of angels: and the Lord is among them as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone vp on high, thou hast led the captiuitie captiue, and receiued gifts for men: yea, euen for thy enemies, that the Lorde God might dwell among them.

19 Praysed be the Lorde daily: euen the God which helpeth vs, and powreth his benefites vpon vs.

20 He is our God, euen the God of whom commeth saluation: God is the Lord, by whome we escape death.

21 God shall wounde the head of his enemies: and the hearie scalpe of such a one as goeth on still in his wickednesse.

22 The Lord hath sayde, I will bring my people againe, as I did from Basan: mine owne will I bring againe, as I did sometime from the deepe of the sea.

23 That thy foote may bee dipped in the blood of thine enemies: & that the tongue of thy dogges may bee red through the same.

24 It is well seene, O GOD, howe thou goest: how thou my God and king goest in the sanctuarie.

25 The singers goe before, the minstrels followe after: in the middest are the damosels playing with the tymbrels.

26 Giue thankes, O Israel, vnto God the Lorde in the congregations: from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Beniamin their ruler, and the princes of Iuda their counsell: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nepthali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee: stablish the thing, O GOD, that thou hast wrought in vs.

29 For thy Temples sake at Ierusalem: so shall kings bring presents vnto thee.

30 When the companie of the spearemen, and multitude of the mightie, are scattered abroad among the beastes of the people (so that they humbly bring pieces of siluer:) and when hee hath scattered the people that delight in warre.

31 Then shall the princes come out of Egypt: the Morians lande shall soone stretch out her hands vnto God.

32 Sing vnto God, O yee kingdomes of the earth: O sing prayses vnto the Lord.

33 Which ſtreeth in the heauens ouer all from the beginning: lo, he doth send out his voyce, yea, and that a mightie voyce.

34 Ascribe ye the power to God ouer Israel: his worship and strength is in the cloudes.

35 O God, wonderfull art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, he will giue strength and power vnto his people, blessed be God.

Saluum me fac. Psal. lxix.

Euening prayer.

1 SAue mee, O God: for the waters are come in, euen vnto my soule.

2 I ſticke fast in the deepe mire where no ground is: I am come into deepe waters, so that the floods runne ouer me.

3 I am weary of crying, my throte is dry: my sight faileth mee for waiting so long vpon my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause, are moe then the heares of my head: they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guiltlesse, are mightie.

5 I payd them the things that I neuer tooke: O GOD thou knowest my simplenesse, and my faultes are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lorde God of hostes, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee, be confounded through me, O Lord God of Israel.

7 And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath couered my face.

8 I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an aliant vnto my mothers children.

9 For the zeale of thy house hath euen eaten me: and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.

10 I wept and chastened my selfe with fasting: and that was turned to my reproofe.

11 I put on a sackcloth also: and they iested vpon me.

12 They that sit in the gate speake against mee: and the drunkards make songs vpon me.

13 But Lorde I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable time.

14 Heare mee, O God, in the multitude of thy mercie: euen in the trueth of thy saluation.

15 Take mee out of the mire, that I ſinke not: oh let mee bee deliuered from them that hate mee, and out of the deepe waters.

16 Let not the water flood drowne me, neither let the deepe swallowe me vp: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.

17 Heare me, O Lord, for thy louing kindnes is comfortable: turne thee vnto mee, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee, and heare me.

19 Drawe nigh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer mee, because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast knowen my reproofe, my shame, and my dishonour: mine aduersaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heauinesse: I looked for some to haue pitie on mee, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gaue me gall to eate: and when I was thirstie, they gaue me vineger to drinke.

23 Let their table bee made a snare to take themselues withall: and let the things (that should haue bene for their wealth) be vnto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes bee blinded that they see not: and euer bowe downe their backes.

25 Powre out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathfull displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be voyde: and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whome thou hast smitten: and they talke howe they may vexe them whom thou hast wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickednesse to another: and not come into thy righteousnesse.

29 Let them be wiped out of the booke of the liuing: and not bee written among the righteous.

30 As for mee, when I am poore and in heauinesse: thy helpe (O God) shall lift me vp.

31 I will prayse the name of God with a song: and magnifie it with thanksgiuing.

32 This also shall please the Lorde: better then a bullocke, that hath hornes and hoofes.

33 The humble shall consider this, and be glad: seeke ye after God, and your soule shall liue.

34 For the Lorde heareth the poore: and despiseth not his prisoners.

35 Let heauen and earth prayse him: the sea and all that moueth therein.

36 For God will saue Sion, and builde the cities of Iuda: that men may dwell there, and haue it in possession.

37 The posteritie also of his seruantes shall inherit it: and they that loue his name shall dwell therein.

Deus

Deus in adiutorium. Psal.lxx.

1 HAste thée, O God, to deliuer mee: make haste to helpe me, O Lord.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backeward and put to confusion that wish me euill.

3 Let them (for their reward) bee soone brought to shame: that crye ouer me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seeke thée, bee ioyfull and glad in thee: and let all such as delight in thy saluation, say alway, The Lord be praysed.

5 As for mee, I am poore and in miserie: haste thee vnto me (O God.)

6 Thou art my helper, and my redeemer: O Lord make no long tarying.

In te Domine speraui. Psal.lxxi.

Morning prayer.

1 IN thée, O Lord, haue I put my trust, let me neuer bee put to confusion: but rid mee, and deliuer me in thy righteousnesse, incline thine eare vnto me, and saue me.

2 Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to helpe me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

3 Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hand of the vngodly: out of the hande of the vnrighteous and cruel man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing þ I long for: thou art my hope, euen from my youth.

5 Through thee haue I bene holden vp euer since I was borne: thou art hee that tooke mee out of my mothers wombe, my prayse shalbe alway of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monster vnto many: but my sure trust is in thée.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: (that I may sing of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

8 Cast me not away in þ time of age: forsake mee not when my strength faileth mee.

9 For mine enemies speake against me, & they that lay waite for my soule, take their counsell together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, & take him, for there is none to deliuer him.

10 Goe not farre from mee, O God: my God, haste thee to helpe me.

11 Let thē be confounded and perish, that are against my soule: let them bee couered with shame & dishonour, that seeke to do me euill.

12 As for me, I wil patiently abide alway: and will prayse thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall daily speake of thy righteousnesse and saluation: for I know no ende thereof.

14 I will goe forth in the strength of the Lord God: and wil make mention of thy righteousnes onely.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth vp vntil nowe: therefore will I tell of thy wonderous workes.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in mine olde age, when I am gray headed: vntil I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to al them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteousnesse, O God, is very high: and great thinges are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like vnto thee?

18 O what great troubles and aduersities hast thou shewed me, and yet diddest thou turne & refresh me: yea, & broughtest mée from the deepe of the earth againe.

19 Thou hast brought mee to great honour: and comforted me on euery side.

20 Therefore will I prayse thee and thy faithfulnesse (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musicke: vnto thee will I sing vpon the Harpe, O thou holy one of Israel.

21 My lippes will bee faine when I sing vnto thee: and so will my soule whome thou hast deliuered.

22 My tongue also shall talke of thy righteousnesse al the day long: for they are confounded and brought vnto shame þ seeke to doe me euill.

Deus iudicium. Psal.lxxii.

1 GIue the king thy iudgements (O God:) and thy righteousnesse vnto the kings sonne.

2 Then shall hee iudge the people according vnto right: and defend the poore.

3 The mountaines also shall bring peace: and the litle hilles righteousnesse vnto þ people.

4 He shall keepe the simple folke by their right: defende the children of the poore, & punish the wrong doer.

5 They shall feare thee as long as þ sunne and moone endureth: from one generation to another.

6 Hee shall come downe like the rayne into a fleece of woll: euen as the droppes that water the earth.

7 In his time shall the righteous flourish: yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the moone endureth.

8 His dominion shal bee from the one sea to the other: and from the floode vnto þ worlds ende.

9 They that dwell in the wildernesse shal kneele before him: his enemies shall licke the dust.

10 The kings of Tharsis and of the Iles shall giue presents: the Kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

11 All kings shall fall downe before him: al nations shall do him seruice.

12 For he shal deliuer the poore when hee crieth: the needie also, and him þ hath no helper.

13 He shalbe fauourable to the simple and needie: and shall preserue the soules of þ poore.

14 Hee shal deliuer their soules from fallshoode and wrong: and deare shall their bloode be in his sight.

15 He shall liue, and vnto him shall be ginen of the golde of Arabia: prayer shall be made euer vnto him, and daily shall he be praysed.

16 There shall be an heape of corne in the earth high vpon the hilles: his fruite shal shake like Libanus, and shall bee greene in the citie, like grasse vpon the earth.

17 His name shall endure for euer, his name shall remaine vnder the sunne among the posterities: which shall be blessed through him, and all the heathen shal prayse him.

18 Blessed be the Lord God, euen the God of Israel: which onely doeth wonderous things.

19 And blessed bee the name of his maiestie for euer: and all the earth shall bee filled with his maiestie, Amen. Amen.

Quam bonus Israel. Psal. lxxiii.

Euening prayer.

1 TRuely God is louing vnto Israel: euen vnto such as are of a cleane heart.

2 Neuertheless, my feete were almost gone: my treadings had welnigh slipt.

3 And why? I was grieued at the wicked: I doe also see the vngodly in such prosperitie.

4 For they are in no perill of death: but are lustie and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folke: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they bee so holden with pride: and ouerwhelmed with cruelties.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they doe euen what they list.

8 They corrupt other, and speake of wicked blasphemie: their talking is against the most highest.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth vnto the heaue: & their tongue goeth through the world.

10 Therefore fall the people vnto them: and thereout sucke they no small aduantage.

11 Tush (say they) howe should God perceiue it: is there knowledge in the most highest?

12 Loe, these are the vngodly, these prosper in the worlde, and these haue riches in possession: and I sayde, Then haue I cleansed my heart in vaine, and washed my handes in innocencie.

13 All the day long haue I bene punished: and chastened euery morning.

14 Yea, and I had almost said euē as they: but loe, then should I haue condemned þ generation of thy children.

15 Then thought I to vnderstād this: but it was too hard for me.

16 Vntill I went into the Sanctuarie of God: then vnderstood I the ende of these men.

17 Namely, howe thou doest set them in slipperie places: and castest them down, and destroyest them.

18 Oh howe suddenly doe they consume: perish, and come to a fearefull ende?

19 Yea, euen like as a dreame when one awaketh: so shalt thou make their image to vanish out of the citie.

20 Thus my heart was grieued: and it went euen through my reines.

21 So foolish was I and ignorant: euen as it were a beast before thee.

22 Neuertheless, I am allway by thee: for thou hast holden mee by my right hand.

23 Thou shalt guyde mee with thy counsel: and after that receiue me with glory.

24 Whome haue I in heauen but thee: & there is none vpon earth that I desire in comparison of thee.

25 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for euer.

26 For loe, they that forsake thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornication against thee.

27 But it is good for mee to holde me fast by God, to put my trust in þ Lord God: and to speake of all thy workes (in the gates of the daughter of Sion.)

Vt quid Deus. Psal. lxxiiii.

1 O God, wherefore art thou absent from vs so long: why is thy wrath so hote against the sheepe of thy pasture?

2 Thinke vpon thy congregatiō: whome thou hast purchased and redeemed of olde.

3 Thinke vpon the tribe of thine inheritance, and mount Sion wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift vp thy feete, that thou mayest vtterly destroy euery enemie: which hath done euill in thy sanctuarie.

5 Thine aduersaries roare in the middes of thy congregations: and set vp their banners for tokens.

6 Yee that hewed timber afore out of the thicke trees: was knowen to bring it to an excellent worke.

7 But now they breake downe all the carued worke thereof: with axes and hammers.

8 They haue set fire vpon thy holy places: and haue defiled the dwelling place of thy name, euen vnto the ground.

9 Yea, they saide in their hearts, Let vs make hauocke of them altogether: thus haue they burnt by al the houses of God in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one Prophet more: no not one is there among vs that vnderstandeth any more.

11 O God, howe long shall the aduersarie doe this dishonour: howe long shall the enemie blaspheme thy name, for euer?

12 Why withdrawest thou thy hand: why pluckest not thou thy right hande out of thy bosome to consume the enemie?

13 For God is my king of old: the helpe þ is done vpon earth, he doeth it himselfe.

14 Thou diddest deuide the sea through thy power: thou brakest the heades of

the

the dragons in the waters.
15 Thou smotest the heades of Leviathan in pieces: and gauest him to be meate for the people in the wildernesse.
16 Thou brought'st out fountaines and waters out of the hard rockes: thou driedst vp mightie waters.
17 The day is thine, and the night is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sunne.
18 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made Sommer and Winter.
19 Remember this, O Lord, how the enemie hath rebuked: and howe the foolish people hath blasphemed thy name.
20 O deliuer not the soule of the turtle Doue vnto the multitude of the enemies: and forget not the congregation of the poore for euer.
21 Looke vpon the couenant: for all the earth is full of darkenesse and cruell habitations.
22 O let not the simple goe away ashamed: but let the poore and needie giue praise vnto thy name.
23 Arise, O God, maintaine thine owne cause: remember howe the foolish man blasphemeth thee daily.
24 Forget not the voyce of thine enemies: the presumption of them that hate thee, encreaseth euer more and more.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. lxxv.

Morning prayer.

1 VNto thee (O God) doe wee giue thankes: yea vnto thee doe we giue thankes.
2 Thy name also is so nigh: and that do thy wonderous workes declare.
3 When I receyue the congregation: I shall iudge according vnto right.
4 The earth is weake, and all the inhabiters thereof: I beare vp the pillers of it.
5 I said vnto the fooles, Deale not so madly: and to the vngodly, Set not vp your horne.
6 Set not vp your horne on high: and speake not with a stiffe necke.
7 For promotion commeth neither from the East nor from the West: nor yet from the South.
8 And why? God is the iudge: he putteth downe one, and setteth vp another.
9 For in the hand of the Lorde there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full mixt, and he powreth out of the same.
10 As for the dregs thereof: all the vngodly of the earth shall drinke them, & sucke them out.
11 But I will talke of the God of Jacob: and praise him for euer.
12 All the hornes of the vngodly also will I breake: and the hornes of the righteous shalbe exalted.

Notus in Iudea. Psal. lxxvi.

1 IN Iurie is God knowen: his name is great in Israel.
2 At Salem is his tabernacle: and his dwelling in Sion.
3 There brake he the arrowes of the bow: the shield, the sword, and the battell.
4 Thou art of more honour and might: then the hilles of robbers.
5 The proude are robbed, they haue slept their sleepe: and all the men (whose handes were mighty) haue found nothing.
6 At thy rebuke (O God of Jacob:) both the charet and horse are fallen.
7 Thou, euen thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when thou art angry?
8 Thou didest cause thy iudgement to be heard from heauen: the earth trembled and was still.
9 When God arose to iudgement: and to helpe all the meeke vpon earth.
10 The fiercenesse of man shall turne to thy praise: and the fiercenesse of them shalt thou refraine.
11 Promise vnto the Lord your God, and keepe it, all ye that be round about him: bring presents vnto him that ought to be feared.
12 He shall refraine the spirit of princes: and is wonderfull among the kings of the earth.

Voce mea ad Dominum. Psal. lxxvii.

1 I Will crie vnto God with my voyce: euen vnto God will I crie with my voyce, and he shall hearken vnto me.
2 In the time of my trouble I sought the Lorde: my sore ranne and ceased not, in the night season my soule refused comfort.
3 When I am in remembrance I will thinke vpon God: when my heart is vexed, I will complaine.
4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so feeble that I cannot speake.
5 I haue considered the dayes of old: and the yeeres that are past.
6 I call to remembrance my song: and in the night I commune with mine owne heart, and search out my spirits.
7 Will the Lord absent himselfe for euer: and will he be no more intreated?
8 Is his mercie cleane gone for euer: and is his promise come vtterly to an ende for euermore?
9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he shut vp his louing kindnesse in displeasure?
10 And I said, It is mine owne infirmitie: but I will remember the yeeres of the right hand of the most highest.
11 I will remember the workes of the Lord: and call to minde thy wonders of olde time.
12 I will thinke also of all thy workes: and my talking shalbe of thy doings.
13 Thy way, O God, is holy: who is so great a God (as our God?)
14 Thou art the God that doeth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the people.
15 Thou hast mightily deliuered thy people: euen the sonnes of Jacob and Joseph.
16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters ters sawe thee, and were afraid: the depthes also were troubled.

17 The clouds powred out water, the aire thundered: and thine arrowes went abroade.
18 The voyce of thy thunder was heard round about: the lightnings shone vpon the grounde, the earth was moued, and shooke withall.
19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy pathes in the great waters: and thy footesteps are not knowen.
20 Thou leddest thy people like sheepe: by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Attendite populo. Psal. lxxviii.

Euening prayer.

1 HEare my lawe, O my people: encline your eares vnto the wordes of my mouth.
2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard sentences of olde.
3 Which we haue heard and knowen: and such as our fathers haue towde vs.
4 That wee should not hyde them from the children of the generations to come: but to shewe the honour of the Lord, his mightie and wonderfull workes that he hath done.
5 He made a couenant with Jacob, and gaue Israel a law: which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children.
6 That their posteritie might knowe it: & the children which were yet vnborne.
7 To the intent that when they came vp: they might shewe their children the same.
8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the workes of God, but to keepe his commandements.
9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faythlesse and stubborne generation: a generatiō that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaueth not stedfastly vnto God.
10 Like as the children of Ephraim: which being harnessed and carying bowes, turned themselues backe in the day of battell.
11 They kept not the couenant of God: and would not walke in his lawe.
12 But forgate what he had done: and the wonderfull worke that he had shewed for them.
13 Marueilous things did he in the sight of our forefathers in the land of Egypt: euen in the field of Zoan.
14 He deuided the sea, and let them goe through: he made the waters to stande on an heape.
15 In the day time also he led them with a cloude: and all the night through with a light of fire.
16 He clane the hard rocks in the wildernesse: and gaue them drinke thereof, as it had bene out of the great depth.
17 Yea he brought waters out of the stonie rocke: so that it gushed out like ꝑ riuers.
18 Yet for all this they sinned more against him: and prouoked the most highest in the wildernesse, 19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meate for their lust.
20 They spake against God also, saying: Shall God prepare a table in the wildernesse?
21 He smote the stonie rocke in deede, that the water gushed out, and the streames flowed withall: but can he giue bread also, or prouide flesh for his people?
22 When the Lorde heard this, he was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came vp heauie displeasure against Israel.
23 Because they beleeued not in God: and put not their trust in his helpe.
24 So he commanded the cloudes aboue: and opened the doores of heauen.
25 Yea rained downe Manna also vpon them for to eate: and gaue them foode from heauen.
26 So man did eate Angels foode: and he sent them meate enough.
27 He caused the East winde to blow vnder heauen: and through his power he brought in the Southwest wind.
28 Yea rained flesh vpon them as thicke as dust: and feathered foules like as the sand of the sea.
29 He let it fall among their tents: euen round about their habitation.
30 So they did eate and were well filled, for he gaue them their owne desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.
31 But while the meate was yet in their mouthes, the heauie wrath of God came vpon them, and slue the wealthiest of them: yea and smote downe the chosen men that were in Israel.
32 But for all this they sinned yet more: and beleeued not his wonderous workes.
33 Therefore their dayes did he consume in vanitie: and their yeeres in trouble.
34 When he slue them, they sought him: and turned them early, and enquired after God.
35 And they remembred that God was their strength: and that the high God was their redeemer.
36 Neuertheless, they did but flatter him with their mouth: and dissembled with him in their tongue.
37 For their heart was not whole with him: neither continued they stedfast in his couenant.
38 But he was so mercifull ꝑ he forgaue their misdedes: and destroyed them not.
39 Yea many a time turned he his wrath away: and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.
40 For he considered that they were but flesh: & that they were euen a wind that passeth away, and commeth not again.
41 Many a time did they prouoke him in ꝑ wildernes: and grieued him in the desert.
42 They turned backe and tempted God: and moued the holy one in Israel.
43 They thought not of his hand: and of the day when he deliuered them from the hand of the enemie.

44 Howe hee had wrought his miracles in Egypt: and his wonders in the fielde of Zoan.
45 He turned their waters into blood: so that they might not drinke of the riuers.
46 He sent lice among them, & deuoured them vp: and frogges to destroy them.
47 He gaue their fruit vnto the Caterpiller: & their labour vnto the Grashopper.
48 He destroyed their Vines with hayle stones: and their Mulberie trees with the frost.
49 He smote their cattell also with hayle stones: and their flockes with hot thunder bolles.
50 He cast vpon them the furiousnes of his wrath, anger, displeasure, & trouble: and sent euill angels among them.
51 He made a way to his indignation, and spared not their soule from death: but gaue their life ouer to the pestilence.
52 And smote all the firstborne in Egypt: the most principall and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.
53 But as for his owne people, hee ledde them forth like sheepe: and caried them in the wildernesse like a flocke.
54 He brought them out safely that they should not feare: and ouerwhelmed their enemies with the sea.
55 And brought them within the borders of his sanctuarie: euen to his mountaine which he purchased with his right hand.
56 He cast out the heathen also before thē: caused their land to bee deuided among them for an heritage, & made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
57 So they tempted and displeased the most high God: and kept not his testimonies.
58 But turned their backes, and fel away like their forefathers: starting aside like a broken bowe.
59 For they grieued him with their hill altars: and prouoked him to displeasure with their images.
60 When God heard this, he was wroth: and tooke sore displeasure at Israel.
61 So that he forsooke the Tabernacle in Silo: euen the tent that he had pitched among them.
62 He deliuered their power into captiuitie: & their beautie into the enemies hand.
63 He gaue his people ouer also vnto the swoorde: and was wroth with his inheritance.
64 The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not giuen to mariage.
65 Their Priestes were slaine with the swoorde: and there were no widowes to make lamentation.
66 So the Lorde awaked as one out of sleepe: & like a giaunt refreshed with wine, 67 He smote his enemies in the hinder parte: & put them to a perpetual shame.
68 He refused the tabernacle of Joseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.
69 But chose the tribe of Juda: euen the hill of Sion, which he loued.
70 And there he builded his temple on high: & laide the foundation of it like the ground which he hath made continually.
71 He chose Dauid also his seruant: and tooke him away from the sheepefolde.
72 As he was following the Ewes great with young ones, he tooke him: that hee might feede Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.
73 So he fed them with a faithfull & true heart: and ruled them prudently with all his power.

Deus, venerunt. Psal. lxxix.

1 O God, the heathe are come into thine inheritance: thy holy temple haue they defiled, & made Hierusalē an heape of stones. Morning prayer.
2 The dead bodies of thy seruants haue they giuen to bee meate vnto the foules of the aire: & the flesh of thy saints vnto the beasts of the land.
3 Their blood haue they shed like water on euery side of Hierusalem: and there was no man to burie them.
4 We are become an open shame to our enemies: a very scorne and derision vnto them that are round about vs.
5 Lorde, howe long wilt thou be angry: shall thy iealousie burne like fire for euer?
6 Powre out thine indignation vpon the heathen that haue not known thee: and vpon the kingdomes that haue not called vpon thy name.
7 For they haue deuoured Jacob: and laide waste his dwelling place.
8 O remember not our olde sinnes, but haue mercie vpon vs, and that soone: for we are come to great miserie.
9 Helpe vs, O God of our saluation, for the glorie of thy name: O deliuer vs, and be mercifull vnto our sinnes for thy names sake.
10 Wherefore do the heathen say: Where is nowe their God?
11 O let the vengeance of thy seruants blood that is shed: be openly shewed vpon the heathen in our sight.
12 O let the sorowfull sighing of the prisoners come before thee: according to the greatnesse of thy power preserue thou those that are appointed to die.
13 And for the blasphemie wherewith our neighbours haue blasphemed thee: reward thou them, O Lorde, seuen folde into their bosome.
14 So we that be thy people and sheepe of thy pasture, shall giue thee thankes for euer: and will alway be shewing forth thy prayse from generation to generation.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. lxxx.

1 Hear, O thou shepheard of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a sheepe: shewe thy selfe also thou that sittest vpon the Cherubins.
2 Before Ephraim, Beniamin, and Manasses: stirre vp thy strength and come and helpe vs.
3 Turne vs again, O God: shew the light of thy countenance, & we shalbe whole.

4 O Lord God of hoſts: how long wilt þ be angry with thy people that prayeth?
5 Thou feedeſt them with the bread of teares: and giueſt them pleuteouſneſſe of teares to drinke.
6 Thou haſt made vs a verie ſtrife vnto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh vs to ſcorne.
7 Turne vs againe, thou God of hoſtes: ſhewe the light of thy countenance, and we ſhall be whole.
8 Thou haſt brought a vine out of Egypt: thou haſt caſt out the heathen, and planted it.
9 Thou madeſt roome for it: and when it had taken roote, it filled the land.
10 The hilles were couered with the ſhadow of it: and the boughes thereof were like the goodly Cedar trees.
11 She ſtretched out her branches vnto the ſea: and her boughes vnto the riuer.
12 Why haſt thou then broken downe her hedge: that all they which goe by plucke off her grapes?
13 The wilde Boar out of the wood doeth roote it vp: and the wilde beaſtes of the field deuoure it.
14 Turne thee againe, thou God of hoſts, looke downe from heauen: beholde, and viſite this vine.
15 And the place of the vineyarde that thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madeſt ſo ſtrong for thy ſelfe.
16 It is burnt with fire, and cut downe: and they ſhall periſh at the rebuke of thy countenance.
17 Let thy hande be vpon the man of thy right hande: and vpon the ſonne of man whome thou madeſt ſo ſtrong for thine owne ſelfe.
18 And ſo will not we go backe from thee: O ſet vs liue, and we ſhall call vpon thy name.
19 Turne vs againe, O Lord God of hoſts: ſhewe the light of thy countenance, and we ſhall be whole.

Exultate Deo. Pſal. lxxxi.

1 SIng we merrily vnto God our ſtrength: make a cheerefull noiſe vnto the God of Jacob.
2 Take the Pſalme, bring hither the Tabret: the merie harpe, with the lute.
3 Blowe vp the trumpet in the newe moone: euen in the time appointed, and vpon our ſolemne feaſt day.
4 For this was made a ſtatute for Iſrael: and a lawe of the God of Jacob.
5 This he ordeined in Joſeph for a teſtimonie: when he came out of the land of Egypt, & had heard a ſtrange language.
6 I eaſed his ſhoulder from the burden: and his hands were deliuered from making the pottes.
7 Thou calledſt vpon me in troubles, and I deliuered thee: and hearde thee what time as the ſtorme fell vpon thee.
8 I proued thee alſo: at the waters of ſtrife.
9 Heare, O my people, and I will aſſure thee, O Iſrael: if thou wilt hearken vnto me.
10 There ſhall no ſtrange God be in thee: neither ſhalt þ worſhip any other God.
11 I am þ Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I ſhall fill it.
12 But my people woulde not heare my voyce: and Iſrael would not obey me.
13 So I gaue them vp vnto their owne hearts luſt: and let them followe their owne imaginations.
14 O that my people would haue hearkened vnto me: for if Iſrael had walked in my wayes.
15 I ſhoulde ſoone haue put downe their enemies: and turned my hande againſt their aduerſaries.
16 The haters of þ Lord ſhould haue bene found lyers: but their time ſhould haue endured for euer.
17 He ſhould haue fedde the alſo with the fineſt wheate floure: and with honie out of the ſtonie rocke ſhoulde I haue ſatisfied thee.

Exciting prayer.

1 GOd ſtandeth in the congregation of princes: he is a iudge among gods.
2 How long will ye giue wrong iudgement: and accept the perſons of the vngodly?
3 Defende the poore & fatherleſſe: do right vnto the needie & neceſſitie haue right.
4 Helpe the outcaſt and poore: ſaue them from the hande of the vngodly.
5 They will not be learned, nor vnderſtand, but walke on ſtill in darkneſſe: all the foundations of the earth bee out of courſe.
6 I haue ſaide, Ye are Gods: and ye all are children of the moſt higheſt.
7 But ye ſhall die like men: and fall like one of the princes.
8 Ariſe, O God, and iudge thou the earth: for thou ſhalt take all heathen to thine inheritance.

Deus quis ſimilis? Pſal. lxxxiii.

1 HOlde not thy tongue, O God, keepe not ſtill ſilence: refraine not thy ſelfe, O God.
2 For lo, thine enemies make a murmuring: and they that hate thee haue lift vp their head.
3 They haue imagined craftily againſt thy people: and taken counſaile againſt thy ſecret ones.
4 They haue ſaide, Come, & let vs roote them out, that they be no more a people: and that the name of Iſrael may be no more in remembrance.
5 For they haue caſt their heads together with one conſent: and are confederate againſt thee.
6 The tabernacles of the Edomites, & the Iſmaelites: of Moabites, & Hagarenes.
7 Gebal, & Ammon, & Amalech: the Philiſtines, with them that dwell at Tyre.
8 Aſſur alſo is ioyned vnto them: and haue holpen the children of Lot.

9 But do thou to them as vnto the Madianites: vnto Sisera, and vnto Jabin, at the brooke of Kison.
10 Which perished at Endor: and became as the dung of the earth.
11 Make them and their princes like Oreb and Zeb: yea, make all their princes like as Zeba and Salmana.
12 Which say, let vs take to our selues: the houses of God in possession.
13 O my God, make thē like vnto a wheele: and as the stubble before the winde.
14 Like as the fire that burneth vp the wood: and as the flame that consumeth the mountaines.
15 Persecute them euen so with thy tempest: and make them afraied with thy stourme.
16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lorde: that they may seeke thy name.
17 Let them be confounded and vexed euer more and more: let them be put to shame and perish.
18 And they shall know, that thou (whose name is Jehouah:) art onely the most highest ouer all the earth.

Quam dilecta. Psal. lxxxiiii.

1 O How amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hostes?
2 My soule hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh reioyce in the liuing God.
3 Yea, the sparrowe hath founde her an house, and the swalow a nest, where shee may lay her yong: euen thy altars, O Lord of hostes, my king and my God.
4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praysing thee.
5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are thy wayes.
6 Which going through the vale of misery, vse it for a well: and the pooles are filled with water.
7 They will go from strength to strength: and vnto the God of Gods appeareth euerie one of them in Sion.
8 O Lord God of hostes, heare my prayer: hearken, O God of Jacob.
9 Behold, O God, our defender: & looke vpon the face of thine anointed.
10 For one day in thy courts: is better then a thousand.
11 I had rather be a doore keeper in ꝑ house of my God: then to dwel in the tents of vngodlinesse.
12 For the Lord God is a light & defence: the Lord will giue grace and worship, and no good thing shall hee withholde from them that liue a godly life.
13 O Lorde God of hostes: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Benedixisti Domine. Psal. lxxxv.

1 LOrd thou art become gracious vnto thy lande: thou hast turned away the captiuitie of Jacob.
2 Thou hast forgiuen the offence of thy people: and couered all their sinnes.
3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure: & turned thy selfe from thy wrathfull indignation.
4 Turne vs then, O God our Sauiour: & let thine anger cease from vs.
5 Wilt thou be displeased at vs for euer: and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath frō one generation to another?
6 Wilt thou not turne againe & quicken vs: that thy people may reioyce in thee?
7 Shew vs thy mercie, O Lord: & graunt vs thy saluation.
8 I will hearken what the Lord God wil say concerning me: for hee shall speake peace vnto his people, and to his saints, that they turne not againe.
9 For his saluation is nigh thē that feare him: that glory may dwell in our land.
10 Mercie and trueth are met together: righteousnesse and peace haue kissed eche other.
11 Trueth shal florish out of the earth: and righteousnesse hath looked downe from heauen.
12 Yea, the Lord shal shew louing kindnes: and our land shall giue her increase.
13 Righteousnesse shall go before him: and he shall direct his going in the way.

Inclina Domine. Psal. lxxxvi.

1 BOwe downe thine eare, O Lord. Morning and heare me: for I am poore, and prayer. miserie.
2 Preserue thou my soule, for I am holy: my God saue thy seruant that putteth his trust in thee.
3 Be mercifull vnto me, O Lord: for I will call daily vpon thee.
4 Comfort the soule of thy seruant: for vnto thee (O Lord) do I lift vp my soule.
5 For thou Lord art good and gracious: and of great mercie vnto all them that call vpon thee.
6 Giue eare Lorde vnto my prayer: and pōder the voyce of mine humble desires.
7 In the time of my trouble I will call vpon thee: for thou hearest me.
8 Among the gods there is none like vnto thee (O Lorde:) there is not one that can doe as thou doest.
9 All nations whom thou hast made, shal come and worship thee, O Lord: and shal glorifie thy name.
10 For thou art great, and doest wonderous things: thou art God alone.
11 Teach me thy way (O Lord) and I will walke in thy truth: O knit my heart vnto thee, that I may feare thy name.
12 I will thanke thee, O Lorde my God, with all my heart: and will praise thy name for euermore.
13 For great is thy mercie towarde mee: and thou hast deliuered my soule from the nethermost hell.
14 O God, the proude are risen against me: and the congregations of naughtie men haue sought after my soule, and haue not set thee before their eyes.
15 But thou (O Lord God) art ful of compassion and mercy: long suffering, plentious teous in goodnesse and trueth.

16 O turne thee then vnto me, and haue mercie vpon me: giue thy strength vnto thy seruant, and helpe the sonne of thine handmaide.
17 Shewe some good token vpon mee for good, that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou Lord hast holpen me, and comforted me.

Fundamenta eius. Psal. lxxxvii.

1 HEr foundations are vpon the holy hilles: the Lord loueth the gates of Sion, more then all the dwellings of Iacob.
2 Very excellent things are spoke of thee: thou citie of God.
3 I will thinke vpon Rahab and Babylon: with them that know me.
4 Behold ye the Philistines also: & they of Tyre, with the Morians, loe, there was he borne.
5 And of Sion it shal be reported, that he was borne in her: and the most high shal stablish her.
6 The Lorde shall rehearse it when hee writeth vp the people: that hee was borne there.
7 The singers also and Trumpetters shal be rehearse: all my freth springs shall be in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. lxxxviii.

1 O Lorde God of my salnation, I haue cryed day and night before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy presence, encline thine eare vnto my calling.
2 For my soule is full of trouble: and my life draweth nigh vnto hell.
3 I am counted as one of them that goe downe into the pit: and I haue bene euen as a man that hath no strength.
4 Free among the dead, like vnto them that bee wounded and lie in the graue: which be out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.
5 Thou hast layd me in the lowest pit: in a place of darkenesse, and in the deepe.
6 Thine indignation lieth hard vpon me: and thou hast vexed mee with all thy stormes.
7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance farre from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.
8 I am so fast in prison: that I can not get forth.
9 My sight faileth for very trouble: Lord, I haue called daily vpon thee, I haue stretched out my handes vnto thee.
10 Doest thou shewe wonders among the dead: or shall the dead rise vp againe and prayse thee?
11 Shall thy louing kindnesse be shewed in the graue: or thy faithfulnesse in destruction?
12 Shall thy wonderous workes bee knowen in the darke: and thy righteousnesse in the land where all things are forgotten?
13 Vnto thee haue I cried, O Lorde: and early shall my prayer come before thee.
14 Lord, why abhorrest thou my soule: & hydest thou thy face from me?
15 I am in miserie, and like vnto him that is at the point to die: (euen frō my youth vp) thy terrours haue I suffered with a troubled minde.
16 Thy wrathfull displeasure goeth ouer mee: and the feare of thee hath vndone me.
17 They came round about me daily like water: and compassed mee together on euery side.
18 My louers and friends hast thou put away from me: and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

Misericordias Domini. Psal. lxxxix.

1 MY song shalbe alway of the louing kindnes of the Lord: with my mouth will I euer bee shewing thy trueth, from one generation to another. Euening prayer.
2 For I haue said, Mercie shal be set vp for euer: thy trueth shalt thou stablish in the heauens.
3 I haue made a couenant with my chosen: I haue sworne vnto Dauid my seruant.
4 Thy seede will I stablish for euer: and set vp thy throne from one generation to another.
5 O Lorde, the very heauens shall praise thy wonderous workes: and thy trueth in the congregation of the saints.
6 For who is he among the cloudes: that shall be compared vnto the Lord?
7 And what is he among the gods: that shall be like vnto the Lord?
8 God is very greatly to be feared in the counsaile of the saints: and to bee had in reuerence of all them that are about him.
9 O Lord God of hostes, who is like vnto thee: thy trueth (most mightie Lorde) is on euery side.
10 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: thou stillest the waues thereof when they arise.
11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, & destroyed it: thou hast scattered thine enemies abroade with thy mightie arme.
12 The heauens are thine, the earth also is thine: thou hast layde the foundation of the round worlde, and all that therein is.
13 Thou hast made the North and the South: Tabor and Hermon shal reioice in thy name.
14 Thou hast a mightie arme: strong is thy hande, and high is thy right hande.
15 Righteousnesse and equitie is the habitation of thy seate: mercie and trueth shal goe before thy face.
16 Blessed is the people (O Lord) that can reioyce in thee: they shall walke in the light of thy countenance.
17 Their delight shall bee daily in thy name: and in thy righteousnes shal they make make their boast.

18 For thou art the glorie of their strẽgth: and in thy louing kindnesse thou shalt lift vp our hornes.
19 For the Lord is our defence: the holy one of Israel is our king.
20 Thou spakest sometime in visions vnto thy Saints, & saidest: I haue laide helpe vpon one that is mightie, I haue exalted one chosen out of the people.
21 I haue found Dauid my seruant: with my holy oyle haue I anoynted him.
22 My hand shall hold him fast: and mine arme shall strengthen him.
23 The enemy shall not be able to do him violence: the sonne of wickednesse shall not hurt him.
24 I shall smite down his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.
25 My trueth also and my mercie shall be with him: and in my name shall his horne be exalted.
26 I will set his dominion also in the sea: and his right hand in the floods.
27 He shall call me, Thou art my Father: my God, and my strong saluation.
28 And I will make him my first borne: higher then the kings of the earth.
29 My mercie will I keepe for him for euermore: and my couenant shall stande fast with him.
30 His seede also will I make to endure for euer: and his throne as the dayes of heauen.
31 But if his children forsake my lawe: and walke not in my iudgements.
32 If they breake my statutes, and keepe not my commandements: I will visite their offences with the rod, & their sinne with scourges.
33 Neuertheless, my louing kindnesse will I not vtterly take from him: nor suffer my truth to faile.
34 My couenant will I not breake, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lippes: I haue sworne once by my holinesse that I would not faile Dauid.
35 His seede shall endure for euer: and his seate is like as the sunne before me.
36 He shall stand fast for euermore as the moone: & as ỹ faithful witnesse in heauẽ.
37 But thou hast abhorred and forsaken thine anoynted: & art displeased at him.
38 Thou hast broken the couenant of thy seruant: and cast his crowne to the ground.
39 Thou hast ouerthrowē all his hedges: and broken downe his strong holdes.
40 All they that go by, spoyle him: and he is become a rebuke to his neighbours.
41 Thou hast set vp the right hand of his enemies: and made all his aduersaries to reioyce.
42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his sworde: and giuen him victorie in the battell.
43 Thou hast put out his glorie: and cast his throne downe to the ground.
44 The dayes of his youth hast ỹ shortened: and couered him with dishonour.
45 Lord, how long wilt thou hide thy selfe, for euer: & shall thy wrath burne like fire?
46 O remember howe short my time is: wherefore hast ỹ made all mẽ, for nought?
47 What man is he that liueth, and shall not see death: & shall he deliuer his soule from the hand of hell?
48 Lord, where are thy olde louing kindnesses: which thou swarest vnto Dauid in thy trueth?
49 Remember (Lord) the rebuke that thy seruants haue: and how I doe beare in my bosome the rebukes of many people.
50 Wherewith thine enemies haue blasphemed thee, and slandered the footesteps of thine anointed: praised bee the Lorde for euermore. Amen. Amen.

Domine, refugium. Psal. xc.

LOrde, thou hast bene our refuge: from one generation to another. Morning prayer.
2 Before the mountaines were brought forth, or euer the earth and the worlde were made: thou art God from euerlasting, and world without end.
3 Thou turnest man to destructiõ: againe ỹ saiest, Come again ye children of men.
4 For a thousand yeres in thy sight, are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.
5 As soone as thou scatterest them, they are euen as a slẽpe: and fade away suddenly like the grasse.
6 In the morning it is grene, & groweth vp: but in ỹ euening it is cut downe, dried vp, and withered.
7 For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afrayde at thy wrathfull indignation.
8 Thou hast set our misdeedes before thee: and our secret sinnes in the sight of thy countenance.
9 For whē thou art angry, all our dayes are gone: we bring our yeeres to an end, as it were a tale that is told.
10 The dayes of our age are threescore yeeres and tenne, and though men bee so strong ỹ they come to foure score yeres: yet is their strength then but labour and sorowe, so soone passeth it away, and we are gone.
11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for euen thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.
12 O teache vs to number our dayes: that wee may apply our hearts vnto wisedome.
13 Turne thee again (O Lord) at the last: and be gratious vnto thy seruants.
14 O satisfie vs with thy mercy, and that soone: so shall we reioyce and be glad all the dayes of our life.
15 Comfort vs again now after the time that thou hast plagued vs: & for ỹ yeres wherein we haue suffered aduersitie.
16 Shewe thy seruants thy worke: and their children thy glorie.
17 And the glorious maiestie of the Lord

our

our God be vpon vs: prosper thou the worke of our hands vpon vs, O prosper thou our handie worke

Qui habitat. Psal. xci.

1 WHo so dwelleth vnder the defence of the most high: shall abide vnder the shadowe of the almightie.

2 I will say vnto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my strong holde: my God, in him will I trust.

3 For he shall deliuer thée from the snare of the hunter: and from the noysome pestilence.

4 He shal defende thee vnder his wings, & thou shalt be safe vnder his feathers: his faithfulnesse and trueth shall bee thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not bee afraide for any terror by night: nor for the arrowe that flieth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in the darkenesse: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noone day.

7 A thousand shall fall beforo thee, and tenne thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the vngodly.

9 For thou Lord art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10 There shall no euill happen vnto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall giue his angels charge ouer thée: to keepe thee in all thy wayes.

12 They shall beare thee in their handes: that thou hurt not thy foote against a stone.

13 Thou shalt goe vpon the Lion and Adder: the yong lion and the dragon shalt thou treade vnder thy feete.

14 Because he hath set his loue vpon me, therfore shal I deliuer him: I shal set him vp, because he hath knowen my name.

15 He shall call vpon me, and I will heare him: yea, I am with him in trouble, I will deliuer him, & bring him to honour.

16 With long life will I satisfie him: and shewe him my saluation.

Bonum est confiteri. Psal. xcii.

1 IT is a good thing to giue thanks vnto the Lord: and to sing praises vnto thy name, O most highest.

2 To tell of thy louing kindnesse early in the morning: and of thy trueth in the night season.

3 Vpon an instrument of ten stringes, & vpon the Lute: vpon a loude instrumet, and vpon the Harpe.

4 For thou Lorde hast made mee glad through thy workes: and I will reioyce in giuing praise for the operatiõs of thy handes.

5 O Lord, how glorious are thy workes: and thy thoughtes are very deepe.

6 An vnwise man doeth not well consider this: and a foole doeth not vnderstande it.

7 When the vngodly are greene as the grasse, and when al the workers of wickednesse do flourish: then shall they be destroyed for euer, but thou Lorde art the most highest for euermore.

8 For loe, thine enemies (O Lorde) loe thine enemies shall perish: and all the workers of wickednes shalbe destroyed.

9 But my horne shalbe exalted like the horne of an vnicorne: for I am anoynted with freshe oyle.

10 Mine eye also shall see his lust of mine enemies: and mine eare shall heare his desire of the wicked that rise vp against mee.

11 The righteous shall flourish like a palme tree: and shall spread abroad like a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Such as be planted in the house of the Lord: shall flourish in the courtes (of the house) of our God.

13 They also shall bring forth more fruite in their age: and shall bee fatte and well liking.

14 That they may shewe howe true the Lord my strength is: and that there is no vnrighteousnesse in him.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. xciii.

1 THe Lord is king, and hath put on glorious apparell: the Lorde hath put on his apparel, and girded himselfe with strength. Euening prayer.

2 He hath made the round world so sure: that it can not be moued.

3 Euer since the worlde began hath thy seate bene prepared: thou art from euerlasting.

4 The floods are risen (O Lord) the floods haue lift vp their voyce: the floods lift vp their waues.

5 The waues of the sea are mightie, and rage horribly: but yet the Lord that dwelleth on high is mightier.

6 Thy testimonies, O Lorde, are very sure: holinesse becommeth thine house for euer.

Deus vltionum. Psal. xciiii.

1 O Lord God to whome vengeance belongeth: thou God to whome vengeance belongeth, shew thy selfe.

2 Arise thou iudge of the worlde: and reward the proude after their deserning.

3 Lord, how long shall the vngodly: how long shall the vngodly triumph?

4 How long shal all wicked doers speake so disdainfully: and make such proude boasting?

5 They smite downe thy people, O Lord: and trouble thine heritage.

6 They murder the widowe & the stranger: and put the fatherlesse to death.

7 And yet they say, Tush, the Lorde shall not see: neither shall the God of Jacob regarde it.

8 Take héede ye vnwise amõg the people: O ye fooles, when will ye vnderstand?

9 Hee that planted the eare, shall hee not heare: or he that made the eye, shall hee not see?

10 Or

10 Dy he that nurtureth the heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he punish?
11 The Lord knoweth þ thoughts of man: that they are but vayne.
12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest (O Lorde:) and teachest him in thy lawe.
13 That thou mayest gine him patience in time of aduersitie: vntill the pit be digged vp for the vngodly.
14 For the Lord will not faile his people: neither will he forsake his inheritance.
15 Vntill righteousnesse turne againe vnto iudgement: all such as be true in heart shall follow it.
16 Who will rise vp with mee against the wicked: or who will take my part against the euill doers?
17 If the Lord had not holped mée: it had not failed but my soule had bene put to silence.
18 But when I sayd, My foote hath slipped: thy mercie (O Lord) held me vp.
19 In the multitude of the sorowes that I had in my heart: thy comfortes haue refreshed my soule.
20 Wilt thou haue any thing to doe with the stoole of wickednesse: which imagineth mischiefe as a lawe?
21 They gather them together against the soule of the righteus: and condemne the innocent blood.
22 But the Lorde is my refuge: and my God is the strength of my confidence.
23 He shal recompence them their wickednes, and destroy them in their owne malice: yea, the Lord our God shall destroy them.

Venite, exultemus. Psal. xcv.

Morning prayer.

1 O Come, let vs sing vnto þ Lorde: let vs heartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation.
2 Let vs come before his presence with thankesgiuing: and shewe our selues glad in him with Psalmes.
3 For the Lord is a great God: & a great king aboue all gods.
4 In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hils is his also.
5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his handes prepared the dry land.
6 O come, let vs worship and fall downe: and kneele before the Lord our maker.
7 For he is (the Lorde) our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his hands.
8 To day if ye will heare his voyce, harden not your hearts: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wildernes.
9 When your fathers tempted me: proued me, and sawe my workes.
10 Fourtie yeeres long was I grieued with this generation, & saide: it is a people that doe erre in their hearts, for they haue not knowen my wayes.
11 Vnto whom I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Cantate Domino. Psal. xcvi.

1 O Sing vnto the Lorde a newe song: sing vnto the Lorde all the whole earth.
2 Sing vnto the Lorde, and praise his name: be telling of his saluation from day to day.
3 Declare his honour vnto the heathen: and his wonders vnto all people.
4 For the Lord is great, and cannot worship be praised: he is more to bee feared then all gods.
5 As for all the gods of the heathen, they bee but idols: but it is the Lorde that made the heauens.
6 Glory & worship are before him: power and honour are in his sanctuarie.
7 Ascribe vnto the Lord, (ye kinreds of the people:) ascribe vnto the Lorde worship and power.
8 Ascribe vnto the Lorde the honour due vnto his name: bring presents, & come into his courtes.
9 O worship the Lorde in the beautie of holinesse: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.
10 Tell it out among the heathen, that the Lorde is king: and that it is hee which hath made the round world so fast that it cannot be moued, and how that he shall iudge the people righteously.
11 Let the heauēs reioyce, and let the earth be glad: let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is.
12 Let the field be ioyfull, and all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood reioyce before the Lord.
13 For hee commeth, for hée commeth to iudge the earth: and with righteousnesse to iudge the world, and the people with his truth.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. xcvii.

1 The Lorde is king, the earth may bée glad thereof: yea, the multitude of the Iles may be glad thereof.
2 Clowdes and darkenes are round about him: righteousnesse and iudgement are the habitation of his seate.
3 There shall goe a fire before him: and burne vp his enemies on euery side.
4 His lightnings gaue shine vnto the world: the earth saw it, and was afraid.
5 The hilles melted like ware at the presence of the Lorde: at the presence of the Lorde of the whole earth.
6 The heauens haue declared his righteousnes: & all þ people haue seene his glory.
7 Confounded bee all they that worship carued images, and that delight in vaine gods: worship him all ye gods.
8 Sion heard of it, and reioyced: and the daughters of Iuda were glad, because of thy iudgements, O Lord.
9 For thou Lord art higher then all that are in the earth: thou art exalted farre aboue all gods.
10 O ye that loue the Lord, see that ye hate the thing which is euill: the Lorde preserueth the soules of his saintes, hee shall deliuer them from the hand of the vngodly.

11 There is sprung vp a light for the righteous: and ioyfull gladnes for such as be true hearted.

12 Reioyce in the Lord ye righteous: and giue thankes for a remembrance of his holines.

Cantate Domino. Psal. xcviii.

Euening prayer.

1 O Sing vnto the Lorde a newe song: for he hath done marueilous things.

2 With his owne right hand, and with his holy arme: hath he gotten himselfe the victorie.

The Lorde declared his saluation: his righteousnesse hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

4 Hee hath remembred his mercy and trueth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world haue seene the saluation of our God.

5 Shewe your selues ioyfull vnto the Lord all ye lands: sing, reioyce, and giue thanks.

6 Praise the Lord vpon the harpe: sing to the harpe with a Psalme of thankesgiuing.

7 With trumpets also and shawmes: O shewe your selues ioyfull before the Lord the king.

8 Let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

9 Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hilles bee ioyfull together before the Lorde: for he is come to iudge the earth.

10 With righteousnesse shall he iudge the world: and the people with equitie.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. xcix.

1 THe Lord is king, be the people neuer so impatient: he sitteth betweene the Cherubims, bee the earth neuer so vnquiet.

2 The Lorde is great in Sion: and high aboue all people.

3 They shal giue thanks vnto thy name: which is great, wonderfull, and holy.

4 The kings power loueth iudgement, thou hast prepared equitie: thou hast executed iudgement and righteousnesse in Iacob.

5 O magnifie the Lord our God: and fall downe before his footestoole, for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priestes, and Samuel among such as call vpon his name: these called vpon the Lord, and he heard them.

7 He spake vnto them out of the cloudie pillar: for they kept his testimonies, and the lawe that he gaue them.

8 Thou heardest them (O Lord our God:) thou forgauest them, O God, and punishedst their owne inuentions.

9 O magnifie the Lorde our God, & worship him vpon his holy hill: for the Lord our God is holy.

Iubilate Deo. Psal. C.

1 O Be ioyfull in the Lord all ye landes: serue the Lord with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a song.

2 Be ye sure that the Lord he is God, it is he that hath made vs, and not wee our selues: we are his people, and the sheepe of his pasture.

3 O goe your way into his gates with thankesgiuing, and into his courtes with praise: be thankefull vnto him, and speake good of his name.

4 For the Lord is gracious, his mercie is euerlasting: and his trueth endureth from generation to generation.

Misericordiam & iudicium. Psal. Ci.

1 MY song shalbe of mercy and iudgement: vnto thee, O Lord, will I sing.

2 O let me haue vnderstanding: in the way of godlinesse.

When wilt thou come vnto mee: I will walke in my house with a perfite heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand, I hate the sinnes of vnfaithfulnesse: there shall no such cleaue vnto me.

5 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

6 Who so priuily slandereth his neighbour: him will I destroy.

7 Who so hath also a proude loke, and high stomacke: I will not suffer him.

8 Mine eyes looke vnto such as be faithfull in the land: that they may dwell with me.

9 Who so leadeth a godly life: he shall be my seruant.

10 There shall no deceitfull person dwell in my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

11 I shall soone destroy all the vngodly that are in the land: that I may roote out all wicked doers from the citie of the Lord.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cii.

1 HEare my prayer, O Lorde: and let my crying come vnto thee. Morning prayer.

2 Hide not thy face from mee in the time of my trouble: encline thine eares vnto mee when I call, O heare me, and that right soone.

3 For my dayes are consumed away like smoke: and my bones are burnt vp as it were a firebrand.

4 My heart is smitten downe, and withered like grasse: so that I forget to eate my bread.

5 For the voyce of my groning: my bones will scarce cleaue to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pellicane in the wildernes: and like an owle that is in the desert.

7 I haue watched, and am eke as it were a sparow: that sitteth alone vpon the house toppe.

8 Mine

8 Mine enemies reuile me all the day long: and they that are madde vpon mee, are sworne together against me.
9 For I haue eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drink with weeping.
10 And that because of thine indignation and wrath: for thou hast taken me vp, & cast me downe.
11 My dayes are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grasse.
12 But thou (O Lord) shalt endure for euer: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.
13 Thou shalt arise and haue mercy vpon Sion: for it is time that thou haue mercy vpon her, yea, the time is come.
14 And why? thy seruantes thinke vpon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.
15 The heathen shall feare thy name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy maiestie.
16 When the Lord shall builde vp Sion: & when his glory shall appeare.
17 When he turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute: and despiseth not their desire.
18 This shalbe written for those that come after: and the people which shalbe borne, shall prayse the Lord.
19 For hee hath looked downe from his sanctuarie: out of the heauen did þ Lorde beholde the earth.
20 That he might heare the mournings of such as be in captiuitie: and deliuer þ children appointed vnto death.
21 That they may declare the name of þ Lorde in Sion: and his worship at Hierusalem.
22 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdomes also to serue þ Lord.
23 He brought downe my strength in my iourney: and shortened my dayes.
24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the middes of mine age: as for thy yeeres they endure throughout all generations.
25 Thou Lord in the beginning hast laide the foundation of the earth: and the heauens are the worke of thy handes.
26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: they all shall waxe olde as doeth a garment.
27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shalbe changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeres shal not faile.
28 The children of thy seruants shal continue: and their seede shal stand fast in thy sight.

Benedic anima. Psal. Ciii.

1 PRaise the Lorde, O my soule: and all that is within me, prayse his holy name.
2 Prayse the Lord, O my soule: and forget not all his benefites.
3 Which forgiueth all thy sinne: & healeth all thine infirmities.
4 Which sauyth thy life from destruction: and crowneth thee with mercie and louing kindnesse.
5 Which satisfieth thy mouth with good things: making thee yong and lusty as an Eagle.
6 The Lorde executeth righteousnesse and iudgement: for all them that are oppressed with wrong.
7 He shewed his wayes vnto Moses: his workes vnto the children of Israel.
8 The Lorde is full of compassion and mercy: long suffering and of great goodnesse.
9 Hee will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for euer.
10 Hee hath not dealt with vs after our sinnes: nor rewarded vs according to our wickednesse.
11 For looke howe high the heauen is in comparison of the earth: so great is his mercy also toward them that feare him.
12 Looke howe wide also the East is from the West: so farre hath hee set our sinnes from vs.
13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his owne children: euen so is the Lord merciful vnto them that feare him.
14 For he knoweth whereof we be made: hee remembreth that we are but dust.
15 The dayes of man are but as grasse: for he flourisheth as a flower of the field.
16 For as soone as the winde goeth ouer it, it is gone: and the place thereof shall know it no more.
17 But the merciful goodnesse of the Lord endureth for euer and euer, vpon them that feare him: and his righteousnesse vpon childrens children.
18 Euen vpon such as keepe his couenaunt: and thinke vpon his commaundements to doe them.
19 The Lorde hath prepared his seate in heauen: and his kingdome ruleth ouer all.
20 O prayse the Lord, ye angels of his, ye that excell in strength: yee that fulfill his commaundement, and hearken vnto the voyce of his wordes.
21 O prayse the Lord, all yee his hostes: ye seruants of his that doe his pleasure.
22 O speake good of the Lord, all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion: prayse thou the Lord, O my soule.

Benedic anima mea. Psal. Ciii.

1 PRaise the Lorde, O my soule: O Lorde my God, thou art become exceeding glorious, thou art clothed with maiestie and honour. Euening prayer.
2 Thou deckest thy selfe with light as it were with a garment: and spreadest out the heauens like a curtaine.
3 Which layeth the beames of his chamber in the waters: and maketh þ cloudes his charet, and walketh vpon the wings of the winde.
4 He maketh his angels spirites: and his ministers a flaming fire.

5 He laid the foundations of the earth: þ it neuer shoulde moue at any time.
6 Thou coueredst it with the deepe, like as with a garment: the waters stand in the hils.
7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voyce of thy thunder they are afraide.
8 They goe vp as high as the hils, and downe to the valleys beneath: euen vnto the place which thou hast appointed for them.
9 Thou hast set them their bounds, which they shall not passe: neither turne againe to couer the earth.
10 He sendeth the springs into the riuers: which runne among the hils.
11 All beasts of the fielde drinke thereof: & the wilde asses quench their thirst.
12 Beside them shall the foules of the aire haue their habitation: and sing among the branches.
13 He watereth the hils from aboue: the earth is filled with the fruite of thy workes.
14 He bringeth forth grasse for the cattel: & grene herbe for the seruice of men.
15 That he may bring foode out of þ earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man: and oyle to make him a cheerefull countenance, and bread to stregth mans heart.
16 The trees of the Lorde also are full of sappe: euen þ Cedars of Libanus, which hee hath planted.
17 Wherein the birdes make their nestes: and the firre trees are a dwelling for the Storke.
18 The high hils are a refuge for the wilde goates: and so are the stone rockes for þ conies.
19 He appointed the Moone for certaine seasons: and the sunne knoweth his going downe.
20 Thou makest darkenesse, that it may be night: wherein all the beasts of the forest doe moue.
21 The lions roaring after their pray: doe seeke their meate at God.
22 The sunne ariseth, and they get them away together: and lay them downe in their dennes.
23 Man goeth forth to his worke, and to his labour: vntill the euening.
24 O Lord, how manifold are thy works: in wisdome hast thou made them all, the earth is full of thy riches.
25 So is the great and wide sea also: wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.
26 There goe the ships, and there is that Leuiathan: whom thou hast made to take his pastime therein.
27 These waite all vpon thee: that thou maiest giue them meate in due season.
28 When thou giuest it them, they gather it: and when thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.
29 When thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: when thou takest away their breath they die, and are turned againe to their dust.
30 When thou lettest thy breath go forth, they shalbe made: and thou shalt renewe the face of the earth.
31 The glorious maiestie of the Lord shal endure for euer: the Lord shall reioyce in his workes.
32 The earth shall tremble at the looke of him: if he do but touch the hils they shal smoke.
33 I will sing vnto the Lord as long as I liue: I will praise my God, while I haue my being.
34 And so shall my words please him: my ioy shalbe in the Lord.
35 As for sinners, they shalbe consumed out of the earth, and the vngodly shall come to an ende: praise thou the Lord, O my soule, praise the Lord.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. Cv.

1 O Giue thankes vnto the Lorde, and call vpon his name: tell the people what thinges hee hath done. Morning prayer.
2 O let your songes bee of him, and praise him: & let your talking be of all his wonderous works.
3 Reioyce in his holy name: let the heart of them reioyce that seeke the Lord.
4 Seeke the Lorde and his strength: seeke his face euermore.
5 Remember the marueilous works that he hath done: his wonders, & the iudgementes of his mouth.
6 O ye seede of Abraham his seruant: ye children of Jacob his chosen.
7 He is the Lord our God: his iudgements are in all the world.
8 He hath bene alway mindfull of his couenant and promise: that hee made to a thousand generations.
9 Euen the couenant that hee made with Abraham: & the othe that he sware vnto Isahac.
10 And appointed the same vnto Jacob for a lawe: and to Israel for an euerlasting testament.
11 Saying, Vnto thee will I giue the land of Chanaan: the lot of your inheritance.
12 When there were yet but a fewe of them: and they strangers in the land.
13 What time as they went from one nation to another: from one kingdome to another people.
14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: but reproued euen kinges for their sakes.
15 Touch not mine anointed: and doe my Prophets no harme.
16 Moreouer, he called for a dearth vpon the land: and destroied all the prouision of bread.
17 But he had sent a man before them: euen Joseph which was sold to be a bond seruant.
18 Whose feete they hurt in the stocks: the iron entred into his soule.

19 Vntill

19 Until the time came that his cause was knowen: the word of the Lord tried him.
20 The king sent and delivered him: the prince of the people let him go free.
21 He made him Lorde also of his house: and ruler of all his substance.
22 That he might enstruct his princes after his will: and teach his Senatours wisdome.
23 Israel also came into Egypt: and Jacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.
24 And he encreased his people exceedingly: and made them stronger then their enemies.
25 Whose heart turned, so that they hated his people: and dealt untruely with his servants.
26 Then sent he Moses his servant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.
27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkenes, and it was darke: & they were not obedient unto his word.
29 He turned their waters into blood: and slew their fishe.
30 Their land brought forth frogges: yea, euen in their kinges chambers.
31 He spake the word, & there came all maner of flies: and lice in their quarters.
32 He gaue them haile stones for raine: and flames of fire in their land.
33 He smote their vines also and figge trees: and destroyed the trees that were in their coastes.
34 He spake the word, & the grashoppers came, and caterpillers innumerable: and did eate up al the grasse in their land, and devoured the fruite of their ground.
35 He smote all the first borne in their land: euen the chiefe of all their strength.
36 He brought them forth also with siluer and golde: there was not one feeble person among their tribes.
37 Egypt was glad at their departing: for they were afraide of them.
38 He spread out a cloud to be a couering: and fire to giue light in the night season.
39 At their desire he brought quailes: and he filled them with the bread of heauen.
40 He opened the rocke of stone, and the waters flowed out: so that riuers ranne in drie places.
41 For why? he remembred his holy promise: and Abraham his servant.
42 And he brought forth his people with ioy: and his chosen with gladnesse.
43 And gaue them the landes of the Heathen: and they tooke the labours of the people in possession.
44 That they might kepe his statutes: and obserue his lawes.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. cvi.

Euening prayer.

O Giue thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.
2 Who can expresse the noble actes of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise?
3 Blessed are they that alway keepe iudgement: and doe righteousnesse.
4 Remember me, O Lorde, according to the fauour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visite me with thy saluation.
5 That I may see the felicitie of thy chosen: and reioyce in the gladnesse of thy people, and giue thanks with thine inheritance.
6 We haue sinned with our fathers: we haue done amisse, and dealt wickedly.
7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodnes in remembrance: but were disobedient at the sea, euen at the red sea.
8 Neuertheles, he helped them for his names sake: that he might make his power to be knowen.
9 He rebuked the red sea also, and it was dried up: so he ledde them through the deepe, as through a wildernesse.
10 And he saued them from the aduersaries hand: and deliuered them from the hand of the enemie.
11 As for those that troubled them, the waters ouerwhelmed them: there was not one of them left.
12 Then beleeued they his wordes: and sang praise unto him.
13 But within a while they forgate his workes: and would not abide his counsell.
14 But lust came upon them in the wildernes: & they tempted God in the desert.
15 And he gaue them their desire: and sent leannesse withall into their soule.
16 They angred Moses also in the tents: and Aaron the saint of the Lord.
17 So the earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan: and couered the congregation of Abiram.
18 And the fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt up the ungodly.
19 They made a calfe in Horeb: and worshipped the molten image.
20 Thus they turned their glorie: into the similitude of a calfe that eateth hay.
21 And they forgate God their sauiour: which had done so great things in Egypt.
22 Wonderous workes in the land of Ham: and fearefull things by the red sea.
23 So he sayde he would haue destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stand before him in the gappe: to turne away his wrathful indignation, least he should destroy them.
24 Yea, they thought scorne of that pleasant land: and gaue no credence unto his word.
25 But murmured in their tents: and harkened not unto the voyce of the Lord.
26 Then lift he up his hand against them: to ouerthrowe them in the wildernesse.
27 To cast out their seede among the nations: and to scatter them in the lands.
28 They ioyned themselues unto Baal Peor: and ate the offerings of the dead.
29 Thus they prouoked him unto anger with their owne inuentions: and the plague was great among them.

30 Then stood vp Phinees, and prayed: and so the plague ceased.
31 And that was counted vnto him for righteousnes: among all posterities for euermore.
32 They angred him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Moses for their sakes.
33 Because they prouoked his spirite: so that he spake vnadusedly with his lips.
34 Neither destroyed they the heathen: as the Lord commaunded them.
35 But were mingled among the heathen: and learned their workes.
36 Insomuch that they worshipped their idoles, which turned to their owne decay: yea, they offered their sonnes and daughters vnto deuils.
37 And shed innocent blood, euen the blood of their sonnes, and of their daughters: whome they offered vnto the idols of Chanaan, and the land was defiled with blood.
38 Thus were they stained with their owne workes: and went a whoring with their owne inuentions.
39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lorde kindled against his people: insomuch that he abhorred his owne inheritance.
40 And he gaue them ouer into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them were lordes ouer them.
41 Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in subiection.
42 Many a time did he deliuer them: but they rebelled against him with their own inuentions, and were brought downe in their wickednes.
43 Neuertheles, when he sawe their aduersitie: he heard their complaint.
44 He thought vpon his couenant, and pitied them according vnto the multitude of his mercies: yea, hee made all those that had led them away captiue to pitie them.
45 Deliuer vs (O Lord our God) and gather vs from among the heathen: that we may giue thanks vnto thy holy name, and make our boast of thy praise.
46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from euerlasting, and world without end: and let all the people say, Amen.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. cvii.

Morning prayer.

1 O Giue thankes vnto the Lorde, for hee is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.
2 Let them giue thanks whome the Lorde hath redeemed: and deliuered from the hand of the enemie.
3 And gathered them out of the landes, from the East and from the West: from the North and from the South.
4 They went astray in the wildernesse out of the way: and found no citie to dwell in.
5 Hungrie and thirstie: their soule fainted in them.
6 So they cried vnto the Lorde in their trouble: and he deliuered them fro their distresse.
7 Yea, led them forth by the right way: that they might go to a citie where they dwelt.
8 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that hee doeth for the children of men.
9 For he satisfieth the emptie soule: and filleth the hungrie soule with goodnes.
10 Such as sit in darkenes and in the shadow of death: being fast bound in miserie and yron.
11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Lorde: and lightly regarded the counsell of the most high.
12 Yea also brought downe their heart through heauinesse: they fell downe, and there was none to helpe them vp.
13 So when they cried vnto the Lorde in their trouble: hee deliuered them out of their distresse.
14 For he brought them out of darkenes, and out of the shadowe of death: and brake their bondes in sunder.
15 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnes: & declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.
16 For he hath broken the gates of brasse: and smitten the barres of iron in sunder.
17 Foolish men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickednesse.
18 Their soule abhorred all maner of meate: & they were euen hard at deaths doore.
19 So when they cried vnto the Lorde in their trouble: hee deliuered them out of their distresse.
20 He sent his word and healed them: and they were saued from their destruction.
21 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.
22 That they would offer vnto him the sacrifice of thanksgiuing: and tell out his workes with gladnesse.
23 They that go downe to the sea in ships: & occupie their businesse in great waters.
24 These men see the workes of the Lorde: and his wonders in the deepe.
25 For at his word the stormie winde ariseth: which lifteth vp the waues thereof.
26 They are caried vp to the heauen, and downe againe to the deepe: their soule melteth away because of the trouble.
27 They reele to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits end.
28 So when they crie vnto the Lorde in their trouble: he deliuereth them out of their distresse.
29 For he maketh the stormie to cease: so that the waues thereof are still.
30 Then are they glad, because they be at rest: and so hee bringeth them vnto the hauen where they would be.
31 O that men would therefore praise the

Lorde

Lorde for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that hee doth for the children of men.

32 That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people: and praise him in the seate of the elders.

33 Which turneth the floods into a wildernesse: and drieth up the water springs.

34 A fruitefull land maketh he barren: for the wickednesse of them that dwel therein.

35 Againe, hee maketh the wildernesse a standing water: and water springs of a dry ground.

36 And there he setteth the hungry: that they may build them a citie to dwell in.

37 That they may sowe their lande, and plant vineyardes: to yeld them fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them so that they multiplie exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattell to decrease.

39 And againe, when they are minished and brought lowe: through oppression, through any plague or trouble.

40 Though hee suffer them to bee evill treated through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wildernesse.

41 Yet helpeth he the poore out of miserie: and maketh him households like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous will consider this, and rejoyce: and the mouth of all wickednes shalbe stopped.

43 Who so is wise, will ponder these things: and they shall understand the loving kindnes of the Lord.

Paratum cor meum. Psal. Cviii.

Euening prayer.

1 O God, my heart is readie (my heart is readie): I will sing and give praise with the best member that I have.

2 Awake thou lute and harpe: I my selfe will awake right early.

3 I will give thanks vnto thee, O Lorde, among the people: I will sing prayses vnto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is greater then the heavens: and thy trueth reacheth vnto the cloudes.

5 Set vp thy selfe (O God) above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

6 That thy beloued may be delivered: let thy right hand save them, and heare thou me.

7 God hath spoken in his holinesse: I will rejoyce therefore and devide Sichem, & mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head.

9 Juda is my lawegiver, Moab is my washpotte: over Edom will I cast out my shoe, vpon the Philistines will I triumph.

10 Who will leade me into the strong citie: and who will bring me into Edom?

11 Shalt not thou forsaken vs, O God: and wilt not thou God goe forth with our hostes?

12 O helpe vs against the enemie: for vaine is the helpe of man.

13 Through God we shal do great acts: & it is he that shall treade downe our enemies.

Deus laudem. Psal. Cix.

1 HOlde not thy tongue, O God of my praise: for the mouth of the vngodly, yea, and the mouth of the deceitful is opened vpon me.

2 And they have spoken against me with false tongues: they compassed me about also with wordes of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.

3 For the love that I had vnto them, lo, they take now my contrary part: but I give my selfe vnto prayer.

4 Thus have they rewarded me evil for good: and hatred for my good will.

5 Set thou an vngodly man to bee ruler over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

6 When sentence is given vpon him, let him be condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sinne.

7 Let his dayes be fewe: and let another take his office.

8 Let his children be fatherlesse: and his wife a widowe.

9 Let his children be vagabondes, & begge their head: let them seeke it also out of desolate places.

10 Let the extortioner consume al that hee hath: and let the stranger spoile his labour.

11 Let there be no man to pitie him: nor to have compassion vpon his fatherlesse children.

12 Let his posteritie be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name bee cleane put out.

13 Let the wickednes of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight of the Lorde: and let not the sinne of his mother bee done away.

14 Let them allway bee before the Lorde: that he may roote out the memorial of them from off the earth.

15 And that because his minde was not to doe good: but persecuted the poore helpelesse man, that hee might slay him that was vexed at the heart.

16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen vnto him: he loved not blessing, therefore shal it be farre from him.

17 He clothed himselfe with cursing like as with a raiment: & it shal come into his bowels like water, & like oile into his bones.

18 Let it be vnto him as the cloke that he hath vpon him: and as the girdle that he is allway girded withall.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lord vnto mine enemies: & to those that speake evill against my soule.

20 But deale thou with me (O Lord God) according vnto thy name: for sweete is thy mercy.

21 O deliuer mee, for I am helpeleſſe and poore: and my heart is wounded within me.
22 I goe hence like the ſhadow that departeth: and am driuen away as the grashopper.
23 My knees are weake through faſting: my fleſh is dried vp for want of fatneſſe.
24 I became alſo a rebuke vnto them: they that looked vpon mee, ſhaked their heads.
25 Helpe me (O Lord my God:) oh ſaue me according to thy mercie.
26 And they ſhall know how that this is thy hand: & that thou Lord haſt done it.
27 Though they curſe, yet bleſſe thou: and let them bee confounded that riſe vp againſt mée, but let thy ſeruant reioyce.
28 Let mine aduerſaries bee clothed with ſhame: and let them couer themſelues with their owne confuſion, as with a cloke.
29 As for me, I will giue great thanks vnto the Lord with my mouth: and praiſe him among the multitude.
30 For hee ſhall ſtand at the right hande of the poore: to ſaue his ſoule from vnrighteous iudges.

Dixit Dominus. Pſal. Cx.

Morning prayer.

1 THe Lord ſaide vnto my Lorde: Sit thou on my right hand, vntill I make thine enemies thy footeſtoole.
2 The Lord ſhall ſend the rodde of thy power out of Sion: bée thou ruler euen in the middes among thine enemies.
3 In the day of thy power ſhall the people offer thee freewil offrings with an holy worſhip: the dewe of thy birth is of the wombe of the morning.
4 The Lord ſware, and will not repét: thou art a Prieſt for euer, after the order of Melchiſedech.
5 The Lorde vpon thy right hande: ſhall wounde euen kings in the day of his wrath.
6 He ſhall iudge among the heathen, hee ſhal fill the places with the dead bodies: & ſmite in ſunder the heads ouer diuers countries.
7 He ſhal drinke of the brooke in the way: therefore ſhall he lift vp his head.

Confitebor tibi. Pſal. Cxi.

1 I Will giue thanks vnto the Lord with my whole heart: ſecretly among the faithful, and in the congregation.
2 The workes of the Lord are great: ſought out of al them that haue pleaſure therein.
3 His worke is worthie to be praiſed and had in honour: and his righteouſnes endureth for euer.
4 The merciful and gratious Lorde hath ſo done his marueilous workes: that they ought to be had in remembrance.
5 He hath giuen meate vnto them that feare him: he ſhal euer be mindefull of his couenant.
6 He hath ſhewed his people the power of his workes: that hee may giue them the heritage of the heathen.
7 The workes of his handes are veritie & iudgement: all his commandements are true.
8 They ſtand faſt for euer and euer: and are done in trueth and equitie.
9 He ſent redemption vnto his people: he hath commanded his couenant for euer, holy and reuerent is his name.
10 The feare of the Lord is the beginning of wiſedome: a good vnderſtanding haue all they that do thereafter, the praiſe of it endureth for euer.

Beatus vir. Pſal. Cxii.

1 BLeſſed is the man that feareth the Lorde: hee hath great delight in his commandements.
2 His ſeede ſhall be mightie vpon earth: the generation of the faithfull ſhall bee bleſſed.
3 Riches and plentifulneſſe ſhalbe in his houſe: and his righteouſneſſe endureth for euer.
4 Vnto the godly there ariſeth vp light in the darkeneſſe: he is mercifull, louing, and righteous.
5 A good man is mercifull and lenderly: & will guide his words with diſcretion.
6 For hee ſhall neuer be moued: and the righteous ſhall be had in an euerlaſting remembrance.
7 Yee will not bee afraide for any euil tidings: for his heart ſtandeth faſt, and beleeueth in the Lord.
8 His heart is ſtabliſhed and will not ſhrinke: vntill he ſee his deſire vpon his enemies.
9 Hee hath diſperſed abroad and giuen to the poore: and his righteouſneſſe remaineth for euer, his horne ſhalbe exalted to honour.
10 The vngodly ſhall ſee it, and it ſhall grieue him: he ſhal gnaſh with his teeth, and conſume away, the deſire of the vngodly ſhall periſh.

Laudate pueri. Pſal. Cxiii.

1 PRaiſe the Lorde (yee ſeruantes:) O praiſe the name of the Lord.
2 Bleſſed be the name of the Lorde: from this time forth for euermore.
3 The Lordes name is praiſed: from the riſing vp of the Sunne, vnto the going downe of the ſame.
4 The Lord is high aboue all heathen: & his glory aboue the heauens.
5 Who is like vnto the Lorde our God, that hath his dwelling ſo high: and yet humbleth himſelfe to behold the things that are in heauen and earth?
6 He taketh vp the ſimple out of the duſt: and lifteth the poore out of the mire.
7 That he may ſet him with the princes: euen with the princes of his people.
8 He maketh the barren woman to keepe houſe: & to be a ioyful mother of children.

In exitu Israel. Psal. Cxiiii.

Euening prayer.

1 WHen Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Iacob from among the strange people.

2 Iuda was his sanctuarie: and Israel his dominion.

3 The sea sawe that, and fled: Iordane was driuen backe.

4 The mountaines skipped like rams: and the litle hilles like yong sheepe.

5 What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest: and thou Iordane, that thou wast driuen backe?

6 Ye mountaines that ye skipped like rams: & ye litle hilles like yong sheepe?

7 Tremble thou earth at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the God of Iacob.

8 Which turned the hard rocke into a standing water: and the flint stone into a springing well.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. Cxv.

1 NOt vnto vs, O Lorde, not vnto vs, but vnto thy Name giue ꝓ praise: for thy louing mercy, and for thy truethes sake.

2 Wherefore shal the heathen say: Where is now their God?

3 As for our God, he is in heauen: he hath done whatsoeuer pleased him.

4 Their idoles are siluer and gold: euen the worke of mens handes.

5 They haue mouthes, and speake not: eyes haue they, and see not.

6 They haue eares, and heare not: noses haue they, and smell not.

7 They haue handes, and handle not, feete haue they, and walke not: neither speake they thorow their throte.

8 They that make them, are like vnto them: and so are all such as put their trust in them.

9 But thou house of Israel, trust thou in the Lorde: he is their succour and defender.

10 Ye house of Aaron, put your trust in the Lorde: he is their helper and defender.

11 Ye that feare the Lorde, put your trust in the Lorde: he is their helper and defender.

12 The Lorde hath bene mindefull of vs, and he shall bleese vs: euen he shall bleese the house of Israel, he shal bleese the house of Aaron.

13 He shal bleese them that feare the Lorde: both small and great.

14 The Lorde shall increase you more and more: you and your children.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lorde: which made heauen and earth.

16 All the whole heauens are the Lordes: the earth hath he giuen to the children of men.

17 The deade praise not thee, O Lorde: neither all they that goe downe into the silence.

18 But we will praise the Lorde: from this time forth for euermore. Praise the Lord.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. Cxvi.

Morning prayer.

1 I Am well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voyce of my prayer.

2 That he hath inclined his eare vnto me: therefore will I call vpon him as long as I liue.

3 The snares of death compassed me round about: and the paines of hell gat hold vpon me.

4 I shall find trouble and heauines, and I shall call vpon the name of the Lord: O Lord I beseech thee deliuer my soule.

5 Gracious is the Lorde and righteous: yea our God is mercifull.

6 The Lord preserueth the simple: I was in miserie, and he helped me.

7 Turne againe then vnto thy rest, O my soule: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

8 And why? thou hast deliuered my soule from death: mine eies from teares, and my feete from falling.

9 I will walke before the Lord: in the land of the liuing.

10 I beleeued, and therefore will I speake, but I was sore troubled: I said in my haste, All men are lyers.

11 What reward shall I giue vnto the Lorde: for all the benefites that he hath done vnto me?

12 I will receiue the cup of saluation: and call vpon the name of the Lord.

13 I will pay my vowes now in the presence of all his people: right deare in the sight of ꝓ Lord, is the death of his saints.

14 Beholde (O Lord) howe that I am thy seruant: I am thy seruant, and the sonne of thine handmaid, thou hast broken my bonnes in sunder.

15 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiuing: and will call vpon the name of the Lord.

16 I will pay my vowes vnto the Lord, in the sight of al his people: in the courts of the Lords house, euen in the middes of thee, O Hierusalem. Praise the Lord.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxvii.

1 O Praise the Lorde all yee Heathen: prayse him all ye nations.

2 For his mercifull kindnesse is euer more and more toward vs: and the trueth of the Lorde endureth for euer. Prayse the Lord.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. Cxviii.

1 O Giue thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: because his mercie endureth for euer.

2 Let Israel now confesse, that he is gracious: and that his mercie endureth for euer.

3 Let the house of Aaron nowe confesse: that his mercie endureth for euer.

4 Yea, let them nowe that feare the Lord confesse: that his mercy endureth for euer.

5 I called vpon the Lord in trouble: & the Lord heard me at large.

6 The

6 The Lord is on my side: I will not feare what man doeth vnto me.
7 The Lorde taketh my part with them that helpe me: therefore shal I see my desire vpon mine enemies.
8 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in man.
9 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in princes.
10 All nations compassed mee round about: but in the name of the Lord will I destroy them.
11 They kept me in on every side, they kept me in (I say) on every side: but in the name of the Lord will I destroy them.
12 They came about me like Bees, & are extinct euē as the fire among ꝑ thornes: for in the name of the Lorde I will destroy them.
13 Thou hast thrust sore at mee, that I might fall: but the Lord was my helpe.
14 The Lord is my strength and my song: and is become my saluation.
15 The voyce of ioy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous: the right hand of ꝑ Lord bringeth mightie things to passe.
16 The right hande of the Lorde hath the preeminence: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mightie things to passe.
17 I will not die, but liue: and declare the workes of the Lord.
18 The Lord hath chastened and corrected me: but he hath not giuen me ouer vnto death.
19 Open me the gates of righteousnes: that I may goe into them, and giue thankes vnto the Lord.
20 This is the gate of the Lord: the righteous shall enter into it.
21 I will thanke thee, for thou hast heard me: and art become my saluation.
22 The same stone which ꝑ builders refused: is become ꝑ head stone in the corner.
23 This is the Lords doing: and it is marueilous in our eyes.
24 This is the day which the Lorde hath made: we will reioyce and be glad in it.
25 Helpe me now, O Lorde: O Lord send vs nowe prosperitie.
26 Blessed be he that cōmeth in the name of the Lorde: we haue wished you good lucke, ye that be of the house of the Lord.
27 God is the Lorde which hath shewed vs light: bind the sacrifice with cordes, yea euen vnto the hornes of the altar.
28 Thou art my God, and I will thanke thee: thou art my God, and I will praise thee.
29 O giue thankes vnto the Lorde, for he is gracious: and his mercie endureth for euer.

Beati immaculati. Psal. Cxix.

Euening prayer.

1 BLessed are those that are vndefiled in the way: and walke in the lawe of the Lord.
2 Blessed are they that keepe his testimonies: and seeke him with their whole heart.
3 For they which doe no wickednesse walke in his wayes.
4 Thou hast charged: that we shall diligently keepe thy commandements.
5 O that my wayes were made so direct: that I might keepe thy statutes.
6 So shall I not bee confounded: while I haue respect vnto all thy commandements.
7 I will thanke thee with an vnfained heart: when I shall haue learned the iudgements of thy righteousnesse.
8 I will keepe thy ceremonies: O forsake me not vtterly.

In quo corrigit.

1 WHerewithall shall a young man cleanse his way: euen by ruling himselfe after thy word.
2 With my whole heart haue I sought thee: O let me not goe wrong out of thy commandements.
3 Thy wordes haue I hid within mine heart: ꝑ I should not sinne against thee.
4 Blessed art thou, O Lord: O teach mee thy statutes.
5 With my lippes haue I bene telling: of all the iudgements of thy mouth.
6 I haue had as great delight in the way of thy testimonies: as in all maner of riches.
7 I will talke of thy commandements: and haue respect vnto thy wayes.
8 My delight shalbe in thy statutes: and I will not forget thy word.

Retribue seruo tuo.

1 O Doe well vnto thy seruant: that I may liue and keepe thy wordes.
2 Open thou mine eies: that I may see the wonderous things of thy law.
3 I am a stranger vpon earth: O hide not thy commandements from me.
4 My soule breaketh out for the very feruent desire: that it hath alway vnto thy iudgements.
5 Thou hast rebuked the proude: and cursed are they that doe erre from thy commandements.
6 O turne from mee shame and rebuke: for I haue kept thy testimonies.
7 Princes also did sit and speake against me: but thy seruant is occupied in thy statutes.
8 For thy testimonies are my delight: and my counsellers.

Adhæsit pauimento.

1 MY soule cleaueth to the dust: O quicken thou mee according to thy worde.
2 I haue knowledged my wayes, and thou heardest me: O teach me thy statutes.
3 Make me to vnderstand the way of thy commandements: and so shall I talke of thy wonderous workes.
4 My soule melteth away for very heauinesse: comfort thou me according vnto thy worde.
5 Take from mee the way of lying: and cause thou me to make much of thy law.

6 I haue chosen the waye of trueth: & thy iudgements haue I layde before me.
7 I haue stycken vnto thy testimonies: O Lord confound me not.
8 I will runne the waye of thy commandements: when thou hast set my heart at libertie.

Legem pone.

Morning prayer.

1 TEach me, O Lorde, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keepe it vnto the ende.
2 Giue me vnderstanding, and I shall keepe thy lawe: yea, I shall keepe it with my whole heart.
3 Make me to goe in the path of thy cõmandements: for therein is my desire.
4 Encline my heart vnto thy testimonies: and not to couetousnesse.
5 O turne away mine eyes, least they beholde vanitie: and quicken thou mee in thy way.
6 O stablish thy woorde in thy seruant: that I may feare thee.
7 Take away the rebuke þ I am afraide of: for thy iudgements are good.
8 Beholde, my delight is in thy commandementes: O quicken mee in thy righteousnesse.

Et veniat super me.

1 LEt thy louing mercy come also vnto me, O Lord: euen thy saluation, according vnto thy woord.
2 So shal I make answere vnto my blaspheмers: for my trust is in thy word.
3 O take not the woord of thy trueth vtterly out of my mouth: for my hope is in thy iudgements.
4 So shall I allway keepe thy lawe: yea, for euer and euer.
5 And I will walke at libertie: for I seeke thy commandements.
6 I will speake of thy testimonies also, euen before kings: & will not be ashamed.
7 And my delight shall be in thy cõmandements: which I haue loued.
8 My hands also will I lift vp vnto thy commandements, which I haue loued: and my study shalbe in thy statutes.

Memor esto verbi tui.

1 OThinke vpon thy seruant, as concerning thy woorde: wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust.
2 The same is my cõfort in my trouble: for thy word hath quickened me.
3 The proude haue had mee exceedingly in derision: yet haue I not shrinked frõ thy lawe.
4 For I remembred thine euerlasting iudgements, O Lord: & receiued cõfort.
5 I am horribly afrayd: for the vngodly that forsake thy law.
6 Thy statutes haue bene my songs: in the house of my pilgrimage.
7 I haue thought vpon thy name, O Lorde, in the night season: and haue kept thy lawe.
8 This I had: because I kept thy commandements.

Portio mea Domine.

1 THou art my portion, O Lorde: I haue promised to keepe thy lawe.
2 I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart: O bee mercifull vnto mee according vnto thy woorde.
3 I called mine owne wayes to remembrance: and turned my feete vnto thy testimonies.
4 I made haste, and prolonged not the time: to keepe thy commandements.
5 The congregation of the vngodly haue robbed mee: but I haue not forgotten thy lawe.
6 At midnight I will rise to giue thãkes vnto thee: because of thy righteous iudgements.
7 I am a cõpanion of all them that feare thee: and keepe thy commandements.
8 The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: O teach me thy statutes.

Bonitatem fecisti.

1 OLorde, thou hast dealt graciously with thy seruant: according vnto thy woord.
2 O learne mee true vnderstanding and knowledge: for I haue beleeued thy cõmandements.
3 Before I was troubled, I went wrõg: but now haue I kept thy word.
4 Thou art good and gracious: O teach me thy statutes.
5 The proud haue imagined a lie against me: but I will keepe thy commandements with my whole heart.
6 Their heart is as fatte as brawne: but my delight hath bene in thy lawe.
7 It is good for mee that I haue bene in trouble: that I may learne thy statutes.
8 The lawe of thy mouth is dearer vnto me: then thousands of gold and siluer.

Manus tuæ fecerunt me.

Euening prayer.

1 THy handes haue made me, and fashioned me: O giue me vnderstanding, that I may learne thy commandements.
2 They that feare thee, will be glad when they see mee: because I haue put my trust in thy woord.
3 I know (O Lord) that thy iudgements are right: and that thou of very faithfulnesse hast caused me to be troubled.
4 O let thy mercifull kindnesse bee my comfort: according to thy woorde vnto thy seruant.
5 O let thy louing mercies come vnto me, þ I may liue: for thy law is my delight.
6 Let the proud be confounded, for they goe wickedly about to destroy me: but I will be occupied in thy commandemẽts.
7 Let such as feare thee, and haue knowẽ thy testimonies: be turned vnto me.
8 O let my heart be sound in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.

Defecit anima mea.

1 MY soule hath longed for thy saluation: and I haue a good hope because of thy woorde.
2 Mine eyes long sore for thy woorde: saying, saying, O when wilt thou comfort me?

3 For I am become like a bottell in the smoke: yet do I not forget thy statutes.
4 How many are the dayes of thy seruant: when wilt thou be auenged of thē that persecute me?
5 The proude haue digged pits for mee: which are not after thy lawe.
6 All thy commaundements are true: they persecute me falsely, O bee thou my helpe.
7 They had almost made an ende of me vpon earth: but I forsooke not thy commaundements.
8 O quicken mee after thy louing kindnesse: and so shall I keepe the testimonies of thy mouth.

In æternum Domine.

1 O Lord, thy word: endureth for euer in heauen.
2 Thy trueth also remaineth from one generatiō to another: thou hast laide the foundation of the earth, & it abideth.
3 They continue this day according to thine ordināce: for all things serue thee.
4 If my delight had not bene in thy law: I should haue perished in my trouble.
5 I will neuer forget thy commaundements: for with them thou hast quickened me.
6 I am thine, oh saue mee: for I haue sought thy commandements.
7 The vngodly layde wayte for mee to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.
8 I see that all things come to an ende: but thy commaundement is exceeding broad.

Quomodo dilexi.

1 Lorde, what loue haue I vnto thy lawe: all the day long is my studie in it.
2 Thou through thy commaundements hast made me wiser then mine enemies: for they are euer with me.
3 I haue more vnderstanding then my teachers: for thy testimonies are my studie.
4 I am wiser then the aged: because I keepe thy commandements.
5 I haue refrayned my feete from euery euill way: that I may keepe thy word.
6 I haue not shrunke from thy iudgements: for thou teachest me.
7 O howe sweete are thy woordes vnto my throte: yea, sweeter then hony vnto my mouth.
8 Through thy commandements I get vnderstanding: therefore I hate all wicked wayes.

Lucerna pedibus meis.

Morning prayer.

1 Thy word is a lanterne vnto my feete: & a light vnto my paths.
2 I haue sworne, & am stedfastly purposed: to keepe thy righteous iudgements.
3 I am troubled aboue measure: quicken me (O Lorde) according to thy word.
4 Let the free will offerings of my mouth please thee, O Lord: and teache mee thy iudgements.
5 My soule is alway in my hand: yet do I not forget thy lawe.
6 The vngodly haue layde a snare for me: but yet I swarued not from thy cōmandements.
7 Thy testimonies haue I claymed as mine heritage for euer: and why? they are the very ioy of my heart.
8 I haue applyed my heart to fulfill thy statutes alway: euen vnto the ende.

Iniquos odio habui.

1 I hate them that imagine euill things: but thy lawe doe I loue.
2 Thou art my defence and shielde: and my trust is in thy word.
3 Away from me ye wicked: I will keepe the commandements of my God.
4 O stablish me according vnto thy word, that I may liue: and let me not be disappointed of my hope.
5 Holde thou me vp, and I shall be safe: yea, my delight shall bee euer in thy statutes.
6 Thou hast troden downe all them that depart frō thy statutes: for they imagine but deceite.
7 Thou puttest away all the vngodly of the earth like drosse: therefore I loue thy testimonies.
8 My flesh trembleth for feare of thee: & I am afraide of thy iudgements.

Feci iudicium.

1 I deale with the thing that is lawfull & right: O giue me not ouer vnto mine oppressours.
2 Make thou thy seruāt to delight in that which is good: that the proude doe me no wrong.
3 Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health: and for the worde of thy righteousnesse.
4 O deale with thy seruāt according vnto thy louing mercy: and teach mee thy statutes.
5 I am thy seruant, O graunt me vnderstanding: that I may knowe thy testimonies.
6 It is time for thee Lorde to lay to thine hand: for they haue destroyed thy lawe.
7 For I loue thy commandements: aboue gold and precious stone.
8 Therefore holde I straite all thy commandements: and all false wayes I vtterly abhorre.

Mirabilia.

1 Thy testimonies are wonderfull: therefore doeth my soule keepe thē.
2 When thy word goeth forth: it giueth light and vnderstanding vnto the simple.
3 I opened my mouth, and drewe in my breath: for my delight was in thy commandements.
4 O looke thou vpon me, and be merciful vnto me: as thou vsest to doe vnto those that loue thy name.
5 Order my steppes in thy worde, and so shall shall no wickednesse haue dominion o-ner me.

6 O deliuer me from the wrongfull dealings of men: and so shall I kéepe thy commandements.
7 Shew the light of thy countenance vpō thy seruant: and teach me thy statutes.
8 Mine eies gush out with water: because men kéepe not thy law.

Iustus es Domine.

1 RIghteous art thou, O Lord: & true is thy iudgement.
2 The testimonies that thou hast cōmanded: are exceéding righteous & true.
3 My zeale hath euen consumed me: because mine enemies haue forgotten thy wordes.
4 Thy word is tried to the vttermost: and thy seruant loueth it.
5 I am small, and of no reputation: yet
doe I not forget thy commandements.
6 Thy righteousnesse is an euerlasting righteousnes: and thy law is the truth.
7 Trouble and heauines haue taken hold vpon me: yet is my delight in thy com-mandements.
8 The righteousnesse of thy testimonies is euerlasting: O grant me vnderstāding, and I shall liue.

Clamaui in toto corde meo.

Euening prayer.

1 I Call with my whole heart: heare mée, O Lorde, I will kéepe thy statutes.
2 Yea, euen vpon thee doe I call:
helpe me, and I shall kéepe thy testimonies.
3 Early in the morning doe I crie vnto thée: for in thy word is my trust.
4 Mine eyes preuent the night watches:
that I might be occupyed in thy wordes.
5 Heare my voyce (O Lord) according vnto thy louing kindnesse: quicken me according as thou art wont.
6 They drawe nigh that of malice persecute me: and are farre from thy lawe.
7 Be thou nigh at hand, O Lorde: for all thy commandements are true.
8 As concerning thy testimonies, I haue knowen long since: that thou hast grouded them for euer.

Vide humilitatem.

1 Consider mine aduersitie, & deliuer me: for I do not forget thy law.
2 Auenge thou my cause and de-liuer me: quicken mee according vnto thy worde.
3 Health is farre from the vngodly: for they regard not thy statutes.
4 Great is thy mercie, O Lord: quicken me as thou art wont.
5 Many there are that trouble me, and persecute me: yet do I not swarue from thy testimonies.
6 It grieueth me when I sée the trāsgressours: because they kéepe not thy law.
7 Consider, O Lord, how I loue thy com-mandements: O quicken me according to thy louing kindnesse.
8 Thy word is true from euerlasting: all the iudgements of thy righteousnes endure for euermore.

Principes persecuti sunt.

1 PRinces haue persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy wordes.
2 I am as glad of thy word: as one that findeth great spoyles.
3 As for lyes, I hate and abhorre them:
but thy law doe I loue.
4 Seuen times a day do I prayse thée: because of thy righteous iudgements.
5 Great is the peace that they haue which loue thy lawe: and they are not offended at it.
6 Lorde, I haue looked for thy sauing health: & done after thy cōmandements.
7 My soule hath kept thy testimonies:
and loued them exceédingly.
8 I haue kept thy commandements and testimonies: for all my wayes are before thée.

Appropinquet deprecatio.

1 LEt my complaint come before thée, O Lord: giue me vnderstanding according to thy word.
2 Let my supplication come before thée:
deliuer me according to thy word.
3 My lippes shall speake of thy prayse:
when thou hast taught me thy statutes.
4 Yea, my tongue shal sing of thy worde:
for all thy cōmandements are righteous.
5 Let thine hand helpe me: for I haue chosen thy commandements.
6 I haue longed for thy sauing health, O
Lord: and in thy law is my delight.
7 Oh let my soule liue, and it shall prayse thée: and thy iudgements shall helpe me.
8 I haue gone astray like a sheepe that is lost: oh séeke thy seruant, for I doe not forget thy commandements.

Ad Dominum. Psal. Cxx.

Morning prayer.

1 WHen I was in trouble, I called vpon the Lord: and he heard me.
2 Deliuer my soule, O Lord, from lying lippes: and from a deceitefull tongue.
3 What reward shall bee giuen or done vnto thee thou false tongue: euen mightie and sharpe arrowes, with hote burning coles.
4 Woe is me, that I am constrained to dwell with Mesech: and to haue mine habitation among the tents of Cedar.
5 My soule hath long dwelt among them:
that be enemies vnto peace.
6 I labour for peace, but when I speake vnto them thereof: they make them readie to battell.

Leuaui oculos. Psal. Cxxi.

1 I Will lift vp mine eies vnto the hilles:
from whence commeth my helpe.
2 My helpe commeth euen from the Lorde: which hath made heauen and earth.
3 Hee will not suffer thy foote to bee
moued:

mooned: and he that keepeth thée, will not sleepe.

4 Beholde, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleepe.

5 The Lorde himselfe is thy keeper: the Lorde is thy defence vpon thy right hande.

6 So that the Sunne shall not burne thée by day: neither the Moone by night.

7 The Lorde shall preserue thée from all euill: yea, it is euen hee that shall keepe thy soule.

8 The Lorde shall preserue thy going out and thy comming in; from this time forth for euermore.

Lætatus sum. Psal. Cxxii.

1 I Was glad when they saide vnto me: Wee will goe into the house of the Lorde.

2 Our feete shall stande in thy gates: O Hierusalem.

3 Hierusalem is builded as a citie: that is at vnitie in it selfe.

4 For thither the tribes goe, vp, euen the tribes of the Lorde: to testifie vnto Israel, to giue thankes vnto the name of the Lorde.

5 For there is the seate of iudgement: euen the seate of the house of Dauid.

6 O pray for the peace of Hierusalem: they shall prosper that loue thée.

7 Peace be within thy walles: and plentifulnesse within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren & companions sakes: I will wish thee prosperitie.

9 Yea, because of the house of the Lorde our God: I will seeke to doe thée good.

Ad te leuaui oculos meos. Psal. Cxxiii.

1 VNto thee lift I vp mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heauens.

2 Beholde, euen as the eyes of seruants looke vnto the hande of their masters, and as the eyes of a mayden vnto the hande of her mistresse: euen so our eyes waite vpon the Lorde our GOD, vntill hee haue mercie vpon vs.

3 Haue mercie vpon vs, O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs: for wee are vtterly despised.

4 Our soule is filled with the scornefull reproofe of the wealthie: and with the despitefulnesse of the proude.

Nisi quia Dominus. Psal. Cxxiiii.

1 IF the Lorde himselfe had not bene on our side (nowe may Israel say:) if the Lorde him selfe had not bene on our side when men rose vp against vs.

2 They had swallowed vs vp quicke: when they were so wrathfully displeased at vs.

3 Yea, the waters had drowned vs: and the streame had gone ouer our soule.

4 The deepe waters of the proude: had gone euen ouer our soule.

5 But praysed be the Lorde: which hath not giuen vs ouer for a pray vnto their teeth.

6 Our soule is escaped, euen as a birde out of the snare of the fowler: the snares broken, and we are deliuered.

7 Our helpe standeth in the name of the Lorde: which hath made heauen and earth.

Qui confidunt. Psal. Cxxv.

1 THey that put their trust in the Lorde, shall bee euen as the mount Sion: which may not bée removed, but standeth fast for euer.

2 The hilles stande about Hierusalem: euen so standeth the Lorde round about his people, from this time forth for euermore.

3 For the rod of the vngodly commeth not into the lot of the righteous: least the righteous put their hande vnto wickednesse.

4 Do wel, O Lorde, vnto those that be good and true of heart.

5 As for such as turne backe vnto their owne wickednesse: the Lorde shall leade them forth with the euill doers, but peace shall be vpon Israel.

In conuertendo. Psal. Cxxvi.

1 WHen the Lorde turned a gaine the captiuitie of Sion: then were we like vnto them that dreame. Euening prayer.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter: and our tongue with ioy.

3 Then said they among the heathen: The Lorde hath done great things for them.

4 Yea, the Lorde hath done great things for vs alreadie: whereof we reioyce.

5 Turne our captiuitie, O Lorde: as the riuers in the South.

6 They that sowe in teares: shall reape in ioy.

7 Hee that nowe goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good séede: shall doubtlesse come againe with ioy, and bring his sheaues with him.

Nisi Dominus. Psal. Cxxvii.

1 EXcept the Lorde builde the house: their labour is but lost that build it.

2 Except the Lorde keepe the citie: the watchman waketh but in vaine.

3 It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise vp early, and so late take rest, and eate the bread of carefulnesse: for so hee giueth his beloued sléepe.

4 Loe, children & the fruit of the wombe: are an heritage and gift that commeth of the Lorde.

5 Like as the arrowes in the hand of the Gyant: euen so are the yong children.

6 Happie is the man that hath his quiuer full of them: they shall not be ashamed when they speake with their enemies in the gate.

Beati omnes. Psal. Cxxviii.

1 BLessed are al they that feare the Lorde: and walke in his wayes.

2 For thou shalt eate the labours of thine thine handes: O well is thee, and happie shalt thou be.

3 Thy wife shall be as the fruitfull vine: vpon the walles of thine house.

4 Thy children like the Olive branches: round about thy table.

5 Loe, thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth the Lord.

6 The Lorde from out of Sion shall so blesse thee: that thou shalt see Hierusalem in prosperitie all thy life long.

7 Yea, that thou shalt see thy childrens children: and peace vpon Israel.

Sæpe expugnauerunt. Psal. cxxix.

1 Many a time haue they fought against me frō my youth vp: (may Israel now say.)

2 Yea, many a time haue they vexed mee from my youth vp: but they haue not preuailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed vpon my backe: and made long furrowes.

4 But the righteous Lord: hath hewen the snares of the vngodly in pieces.

5 Let them bee confounded and turned backewarde: as many as haue euill will at Sion.

6 Let them be euen as the grasse growing vpon the house toppes: which withereth afore it be plucked vp.

7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his handes: neither hee that bindeth vp the sheaues, his bosome.

8 So that they which goe by, say not so much as the Lord prosper you: we wish you good lucke in the name of the Lord.

De profundis. Psal. cxxx.

1 Out of the deepe haue I called vnto thee (O Lorde:) Lorde heare my voyce.

2 Oh let thine eares consider well: the voyce of my complaint.

3 If thou Lorde wilt bee extreme to marke what is done amisse: oh Lorde, who may abide it?

4 For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

5 I looke for the Lorde, my soule doeth wayte for him: in his word is my trust.

6 My soule fleeth vnto the Lorde: before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercie: and with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And he shall redeeme Israel: from all his sinnes.

Domine non est. Psal. cxxxi.

1 LOrd, I am not high minded: I haue no proude lookes.

2 I doe not exercise my selfe in great matters: which are too high for me.

3 But I refraine my soule, and keepe it lowe, like as a childe that is weaned frō his mother: yea, my soule is euen as a weaned childe.

4 O Israel trust in the Lorde: from this time forth for euermore.

Memento Domine. Psal. cxxxii.

1 LOrd remember Dauid: and all his trouble. Morning prayer.

2 Howe he sware vnto the Lord: & vowed a vowe vnto the almightie God of Jacob.

3 I will not come within the tabernacle of my house: nor clime vp into my bed.

4 I will not suffer mine eyes to sleepe, nor mine eye lids to slumber; neither the temples of my head to take any rest.

5 Vntill I finde out a place for the temple of the Lorde: a habitation for the mightie God of Jacob.

6 Loe, we heard of the same at Ephrata: and found it in the wood.

7 Wee will goe into his tabernacle: and fall lowe on our knees before his footestoole.

8 Arise, O Lorde, into thy resting place: thou and the arke of thy strength.

9 Let thy Priests bee clothed with righteousnes: and let thy saints sing with ioyfulnesse.

10 For thy seruāt Dauids sake: turne not away the presence of thine anoynted.

11 The Lord hath made a faithfull othe vnto Dauid: and he shal not shrinke frō it.

12 Of the fruite of thy body: shal I set vpon thy seate.

13 If thy children will keepe my coueināt and my testimonies that I shall learne them: their children and shall sitte vpon thy seate for euermore.

14 For the Lord hath chosen Sion to bee an habitation for himselfe: he hath longed for her.

15 This shall be my rest for euer: here will I dwell, for I haue a delight therein.

16 I will blesse her vitailes with increase: and will satisfie her poore with breed.

17 I will decke her Priestes with health: and her saints shall reioyce and sing.

18 There shall I make the horne of Dauid to flourish: I haue ordeined a lanterne for mine anoynted.

19 As for his enemies, I shall cloth them with shame: but vpon himselfe shall his crowne flourish.

Ecce quam bonum. Psal. cxxxiii.

1 BEholde howe good and ioyfull a thing it is: brethren to dwell together in vnitie.

2 It is like the precious ointment vpon the head, that ranne downe vnto the beard: euen vnto Aarons beard, & went downe to the skirts of his clothing.

3 Like as the dewe of Hermon: which fell vpon the hill of Sion.

4 For there the Lord promised his blessing: and life for euermore.

Ecce nunc. Psal. cxxxiii.

1 BEhold (nowe) prayse the Lorde: all ye seruants of the Lord.

2 Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord: euen in the courtes of the house of our God.

3 Lift vp your handes in the sanctuarie: and and prayse the Lord.

4 The Lord that made heauen and earth: giue thee blessing out of Sion.

Laudate nomen. Psal. cxxxv.

1 O Prayse the Lord, laud ye the name of the Lorde: prayse it, O ye seruants of the Lord.

2 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord: in the courtes of the house of our God.

3 O prayse the Lord, for the Lord is gracious: O sing prayses vnto his name, for it is louely.

4 For why? the Lord hath chosen Jacob vnto himselfe: and Israel for his owne possession.

5 For I know that the Lord is great: & that our Lord is aboue all gods.

6 Whatsoeuer the Lord pleased, that did he in heauen and in earth: and in the sea, and in all deepe places.

7 He bringeth forth the clowdes from the ends of the world: & sendeth forth lightnings with the raine, bringing the windes out of his treasures.

8 He smote the first borne of Egypt: both of man and beast.

9 He hath sent tokens and wonders into the middest of thee, O thou land of Egypt: vpon Pharao and all his seruants.

10 He smote diuers nations: and slewe mighty kings.

11 Sehon king of the Amorites, and Og the king of Basan: & all the kingdomes of Chanaan.

12 And gaue their land to be an heritage: euen an heritage vnto Israel his people.

13 Thy name, O Lord, endureth for euer: so doeth thy memorial, O Lord, from one generation to another.

14 For the Lord will auenge his people: and be gracious vnto his seruants.

15 As for the images of the heathen, they are but siluer and golde: the worke of mens handes.

16 They haue mouthes, and speake not: eyes haue they, but they see not.

17 They haue eares, and yet they heare not: neither is there any breath in their mouthes.

18 They that make them, are like vnto them: and so are all they that put their trust in them.

19 Prayse the Lorde ye house of Israel: prayse the Lord ye house of Aaron.

20 Prayse the Lord ye house of Leui: ye that feare the Lord, prayse the Lord.

21 Prayse be the Lord out of Sion: which dwelleth at Hierusalem.

Confitemini. Psal. cxxxvi.

Euening prayer.

1 O Giue thankes vnto the Lorde, for he is gratious: & his mercy endureth for euer.

2 O giue thankes vnto the God of all gods: for his mercie endureth for euer.

3 O thanke the Lord of all lords: for his mercie endureth for euer.

4 Which onely doeth great wonders: for his mercie endureth for euer.

5 Which by his excellet wisedome made the heauens: for his mercie endureth for euer.

6 Which laide out the earth aboue the waters: for his mercy endureth for euer.

7 Which hath made great lightes: for his mercie endureth for euer.

8 The Sunne to rule the day: for his mercie endureth for euer.

9 The Moone and the Starres to gouerne the night: for his mercie endureth for euer.

10 Which smote Egypt with their first borne: for his mercie endureth for euer.

11 And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercie endureth for euer.

12 With a mighty hand and stretched out arme: for his mercie endureth for euer.

13 Which deuided the red sea in two parts: for his mercy endureth for euer.

14 And made Israel to go through the middest of it: for his mercie endureth for euer.

15 But as for Pharao and his hoste, he ouerthrew them in the red sea: for his mercie endureth for euer.

16 Which led his people through the wildernesse: for his mercy endureth for euer.

17 Which smote great kings: for his mercie endureth for euer.

18 Yea, and slue mighty kings: for his mercie endureth for euer.

19 Sehon king of the Amorites: for his mercie endureth for euer.

20 And Og the king of Basan: for his mercy endureth for euer.

21 And gaue away their lande for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for euer.

22 Euen for an heritage vnto Israel his seruant: for his mercy endureth for euer.

23 Which remembred vs when we were in trouble: for his mercy endureth for euer.

24 And hath deliuered vs from our enemies: for his mercie endureth for euer.

25 Which giueth foode to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for euer.

26 O giue thankes vnto the God of heauen: for his mercie endureth for euer.

27 O giue thankes vnto the Lord of lordes: for his mercy endureth for euer.

Super flumina. Psal. cxxxvii.

1 By the waters of Babylon wee sate downe and wept: when we remembred (thee) O Sion.

2 As for our harpes, we hanged them vp: vpon the trees that are therein.

3 For they that led vs away captiue, required of vs then a song and melodie in our heauinesse: sing vs one of the songes of Sion.

4 Howe shall we sing the Lordes song: in a strange land?

5 If I forget thee, O Hierusalem: let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I doe not remember thee, let my tongue cleaue to the roofe of my mouth: yea, if I preferre not Hierusalem in my mynde.

7 Remember the children of Edom, O Lord,

Lorde, in the day of Hierusalem: howe they said, Downe with it, downe with it, euen to the ground.

8 O daughter of Babylon, wasted with miserie: yea, happie shall he bee that rewardeth thee as thou hast serued vs.

9 Blessed shall he be that taketh thy children: and throweth them against the stones.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. Cxxxviii.

1 I Will giue thankes vnto thee, O Lorde, with my whole heart: euen before the gods will I sing praise vnto thee.

2 I wil worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name, because of thy louing kindnesse and truth: for thou hast magnified thy name, and thy worde aboue all things.

3 When I called vpon thee, thou heardest me: and endouedst my soule with much strength.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lorde: for they haue heard the wordes of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the wayes of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath hee respect vnto the lowly: as for the proude, he beholdeth them a farre off.

7 Though I walke in the middes of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh mee: thou shalt stretche forth thine hand vpon the furiousnesse of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall saue me.

8 The Lorde shall make good his louing kindnesse towarde mee: yea, thy mercy, O Lorde, endureth for euer, despise not then the works of thine owne handes.

Domine, probasti. Psal. Cxxxix.

Morning prayer.

1 O Lorde, thou hast searched mee out, and knowen mee: thou knowest my downe sitting, and mine vprising, thou vnderstandest my thoughtes long before.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bedde: and spiest out all my wayes.

3 For loe, there is not a worde in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned mee behinde and before: and layde thine hand vpon mée.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderfull and excellent for mee: I cannot attaine vnto it.

6 Whither shall I goe then from thy spirite: or whither shall I go then from thy presence?

7 If I clime vp into heauen, thou art there: if I goe downe to hell, thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning: & remaine in ꝑ vttermost partes of the sea.

9 Euen there also shall thy hand leade me: and thy right hand shall hold me.

10 If I say, Peraduenture the darkenesse shall couer mée: then shall my night bée turned to day.

11 Yea, the darkenes is no darknes with thée, but the night is as cleare as the day: the darkenesse and light (to thée) are both alike.

12 For my reines are thine: thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe.

13 I will giue thanks vnto thee, for I am fearefully and wonderfully made: marueilous are thy workes, and that my soule knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid frō thée: though I bee made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being vnperfect: and in thy booke were all my members written.

16 Which day by day were fashioned: when as yet there was none of them.

17 Howe deare are thy counsailes vnto mée, O God: O how great is the summe of them?

18 If I tell them, they are mo in nomber then the sand: when I wake vp, I am present with thée.

19 Wilt not thou slay the wicked, O God: depart from me ye bloodthirstie men.

20 For they speake vnrighteously against thee: and thine enemies take thy name in vaine.

21 Doe not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thée: and am not I grieued with those that rise vp against thee?

22 Yea, I hate them right sore: euen as though they were mine enemies.

23 Try me, O God, and seeke the ground of my heart: proue me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Looke well if there be any way of wickednes in me: and leade mee in the way euerlasting.

Eripe me Domine. Psal. Cxl.

1 Deliuer me O Lorde from the euill man: and preserue mée from the wicked man.

2 Which imagine mischiefe in their heartes: and stirre vp strife all the day long.

3 They haue sharpened their tongues like a serpent: Adders poyson is vnder their lippes.

4 Kéepe mee O Lorde from the hands of the vngodly: preserue me from the wicked men which are purposed to ouerthrowe my goinges.

5 The proude hath layde a snare for mée, and spread a net abroade with cordes: yea, and set trappes in my way.

6 I sayd vnto the Lorde, Thou art my God: heare the voyce of my prayers, O Lord.

7 O Lorde GOD, thou strength of my health: thou hast couered my head in the day of battell.

8 Let not the vngodly haue his desire, O Lord: let not his mischieuous imagination prosper, least they be too proude.

9 Let the mischiefe of their owne lippes fall vpon the head of them: that compasse me about.

10 Let hot burning coales fall vpon them:

let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they neuer rise vp againe.
11 A man full of wordes, shall not prosper vpon the earth: euill shall hunt the wicked person to ouerthrowe him.
12 Sure I am that the Lorde will auenge the poore: and maintaine the cause of the helpelesse.
13 The righteous also shall giue thanks vnto thy name: and the iust shall continue in thy sight.

Domine, clamaui. Psal. Cxli.

1 LOrde, I call vpon thee, haste thee vnto me: and consider my voyce, when I cry vnto thee.
2 Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense: and let the lifting vp of my handes be an euening sacrifice.
3 Set a watch (O Lord) before my mouth: and keepe the doore of my lippes.
4 O let not mine heart be enclined to any euill thing: let mee not bee occupied in vngodly workes, with the men of wicke wickednesse, least I eate of such things as please them.
5 Let the righteous rather smite mee friendly: and reproue me.
6 But let not their precious balmes breake mine head: yea, I will pray yet against their wickednesse.
7 Let their iudges be ouerthrowen in stonie places: that they may heare my wordes, for they are sweete.
8 Our bones lie scattered before the pitte: like as when one breaketh and heweth wood vpon the earth.
9 But mine eyes looke vnto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soule.
10 Keepe me from the snare which they haue layde for me: and from the trappes of the wicked doers.
11 Let the vngodly fall into their owne nettes together: and let mee euer escape them.

Voce mea ad Dominum. Psal. Cxlii.

Euening prayer.

1 I Cryed vnto the Lord with my voyce: yea, euen vnto the Lorde did I make my supplication.
2 I powred out my complaynte before him: and shewed him of my trouble.
3 When my spirite was in heauinesse, thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked, haue they priuily layd a snare for me.
4 I looked also vpon my right hand: and sawe there was no man that would knowe me.
5 I had no place to flee vnto: and no man cared for my soule.
6 I cryed vnto thee, O Lorde, and sayde: Thou art my hope, and my portion in the land of the liuing.
7 Consider my complaint: for I am brought very lowe.
8 O deliuer mee from my persecutours: for they are too strong for me.
9 Bring my soule out of prison, that I may giue thanks vnto thy name: which thing if thou wilt graunt mee, then shall the righteous resort vnto my company.

Domine, exaudi. Psal. Cxliii.

1 HEare my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire: hearken vnto mee for thy truethe & righteousnes sake.
2 And enter not into iudgement with thy seruant: for in thy sight shall no man liuing be iustified.
3 For the enemie hath persecuted my soule, he hath smitten my life downe to the ground: he hath laid me in the darkenesse, as the men that haue bene long dead.
4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me: and my heart within me is desolate.
5 Yet doe I remember the time past, I muse vpon all thy workes: yea, I exercise my selfe in the workes of thy handes.
6 I stretch forth my hands vnto thee: my soule gaspeth vnto thee as a thirstie land.
7 Heare mee, O Lorde, and that soone, for my spirite waxeth faynt: hide not thy face from mee, least I be like vnto them that goe downe into the pit.
8 O let me heare thy louing kindnes betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust: shewe thou mee the way that I should walke in, for I lift vp my soule vnto thee.
9 Deliuer mee, O Lorde, from mine enemies: for I flee vnto thee to hide me.
10 Teache mee to doe the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God: let thy louing spirite leade me forthinto the lande of righte usnesse.
11 Quicken mee, O Lorde, for thy names sake: and for thy righteousnes sake bring my soule out of trouble.
12 And of thy goodnesse slay mine enemies: and destroy all them that vexe my soule, for I am thy seruant.

Benedictus Dominus. Psal. Cxliii.

Morning prayer.

1 BLessed be the Lorde my strength: which teacheth my handes to warre, and my fingers to fight.
2 My hope and my fortresse, my castle and deliuerer, my defender, in whome I trust: which subdueth my people that is vnder me.
3 Lorde, what is man that thou hast such respect vnto him: or the sonne of man that thou so regardest him?
4 Man is like a thing of nought: his time passeth away like a shadowe.
5 Bowe thy heauens, O Lord, and come downe: touch the mountaines, and they shall smoke.
6 Cast forth thy lightning, and teare them: shoote out thine arowes, and consume them.
7 Send downe thine hand from aboue: deliuer me, and take mee out of the great waters, from the hand of strange children.
8 Whose mouth talketh of vanitie: and their their right hand is a right hand of wickednesse.

9 I will sing a newe song vnto thee, O God: and sing prayses vnto thee vpon a ten stringed lute.

10 Thou hast giuen victorie vnto kings: and hast delmered Dauid thy seruant frō the perill of the swoꝛd.

11 Saue me and deliuer me from the hand of strange children: whose mouth talketh of vanitie, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquitie.

12 That our sonnes may growe vp as the yong plants: and that our daughters may bee as the polished coꝛners of the temple.

13 That our garners may be ful and plentious with all maner of stoꝛe: that our sheepe may bring foꝛth thousandes, and tenne thousands in our streetes.

14 That our oxen may be strōg to labour, þ there be no decay: no leading into captiuitie, & no complaynyng in our streetes.

15 Happie are the people that be in such a case: yea, blessed are the people which haue the Lord foꝛ their God.

Exaltabote Deus. Psal. Cxlv.

1 I Will magnifie thee, O God, my king: and I wil prayse thy name foꝛ euer & euer.

2 Euery day wil I giue thanks vnto thee: and prayse thy name foꝛ euer and euer.

3 Great is the Lord, and marueilous woꝛthie to be praysed: there is no ende of his greatnesse.

4 One generation shal prayse thy woꝛkes vnto another: and declare thy power.

5 As foꝛ mee, I wil be talking of thy woꝛship: thy glory, thy prayse, and wonderous woꝛkes.

6 So that men shall speake of the might of thy marueilous actes: and I will also tell of thy greatnesse.

7 The memorial of thine abundant kindnesse shalbe shewed: and men shal sing of thy righteousnesse.

8 The Lord is gracious & merciful: long suffering, and of great goodnesse.

9 The Lord is louing vnto euery man: & his mercy is ouer all his woꝛkes.

10 All thy woꝛkes prayse thee, O Lorde: & thy saintes giue thankes vnto thee.

11 They shew the glory of thy kingdome: and talke of thy power.

12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightinesse of thy kingdome: might bee knowen vnto men.

13 Thy kingdome is an euerlasting kingdome: & thy dominiō endureth throughout all ages.

14 The Lord vpholdeth all such as fal: and lifteth vp all those that be downe.

15 The eyes of all wayte vpon thee, O Lorde: and thou giuest them their meate in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things liuing with plentousnesse.

17 The Lord is righteous in al his waies: and holy in all his woꝛkes.

18 The Lorde is nigh vnto all them, that call vpon him: yea, all such as call vpon him faithfully.

19 Hee will fulfill the desire of them that feare him: he also wil heare their cry, and will helpe them.

20 The Lorde preserueth all them that loue him: but scattereth abroade al the vngodly.

21 My mouth shall speake the prayse of the Lord: and let all flesh giue thankes vnto his holy name foꝛ euer and euer.

Lauda anima mea. Psal. Cxlvi.

1 PRayse the Lorde, O my soule, while I liue will I prayse the Lord: yea, as long as I haue any being, I will sing prayses vnto my God.

2 O put not your trust in princes, noꝛ in any childe of man: foꝛ there is no helpe in them.

3 Foꝛ when the breath of man goeth foꝛth, he shall turne againe to his earth: and then all his thoughts perish.

4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Iacob foꝛ his helpe: and whose hope is in þ Lord his God.

5 Which made heauen and earth, the sea and all that therein is: which keepeth his promise foꝛ euer.

6 Which helpeth them to right that suffer wrong: which feedeth the hungry.

7 The Lord looseth men out of prison: the Lord giueth sight to the blinde.

8 The Lord helpeth them that are fallen: the Lord careth foꝛ the righteous.

9 The Lorde careth foꝛ the strangers, hee defendeth the fatherlesse and widow: as foꝛ the way of the vngodly, he turneth it vpside downe.

10 The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be king foꝛ euermoꝛe: and throughout al generations.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlvii.

O Prayse the Lord, foꝛ it is a good thing to sing prayses vnto our God: yea, a ioyfull and pleasant thing it is to bee thankful. Euening prayer,

2 The Lorde doeth buylde vp Hierusalem: and gather together the outcastes of Israel.

3 He healeth those that are broke in heart: and giueth medicine to heale their sicknesse.

4 He telleth the number of the starres: and calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our Lord, and great is his power: yea, and his wisdome is infinite.

6 The Lorde setteth vp the meeke: and bringeth the vngodly downe to the ground.

7 O sing vnto the Lorde with thankesgiuing: sing prayses vpon the harpe vnto our God.

8 Which couereth the heauen with cloudes, and prepareth rayne foꝛ the earth: and maketh the grasse to growe vpon the mountaines, and herbe foꝛ the vse of men.

9 Which giueth fodder vnto the cattell:

let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they neuer rise vp againe.
11 A man full of wordes, shall not prosper vpon the earth: euill shall hunt the wicked person to ouerthrowe him.

6 The Lorde ſetteth vp the meeke: and bringeth the vngodly downe to the ground.
7 O ſing vnto the Lorde with thankeſgiuing: ſing prayſes vpon the harpe vnto our God.
8 Which couereth the heauen with cloudes, and prepareth rayne for the earth: and maketh the graſſe to growe vpon the mountaines, and herbs for the vſe of men.
9 Which giueth fodder vnto the cattell:

and feedeth the yong rauens that cal vpon him.
10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse: neyther delighteth hee in any mans legges.
11 But the Lordes delight is in them that feare him: and put their trust in his mercie.
12 Praise the Lorde, O Hierusalem: praise thy God, O Sion.
13 For hee hath made fast the barres of thy gates: and hath blessed thy children within thee.
14 Hee maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the flowre of wheate.
15 He sendeth forth his commaundement vpon earth: and his word runneth very swiftly.
16 He giueth snow like wooll: and scatereth the hoare frost like ashes.
17 He casteth forth his yce like morsels: who is able to abide his frost?
18 He sendeth out his worde, and melteth them: he bloweth with his winde, and the waters flowe.
19 He sheweth his worde vnto Jacob: his statutes and ordinances vnto Israel.
20 Hee hath not dealt so with any nation: neither haue the heathen knowledge of his lawes.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlviii.

1 O Praise the Lord of heauen: praise him in the height.
2 Prayse him al yee angels of his: praise him all his hoste.
3 Praise him Sunne and Moone: praise him all ye starres and light,
4 Praise him al ye heauens: and yee waters that be aboue the heauens.
5 Let them praise the name of the Lord: for he spake the worde, and they were made, he commanded, and they were created.
6 He hath made them fast for euer and euer: hee hath giuen them a lawe which shall not be broken.
7 Praise the Lorde vpon earth: yee Dragons and all deepes.
8 Fire and haile, snow & vapours: winde and storme, fulfilling his worde.
9 Mountaines and all hilles: fruitefull trees, and all Cedars.
10 Beastes and all cattell: wormes, and feathered fowles.
11 Kings of the earth, and all people: princes, and all iudges of the worlde.
12 Yong men and maydens, olde men and children, praise the name of the Lord: for his name onely is excellent, & his praise aboue heauen and earth.
13 He shall exalt the horne of his people, all his saints shall praise him: euen the children of Israel, euen the people, that serueth him.

Cantate Domino. Psal. Cxlix.

1 O Sing vnto the Lord a newe song: let the congregation of saintes praise him.
2 Let Israel reioyce in him that made him: and let the children of Sion be ioyfull in their king.
3 Let them praise his name in the dannce: let them sing praises vnto him with Tabret and Harpe.
4 For the Lorde hath pleasure in his people: and helpeth the meeke hearted.
5 Let the saints bee ioyful with glory: let them reioyce in their beddes.
6 Let the praises of God bee in their mouth: and a two edged sworde in their handes.
7 To bee auenged of the heathen: and to rebuke the people.
8 To binde their kings in chaines: and their nobles with linkes of yron.
9 That they may be auenged of them, as it is written: Such honour haue all his saintes.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cl.

1 O Prayse God in his holines: praise him in the firmament of his power.
2 Praise him in his noble acts: praise him according to his excellent greatnesse.
3 Prayse him in the sounde of the trumpet: praise him vpon the Lute and Harpe.
4 Praise him in the Cymballes and dances: prayse him vpon the strings and pipe.
5 Praise him vpon the well tuned Cymballes: prayse him vpon the loud Cymballes.
6 Let euery thing that hath breath: praise the Lorde.

Here ende the Psalmes of Dauid.

The

The Prouerbes of Solomon.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The power of the worde of God. 7 Of the feare of God, and knowledge of his worde. 10 We may not conſent to the entiſings of ſinners. 20 Wiſedome complaineth that ſhe is contemned. 24 The puniſhment of them that contemne her.

1 THe Prouerbs of Solomon the ſonne of Dauid king of Iſrael:

2 To learne wiſedome & inſtruction, and to perceiue the wordes of vnderſtanding,

3 To receiue the inſtruction of wiſedome, iuſtice, iudgement, and equitie:

4 To giue witte vnto the ſimple, and that the yong men might haue knowledge and vnderſtanding.

5 The wiſe man will giue eare, and will come by more wiſedome, and hee that is endued with vnderſtanding, ſhal attaine vnto wiſe counſels.

6 To vnderſtand a parable, and the interpretation thereof, the wordes of the wiſe, and their darke ſpeaches.

Eccl.1.16. pſal.110.10. 7 *The feare of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fooles deſpiſe wiſedome and inſtruction.

8 My ſonne, heare thy fathers doctrine, and forſake not the ‖ lawe of thy mother:

‖Or, inſtruction.

9 For they ſhall bee an encreaſe of grace vnto thy head, and as a chaine about thy necke.

‖Or, leade thee out of the way. 10 My ſonne, if ſinners ‖ entiſe thee, conſent not vnto them.

11 If they ſay, Come with vs, let vs lay wayte for blood, and lurke priuily for the innocent without a cauſe:

12 Let vs ſwallowe them vp like the graue quicke & whole, as thoſe that goe downe into the pitte:

13 So ſhall we finde all maner of coſtly riches, and fill our houſes with ſpoyles:

14 Caſt in thy lot among vs, and let vs all haue one purſe.

15 My ſonne, walke not thou with them, refraine thy foote from their wayes.

Pſal.50.7. rom.3.15. 16 * For their feete runne to euill, and are haſtie to ſhed blood.

17 But as in vaine the nette is layd fooreth before the byrdes eyes:

18 So theſe lay waite for ſ blood of them, and lye priuily for their liues.

19 Such are the wayes of euery one that is greedie of gaine, who taketh away the life of the owner thereof.

20 Wiſedome cryeth without, and putteth forth her voyce in the ſtreetes:

21 She calleth before the congregation in the open gates, and sheweth her wordes thorowe the citie, ſaying, 22 O yee children, howe long will ye loue childiſhneſſe? howe long will the ſcorners delight in ſcorning, and the vnwiſe hate knowledge?

Eſa.65.12. ierem.7.13. 23 *O turne you at my correction: loe, I will expreſſe my minde vnto you, and make you vnderſtand my wordes.

24 Becauſe I haue called, and ye refuſed, I haue ſtretched out my hande, and no man regarded.

25 But all my counſels haue ye deſpiſed, and ſet my correction at nought:

26 Therefore will I alſo laugh at your deſtruction, and mock you, when the thing that ye feare commeth vpon you,

27 Euen when the thing that ye be afraid of, falleth ſuddenly like a ſtorme, and your miſerie like a tempeſt, yea when trouble & heauineſſe cōmeth vpon you.

28 Then ſhall they call vpon mee, but I will not anſwere: they ſhall ſeeke mee earely, but they ſhall not finde me:

29 And ſ becauſe they hated knowledge, and did not chooſe the feare of the Lord, 30 They would none of my counſell, but deſpiſed all my correction.

31 Therefore ſhall they eate of the fruite of their owne way, and bee filled with their owne inuentions.

32 For the turning away of the vnwiſe ſhall ſlay them, and the proſperitie of fooles ſhall deſtroy them.

33 But who ſo harkeneth vnto mee, ſhall dwell ſafely, and bee ſure from any feare of euill.

The ii. Chapter.

1 Wiſedome exhorteth to obey her. 5 She teacheth the feare of God. 6 She is giuen of God. 10 She preſerueth from wickednes.

1 MY ſonne, if thou wilt receyue my wordes, and lay vp my commandements within thee,

2 That thou wilt encline thine eares vnto wiſedome, apply thine heart then to vnderſtanding.

3 For if thou cryeſt after wiſedome, and cryeſt for knowledge:

4 If thou ſeekeſt for her as for ſiluer, and ſearcheſt for her as for treaſures,

5 Then ſhalt thou vnderſtand the feare of the Lord, & finde the knowledge of God.

6 For the Lord giueth wiſedome, out of his mouth commeth knowledge and vnderſtanding.

7 He ſtirreth vp health for the righteous: and defendeth them that walke vprightly,

8 That they may keepe the right path: and he preſerueth the way of ſuch as doe ſerue him with godlineſſe.

9 Then ſhalt thou vnderſtand righteouſneſſe, and iudgement, and equitie, yea, and euery good path.

10 When wiſedom entreth into thine heart, and thy ſoule delighteth in knowledge:

11 Then ſhall counſell preſerue thee, and vnderſtanding ſhall keepe thee.

12 That thou mayeſt be deliuered from the euill way, and from the man that ſpeaketh froward things:

13 From ſuch as leaue the wayes of righteousnesse, to walke in the wayes of darkenesse:

14 Which reioyce in doing naught, and delight in the wickednesse of the euill:
15 Whose wayes are crooked, and they frowarde in their pathes.
16 That thou mayest bee deliuered also from the strange woman, and from her that is not thine owne, which giueth swéete woordes, 17 Forsaketh the husbande of her youth, and forgetteth the couenant of her God.
18 For her house is enclined vnto death, and her pathes vnto hell.
19 All they that goe in vnto her, come not againe, neither take they holde of the way of life.
20 Therefore walke thou in the way of such as be vertuous, and kéepe the paths of the righteous.
21 For the iust shall dwell in the land, and they that be perfect, shall remaine in it.
Iob.19.17. 22 *But the vngodly shall be cut off from the earth: and the wicked doers shalbe rooted out of it.

The iii. Chapter.

2 The word of God giueth life. 5 Trust in God. 7 Feare him. 9 Honour him. 11 Suffer his correction. 22 To them that followe the worde of God, all things shall succeede well.

1 My sonne, forget not thou my lawe, but sée that thine heart keepe my commandements.
Deut.8.1. and 30.16. 2 *For they shall prolong the dayes and yeres of thy life, and bring thée peace.
3 Let mercy and faithfulnes neuer goe from thée: binde them about thy necke, and write them in the tables of thine heart:
4 So shalt thou finde fauour and good vnderstanding in the sight of God and men.
5 Put thy trust in GOD with all thine heart: and leane not vnto thine owne witte.
6 In all thy wayes acknowledge him, and he shall order thy goings.
Rom.12.16. 7 *Be not wise in thine owne conceyte: but feare the Lord, and depart from euill:
a That is, thy whole body. 8 So shall thy a nauill be whole, and thy bones strong.
Tob.4.7. luke 14.13. 9 *Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstlings of thine encreale:
10 So shall thy barnes be filled with plenteousnesse, & thy presses shall flowe ouer with swéete wine.
Heb.12.5. apoc.3.19. 11 *My sonne, refuse not the chastening of the Lord, neither faynt when thou art corrected of him.
12 For whom the Lord loueth, him hée chasteneth, and yet delighteth in him, euen as a father in his owne sonne.
13 Well is him that findeth wisedome, and getteth vnderstanding:
14 For the marchandise of it is better then the marchandise of siluer, and the gayne thereof is better then golde.
15 She is more worth thé precious stones: and all the things that thou canst desire, are not to be compared vnto her.
16 In her right hande is long life, and in her left hand riches and honour.
17 Her wayes are pleasant wayes, and all her paths are peaceable.
18 She is a tree of life to them that lay holde vpon her: and blessed is he that kéepeth her fast.
19 With wisedome hath the Lord layde the foundation of the earth, and through vnderstanding hath hee stablished the heauens.
20 Through his knowledge the depthes are broken vp, and the cloudes droppe downe the dewe.
21 My sonne, let not these things depart from thine eyes, but kéepe wisedome and vnderstanding:
22 So they shalbe life vnto thy soule, and grace vnto thy mouth.
23 Then shalt thou walke safely in thy way, and thy foote shall not stumble.
24 If thou sleepest, thou shalt not be afrayde: but shalt take rest, and sléepe swéetely.
25 Thou shalt not be afraid of any sudden feare, neither for the violent rushing in of the vngodly when it commeth.
26 For the Lord shall stand by thy side, & kéepe thy foote that thou be not taken.
27 Withdrawe no good thing from them that haue néede, so long as thine hand is able to doe it.
28 Say not vnto thy neighbour, Go thy way, and come againe, and to morowe will I giue thée: whereas thou hast now to giue him.
29 Intende no hurt against thy neighbour, séeing he hopeth to dwell in rest by thée.
30 Striue not with any man without a cause, whereas hee hath done thee no harme.
Psal.36.1. 31 *Followe not a wicked man, & choose none of his wayes:
32 For the Lord abhorreth the frowarde: but his ‖ counsell is among the righteous.
‖ Or, secrete. 33 The curse of the Lord is in the house of the vngodly: but hee blesseth the dwellings of the righteous.
34 As for the scornefull, doth he not langh them to scorne? but he giueth grace vnto the lowly.
35 The wise shall haue honour in possession: but shame is the promotion that fooles shall haue.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 Wisedome and her frutes ought to be searched. 14 The way of the wicked must be refused. 20 By the worde of God, the heart, eyes, and course of life must be guyded.

1 Heare, O ye children, a fatherly instruction, and take good hede, that ye may learne vnderstanding.
2 For I haue giuen you a good doctrine, forsake not ye my lawe.
3 For when I my selfe was my fathers deare sonne, and tenderly beloued of my mother:
4 He

4 Ye taught me also, and sayde vnto mee, Let thine heart receiue my wordes, keepe my commaundements, and thou shalt liue.
5 Get thee wisedome, and get thee vnderstanding: forget not the wordes of my mouth, and shunke not from them.
6 Forsake her not, and thee shall preserue thee, loue her, and shee shall keepe thee.
7 The chiefe poynt of wisdome, is to possesse wisdome, and before all thy goods, to get thee vnderstanding.
8 Make much of her, and shee shall promote thee, yea, if thou embrace her, shee shall bring thee vnto honour:
9 She shal beautifie thy head with manifolde graces, and garnish thee with a crowne of glorie.
10 Heare, my sonne, & receiue my wordes, and the yeeres of thy life shalbe many.
11 I haue shewed thee the way of wisedome, and led thee into the right paths.
12 So that if thou goest in them, there shall no straitnesse hinder thee: and when thou runnest, thou shalt not fall.
13 Take fast holde of doctrine, and let her not goe: keepe her, for she is thy life.
14 Come not in the path of the vngodly, & walke not in the way of the wicked.
15 Abhorre it, and go not therein, depart aside, and passe ouer by it.
16 For they sleepe not except they haue done mischiefe: and sleepe is taken from them, vntill they haue done harme.
17 For they eate the bread of wickednes, and drinke the wine of robberie.
18 The path of the righteous shineth, as the light that is euer brighter & brighter vnto the perfect day.
19 But the way of the vngodly is as the darkenesse, they knowe not where they fall.
20 My sonne, marke my wordes, and encline thine eare vnto my sayings:
21 Let them not depart from thine eyes, but keepe them euen in the middes of thine heart:
22 For they are life vnto those that finde them, and health vnto al their bodies.
23 Keepe thine heart with all diligence: for out of it issueth life.
24 Put away fro thee a froward mouth: and let the lippes of flatterie bee farre from thee.
25 Let thine eyes beholde that thing that is right: and let thine eye lidde looke straight before thee.
26 Ponder the path of thy feete, and let al thy wayes be ordered aright.
27 Turne not aside neyther to the right hande nor to the left: but withholde thy foote from euill.

The v. Chapter.

3 Whoredome forbidden, 9 and prodigalitie. 13 How willeth a man to liue on his labour, and to helpe others. 18 To loue his wife. 21 The wicked taken in their owne wickednesse.

1 My sonne, giue heede vnto my wisedome, and bowe thine eare vnto my [prudence:

[or, knowledge.

2 That thou mayest regarde good counsel, and that thy lippes may kepe knowledge.
3 For the lippes of a strange woman are a dropping honie combe, and her throte is more glittering then oyle:
4 But at the last she is as bitter as wormswoode, and as sharpe as a two edged swoorde.
5 Her feete go downe vnto death, and her steppes pearce thorow vnto hell.
6 Perchaunce thou wilt ponder the path of her life: so vnstedfast are her wayes, & thou canst not knowe them.
7 Heare me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the wordes of my mouth.
8 Keepe thy way farre from her, & come not nigh the doores of her house, 9 That thou giue not thy honour vnto other, and thy yeeres vnto the cruell, 10 That other men be not filled with thy vertues, and that thy labours come not in a straunge house:
11 Yea, that thou mourne not at the last, when thou hast spent thy body and lustie youth, and then say, 12 Alas, why hated I nurture? why did my heart despise correction?
13 Wherefore was I not obedient vnto the voyce of my teachers, and hearkened not vnto them that enformed me?
14 I was come almost into al misfortune, in the middest of the vnrulie multitude and congregation.
15 Drinke of the water of thine owne well, and of the riuers that runne out of thine owne spring.
16 Let thy welles flowe out abroade, that there may bee riuers of waters in the streetes:
17 But let them be onely thine owne, and not strangers with thee.
18 Let thy well be blessed, and be glad with the wife of thy youth.
19 Let her be as the louing Hinde & pleasant Roe: let her breastes allway satisfie thee, and holde thee euer content with her loue.
20 Why wilt thou, my sonne, haue pleasure in a strange woman? and embrace the bosome of a stranger?
21 For euery mans wayes are open in the sight of the Lord, and he pondereth all their goings.
22 The wickednes of the vngodly shall catch himself, and with the snares of his owne sinnes shall he be trapped.
23 Hee shall die without [amendement, and for his great foolishnesse he shal goe astray.

a Content thy selfe with thine owne wife, and desire not other,

Iob.34.21.

[Or, instruction,

The vi. Chapter.

1 Instruction for sureties. 6 The slouthfull and laggish is stirred to worke. 12 He describeth the nature of the wicked. 16 The things that God hateth. 20 To obserue the word of God. 24 To flee aduoutrie.

1 My sonne, if thou bee suretie for thy neighbour, and hast fastened thine hand for another man,

‖Or, snared.

2 Thou art ‖bound vp thine own wordes, and taken with thine owne speach.
3 Therefore, my sonne, do this, and thou shalt be discharged: Whe thou art come into thy neighbours danger, goe thy wayes then soone, humble thy selfe, and
‖Or, neighbour. with thy friends intreate (thy ‖creditour.)
4 Let not thine eyes sleepe, nor thine eielids slumber.
5 Saue thy selfe as a Roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from ꝑ hand of the fowler.
6 Goe to the Emmet, thou sluggard, consider her wayes, and learne to be wise:
7 She hath no guide, nor ouerseer, nor ruler.
8 Yet in the sommer shee prouideth her meate, and gathereth her foode together in the harueſt.
Pro. 24. 32. 9 *How long wilt thou sleepe, thou sluggish man? When wilt thou arise out of thy sleepe?
10 Yea sleepe on still a litle, slumber a litle, fold thine hands together yet a litle, that thou mayest sleepe:
11 So shall pouertie come vnto thee as one that trauaileth by the way, and necessitie like a weaponed man.
12 An vngodly person, a wicked man, goeth with a froward mouth.
13 He winketh with his eies, he tokeneth with his feete, he teacheth with his fingers, 14 Hee is euer imagining mischiefe and frowardnesse in his heart, and casteth discord.
15 Therefore shall his destruction come hastily vpon him, sodainely shall he bee all to broken, and not to be healed.
16 These sixe things doth the Lord hate, and the seuenth he vtterly abhorreth:
17 A proud looke, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, 18 An heart that goeth about wicked imaginations, feete that bee swift in running to mischiefe, 19 A false witnesse that bringeth vp lies, and him that soweth discord among brethren.
20 My sonne, keepe thy fathers commandement, and forsake not the law of thy mother.
21 Tye them continually in thine heart, and binde them about thy necke.
22 That shall leade thee when thou goest, preserue thee when thou art a sleepe, and when thou awakest talke with thee.
23 For the commandement is a lanterne, and the law a light, yea chastening and nurture is the way of life:
24 That they may keepe thee from the euill woman, and from the flattering tongue of the strange woman.
25 Lust not after her beautie in thine heart, lest thou be taken with her faire lookes.
26 By an harlot a man is brought to beg his bread, and a woman will hunt for the precious life of man.
27 May a man take fire in his bosome, and his clothes not be burnt?
28 Or can one goe vpon hote coales, and his feete not be burnt?
29 Euen so, whosoeuer goeth in to his neighbours wife, and toucheth her, cannot bee vnguiltie.
30 Men do not vtterly despise a theefe that stealeth to satisfie his soule when hee is hungry:
31 But if he may be gotten, he restoreth againe seuen times as much, or els he marketh recompence with al the good of his house.
32 But who so committeth adulterie with a woman, lacketh vnderstanding: and he that doeth it, destroyeth his owne soule.
33 He getteth himselfe a plague, and dishonor, and his reproch shall neuer bee put out:
34 For the iealousie and wrath of the man will not be entreated, 35 No though thou wouldest offer him great giftes to make amendes, hee will not receiue them.

The vii. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to wisedome, and to the worde of God, 5 which will preserue vs from the harlot, 6 whose maners are described.

1 MY sonne, keepe my wordes, and lay vp my commaundements by thee.
2 Keepe my commaundements and my lawe, euen as the apple of thine eye, and thou shalt liue.
3 Binde them vpon thy fingers, & write them in the table of thine heart.
4 Say vnto wisedome, Thou art my sister, and call vnderstanding thy kinswoman:
5 That they may keepe thee frō ꝑ strange woman, & from the forraine woman, which giueth sweete wordes.
6 For at the windowe of my house I looked thorow the windowe,
7 And beheld among the simple people, & among the children, a yong man void of wit,
8 Going ouer the streete by the corner in the way toward her house, 9 In the twilight of the euening, when it began now to be night and darke:
10 And behold, there met him a woman, with ornaments of an harlot, subtile her heart was hid:
11 Shee was full of loude wordes, and ready to dallie, whose feete could not abide in the house:
12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in waite at euery corner.
13 She caught him, and kissed him, and was not ashamed, saying,
14 I had a vowe of peace offrings to pay, and this day I performed it:
15 Therefore came I forth to meete thee, that I might seeke thy face, and so haue I found thee.
16 I haue deckt my bed with coueringes of tapestrie, and clothes of Egypt.
17 My bedde haue I made to smell of myrrhe, aloes, and cynamom.

18 Come,

18 Come, let vs take our fill of loue vntill the morning, and let vs solace our selues with the pleasures of loue.
19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone farre off.
20 He hath taken the bag of money with him, and will returne at the appointed solemne feast.
21 Thus with many swéete wordes shée ouercame him, and with her flattering lips she entised him.
22 Sodainely he followed her, as it were an oxe led to the slaughter, and like as it were a foole that laugheth when he goeth to the stocks to be punished, 23 So long till she had wounded his liuer with her dart: like as if a bird hasted to the snare, not knowing that the perill of his life lieth thereupon.
24 Heare me now therefore, O my childe, and marke the wordes of my mouth:
25 Let not thine heart wader in her waies, and be not thou deceiued in her paths.
26 For many one hath she wounded and cast downe, yea many a strong man hath bene slaine by the meanes of her.
27 Her house is the way vnto hell, and bringeth men downe into the chambers of death.

The viii. Chapter.

1 Wisdome declareth her excellencie, 11 riches, 15 power, 22 eternitie. 32 She exhorteth all to loue and follow her.

1 Doth not wisedome crie? doeth not vnderstanding put foorth her voyce?
2 She standeth in the top of high places by the way, in the place of the paths:
3 She crieth at the gates of the citie, at the entrie of the doores.
4 Vnto you, O ye men, saith shee, whom I call, vnto the children of men do I lift vp my voyce.
5 Take heede vnto knowledge, O ye ignorant, be ye wise in heart, O ye fooles.
6 Giue eare, for I will speake of great matters, and open my lips to tell things that be right:
7 For my mouth shall be talking of the truth, and my lips abhorre vngodlines.
8 All the wordes of my mouth are righteous, there is no frowardnesse nor falsehode in them.
9 They are all plaine to such as will vnderstande, and right to them that finde knowledge.
10 Receiue my doctrine, and not siluer, and knowledge rather then fine golde:
11 * For wisedome is more worth then precious stones, yea all things that thou canst desire may not bee compared vnto it. Pro. 3. 13.
12 I wisedome dwell with counsell, and find out knowledge and vnderstanding.
13 The feare of the Lord abhorreth wickednesse, pride, disdaine, and the euill way, & a mouth that speaketh wicked things I vtterly abhorre.
14 Counsell is mine, and direction, I am vnderstanding, and I haue strength.
15 Through me kings reigne, and princes make iust lawes.
16 By me princes beare rule, and noble men do iudge the earth.
17 I am louing vnto those that loue me: & they that seeke me early, shall finde me.
18 Riches and honour are with me, yea, durable riches and righteousnesse.
19 My fruit is better then gold and precious stones, & mine encrease more worth then fine siluer.
20 I will guide thée in the way of righteousnesse, and in the midst of the paths of iudgement:
21 That I may stablish the inheritance of them that loue mee, and encrease their treasure.
22 * The Lord himselfe had me in possession in the beginning of his waies, or euer he began his workes afore time. Sap. 9. 9.
23 * I haue bene ordeined frō euerlasting, and frō the beginning, or euer the earth was made. Eccl. 24. 14.
24 When I was borne, there were neither depths, nor springs of water.
25 Before the foundations of the mountaines were layde, yea, before all hilles was I borne.
26 The earth, & all that is vpon the earth was not yet made, no not the dust it self.
27 For when hee made the heauens, I was present, when hee compassed the depths about:
28 When hee hanged the cloudes aboue, when he fastened the springs of the deepe, 29 When he shut the sea within certaine bounds, that the waters should not goe ouer their markes that he commanded, when he laid the foundations of the earth, 30 I was with him ‖ ordering all things, delighting daily, and reioycing alway before him. ‖ Or, as a nourisher.
31 As for the round cōpasse of this world, I make it topfull: for my delight is to be among the children of men.
32 Therefore hearken vnto me, O ye children: blessed are they that keepe my waies.
33 O giue eare vnto nurture, be wise, and refuse it not: Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, and giuing attendance at the posts of my doores.
34 For who so findeth me, findeth life, and shall obtaine fauour of the Lord.
35 But who so offendeth against me, hurteth his owne soule: and they that hate me, are the louers of death.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Wisdome calleth all to her feast. 7 The scorner will not be corrected. 10 The feare of God. 13 The conditions of an harlot.

1 Wisedome hath builded her house, and hewen out seuen pillars:
2 She hath killed her victuals, powred out her wine, and prepared her table.
3 She hath sent forth her maidens to crie vpon the highest place of the citie,
4 Who so is without knowledge, let him come hither: And to the vnwise she said,

5 O come

5 Come on pone way, eate my breade, & drinke my wine which I haue powred out for you.
6 Forsake foolishnesse, and ye shall liue: and see that ye goe in the way of vnderstanding.
7 Who so reproueth a scornefull person, getteth himselfe dishonour: and he that rebuketh the vngodly, staineth him selfe.
8 Reproue not a scorner, least he owe thee euill will: but rebuke a wise man, and he will loue thee.
9 Giue a discreete man but an occasion, & hee will bee the wiser: teach a righteous man, and he will encrease in knowledge.
10 *The feare of the Lorde is the beginning of wisdome: and the knowledge of holy things is vnderstanding.
11 For through me thy dayes shal be prolonged, and the yeres of thy life shall be many.
12 If thou be wise, thy wisdome shall doe thy selfe good: but if thou thinkest scorne thereof, it shalbe thine owne harme.
13 A foolish rechlesse woman full of words, and such a one as hath no knowledge, 14 Sitteth at the doore of her house, and in the high places of the citie,
15 To call such as goe by, and that walke straight in her wayes.
16 Who so is ignorant saith shee, let him come hither: and to the vnwise she saith, 17 Stollen waters are sweet, and the bread that is priuily eaten hath a good taste.
18 And he doth not consider that they are but dead which be there, & that her ghests are in the deepe of hell.

Psal. 111. 10. pro. 1. 7. eccle. 1. 16.

The x. Chapter.

In this Chapter, and al that follow vnto the thirtieth, the wise man exhorteth by diuerse sentences, which he calleth parables, to follow vertue and flee vice, and sheweth also what profite commeth of wisedome, and what hinderance proceedeth of foolishnesse.

1 A Wise sonne maketh a glad father: but an vndiscrete sonne is an heauinesse vnto his mother.
2 Treasures that are wickedly gotten, profite nothing: but righteousnesse deliuereth from death.
3 The Lorde will not let the soule of the righteous suffer hunger: but hee taketh away the riches of the vngodly.
4 An idle hand maketh poore: but a quicke labouring hand maketh rich.
5 Who so gathereth in summer, is wise: but he that is sluggish in haruest, driueth himselfe to confusion.
6 Blessings are vpo the head of the righteous: and the mouth of the vngodly keepeth iniquitie in secret.
7 The memoriall of the iust shall haue a good report: but the name of the vngodly shall stinke.
8 A wise man will receiue ‖ warning: but a prating foole shall be punished.
9 He that walketh vprightly, walketh surely: but who so goeth a wrong way, shall be knowen.

‖ Or, commandements.

10 *He that winketh with his eye, will cause sorowe: but he that hath a foolish mouth, shall be beaten. Eccl. 27. 25.
11 The mouth of a righteous mã is a well of life: but the mouth of the vngodly keepeth iniquitie in secret.
12 *Hatred stirreth vp strifes: but loue couereth the multitude of sinnes. 1. Pet. 4. 8. 1. cor. 13. 4.
13 In the lips of him that hath vnderstanding, a man shal find wisdome: but þ rod belongeth to the backe of the foolish.
14 Wise men lay vp knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is nigh destruction.
15 The rich mans goods are his strong holde: but the neede of the poore is their ponertie.
16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: but the fruites of the vngodly to sinne.
17 Nurture keepeth the way of life: but he that refuseth to be nurtured, deceiueth him selfe.
18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that speaketh slander, is a foole.
19 Where much babbling is, there must needes be offence: and he that refraineth his lips, is wise.
20 ‖The tongue of the iust man is as tried siluer: but the heart of the vngodly is a thing of nought. ‖ Or, an innocent tongue is a rich treasure.
21 The lips of the righteous feede a whole multitude: but fooles shall die in their owne folly.
22 The blessing of the Lord maketh rich: and bringeth no sorow of heart with it.
23 A foole doeth wickedly, and maketh but a sport of it: but wisdome ruleth the man that hath vnderstanding.
24 The thing that the vngodly is afraied of, shall come vpon him: but the righteous shall haue their desire.
25 As the tempest, so passeth away the vngodly, and is not: but the righteous remaineth sure for euer.
26 As vineger is to the teeth, & as smoke is vnto þ eyes: euen so is a sluggish person to them that send him forth.
27 The feare of the Lorde maketh a long life: but the yeres of the vngodly shalbe shortened.
28 The patient abiding of the righteous shall be turned to gladnes: but the hope of the vngodly shall perish.
29 The way of the Lorde giueth courage vnto the godly: but it is a feare for wicked doers.
30 The righteous shall neuer bee ouerthrowen: but the vngodly shall not remaine in the land.
31 The mouth of the iust will be talking of wisedome: but the tongue of the froward shall be ‖cut out. ‖ Or, perish.
32 The lips of the righteous utter that which is acceptable: but the mouth of the vngodly speaketh frowardthings.

The xi. Chapter.

1 A False balance is an abomination vnto the Lorde: but a true weight pleaseth him.
2 Where pride is, there is shame also and confusion:

confusion: but whereas is lowlinesse, there is wisedome.
3 The innocent dealing of the iust shall leade them: but the wickednesse of the offenders shall be their owne destructiō.
Esai.5.13. ver.7.19. 4 *Riches helpe not in the day of vengeance: but righteousnesse deliuereth from death.
5 The righteousnesse of the innocent ordereth his way: but the vngodly shall fall in his owne wickednesse.
6 The righteousnesse of the iust shall deliuer them: but the wicked shall be taken in their owne vngodlinesse.
Iob.5.15. ‖Or,of wicked men 7 *When an vngodly man dieth, his hope is gone: the confidence ‖ of riches shall perish.
8 The righteous shall be deliuered out of trouble: and the vngodly shall come in his stead.
9 The dissembler with his mouth hurteth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the iust be deliuered.
10 When it goeth well with the righteous, the citie is merry: and when the vngodly perish, there is gladnesse.
11 In the blessing of the righteous, the citie is exalted: but it is ouerthrowen by the mouth of the wicked.
12 A foole slandereth his neighbour: but a wise man holdeth his peace.

16 Who so kéepeth the commandement, kéepeth his owne soule: but he that regardeth not his wayes, shall dye.

17 He that hath pitie vpon the poore, lendeth vnto the Lorde: and looke what he layeth out, ‖ it shalbe paied him againe. ‖Or, he will pay him againe.

18 Chasten thy sonne while there is hope: and let not thy soule spare for his crying.

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: and though thou once deliuer him, thou must doe it againe.

20 O giue eare vnto good counsaile, and be content to bee reformed: that thou maiest be wise in thy latter dayes.

21 There are many deuises in a mans heart: neuertheles, the counsaple of the Lord shall stande.

22 It is a mans worship to doe good: & a poore man is better then a lyer.

23 The feare of the Lord bringeth a man to life: and he shall rest the whole night in plenteousnesse without visitation of any ‖ plague. ‖Or, euill.

24 *A slouthfull man shutteth his hande into his bosome: and will not take paine to put it to his mouth. *Prou.26.15.

25 *If thou smitest a scornefull person, the ignorant shall take better heede: and if thou reprouest one that hath vnderstanding, he will be the wiser. *Pro.21.11, 26 He that ‖ hurteth his father, or shutteth out his mother, is a shamefull and an vnworthy sonne. ‖Or, robbeth.

27 My sonne, heare no more the doctrine that leadeth thee vnto errours from the wordes of vnderstanding.

28 A wicked witnesse mocketh iudgement: & the mouth of the vngodly ‖ deuoureth wickednesse. ‖Or, deuiseth.

29 Iudgementes are ordeined for the scornefull, and stripes for fooles backes.

The xx. Chapter.

1 WIne maketh a man to be scornefull, and strong drinke causeth a man to be vnquiet: ‖ who so delighteth therein, shall not be wise. ‖Or, who is deceiued by it.

2 The feare of the king is as the roaring of a lion, who so prouoketh him to anger, ‖ offendeth against his owne soule. ‖Or, sinneth.

3 It is a mans honour to keepe himselfe from strife: but euery foole will be medling.

4 A slouthfull bodie will not go to plowe for colde of the winter, therefore shall he begge in sommer, and haue nothing.

5 Counsaile in the heart of man, is like deepe water: but a man of vnderstanding will drawe it out.

6 Many there be that woulde bee called good doers: but where shall one finde a faithfull man?

7 The children of the iust mā which walketh vprightly, shalbe blessed after him.

8 A king that sitteth in the throne of iudgement, chaseth away all euill with his looke.

9 *Who can say, I haue made my heart cleane, I am pure from my sinne? 3.King.8.46, 2.chro.6.36.

10 Two maner of weightes, or two maner of measures, both these are abomination vnto the Lord. 1.iohn.1.8.

11 A childe is knowen by his conuersation, whether his woorkes be pure and right.

12 The eare to heare, the eye to see, the Lord hath made them both.

13 Loue not sléepe, least thou come vnto pouertie: but open thine eyes, that thou maiest haue bread ynough.

14 It is naught, it is naught (saith he that buieth) but when he cōmeth to his owne house, then he boasteth of his peniworth.

15 There is golde, and a multitude of precious stones: but the lippes of knowledge are a precious iewel.

16 *Take his garment that is suretie for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for the vnknowen sake. Pro.27.13.

17 A man liketh the bread that is gotten with deceite: but at the last his mouth shall be filled with grauell.

18 Through counsaile the things that mē denise are strong: and with good aduice take warre in hande.

19 *The craftie deceitfull bewrayeth secrete cousaile: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lippes. Pro.11.13.

20 *Who so curseth his father and mother, his light shalbe put out in the depth of darkenesse. Exod.21.17. leuit.20.9. mat.15.4.

21 The heritage that commeth hastily at the first, shall not be blessed at the end.

22 *Say not thou, I will recompence euill: but put thy trust in the Lorde, and he shall deliuer thee. Deut.32.35. rom.12.17. 1.pet.3.9.

23 Diuers weightes are an abomination vnto the Lorde, and a false balance is not good.

24 The Lorde ordereth euery mans goings:

ings: howe can a man then vnderstande his owne way?
25 It is a snare for a man to deuoure that which is holy, & after the vowe to make inquirie.
26 A wise king disperseth the vngodly, and bringeth the wheele ouer them.
27 The lanterne of the Lorde is the breath of man, searching all the inward partes of the body.
28 Mercy and truth preserue the king: and with louing kindnes his seate is holden vp.
29 The strength of young men is their worship, and a gray head is an honour vnto the aged.
30 Blewe woundes driue away euill, and stripes in the inward partes of the body.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 THe kings heart is in the hand of the Lord, like as the riuers of water, he may turne it whither so euer he will.
2 Euery mans way seemeth right in his owne eyes: but the Lorde pondereth the heart.
3 To doe righteousnes and iudgement, is more acceptable to the Lorde then sacrifice.
4 An high loke, a proud heart, and the plowing of the vngodly, is sinne.
5 The deuices of one that is diligent, bring plentifulnesse: but he that is inuadused, commeth vnto pouertie.
6 To prouide vp riches with a deceitfull tongue, is vanitie tossed to and fro of them that seeke death.
7 The robberies of the vngodly shalbe their owne destruction: for they will not doe the thing that is right.
8 The way of the vngodly is frowarde and strange: but of the pure man his worke is right.
9 * It is better to dwell in a corner on the houle top, then with a brawling woman in a wyde house.
10 The soule of the vngodly wisheth euill, and his neighbour findeth no fauour in his eyes.
11 * When the scornefull is punished, the ignorant taketh the better heede: & when the wise is instructed, he will receiue vnderstanding.
12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked, and for their wickednesse God ouerthroweth the vngodly.
13 Who so stoppeth his eares at the crying of the poore: he shal cry himselfe, and not be heard.
14 A priuie reward pacifieth displeasure: and a gift in the bosome stilleth furiousnesse.
15 The iust delighteth in doing the thing that is right: but destruction shalbe to the workers of wickednesse.
16 The man that wandreth out of the way of wisedome, shall remaine in the congregation of the dead.
17 ‖ He that hath pleasure in bankets, shalbe a poore man: and who so delighteth in wine and ‖ delicates, shall not be rich.
18 * The vngodly shalbe a ransome for the righteous, and the wicked for the iust.
19 * It is better to dwell in the wildernes, then with a chiding and an angry woman.
20 In a wise mans house there is great treasure & oyle, but a foolish body spendeth vp all.
21 Who so loueth righteousnes and mercy, findeth both life, righteousnes and honour.
22 A wise man scaleth the citie of the mighty, & ouerthroweth the strength wherein they trusted.
23 Who so keepeth his mouth and his tongue, the same keepeth his soule from troubles.
24 He that is proude & arrogant, is called a scorner, which in his wrath worketh presumptuously.
25 The desire of the slouthfull killeth him: for his handes will not labour.
26 He coueteth greedily all day long: but the righteous giueth, and spareth not.
27 * The sacrifice of the vngodly is abomination: ‖ how much more when they offer the thing that is gotten with wickednes?
28 A false witnesse shall perish: but a good man speaketh constantly that he hath heard.
29 An vngodly man hardeneth his face: but the iust reformeth his owne way.
30 There is no wisedome, there is no vnderstanding, there is no counsaile against the Lorde.
31 The horse is prepared against the day of battaile: ‖ but the Lord giueth victorie.

The xxii. Chapter.

1 A Good * name is more to be desired then great riches: and louing fauour is better then siluer and gold.
2 The rich and poore meete together: the Lord is the maker of them all.
3 A wise man seeth the plague, and hideth himselfe: but the foolish goe on still, and are punished.
4 By humilitie and the feare of the Lorde: commeth riches, honour, and life.
5 Thornes and snares are in the way of the froward: but he that doeth keepe his soule, will flee farre from them.
6 Teach a childe what way he should go: for he shall not leaue it when he is olde.
7 The rich ruleth the poore, and the borrower is seruant to the lender.
8 He that soweth wickednes, shall reape wickednes: and the rod of his anger shall faile.
9 * He that hath a bountifull eye shalbe blessed: for he giueth of his bread to the poore.
10 Cast out the scornefull man, and so shal strife goe out with him: yea variance and slaunder shall cease.
11 Who so loueth cleannesse of heart, for the grace of his lippes the king shalbe his friend.

13 The slouthfull body saieth, There is a Lion without, I might be slaine in the streete.

14 The mouth of strāge women is a deepe pit, wherein he falleth that the Lorde is angry withall.

15 Foolishnes is bound in the heart of the childe: and the rod of correction shall driue it awap.

16 Who so doeth a poore man wrong, to increase his owne riches, and giueth vnto the rich, at the last commeth to pouertie himselfe.

17 Bow downe thine eare, and heare the wordes of the wise, apply thy minde vnto my doctrine:

18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keepe them in thine heart, and order them in thy lippes, 19 That thou maiest put thy trust in the Lord, I haue shewed thee this day ‖ the thing that thou knowest.

‖Or, shou therefore take heede.

‖Or, three times.

20 Haue not I warned thee ‖ verp oft with counsaile and learning,

21 That I might make thee knowe the trueth, that thou with the veritie mightest answere them that send vnto thee?

22 Rob not the poore, because he is poore, and oppresse not the simple in iudgement.

23 For the Lord himselfe wil defende their cause, and doe violence vnto them that haue vsed violence.

24 Make no friendship with an angry wilfull man, & walke not with the furious:

25 Least thou learne his wapes, and receiue hurt to thy soule.

26 Be not thou one of them that binde their hand vpon promise, and are suertie for ‖ weightie causes.

‖Or, dettes.

27 For if thou hast nothing to pap, ‖ they shal take awap thy bed from vnder thee.

‖Or, why causest thou him to take?

28 Thou shalt not remoue the auncient lande marke, which thy fore elders haue set.

29 Seest thou not that they which be diligent in their businesse, stand before kings, and not among the simple people?

The xxiij. Chapter.

1 When thou sittest to eate with a noble man, consider diligently what is set before thee.

2 Measure thine appetite, if it be gredily set.

3 Be not desirous of his daintie meates, for meate beguileth and deceiueth.

4 Take not ouer great trauaile to be rich, beware of such a purpose.

5 Wilt thou set thine eyes vpon the thing which ‖ sodainely vanisheth awap? For riches make themselues wings like an Egle, and flee into the apre.

‖Or, is nothing.

6 Eate thou not the bread of him that hath an a euill eye: neither desire thou his daintie meate.

a Meaning, the enuious and couetous men.

7 For as though hee thought it in his heart, he saith, Eate and drinke: where as his heart is not with thee.

8 The morsels that thou hast eaten, shalt thou parbreake, and lose those sweete wordes.

9 Tell nothing into the eares of a foole: for yee will despise the wisedome of thy wordes.

10 Remoue not the olde lande marke, and come not within the fielde of the fatherlesse:

11 For their redeemer is mightie, euen hee shall defend their cause against thee.

12 Apply thine heart vnto correction, and thine eares to the wordes of knowledge.

13 * Withhold not correction from the childe: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die therefo.

17 * Let not thine heart be ielous to follow sinners, but keepe thee still in the feare of the Lord all the day long:

Pro. 24.1. psal. 36.1.

18 For verily there is an ‖ end, and thy patient abiding shall not be cut off.

‖Or, a reward.

19 My sonne, giue eare, and bee wise, and set straight thine heart in the way of the Lord.

20 Keepe not compante with wine bybbers, and riotous eaters of flesh:

21 For such as be drunkardes and riotous, shall come to pouertie: and he that is giuen to much sleepe, shall goe with a ragged coate.

22 Giue eare vnto thy father that begate thee, and despise not thy mother when she is olde.

23 Purchase trueth, wisedome, nurture, and vnderstanding, and sell them not.

24 The father of the righteous shal greatly reioyce: and he that begetteth a wise childe, shall haue ioy of him.

25 Doe so that thy father and mother may be glad of thee, and that she that bare thee may reioyce.

26 My sonne, giue me thine heart, and let thine eyes haue pleasure in my wayes:

The xxiiii. Chapter.

Pro.23.17. Pſal.36.1.

1 BE not thou *enuious to follow wicked men, and deſire not to bee among them:

2 For their heart imagineth to doe hurt, and their lippes talke miſchiefe.

3 Through wiſedome is an houſe buylded, and with vnderſtanding is it ||ſtabliſhed.

Or, ſtabliſhed.

4 Through diſcretion ſhall the chambers bee filled with all coſtly and pleaſant riches.

5 A wiſe man is euer ſtrong: yea, a man of vnderſtanding increaſeth ſtrength.

6 For with diſcretion muſt warres be taken in hand: and whereas are many that can giue counſell, there is health.

7 *Wiſedome is to high a thing for a foole: for hee dare not open his mouth in the gate.

8 He that imagineth miſchiefe, may well be called an vngratious perſon.

9 The wicked thought of the foolish is ſinne: and the ſcorneful is an abomination vnto men.

A Aduerſitie doeth try a man what he is, Pſal.81.4.

10 *If thou faint in the day of aduerſitie, thy ſtrength is ſmall.

11 *Deliuer them that are drawen vnto death, & ceaſſe not to preſerue them that are led to be ſlaine.

12 If thou wilt ſay, Beholde, I knew not of it: doeth not hee that pondereth the heart conſider it? And hee that keepeth thy ſoule, knoweth he it not? Shall not hee alſo recompence euery man according to his workes?

13 My ſonne, eate thou honie, becauſe it is good, & the honie combe, for it is ſweete vnto thy mouth:

14 So ſweete ſhal the knowledge of wiſedome be vnto thy ſoule when thou haſt found it: and there ſhalbe hope, and thy hope ſhall not be cut off.

15 Lay not priuie waite (O wicked man) againſt the houſe of the righteous, and ſpoile not his reſting place.

16 For a iuſt man falleth ſeuen times, and riſeth vp againe: but the vngodly fal into miſchiefe.

17 Reioyce not thou at the fall of thine enemie, and let not thine heart bee glad when he ſtumbleth:

18 Leaſt the Lorde when hee ſeeth it bee angry, and turne his wrath from him vnto thee.

Pſal.37.1.

19 *Fret not thy ſelfe becauſe of the malitious, neither be enuious at the wicked:

20 For there ſhal bee no ende of plagues to the wicked man, and the ||candle of the vngodly ſhalbe put out.

Or, reward.

21 My ſonne, feare thou the Lord and the king, and keepe no companie with them that ſtide backe from his feare:

22 For their deſtruction ſhal riſe ſodainely: and who knoweth the aduerſitie that may ||come from them both?

Or, of them both.

THESE ARE ALSO THE SAYINGS OF THE WISE.

23 *It is not good to haue reſpect of any perſon in iudgement.

Leuit.19.15. deut.1.17.

24 He that ſaieth to the vngodly, Thou art righteous: him ſhall the people curſe, yea, the communaltie ſhal abhorre him.

25 But they that rebuke the vngodly, in them doeth God delight, and a rich bleſſing ſhall come vpon them.

26 Euery man ſhall kiſſe his lippes that giueth a good anſwere.

27 Make ready thy woorke that is without, and looke wel vnto that which thou haſt in the fielde, and then builde thine houſe.

28 Be not a falſe witnes againſt thy neighbour, and ſpeake no falſehoode with thy lippes.

29 *Say not, I will handle him euen as he hath dealt with me, and will rewarde euery man according to his deedes.

Pro.20.22. ||Or, the man.

30 I went by the fielde of the ſlouthfull, & by the vineyard of the foolish man:

31 And loe, it was al couered with nettles, and ſtoode ful of thornes, and the ſtone wall was broken downe.

32 This I ſawe, and conſidered it well: I looked vpon it, and tooke it for a warning.

33 Yea ſleepe on ſtill I ſay, a litle, ſlumber a litle, folde thy handes together per a litle:

Pro.30.16.
13 *Take his garment that is suretie for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for the vnknowen sake.
‖Or, he that prayseth his friend with a loude voyce rising early in the morning, it shalbe counted to him as a dispraise.
14 ‖ He that is too hastie to praise his neighbour aboue measure, shalbe taken as one that curseth him an euill report.
15 A brawling woman and the roofe of the house dropping in a rainie day, may well be compared together:
16 He that stilleth her, stilleth the winde, and stoppeth the smell of ointment in his hand.
17 Like as one iron whetteth another, so doeth one man ‖ comfort another.
‖Or, sharpe the countenance of another.
18 Who so keepeth his figge tree, shall eate the fruites thereof: so hee that waiteth vpon his master, shall come to honour.

19 *Like as in one water there appeare diuers faces: euen so diuers men haue diuers heartes.
20 Hell and destruction are neuer full: euen so the eyes of men can neuer be satisfied.
Eccl.14.4. and 17.3.
21 *As is the fining pot for the siluer, and the furnace for golde: so is a man tryed by the mouth of him that praiseth him.
22 Though thou wouldest bray a foole with a pestell in a morter like frumme corne: yet will not his foolishnesse goe from him.
23 Be thou diligent to knowe the state of thy cattell thy selfe, and take well to thy flockes.
24 For riches abideth not alway, and the crowne endureth not for euer.
25 The hay groweth, the grasse commeth vp, and herbes are gathered in the mountaines.
26 *The lambes shall clothe thee, and for the goates thou shalt haue money to thy husbandrie.
1.Tim.6.7.
27 Thou shalt haue goates milke ynough to feede thee, to vphold thy householde, and to sustaine thy maydens.

The ende of the Prouerbes of Solomon.

The booke of the preacher, otherwise called Ecclesiastes, which is Solomon the king.

For Solomon is called in Scripture by three sundrie names. The one, Solomon, that is, the maker of peace. The second Idida, that is, beloued of God. The third, Ecclesiastes, that is, a preacher, teaching that true and eternall felicitie consisteth not in any worldly wisedome or abundance of riches, or in carnall pleasure, which all be but vaine and transitorie: but he prooueth that true felicitie consisteth in a whole ioyning our selues to God by pure religion, that is, with a sincere faith and the feare of God, obseruing his commandementes.

The first Chapter.

3 All things in this worlde are full of vanitie, and of none endurance. 13 All mans wisedome is but follie and griefe.

1 The woordes of the Preacher the sonne of Dauid king of Hierusalem.
a He doth not condemne the creatures and giftes of God as euill: but the carefull seeking of them, and the pride and trust that man hath in worldly thinges.
2 a All is but most vaine vanitie, saith the preacher, all is most vaine
3 I say and but plaine vanitie. For what els hath a man of all the labour that he taketh vnder the Sunne?
4 One generation passeth away, another commeth: but the earth abideth still.
5 The sunne ariseth, the sunne goeth downe, and returneth to his place, that he may there rise vp againe.
6 The winde goeth toward the South, & turneth vnto the North, fetcheth his compasse, whirleth about, and goeth forth, and returneth againe to his circuites fro whence he did come.
Eccle. 40, 11.
7 *All floods runne into the sea, and yet is the sea it selfe not filled: for looke vnto what place the waters run, thence they come to flowe againe.
8 All things are so hard to bee knowen þ no man can expresse them: the eye is not satisfied with sight, the eare is not filled with hearing.
9 That thing that hath bene, commeth to passe againe, and the thing that hath bin done, shalbe done againe: there is no new thing vnder the Sunne.
10 Is there any thing whereof it may be sayd, Loe, this is newe? for it was long agoe in the times þ haue bene before vs.
11 That thing that is past is out of remembrance: euen so the things that are for to come, shall no more bee thought vpon among them that come after.
12 I my selfe the Preacher was king of Israel at Hierusalem, 13 And did apply my mind to seeke out & searche for the knowledge of all things þ are done vnder heauen: (Such trauaile and labour hath God giuen vnto the children of men, to exercise themselues therein.)
14 Thus haue I considered all these things that come to passe vnder þ sunne: and loe, they are all but vanitie and vexation of minde.
15 The b crooked can not be made straight, nor the imperfection of things can bee numbred.
b Man is not able of his owne power to reforme that is amisse, and to rise vp from sinne, nor to know his imperfection & weakenes to doe any thing that is good, without þ grace of God.
16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Loe, I am come to great estate, and haue gotten more wisedome then all they that haue bene before me in Hierusalem.
17 Yea, my heart had great experience of wisedome & knowledge: for therewith I applyed my minde, that I might know what were wisdome and vnderstanding, what were errour and foolishnesse: and I perceiued that this was also but a vexation of minde.
18 For where much wisedome is, there is also great trauaile and disquietnesse: and the more knowledge a man hath, the more is his care.

The ii. Chapter.

1 Pleasures, sumptuous buyldings, riches, and possessions are but vanitie. 14 The wise and the foole haue both one ende touching the bodily death.

He proueth by foure reasons, that true felicitie consisteth not in any worldly pleasure.

1 Then sayd I thus in my heart, Now goe to, a I will take mine ease, and haue good daies: but loe, that is vanitie also.
a 1. There is no long contentatiō or pleasure in this life.
2 In somuch that b I sayde vnto the man giuen to laughter, Thou art madde: and to mirth, What doest thou?
b 2. The mother of vayne pleasure and much laughter, is foolishnes.

c 3. He that applyeth him selfe to the studie of godly wisedome, may not haue too much pleasure in drinking of wine.

d 4. The more plentie of gorgeous buylding, apparell, riches, or worldly pleasure, the more vexation of minde: and all are but vanitie in comparison of godly felicitie, as Solomon affirmeth of his own experience.

3 c So I thought in my heart to giue my flesh vnto wine, and againe to apply my minde vnto wisedome, and to comprehend foolishnesse: vntill the time that among all the things which are vnder the Sunne, I might see what were best for men to doe so long as they liue vnder heauen.

4 d I made me gorgeous faire workes: I builded my house, and planted vineyardes.

5 I made me Orchards and Gardens of pleasure, planted trees in them of al maner of fruites.

6 I made pooles of water, to water the greene and fruitfull trees withall.

7 I bought seruants and maydens, and had a great houshold: as for cattell and sheepe I had more substance of them, then all they that were before me in Hierusalem.

8 I gathered together siluer and gold, and the chiefe treasures of kings and lands: I haue prouided me men singers, and women singers, and the delights of the sonnes of men, as a woman taken captiue, and women taken captiues.

9 And I was greater and in more worship then all my predecessours in Hierusalem, for wisdome remained with mee.

10 And whatsoeuer my eyes desired, I let them haue it: and whersoeuer my heart delighted or had any pleasure, I withheld it not frō it: Thus my heart reioyced in all that I did, and this was my portion of all my trauaile.

11 But when I considered all the workes that my handes had wrought, and all the labour that I had taken therein: lo, all was but vanitie and veration of minde, and nothing of any value vnder the Sunne.

e God hath appointed that man should be obedient to godly reason, as to his king: and not to be led with carnall affection. Pro. 17. 24.

12 e Then turned I me to consider wisedome, errour, and foolishnesse (for what is he among men that might be compared to me the king in such workes?)

13 And I sawe that wisedome excelleth foolishnesse, as farre as light doth darknesse.

14 * For a wise man hath his eyes in his head, but the foole goeth in darknesse: I perceiued also that they both f had one ende.

f They both suffer like aduersitie in this world, or as touching the corruption of the body, they dye both alike.

15 Then thought I in my minde, If it happen vnto the foole as it doeth vnto me, what needeth it me then to labour any more for wisedome? So I confessed within my heart that this also was but vanitie.

16 For the wise are euer as little in remembrance as the foolish: for the dayes shall come, when al shalbe forgotten: yea, the wise man dieth as well as the foole.

g Meaning, in this worlde.

17 Thus began I to be weary of my life, insomuch that I coulde away with nothing that is done vnder the Sunne: for all was but vanitie & veration of minde.

18 h Yea, I was weary of my labor which I had taken vnder the Sunne, because I should be faine to leaue them vnto another man that commeth after me.

h That he might seeke the true felicitie which is in God.

19 i And who knoweth whether he shalbe a wise man or a foole? and yet shall he be lorde of all my labours, which I with such wisedome haue taken vnder the Sunne: This is also a vaine thing.

i He rebuketh men that make carefull prouidence to enrich their heires by vnlawefull meanes, to their own damnation, not knowing who or what they shall be, eyther good or euill.

20 So I turned me to refraine my minde from all such trauaile as I tooke vnder the Sunne, 21 For asmuch as a man shoulde wearie himselfe with wisdome, with vnderstanding and opportunitie, and yet be faine to leaue his labours vnto another that neuer sweate for them: This is also a vaine thing, and great miserie.

22 For what getteth a man of all the labour and trauaile of his minde, that he taketh vnder the Sunne, 23 But heauines, sorow, and disquietnes all the dayes of his life, insomuch that his heart can not rest in the night? This is also a vaine thing.

24 Is it not better then for a man to eate and drinke, and his soule to be merrie in his labour? yea, I saw that this also is a gift of God.

25 For who will eate, or goe more lustily to his worke then I?

26 And why? God giueth to the man that is good before him, wisedome, vnderstanding, and gladnesse: but vnto the sinner he giueth wearinesse, that he may gather and heape together the thing that afterward shalbe giuen vnto him whom it pleaseth God: This is now a vaine thing, yea, a verie disquietnesse and veration of minde.

The iii. Chapter.

1 All things haue their time. 14 The works of God are perfect, and cause vs to feare him. 17 God shal iudge both the iust and vniust.

1 EVerie thing hath a time, yea, al that is vnder the heauen hath his conuenient season.

a Although true felicitie is not to be put in any worldly thing: yet God hath appointed all necessary things to be done in due time, order, and measure.

2 There is a time to be borne, and a time to die: there is a time to plant, and a time to plucke vp the thing that is planted.

3 A time to slay, and a time to make whole: a time to breake downe, and a time to build vp.

4 A time to weepe, and a time to laugh: a time to mourne, and a time to dance.

5 A time to cast awaye stones, and a time to gather stones together: a time to embrace, and a time to refraine from embracing.

6 A time to winne, & a time to lose: a time to spare, and a time to spend.

7 A time to cut in pieces, & a time to sowe together: a time to keepe silence, and a time to speake.

8 A time to loue, & a time to hate: a time of warre, and a time of peace.

9 What hath a man elles that doeth any thing, but wearinesse and labour?

b God hath appointed that euery man should diligently trauaile and take paynes in his vocation, to the ende he would haue him humble and feare God.

10 b For as touching the trauaile & carefulnes which God hath giuē vnto men, I see that he hath giuen it them to be exercised in it.

11 All things hath hee made beautifull in their time, yea, further then this, he hath planted the worlde in their hearts, that man may not cõprehend the worke that God maketh frõ the beginning to þ end.

12 So I perceiued that in those thynges there is nothyng better for a man, then to be merrie, and to doe well as long as he liueth.

13 For all that a man eateth and drinketh, yea, whatsoeuer a man enioyeth of all his labour, the same is the gift of God.

14 I considered also, that whatsoeuer God doeth, it continueth for euer, and that nothing can be put vnto it, nor taken from it, and that God doeth it, to the intent that men should feare him.

15 The thyng that hath bene, is now: and the thyng that is for to come, hath bene aforetime: for God restoreth againe the thyng that was past.

16 Moreouer, I saw vnder the Sunne vngodlinesse in the stead of iudgement, and iniquitie in the steade of righteousnesse.

17 Then thought I in my mind, God shal separate the righteous from the vngodly: and then shall be the time and iudgement of all counsels and workes.

18 I communed with mine owne heart also concerning the children of men, how God hath chosen them, and yet letteth them appeare as though they were beastes.

19 [c] For it happeneth vnto men, as it doth vnto beastes, euen one condition vnto them both: as the one dieth, so dieth the other: yea, they haue both one maner of breath: so that in this, a man hath no preeminence aboue a beast, but are all subdued vnto vanitie.

20 They go al vnto one place: for as they be all of dust, so shall they all turne vnto dust againe.

21 [d] Who knoweth the spirit of ‖ man that goeth vpward, & the breath of the beast that goeth downe to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceiue that there is nothing better for a man, then to be ioyfull in his labour, for that is his portion: but who will bring him to see the thing that shall come after him?

The iiii. Chapter.

The innocent are oppressed 4 Mens labours are ful of abuse and vanitie. 9 Mans societie is necessarie. 13 A yong man poore and wise, is to be preferred before an olde king that is a foole.

1 SO I turned me, and considered all the violent wrõg that is vnder þ Sunne: and behold, the teares of such as were oppressed, & there was no man to comfort them, or that would deliuer and defende them from the violence of their oppressours.

2 Wherefore I ‖ iudged those that are dead, to bee more happie then those that be aliue:

3 [a] yea, him that is yet vnborne, to be better at ease then they both: because hee seeth not the miserable workes that are done vnder the Sunne.

4 [b] Againe, I sawe that all trauaile and diligence of labour that euery man taketh in hand, was done of enuie against his neighbour: This is also a vaine thing, and a vexation of minde.

5 [c] The foole foldeth his handes together, and eateth vp his owne flesh.

6 One handful saith he is better with rest, then both the hands ful with labour and trauaile of minde.

7 Moreouer, I turned me, and behold yet another vanitie vnder the Sunne:

8 There is one man, no mo but himselfe alone, hauing neither child nor brother, yet is there no end of his careful trauail, his eyes can not be satisfied with riches: yet saith he not, For whom do I take such trauaile? for whose pleasure doe I thus consume away my life? This is also a vaine and miserable thing.

9 [d] Therefore two are better then one, for they may well enioy the profite of their labour: for if one of them fall, his companion helpeth him vp againe.

10 But woe is him that is alone, for if hee fal, he hath not another to helpe him vp.

11 Againe, when two sleepe together, they are warme: but how can a bodie bee warme alone?

12 One may bee ouercome, but two may make resistance: a three folde cable is not lightly broken.

13 A poore child being wise, is better then an olde king that doteth, ‖ and cannot beware in time to come.

14 Some one commeth out of prison, and is made a king, and another which is borne in the kingdome, commeth vnto powertie.

15 And I perceiued that all men liuing vnder the Sunne [e] goe with the seconde childe, that shall stande vp in the stead of the other.

16 As for the people that haue bene before him, & that come after him, they are innumerable, & they that come [f] after him shall not reioyce of him: This is also a [g] vaine thing, and vexation of minde.

17 When thou commest into the house of God, keepe thy foote, & drawe nigh, that God which is at hand may heare, that thou giue not the [s] offrings of fooles: for they know nought, but to do euill.

The v. Chapter.

Not to speake lightly, chiefly in Gods matters. 9 The couetous can neuer haue ynough.

1 BE not hastie with thy mouth, and let not thine heart speake any thing rashly before God, for God is in heauen, and thou vpon earth: therefore let thy wordes be few.

2 For where much carefulnesse is, there are many dreames: and where many words are, there men may heare fooles.

3 *If thou make a vow vnto God, be not slacke to performe it: as for foolish vowes, he hath no pleasure in them: if thou promise any thing, pay it.

4 [b] For better is it that thou make no vowe, then that thou shouldest promise, and not pay.

5 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh

For

c There is no difference betwixt a man and a beast as touching the body, which of them both dieth: but the soule of man liueth immortally, and the body of man riseth vp againe by the mighty power of the spirit of God.

d The immortalitie of the soule is not knowen by carnall reason or sense: but by the word & spirit of God.

‖ Or, of the children of men.

‖ Or, prayed.

a He speaketh here according to the iudgment of the flesh, which cannot well abide persecution and trouble.

b The more perfect that the worke is, the more it is enuyed of the wicked.

c For idlenes destroieth himselfe

d Mutuall societie is both comfortable and necessary for a mans life, ‖ Or, will not receiue admonition.

e Men seeke rather to please and to come into fauour with him that shall succede into the place of honour, then with him that doeth occupy the present estate.

f The people will not be long pleased with him that occupieth the place of honour.

g We must direct our faith, prayer, and workes, by the worde of God, and not by a blind or wicked intent.

a Be not rash in speaking of the maiestie of God, or in vowing and praying to God.

* Deut. 23. 21.

b We ought to vow those things which tend to the glory of God, and which are in our power to performe.

For

c In promising that which thou art not able to performe. Or by intemperate eating and drinking, or by saying that you sinned not voluntarily, but of necessitie, making God the authour of sinne.

for to c sinne, neither say thou before the Angell, that it is thy ignorance: for then God will be angry at thy voyce, and destroy all the worke of thine handes.

d Dreames are not to be credited: but God is to be feared.

6 d And why? whereas are many dreames, and many words, there are also diuers vanities, but feare thou God.

e Meaning, that God will redresse these things, & therefore wee must depend vpon him.

7 If thou seest the poore to be oppressed, and wrongfully dealt withall, so that equitie and right of the lawe is wrested in the lande, marueile not thou at such a thing: for hee that is c higher then the highest, regardeth, and there bee higher then they.

f The decay of husbandry is the decay of the prince.

8 f The encrease of the earth vpholdeth al things: yea, the king himselfe is maintained by husbandry.

9 He that loueth money, will neuer bee satisfied with money: and he that loueth riches, shalbe without the fruite thereof: This is also a vayne thing.

10 Whereas much riches is, there are many also that spend them away: and what pleasure more hath he that possesseth them, sauing that he may looke vpō them with his eyes?

g A plague of the couetous man. Iob, 20, 20.

11 A labouring man sleepeth sweetely, whether it bee little or much that hee eateth: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleepe.

12 g Yet is there a sore plague which I haue seene vnder the Sunne, namely, riches kept * to the hurt of him that hath them in possession:

13 For oftentimes they perish with his great miserie and trouble: and if he haue a childe, it getteth nothing.

Iob.1.21. 1,Tim,6.7.

14 * Like as hee came naked out of his mothers woombe, so goeth he thither againe, and carrieth nothing away with him of all his labour.

15 This is a miserable plague, that hee shall goe euen as he came away: What helpeth it him then that he hath laboured in the winde?

h That is, in vayne, and without profite.

16 h All the dayes also of his life hee did eate in the darke with great carefulnesse, sickenesse, and sorowe.

17 Therefore mee thinke it a better and a fairer thing a man to eate and drinke, & to be refreshed of all his labour that hee taketh vnder the Sunne, all the dayes of his life which God giueth him: for this is his portion.

18 For vnto whomsoeuer God giueth riches, goods, and power, he giueth it him to enioy it, to take it for his portion, and to be refreshed of his labour: this is the gift of God.

19 For he thinketh not much howe long he shall liue, forasmuch as God filleth his heart with gladnesse.

The vi. Chapter.

The miserable estate of him to whome God hath giuen riches, and not the grace to vse them.

1 THere is yet a plague vnder the sunne, and it is a general thing among men: when God giueth a man riches, goods, and honour, so that hee wanteth nothing of all that his heart can desire, and yet God giueth him not leaue to enioy the same, but an other man spendeth them: This is a vayne thing, and a miserable plague.

2 If a man beget a hundred children, and liue many yeeres, so that his dayes are many in nunber, and yet can not enioy his good, neither be buried, as for him, I say, the vntimely birth is better then he.

3 For he commeth to nought, and spendeth his time in darkenesse, & his name is forgotten.

4 Moreouer, he seeth not the Sunne, and knoweth not of it: and yet hath he more rest then the other.

5 Yea, though hee liued two thousand yeeres, yet hath hee no good life: Come not all to i one place?

i That is, to death, meaning, y he is nothing better then the vntimely fruite. ‖ Or, for his mouth.

6 All the labour that a man taketh, is for him ‖ selfe, and yet his desire is neuer filled after his minde.

7 For what hath the wise more then the foole? what helpeth it the poore, that he knoweth to walke with fooles before the liuing?

8 The d cleare sight of the eye is better then that the soule should walke after desires of the lust: Howbeit, this is also a vaine thing, & disquietnesse of minde.

9 The thing that hath bene, is named already, and knowen that it is euen man himselfe: neither may he goe to law with him e that is mightier then he.

10 Many things there bee that encrease vanitie, and what hath a man els?

11 For who knoweth what is good for man liuing in the dayes of his vayne life, which is but a shadowe? Or who will tell a man what shall happen after him vnder the Sunne?

The vii. Chapter.

Diuers precepts to follow that which is good, and to auoyde the contrarie.

1 A Good name is more worth then pretious ointment: and the a day of death, is better the ‖ day of birth.

a Because that this corporall death is the entring into life euerlasting. Pro.22.1.

2 * b It is better to go into an house of mourning, then into a banqueting house: For there is the ende of all men, & he that is liuing, taketh it to heart.

b The heart of a sinner is sooner reformed by an angry countenance, then by a smiling.

3 c Grauitie is better then to laugh: for when the countenāce is heauy, the heart is reformed.

4 The heart of the wise is in the mourning house: but the heart of the foolish is in the house of mirth.

5 It is better to giue eare to the chastening of a wise mā, then to heare the song of fooles.

6 For the laughing of fooles is like the d cracking of thornes vnder a pot: and that is but a vaine thing.

c Thorns in the fire crackle for a while, but they are soone gone out.

7 The wise man hateth wrong dealing, and abhorreth the heart that coueteth rewardes.

8 Better it is to consider the ende of a thing, then the beginning: the patient spirit is better then the high minded.

9 Be not hastily angry in thy minde: for wrath resteth in the bosome of fooles.

10 c Say

10 Saye not thou, What is the cauſe that the dayes of the old time were better the they that bee nowe? for that were no wiſe queſtion.

11 Wiſedome with inheritance is good, yet better is it with them that without care may beholde the Sunne:

12 For wiſedome defendeth as well as money, and the excellent knowledge and wiſedome giueth life vnto him that hath it in poſſeſſion.

13 Conſider the worke of God, howe that no man can make the thing ſtraight, which he maketh crooked.

14 Vſe well the time of proſperitie, and remember the time of miſfortune: for God doeth ſo temper the one and the other, that a man f can finde nothing els.

15 All things haue I conſidered in the time of my vanitie: that the g iuſt man periſheth for his righteouſnes ſake, and the vngodly liueth in his wickednes.

16 Therefore be thou neither too righteous, nor ouerwiſe, that thou periſh not.

17 Be neither too vnrighteous and, nor too fonliſh, leaſt thou dye before thy time.

18 It is good for thee to h take holde of this, and not to let that goe out of thy hande: For he that feareth God, commeth forth with them all.

19 Wiſedome giueth more courage vnto the wiſe, then tenne mightie men of the citie.

20 *For there is not one iuſt vpon earth that doeth good, and ſinneth not.

21 Take no heede vnto euery worde that is ſpoken, leſt thou heare thy ſeruant curſe thee: for thine owne heart knoweth that thou thy ſelfe alſo haſt oft times ſpoken euill by other men.

22 All theſe thinges haue I proued in wiſedome, for I thought to be wiſe, but ſhe went farther from me then ſhee was before: yea, and ſo deepe, that I might not reache vnto her.

23 I applied my minde alſo vnto knowledge, and to ſeeke and ſearch out ſcience, wiſedome and vnderſtanding, to knowe the foolliſhneſſe of the vngodly, and the errour of doting fooles.

24 And I found i a woman is bitterer then death, the which hath caſt abroade her heart as a net that men fiſh with, & her handes are chaines. Who ſo pleaſeth God, ſhall eſcape from her, but the ſinner ſhall be taken with her.

25 Behold (ſaith the Preacher) this haue I diligently ſearched out and proued. One thing muſt be conſidered with another, that a man may come by knowledge: which || as yet I ſeeke, and finde it not.

26 Among a thouſand men I haue found one: but k not one woman among all.

27 Loe, this only haue I found, that God made man iuſt and right: l but they ſought many inuentions.

The viii. Chapter.

1 Who is wiſe? who hath knowledge to make an anſwere? A m mans wiſedome maketh his face to ſhine: but ||n mans ſtrength ſtretcheth it out of fauour.

2 *Keepe the kings commandement, namely, for the othe that thou haſt made vnto God for the ſame.

3 o Be not haſty to go out of his ſight, & ſtee thou continue in no euill thing: for whatſoeuer it pleaſeth him, p doeth he.

4 Like as when a king giueth a charge, his commandement is mightie: euen ſo, who may ſaye vnto him, What doeſt thou?

5 Who ſo keepeth the commandement, ſhall feele no harme: but a wiſe mans heart diſcerneth the time & iudgement.

6 For euery thing will haue opportunitie and iudgement: and this is the thing that maketh man full of carefulneſſe and ſorowe.

7 And why? a man knoweth not what is for to come: for who can tell when it ſhalbe?

8 Neither is there any man that hath power ouer the ſpirite, to keepe ſtill the ſpirit, nor to haue any power in the time of death, nor that can make an end of the battell, neither may vngodlineſſe deliuer them that meddle withall.

9 All theſe things haue I conſidered, and applyed my minde vnto euery worke that is vnder the Sunne, how one man hath lordſhip vpon another to q his owne harme.

10 For I haue ſeene often the vngodly brought to their graues, r and yet they haue returned into the citie againe, and s came from the place of holy me, which in the citie were growne out of memorie, as were thoſe alſo that liued well: This is alſo a vaine thing.

11 t Becauſe now that euill woorkes are not haſtily punished, the heart of man giueth himſelfe ouer vnto wickednes.

12 Becauſe an euill perſon offendeth an hundred times, and God deferreth, giuing him long life: therefore am I sure that it ſhall go well with them that feare God, which haue him before their eyes.

13 Againe, as for the vngodly, it ſhall not be well with him, neither ſhall he prolog his dayes, but euen as a ſhadow, ſo ſhall he be that feareth not God.

14 Yet is there a vanitie vpō earth: There be iuſt men, vnto whome it happeneth as though they had the woorkes of the vngodly: Againe, there bee vngodly, with whome it goeth as though they had the workes of the righteous: This haue I called alſo a vaine thing.

15 Therefore I commend gladneſſe, becauſe a man hath no better thing vnder the Sunne, then to eate and drinke, & to be merie: for that ſhall bee haue of his labour all vi dayes of his life, which God giueth him vnder the Sunne.

16 And ſo I applyed my minde to learne wiſedome, and to knowe the trauaile that e Good dayes are not to be eſteemed by proſperitie, but by vertue and true religion, as the dayes of Chriſt are better then the former dayes of Moſes.

f That no man can finde fault withgood doinges.

g Meaning, that the cruel tyrants put the innocent to death, and ſpare wicked.

h Take heed of their admonitions.

*Pro 20.9. 1 ſohn, 1.8.

i A ſhrewd woman is eſcaped onely by the grace of God, ||Or, my ſoule ſeeketh.

k Solomon hauing a thouſand wiues, found not one that was perfectly good.

l And ſo are cauſe of their owne deſtructiō.

a That is, geteth to him fauour. ||Or, ſtrength. Pro. 16.13.

b Withdraw not thy ſelfe lightly from the kings obedience.

c As commeth oftentimes to tyrants and wicked rulers.

d That is, the vngodly hath bene prayſed after their buriall.

e That is, the holy men after their buriall growe out of memorie.

f Where iuſtice is delayed, there ſinne reigneth.

g This he ſpeketh in the perſon of a carnall man.

that is in the worlde, and that of such a fashion, that I suffered not mine eyes to sleepe, neither day nor night.

17 I understood of all the workes of God, but it is not possible for a man to attaine vnto the workes that are done vnder the Sunne: and though he bestowe his labour to seeke them out, yet can hee not reach vnto them: yea, though a wise man would undertake to know them, yet shal he not find them.

The ix. Chapter.

1 By no manner thing can man know whom God loueth or hateth. 11 No man knoweth his end. 19 Wisdome excelleth strength.

1 FOr all these things purposed I in my mind to seeke out. The righteous and wise, yea, and their seruants also are in the hand of God, and there is no man that knoweth either loue or hate, but all things are before them.

a By any outward thing in this life, no man knoweth whether he is loued or hated of God.

2 It happeneth vnto one, as vnto another, it goeth with a righteous, as with the vngodly, b with the good & cleane, as with the vncleane: with him that offereth, as with him that offereth not: like as it goeth with the righteous, so goeth it also with the sinner: as it happeneth vnto the periured, so happeneth it also to him that is afraid to be forsworne.

b Or, holy.

3 Among all things that come to passe vnder the Sunne, this is a miserie, that it happeneth vnto all alike: This is the cause also, that the hearts of men are full of wickednesse, and mad foolishnesse is in their hearts, as long as they liue, vntill they die.

4 And why? as long as a man liueth, he hath an hope: for a c quicke dog fay they, is better then a dead lion.

c This proverbe is the saying of the Epicures, the which beleeue not the immortalitie of the soule.

5 For they that be liuing, know that they shall die: but d they that be dead, knowe nothing, neither deserue they any more, for their memorial is forgotten.

d Repentance after this life, is too late and vnprofitable.

6 Also their loue and their hatred, & their enuie is now perished, neither haue they any more part in the world in all that is done vnder the Sunne.

7 e Goe thou thy way then, eat thy bread with ioy, & drinke thy wine with a glad heart, for thy works please God: let thy garments be alwayes white, and let thy head lacke no ointment.

e The wicked flatter themselues to be in Gods fauour, whatsoeuer they doe, for that they doe abound in prosperitie.

8 Liue thy life ioyfully with thy wife whom thou louest, all the dayes of thy life, which is but vaine, that God giueth thee vnder the Sunne all the daies of thy vanitie: for that is the portion in this life of all thy labour and trauaile that thou takest vnder the Sunne.

9 Whatsoeuer thou takest in hand to do, that doe with all thy power: for in the graue that thou goest f vnto, there is neither worke, counsel, knowledge, nor wisdome.

f There is no time of working, or repentance after this life.

10 So I turned me vnto other things vnder the Sunne, & I saw that in running it helpeth not to be swift, in battel it helpeth not to be strog, to feeding, it helpeth not to be wise, to riches, it helpeth not to be a man of much vnderstanding, to be had in fauor, it helpeth not to be cunning: but that all lieth in time and fortune.

11 For a man knoweth not his time: but like as the fishes are taken with g angle, and as the birdes are caught with the snare: euen so are men taken in the perilous time, when it commeth suddenly vpon them.

g Thus the wicked worldlings are deceiued, attributing to fortune, that which is ordered by the secret prouidece of God, for that the rewarde according to mens doings is not in this life, but chiefly in the life to come.

12 h This wisedome haue I seene also vnder the Sunne, and me thought it a great thing.

h A praise of wisedome.

13 There was a litle citie, and a few men within it: to there came a great king and besieged it, & made great bulwarkes against it.

14 And in the citie there was found a poore man, but he was wise, which with his wisdome deliuered the citie, yet was there no body that had any respect to such a simple man.

15 Then sayde I, Wisedome is better then strength: neuertheless, a simple mans wisdome is despised, & his words are not heard.

16 A wise mans counsell that is followed in silence, is farre aboue the crying of a captaine among fooles.

Or, heard.

17 *For wisedome is better then harnesse: but one sinner alone destroyeth much goodnesse.

Eccl. 6. 8.

The x. Chapter.

1 The difference of foolishnesse and wisdome. 10 A slanderer is like a Serpent that can not be charmed. 15 Of foolish kings and vicious princes. 16 And of good kings and princes.

1 DEad flie doth corrupt (weete ointment, and maketh it to stinke: euen so oft times, he that hath bene had in estimation for wisedome and honour, is abhorred because of a litle foolishnesse.

a A wise man doeth things aptly, and with good consideration, but a foole doeth contrary.

2 *A wise mans heart is vpon his right hand, but a fooles heart vpon his left.

3 A foole will shewe himselfe when hee goeth by the way, || yet thinketh he that euery man doth as foolishly as himselfe.

Or, and being a foole himselfe, esteemeth all other men as fooles.

4 If a principall spirite be risen vp to beare rule, be not negligent then in thine office: for he that can take cure of himselfe, auoydeth great offences.

5 Another plague is there which I haue seene vnder the Sunne, namely, the ignorance that is commonly among princes: in that a foole sitteth in great dignitie, and the b rich are set downe beneath.

b Rich in wisedome & vertue.

6 I haue seene seruants ride vpon horses, and princes going vpon || their feete, as it were seruants.

Or, the earth.

7 *But he that diggeth vp a pit, shall fall therein himselfe: and whoso breaketh downe the hedge, a serpent shal bite him.

Pro. 26. 27. eccl. 27. 30.

8 Whoso remoueth stones, shall haue trauaile withall: & he that heweth wood, shall be hurt therewith.

9 When an yron is blunt, and the poynt not sharpened, c it must be whet againe, and that with might: euen so doeth wisdome follow diligence.

c Arte helpeth nature,

10 A backbiter is no better then a serpent that stingeth without hissing.

11 The

11 The wordes out of a wise mans mouth are gracious: but the lips of a foole will destroy himselfe.
12 The beginning of his talking is foolishnesse: and the last word of his mouth is starke madnesse.
13 A foole is ful of wordes, & a man can not tel what shal come to passe: who wil then warne him of it? what shall come after him?
14 The labour of the [d] foolish is grievous unto them, while they know not how to go into the citie.
15 Woe be unto thee, O thou land, whose king is but a childe, and whose princes are early at their banquets.
16 But well is thee, O thou land, whose king is come of nobles, and whose princes eate in due season for necessitie, and not for lust.
17 Through slouthfulnesse the balkes fall downe, and through idle handes it raineth in at the house.
18 Meate maketh men to laugh, & wine maketh them merrie: but unto money are all things obedient.
19 [f] Wish the king no evill in thy thought, and speake no hurt of the rich in thy privie chamber: for a birde of the aire shall betrap thy voyce, and with her feathers shall the bewrap thy wordes.

The xi. Chapter.

1 To be liberall to the poore. 4 Not to doubt of Gods providence. 8 All worldly prosperitie is but vanitie. 9 God will judge all.

LAp [a] thy bread upon wet faces, & so shalt thou find it after many dayes.
2 [b] Give part seuen dayes, and also on the eight: for thou knowest not what miserie shall come upon earth.
3 When the cloudes are full, they powre out raine upon the earth. And when the tree falleth, whether it bee toward the South or North, in what place soeuer it fall, there it tieth.
4 He that regardeth the winde, shall not sowe: and he that hath respect unto the cloudes, shall not reape.
5 Now like as thou knowest not the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the wombe of her that is with childe: euen so thou knowest not the workes of God, which is the workemaster of all.
6 Cease not thou therefore with thy hand to sowe thy seede, whether it be in the morning or in the euening: for [c] knowest not whether this or that shall prosper, and if they both take, it is the better.
7 The light is sweete, & a pleasant thing is it for the eyes to looke upon the sunne.
8 If a man liue many yeeres, and be glad in them all, let him remember the dayes of darknesse which shall be many, & that followeth: All things shalbe but vanitie.
9 Be glad then, O thou young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart be merry in thy yong dayes, follow the wayes of thine owne heart, & the lust of thine eyes, but be thou sure that God shall bring thee into iudgement for all these things.

The xii. Chapter.

2 To thinke on God in youth, and not to deferre till age. 7 The soule returneth to God. 12 Wisedome is the gift of God, and consisteth in fearing him, and keeping his commandements.

1* PUt away displeasure out of thine heart, and remoue euil from thy bodie: for childhode and youth is but vanitie.
2 Remember thy maker the sooner in thy youth, or euer the dayes of aduersitie come, and or the yeeres drawe nigh when thou shalt say, I haue no pleasure in them:
3 Before the Sunne, the Light, the Moone, and Starres be darkened, and or the cloudes turne againe after the raine:
4 [a] When the keepers of the house shall tremble, and when the [b] strong men shal bowe themselues, when the [c] millners stande still because they be so fewe, and when the [d] sight of the windowes shall waxe dimme:
5 When the [e] doores of the streetes shalbe shut, and when the [f] voyce of the millner shalbe layde downe, when men shall rise up at the voyce of the [g] bird, and when all the [h] daughters of musike shall be brought lowe:
6 When men shall feare in [i] high places, and be afraide [k] in the streetes, when the [l] Almond tree shall florish and bee laden with the [m] Grashopper, and when al inst shall be past: because man goeth to his [n] long home, and the mourners go about the [o] streetes:
7 Or euer the siluer lace be taken away, and or the [p] golden well bee broken: Or the [q] pot be broken at the [r] well, and the [s] wheele broken upon the [t] cesterne.
8 Then shal the dust be turned againe unto earth from whence it came, & the spirit shall returne unto God who gaue it.
9 All is but vanitie (saieth the preacher) all is but plaine banitie.
10 The preacher was yet more wise, and taught the people knowledge, he gaue good heede, sought out the grounde, and set forth many parables: [u] his diligence was to find out acceptable wordes, right scripture, and the words of trueth.
11 For the words of [x] wise are like pricks and nayles that goe thorow, of the authors of gatherings, which are giuen of one Shepheard.
12 Therfore beware my sonne of that doctrine that is beside this: for to make many bookes, it is an endlesse worke: and too much studie wearieth the bodie.
13 Let us heare the conclusion of al things, Feare God, and keepe his commandements: for that toucheth all men. For God shall iudge all workes and secrets things, whether they be good or euil.

The ende of the booke of the Preacher, otherwise called Ecclesiastes.

The Ballet of Ballets of Salomon, called in Latine, Canticum Canticorum.

The first Chapter.

1 The familiar talke and mysticall communication of the spirituall loue betweene Iesus Christ and his Church. 6 The domesticall enemies that persecute the Church.

a The Church desireth the peace of Christ.

1
That a he wounde kisse me wt the kisses of his mouth: for thy loue is more pleasant the wine, and that because of the good & pleasant sauour of thy most precious baulmes.

b Christs mercy is set forth by preaching.

2 b Thy name is a sweete smelling ointment when it is shed forth, therefore doe the c maydens loue thee.

c The maydens that is, they that are pure in heart

3 Drawe thou me vnto thee, we will runne after thee. The king hath brought me into his priuie chambers: we will be glad and reioyce in thee, we thinke more of thy loue, then of wine: they that be righteous loue thee.

d Blacke, through sportes of sinne and persecution.

4 d I am blacke (O ye daughters of Hierusalem) but yet e fayre and well fauoured, like as the tentes of the Cedarenes, and as the hangings of Solomon.

e Fayre, through faith in the blood of Christ.

5 Wonder not at me that I am so black, for why? The Sunne hath shined vpon me: my mothers children haue euil wil at me, they made me the keeper of the vineyardes, but mine owne vineyarde haue I not kept.

6 Tell me, O thou whom my soule loueth, where thou fedest ye sheepe, where thou makest them rest at ye noone day: for why shall I be like him that goeth wrong about the flockes of thy companions?

f After the doctrine of the Apostles,

7 If thou know not thy selfe (O ye fairest among women) then goe thy way forth after the f footesteps of the sheepe, & feede thy goates beside the sheepheards tents.

8 Vnto the horse of Pharaos charettes haue I compared thee, O my loue.

9 Thy cheekes & thy necke is beautifull as the Turtles, & hanged with chaines & goodly iewelles, a neckeband of gold will we make thee, with siluer buttons.

g So long as the Church followeth Christ, she shall not erre from the true faith of saluatiõ.

10 g When the king sitteth at the table, he shal smel my Nardus: a bundle of Myrrhe is my loue vnto mee, he will lie betwixt my breasts: a cluster of Camphire in ye vineyards of Engaddi is my loue vnto me.

11 Oh how faire art thou my loue, oh how faire art thou? thou hast doues eyes. O howe fayre art thou my beloued, howe well fauoured art thou?

12 Our bed is decked with flowres, the seelings of our house are of Cedar tree, and our crosse ioynts of Cypresse.

The ii. Chapter.

3 The Church desireth to rest vnder the shadowe of Christ. 8 She heareth his voyce. 14 She is compared to the Doue, 15 And the enemies to the Foxes.

1 I Am the Rose of the fielde, and a lilie of the valleys.

a Christ among his enemies.

2 a As the lilie among the thornes: so is my loue among the daughters.

b The loue of the Church toward Christ.

3 b Like as the apple tree among the trees of the wood: so is my beloued among the sonnes.

4 My delight is to sit vnder his shadow, for c his fruite is sweete vnto my throte.

c His fruite, that is, his word.

5 He bringeth me into his own celler, his banner spred ouer me, which is his loue.

6 Set about me cuppes of wine, comfort me with apples, for I am sicke of loue.

7 His left hand lieth vnder my head, and his right hand shall imbrace me.

d Christ chargeth the rulers of the Church as it were by an othe, that they trouble not the quietnesse thereof.

8 d I charge you (O ye daughters of Hierusalem) by the Roes and Hindes of the field, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touche her, till she bee content her selfe.

e His diuinitie was hidden vnder our flesh.

f We can not knowe him in this life perfectly.

9 Me thinke I heare the voyce of my beloued: loe, there commeth hee hopping vpon the mountaines, and leaping ouer the litle hilles.

10 My beloued is like a Roe or a yong Hart: behold, he standeth behinde e our wall, he looketh in f at the windowes, and peepeth thorowe the grate.

11 My beloued answered, and sayde vnto mee, O stande vp, my loue, my beautifull, and goe to thine owne: for lo, the winter is nowe past, the raine is away and gone.

g That is, sinne and infidelitie is put away by Christ.

h Good workes.

i The voyce of the holy ghost.

12 h The flowres are come vp in the field, the time of the pruning singing is come, and the i voyce of the Turtle doue is heard in our land.

13 The figge tree bringeth forth her figs, and the vines beare blossomes, and haue a good smell.

14 O stande vp then, and come, my loue, my beautifull, and come I saye, O my Doue, out of the caues of the rockes, out of the holes of the wall, O let mee see thy countenance, and heare thy voyce: for sweete is thy voyce, and fayre is thy face.

k Suppresse the heretikes at the beginning, when they preach false doctrine.

15 Get vs k the Foxes, yea the litle Foxes that hurt the vines: for our vines beare blossomes.

16 My loue is mine, and I am his, which feedeth among the lilies vntill the day breake, and till the shadowes be gone:

l The Church praieth Christ to be a present helpe alwayes in time of neede.

17 l Come againe, O my beloued, and bee like a Roe or a yong Hart vpon the wyde mountaines.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The Church desireth to be ioyned vnseparablely to Christ her husbande. 6 Her deliuerance out of the wildernesse.

1 By a night in my bedde I sought him whom my soule loueth: yea, diligently sought I him, but I found him not.

a Christ is not found by carnall reason, but by the scripture.

2 I

b We must continue in prayer, though we feele no comfort at the first.

2 I will get vp, thought I, & go about the citie, in the wayes & in all the streete: but I seeke him whome my soule loueth: but when I sought him, I found him not.

3 The watchmen also that goe about the citie, found me, to whome I said, Saw ye not him whom my soule loueth?

4 So when I was a litle past them, I found him whome my soule loueth, I haue gotten holde vpon him, and will not let him goe, vntil I bring him into my mothers house, and into her chamber that bare me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Ierusalem, by the Roes and Hindes of the fielde, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touch her, till she be content her selfe.

c By this is vnderstanded the children of Israel, which in the wildernesse did followe Christ.

6 Who is this that commeth vp out of the wildernesse like vapours of smoke, as it were a smell of Myrrhe, Frankincense, and all maner spices of the Apotecarie?

d By Solomons bedstead, is vnderstanded the temple of Solomon, the which is defended by the sword, that is, by the word. ‖ Some reade, the pauement of gold, the couering of purple.

7 Beholde, about d Solomons bedstead there stande three score valiant, of the most mightie in Israel:

8 Euery man also hath his sworde vpon his thigh, because of feare in the night.

9 King Solomon hath made himselfe a palace of the wood of Libanus, the pilars are of siluer, ‖ the couering of gold, the seate of purple, the gromde is pleasantly paued with loue for the daughters of Ierusalem.

10 Go forth (O ye daughters of Sion) and behold king Solomon in the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his marriage, and in the day of the gladnesse of his heart.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 The praises of the Church. 7 She is without blemysh. 9 The loue of Christ toward her.

a Christ prayseth his church wherein he hath great delight. b A simple faith and syncere. c The fruites of a true faith. d By the teeth, is signified faith, by the which we are all made the sonnes of God equally.

1 O Howe a fayre art thou, my loue, howe fayre art thou? thou hast b doues eyes, beside that which lyeth hid within: c thy heare lookes are like the woull of a flocke of Goates that be shorne vpon mount Gilead.

2 d Thy teeth are like a flocke of sheepe of the same bignesse which were vp from the washing place, where euery one beareth two twinnes, and not one vnfruitfull among them.

3 Thy lippes are like a Read coloured rybande, thy words are louely, thy cheekes are like a piece of a Pomegranate within thine heares.

e By the necke is signified the preachers.

4 Thy e necke is like the towre of Dauid, builded with costly stones lying out on the sides, whereupon there hang a thousand shieldes, yea all the weapons of the Giantes.

f The two breasts signifie the two testaments.

5 f Thy two breasts are like two twinnes of yong Roes, which feede among Roses.

6 O that I might goe to the mountaine of Myrrhe, and to the hill of Frankincense, till the day breake, and till the shadowes be past away.

7 Thou art all fayre (O my loue) and no spot is there in thee.

8 Come to me from Libanus (O my spouse) come to me from Libanus: looke from the top of Amana, from the top of Sanir and Hermon, from the Lions dennes, and from the mountaines of the Leopardes.

9 Thou hast with loue bewitched my heart, O my sister, my spouse, thou hast bewitched my heart with one of thine eyes, and with one chaine of thy necke.

10 O how fayre are thy breasts, my sister, my spouse? Thy breastes are more pleasant then wine, and the smell of thine ointmentes passeth all spices.

11 e Thy lippes, O my spouse, drop as the honie combe, yea milke and honie is vnder thy tongue, and the smell of thy garmentes is like the smell of Libanus.

g The preaching of the Gospell bringeth foorth much consolation and profite.

12 h A garden well locked is my sister, my spouse: a garden well locked, and a sealed well.

h The church is defended by Christ.

13 The fruites that are planted in thee, are like a verie paradise of Pomegranates with sweete fruites, as Camphire, Nardus, and Saffron, Calamus, Synamoin, with all sweete smelling trees, Myrrhe, Aloes, and all the best spices, a well of gardens, a well of liuing waters which runne downe from Libanus.

14 i Vp thou Northwinde, come thou South winde, and blowe vpon my garden, that the smell thereof may be caried on euery side: yea that my beloued may come into his garden, and eate of the sweete fruites that growe therein.

i He prayeth for the grace of the holy ghost towarde the Church, without the which nothing can profper in it.

The v. Chapter.

1 Christ calleth his Church to the participation of al his treasures. 2 She heareth his voyce. 6 She confesseth her wickednes. 10 She praiseth Christ her husband.

1 I Am a come into my garden, O my sister, my spouse, I haue gathered my Myrrhe with my spice: I haue eaten honie with my honie combe, I haue dronken my wine with my milke: Eate, O ye friendes, drinke, and be merie, O ye beloued.

a The garden signifieth the Church of God, in the which Christ bestoweth his singular benefites.

2 I am asleepe, but my heart is waking: I heare the voyce of my beloued when he knocketh, saying, Open to me, O my sister, my loue, my doue, my darling: for my head is full of deaw, and the lockes of my heare are full of the night droppes.

3 I haue put off my coate, how can I do it on againe? I haue washed my feete, howe shall I spile them againe?

4 My loue put in his hand at the hole, & my heart was moued within me.

5 I rose vp to open vnto my beloued, & my handes dropped with Myrrhe, and the Myrrhe ranne downe my fingers vpon the locke.

6 I opened vnto my beloued, but he was departed and gone his way: Now whe he spake, my heart was gone: b I sought him, but I could not finde him: I cryed vpon him, neuertheles, he gaue me no answere.

b Christ doeth leaue his for a time, for that he would stirre vp in them a greater desire of him.

7 So

7 So the watchmen that went about the citie, found me, smote mée, and wounded me: yea they that kept the walles, tooke away my kerchiefe from me.
8 I charge you therefore, O ye daughters of Hierusalem, if yée finde my beloued, that ye tell him howe that I am sicke for loue.
9 What maner of man is thy loue above other louers, O thou fayrest among women? Or what can thy loue do more then other louers, that thou chargest vs so straitly?
a The Church setteth forth Christ to be of most perfection and comelinesse.
10 As for my loue, hée a is white and red coloured, a goodly person among tenne thousand.
11 His head is as the most fine golde, the lockes of his heare are bushed, and blacke as a Crowe.
12 His eyes are as the eyes of doues by the water brookes, as though they were was-shed with milke, ‖ and are set like pearles in golde.
‖ Some reade, and remaine by the full vessell.
13 His cheekes are like a garden bed wher-in the Apothecaries plant all maner of sweete things.
14 His lippes are like Lilies that droppe sweet smelling Myrrhe: his handes are like golde rings, having inclosed the precious stone of Tharsis.
15 His body is as the pure Iuorie, deckt ouer with Saphires: his legges are as the pillars of Marble set vpon sockets of gold.
16 His face is as Libanus, and as the beautie of the Cedar trees.
17 The words of his mouth are sweete, yea he is altogether louely: Such a one is my loue, O ye daughters of Hierusalem, such a one is my loue.

The vi. Chapter.

3 The Church assureth her selfe of the loue of Christ. 4 The prayse of the Church. 8 She is but one and vndefiled.

1 WHither is thy loue gone then, O thou fairest amõg women? whither is thy loue departed, and we will seeke him with thée?
a Christ is conuersant in his Church, which is directed by his scriptures.
2 a My loue is gone downe into his garden vnto the sweete smelling beddes, that he may refresh himselfe in the garden, and gather Lilies.
3 My loue is mine, and I am his, which feedeth among the Lilies.
4 Thou art beautifull, O my loue, as is the place Thirza, thou art fayre as Hierusalem, fearefull as an armie of men with their banners.
5 Turne away thine eyes away from me, for they ‖ haue set me on fire: thy heare lockes are like a flocke of Goates shorne vpon the mount of Gilead.
‖ Or, ouercome me.
6 Thy teeth are like a flocke of shorne sheepe, which go out of b washing place, where euery one beareth twinnes, and not one vnfruitfull among them.
b There be many in the Church of God, and diuers orders and degrees therein.
7 Thy cheekes are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy lockes of heare.
8 c There are threescore Queenes, fourescore wines, & damosels without nũber.
9 d One is my doue, one is my darling, c Diuers particular Churches dispersed, make but one Catholique Church.
she is the onely beloued of her mother, and deare vnto her that bare her: When the daughters sawe her, they sayde she was blessed, yea the queenes and wiues praysed her.
10 What is she this that looketh forth as the morning, fayre as the moone, cleare as the sunne, and fearefull as an armie of men with their banners?
11 d I went downe into the nut garden, d Christ looketh vpon his Church subiect to affliction, what fruit it bringeth.
to see what grewe by the brookes, and to looke if the vineyard flourished, or if the Pomegranats were not forth.
12 I knew not that my soule had made me the chariot of the people that bee vnder tribute.
13 Turne againe, turne againe, O thou e Sulamite, that is, Hierusalem, the which was Shalem, that signifieth peace.
perfect one, turne againe, turne againe, and we will looke vpon thée: What will ye see in the e Sulamite? She is like men of warre singing in a companie.

The vii. Chapter.

1 The beautie of the Church in all her members. 10 She is assured of Christs loue towards her.

1 O Howe pleasant are thy treadings with shoes, thou princes daughter? the ioyntes of thy thighes are like a fayre iewell, which is wrought by a cunning workemaster.
2 Thy a nauill is like a rounde goblet, a Thy nauill is replenished with the rich knowledge of Gods word and heauenly desires.
which is neuer without drinke.
3 Thy b wombe is like a heape of wheate that is set about with Lilies.
4 c Thy two breastes are like two twins of yong Roes.
5 d Thy necke is as it were a towre of Iuorie: thine e eyes also are like the water pooles that are in Heshebon, beside the port of Bathrabbim: thy f nose is like the towre of Libanus, which looketh toward Damascus.
b The Church is full of spiritual treasures.
c The two testaments come from God, and they be of equal authoritie.
6 Thy head that standeth vpon thée is like Carmel: and the heare of thy head is like purple, and like a king dwelling among many water conduites.
d The preachers ought to be pure.
7 O howe faire and louely art thou my darling in pleasures?
e The magistrates must be wel instructed in the word of God.
8 Thy stature is like a g Palme tree, and thy breastes like the grapes.
9 I said, I will clime vp into the Palme tree, and take hold of his high branches.
f The iudges of good and euill.
10 Thy breastes also shall bee as the vine clusters, the smell of thy nostrels like as the smell of apples.
g The Church doeth encrease the more it is pressed and persecuted.
11 And thy roofe of thy mouth like the best wine, which is meete for my best beloued, pleasant for his lippes, and for his teeth to chawe.
12 I am my beloueds, and he shall turne him vnto mée.
h Christ will call them that professe his word, to account what fruite they doe bring.
13 O come on, my loue, we will goe forth into the fielde, and take our lodging in the villages.
14 h In the morning will wée goe see the vineyarde, we will see if the vine be spring forth, if the grapes be growen, and if the Pomegranates be shot out.
i God giueth his graces to the faithfull the which be in his Church.
15 i There will I giue thee my breastes:
the Mandragoras giue their sweete smell, and beside our doores are all maner of pleasant fruites both newe and olde, which I haue kept for thee, O my beloued.

The viii. Chapter.

1 The Church will be taught by Christ. 3 She is vpholden by him. 6 The vehement loue wherewith Christ loueth her. 11 She is the vine that bringeth forth fruite to the spirituall Solomon, which is Iesus Christ.

a The fathers of the old testament desire to see the incarnation of Christ.

1 O That a I might find thee without, and kisse thee, whom I loue as my brother which suckt my mothers breasts, and that thou shalt not be despised.

2 I will leade thee, and bring thee into my mothers house, that thou mightest teach me, and that I might giue thee drinke of the spiced wine, and of the sweete sappe of my Pomegranates.

b His gratious fauour shall preserue me from desperation in aduersitie, and from presumption in prosperity.

3 His b left hand shalbe vnder my head, and his right hand shall embrace me.

4 I charge you, O ye daughters of Hierusalem, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touch her, till she be content her selfe.

c The Church desireth to be joyned vnto Christ by the seale of the holy Ghost.

5 (What is shee this that commeth vp from the wildernesse, and leaneth vpon her loue?) I wake thee vp among the apple trees where thy mother conceiued thee, where thy mother I say brought thee into the world.

6 c O set mee as a seale vpon thine heart, and as a seale vpon thine arme: for loue is mightie as the death, and iealousie as the hell.

7 Her coles are coles of fire, and a very vehement flame of the Lorde, so that many waters are not able to quench loue, neither may the streames drowne it: yea if a man would giue all the good of his house for loue, he should count it nothing d The Iewes Church speaketh this of the Gentiles, the which wanted both testaments.

8 d Our sister is but yong, and hath no breasts: what shall we doe for our sister when she shall be spoken for?

e The Apostles preach to them that are called inwardly of God to saluation.

9 e If she be a wall, we shal builde a siluer bulwarke thereupon: if she bee a doore, we shall fasten her with boards of Cedar trees.

10 I am a wall, and my breastes like towres, then was I as one that hath found fauour in his sight.

11 Solomon hath a Vineparde at Baal-hamon, and this vineparde deliuered hee vnto the keepers, that euery one for the fruit thereof should giue him a thousand pieces of siluer.

12 My vinepard which is mine, is in my sight: thou (O Solomon) must haue a f thousande, and the keepers two hundred, which keepe the fruite.

f By this thousand is signified the greatest prefite, which is life euerlasting, which is obteined by the grace of God, and not by our merites.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, O let me heare thy voyce, that my companions may hearken to the same.

14 O get thee away, my loue, and be as a Roe or a yong Hart vpon the sweete smelling mountaines.

The ende of the Ballet of Ballettes of Solomon, called in Latine, Canticum Canticorum.

The booke of the Prophet Esay.

The first Chapter.

2 The Prophet accuseth the sinnes of the people: namely, of ingratefulnesse, stubbornesse, 11 faithlesse seruice of God, 24 and sheweth Gods terrible iudgement against them, vnlesse they repent.

a A reuelation or prophecie.

1 THe a vision of Esay the sonne of Amos, which he sawe vpon Iuda and Hierusalem, in ‖ the dayes of Vzia and Ioatham, Ahaz, and Ezechiah, kings of Iuda.

‖ Or, Iehezekia.

2 Heare, O heauens, & hearken, O earth: for the Lord hath spoken, I haue nourished and brought vp children, and they haue done vnfaithfully against me.

3 The oxe hath knowen his owner, & the asse his masters cribbe: but Israel hath not knowen, my people hath giuen no heede.

4 Ah sinfull nation, a people laden with iniquitie, a seed of the wicked, corrupt children: they haue forsaken the Lorde, they haue prouoked the holy one of Israel vnto anger, they are gone backewarde.

5 Why should ye bee stricken any more? for ye are euer falling awap: euery head is diseased, and euery heart heauie.

6 From the sole of the foote vnto the head, there is nothing sound in it, but wounds, blaynes, and putrifying sore: they haue not bene salued, neither wrapped vp, neither mollified with the oyntment.

7 Your land is wasted, your cities are burnt vp, strangers deuoure your lande before your face, and it is made desolate, as it were the destruction of enemies in the time of warre.

8 And the daughter of Sion shal be left as a cotage in a vineparde, like a lodge in a garde of Cucumers, like a besieged citie.

9 * Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a smal remnant, we should haue bene as Sodoma, and like vnto Gomorra.

Rom.9.29.Esa. 19.24.

10 * Heare the word of the Lorde, ye lords of Sodoma, and hearken vnto the lawe of our God, thou people of Gomorra.

Iere.6.20.Amos 5.21.

11 Why offer ye so many sacrifices vnto me, will the Lorde say? I am full of the burnt offerings of wethers, and of the fatnesse of fed beastes, b I haue no pleasure in the blood of bullockes, lambes, and goates.

b God hateth all maner of seruice and workes, seeme they neuer so good, and holy, when they be done without faith and pureneſſe of minde.

12 When ye come to appeare before me, treading in my courtes, who hath required this at your handes?

13 Offer me no mo oblations, for it is but lost lost labour: incense is an abominable thing vnto mee, I may not away with your new moones, your Sabboths, and solemne meetings, your solemne assemblies are wicked.

14 I hate your new moones and appointed feasts euen from my very heart, they make me weary, I can not abide them.

15 When ye hold out your hands, I will turne mine eyes from you: and though ye make many prayers, yet will I heare nothing at all, *seeing your hands are full of blood.

Esai.59.3.

16 *Wash you, make you cleane, put away your euil thoughts out of my sight: cease from doing of euill,

1.Pet.3.11.

17 Learne to do wel, apply your selues to equitie, deliuer the oppressed, helpe the fatherlesse to his right, let the widdowes complaint come before you:

18 And then goe to, saith the Lord, let vs talke together: though your sinnes be as redde as scarlet, they shalbe as white as snowe: and though they were like purple, they shalbee as white as wooll.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eate the good of the lande:

20 But if yee be obstinate and rebellious, ye shall be deuoured with the sword: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

21 How happeneth it then that the faithfull citie, which was ful of equitie, is become vnfaithfull as a whore? Righteousnesse dwelt in it, but nowe murderers.

22 Thy siluer is turned to drosse, and thy wine mixt with water.

23 Thy princes are wicked, and companions of theeues: they loue gifts altogether, and gape for rewardes. *As for the fatherles, they help him not to his right, neither will they let the widowes causes come before them.

Ier.5.28. Zech.7.10.

24 Therfore saith the Lord God of hosts, the mightie one of Israel: Ah I must ease me of mine enemies, and auenge me of mine aduersaries.

25 And I shall lay my hand vpon thee, & purely purge away thy drosse, and take away all thy tinne:

26 And set thy iudges againe as they were sometime, and thy senators as they were from the beginning: and then thou shalt be called the righteous citie, the faithfull citie.

27 Sion shalbe redeemed with equitie, & her conuerts with righteousnesse.

28 But the transgressors, and the vngodly, and such as forsake the Lord, shall altogether be vtterly destroyed.

29 For ye shalbe confounded for the trees which ye haue desired: & ye shal be ashamed of the gardens that ye haue chosen.

30 For yee shalbe as a tree whose leaues are fallen away, and as a garden that hath no moistnesse.

31 And the very strong one of your idols shall be as towe, & the maker of it as a sparke of fire, and they shal both burne together, and no man quench them.

The ii. Chapter.

A prophetie of Christ and his kingdome. 11 Pride, couetousnesse, superstition, and idolatrie are reproued. 17 Gods terrible iudgement against these.

1 THe selfe same woorde that Esai the sonne of Amos sawe vpon Iuda & Hierusalem.

2 *And this shal come to passe in the latter dayes, The a hill of the Lordes house shall bee prepared in the height of the mountaines, and shalbe higher then the hilles, and all nations shall presse vnto him.

Mich.4.2.

a Christ, his Church and his word.

3 And a multitude of people shal go, speaking thus one to another, Come, let vs ascend to the hil of the Lord, to the house of the God of Iacob, and hee will instruct vs of his waies, and we wil walke in his paths: for out of Sion shall come a law, and the woorde of the Lord from Hierusalem:

4 And shal giue sentence among the heathen, and shall reforme the multitude of people: they shall breake their swordes also into Mattockes, and their speares to make sithes: And one people shal not lift vp a weapon against another, neither shal they learne to fight from thencefoorth.

5 Come, O yee house of Iacob, & let vs walke in the light of the Lord:

6 For thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Iacob, bbecause they be replenished with euils from the East, and with soothsayers like the Philistines, & in straunge children they thinke themselues to haue inough.

b The causes why God forsaketh his people, are idolatry, heathenish superstition, couetousnesse, and trust in other things then in God alone.

7 Their land is ful of siluer and gold, neither is there any ende of their treasure: their lande is also full of horses, and no ende is there of their charets.

8 Their land is also ful of vaine gods, and before the workes of their owne handes they haue bowed themselues, yea euen before the thing that their owne fingers haue made.

9 There kneeleth the man, there falleth the man downe before them: therefore forgiue them not.

10 Get thee into the rocke, and hide thee in the ground, for feare of the Lord, and for the glory of his maiestie.

11 The high lookes of man shal be brought lowe, and the hautinesse of men shalbe bowed downe: and the Lord alone shalbe exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the Lorde of hostes shalbe vpon al the proud, loftie, and vpon al that is exalted, and he shalbe brought lowe.

13 And vpon al high and stout Cedar trees of Libanus, and vpon all the Okes of Basan, 14 And vpon al the high mountaines, and vpon al the high hilles,

15 And vpon euery high towre, and vpon euery fenced wall,

16 And vpon al the shippes of Tharsis, & vpon al pictures of pleasure, 17 And the pride of man ſhall bee brought downe, and the loftines of men ſhall bee made lowe, and the Lord alone ſhalbe exalted in that day.

18 As for ꝑ idols, he ſhal vtterly abolish:
Luke 23.30 apoc. 6.16, oſe. 10.8. 19 * And they ſhall creepe into holes of ſtone, and into caues of the earth, for feare of the Lorde, and for the glory of his maieſtie, when hee ariſeth to deſtroy the wicked ones of the earth.
20 In that ſelfe ſame day ſhall man caſt away his gods of ſiluer, and his gods of golde, into the holes of Mowles and Backes, which hee neuertheleſſe had made to himſelfe to honour them.
21 And they ſhall creepe into the clefts of the rockes, and into the toppes of the hard ſtones, for feare of the Lorde, and for the glory of his maieſtie, when hee ariſeth to deſtroy the wicked ones of the earth.
22 Ceaſe therefore from man, in whoſe noſtrels there is wyath: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

The iii. Chapter.

1 The miſchiefe that God ſendeth on common weales for the contempt of his word. 14 The couetouſneſſe of rulers reprooued. 16 The proude niceneſſe of women puniſhed to their ſhame.

1 FOr loe, the Lord God of hoſtes doeth take away from Hieruſalē and Iu-da all maner of ſtay, all ſtay of meate and drinke,
2 The captaine and the ſouldier, the iudge and the prophet, the a prudent and the aged man, a The prudent, that is, ſuch as can foreſee by their prudencie things to come.
3 The captaine of fifte, and the honourable, the ſenatour, the cunning artificer, & the eloquent oratour.
4 And I ſhal giue children to be their princes, and babes ſhall rule ouer them.
5 And the people ſhal eche one of them violently oppreſſe another, and euery one againſt his neighbour: The boy ſhall preſume againſt the elder, and the perſon of lowe degree againſt the honourable.
6 Yea one ſhall take a friend of his owne kinred by the boſome, and ſay, Thou haſt clothing, thou ſhalt be our head, and ſtay this ruine with thy hand.
7 Then ſhall he ſweare, and ſay, I can not helpe you: there is neyther meate nor clothing in my houſe, make me no ruler of the people.
8 For Hieruſalem and Iuda muſt decay:
becauſe that both their wordes and counſels are againſt the Lorde, to prouoke the preſence of his maieſtie to anger.
9 Their very countenance bewrayeth the, yea, they declare their owne ſinnes them ſelues as Sodome, they hide it not: Woe be to their owne ſoules, for they haue rewarded euill vnto themſelues.
10 Say to the righteous that it ſhall goe well with them: for they ſhall eate the fruite of their owne ſtudies.
11 But woe be vnto the wicked, for it ſhal be euill with him: for hee ſhall be rewarded after his owne workes.
12 Children are extortioners of my people, and women rule ouer them: O my people, thy leaders deceiue thee, and corrupt the way of thy footeſteppes.
13 The Lorde is here to commune of the matter, & ſtandeth to iudge the people.
14 The Lord ſhall enter into iudgement with the elders and princes of his people, and ſhal ſay to them, It is ye that haue burnt vp my vineyarde, the ſpoyle of the poore is in your houſes.
15 What meane yee that yee bray as in a morter my people, and grinde the faces of the poore, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes?
16 Moreouer, the Lord hath ſayde, Seeing the daughters of Sion are waxed proud, and walke with ſtretched forth neckes, & wanton lookes, going and tripping nicely, and tinckling with their feete:
17 Therefore ſhall the Lorde ſhaue the heads of the daughters of Sion, and ſhal diſcouer their filthineſſe.
18 In that day ſhall the Lorde take away the gorgeouſnes of the attyre about their feete, and the cawles, and the round tires after the faſhion of the moone, 19 The ſweete perfumes, & the bracelets, &
the mufflers,
20 The bonnets, and the ſloppes, and the headebandes, and the tablets, & the ea-rings,
21 And rings, and noſe iewels, 22 The coſtly apparel, and the vailes, and the wimples, and the criſping pinnes, 23 And the glaſſes, and the fine linnen, &
the hoodes, and the lawnes.
24 And in ſteade of good ſmell, there ſhall bee ſtinke, and in ſteade of their girdle, a rent, and for well ſet heare, there ſhall be baldneſſe, in ſtead of a ſtomacher, a ſackcloth, and ſunne burning for beautie.
25 Thy men ſhall periſh with the ſworde, and thy valiant ſouldiers in the battaile O Hieruſalem.
26 And her gates ſhall mourne and bewaple: and ſhee being deſolate, ſhall ſit vpon the ground.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 The miſerie of the ſtubburne. 3 A promiſe of Gods fauour to the reſidue.

IN that day ſeuen women ſhall take holde of one man, ſaying, We will find our ſelues meate and apparel: only let vs bee called by thy name, to take our ſhameful reproofe from vs.
2 a In that day ſhal the budde of the Lorde be beautifull and glorious, and the fruit of the earth ſhall be excellent and pleaſant for them that are eſcaped of Iſrael.
a The incarnation of Chriſt, is the ioy of the faithfull.
3 Then ſhall the remnant in Sion, and the remnant at Hieruſalem bee called holy:
namely, all ſuch as are written among ꝑ
liuing in Hieruſalem,
4 b After that the Lord hath waſht away
the filthineſſe of the daughters of Sion, and hath purged the blood out frō Hieruſalem in the ſpirit of iudgement, and in the ſpirit of fire.
b They are ſaued whoſe ſinnes are remitted and waſht away with the blood of Chriſt.
5 And vpon all the dwellings of ꝑ hilles of Sion, and vpon her congregations, the Lord shall create a cloude and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for all the c glory shall be preserued.

c Christ will preserue and defende the glory, that is, the faithfull in all troubles and temptations.

6 And there shal be a tabernacle for a shadowe in the day time from the heate, and a safe place and refuge from weather and rayne.

The v. Chapter.

1 Of Christ and his vineyarde, 8 with an execration of couetousnesse, 11 drunkennesse, 19 and contempt of Gods word.

1 NOw will I sing, my beloued friend, a song of my friende touching his vineparde: * My beloued friende hath a vineparde in a very fruitefull plenteous ground.

Ierem. 2. 21. mat. 21. 33.

2 This he hedged, and gathered out the stones from it, and planted it with the choysest vine: In the middest of it builded he a towre, also made a wine presse therein: a and hee looked that it shoulde bring him grapes, and it brought forth wilde grapes.

a God looketh to receiue of his people the thankefull fruites of faith, and not the vnpleasant workes of faithlesse ingratitude.

3 Now, O citizen of Hierusalem, and man of Iuda, iudge, I pray thee, betwixt mee and my vineparde.

4 What more could haue bene done for it, that I haue not done? Wherfore then hath it ginen wilde grapes, where I looked to haue had grapes of it?

5 Well, nowe I shall tell you howe I will do with my vineparde: I will take the hedge from it, that it may perish, and breake downe the wall thereof, that it may be troden vnder foote.

6 I will lay it waste, it shall neuer be digged nor cut, but beare thornes and bryers: I will also forbid the cloudes that they shall not raine vpon it.

7 As for the vineparde of the Lorde of hostes, it is the house of Israel: and the man of Iuda, the plant of his pleasure: of these he looked for equitie, but see, there is oppression: for righteousnesse, and lo, it is a crying.

8 Woe vnto them that ioyne one house to an other, and bring one land so nigh vnto another, that there is no more place: Will ye be placed alone in the middest of the earth?

9 These things are in the eares of the Lorde of hostes: of a trueth great and fayre houses shall be without any dweller in them.

10 And ten acres of vines shall giue but a quart, and thirtie bushels of seede shall giue but an Epha.

11 Woe be vnto them that rise vp early to followe drunkennesse, continuing vntill night, till they be set on fire with wine.

12 In their feastes are Harpes and Lutes, Tabrets and Pipes, and wine: but they regard not the worke of the Lorde, and consider not the operation of his hands.

b Their glory, their noble and honourable personages,

13 Therefore commeth my folke into captiuitie, because they haue no vnderstanding: b Their glory is famished with hunger, and their multitude dried vp with thirst.

14 Therefore gapeth hell, and openeth her mouth maruelous wide, that their glory, multitude, and wealth, with such as reioce in her, may descende into it.

15 Thus hath man a fall, and is brought low, and the high looke of the proude shalbe layde downe.

16 But the Lord of hosts shalbe exalted in iudgement, and God that is holy, is sanctified in righteousnesse.

17 Then shall the sheepe eate as they were wont, and the rich mens wastes shall c strangers deuoure.

c Gods children, as though they were strangers, miserably dealt withall by the oppression of the couetous, shall after a time repossesse and enioy the lands and goods, which the couetous oppressours shall be constrained to forsake and leaue as waste. Prou. 3. 7. rom. 12. 16.

18 Woe be vnto them that drawe wickednesse with cordes of vanitie, and sinne as it were with a cartrope:

19 Which vse to speake on this maner, Let him make speede, & hasten his worke, that we may see it: let the counsell of the holy one of Israel come and drawe nigh, that we may knowe it.

20 Woe be vnto them that call euill good, and good euill, which make darkenesse light, and light darkenesse, that make sowre sweete, and sweete sowre.

21 * Woe be vnto them that are wise in their owne sight, and thinke themselues to haue vnderstanding.

22 Woe bee vnto them that are strong to suppe out wine, and expert men to set vp drunkennesse.

23 Woe be vnto them that giue sentence with the vngodly for rewards, but condemne the iust cause of the righteous.

24 Therefore like as fire licketh vp the strawe, and as the flame consumeth the stubble: euen so their roote shal be as corruption, and their blossome shall vanish away like dust: for they haue cast away the lawe of the Lord of hostes, and despised the worde of the holy one of Israel.

25 Therefore is the wrath of the Lorde kindled against his people, & hath stretched forth his hande vpon them, yea hee hath smitten them: and the hilles did tremble, and their carkeises did lye torne in the open stretes: and in all this the wrath of God hath not ceased, but his hande stretched out still.

26 And he shall giue a token to a people of a farre countrey, and shal hisse vnto them from the ende of the earth: and beholde, they shall come hastily with speede.

27 There shall not be one fayne nor feeble among them, no not a sluggish or sleepie person: there shall not one of them put off his girdle from his loynes, nor loose the latchet of his shoe.

28 His arrowes are sharpe, and all his bowes bent: his horse hooues are as flint, and his cart wheeles like a whirlewind.

29 His crye is as it were of a lion, and he roareth like lions whelpes: they shall roare and haunche vp the pray, and no man shal recouer it, nor get it from them.

d The land of Iuda shall be ouerwhelmed with miserable

30 In that day hee shalbe so fierce vpon him, as the raging of the sea: then one shall behold the d lande, and lo, darknesse and sorowe, and the light is darkened in the heauens thereof.

The vi. Chapter.

1 Esay sawe the glory of the Lord, 9 And was sent to prophecie the desolation of Iurie.

1 IN the yeere that king Oziah died, I sawe also the Lord sitting vpon an high and glorious seate, and his traine filled the Temple.

2 And about him stoode Seraphims, whereof one had sixe wings, with twaine eche couered his face, with twaine his feete, and with twaine did he flie.

3 Eche cried also eche one to another on this maner, *Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hostes, the whole earth is full of his glory. Apoc.4,8.

4 And the lyntiles of the doore sherkes moued at his crying, and the house was full of smoke.

5 Then saide I, Woe is me, for I am lost, in as much as I am a man of vncleane lippes, and dwell among people that hath vncleane lippes also: for mine eies haue seene the king the Lord of hostes.

6 Then flewe one of the Seraphims vnto me, hauing a hot coale in his hand, which he had taken from the altar with the tongs,

7 And laide it vpon my mouth, and said, Loe, this hath touched thy [a] lippes, and thine vnrighteousnesse shalbe taken away, and thy sinne forgiuen. a Gods sacraments are not bare signes: but with the signe and the word, the matter signified, is exhibited to the faithfull. Mat. 13.14. marke 4.12. luke 8.10. iohn 12.40.

8 Also I heard the voyce of the Lord on this maner, Whom shall I sende, and who will be our messenger? Then I said, Here am I, sende me.

9 And he said, Goe and tell this people, *Heare in deede, yet vnderstand not: see plainely, and yet perceiue not.

10 Harden the heart of this people, stop their eares, and shut their eyes: least they see with their eyes, heare with their eares, and vnderstand with their hearts, and conuert, and be healed.

11 Then spake I, Lord, how long? He answered, Vntill the cities be vtterly wasted without inhabitants, and the houses without men, and till the land be also vtterly desolate.

12 For the Lord shall put the men farre away, and there shalbe great waste in the middest of the lande.

13 Yet in it shall succede ten kings, and it shall returne, and be afterward wasted: but as the Terebinth tree, and the Oke in the fall of their leaues, haue yet the sappe remaining in them, euen so, the holy seede shalbe the [b] stay thereof. b Christ dwelling by faith in his elect, who seeme as dead in the stormie times of this worlde, is to the life and stay that they perish not.

The vii. Chapter.

The Syrians mooue battaile against Hierusalem. 14 A virgin shall beare a childe.

1 IT* happened in the time of Ahaz the sonne of Iotham, which was the sonne of Oziah king of Iuda, that Razin the king of Syria, and Pecah the sonne of Romeliah king of Israel, went vp towarde Hierusalem to besiege it: but Razin was not able to winne it. *4. King. 16.5.

2 Now when the [a] house of Dauid heard word thereof, that Syria and Ephraim was confederate together, his heart quaked, yea, and the heartes also of his people, like as when the trees of the wood are moued with the winde. a Dauids house, that is, Ahaz.

3 Then saide God vnto Esay, Goe meete Ahaz, thou, and thy sonne Sear Iasub, at the head of the ouerpoole, in the foote path by the Fullers ground,

4 And say vnto him, Take heede vnto thy selfe, and be still, feare not, neither be faint hearted: for these two tailes, that is, for these two smoking firebrands, the wrath and furiousnes of Razin the Syrian and Romelies sonne:

5 Because that the Syrian, Ephraim, and Romelies sonne, haue wickedly conspired against thee,

6 Saying, We will go vp against Iuda, vexe them, and bring them vnder vs, and set a king there, euen the sonne of Tabel:

7 Thus saieth the Lorde God thereto, It shall not so goe forth, neither so come to passe:

8 For the heade citie of the Syrians, is Damascus, but the head of Damascus is Razin: and after threescore and fiue yeeres, shall Ephraim bee no more a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, but the head of Samaria is Romelies sonne: if ye beleeue not, surely ye shal not be established.

10 * Moreouer, God spake againe vnto Ahaz, saying, * The Epistle on ỹ Annunciation of Marie.

11 Require to thy selfe a token of the Lorde thy God, whether it be toward the depth beneath, or toward the height aboue.

12 Then saide Ahaz, I will require none, neither will I tempt the Lord.

13 Then prophet answered, Then heare ye of the house of Dauid: Is it not enough for you that ye be grieuous vnto men, but ye must grieue my God also?

14 Therefore the Lorde himselfe shall giue you a token: * Beholde, a virgin shall conceiue and beare a sonne, and shal call his name Emmanuel. Mat. 1.23. luke 1.31.

15 Butter and hony shall he eate, vntill he know to refuse the euill, and choose the good.

16 For or euer the childe come to knowledge to eschewe the euill, and choose the good, the land that thou so abhorrest, shalbe desolate of both her kings.

17 The Lorde also shall send a time vpon thee, vpon thy people, and vpon thy fathers house, such as neuer came since the time that Ephraim departed from Iuda, namely, through the king of the Assyrians.

18 For at the same time shal the Lord hisse for the flies that are about the water of Egypt, and for the Bees in the Assyrians land.

19 These shall come, and shall light all in the desolate vallepes, in the holes of stones, and vpon all thornie and bushie places.

20 At

20 At the same time shall the Lorde shaue the b heare of the head, and the feete, and the beard cleane off, with the* rasor that he hyre beyond the waters: namely, with the king of the Assyrians.
21 At the same time shall a man nourish a yong cowe, and two sheepe.
22 Then because of the abundace of milke that they giue, he shal eate butter: so that euery one which remaineth in the lande, shall eate butter and hony.
23 At the same time al vineyardes wherin there shalbe a thousand vines, worth a thousand siluerlings, shalbe turned to bryers and thornes.
24 They shall come into the lande with arrowes and bowes, because all ꝑ land shal become bryers and thornes.
25 As for all hilles they shalbe digged wt the mattocke, there shall not come vpon them any feare of bryers and thornes: but the cattel shalbe driuen thither, and the sheepe shall feede there.

b The heare of the head, and the beard, the princes, and men of authoritie, the feete, the common sort of people, 4 Reg. 19. 35.

The viii. Chapter.

The deliuerance of the Land by Emmanuel. 14 The stone of offence, at which many shall stumble.

1 MOreouer, the Lorde saide vnto me, Take thee a great roule, and write in it, as men do with a pen, Make hastie spede to robbe, and haste to the spoyle.
2 And I called vnto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zacharias the sonne of Barachias.
3 After that, went I vnto the prophetisse, and shee conceiued, and bare a sonne: Then saide the Lorde to me, Giue him his name, A spredy robber, An hastie spoyler.
4 For why? or euer the childe shall haue knowledge to cry, My father & mother, shall the riches of Damascus, and the spoyle of Samaria bee taken away before the king of the Assyrians.
5 The Lorde spake also vnto mee againe, saying,
6 For so much as this people refuseth the stil running water of Silo, and put their delight in Rezin and Romelies sonne:
7 Beholde, the Lord shall bring mightie & great floods of water vpon them, namely, the king of the Assyrians, with all his power, which shall clime vp vpon all his floodes, and runne ouer all his bankes,
8 And shall breake in vpon Iuda, he shall flowe and passe thorowe, till he come vp to the necke thereof: hee shall fill also the wildernes of thy land with his wings, O Emmanuel.
9 Breake downe, O yee people, * and yee shalbe broken downe, hearken to, all yee of farre countreys, muster you, and you shalbe broken downe, prepare you, and you shalbe torne in pieces.
10 Take your counsaile together, yet shall your counsaile come to nought: determine the matter, yet shall it not prosper: for God is with vs.

* Mans policie and deuice without God, preuaileth not.

11 For the Lorde spake thus to mee in a mightie prophecie, b and warned mee ꝑ I should not walke in the way of this people, saying,
12 Ye shall not speake wordes of Conspiracie, in all things when this people shall say, Conspiracie: feare them not, neither be afraide of them.
13 But sanctifie the Lorde of hostes, let him be your feare and dread.
14 For hee shalbe thy holy place to flee to, * and a stone to stumble at, the rocke to fal vpon, a snare and net to both the houses of Israel, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem.
15 And many among them shall stumble and fall, and be broken, yea they shall bee snared and taken.
16 c Binde vp the testimonie, seale the law in my disciples.
17 And I will waite vpon the Lorde that hideth his face from the house of Iacob, and I will looke for him.
18 * But loe, as for mee and the children which the Lord hath giuen me, we are to be a token and a wonder in Israel from the Lord of hostes, which dwelleth vpon the hil of Sion.
19 And if they say vnto you, Aske counsel at the Soothsayers, Witches, Charmers, and Conjurers: then make them this answere, Is there a people any where ꝑ asketh not counsel at his God? should men runne vnto the dead for the liuing?
20 Get thee to d the lawe, and the testimonie: & if they speake not after this word, there is no light in them.
21 And they shal wander thorow this land hardly bestead and hungry, and when they suffer hunger, they will bee out of patience, and curse their king and their God, and shal looke vpward & downeward to the earth.
22 And behold, there is trouble and darkenesse, dimnesse is rounde about him, & he shalbe driuen into darkenesse.
23 Neuertheless, the darkenesse shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthali, and afterward did more grieuously afflict her by the way of the sea beyond Jordane in Galilee of the heathen.

b Affiance is to be put in God, and not in mans policie or helpe.

Luke 2. 34. 1. pet. 2. 7.

c The words of Christ.

Heb. 2. 13.

d We must seeke in Gods word what to followe, for in meanes without Gods word there is no light.

The ix. Chapter.

He prophecieth of Christes natiuitie and dominion.

1 THe people that walked in darkenes haue seene a great light: As for the that dwelt in the lande of the shadow of death, vpon them hath the light shined.
2 Thou hast multiplied the people, & not increased their ioy: they reioyce before thee, euen as men make merry in harueste, and they be ioyfull, as men that doe deuide the spoile after the victory.
3 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, the staffe of his shoulder, & the rod of his oppressor, * as in the day of Madian.

4 And truely euery battaile that the warrier maketh, is done with cofused noyse, and defyling their garmẽts with blood, but this battaile shal be with burning and consuming of fire.

a Christ his kingdome and his names. John.3.16. ‖Or, and his name shall be called, Or, and (the holy ghost) shall call his name,

5 For vnto vs a a Child is borne, & vnto vs a ‖Sonne is giuen, vpon his shoulder doeth the rule lie, ‖ and hee is called with his owne name, Wonderfull, The guier of counsel, The mightie God, The euerlasting father, The prince of peace.

6 Hee shall make no ende to increase the rule and peace, & shall sit vpon the seate of Dauid, and in his kingdome, to order the same, and to stablish it with equitie & righteousnesse from henceforth for euermore: This shall the zeale of the Lorde of hostes bring to passe.

7 The Lord sent a worde into Jacob, the same is come into Israel.

8 And all the people of Ephraim shall know, and they that dwell in Samaria, that say with pride and high stomackes on this maner, 9 The tile worke is fallen downe, but wee will build it vp with squared stones: the Mulberie timber is broken, but we will set it vp againe with Cedar.

10 But the Lord shall strengthen the enemies of Razin, and ioyne his aduersaries together against him.

11 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behinde, and shall deuoure Israel with open mouth: After all this is not þ wrath of the Lorde ceassed, but yet his hand is stretched out still.

12 For the people turneth not vnto him þ chastiseth them, neither doe they seeke the Lord of hostes.

13 Therefore hath the Lorde rooted out of Israel both head and taile, bough, and reede in one day.

14 By the head, is vnderstand the Senatour and honourable man, and by the taile, the prophet that preached lies.

15 For the guides of this people are deceiuers, and those that be gouerned, are vtterly lost.

16 Therefore shall the Lord haue no pleasure in their young men, neither haue pitie of their fatherlesse and widowes: for they are altogether hypocrites and wicked, and all their mouthes speake folie: After all this, is not the Lords wrath ceassed, but yet his hand is stretched out still.

17 For vngodlinesse burneth as fire, and it shall deuoure bryers and thornes, and shall burne as in the thicket of wood, & the wicked aduance themselues, as the smoke is carried vp.

18 Through the wrath of the Lorde of hostes is the land full of darkenesse, and the people be consumed as it were with fire: no man doth spare his brother.

19 But he robbeth on the right hand, and doeth famish, he eateth on the left hand, and he shall not haue ynough: euery man shall eate the flesh of his owne arme.

20 Manasses shall eate Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasses, and they both together shall eate Juda: After al this is not the Lordes wrath ceassed, but yet his hande is stretched out still.

The x. Chapter.

1 He threatneth the oppressours of the poore, 12 & prophecieth against Sennacherib.

1 WOe bee vnto them that make vnrighteous lawes, and that cause their actuaries to write grieuousnesse,

2 Wherethrough the poore are put from their right, and my seely people robbed of iudgement, that widowes may bee their pray, and that they may robbe the fatherlesse.

3 What will yee doe in the time of visitation, and when destruction shall come from farre? to whome will yee runne for helpe? and where will ye leane your glory?

4 That when I withdraw my hand, ye come not among the prisoners, nor lye among the dead? After all this doth not the wrath of the Lord ceasse, but yet is his hand stretched out still.

5 O Assur which art the staffe of my wrath, in whose hand is the rod of mine indignation,

6 I will sende him among these hypocritish people: among the people that haue deserued my displeasure will I send him: that he vtterly robbe them, spoile them, and treade them downe like the myre in the streete.

7 Howbeit, his meaning is not so, neither thinketh his heart on this fashion: but he imagineth how he may roote out and destroy much people.

8 For hee saieth, Are not my Princes all kings?

9 Is not Chalno as easie to winne, as Charchamis? Is it harder to conquer Hamath then Arphad? or is it lighter to ouercome Damascus, then Samaria?

10 As who say, I were able to winne the kingdomes of the idolaters, & their gods, but not Hierusalem and Samaria.

11 Shall I not doe vnto Hierusalem and her images, as I did vnto Samaria and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to passe, that as soone as the Lorde hath performed his whole worke* vpon the hill of Sion and Hierusalem, then will I visite the fruite of the stout heart of the king of Syria, with his proude lookes. *4.Reg.19.31.

13 For he standeth thus in his owne conceyte, This doe I through my wisedome: for I am wise, I am hee that remooueth the landes of the people, I robbe their treasure, and haue pulled downe the inhabitants like a valiant man.

14 My hand hath found out the strength of the people as it were a nest: & like as egges eggs that were laide here and there are gathered together, so do I gather al countrepes, and there was none so bolde as to moone the wing, that dare open his mouth, or once whisper.

15 Shall the axe boast it selfe against him that heweth therewith? or shall the sawe make any bragging against him that ruleth it? That were euen like as if the rod did exalt it selfe against him that beareth it, or as though the staffe should magnifie it selfe, as who say, it were no wood.

16 Therfore shal the Lord the God of hosts send among his fatlings leanneſſe, and burne vp his glorie as it were vn a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shalbe that fire, and his holy one shall be the flame: and it shall kindle and burne vp as thornes and briers in one day.

18 Yea all the glory of his woods & fields shalbe consumed with body & soule, and they shalbe as an host of men, whose standard bearer fainteth.

19 The trées also of his wood which remaine, shall be of such a number, that a childe may tell them.

20 After that day, shal the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped out of the house of Jacob, séeke no more comfort at him that smote them: but vnfainedly shall they trust vnto the Lorde, the holy one of Israel.

21 *The remnant, euen the posteritie of Jacob, shall cõuert vnto God the mightie one. *Rom.9.27.

22 For though thy people, O Israel, bée as the sande of the sea, yet shall the remnant of them conuert vnto him: the decréed consumption ouerfloweth with righteousnesse.

23 *And therefore the Lorde of hosts shall perfectly fulfill the thing that hée hath determined in the middest of the whole worlde. *Esa.28.22.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hostes, Thou my people that dwellest in Sion, be not afraied for the king of the Assyrians, he shall smite thée with a rod, and shal lift vp his staffe against thée, as the Egyptians did sometime.

25 But soone after shall my wrath and indignation bee fulfilled in the destruction of them:

26 Moreouer, the Lord of hosts shal stirre vp a scourge for him, *like as was the slaughter of Madian vpõ the rock Oreb, and as the destructiõ of the Egyptians, when he lifted vp his rod vpon the sea. *Iudg.7.25.

27 Then shall his burden bee taken from thy shoulders, and his yoke from thy necke, and the same yoke shalbe destroied because of the vnction.

28 He shal come to Aiath, and go thorow toward Migron, at Michmas shall hee lay vp his harneſſe.

29 They shall goe ouer the forde: Geba shalbe their resting place, Rhama shal be afraied, Gibea Saul shall flée away.

30 Lift vp thy voice, O daughter Gallim, giue eare to Laisa, thou poore Anathoth.

31 Madmena shall tremble for feare: but the citizens of Gabim are manie.

32 Yet shall he remaine at Nob that day: after that, shal he lift vp his hand against the mount of the daughter Sion, the hill of Hierusalem.

33 But sée, the Lorde God of hostes shall breake downe the bough with feare, hee shall hewe downe the proude, and fel the high minded.

34 The thickets also of the wood shall he roote out with yron, and Libanus shall haue a fall through the mightie.

The xi. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth of the natiuitie of Christ, and of his people. 6 Of the remnant of Israel. 10 And of the faith of the Heathen and Gentiles.

AND there shall come a *spring forth of the ‖stemme of Jesse, and a yong shoote shall growe out of his roote. *Act.13.23. a Christ shall be borne of the seede of Isai. ‖Or, Jsai.

2 The spirit of the Lorde shall rest vpon him, the spirit of wisedome and vnderstanding, the spirite of counsaile and strength, the spirit of knowledge, and of the feare of the Lord,

3 And shall make him of déepe iudgement in the feare of God: for he shall not giue sentence after the thing þ shalbe brought before his eyes, neither reproue after the hearing of his eares:

4 But with righteousnes shall he iudge the poore, and with equitie shall hee reforme the simple of the world, *& he shall smite the worlde with the rodde of his bmouth, & with the breath of his mouth shall he slay the vngodly. *2.Thes.2.8. b The armour of Christ and of his kingdome.

5 Righteousnes shall be the girdle of his lopnes, and faithfulnesse the girding vp of his reines.

6 The Wolfe shal dwel with the Lambe, and the Leopard shall lie downe by the Goate: Bullocks, Lions, and cattel shal kéepe companie together, so that a litle childe shall leade them.

7 The Cowe and the Beare shal féede together, and their yong ones shall lie together: the Lion shall eate straw like the Oxe or the Cowe.

8 The childe while he sucketh, shall haue a desire to the Serpents nest, & when he is weaned, he shall put his hand into the Cockatrice denne.

9 No man shall do euill vnto another, no man shall destroy another in all the hill of my holinesse: for the earth shalbe full of the knowledge of the Lord, euen as the sea floweth ouer with water.

10 *And in that day shal the Gentiles enquire after the roote of ‖Jesse, which shal be set vp for a token vnto the people, and his rest shalbe glorious. *Rom.15.12. ‖Or, Jsai.

11 At the same time shall the Lorde take in hande againe to recouer the remnant of his people, which shalbe left aline, frõ the Assyrians, Egyptians, Arabians, Moabians, Elamites, Chaldées, Antiochians, and from the Ilands of the sea.

12 And he shall set vp a token among the Gentiles,

Gentiles, & gather together the dispersed of Israel, yea, and the outcasts of Juda, from the foure corners of the world.

13 The hatred of Ephraim also, and enemnes of Juda shalbe cleane rooted out: Ephraim shall beare none enuill will to Juda, & Juda shall not vexe Ephraim.

14 But they both together shall flye vpon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the West, and spoile them together that dwell towarde the East: the Idumites and the Moabites shall come vnder their handes, and the Ammonites shalbe obedient vnto them.

15 The Lorde also shall cleave the tongues c of the Egyptias sea, & with his mighty wind shall he lift vp his hande ouer Nilus, & shall smite his seuen streames, and make men goe ouer drie shod.

c The tongue, that is, y arme of the sea that hindereth the passage.

16 And thus shall there bee a way for his people that remaineth from the Assyrians, like as it happened to þ Israelites, what * time they departed out of the land of Egypt.

Exod. 14.29.

The xii. Chapter.

The song of the Church for the obteyning of the victorie, and ouer comming of the world.

1 ANd in þ day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise thee, for thou wast displeased at me: but refraine thou frō thy wrath, and comfort me.

2 Beholde, God is my saluation, in whō I will trust, and not be afraide: for * the Lord God is my strēgth and my song, he also is become my saluation.

Exod. 15.2. Psal. 117.14.

3 Therefore with ioy shall ye draw water out of the welles of saluation:

4 And then shall ye say, * Giue thankes vnto the Lorde, call vpon his name, declare his workes among the people, keepe them in remembrance, for his name is excellent.

1. Chro. 15.16. Psal. 104.1.

5 Sing praises vnto the Lord, for he hath done great things, as it is knowen in all the world.

6 Crye out, and sing, thou that dwellest in Sion: for great is the holy one of Israel in the middest of thee.

The xiii. Chapter.

He prophetieth the destruction of Babylon, the captiuitie and the comming againe of the people.

a Burden, that is, the prophecie.

1 THis is þ a burden of Babylon, which Esay the sonne of Amos did see.

2 Lift vp the banner vpon the high hill, call vnto them, wagge your handes, that they may goe into the gates of the princes.

3 I haue commanded my sanctified, I haue also called my valiant ones, ioying in my honour to execute my wrath.

4 There is a noyse of a multitude in the mountaines, like as of a great people, a rushing as though the kingdomes of the nations came together: the Lord of hosts musstereth his armie to battaile.

5 They come out of a farre countrey from the end of the heauen, euen the Lord him selfe, with the ministers of his wrath, to destroy the whole land.

6 Mourne ye, for the day of the Lorde is at hande, and shall come as a destroyer from the Almightie.

7 Therfore shal all hands be letten downe, and all mens hearts shall melt away,

8 They shall stand in feare, carefulnesse and sorow shall come vpon them, and they shall haue pame as a woman that trauaileth with child: one shalbe abashed of another, and their faces shal burne like the flame of fire.

9 Behold, the day of the Lord shall come terribly, and full of indignation, furie, and wrath, to make the land waste, and to roote out the sinners thereof.

10 For the starres and planets of heauen shal not giue their light, * the Sunne shal be darkened in the rising, and the Moone shall not shine with her light.

Ezech. 32.7. ioel. 3.15. mat. 24.29.

11 And I will visite the wickednesse of the world, & the sinnes of the vngodly. The high stomackes of the proude wil I take away, and will lay downe the boasting of the tyrant.

mar. 13.24. luke 21.25.

12 I will make a man dearer then fine gold, and a man to be more worth then a golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therfore I will shake the heauens, and the earth shal remoue out of her place, in the wrath of the Lorde of hostes, and in the day of his fearefull indignation.

14 And Babylon shalbe as an hunted roe chased doe, and as a sheepe that no man taketh vp: euery man shall turne to his owne people, and flee euery one into his owne land.

15 Whoso is found, shall be shot throwe: and whoso taketh their part, shalbe destroyed with the sword.

16 * Their children shalbe slaine before their eyes, their house spoyled, & their wiues rauished.

Psal. 136.9

17 For lo, I shall bring vp the Medes against them, which shall not regard siluer, nor be desirous of golde.

18 With bowes shall they destroy the yong men, and haue no pitie on women with child, and their faces shal not spare the children.

19 And Babylon, that glory of kingdoms, and beautie of the Chalders honour, shal bee destroyed, * euen as God destroyed Sodome and Gomor.

Gen. 19.25. iere. 50.40.

20 It shall not endure for euer, neither shall there bee any more dwelling there, from generation to generation: the Arabians shall pitch no tents there, neither shall the shepheardes make their foldes there any more.

21 But fearefull wild beasts shall lie there, & the houses shalbe full of great Owles, Estriches shall dwell there, and Apes shall daunce there.

22 Wild Cats shall crie in the palaces, and Dragons shalbe in the pleasant houses: & for Babylons time, it is at hande, and her dayes shall not be prolonged.

The xiiii. Chapter.

1 The returne of the people from captiuitie, the prosperitie of the people of God, and affliction of their enemies, 13 The pride of Babylon.

1 But

1 BVt the Lord will be mercifull vnto Jacob, and will yet choose Israel againe, and set them in their owne lande, strangers shall cleane and get thé to the house of Jacob.

2 The people shall take them, and carry them home to their owne lande: and the house of Israel shall possesse them in the lande of the Lorde, that they may be seruants and handmaydens: and they shal take thoſe ypsoners, whose captiues they had bene before, and rule thoſe that had oppressed them.

3 When the Lord now shall bring thée to rest from thy trauaile, feare, and harde bondage that thou wast laden withall:

4 Then shalt thou vse this mockage vpō the king of Babylon, and say, How happeneth it that the oppressour leaueth off? Is the golden tribute come to an end?

5 The Lord hath broken the scepter of the vngodly, and the rod of the lordly.

6 Which rodde in anger smiteth the people with cōtinuall strokes, and in wrath reigneth ouer the nations persecuted without compassion.

7 And therefore the whole world is now at rest and quietnes, & men sing for ioy.

8 Yea euen the Firre trees, and Cedars of Libanus reioyce at thy fall, saying, Nowe that thou art laide downe, there come no moe vp to hew downe vs.

9 Hell also beneath trembleth to méete thee at thy comming, and for thy sake hath raised his dead, all mightie men, & princes of the earth, al kings of the earth stand vp from their seates,

10 That they may all answere and speake vnto thee, Art thou become weake also as we? Art thou become like vnto vs?

11 Thy pompe and thy pride is layde downe into the pitte, and so is the melodie of thy instruments. Wormes bee layde vnder thee, and wormes be thy couering.

12 Howe art thou fallen from heauen, O Lucifer, thou faire morning child? How hast thou gotten a fal, euen to the ground, which diddest weaken the nations?

13 For thou saidest in thine heart, I will clime vp into heauen, & exalt my throne aboue beside the starres of God, I will sit also vpon the mount of the congregation toward the North.

14 I will clime vp aboue the cloudes, and will be like the highest of all.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to the deepe of hell, to the sides of the lake.

16 They that see thee, shal narrowly looke vpon thée, and thinke in themselues, saying, Is this the man that brought all landes in feare, and made the kingdoms afrayde?

17 Is this he that made the world in a maner waste, and layde the cities to the grounde, which let not his prisoners goe out?

18 The kings of the nations lie euery one in his owne house with worship.

19 And thou art cast out of thy graue like a filthy abominable branche, like as dead mens rayment that are shot thorowe with the sworde, and goe downe to the stones of the deepe, as a dead coarse that is troden vnder feete.

20 Thou art not buried with them, euen because that thou hast wasted thy lande, and destroyed thy people: the generation of the wicked shalbe out of memorie for euer.

21 Let there a way bee sought to destroy their children that bee in their fathers wickednesse, that they come not vp again to possesse the lande, and fill the world full of enemies.

22 I will stande vp against them, saieth the Lorde of hosts, and roote out the name and remnant, sonne, and sonnes sonne of Babylon, saieth the Lord.

23 I will giue it to the Otters, and will make water puddels of it, and I will swéepe them out with the besome of destruction, saieth the Lord of hostes.

24 The Lorde of hostes hath sworne an othe, saying, It shall come to passe as I haue determined, and shalbe fulfilled as I haue deuised.

25 So that the Assyrians shall I destroy in my land, and vpon my mountaines will I treade him vnder foote, wherethrough his yoke shall come frō them, & his burde shalbe také frō their shoulder.

26 This deuice hath God taken thorowe the whole worlde, and this his hand is stretched out ouer all people.

27 For if the Lorde of hostes determine a thing, who is able to disannul it? And if he stretche forth his hande, who may turne it againe?

28 * The same yére that king Ahaz died, was this burden: 2.Chro.28.27.

29 Reioyce not thou whole Palestina, because the rodde of him that beateth thée is broken: for out of the serpentes roote there shall come an Adder, and his fruite shall bee a fiery flying worme.

30 But the first borne of the poore shall be fed, and the simple shall dwell in safetie: thy roote also will I destroy with hunger, and it shall slay the remnant.

31 Mourne thou port, weepe thou citie, for, O whole land of Palestina, thou art layde waste: for there shall come from the North a smoke, that not one alone may abide at home in his times.

32 What shall one then answere the messengers of the Gentiles? For the Lorde hath stablished Sion, and the poore of his people that be therin, shall put their trust in it.

The xv. Chapter.

A prophecie against Moab.

1 THis is the burden vpō Moab: Ar of Moab was destroyed & ouerthrowē in the night season, Kir a Moab was destroyed & perished in the night.

2 Moab went vp to the idoles house, euē to Dibon to the high places to wéepe: for Nebo and Moab shall mourne for Nebo, Medba. All their heads were balde, and all their beardes shauen.

Jere. 48.38. ezech.7.18.

3 * In her stretes are they girded about with sackcloth: in all the toppes of her houses and stretes shalbe nothing but mourning and weeping.

4 Helbon and Eleale shall cry, that their voyce shalbe heard vnto Jahaz: therefore the armed souldiers also of Moab shall bleate out and crye for very sorowe of their mindes.

5 Woe shal my heart be for Moabs sake, they shal flee vnto þ citie of Zoar, which is like a faire yong bullock of thre yeres old, for they shall all go vp to Luith weeping: euen so by the way toward Horonaim they shall make lamentation for their bitter destruction.

6 For þ waters of Nimrim shalbe dried vp, by reason whereof the grasse is withered, the herbes destroyed, and the greene things gone.

7 Therefore the goods that remaine in Moab, and the riches thereof, they shall carrie to the broke of willowes.

8 For the cry went ouer the whole lande of Moab, vnto Eglaim, and vnto Beer-Elim was there nothing but mourning.

9 Because the waters of Dimon were full of blood, I will adde more vpon Dimon: and Lions vpon the remnant of the lande, and on them that are escaped from Moab.

The xvi. Chapter.

The destruction of Moab.

1 SEnd the Lorde of the world a lambe from the rocke that ieeth towarde the desert, vnto the hill of the daughter Sion.

2 For as for the daughters of Moab, they shall be as a * trembling bird that is put out of her nest: for they shal carry them vnto Arnon.

a The careleſſe and obſtinate deſpiſers of timely repentance, mooued by the preaching of Gods word, ſhall repent when it is too late.

3 Gather your counsayle, come together in midgement, couer vs with your shadowe in the middap, as the night doeth hide the chased, and bewray not them that are fled.

4 Let my persecuted people dwell amog you: Moab be thou their refuge against the destroyer: for þ aduersarie is brought to nought, the robber is vndone, the tyrant is wasted out of the land.

5 And in mercie shall the seate bee prepared, and he shall sit vpon it in the truth in the tabernacle of Dauid, iudging, & seeking iudgement, and making haste vnto righteousnesse.

6 We haue heard of the pride of Moab, he is very proude, presumptuous, arrogant, and full of indignation, and vaine are his lyes.

Jere.48.20.

7 * Therefore shall Moab make lamentation, because of the Moabites that shall be slayne, yea they shall waile together: because of the foundations of the citie that is made of bricke shall yee complaine, euen ye lame people that are left onely behynde.

8 For the vines of Helbon are cut down: as for the vine of Sibma, the lordes of the heathen haue broken down her principal branches, they are come euen vnto Jazer, they went on wandring vnto the wildernesse, her goodly branches were throwen down as they went ouer the sea.

9 Therefore will I mourne for Jazer, & for the vine of Sibma, I will powre my teares vpon thee, O Helbon and Eleale: for the cry of thine enemies is fallen vpon thy Sommer fruites, and vpon thy harueste.

10 * The myrth and cheare is taken away out of the plentifull fielde, and in the vineyardes there shalbe no ioy nor gladnesse: the treader shall treade out no wine in their presses, the song of their merry cheare haue I layde downe.

Jere.48.33.

11 b Wherefore my bowelles shall rmurmble like an harpe for Moabs sake, and mine inwarde partes for the cities sake that is made of bricke.

b The superstitious and idolaters haue more trust in one idol and in some one place then in a nother: but all in vaine.

12 And it shall come to passe, that when it is seen that Moab shalbe made weary of his hill Chappels, he shall come to his temple to pray, c but he shall not be able.

c Not be able through wearineſſe, or it ſhall not profite him.

13 So then, this is the saying that the Lorde hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the Lorde hath spoken, saying, In three yeeres, which shall bee as the yeeres of an hyred seruant, shall the glorie of Moab be turned into contempt throughout all his multitude, which is very great: and that which remaineth, shalbe very small and feeble.

The xvii. Chapter.

A propheeie against Damascus.

1 THis is the burden vpo Damascus: behold, Damascus is taken away to be no more a citie, but shalbe an heape of broken stones.

2 The waste cities of Aroer shalbe foldes for cattell which shall lie there, and there shalbe none to frap them away.

3 Ephraim also shall no more be strong, and Damascus shall no longer be a kingdome, and the remnant of Syria shalbe as the glorie of the children of Israel, saieth the Lorde of hostes.

4 And in that day it shall come to passe, that the glorie of Jacob shall bee made very thinne, and the fatnes of his flesh shall waxe leane.

5 And he shalbe as one that gathereth vp corne in harnest, euen like him whose arme reapeth the eares of corne: he shall be also like him that gathereth eares of corne in the valley of Rephaim.

6 Some gathering in deede shall there be left in it, euen as in the shaking of an Olive tree there remaine two or three berries in the toppe of the vppermost bough, and foure or fiue in the broade fruitfull branches thereof, saith the Lord God of Israel.

7 Then shall man turne againe to his maker, and his eyes shal haue respect to the holy one of Israel.

the

8 As for the altars, which are his owne handie worke, he shall not regard them, & the things that his fingers haue made, as groues and images, those shall he not cast his eyes vnto.
9 In that day shall their strong cities be as the forsaken shrubbes and branches, which they left because of the children of Israel, and the land shalbe desolate.
10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy saluation, and hast not bene mindefull of thy strong rocke: therefore shalt thou set pleasant plants, and shalt graffe the branch of another mans vine.
11 In that day shalt thou make thy plant to growe, and early in the morning shalt thou make thy séede to florish: the harnest shalbe gone in the day of inheritãce, and there shal be sorow without hope of comfort.
12 Woe shall be to the multitude of many people, which shall make a sound like to the noyse of the sea, and the violence of the nations, which shall rage like the rushing in of many waters.
13 Euen like many waters shal the people rage, God shall rebuke him, and he shall flée farre off, he shal bee chased away like as the straw vpon the mountaines before the winde, and like a thing that turneth before the storme.
14 At Euen beholde there is trouble, and or euer it be morning, lo, it is gone: this is the portion of them that oppresse vs, and the lot of them that rob vs.

The xviii. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to the Ethiopians, and the countreys nigh adioyning vnto them. 7 The vocation of the Gentiles.

1 O That lande that trusteth vnder the shadowe of wings, that land which is beyonde the waters of Ethiopia,
2 Sending messengers by the sea, euen in vessels of réedes ouer the water: Get you hence ye speedy messengers, to a nation that is scattered abroad, and robbed of that they had, a fearefull people from their beginning hitherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whose lande the floods haue spoiled.
3 All the inhabiters of the world, and indwellers of the earth, looke vp when he setteth vp a token in the mountaines, and hearken when he bloweth with the Trumpe.
4 For so the Lord said vnto me, as for me, I will take my rest, and looke vpon the matter in my habitations, like a faire heate after the raine, and like a cloude of deawe in the heate of harnest.
5 For afore the harnest when the branch is growen, there shall come ripe fruit of the flowre: and he shal cut downe the increase with sythes, & the branches shall he take away with hookes.
Thus shall they bee left together vnto the foules of the mountaines, and to the beasts of the earth: for in Sommer the birdes shall remaine vpon it, and euery beast of the lande shall bee vpon it in Winter.
7 In that time shall there a present bee brought vnto the Lorde of hostes, euen a people that is scattered abroad and robbed of that they had, that same people which haue bene fearefull from their beginning hitherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whose lande the floods haue spoyled, to the place of the name of the Lorde of hostes, euen to the mount Sion.

The xix. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth against Egypt. 18 and the vocation of the Gentiles to Christ.

1 THe burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord rideth vpon a swift cloude, and shall come into Egypt, and the idoles of Egypt shall tremble at the presence of him, and the heart of Egypt shall quake in the middest of her.
2 And I will set the Egyptians one against another, so that one brother shall fight against another, & one neighbour against another, citie against citie, and realme against realme.
3 The minde also of Egypt shalbe cleane without counsell within it selfe, and the deuice that they take will I destroy: and they shall séeke counsell at idols, and at sorcerers, at workers with spirits, and at soothsayers.
4 And the Egyptians will I giue ouer into the hande of a marueilous cruell lord, and a mightie king shall haue dominion ouer them, saieth the Lord God of hostes.
5 The waters of the sea shall faile, & the riuers shall decrease, and be dried vp.
6 The waters shall be drawen out, the riuers of Egypt shall bee emptied and dried vp, the réedes and flags shalbe cut downe.
7 The grasse in the riuer and by the riuers banke, and all that groweth by the riuer, shall wither awap, & be brought to nought.
8 The fishers also shall mourne, and all they that cast angle into the water shall make lamentation, and they that lay forth their net beside the waters, shalbe rooted out.
9 Moreouer, they that worke in flaxe, and make fine workes, shalbe confounded, and so shall they that weane open workes.
10 For their open workes shalenen be destroyed, and all they that make pondes and slues for fish, shal come to nought.
11 But yon foolish princes of Zoan, yée wise counsellers of Pharao, whose wit is turned to foolishnesse, how say ye vnto Pharao, I am come of wise men, and of ancient kings?
12 Where are the wise men? Let them tel thée if they can, what the Lord of hostes hath deuised vpon Egypt.
13 The princes of Zoan are become fooles, the princes of Noph are deceiued, they haue haue deceiued Egypt, euen they that were taken for the chiefe stay thereof.

14 In the midst of it hath the Lord powred the spirit of wickednesse: and they haue deceiued Egypt in euerie worke thereof, euen as a drunken man staggereth in his vomite.

15 Neither shall the a head or taile, the branch or reede, be able to do any worke in Egypt.

a By the head and branch, are meant the honourable and chiefest of the land: By the taile and reede, the multitude & lower sort of people.

16 In that day shall Egypt bee like vnto women: it shalbe afraid, & stand in feare at the motion of the hand of the Lorde of hostes, which he shaketh ouer it.

17 And Egypt shalbe afraide of the lande of Iuda: so that euery one that maketh mention of it shalbe afraide thereat, because of the counsell of the Lord of hosts, which he deuiseth for it.

18 In that day shall fiue cities in the land of Egypt speake the language of Chanaan, and sweare by the Lord of hostes: the citie of desolation shall bee called one of them.

19 In that day shall the altar of the Lorde be in the midst of the land of Egypt, and this title beside it, Vnto the Lord.

20 And it shall bee a token and a witnesse vnto the Lord of hostes in the land of Egypt: for they shall crie vnto the Lorde, because of such as trouble them, and hee shall sende them a sauiour, and a great man to deliuer them.

21 And the Lord shalbe knowen in Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the Lord in that day, and doe sacrifice and oblation, yea, they shall vow a vowe vnto the Lord, and performe it.

22 The Lorde also shall smite Egypt sore, and heale them againe: and they shalbe conuerted vnto the Lord, & he shalbe entreated of them, and shall heale them.

23 In that day shall there bee a common way out of Egypt into Assyria, & Assyria shal come into Egypt, & Egypt into Assyria: so that the Egyptians and the Assyrians shall serue the Lord together.

24 In that day shall the nation of Israel be the third with Egypt & Assyria: and they shalbe blessed in the midst of the land, 25 Which land the Lord of hosts hath blessed, saying, Blessed is my people of Egypt, Assur also is the worke of my hands, and Israel is mine inheritance.

The xx. Chapter.

Against Egypt and Ethiopia.

1 IN the yere that Tharthan came vnto Asdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria had sent him, and had fought against Asdod, and taken it:

2 At the same time spake the Lord by the hande of Esay the sonne of Amos, saying, Goe and take off the sackcloth from thy loynes, and put off thy shoe from thy foote. And he did so, walking naked and barefoote.

3 And the Lord saide, Like as my seruant Esay hath walked naked and barefoote, for a signe and wonder three yeres vpon Egypt and Ethiopia:

4 Euen so shall the king of Assyria take away out of Egypt and Ethiopia, children and olde men naked and barefoote, with their loynes vncouered, to the great shame of Egypt.

5 They shall be brought in feare also, and be ashamed of Ethiopia their hope, and of Egypt, wherein they are wont to glorie.

6 And they that dwell in the same Isle, shall say in that day, Behold, such is our hope: whither shall we flee for helpe, that we may bee deliuered from the king of Assyria? and how shall we escape?

The xxi. Chapter.

Against Babylon, Idumea, and Arabia.

1 THe burden of the a waste sea. Euen as the stormie weather passeth thorowe at the noone day from the wilderneſſe, so shall it come from the terrible land.

a The waste sea is, Babylon or Chaldee.

2 A grieuous vision was shewed vnto me: let one deceitfull offender come against another, & one destroyer against another: Vp Elam, lay siege thou of Media, all their grouing haue I laid downe.

3 Therefore are my loynes filled with sorow, beauines hath taken hold vpon me, as the pangs of a woman that is trauailing: it made me stoupe whe I heard it, and it vexed me when I sawe it.

4 My heart panted, fearefulneſſe came vpon me: the night of my volyptuousnes hath he turned against me into feare.

5 While they garnished the table, the watchman looked: and while I was eating and drinking, it was said, Vp ye captaines, take you to your shield.

6 For thus hath the Lorde said vnto me, Goe, and set a watchman to tell what he seeth.

7 And he sawe a charet which two horsmen sate vpon, with the cariage of an asse, and the cariage of a camel: so he looked, and tooke diligent heede.

8 *And he cried, A lion, my lord, I stande continually vpon the watch tower in the day time, and am appointed to keepe my watch euery night. Habac.2.1.

9 And behold, here commeth a charet of men, with two horsemen: and he answered & said, *Babylon is fallē, it is fallen, and all the images of her gods hath he smitten downe vnto the ground. Ier.51.8. apoc.14.8.

10 Thou art he whom I must thresh, and thou belonged to my corne floore: this that I heard of the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, haue I shewed vnto you.

11 The burden of Duma. He calleth to me out of Seir: Watchman, what hast thou espied by night? Watchman, what hast thou espied by night?

12 The watchman saide, The morning commeth, and so doeth the night: if yee will aske me any question, then aske it, returne and come againe.

13 The burden concerning Arabia. In the woods of Arabia shall ye tarry all night, euen in the streetes of Dedanim.

14 The inhabiters of the land of Thema bring brought footh water to him that was thirstie, they prented him that was fled away with their head.

15 For because of swordes they are become fugitive, euen for ꝑ drawen sword, and for the bent bow, and because of the grieuousnes of warre.

16 For thus hath the Lord saide vnto me, There is yet a yeere, according to the yeeres of an hired seruant, and all the glorie of Cedar shall faile.

17 And the number of them that shall escape from the bowes, shalbe minished by the mightie children of Cedar: for the Lord God of Israel hath spoken it.

The xxii. Chapter.

A prophecie against Hierusalem.

a Hierusalem is meant by the valley of vision.

1 THe burden of the a valley of vision. What hast thou to doe here, that thou climest to the house tops?

2 Thou that art full of tumultuousnesse, thou troublesome and proude citie: thy slaine men are neither put to death with the sword, nor dead in battell.

3 All thy captiues are fugitiue together, the archers haue taken them prisoners: all they ſ saw that are founde in thee, are in captiuitie together, and they also that fledde farre off.

4 Therefore said I, Let me alone, and I will make lamentation: ye shall not bee able to cõfort me, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.

5 For this is a day of trouble, of ruine, & of destruction, that the Lord the God of hostes will bring to passe in the valley of vision, breaking down the citie, and crying vnto mountaines.

6 Elam bare the quiuer with a charet of footemen and horsemen, and the citie of Cir shewed the shield open.

7 The chiefe valley also was full of charets, and the horsemen set their faces directly toward the gate.

8 And in that day did the enemy take away the couer of Iuda, and then diddest thou looke toward the b armour of the house of the forest.

b The armorie that Solomon made and furnished with munition, 1. King. 7.

9 Ye haue seene also the broken places of the citie of Dauid, howe that they are many, and ye gathered together the waters of the lower poole.

10 As for the houses of Hierusalem, yee haue numbred them, & the houses haue ye broken downe, to make the wal strõg.

11 A pit also haue yee made betweene the two walles for the waters of the olde poole, c and haue not regarded the maker thereof, neither had respect vnto him that fashioned it long agoe.

c The Lord doeth not forbid to make prouision of sure defence against the enemies, so that our trust be put in him, and not in our fortresses & strong holds, 2. Chr. 15. 12.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hostes call men vnto weeping & mourning, to baldenesse & girding about with sackecloth.

13 And beholde, they haue ioy and gladnesse, slaying oxen, and killing sheepe, eating flesh, and drinking wine: *let vs eate and drinke, for to morowe we shall die.

14 And it came to the eares of the Lord of hostes, This iniquitie shall not bee purged from you till ye die, saieth the Lorde God of hostes.

15 Thus saieth the Lorde God of hostes, Get ye vnto ponder treasurer, euen vnto Sebna, which is the ruler of the house.

16 What hast thou to doe here? & whom hast thou here, that thou shouldest here hewe thee out a sepulchre, as it were one that heweth him out a sepulchre on high or that graueth an habitation for him selfe on an hard de rocke?

17 Beholde, O thou man, the Lorde shall carry thee away into captiuitie, and shall surely couer thee with confusion.

18 The Lorde shall turne thee ouer like a ball with his hands, and shall sende thee into a farre countrey: there shalt thou die, and there in steade of the charets of thy pompe, shall the house of the Lorde haue confusion.

19 I will drive thee from thy place, & out of thy dwelling shall he ouerthrow thee.

20 And in that day shall I call my seruãt Eliacim the sonne of Helcia:

21 And with thy garments will I clothe him, and with thy girdle will I strengthen him: thy power will I also commit into his hand, and he shalbe a father of such as dwell in Hierusalem, and in the house of Iuda.

22 * And the key of the house of Dauid will I lay vpon his shoulder: so that he shall open, and no man shut, he shal shut, and no man open. Iob. 12. 14. Apoc. 3. 7.

23 And I will fasten him as a naile in a sure place, and hee shall bee the glorious seate of his fathers house.

24 Moreouer, all generations and posterities shall hang vpon him all the glory of their fathers house, all vessels both great and small, and all instruments of measure and musike.

25 In that day, saith the Lorde of hostes, shall the naile that is fastened in the sure place, depart and bee broken, and fall: and the burden that was vpon it shall bee pluckt away, for so the Lorde hath spoken.

The xxiii. Chapter.

A prophecie against Tyrus: 17 and a promise that it shalbe restored againe.

1 THe burde of Tyre. Mourne ye ships of Tharsis, for there commeth such destruction, that yee shall not haue an house to enter into, and that there shall bee no traffike out of the lande of Cittim, they haue knowledge of this plague.

2 Be still ye that dwell in ꝑ Ile, the marchants of Sidon, and such as passe ouer the sea, haue made thee plenteous.

3 The corne that groweth by the great waters of Sihus, and the fruites of the riuer, were her victuals, so ꝑ it became a common marte of nations.

4 Be ashamed thou Sidon: for the a sea, euen the strength of the sea, hath spoken, saying, I haue not trauailed nor brought forth children, nor nourished vp young men, or brought vp virgins.

a By the sea, and the strength of the sea, is meant Tyrus.

5 When

5 When tidings come to the Egyptiãs, they shalbe sory for the rumour of Tyre.
6 Get you to Tharsis, mourne you that dwell in the Ile.
7 Is not this þ glorious citie of yours, which hath bene of olde antiquitie? her owne feete shall carry her sorth, to bee a sojourner into a farre countrey.
8 Who hath deuised this against Tyre that b crowneth her selfe? whose marchantes are princes, and whose factours are honourable in the world.
9 Euen the Lorde of hostes hath deuised this, to put downe the pride of all such as be glorious, and to minish all them that be honorable vpon the earth.
10 Get thee out of thy land like a flood vnto the daughter of Tharsis, for thou hast no more strength.
11 He that smote the kingdomes together, holdeth out his hand ouer the sea: euen the Lord himselfe hath giuen a commandement against the same common place of marchandise, that they shall vtterly destroy the might thereof.
12 And he said, Make no more thy boast, O virgin, thou daughter Sidon, thou shalt be brought downe: Vp, get thee ouer vnto Cittim, where neuertheless * thou shalt haue no rest.
13 Beholde, this people came not of the Chaldees, but Assur made them strong with great ships: they set vp the strong holdes thereof, & destroyed his palaces: and he brought it in decay.
14 Mourne ye shippes of Tharsis, for your strength is brought downe.
15 And in that day shall Tyre bee forgotten seuẽtie yeeres, according to the yeres of one king. and after the ende of seuentie yeres shal Tyre sing as doeth an harlot.
16 Take an harpe, and go about the citie, thou harlot that hast bene forgotten, make sweete melodie, sing moe songs, that thou mayest bee had in remembrance.
17 And after the end of the seuentie yeres, shall the Lorde visite Tyre, and shee shall conuert vnto her reward, and shal commit fornication with all the kingdomes of the earth that are in the world.
18 Their occupying also & their rewarde shalbe holy vnto the Lord: their gaines shall not be laide vp nor kept in store, but it shalbe theirs that dwell before þ Lord, that they may eate ynough, and haue clothing sufficient.

The xxiiij. Chapter.

A prophecie of tribulation to come vpon the world, because of sinne.

1 BEholde, the Lord maketh the earth waste and emptie, he turneth it vpside downe, and scattereth abroade the inhabiters thereof.
2 * And the Priest shalbe as the people, and the master as the seruant, the mistresse like the maide, the seller like the byer, hee that lendeth vpon vsurie, like him that borroweth vpon vsurie, the creditor as the detter.
3 The land shalbe cleane wasted, and vtterly spoyled: for so the Lord hath spoke.
4 The earth is sory & consumeth away, the world is feeble and perisheth, the ynnde people of the earth are come to nought.
5 The earth also is become vnprofitable vnder the inhabiters thereof, which haue transgressed the lawes, changed the ordinance, broken the euerlasting couenant.
6 Therefore hath the curse consumed the earth, and they that dwell therein are fallen into trespasse: Wherefore the inhabiters of the earth are perished with drought, and fewe men are left behind.
7 The wine faileth, the vine hath no might, all they that haue bene merry of heart are come to mourning.
8 The mirth of Tabrets is laide downe, the noyse of such as haue made merry is ceassed, the ioy of the harpe is at an end.
9 They shall drinke no more wine with mirth, strong drinke shalbe bitter to the that drinke it.
10 The citie of vanitie is broken downe, euery house is shut vp, that no man may come in.
11 In the stretes is there a crying, because of wine, all cheere is vanished away, the mirth of the land is gone.
12 In the citie is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.
13 For in the middes of the land, euen among the people, it shall come to passe as at the shaking of Oliues, and as the grapes are when the wine harnest is done.
14 They shall lift vp their voyce, & make a merry noyse, and in magnifying of the Lorde shall they crye out of the West.
15 Wherefore praise yee the Lorde in the valleis, euen the name of the Lorde God of Israel in the Iles of the sea.
16 From the vttermost part of the earth haue we heard prayses and mirth, because of the righteous: and I saide, I knowe a thing in secret, I know a thing in secret, woe is mee: the transgressers haue offended, the transgressers haue grieuously offended.
17 Fearefulnesse, the pit, and the snare are vpon thee, O thou that dwellest on the earth.
18 * It will come to passe, that whosoeuer escapeth the fearefull noyse, shall fall into the pit, and he that commeth vp out of the pit, shall be taken with the snare: for the windowes from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth are moued. Ier.48.44.
19 The earth is vtterly broken downe, the earth hath a sore rvine, the earth quaketh exceedingly.
20 The earth shall reele to and fro like a drunkard, and shall bee remoued like a tent, and the iniquitie thereof shall bee heauie vpon it, it shall fall, and not rise vp againe.
21 And in that day shall the Lorde visite the b That crowneth her selfe, that is, which boasteth her selfe to be as it were ✠ Queene of all cities on the sea coasts.

Osee.4.9.

the hoste above that is on high, and the kings of the worlde that are vpon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together as they that bee in prison, and they shall bee shut vp in warde, and after many dayes shall they be visited.

23 The moone shall bee abashed, and the sunne ashamed, when the Lord of hostes shall reigne in mount Sion and in Hierusalem with worship, and in the sight of such as shall be of his counsell.

The xxv. Chapter.

A thankesgiuing to God for his workes.

1 THou art my Lorde my God, I will magnifie thee, I will giue thankes vnto thy name, for thou hast brought wonderfull things to passe, according to thine olde counsell, truely and faithfully.

2 Thou hast made a citie an heape of stones, and brought a strong towne into decay: the habitation of strangers hast thou made to bee no citie, neither shall it be builded any more.

3 Therefore shall the mightie people giue glorie vnto thee, the citie of the valiant heathen shall feare thee.

4 For thou hast bene a strength vnto the poore, and a succour for the needie in his trouble, a refuge against euill weather, a shadow against the heate: for the blast of raging men is like a storme that casteth downe a wall.

5 Like as the heate in a drie place wasteth all things: so shalt thou suppresse the noyse of aliants, the heate is abated with the shadowe of the cloud, euen so shal God allwage the noyse of the cruell tyrants.

6 And in this mountaine shall the Lorde of hostes make vnto all people a feast of plenteous and delicate things, euen of most pleasant and daintie dishes.

7 And in this mountaine shall the Lorde destroy the couering that all people are wrapped in, and the banging that is spied vpon all nations.

8 As for death he hath destroyed it for euer, and the* Lord God shall wipe away teares from all faces, and the rebuke of his people shall he take away out of all the earth, for so the Lord hath said.

*Apo.7.17, & 21.4.

9 And in that day it shal be said, Loe, this is our God, we haue waited for him, and hee shall saue vs, this is the Lorde in whom we haue hoped, we will be merry, and reioyce in the saluation that commeth of him.

10 For in this mountaine shall the hand of the Lord cease, and Moab shal be threshed vnder him, euen as strawe is troden to donng on the donnghill.

11 And he shall stretch out his hand in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth casteth out his hands to swimme: & with the strength of his hands shall he bring downe their pride.

12 The strong holde also, and defence of thy walls hath he ouerthrowen and cast downe, and brought them to the ground, euen vnto dust.

The xxvi. Chapter.

A song of deliuerance of the people.

1 IN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Iuda, We haue a strong citie, saluation shall GOD appoint in stead of walles and bulwarkes.

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous people which keepeth the trueth may enter in.

3 Thy an assured purpose wilt p̄ preserue perfect peace, because they put their trust in thee.

4 Put pée pour trust alway in the Lorde: for in the Lord God there is strength for euermore.

5 For hee hath brought downe the high minded citizens: as for the proud citie, hee hath brought it lowe, euen to the ground shall he cast it downe, and bring it vnto dust.

6 The foote, euen the foote of the poore, and the steps of such as bee in necessitie shall treade it downe.

7 The path of equitie wilt thou graunt vnto the iust, O thou most righteous, thou shalt order the path of him that is righteous.

8 Yea in the way of thy iudgements, O Lorde, haue we put our trust in thée: thy name also, and the remembrance of thée, is the thing that our soule longeth for.

9 My soule hath longed for thée all the night, & with my sprite which is within me, will I seeke thée early in the morning: for when thy iudgements are in the earth, the inhabiters of the worlde shall learne righteousnesse.

10 Shall the vngodly man bee fauoured, which hath not learned righteousnesse, but doeth wickedly in the earth, where nothing ought to be done, but that which is righteous? hee shall not see the glory of the Lord.

11 Lord, when thy hand is lift vp to strike, they see it not, but they shall see it, and be confounded with the zeale of the people, and the fire that consumeth thine enemies shall deuoure them.

12 Lord, vnto vs thou shalt prouide peace: for thou also hast wrought all our works in vs.

13 O Lorde our God, other lordes besides thée haue subdued vs: but wee will bée mindfull onely of thée, and of thy name.

14 The dead will not liue, they that be out of life will not rise again, therefore hast thou visited and rooted them out, and destroyed all the memorie of them.

15 Thou hast increased the people, O Lord, thou hast increased the people, thou art glorious, thou hast sent them farre off vnto all the coasts of the earth.

16 Lord, in trouble haue they visited thée, they powred out their prayer when thy chastening was vpon them.

17 Like as a woman with childe that draweth nigh towards her trauell, is sory and crieth in her pames: euen so haue we bene in thy sight, O Lord.

18 We haue bene with child and ſuffered paine, as though we had brought foorth winde: for there is no ſaluation in the earth, neither doe the inhabitants of the world ſubmit themſelues.
19 Thy dead men ſhall liue, euen as my body ſhall they riſe againe: awake and ſing ye that dwell in duſt, for thy dewe is euen as the dewe of herbes, and the earth ſhall caſt out them that be vnder her.
20 Come my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and ſhut thy doores about thee, hide thy ſelfe for a little while, vntill the indignation be ouerpaſt.
Mich.1.3. 21 * For behold, the Lord is comming out of his place, to viſite the wickednesse of ſuch as dwell vpon earth: the earth alſo ſhall diſcloſe her bloods, and ſhall no more hide them that are ſlaine in her.

The xxvii. Chapter.

A prophecie of the comming of Chriſt, and deſtruction of idolatrie.

1 IN that day the Lorde with his ſore, great and mightie ſword, ſhall viſite a Leuiathan the fugitiue serpent, euen Leuiathan that crooked serpent, and he ſhall ſlay the dragon that is in the ſea.
a By Leuiathan the greateſt of fiſhes in the ſea, is meant the kingdome of Satan, and the mightie tyrants of the world, enemies to Chriſt, and perſecuters of his religion.
2 In the day ſee that ye ſing of the congregation, which is the vineyard that bringeth foorth the beſt wine:
3 Euen I the Lorde doe keepe it, in due ſeaſons ſhall I water it: and leaſt the e-nemie do it any harme, I will both night and day preſerue it.
4 There is no diſpleaſure in me, els when the vineyard bringeth mee foorth briers and thornes, I would goe thorowe it by warre, and burne it vp together.
b God calleth his word his ſtrength, becauſe thereby he winneth men, and bindeth them vnto himſelfe.
5 Let it take holde of my b ſtrength, and it ſhal be at one with me, euen at one ſhal it be with me.
6 The dayes are comming that Jacob ſhall take roote, Iſrael ſhal be greene and flouriſh, and the world ſhalbe filled with fruite.
7 Hath he ſmitten him as ſore as he did the other that ſmote him? Or is he ſlaine with ſo ſore a ſlaughter as they ſlewe
him?
8 Thou wilt puniſh it in the branches, yet not beyond meaſure: for in the day that the Eaſt winde bloweth ſore, it taketh away the fruits.
9 By this meanes therefore ſhall the iniquitie of Jacob be purged, and this is al the fruite, namely the c taking away of his ſinne, if he make all the ſtones of the altar of idoles, as chalke ſtones that are beaten in ſunder, that their groues and images riſe not vp againe.
c God vſeth afflictions, as meanes to call men to repentance, whereupon followeth forgiuenes of ſinnes.
10 Els ſhall the ſtrong citie bee deſolate, and the habitation forſaken and left like a wildernes: there ſhall the calfe feede, and there ſhall hee lie, and eate vp the graffes thereof.
11 When the branches of it are drie, they are broken off, and the women come and ſet them on fire: for it is a people of no vnderſtanding, and therefore hee that made them, ſhall not fauour them, & he that created them, ſhal giue them no grace.
12 And in that day ſhall the Lorde make a threſhing from the middes of the riuer Euphrates, vnto the riuer of Egypt, and ye children of Iſrael ſhall be gathered together one to an other.
13 In that day ſhall the great trumpe bee blowen, ſo that they which were loſt in the land of Aſſyria, and they that were baniſhed in the land of Egypt, ſhal come and worſhip the Lord in the holy mount of Hieruſalem.

The xxviii. Chapter.

1 Againſt the pride of Ephraim, 9 and againſt falſe prieſts and preachers.

1 WOe be vnto the crowne of pride, euen vnto the drunken people of Ephraim, whoſe great pompe is as a flowre that fadeth away vpon the head of the valley of ſuch as bee in wealth, and are ouerladen with wine.
2 Beholde, there commeth a vehement and ſore day from the Lorde, like an vnmeaſurable haile and perilous tempeſt, euen like the force of the mightie and horrible waters that violently beareth downe all things.
3 The crowne of the pride of the drunken Ephraimites ſhall be troden vnder foote.
4 So that the flowre of his fairenesse and beautie, which is in the head of the valley of fatneſſe, ſhall fade away as doeth an vntimely ripe figge before harueſt: which when a man eſpieth, he looketh vpon it, and while it is yet in his hand he eateth it vp.
5 In that day ſhall the Lorde of hoſtes be the crowne of glorie and diamond of beautie vnto the reſidue of his people.
6 He will be alſo a ſpirit of perfect knowledge to him that ſitteth in iudgement, and ſtrength vnto them that turne away the battell to the gate of the enemies.
7 But they are out of the way by reaſon of wine, yea far out of the way are they through ſtrong drinke: the prieſt alſo and the prophet are gone aſtray by the meanes of ſtrong drinke, they are drunken with wine, they goe amiſſe through ſtrong drinke, they faile in propheſying, and ſtumble in iudgement.
8 For all tables are ful of vomite and fil-thineſſe, that no place is cleane.
9 Whom then ſhal ſuch one teach knowledge? and whom ſhall hee make to vn-derſtand the thing that hee heareth? for they are as ignorant as yong children that are taken from the milke, and are weaned.
10 For they that be ſuch, muſt take after one leſſon, another leſſon, after one commaundement, another commandement, for one rule, another rule, after one in-ſtruction, another inſtruction, there a litle, and there a litle.
11 * For hee that ſpeaketh vnto this people, is euen as one that vſeth rudeneſſe of ſpeache, and a ſtrange language.
1. Cor. 14. 21.
12 If any man ſay vnto them, Loe, this is the reſt wherewith ye may eaſe him that is is wearie, this is the refreshing: they will not hearken.

13 Therefore shall the word of the Lord be vnto them lesson vpon lesson, commandement vpon commandement, rule vpon rule, instruction vpon instruction, there a litle, & there a litle: that they may goe on, and fall backeward, be bruised, tangled, and snared.

14 Wherefore heare the word of the Lord yee mockers, yee that haue rule of this people which is at Hierusalem.

15 Because ye haue said, We haue made a couenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement: and though there goe foorth a sore plague, it shal not come vnto vs, for wee haue made falsehoode our refuge, and vnder vanitie are wee hid:

16 Therefore thus sayeth the Lorde God, *Behold, I lay in Sion for a foundation a stone, euen a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: whoso beleeueth, let him not be too [a] hastie.

Mat.21.4.

a Who so through faith doeth stay himselfe vpō Christ, in hastie going forward shall not fall: that is, shall not faile of that he hopeth to obtaine.

17 Iudgement also will I lay to the rule, and righteousnesse to the balance, so that the [b] haile shal sweepe away as a broome your vayne confidence, and the prime place of your refuge shall the waters runne ouer.

b The Gospel is compared to haile and floods, for that it breaketh downe and carieth away idolatry and superstition, where in men doe trust in vaine.

18 And thus the couenant that yee made with death, shall be disanulled, and your agreement that ye made with hell, shall not stande, yea when the sore plague goeth foorth, ye shall be troden downe vnder it.

19 From the time that it goeth foorth, it shal take you away: for early in the morning euery day, yea both day and night, shall it goe thorowe, and when the noise thereof is perceyued, it shall gender vexation.

20 For the bed is narowe, and not large, & the couering so small, that a man cannot wind himselfe vnder it.

1.Kyng.5.20. 2.Sam.24.11. Esa.28.

21 * For the Lord shall stand as in mount Perazim, and shall bee wroth like as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his worke, his strange worke, and bring to passe his acte, his strange acte.

22 Now therefore see that ye be no mockers, least your punishment encrease: for I heard of the Lord of hostes, that there shall come a thorte ende vpon the whole earth.

23 Heare yee then, and hearken vnto my voyce, consider and ponder my speache.

24 Doeth not the husbandman plowe all the day, and openeth & breaketh the clots of his ground, that he may sowe?

25 When he hath made it plaine, will hee not spreade abroade the fitches, and sow cummin, and cast in wheate by measure, and the appointed barly and rye in their place?

26 God will instruct him to haue discretion, euen his God will teach him.

27 For fitches shall not be threshed with an harowe, neither shall a cart wheele be brought thorowe the cummin: but the fitches are beaten out with a staffe, and cummin with a rodde.

28 But the seede that bread is made of, is threshed, though it bee not alway a threshing, and the cart wheele must bee brought ouer it, least bee grinde it with his teeth.

29 This also commeth of the Lorde of hostes, which worketh with wonderfull wisdome, and bringeth excellent workes to passe.

The xxix. Chapter.

A prophecie against Hierusalem, and against the vayne traditions of men.

1 WO vnto thee, O Ariel, Ariel, thou citie that Dauid dwelt in: Go on from yeere to yeere, and let the lambes be slaine.

2 I will lay siege vnto Ariel, so that there shal be heauinesse and sorowe in it: and it shalbe vnto me euē an altar of slaughter.

3 I wil besiege thee round about, & will fight against thee thorow a bulwarke, & will reare vp dirches against thee.

4 Thou shalt be brought downe, and shalt speake out of the ground, and thy speach shal goe lowe out of the dust:

5 Thy voyce also shall come out of the ground, like the voyce of a witch, and thy talking shal whisper out the dust.

6 Moreouer, the nopse of the strange enimies that be like thinne dust, and the multitude of tyrants shall bee as drie straw that cannot tarie: euen sodainely and in haste shall their blast go.

7 Thou shalt bee visited of the Lorde of hostes, with thunder, earthquake, and with a great nopse, with storme & tempest, and with the flame of a consuming fire.

8 And the multitude of all nations that fight against Ariel, shal bee as a dreame seene by night: euen so shall they be that make warre against it, and strongholde & to ouercome it, & that lay any siege vnto it.

9 In conclusion, it shalbe euen as when an hungry man dreameth that he is eating, and when he awaketh, his soule is emptie, or as when a thirstie man dreameth that he is drinking, when he awaketh he is yet faint, and his soule hath appetite: euen so shall the multitude of all nations bee that fight against mount Sion.

10 Ponder these thinges once in your mindes, and wonder: Blinded are they themselues, and the blinde guides of other, they are drunke, but not with wine: they are vnstable, but not through strōg drinke:

11 For the Lorde hath couered you with a slumbring spirit, and hath closed your eyes: your prophets also and rulers that should see, them hath he couered.

12 And the vision of all the prophets, is become vnto you as the words of a booke that is sealed vp, which men deliuer to one that is learned, saying, Reade thou in it: and hee saieth, I cannot, for it is sealed.

13 And the booke is giuen to him that is not learned, saying, Read thou in it: and he saieth, I am not learned.

14 Therefore thus hath the Lorde saide, *For as much as this people, whē they be in trouble, do honour mee with their mouth, and with their lippes, but their heart is farre from me, & the feare which they haue vnto me, proceedeth of a commandement that is taught of men:

Mat. 15.8. mar. 7.6.

15 Therefore will I doe marueils among this people, euen marueilous thinges I say and a wonder: *for the wisdome of their wise men shall perish, and the vnderstanding of their wittie men shal hide it selfe.

1. Cor. 1.19.

16 *Woe vnto them that keepe secret their thoughts, to hide their counsel from the Lord, and to doe their workes in darkenesse, saying, *Who seeth vs? and who knoweth vs?

Abd. 1.3. Eccl. 23.15.

17 Doubtlesse your destruction is in reputation as the Potters clay: and doeth þ worke say of him that made it, He made not me? And doeth an earthen vessel say of him that fashioned it, Hee had no vnderstanding?

18 Is it not yard at hand that Libanus shalbe turned into a lowe field, and that the lowe field shal be taken as the wood?

19 And in that day shall deafe men heare the words of the booke, and the eyes of the blinde shall see euen out of the cloud, and out of darkenesse.

20 The meeke spirited also shalbe merry in the Lord, and the poore among them þ be lowly shal reioyce in the holy one of Israel:

21 For he that did violence is brought to nought, and the scorneful man is consumed, & they rooted out that made haste early to vnrighteousnesse,

22 Making a man to sinne in the worde, & that tooke him in a snare, which reproued them in the open place, and they that haue turned the cause of the righteous to nought.

23 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde to the house of Iacob, euen thus saieth he that redeemed Abraham, Iacob shal not now be confounded, nor his face pale.

24 But when her seeth his children the worke of my hands in þ middes of him, they shall sanctifie my name, and praise the holy one of Iacob, and feare the God of Israel.

25 They also that haue bene of an erroneous spirit, shall come to vnderstanding, and they that haue bene scorneful, shall learne doctrine.

The xxx. Chapter.

1 Against them that forsake the counsel of God, and cleaue to the counsell of men. 3 The prophet also threatneth the remnant of the people, that after the destruction of Hierusalem went into Egypt.

1 ALas for those disobedient children, saith the Lorde, that they will take counsell, and not of mee, that they wil take a secret aduise, and not out of my spirite, and therefore adde they sinne vnto sinne.

2 Euen they that walke to goe downe into Egypt, and haue asked no question at my mouth, but seeke strength in the might of Pharao, and trust in the shadowe of Egypt.

3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharao bee your confusion, and the trust in the shadowe of Egypt, your shame.

4 For his captaines were at Zoan, & his embassadours came vnto Hanes.

5 They were ashamed of the people that could do them no good, and that might not helpe them, nor shewe them any profite, but were their confusion and rebuke.

6 The burden of the beasts of the South. In a lande of trouble and anguish, from whence shall come the yong and olde lion, the viper and fierce serpent, that flieth against them that vpon coltes beare their riches, and vpon camels their treasures, to a people that can doe them no good.

7 For vaine and nothing worth shall the helpe of the Egyptians bee: therefore haue I cried vnto Hierusalem, they shal haue strength inough, if they will settle their mindes in quietnesse.

8 Now therefore goe thy way, and write this before them in a table, and note it in a booke, that it may finally remaine and be kept still for euer.

9 For this is an obstinate people, and dissembling children, children that refuse to heare the lawe of the Lord.

10 For they say vnto the seers, See not: & to them that bee cleare of iudgement, Looke not out right things for vs: but speake faire words vnto vs, looke out errours, 11 Get you out of this way, depart out of this path, and turne the holy one of Israel from vs.

12 Wherefore thus saieth the holy one of Israel, Because your heartes rise against this worde, and because you trust in wrong dealing, and peruerse iudgement, and put your confidence therein:

13 Therefore shall ye haue this mischiefe for your destruction and fall, like as an high wall that falleth because of some rift or blast, whose breaking commeth sodainly.

14 And the hurt thereof is like an earthen vessel which breaketh without helpe, so that in the bursting of it, there is not found one shiuer to fetch fire in, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus saieth the Lord God, euen the holy one of Israel, In repentance, and in rest shall yee bee safe, in quietnesse and sure confidence shall be your strength, but ye haue had no lust thereto.

16 For ye haue saide, No, but wee will escape

escape through horses, therefore shall ye flée, and we will get vs vp vpon swift beasts, and therefore shall your persecuters be swifter.

17 A thousand shall flée at the rebuke of one, and at the rebuke of fiue, shall ye all flée, till ye be left as a ship mast vpon the top of a mountaine, and as a beacon vpon an hill.

18 Therefore doth the Lorde cause you to waite, that hée may haue mercy vpon you, for the intent that hée may haue the preeminence when hee is gracious vnto you: for the Lorde is the God of iudgement, blessed are all they that hope in him.

19 If the people remaine in Sion, and at Hierusalem, thou shalt not be in heauinesse: but at the voyce of thy complaint shal he haue mercy vpon thée, and when he heareth it, he shall giue thee an answer.

20 And though the Lord giue you the bread of trouble, and the water of aduersitie, thy raine shalbe no more so scant, but thine eyes shall see thy raine,

21 Yea, and thine eare shall heare the talking of him that doeth speake behinde thée: This is the way, walke ye in it, turne not aside, neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

22 Ye shall destroy also the couering of your siluer images, and the decking of your golden idols, euen as filthines shalt thou put them away, and thou shalt say vnto it, Get thée hence.

23 Then shall God giue raine vnto thy seede that thou shalt sowe the ground withall, and bread of the encrease of the earth, which shall be fat and very plenteous: in that day also shall thy cattell be fed in large pastures.

24 The oxen likewise, and the yong asses that eare the ground, shall eate cleane prouender, which is purged with the winde and the fanne.

25 Finally, vpon euery high mountaine and hil shal there be riuers, and streames of waters in the day of the great slaughter when the towers fall.

26 Moreouer, the light of the Moone shall bee as the light of the Sunne, and the Sunne light shalbe seuen folde, and haue as much shine as in the seuen dayes beside, when the Lorde bindeth vp the sore of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 Behold, the fame of the Lorde commeth from farre, and his presence is so hot, that no man is able to abide: his lippes are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a consuming fire.

28 His breath is a vehement flood of water that reacheth vp to the necke: that he may sift away the heathen in the siue of vanitie, and his breath is a bridle of error in the iawes of the people.

29 And ye shall sing like as in the night when the holy solemnitie beginneth, and ye shall haue gladnesse of heart, like as when one commeth with a pipe vnto the hill of the Lorde, and to the most mighty one of Israel.

30 And the Lorde shall cause his glorious voyce to be heard, and shall declare his stretched out arme with a terrible countenance, and with a flame of a consuming fire, with noysome lightning, with a showre, and with haile stones.

31 For through the voyce of the Lord shal Assur bee destroyed, which smote other men with the rodde.

32 And it shal come to passe, that whithersoeuer he goeth, the rodde shal cleaue vnto him, which the Lorde shall lay vpon him with Tabrets and Harpes: with great warre shall he fight against his hoste.

33 For the fire of hell is ordeyned from the beginning, yea euen for the king is it prepared: this hath the Lord set in the deepe, and made it wide, the burning wherof is fire and much wood: the breath of the Lorde, which is like a riuer of brimstone, doeth kindle it.

The xxxi. Chapter.

He curseth them that forsake God, and seeke for the helpe of men.

1 WO be vnto them that goe downe into Egypt for helpe, and trust in horses, and put their confidence in charets, because they be many, and in horsemen, because they bee lustie and strong: but they regarde not the holy one of Israel, and they aske no question at the Lord.

2 And yet neuertheles is wise, and will plague the wicked, and goeth not from his worde, he will arise against the household of the froward, and against the help of euill doers.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God, and their horses flesh, and not spirit: and as soone as the Lorde stretcheth out his hande, then shall the helper fall, and he that should haue bene helped, and they shall all together be destroyed.

4 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vnto mée, Like as the Lion and Lions whelpe roareth vpon the pray that hee hath gotten, and is not afrayde though the multitude of Shepheardes cry out vpon him, neither abashed for all the heape of them: so shall the Lorde of hostes come downe to fight for mount Sion, and defende his hill.

5 Like as the birds flutter about their nests: so shall the Lorde of hostes keepe, saue, defende, and deliuer Hierusalem.

6 Therefore, O ye children of Israel, turne againe vnto him whome you haue oftimes forsaken.

7 For in that day euery man shal cast out his idoles of siluer, and his idoles of golde, which yee haue made with your owne handes vnto your sinne.

8 Assur also shalbe slaine with the sword, not with a mans sword, neither shall the sword of any man deuoure him, and hée shall flée from the slaughter, & his chosen men shall be discomfited.

9 He shal go for feare to his strong holds, and his princes ſhall flée from his ſtandard, ſaith the Lord, whoſe fire is in Sion, and his furnace in Hieruſalem.

The xxxii. Chapter.

The conditions of good rulers and officers.

1 BEholde, a king ſhall gouerne after the rule of righteouſneſſe, and the princes ſhall rule accoꝛding vnto the balance of equitie.

2 And that man ſhall bee vnto men as a defence foꝛ the winde, and as a refuge foꝛ the tempeſt, like as a riuer of water in a thirſtie place, and the ſhadowe of a great rocke in a dꝛy land.

3 The eyes of hꝫ ſeeing ſhal not be dimme, and the eares of them that heare ſhall take diligent heede.

4 The heart of the vnwiſe ſhall attayne to knowledge, and the vnperfect tongue ſhall ſpeake plainely and diſtinctly.

5 Then ſhall the fooliſh nigarde bee no moꝛe called gentle, noꝛ the churle liberal.

6 But the nigarde will ſpeake nigardly, and his heart will woꝛke euill, and play the hypocrite, and imagine abommations againſt God, to make the hungry leane, and to withhold dꝛinke from the thirſtie.

7 The weapons of the churliſh are euill, hee deuiſeth noyſome deuiſes, that hee may beguile the pooꝛe with deceitfull woꝛdes, yea, euen there as hee ſhoulde giue ſentence with the pooꝛe.

8 But the liberall perſon imagineth honeſt thinges, & commeth vp foꝛ liberalitie vnto promotion.

9 Vp ye rich and idle women, hearken vnto my voyce: ye careleſſe daughters, marke my woꝛdes.

10 Many yeeres and dayes ſhall yée bée brought in feare, O ye careleſſe wome: foꝛ the vintage ſhall faile, and the harueſt ſhall not come.

11 Be abaſhed, you that liue in abundance, tremble you that liue careleſſe, caſt off your rayment, make your ſelues bare, and put ſackcloth about you.

12 Foꝛ as the infantes weepe when their mothers teates are dꝛyed vp: ſo ſhal you weepe foꝛ your faire fieldes and fruiteful vineyardes.

13 Vp peoples fielde ſhall bring thornes and thiſtles: and ſo ſhall it be in euery houſe of voluptuouſneſſe, and in euery citie that reioyceth.

14 The palaces alſo ſhall be bꝛoken, and the greatly occupied cities deſolate: the towres & bulwarks ſhal become dennes foꝛ euermoꝛe, where wild aſſes take their pleaſure, and theꝛe their paſture.

15 Vnto the time that the ſpirit be powꝛed vpon vs from aboue, and that the wilderneſſe be a fruiteful field, and the plenteous fielde be reckoned foꝛ a wood.

Eſa. 29. 17. 16 *Then ſhall equitie dwell in the deſart, and righteouſneſſe in a fruiteful land.

17 And the woꝛke of righteouſneſſe ſhalbe peace, and hꝛ fruite reſt and quietneſſe foꝛ euer.

18 And my people ſhal dwell in the Innes of peace, and in ſure dwellings, in ſafe places of counſoꝛt.

19 And when the hayle falleth, it ſhall fall in the wood, and the citie ſhal be ſet lowe in the valley.

20 O howe happie ſhall yee be when yee ſhall ſakelp ſowe your ſeede beſide all waters, and dꝛiue thither the feete of your Oxen and aſſes.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

1 Threatenings againſt the Aſſyrians. 20 A deſtruction of them that ſhall ſee the Lord.

1 WOe to thée that deſtroyeſt, when thou waſt not deſtroied, thou breakeſt the league, whereas none hath bꝛoken it with thee: foꝛ when thou ſhalt leaue deſtroying, thou thy ſelfe ſhalt be deſtroied: and when thou ceaſeſt from bꝛeaking hꝫ league, then ſhall they bꝛeake it to thee.

2 O Lord, haue mercy vpon vs, we haue put our whole truſt in thee: be an arme to ſuch earely, and our health in the time of trouble.

3 At that confuſe noyſe the people fled, and at thine exalting, the heathen were ſcattered.

4 And the ſpoyles ſhall bee gathered, which ſhalbe yours, as are the gathering of Bruchus, and the multitude going to it ſhall bee as Locuſtes running to and fro.

5 The Lorde is exalted, foꝛ it is hee that dwelleth on high, hee hath filled Sion with iudgement and righteouſneſſe.

6 And a ſure ſtabliſhing of the times, ſhal be ſtrength, health, wiſedom, and knowledge: and the very feare of the Lord ſhalbe the treaſure of it.

7 Behold, the meſſengers ſhall cry without: and the ambaſſadours of peace ſhal weepe bitterly.

8 Their ſtreetes are waſte, there walketh no man therein: God hath bꝛoken the appoyntment, the cities are caſt awap, and men are nothing regarded.

9 The deſolate earth is in heauineſſe, Libanus is ſhamed & hewen downe, Saron is like a wilderneſs, Bazan & Charmel are ſpoyled of their fruites.

10 And therefoꝛe ſaith the Lord, I will vp now, nowe will I be aduanced, now wil I be exalted.

11 Yee ſhall conceiue ſtubble, and beare ſtrawe: and your ſpirite ſhalbe the fire, that it map conſume you.

12 And the people ſhall be burnt like lime, and as thornes burnt that are hewen off, and caſt in the fire.

13 Now hearken to, ye that are farre off, howe I haue done, and conſider my power, ye that are at hand.

14 The ſinners at Sion are afraide, a ſudden fearefulneſſe is come vpon the hypocrites: What is hee among vs, ſay they, that ſhall dwell by the conſuming fire? Which of vs map abide the euerlaſting heate?

15 * He that leadeth a godly life, and ſpeaketh the trueth, he that abhoꝛreth gaines Pſal. 14. 2.

by vp violence and deceite, he that keepeth his hand that he touch no reward, which stoppeth his eares þ he heare no counsell against the innocent blood, which holdeth down his eyes þ he see no evil:

16 Hee it is that shal dwel on high, whose safegard shalbe in a bulwark of rocks: to him shal be given meate, and his waters shall not faple.

17 Thine eyes shal see the King in his glory, euen the king of the farre countreis shal they see.

18 Thine heart studied for feare, thinking thus, *What shall then become of the Scribe? of the receiuer of our money? what of him that taxed our fayrest houses?

*1.Esr.1.16.

19 There shalt thou not see a cruel people of a strange tongue, to haue so defused a language that it may not bee understanded, neither so strange a speach but it shalbe perceiued.

20 Looke vpon Sion, the head citie of our solemne feastes: thine eyes shall see Hierusalem þ glorious habitation, þ tabernacle þ neuer shall remoue, whose naples shall neuer bee taken out, wolde without end, whose coyds euery one shal neuer corupt.

21 For the glorious maiestie of the Lorde shal there be present amog vs, as a place where fayre broade ruers and streames are, thorow the which, shall neither Gallep row, nor great ship saple.

22 For the Lord is our iudge, the Lorde is our lawegiuer, the Lord is our king, and he himselfe shalbe our sauiour.

23 Thy tackling is loosed, therefore it can not make fast the mast, nor spread þ saile: then there is dealed great spoyle, yea, lame men runne after the pray.

24 There lyeth no man that saieth, I am sicke: but all evil is taken away from the people that dwell there.

The xxxiiii. Chapter.

The last destruction of the synagogue, in which the kingdome and priesthood of the people was translated to the Church and congregation of Christ.

1 COme ye Heathen, and heare, take heede you people: hearken thou earth, and all that is therein, thou round compasse, and all that dwelleth thereupon.

2 For the Lord is angry with all people, and his displeasure is kindled against all the multitude of them, he hath destroyed them, and deliuered them to the slaughter.

3 So that their slayne shal be cast out, and their bodies shall stinke, that euen the very hilles shalbe wet with the blood of them.

4 All the starres of heauen shall waste, and þ heauens shal fold together as a roule, and al the starres thereof shal fall, like as the leaues fall from the vines and figge trees.

5 For my sword shalbe bathed in heauen, and shall immediatly come downe to iudgement vpon Idumea, and vpon the people which I haue curssed.

6 And the Lordes sworde shall be full of blood, and bee ruddie with the fatnesse & blood of Lambes and Goates, with the fatnesse of the kidneyes of wethers: For the Lorde shall kill a great offering in Bozra, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

7 There shall the Vnicornes fall with them, and the Bullies with the Giants, & their land shalbe throughly soked with blood, and their grounde corrupt with fatnesse.

8 For it is the [a] day of Gods vengeance, & the yere of recompence for the reuenge of Sion.

[a] God declareth his loue and care to preserue his Church by his seuere punishing of the enemies to his Church.

9 And his floods shall be turned to pitch, and his earth to brimstone, and therewith shall the land be kindled.

10 So that it shall not bee quenched day nor night, but smoke euermore, and so forth ye waste: and no man shal go thorow it for euer.

11 *But Pelicanes, Stockes, great Owles, and Rauens shal haue it in possession, & dwel therein: for God shal spread ouer þ lyne of desolation vpon it, and the stones of emptinesse.

*Soph.2.14.

12 Her nobles shall call, and there is no kingdome: and al her princes shalbe nothing.

13 Thornes shall growe in their palaces, nettles and thistles in their strog holdes, that the dragons may haue their pleasure therein, and that they may bee a court for Estriches.

14 There shal strange visures and monstrous beasts meete one another, and þ wilde keepe cõpanie together, there shall the Lamia lie and haue her lodging.

15 There shall the Owle make her nest, builde, bee there at home and bring forth her yong ones: there shal the Kites come together, eche one to his like.

16 Seeke throughout the booke of the Lorde, and reade it: there shal none of these things be left out, there shal not one nor such like faile: for his mouth commandeth, and that same doeth his spirit gather together, or fulfill.

17 He hath cast the lot for them, and to those beastes hath his hande deuided it by the line: therefore those shall possesse it for euer, from generation to generation shal they dwel therein.

The xxxv. Chapter.

Of the time and kingdome of Christ.

1 BVt [a] the desert and wildernesse shall reioyce, the wast ground shalbe glad, and flourish as the Lilie.

[a] The barren nature of mankinde to all goodnesse, shall be made fruitful by grace promised in Christ, Deut. 20. and 32.

2 She shall flourish pleasantly, and bee ioyful, and euer bee giuing thankes more and more: For the glory of Libanus, the beautie of Charmel and Saron shall bee giuen her: These shall knowe the honour of the Lord, and the maiestie of our God.

3 And therefore [b] strength the weake handes and comfort the feeble knees.

[b] God giueth strength of grace to the feeble consciences by preaching þ word.

4 Say vnto them that are of a fearefull heart, Be of good cheare, and feare not, behold, your God commeth to take vengeance, and your God commeth to take vengeance, and you shall see the reward of God giueth: God commeth his owne selfe, and will deliuer you.

Mat.15.30. 5 * Then shall the eyes of the blinde be lightened, and the eares of the deafe opened.

6 Then shall the lame men leape as an Hart, and the dumbe mans tongue shall giue thanks: for in the wildernesse there shall welles spring, and floodes of water in the desert.

7 The dry grounde shall turne to riuers, and the thirstie to springes of water: whereas Dragons dwelt afore, there shal growe sweete flowres and greene rushes.

8 There shalbe foote paths, and common streets, this shalbe called, The holy way, no vncleane person shall goe thorowe it, for the Lord himselfe shall goe with them that way, and the wayfarer not ignorant shall not erre.

9 There shalbe no lion, and no rauening beastes shall come therein, nor be there, but men redeemed shal go there free and safe.

10 And the redeemed of the Lorde, I say, shall conuert, and come to Sion with thankesgiuing: euerlasting ioy shal they haue, pleasure and gladnesse shall bee among them, and as for all sorowe & heauinesse, it shal vanish.

The xxxvi. Chapter.

Hierusalem is besieged by Sennacherib, in the time of king Ezecias.

4.King.18.13. 2.chro.32.1. 1 In * the fourteenth yere of king Ezecias, came Sennacherib king of the Assyrians downe, to lay siege vnto all the strong cities of Iuda, to conquer them.

2 And the king of the Assyrians sent Rabsaceh from Lachis toward Hierusalem, against Ezecias, with an exceeding host, which set him by the conduite of the ouer poole, in the way that goeth thorow the Fullers lande.

3 And so there came forth vnto him Eliacim, Helcias sonne, the chiefe ouer the houshold, Sobna the scribe, and Joah Asaphs sonne, the secretarie:

4 And Rabsaceh sayde vnto them, Tell Ezecia that the great king sayeth thus vnto him, What presumption is this that thou trustest vnto?

5 I sayd surely that thou trustest in vaine words, when counsell and strength are necessarie to battell: but nowe whereto trustest thou, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Loe, thou puttest thy trust in a broken staffe of reede, I meane Egypt, which hee that leaneth vpon, it goeth into his hand, and thorroweth it thorowe: euen so is Pharao the king of Egypt, vnto all them that trust in him.

7 But if thou wouldest say vnto mee, We trust in the Lord our God: Is not hee that God whose high places and altars Ezecia tooke downe, and commaunded Iuda and Hierusalem to worship onely before this altar?

8 Nowe therefore deliuer hostages, that thou rebell no more against my lorde the king of the Assyrians, and I will giue thee two thousand horses, if thou be able to set men vpon them.

9 How darest thou resist the power of the smallest prince that my lorde hath? howe darest thou trust in the charets & horsemen of Egypt?

10 Moreouer, thinkest thou that I am come vp hither to destroy this lande without the Lordes will? The Lorde sayde vnto me, Goe vp against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then sayd Eliacim, Sobna, and Joah, vnto Rabsaceh, Speake to vs thy seruantes, wee pray thee, in the Syrians language, for wee vnderstande it well, & speake not to vs in the Iewes tongue, least the folke heare which syteth vpon the wall.

12 Then answered Rabsaceh. Hath my master sent me to speake this only to thy master and thee? hath hee not sent me to them also that sye vpon the wall, that they may bee compelled to eate their owne dounge, and drinke their owne stale with you?

13 And Rabsaceh stoode stiffe, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes tongue, and sayde, Nowe take heede howe the great king of the Assyrians giueth you warning.

14 Thus saieth the king, Let not Ezecia deceiue you, for he shal not be able to deliuer you.

15 Moreouer, let not Ezecia comfort you in the Lord, when hee sayeth, The Lorde without doubt shall defend vs, and shal not giue ouer this citie into the handes of the king of the Assyrians.

16 Hearken not to Ezecia, for thus saith the king of Assyria, Obteine my fauour, enclyne to me, so may euery man enioy his vineyards and figge trees, & drinke the water of his cesterne:

17 Vnto the time that I come my selfe, & bring you into a lande that is like your owne, wherein is wheate & wine, which is both sowen with seede, and planted with vineyardes.

18 Let not Ezecia deceiue you, when hee sayeth vnto you, The Lorde shall deliuer vs: might the god of the Gentiles keepe euery mans land from the power of the king of the Assyrians?

19 Where is the god of Hemath and Arphad? where is the god of Sepharuaim? and who is able to defend Samaria out of my hand?

20 Of which of al the gods of these lands hath deliuered their countrey out of my power? Is the Lord in deede able to deliuer Hierusalem from my hande?

21 Vnto this Ezecias messengers helde their tongues, and answered not one wo̱yde: fo̱ the king had charged them that they ſhould giue him no anſwere.

22 So came Eliacim Helcias ſonne the chiefe ouer the houſholde, Sobna the ſcribe, and Joah Aſaphs ſonne the ſecretarie, vnto Ezecia with rent clothes, and tolde him the wo̱yds of Rabſaceh.

The xxxvii. Chapter.

1 Ezecia humbleth himſelfe before the Lord. 35 The armie of Sennacherib is ſlaine of the angel of the Lord. 38 And he himſelfe is killed of his owne ſonnes.

1 WHen Ezecia heard that, hee rent his clothes, and put on ſackecloth, and went into the temple of the Lo̱yd.

2 But hee ſent Eliacim the chiefe ouer the houſholde, and Sobna the Scribe, with the eldeſt Pꝛieſts, clothed in ſacke, vnto the Pꝛophet Eſay the ſonne of Amos,

3 And they ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith Ezecia, This is the da̱y of trouble, of plague, and of blaſphemie: fo̱ the children are come to the place of birth, but there is no power to bring them fo̱th.

4 The Lo̱yd thy God no doubt hath well conſidered the wo̱yds of Rabſaceh, whom his lo̱yde king of the Aſſy̱rians hath ſent to defie and blaſpheme the liuing God, with ſuch wo̱yds as the Lo̱yd thy God hath heard right well: & therefo̱e lift vp thy pꝛaper fo̱ the remnant that yet are left.

5 So the ſeruants of the king Ezecia came to Eſay.

6 And Eſay gaue them this anſwer, Say thus vnto your lo̱yd, Thus ſaith the Lo̱yd, Be not afraide of the wo̱yds that thou haſt heard, wherwith the king of the Aſſy̱rians ſeruants haue blaſphemed me.

7 Behold, I will raiſe vp a wind againſt him, and he ſhall heare a rumour, and he ſhall go againe into his countrey, there will I deſtroy him with the ſwo̱yd in his owne land.

8 Now when Rabſaceh returned, he found the king of Aſſy̱ria laying ſiege to Libnas: fo̱ hee had vnderſtanding that hee was departed from Lachis.

9 And there came a rumour that Tharacah king of Ethiopia was come fo̱th to warre againſt him: and when the king of Aſſy̱ria heard that, he ſent other meſſengers to king Ezecia with this cō̃mandement. *4.Reg.19.

10 Say thus to Ezecia king of Juda, Let not thy God deceiue thee in whom thou hopeſt, and ſayeſt, Hieruſalem ſhall not be giuen into the handes of the king of Aſſy̱ria.

11 Fo̱ loe, thou knoweſt well howe the kings of Aſſy̱ria haue handled all the lands that they haue ſubuerted: and ſhalt thou to eſcape?

12 Were the people of the Gentiles, whō my pꝛogenitours cōquered, deliuered at any time though their gods? As namely, Golan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were at Thalaſſar?

13 Where is the king of Hemath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the citie Sepharuaim, Ena, and Ana?

14 Now when Ezecia had receiued the letter of the meſſengers, and read it, he went vp into the houſe of the Lo̱yd, and opened the letter before the Lo̱yd.

15 And Ezecia pꝛayed vnto the Lo̱yde on this maner.

16 O Lo̱yd of hoſtes, thou God of Iſrael, which dwelleſt vpon Cherubim, thou art the God that onely is God of all the kingdomes of the wo̱yld, fo̱ thou onely haſt created heauen and earth, 17 Encline thine eare, Lo̱yd, and conſider, open thine eyes Lo̱yd, and ſee, and ponder all the wo̱yds of Hemacherib, which hath ſent his embaſſage to blaſpheme the liuing God.

18 It is true, O Lo̱yd, that the kings of Aſſy̱ria haue conquered all kingdomes and landes, 19 And caſt their gods in the fire: fo̱ thoſe were no gods, but the wo̱ykes of mens handes, of wood, o̱ ſtone, therefo̱e haue they deſtroyed them.

20 Now therefo̱e deliuer vs, O Lo̱yd our God, from the handes of Sennacherib, that all the kingdomes of the earth may know that thou onely art the Lo̱yd.

21 Then Eſay the ſonne of Amos ſent vnto Ezecia, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lo̱yde God of Iſrael, Whereas thou haſt made thy pꝛaper vnto mee as touching Sennacherib the king of Aſſy̱ria, 22 This is the anſwere that the Lo̱yde hath giuen concerning him: The virgin the daughter of Sion hath deſpiſed thee, and laughed thee to ſcorne: the daughter of Hieruſalem hath ſhaken her head at thee.

23 But thou Sennacherib, whome haſt thou defied and blaſphemed? Againſt whom haſt thou lifted vp thy voyce, and exalted thy pꝛoude lookes? euen againſt the holy one of Iſrael.

24 Thou with thy ſeruants haſt blaſphemed the Lo̱yd, & thus boldeſt thou of thy ſelfe: I will couer the high mountaines and ſides of Libanus with my hoſtmen, and there will I cut downe the high Cedar trees, and the faireſt Firre trees: I will vp into the height of it, and into the chiefeſt of his timber wo̱yds.

25 If there be no water, I will graue and dꝛinke: & as fo̱ waters of defence, I will dꝛy them vp with the ſole of mine hoſt.

26 Yea, haſt thou not heard what I haue taken in hand, & bꝛought to paſſe of olde time? That ſame will I doe nowe alſo, and waſte, deſtroy, and lying ſtrong cities vnto heapes of ſtones.

27 Fo̱ their inhabiters ſhall be like lame men bꝛought in feare & cōfounded: they ſhalbe like graſſe and greene hearbes in the fielde, like hay vpon the houſe tops, that withereth before it be growen vp.

28 I know thy wayes, thy going fo̱th, & thy comming home, yea and thy madneſſe againſt me.

29 Therefo̱e

29 Therefore thy furiousnesse against me, and thy pryde is come before me, I will put my ring in thy nose, & my bridle bit in thy chawes of thée, and turne thée about, euen þ same way that thou camest.
30 I wil giue thee also this token, O Ezecia, this yeere shalt thou eate such as groweeth of it selfe, and the seconde yeere that which springeth againe of the same, and in the third yeere ye shall sowe and reape, yea ye shall plant vineyards, and enioy
the fruits thereof.
31 And such of the house of Iuda as are escaped, shal come together, and the remnant shall take roote beneath, and bring forth fruit aboue.
32 For the escaped shall go out of Hieru-salem, and the remnant from the mount Sion: and this shall the zeale of the Lord of hostes bring to passe.
33 Therefore thus saith the Lord, concerning the king of the Assyrians, Ye shall not come into this citie, & shall shoote no arrow into it, there shal no shield hurt it, neither shall they cast ditches about it.
34 The same way he came he shal returne, and not come in this citie, saith the Lord.
35 And I wil kéepe and saue this city, saith he, for mine owne, and for my seruant Dauids sake.
4. Reg. 19. 35. or 4, 48, 24. 36 *Thus the Angel of þ Lord went forth, and slewe of the Syrians host, an hundred foure score and fiue thousand: and when men arose vp earely in the morning, behold, they were slaine, and all lay full of dead bodies.
37 So Sennacherib the king of the Assyrians brake vp, and dwelt at Ninive.
38 Afterward it chanced as he prayed in the Temple of Nesroch his god, that Adramalech & Sarazer his owne sonnes slew him with the swoorde, and fled into the land of Armenia: and Asarhaddon his sonne reigned in his stead.

The xxxviii. Chapter.

1 Ezecia is sicke vnto death, & but is yet restored by the Lord, and liueth fifteene yeeres after. 10 For which benefite he giueth thankes.

2. Reg. 20. 1. 2. par. 32. 24. 1 ABout this time was *Ezecia sicke vnto death, and the Prophet Esay the sonne of Amos came vnto him, and saide, Thus commandeth the Lord, Set thine house in order, for thou must die, and shalt not escape.
2 Then Ezecia turned his face towarde
the wall, and prayed vnto the Lord, 3 And said, Remember, O Lord, I beséech thée, that I haue walked before thée in trueth and a stedfast heart, & haue done the thing that is pleasant to thee. And Ezecia wept sore.
4 Then sayd God vnto Esay,
5 Go, and speake vnto Ezecia, The Lord God of Dauid thy father sendeth thée this word, I haue heard thy prayer, and considered thy teares: behold, I will put fiftéene yeeres mo vnto thy life, 6 And deliuer thee and thy citie also from the hand of the king of Assyria: for I wil defend the citie.
7 And take thée this token of the Lord, that he will do it as he hath spoken.
8 Behold, I wil returne the shadow of Ahaz dial þ now is laid out with þ sunne, and bring it ten degrées backward. So the sunne turned ten degrees backward, the which he was discended afore.
9 A thankesgiuing which Ezecia king of Iu-da wrote, when he had bene sicke and reco-uered.
10 I thought I should haue gone to the gates of hel, when mine age was shortened, and haue wanted the residue of my yéeres.
11 I spake within my selfe, I will neuer visite the Lord, the Lord I say, in this life:
I will neuer see man among the dwellers of the world.
12 Mine age is folden together, and taken away from mee like a shepheardes cottage, I haue hewen off my life by my selues, like as a weauer cutteth off his web: he will with pyning sicknes make an ende of me, yea he will make an ende of me in one day.
13 I thought I would haue lined vntill the morow, but he bruised my bones like a Lion: and in one day thou wilt make an ende of me.
14 Then chattered I like a Swallow, and like a Crane, and mourned like a Done.
I lift vp mine eies into the height: O Lorde, sayde I, my sickenesse kéepeth mee downe, ease thou me.
15 What shall I say? The Lorde hath made a promise to me, yea, and hée himselfe hath performed it: I will therefore so long as I line, remember this bitter-nesse of my life.
16 O Lord, to all those that shall liue hereafter, yea to al men shal it be knowe, that euen in those yéeres I haue a ioyful life, and that it was thou that causedst me to sléepe, againe thou hast giuen life to me.
17 Behold, bitter as gal was my pensiuesnesse, so ioye longed I for health, & it was thy pleasure to deliuer my life from the filthy pit: for thou it is, O Lord, that hast cast all my sinnes behind thy backe.
18 For hell prayseth not thée, death doeth not magnifie thée: they that goe downe into the graue prayse not thy trueth:
19 But the liuing, yea the liuing knowe-ledge thee, as I doe this day: the father teacheth his children of thy faithfulnesse.
20 To heale me it is the Lords worke, and we will sing my songes in the house of the Lord all the dayes of our life.
21 And Esay said, Take a plaister of figs,
& lay it vpon the sore, so shal it be whole.
22 Then said Ezecia, O what a miracle is this, that I shal goe vp into the house of the Lord.

The xxxix. Chapter.

Ezecia is reproued of Esay, because he shewed his treasure vnto the Embassadours of Babylon.

4. Reg. 20. 12. 1 AT the same time *Merodach Ba-ladans sonne, king of Babylon, sent letters & presents to Ezecia:
for hée vnderstood that he had bene sicke,
and

and was recouered againe.

2 And Ezecia was glad thereof, and shewed them the house of his treasures of siluer and golde, of spices, and oores, of precious oples, and all that was in cupbordes and treasure houses: there was not one thing in Ezecias house, and so throughout all his kingdome, but he let them see it.

3 Then came Esay the Prophet to king Ezecia, and sayd vnto him, What haue the men saide, and from whence came they vnto thee? Ezecia answerd, They came out of a farre countrey vnto me, out of Babylon.

4 Esay said, What haue they seed vpon in thy house? Ezecia answered, All that is in my house haue they seene, and there is nothing in my treasure but I shewed it them.

5 Then said Esay vnto Ezecia, Vnderstand the word of the Lord of hostes:

6 Behold, the time will come, that euery thing which is in thine house, & all that thy progenitours haue laide vp in store vntil this day, shalbe carried to Babylō, & nothing left behind: thus saith ꝑ Lord.

7 Yea and part of thy sonnes that shall come of thee, and whome thou shalt beget, shall be carried hence, and become gelded chamberlains in the king of Babylons court.

8 Then said Ezecia to Esay, Good is the word of God which thou hast spoke me. He saide moreouer, For there shalbe peace and faithfulnelle in my time.

The xl. Chapter.

3 The comming of Saint Iohn Baptist. 9 The preparation of the Apostles. 11 The calling of the Gentiles.

The Epistle on Saint Iohn Baptists day.

1 Comfort my people, Oye prophetes, comfort my people, saith your God.

2 Comfort Hierusalem at the heart, & tell her that her trauell is at an end, that her offence is pardoned, that she hath receiued at the Lords hand sufficient correction for all her sinnes.

Mat.3.mar.1. luke 3.4. iob.1. 23.

3 * A voice crieth in wildernesse: Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight the path of our God in the desart.

4 All valleys shalbe exalted, and euery mountaine and hill layde lowe: what so is crooked shall be made straight, and the rough shall be made plaine.

5 For the glorie of the Lord shal appeare, for all flesh shall at once see that ꝑ mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Eccl.4.18. iacob.1. 11.1.pet.1.24.

6 * The same voice spake, Howe cry. And the Prophet answered, What shall I cry? That all flesh is grasse, and that all the goodlinesse therof is as the floure of the fielde.

7 The grasse is withered, the floure falleth away, for the breath of the Lorde bloweth vpon them: of a truth the people are grasse.

8 The grasse withereth, and the floure fadeth away: * but the worde of our God endureth for euer.

Iohn 12.34.

9 Go vp vnto the high hill, O Sion, thou that bringest good tidings, lift vp thy voice with power, O thou preacher Hierusalē, lift it vp without feare, & say vnto ꝑ cities of Iuda, Behold your God.

10 Behold, the Lord God shall come with power, and shall of himselfe beare rule with his arme: behold his reward with him, and his worke before him.

11 * He shall fede his flocke like an heards man, he shal gather the lambes together with his arme, and carie them in his bosome, and shall kindely entreate those that beare yong.

Ezech.34.23 iohn 10,11.

12 Who hath measured the waters in his fist? who hath measured heauen with his span, and hath comprehended all the earth of the worlde in three measures? who hath weighed the mountaines and hilles in a balance?

13 * Who hath directed the spirite of the Lord? or who gaue him counsell, and shewed him?

Wisd.9.13.rom. 11.34.1.cor.2,16

14 Who is of his counsell, and giueth him vnderstanding, and hath taught him the path of iudgement? who taught him cunning, and opened to him the way of vnderstanding?

15 Behold, all people are in comparison of him as a droppe of a bucket full, and are coūted as the least thing that the balance weigheth: yea and the iles he taketh vp as a very litle thing.

16 Libanus is not sufficient to minister fire to his offering, and all the beastes thereof are not ynowe for one sacrifice.

17 All people in comparison of him are reckoned as nothing: if they be coinpared with him, lesse then nothing, and as it that is not.

18 * To whom then will ye liken God, or what similitude will ye set vp to him?

Actes 17.29.

19 Shall the Carrier make him a carued image? and shall the Goldsmith ouer him with golde, or cast him into a forme of siuer plates?

20 Moreouer, shall the image maker, that the poore man which is disposed, may haue something to set vp also, seeke out, and choose a tree that is not rotten, and carue thereout an image that mourth not?

21 Knowe yee nothing? heard yee neuer of it? hath it not bene preached vnto you since the beginning? haue yee not bene enformed of this by the foundation of the earth?

22 It is he that sitteth vpon the circle of the world, whose inhabiters are in comparison of him but as grashoppers: hee spreadeth out the heauēs as a couering, he stretcheth them out as a tent to dwel in.

23 He bringeth princes to nothing, and the iudges of the earth as though they were not.

24 So that of them it may be sayd, They be not planted nor sowen againe, neither their stocke rooted againe in the earth: for as soone as hee bloweth vpon them, they wither & fade away like the strawe in a whirlewinde.

25 To

25 To whome now will ye liken me, and whom shall I be like, saith the holy one?
26 Lift vp your eyes on high, and consider who hath made those things which come out by so great heapes, and he calleth them all by their names: there is nothing hid from ꝑ greatnesse of his power, strength, and might.
27 Howe may then Iacob thinke, or may Israel say, My wayes are hidde from the Lorde, and my God knoweth not of my iudgements.
28 Knowest thou not, or hast thou not heard that the euerlasting God, the Lord which made all the corners of the earth, is neither wearie nor faint? and that his wisedome can not be comprehended?
29 It is hee that giueth strength vnto the weary, and power vnto the faint.
30 Children are wearie and faint, and the strong men fall:
31 But vnto them that haue their trust in the Lord, shall strength be encreased: Egles wings shall growe vpon them, when they runne they shall not fall, and when they goe they shall not be wearie.

The xli. Chapter.

Of the goodnesse and mercie of God towarde the people.

a By the Ilands, God meaneth the Gentiles, whome he reprooueth for their idolatry.
b By the iust man, is meant Abraham, who being called out of Vr of the Chaldeans, who being iustified by faith, became the father of many nations, whom God alway defended against all his enemies. Apoc. 1. 17.

1 BE still you a Ilands, & hearken vnto me: let the people lay their strength together, let them come hither, and then shewe their cause: we will go to the lawe together.
2 Who raised vp the b iust man from the East, and called him to goe forth? who cast downe the people, and subdued the kings before him? that hee may throwe them all to the grounde with his sword, and scatter them like stubble with his bowe.
3 He followeth vpon them, and goeth safely him selfe, and that in a way where before his foote had not troden.
4 Who hath made and created these things? euen hee that called the generations from the beginning, * euen I the Lord which am the first, & with the last.
5 The yles sawe and did feare, and the endes of the earth were abashed, drewe nigh, and came hither.
6 Euery man helped his neighbour, and said to his brother, Be strong.
7 The carpenter comforted the goldsmith, and the goldsmith the hammerman, saying, Sodder will do verie well in it: and they fastened it with naples, that it should not be moued.
8 But thou Israel art my seruant, thou Iacob whome I haue chosen, thou art the seede of Abraham my beloued.
9 Thou art he whome I ledde from the endes of the earth: for I called thee euen from among the glorious men of it, and sayd vnto thee, Thou art my seruant, I haue chosen thee, & not cast thee away.
10 Bee not afraide, for I am with thee: Bee not amazed as ware, for I am thy God, to strengthen thee, helpe thee, and keepe thee with the right hande of my righteousnesse.
11 Beholde, all they that resist thee shall come to confusion and shame, and thine aduersaries shalbe destroyed & brought to nought.
12 So that whoso seeketh after them, shal not finde them, thy destroyers shall perish: and so shall they that vndertake to make battell against thee, bee as that is not, and as a thing of nought.
13 For I the Lord thy God will strengthen thy right hand, euen I that say vnto thee, Feare not, I will helpe thee.
14 Bee not afrayd, thou litle worme Iacob, and thou despised Israel: for I will helpe thee, saieth the Lorde, and thy holy one of Israel thy redeemer.
15 Behold, I will make thee a treading carte, and a newe flaile, that thou mayest thresh and grinde the mountaines, and bring the hilles to powder.
16 Thou shalt fanne them, and the winde shall carrie them away, and the whirle winde shall scatter them: but thou shalt reioyce in the Lorde, and shalt delight in the holy one of Israel.
17 When the thirstie and poore seeke water and finde none, & when their tongue is dry of thirst, I giue it them, saith the Lorde, I the God of Israel forsake them not.
18 I bring foorth floods in the hilles, and welles in the playne fieldes: I turne the wildernesse to riuers, and the dry lands to conduites of water.
19 I plant in the waste grounde trees of Cedar, Box, Myrre, and Oliues, and in the dry I set Firre trees, Elmes, and Hawthornes together.
20 All this doe I, that they altogether may see and marke, perceiue with their hearts, and consider that the hand of the Lord maketh these things, and that the holy one of Israel bringeth ꝑ to passe.
21 Stand at your cause, saith the Lorde, & bring forth your strongest grounde, saith the king of Iacob.
22 Let them bring foorth their gods, and let their gods tell vs what shall chance hereafter, yea, let them shewe vs the things that are past what they be, let thē declare them vnto vs, that we may take them to heart, and know them hereafter.
23 Either shewe vs things for to come, & tell vs what shall bee done hereafter, so shall wee knowe that yee are gods: doe some thing either good or bad, so will we both knowledge the same, and tell it out.
24 Beholde, yee are gods of nought, and your making is of nought: yea, abominable is the man that hath chosen you.
25 Neuertheles, I haue waked vp one Cyrus. from the North, and he shall come from the East, he shal call vpon my name, and shall treade vpon princes as vpon clay, and as the potter treadeth downe the myre.
26 Who declareth this from the beginning, and we will knowe him? or from the the olde times, and we will confesse and say that he is righteous? but there is none that sheweth or declareth any thing, there is none also that heareth your wordes.

27 The first is hee that shall say to Sion, Beholde, beholde they are present: and to Hierusalem I selfe will I giue an Euangelist.

28 But when I consider, there is not a man among them, nor any that can giue counsell, nor that when I examine them that can answere one worde.

29 Loe wicked are they, and vaine, with the things also that they take in hande. yea, their images are but winde & vaine things.

The xlii. Chapter.

The comming of Christ.

1 BEholde, this is my seruant, vpon whom I leane, *my elect in whom my soule is pacified, I haue giuen my spirit vpon him, that he may shewe forth iudgement among the Gentiles. Mat.12.18.

2 He shall not be an outcrier, nor lift vp his voyce, his voyce shall not be heard in the stretes.

3 And a bruised reede shall he not breake, and the smoking flaxe shal he not quench: but faythfully and truely shall he giue iudgement.

4 He shall not be pensiue nor careful, that he may restore righteousnesse vnto the earth: and the Gentiles also shall looke for his lawes.

5 For thus saith God the Lord vnto him, euen he that made the heauens & spread them abroad, & set forth the earth with her encrease, which giueth breath vnto the people that is in it, and spirit to them that dwell therein,

6 I the Lord haue called thee in righteousnesse, and will hold thée by the hand, and will also defend thee, *and giue thée for a couenant of the people, to be the light of the Gentiles. Esa.49.6.

7 That thou mayest open the eyes of the blinde, let out the prisoners from their bonds, and them that sit in darkenes out of the dungeon house.

8 Euen I am the Lorde, and this is my name: *and my glorie will I giue to none other, neither mine honour to grauen images. Esa.48.11.

9 Beholde, olde things are come to passe, and new things do I declare, and or euer they come I tell you of them.

10 Sing vnto the Lord a new song of thanksgiuing, blowe out his praise from the ende of the world: they that be vpon the sea, and all that is therein praise him, the Iles and they that dwell in them.

11 Let the wildernesse with the cities lift vp her voyce, the townes also that they of Cedar dwel in: let them be glad that sit vpon rockes of stone, and let them cry downe from the high mountaines.

12 Ascribing glorie vnto the Lord, & magnifying him among the Gentiles.

13 The Lord shall come forth like a Giant, and take a stomacke to him like a fresh man of warre: he shall roare & cry, and ouercome his enemies.

14 I haue long holden my peace sayeth the Lord, *I haue bene still and refrained my selfe, but now I will cry like a trauailing woman, and at once will I destroy and deuoure. a Christ for a time deferreth as it were with payne, to deliuer his electiō the tyrannie of Antichrist, but at the time appointed he will enforce himselfe, as a woman in her trauayle, to deliuer his people.

15 I wil make waste both mountaine and hill, and drie vp euery grene thing that groweth thereon: I will drie vp the floods to become Ilands, and drinke vp the riuers.

16 I will bring the blind into a strete that they know not, and leade them into a footepath that they are ignorant in: I shall make darkenesse light before them, & the thing that is crooked to be straight: These things haue I done vnto them, and not forsaken them.

17 They are fallen backe, yea, and let them be ashamed earnestly that hope in idols, and say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Heare, O ye deafe men, & sharpen your eyes to see, O ye blinde.

19 Who is blinde but my seruant? or so deafe as *my messenger, whom I sent vnto them? for who is so blinde as the perfect man, and so blinde as the Lordes seruant? b By the seruant, messenger, and the perfect man, he meaneth the Iewes & their priestes, who ought of all other people to haue had knowledge, and so haue serued God perfectly.

20 Thou hast seene much, and kéepest nothing: the eares are open, and no man heareth.

21 The Lorde is mercifull vnto them for his righteousnesse sake, that his worde might be magnified and praised:

22 *But the people themselues are robbed and troden vnder the foote, chained in dungeons, and they all, I say, are shut into prison houses: they be caried away captiue, and no man doeth loose them: those that will they be troden vnder foote, and no man doeth labour to bring them againe. c A grieuous sentence against that will not beholde the light when it shineth, nor beleeue Gods worde when it is preached.

23 But who is he among you that pondereth this, that considereth it, & taketh it for a warning in time to come?

24 Who gaue Iacob to bee troden vnder foote, and Israel to be spoyled? Did not the Lord, because we haue sinned against him, and haue had no delight to walke in his wayes, neither bene obedient vnto his lawe?

25 Therefore hee hath powred vpon him his wrathful displeasure and strong battell, and hath fired him on euery side, yet will he not vnderstand: he burneth him vp, yet sinketh it not into his heart.

The xliii. Chapter.

God promiseth to sende his Christ which shall deliuer his people. 7 He forgiueth sinnes for his owne sake.

1 BVt now the Lorde that made thee, O Iacob, and he that fashioned thee, O Israel, saith thus, Feare not, for I haue redéemed thée, I haue called thee by thy name, thou art mine owne.

2 If thou goest thorowe the water, I wil be with thée, the strong floods shall not ouerwhelme thee: and if thou walkest thorow thorow the fire, it shall not burne thée, and the flame shal not kindle vpon thée:

3 For I am the Lord thy God, the holy one of Israel thy sauiour: I gaue Egypt for thy deliuerance, the Ethiopians and the Sabees for thée:
4 Because thou wast deare in my sight, & because I set by thée and loued thee: I will giue ouer all men for thée, and deliuer vp all people for thy sake.
5 Feare not, for I am with thée, I will bring thy séede from the East, & gather thee together from the West.
6 I will say to the North, Let goe: and to the South, Keepe not backe: but bring me my sonnes from farre, & my daughters from the endes of the worlde, 7 Namely all those that be called after my name: For them haue I created, fashioned, and made for mine honour.
8 Bring forth that people which is blind and yet hath eyes, which are deafe, although they haue eares.
9 If all nations come in one, and be gathered together, which among them shal declare such things, & tell vs the things that are past? let them bring their witnesse, so that they bee iust: els let them heare, and say, It is trueth.
10 You are my witnesses, sayth the Lord, and my seruant whome I haue chosen: therefore be certified, and giue me faithfull credence, and consider that I am he before whom there was neuer any God, neither shalbe any after me.
Osee.13.4. 11 *I am, euen I am the onely Lorde, and beside me there is no sauiour.
12 I gaue warning, I made whole, I taught you when there was no strange god among you: and this record must ye beare me your selues, saith the Lord, that I am God.
13 And euen hee am I who was from the beginning, and there is none that can take any thing out of my hand: I do the worke, and who shalbe able to let it?
14 Thus saith the Lord the holy one of Israel your redéemer, For your sake I haue sent to Babylon, and brought it down: al they are fugitiue & Chaldees, whose sorowful cry is in their ships.
15 I am the Lord your holy one, which haue made Israel, and am your king.
16 Thus saith the Lord, euen he that maketh a way in the sea, and a footepath in the mightie waters.
17 It is he which bringeth forth the charets and horses, the host and power of warre, that they may fall together, and neuer rise, and be extinct, like as tow are they quenched.
2.Cor.5.17. 18 Remember not things of olde, and regard no thing that is past.
reue.21.5. 19 *Behold, I shal make a newe thing, and shortly shall it appeare, & shall you not know it? I will make a way in the desert, & riuers of water in the wildernes.
a Christ is the way, the world is the desert, the doctrine of the Gospel the waters, the wilde beastes, the cruel and superstitious misbeleeuers. 20 The wilde beasts shal worship me, the Dragons and the yong Estriches: for I shal giue water in the wildernesse, and streames in the desert, that they may giue drinke to my people whom I chose.
21 This people haue I made for my selfe, and they shal shew forth my prayse.
22 For thou Iacob wouldest not call vpon me, but thou hadst an vnlust towarde me, O Israel.
23 Thou gauest mee not thy beastes for burnt offerings, neither diddest honour me with sacrifices: I haue not bene chargeable vnto thee in offerings, neither grieuous in incense.
24 Thou boughtest me no deare spice with thy money, neither powredst the fatte of thy sacrifices vpon me: but thou hast laden me with thy sinnes, and wearyed me with thy vngodlinesse.
25 Whereas I pet, euen I am hee onely that for mine owne selues sake do away thine offences, and forget thy sinnes, so that I will neuer thinke vpon them.
26 Put me now in remembrance, for wee will reason together: & shew what thou hast for thee to make thee righteous.
27 Thy first father offended sore, and thy rulers haue sinned against me:
28 Therefore I ‖ prophaned the princes of the sanctuarie, I did curse Iacob, and gaue Israel into reproche. [Or, slew.]

The xliiii. Chapter.

Christ promiseth to deliuer his Church without any her deserts.

1 SO *heare nowe, O Iacob my seruant, and Israel whom I haue chosen. Iere.30.10.
2 For thus saieth the Lord that made thée, fashioned thee, & helped thee euen from thy mothers woombe: Be not afraid, O Iacob my seruant, thou righteous whom I haue chosen:
3 *For I shal powre water vpon the dry ground, and riuers vpon the thirstie: I shall powre my spirit vpon thy séed, and my blessing vpon thy stocke: Ioel.2.28. actes.2.17. iohn.7.38.
4 They shall growe together like as the grasse, and as the willowes by the waters side.
5 One shall say, I am the Lords: another shall call himselfe after the name of Iacob: the thirde shall subscribe with his hand vnto the Lorde, and giue himselfe vnder the name of Israel.
6 Thus hath the Lord spoken, euen the king of Israel, & his redéemer the Lorde of hostes: *I am the first & the last, and besides me there is no God. Esa.41.4. apoc.1.17.
7 If any be like me, let him call forth the thing past, and openly shew it, and lay it plaine before me what hath chaced since I appointed the people of the worlde, and what shalbe shortly, or what shall come to passe in time long to come, let them shew these things. esa.48.12.
8 Be not abashed nor afraid: for haue not I euer told you hitherto, & warned you? ye can beare me record your selues: is there any God except me, or any maker, that I should not know him?
9 All caruers of images are but vaine, and the carued image that they loue can do no good: they must beare record them selues, selues, that seeing they can neither see nor vnderstande, they shalbe cõfounded.

10 Who dare then make a god, or fashion an image that is profitable for nothing?
11 Beholde, all the fellowship of them must be brought to confusion, and truely all the workemasters of them are mẽ: they shall all be gathered together, they shall stande, tremble, and be confounded one with another.
Wisd.13.11. ier.10.3. 12 *The Smith maketh an Axe, and tẽpereth it with hote coles, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with all the strength of his armes, yea, sometime he is faint for very hunger, and so thirstie that he hath no more power.
13 The Carpenter or image Carver taketh measure of the tymber, and stretcheth foorth his line, hee marketh it with some colour, he plaineth it, he ruleth it, & squareth it, & maketh it after the image of a man, and according to the beautie of a man, that it may stand in the house.
14 Moreouer, he goeth out to hew Cedar trees, he bringeth home Elmes & Okes, and taking a bolde courage, hee seeketh out the best timber of the wood: hee him selfe hath planted a Vine tree, which the rayne hath swelled, 15 Which wood serueth for men to burne: Of this he taketh and warmeth himselfe withall, hee maketh a fire of it to bake bread, and maketh also a god thereof to honour it, and a grauen image to kneele before it.
16 One piece he burneth in the fire, with another he rosteth flesh, that he may eate roste his belly full: with the third he warmeth himselfe, and saith, Aha, I am wel warmed, I haue bene at the fire.
17 And of the residue hee maketh him a god, and a grauen image for himselfe: he kneeleth before it, he worshippeth it, hee prayeth vnto it, and saith, Deliuer mee, for thou art my god.
18 Yet men neither consider nor vnderstande, because their eyes be stopped that they can not see, and their heartes that they can not perceiue.
19 They ponder not in their mindes, for they haue neither knowledge nor vnderstanding to thinke thus, I haue burnt one piece in the fire, I haue baked bread with the coles therof, I haue rosted flesh withall and eaten it: and I will nowe of the residue make an abominable idole, and fall downe before a rotten piece of wood.
20 Thus doeth he but lose his labour, & his heart which is deceiued doth turne him aside, so þ none of thẽ can haue a free conscience to thinke, Doe not I erre?
21 Consider this, O Iacob and Israel, for thou art my seruant: I made thee, that thou mightest serue mee, O Israel, forget me not.
22 As for thine offences, I haue driuẽ thẽ away like the cloudes, and thy sinnes as the mist: turne thée againe vnto me, for I haue redéemed thée.
23 Be glad ye heauens, for the Lord hath dealt graciously with his people, let all that is here beneath vpon the earth bee ioyful: reioyce yee mountains & woods, with all the trees thereof, for the Lorde hath redéemed Iacob, and will shew his glorie vpon Israel.
24 Thus saith the Lorde thy redeemer, euen hee that fashioned thee from thy mothers wombe, I the Lorde doe all things my selfe alone, I onely spread out the heauens, and I onely haue layde abroade the earth by my owne selfe.
25 I destroy the tokens of witches, and make the soothsayers fooles: As for the wise, I turne them backwarde, & make their cunning foolishnesse.
26 He doeth set vp the purpose of his seruant, and fulfilleth the counsell of his messengers: concerning Hierusalem he saith it shalbe inhabited, and of the cities of Iuda they shalbe buylded againe, and I will repayre their decayed places.
27 He saieth to the deapth, Be dry: and, I will drie vp water floods.
28 He saith of Cyrus, Hee is my heardman, so that he shall fulfill all things after my will: he saith also of Hierusalem, It shall be builded: and of the temple, It shalbe fast grounded.

The xlv. Chapter.

The comming of Christ, and the calling of the Gentiles.

THus saith the Lorde vnto Cyrus his anoynted, whome I haue taken by the right hande, to subdue nations before him: I will loose the a loynes of kings, and I will open the gates before his face, and the gates shall not be shut.
a The loynes, that is, the power & strength.
2 I will goe before thee, and make the crooked straight: I shall breake the brasen doores, and burst the yron barres.
3 I shall giue thee hid treasures, and the thing which is secretly kept: that thou mayest knowe that I am the Lord God of Israel, which haue called thée by thy name.
4 For Iacob my seruants sake, and for Israel my chosen, I called thée by thy name, and ordeined thée or euer thou knewest me.
5 I am the Lord, and there is none other, for without me there is no god, I haue prepared thée or euer thou knewest me.
6 Therefore they shall knowe from the rising of the Sunne, vnto the going downe of the same, that all is nothing without mee: for I am the Lord, & there is els none.
7 It is I that created light and darkenesse, I make peace and trouble: yea, euen I the Lord doe all these things.
8 Ye heauens from aboue droppe down, and let the cloudes rayne righteousnesse: the earth open it selfe, let saluation and righteousnesse growe foorth, let it bring them foorth together: I the Lord haue created him.
9 Woe be vnto him that striueth with his maker, maker, let the potshard strine with the potshards of the earth: * Saith the clay to the Potter, What makest thou? or, Thy worke is not perfectly done?

Iere.18.6. rom.9.20.

10 Woe be vnto him that saith to his father, What begettest thou? and to his mother, What bearest thou?

11 Thus saith the Lord, euen the holy one and maker of Israel, Aske me of things for to come concerning my sonnes, and put me in remembrance as touching the worke of mine hands.

12 I haue made the earth, and created man vpon it: with my hands haue I spread forth heauen, & giuen a commandement for all the host thereof.

13 I shall wake him vp with righteousnesse, and order all his wayes: He shall builde my citie, & let out my prisoners, and that neither for giftes nor rewards, saith the Lord of hostes.

14 Thus saith the Lorde, The occupyers of Egypt, the marchantes of the Ethiopians and Sabees shal come vnto thee with tribute, they shall bee thine, they shall followe thee, and go with chaynes vpon their feete, they shall fall down before thee, & make supplication vnto thee: for God, without whome there is none other God, shalbe with thee.

15 O howe profounde art thou, O God, thou God and sauiour of Israel?

16 Confounded are they all and put to dishonour, they are gone hence together with shame, euen the makers of images.

17 But Israel shall bee saued in the Lorde with an euerlasting saluation: yee shall not come to shame nor confusion worlde without ende.

18 For thus saith the Lorde (that created heauen, the God that made the earth & fashioned it, and set it forth, hee did not make it for nought, but to be inhabited) I am the Lord, without whome there is none other.

19 I haue not spoken secretly, neither in darke places of the earth: I sayde not in vayne to the seede of Jacob, Seeke mee: I am the Lord, which when I speake do declare the thing that is righteous and true.

20 Gather you and come together, draw nigh hither you that escaped of the people: they haue no vnderstanding that set vp the stocks of their idoles, and pray vnto a god that can not helpe them.

21 Draw nigh, come hither, and let them take counsell one at another, and shewe forth what is he that told this before, or who spake of it euer since the beginning: haue not I the Lorde done it? without whome there is none other God, the true God and sauiour, and there is els none but I.

22 And therefore turne you vnto me all ye ends of the earth, that ye may be saued: for I am God, and there is els none.

23 I sware by my selfe, out of my mouth commeth the worde of righteousnesse, & that may no man turne: * but all knees shall bowe vnto me, and al tongues shal sweare by my name,

Rom.14.11, Phil.2.10,

24 Saying, Verily in the Lorde is my righteousnesse and strength, to him shall men come, but al they that thinke scorne of him shalbe confounded.

25 And the whole seede of Israel shall be iustified, and glorie in the Lord.

The xlvi. Chapter.

1 Idolatrie is reproued. 3 The health that commeth by Christ is prophecied.

BEl is fallen, Nabo is broken down, whose images were a burden for the beastes and cattell, to ouerlade them, and to make them weary.

2 They are sunke downe and fallen together, for they may not ease them of their burden, therefore must they goe into captiuitie.

3 Hearken vnto me, O house of Jacob, & all yee that remaine yet of the house of Israel, whome I haue borne from your mothers wombe, and brought you vp from your byrth.

4 It is euen I which shall beare you vnto your last age: I haue made you, I will also nourish you, beare you, and saue you.

5 Whome will yee make me like, or to whome will ye make mee equall or compare me, that I should be like him?

6 Take out siluer and gold out of your purses, and waigh it, and hyre a goldesmith to make a god of it, that men may kneele downe and worship it:

7 * Yet must he be taken on mens shoulders and borne, and set in his place, that he may stande, and not moue out of his place: and if one cry vnto him, he giueth no answere, and deliuereth not the man that calleth vpon him from his trouble.

Baruc.6.28.

8 Consider this well, and be ashamed, go into your owne selues.

9 Remember the things that are past since the beginning of the worlde, that I am God, and that there is els no God, yea, and that there is nothing like vnto mee.

10 In the beginning of a thing, I shewe the end thereof, and I tell before things that are not yet come to passe: My counsell standeth stedfastly stablished, and I fulfill all my pleasure.

11 I call a byrde out of the East, and the man by whome my counsaile shall bee fulfilled out of strange countreys: as I haue spoken, so will I bring to passe: as soone as I thinke to deuise a thing, I doe it.

12 Heare me, O ye that are of an high stomacke, but farre from righteousnesse:

13 I shall bring forth my righteousnesse, it is not farre, and my health shall not tary long away: I will lay health in Sion, and in Israel my glorie.

The xlvii. Chapter.

The worde of the Lord against Babylon.

1 But

1 BVt as for thée, O daughter, thou virgin Babylon, sit thou downe in the dust, sit vpon the ground, there is no throne, O thou daughter of Chaldea, for thou shalt no more bee called, Tender and pleasant.

2 Bring foorth the querne and grinde meale, vntrusse thy shoodered heare, put of thy shooes, make bare thy knees, and wade thorow the water riuers.

Nam.3.5. 3 *Thy filthinesse shal be discouered, and thy priuities shalbe séene: for I will auenge me of thée, and will shewe no mercy to thee, as I doe to other men.

4 Our redéemer is called the Lord of hostes, the holy one of Israel.

5 Sit still, holde thy tongue, get thée into some darke corner, O daughter Chaldea: for thou shalt no more be called, Ladie of kingdomes.

6 I was so wroth with my people, that I punished mine inheritance, and gaue them into thy power, neuertheles, thou shewedst them no mercy, but euen the very aged of them diddest thou oppresse right sore with thy yoke.

7 And thou thoughtest thus, I shalbe lady for euer, and besides all that, thou hast not regarded these things, neither remembred what was the ende of that citie Hierusalem.

8 Heare nowe therefore thou delicate one that sittest so careless, and speakest thus in thine heart, I am alone, and without me is there none, I shal neuer be widow nor desolate againe.

Esa.51.19. rom.8.7. 9 *And yet both these things shall come to thée, vpon one day in the twinckling of an eye, namely widowhood and desolation: they might ily fall vpon thée, for the multitude of thy witches, and for the great heape of thy coniurers.

10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickednes, and hast sayde, No man seeth mée: thine owne wisedome and cunning hath deceiued thee, in that thou hast sayde in thine heart, I am alone, and without me there is none.

11 Therefore shal trouble come vpon thée, thou shalt not knowe from whence it shall rise: mischiefe shall fall vpon thée, which thou shalt not be able to put off, a sudden vtter destruction shal come vpon thee or euer thou be ware.

12 Nowe goe to thy coniurers, and to the multitude of thy witches with whom thou hast wearied thy selfe from thy youth, if they may helpe thee, or strength thée.

13 Thou hast hitherto had many counsels of them: So let the heauen gazers, and the beholders of starres, and moone prophets, come on nowe and deliuer thée, yea, and let them shewe when these newe things shall come vpon thée.

14 Beholde, they shalbe like strawe, which if it be kindled with fire, no man may rid it for the vehemencie of the flame, and yet it giueth no cinders to warme a man by, nor cleare fire to sit by.

15 Thus are they with whome thou hast wearied thy selfe, and thus are thy marchants that haue bene with thée frō thy youth: euery one hath taken his owne way, and none of them shall defend thee.

The xlviii. Chapter.

1 The hypocrisie of the Iewes is reproued. 11 The Lord alone will be worshipped, which hath chosen vs, 20 and which succoureth vs for his owne sake.

1 HEare this, O thou house of Iacob, yee that are called by the name of Israel, and are come out of one stocke with Iuda: which sweare by the name of the Lorde, and beare witnesse by the God of Israel, but not with trueth and right.

2 For they are named of the holy citie, and are grounded vpon the God of Israel, whose name is the Lord of hostes.

3 The things that I haue shewed you euer since the beginning, haue I not brought them to passe immediately, as they came out of my mouth, and declared them, and they are come?

4 Howbeit, I knowe that thou art obstinate, and that thy necke hath an iron sinowe, and that thy browe is of brasse.

5 Neuertheless, I haue euer since the beginning shewed thée of things for to come, and declared them vnto thée or euer they came to passe: that thou shouldest not say, Mine idole hath done it, my carued or mouté image hath shewed it.

6 Thou heardest it before, and beholde, it is come to passe. And shall not ye your selues shewe foorth or confesse the same? But as for mee, I told thée before at the beginning new and secret things which thou knewest not of,

7 And some done of olde time, whereof thou neuer heardest before they were brought to passe, that thou canst not say, Behold, I knewe of them.

8 Moreouer, there be some whereof thou hast neither heard nor knowen, neither haue bene opened vnto thine eares afore time: For I knewe that thou wouldest malitiously offend, therefore haue I called thée a transgressour, euen from thy mothers wombe.

9 Neuertheless, for my names sake I will withdraw my wrath, & for my honours sake I will patiently forbeare thée, that I doe not roote thée out.

10 Beholde, I haue purged thée, yet not as siluer, I haue chosen thée in the fire of affliction.

11 And that only for mine owne sake, yea, euen for mine owne sake will I do this: or els what dishonour would they doe to my name? surely I will not giue my *glory vnto another. Esa.42.8.

12 Hearken vnto me, O Iacob, and Israel whom I haue called: *I am euen he that is, I am the first and the last. Esa.41.4. and 44.6.

13 My hande hath layde the foundation of the earth, and my right hande hath spanned ouer the heauens: as soone as I call them, they stand together.

14 Gather you altogether, and hearken: Which of you der gods hath declared this? The Lord hath a loue vnto him, & he shall perfourme his wil against Babel, & declare his power against the Chaldees.

15 I my selfe alone, euen I haue told you this, I did call him, and bring him forth, & he shall make his iourney prosperous.
16 Come to mee, and heare this: haue I spoken any thing darkly since the beginning? From the time that this thing beginneth, I am there: Wherefore the Lord
God and his spirite hath sent me.
17 And thus saith the Lorde God thy redeemer, the holy one of Israel, I am the Lorde thy God, which teache thee profitable things, and leade thée the way that thou shouldest goe.
18 O that thou haddest regarded my com-mandements, then had thy wealthinesse bene as the water streame, and thy righteousnesse as the waues flowing in ꝑ sea.
19 Thy seede also had bene like as the sand in the sea, and the frute of thy body like the grauell stones thereof: His name should not be rooted out, nor destroyed before me.
20 Go away from Babylon, flee from the Chaldees, with a merry voyce speake of this, declare it abroade, and go forth into Exod.17.6. the ende of the worlde, say, * The Lorde hath redéemed his seruant Iacob.
21 They suffered no thirste, he ledde them Num.20.11. thorowe the wildernesse, and caused the *waters to flowe out vnto them from out of the rocke: hée clane the rocke in sunder, and the water gushed out.
Esa.57.21. 22 As for the vngodly, * they haue no peace, sayth the Lord.

The xlix. Chapter.

6 Christ shall gather together all nations be they neuer so farre off.

1 YE Iles hearken vnto mée, and take heed ye people from farre: The Lord hath called me from my birth, and made mention of my name frō my mothers wombe:
2 He hath made my mouth like a sharpe swoorde, vnder the shadowe of his hande hath he defended me, and hid mee in his quiuer as a good arrowe, Esa.51.16. 3 And sayde vnto me, * Thou art my seruant Israel, I will be honoured in thée.
4 Then I answered, I haue lost my labour, I haue spent my strength in vaine:
Neuertheless, I will commit my cause and my worke vnto the Lord my God.
5 And nowe, sayth the Lord, euen he that fashioned me from my mothers wombe to be his seruant, that I may bring Ia-cob againe vnto him, albeit Israel will not be gathered vnto him againe, yet in Gods sight shall I be glorious, my God shalbe my strength.
6 And he sayde, It is but a small thing that thou art my seruant, to set vp the kinreds of Iacob, and to restore the destruction of Israel: * For I haue made Esa.42.6. thée the light of the Gentiles, that thou actes.13.47. mayest be my health vnto the end of the worlde.
7 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde, the redeemer and holy one of Israel, concerning the abhorred and despised among the Gentiles & the seruant of them that beare rule, kings and princes shall see, and arise, and worship, because of the Lorde that is faithfull, and because of the holy one of Israel that hath chosen thée.
8 And thus saith the Lorde, * In the time 1.Cor.6.2. accepted haue I heard thée, and in the day of saluation haue I helped thée: I wil preserue thee, and make thee to be the atonement of the people, that thou mayest helpe vp the earth againe, and possesse againe the desolate heritages:
9 That thou mayest say vnto the prisōners, Goe forth: and to them that are in darkenesse, Come into the light: they shal fede thee in the high waies, and get their pasture in all high places.
10 * They shall neither hunger, nor thirst, Rauel.7.16.
neate nor Sunne shall not hurt them: for he that fauoureth them shall leade them, and giue them drinke of the wel springs.
11 I will make waies vpon al my moun-taines & my footepaths shalbe exalted.
12 And beholde, these shal come from farre, loe some from ꝑ North and West, some from the lande of Sinis, which is in the South.
13 Reioyce ye heauens, and sing prayses thou earth, talke of ioy ye hilles: for God hath comforted his people, and will haue mercy vpon his that be in trouble.
14 But Sion said, God hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.
15 Will a woman forget her owne infant, and not pitie the sonne of her owne wombe? And though they doe forget, yet will I not forget thee.
16 Behold, I haue written thee vp vpon my handes, thy walles are euer in my sight.
17 They make haste who buylde thee vp againe: as for those that ouerthrow thée, and make thee waste, they shall depart from thée.
18 * Lift vp thine eyes, and looke about Esay.60.4.
thee, all these gather them together, and come to thee: As truely as I liue, sayth the Lorde, thou shalt put them all vpon thee as an apparell, and gyrde them vnto thée, as a bryde doth her iewels.
19 As for thy land that lyeth desolate, wasted, and destroyed, it shalbe too narrowe for them that shall dwell in it, and they ꝑ would deuoure thee, they shalbe farre away.
20 Then thy children whome the barren shall bring forth, shall say in thyne eare,
This place is too narrow, giue place that I may haue rowme.
21 Then shalt thou thinke vp thy selfe,
Who hath begotten mee these, seeing I am barren and alone, a captiue and an outcast? and who hath nourished them vp for mée? I am desolate and alone, but from whence come these?
22 And therefore thus sayth the Lorde
God, Behold, I wil stretch out my hand vnto the Gentiles, and set vp my token to

to ꝑ people, they shal bring thée thy sónes in their lappes, and carry thy daughters vnto thee vpon their shoulders.

23 For kings shalbe thy nursing fathers, & queenes shalbe thy nursing mothers: they shall fall before thee with their faces flat vpon the earth, and licke vp the dust of thy feete: that thou mayest know howe that I am the Lord, and that who so putteth their trust in me, shall not bee confounded.

24 Shall the spoyle bee taken from the mightie? or the lawfull prisoner from the taker?

25 But thus saieth the Lorde, The prisoners shalbe taken from the mightie, and the spoyle shalbe recouered from the violent: for I wil maintaine thy cause against thine aduersarie, and I wil saue thy sonnes.

26 And I will feede thine enemies with their owne flesh, and make them drunke with their own blood, as with sweete wine: And all flesh shall know, O Iacob, that I am the Lord thy sauiour, thy noble redeemer.

The l. Chapter.

The Iewes are reproued and also called.

1 THus saith the Lorde, Where is the bil of your mothers diuorcement, whome I sent away? or who is the vsurer to whome I solde you? Behold, for your offences are you solde, and because of your transgression is your mother forsaken.

2 For why woulde no man receyue mée when I came? And when I called, no man gaue me answere: *Is my hande shortened that it might not helpe? or haue I not power to deliuer? loe, at a worde I drinke vp the sea, and of water floods I make drie land: so that for want of water the fish doeth corrupt, and die for thirst.

Esa. 59. 8.

3 As for heauen, I clothe it with darkenesse, and put as it were a sacke vpon it.

4 The Lorde God hath giuen me a well learned tongue, so that I can comfort them that are troubled, yea, and that in due season: hee wakeneth mine eare vp betimes in the morning, I say betimes in the morning he wil waken mine eare, that I might hearken as to the schoolemasters.

5 The Lorde God hath opened mine eare, and I haue not gaynesayde, nor withdrawen my selfe.

The Epistle on the Tuesday before Easter. Mat. 26, 67.

6 *But I offered my backe vnto the smiters, and my cheekes vnto the nyppers: I turned not my face from shame and spittings.

7 And the Lord God shal helpe me, therefore shal I not be confounded: I haue therefore hardened my face like a flynt stone, for I am sure that I shal not come to confusion.

Rom. 8. 33.

8 *He is at hand ꝑ iustifieth me, who wil then goe with me to law? Let vs stand together, if there bee any that will reason with me, let him come here forth to me.

9 Beholde, the Lorde God wil helpe me, what is he then that can condemne me? loe, they all shal waxe olde like a cloth, ꝑ moth shal eate them vp.

10 Therefore who so feareth the Lorde among you let him heare the voyce of his seruant: Who so walketh in darkenesse and no light shineth vpon him, let him put his trust in the name of the Lord, and holde him by his God.

11 But take heede, ye all kindle a fire, and stirre vp the coales: walke on in the glistering of your owne fire, and in ꝑ coales that yee haue kindled: This commeth vnto you from my hande, namely, that ye shall sleepe in sorowe.

The li. Chapter.

Consolation and comfort is promised vnto the faithfull.

1 HEarken vnto me yee that holde of righteousnesse, and yee that seeke ꝑ Lorde: take heede to ꝑ stone where out ye are hewen, & to the graue where out ye are digged.

2 Consider Abraham your father, and Sara that bare you, howe that I called him alone, and blessed him, and encreased him.

3 Therefore shal the Lord comfort Sion, & repaire all her decay, making her desert as a paradise, and her wildernesse as the garden of the Lord: Myrth and ioy shalbe founde there, thankes giuing and the voyce of prayse.

4 Haue respect vnto mee then, O my people, both high and lowe, and lay thine eare vnto me: for a law and an ordinance shall goe forth from mee to lighten the Gentiles.

5 It is hard by that my health and my righteousnesse shall goe forth, and the people shalbe ordered with mine arme: the Ilandes, that is the Gentiles, shall hope in me, and put their trust in mine arme.

6 Lift vp your eyes toward heauen, and looke vpō the earth beneath: for the heauens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shal waxe olde like a garment, and they that dwel therein shal perish in like maner: but my saluation shall endure for euer, and my righteousnesse shal not cease.

7 Hearken vnto me yee that haue knowledge in righteousnesse, thou people, that bearest my lawe in thine heart: feare not the reuilings of men, be not afraid of their blasphemies.

8 For wormes and mothes shall eate them vp like cloth and woll: but my righteousnesse shall endure for euer, and my sauing health from generation to generation.

9 Wake vp, wake vp, & be strong, O thou arme of ꝑ Lord, wake vp, like as in time past, euer, and since the worlde began.

10 *Art not thou the same arme that hast wounded the ꝑpond, and hewē the Dragon in pieces? Art not thou euen the same which hast dryed vp ꝑ deepe of the sea, which hast made plaine þ sea grosld, that the deliuered might go thorowe?

Exod. 14. 21.

11 Therefore the redeemed of the Lorde shal turne againe, & come with ioy vnto Sion, continual ioy shalbe in their head, and mirth and gladnesse shall bee with them, and sorowe and woe shal flee from them.

12 Yea I, euen I am he that in all things giueth you consolation: what art thou then that feaRest a mortall man, and the childe of man, which goeth away as doth the floure?

13 And forgettest the Lord that made thée, that spred out the heauens, and layde þ foundation of the earth: but thou art euer afrayd for the sight of thine oppressour, which is ready to do harme: where is þ wrath of the oppressour?

14 The exile maketh haste to be loosed, that he die not in prison, and that his bread faile him not.

15 I am the Lord thy God, that deuide the sea, and his waues shall rage, whose name is the Lord of hostes.

Esa.49.3. 16 *I haue put my wordes in thy mouth, and haue defended thee in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heauēs, and lay the foundation of the earth, and say vnto Sion, Thou art my people.

17 Awake, awake, and stand vp, O Hierusalem, thou that from the hande of the Lorde hast dronken out the cup of his wrath, thou that hast supped off and sucked out the stumbling cuppe to the bottome.

18 For among all the sonnes whome hee hath gotten, there is not one that may hold it vp, and not one to leade it by the hande, of al the sonnes that he hath nourished.

Esa.47.9. 19 *Both these things are happened vnto thee, but who is sory for it? pea, destruction, wasting, hunger, and swoRde, but who will comfort thee?

20 Thy sonnes lye comfortlesse at þ head of euery streete like a taken venison, and are full of the terrible wrath of the Lord, and punishment of thy God.

21 And therefore thou miserable and dronken, (howbeit not with wine) heare this:

22 Thus saieth the Lord, thy Lord & God, the defender of his people, Behold, I will take the stumbling cup out of his hand, euen the cuppe with the dregges of my wrath, that from henceforth thou shalt neuer dronke of it more:

23 But I will put it into their hand that trouble thee, which haue spoken to thy soule, Stowpe downe, that we may goe ouer thee, make thy body euen with the grounde, and as the streete to goe vpon.

The lii. Chapter.

An exhortation and comfort to the people of God.

1 VP Sion, vp, take thy strength vnto thee, put on thine honest rayment, O Hierusalem, thou holy citie: for from this time forth there shal no vncircumcised nor vncleane person come in thee.

2 Shake thee from the dust, arise & stande vp, O Hierusalem: plucke out thy necke from the bonde, O thou captiue daughter Sion.

3 For thus sayeth the Lorde, Yee are solde for nought, therefore shal ye be redeemed also without any money.

4 *For thus saith the Lord God, My people went downe aforetime into Egypt, there to be strangers, and the king of the Assyrians oppressed them without any cause. Gen.46.6.

5 And now, what profite is it to me, saith þ Lord, *that my people is freely carped away, and brought into heauinesse by their rulers, and my name euer stil blasphemed, saith the Lord? Exe.36.20. rom.2.24.

6 But that my people may knowe my name. I my selfe wil speake in that day. Behold, here am I.

7 *O how beautiful are the feete of the ambassadour that bringeth the message frō the mountaine, and proclaimeth peace: that bringeth the good tidings, and preacheth health, and saith vnto Sion, Thy God is the king. Num.1.15. rom.10.15.

8 Thy watchmen shall lift vp their voyce, with loude voyce they shal reioyce together: for they shall see plainely when the Lord shal conuert Sion.

9 Be glad, O thou desolate Hierusalem, & reioyce together: for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath deliuered Hierusalem.

10 The Lorde hath made bare his holy arme, and shewed it foorth in the sight of al the Gentiles, *and al the endes of þ earth haue seene the sauing health of our God. Psal.98.2.

11 Away, away, *get you out from hence, and touch no vncleane thing: go out frō among such, & bee cleane that beare the vessel of the Lorde. 2.Cor.6.17.

12 For ye shall not escape by running, nor by fleeing away: but the Lorde shal goe before you, and the God of Israel shall gather you together.

13 Beholde, my *seruant shal deale prosperously, therefore shal he be magnified, exalted, and greatly honoured. 2 Christ is called Gods seruant, for his office sake, which he exercised in the time of his abasing himselfe in the flesh.

14 Like as the multitude shal wonder vpon him, because his face shalbe so deformed, and not as mans face, his beautie like no man:

15 Euen so shall the multitude of the Gētiles speake of him, and kings shall shut their mouths before him: *for they haue seene that which was not tolde to them, and haue vnderstood that whereof they haue not heard. Rom.15.21.

The liii. Chapter.

He prophecieth euidently of the passion of our sauiour Jesus Christ.

1 BVt *who hath giuen credēce vnto our preaching? or to whome is the arme of the Lord knowen? Iohn 12.38. rom.10.16.

2 For he did growe before the Lorde, like as a branche, and as a roote in a dry ground, ground, he hath neither beautie nor fauour: when wee looke vpon him there shalde no fairenesse, we shall haue no lust vnto him.

Mar.9.12. 3 *He is despised and abhorred of men, he is such a man as hath good experience of sorowes and infirmities: We haue reckoned him so vile, that we hid our faces from him.

Mat.8.17. 1.Pet.2.24. 4 *Howbeit, he onely hath taken on him our infirmitie, and borne our paines: yet we did iudge him as though hee were plagued, and cast downe of God.

1.Cor.15.3. 5 *Whereas hee notwithstanding was wounded for our offences, and smitten for our wickednesse: for the paine of our punishment was laied vpon him, and with his stripes are we healed.

6 As for vs, we are all gone astray like sheepe, euery one hath turned his owne way: but the Lorde hath throwen vpon him al our sinnes.

Iob.10.19. mat.26.63. 7 *He suffred violence, and was euill intreated, and did not open his mouth: he shal be led as a sheepe to be slaine, yet shal he be as still as a lambe before the shearer, *and not open his mouth.

Act.8.33. 8 From the prison and iudgement was he taken, and his generation who can declare? for hee was cut off from the ground of the liuing, which punishment did goe vpon him for the transgression of my people.

9 His graue was giuen him with the cõdemned, and with the riche man at his death, *whereas hee did neuer violence nor vnright, neither hath there bene any deceitfulnesse in his mouth.

1.Pet.2.22. 10 Yet hath it pleased the Lorde to smite him with infirmitie, that when hee had made his soule an offering for sinne, hee might see long lasting seede: and this deuise of the Lord shal prosper in his hãds.

11 Of the trauell and labour of his soule shall he see the fruite, and be satisfied: my righteous seruant shall with his knowledge iustifie the multitude, for he shall beare their sinnes.

12 Therefore will I giue him among the great ones his part, and hee shall deuide the spoyle with the mightie, because hee giueth ouer his soule to death, *and is reckoned among the trãsgressers: which neuertheless hath take away the sinnes of the multitude, and made intercession for the misdoers.

Mar.15.28. luke 22.37.

The liiii. Chapter.

1 Of the great dominion of Christ. 7 The indignation of God endureth but a short space, but his mercie is euer lasting.

Luke 23.29. Gal.4.27. 1 BE *glad now thou barren that bearest not, reioyce, sing, and be merry, thou that art not with child: for the desolate hath mo children then the maried wife, saieth the Lord.

2 Make thy tent wider, and spread out the hangings of thine habitation: spare not, lap forth thy cordes, and make fast thy stakes:

3 For thou shalt bee multiplied on the right side, and on the left, and thy seede shall haue the gentiles in possession, and dwell in the desolate cities.

4 Feare not, for thou shalt not be confounded: be not ashamed, for thou shalt not come to confusion: yea, thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the dishonour of thy widowhead.

5 For he that made thee, shalbe thy Lorde and husband (whose *name is the Lorde of hostes) and thy redeemer shall be euen the holy one of Israel, and the Lorde of the whole world. Luke 1.25

6 For the Lord hath called thee being as a desolate sorowfull woman, and as a yong wife *who was forsake, saith thy God.

7 A litle while haue I forsaken thee: but with great mercifulnes shall I take thee vp vnto me.

8 When I was angry, I hidde my face from thee for a litle season: but through euerlasting goodnesse haue I pardoned thee, saith the Lord thy redeemer.

Gen.9.11. 9 *And this is vnto me as the water of Noe: for like as I haue sworne that I will not bring the water of Noe any more vpon the world: so haue I sworne that I will neuer be angry with thee, nor reproue thee.

10 The mountaines shall remoue, and the hilles shal fall downe, but my louing kindnes shall not remoue, and the bond of my peace shall not fall downe from thee, saieth the Lord, thy mercifull louer.

11 Behold, thou poore, vexed, and despised, I will make thy walles of precious stones, and thy foundation of Saphires.

12 Thy windowes of Christal, thy gates of fine cleare stone, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

John 6.45. 13 *Thy children shal be al taught of God, I wil giue thee plenteousnesse of peace.

14 In righteousnesse shalt thou be grounded, and be farre from oppression: for the which thou needest not to be afraid, nor ther for hinderance, for it shall not come nigh thee.

15 Loe, who so gathereth together against thee, doth it without mee, and who so withm thee, doth ioyne together against thee, shall surely fall.

16 Beholde, I make the Smith that blowe th the coales in the fire, and he maketh a weapõ after his handy worke: I make also the waster to destroy.

17 But all the weapons that are made against thee, shall not prosper: and as for all tongues that shall resist thee in iudgement, thou shalt ouercome them, and condemne them: this is the heritage of the Lordes seruants, and their righteousnes commeth of me, saieth the Lord.

The lv. Chapter.

1 An exhortation and comfort to the people. 9 The fruite and profite that commeth of the word of God.

COme to the waters, *all ye that bee thirstie, and ye that haue no money, come buy, that ye may haue to eate: come buy wine and milke without any money, or money worth. Eccl.51.34.

2 Wherefore doe ye lay out any money for the thing that feedeth not, and spend your labour about the thing that satisfieth you not? But hearken rather vnto me, and ye shall eate of the best, and your soule shall haue her pleasure in plenteousnesse.

3 Encline your eares, and come vnto me, take heede I say and your soule shall liue: for I will make an euerlasting couenant with you, *euē the sure mercies of Dauid. *Act.13.34.

4 Beholde, I gaue him for a witnesse among the folke, for a prince and teacher vnto the people.

5 Loe, thou shalt call an vnknowen people: and a people that had no knowledge of thee, shall runne vnto thee, because of the Lorde thy God, and the holy one of Israel which glorifieth thee.

6 Seeke the Lord while he may be found, and call vpon him while he is nigh.

7 Let the vngodly man forsake his owne wayes, and the vnrighteous his owne imaginations, and turne againe vnto the Lord, so shal he be merciful vnto him, and to our God, for he is very readye to forgiue.

8 For thus saith the Lord, My thoughts are not your thoughts, and your wayes are not my wayes.

9 But as farre as the heauens are higher then the earth: so farre do my wayes excede yours, and my thoughts yours.

10 And like as the raine and snowe commeth downe from heauen, and returneth not thither againe, but watereth the earth, maketh it fruitfull and greene, that it may giue corne vnto the sower, and bread to him that eateth:

11 So the worde also that commeth out of my mouth, shall not turne againe vnto me, but shall accomplish my will, & prosper in the thing whereto I send it.

12 And ye shall go forth with ioy, and be led with peace: the mountaines and hils shall sing with you for ioy, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 For thornes there shall growe firre trees, and the myrthe tree in steade of briers: and this shal be done to the praise of the Lord, and for an euerlasting token that shall not be taken away.

The lvi. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to iudgement and righteousnesse, and to the spirituall keeping of the Sabboth. 10 Against shepheards that deuoure the flocke.

1 THus saith the Lord, *Keepe equitie, and do right: for my saluing health shall come shortly, and my righteousnesse shalbe opened. *Wisd.1.1.

2 Blessed is the man that doth this, & the mans child which keepeth the same: he that taketh heede that he vnhalowe not the Sabboth, that is, he that keepeth himselfe that he do no euill.

3 Then shall not the stranger which cleaueth vnto the Lord, say, Alas, the Lorde hath shut me cleane out from his people: neither shall the gelded man say, Loe, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the Lorde vnto the gelded that keepeth my Sabboth, namely, that holdeth greatly of the thing that pleaseth mee, and keepeth my couenant:

5 Vnto them wil I giue in my house hold, and within my walles, a better heritage and name, then if they had bene called sonnes and daughters: I will giue them an euerlasting name that shall not perish.

6 Againe, the strangers that sticke to the Lord to serue him, and to loue his name, and to be his seruats, and all they which keepe themselues that they vnhalowe not the Sabboth, namely, that they fulfil my couenant:

7 Them will I bring to my holy mountaine, and make them ioyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and sacrifices shall be accepted vpon mine altar: * for my house shal be called an house of prayer for all people. *Mat.21.13. mar.11.17. luke19.46.

8 Thus saith the Lord God which gathereth together the scattered of Israel, I will bring yet another congregation to him.

9 Come all ye beasts of the field, that ye may deuoure, and also all ye beasts of the wood.

10 For his watchmen are all blinde, they haue altogether no vnderstanding, they are all dumbe dogges, not being able to barke, they are slepie, sluggish are they and lie snorting.

11 They are shamelesse dogs that be neuer satisfied: the shepheards also in like maner haue no vnderstanding, * but euery man turneth his owne way, euery one after his owne couetousnesse with all his power. *Iere.6.13.

12 *Come say they I will fetch wine, so shall we fill our selues, that we may bee drunken: and to morowe like as to day, yea, and much more. *Sap.2.6.

The lvii Chapter.

1 The good men are taken away. 3 The wicked ones take pleasure in idolatrie, the godly receiue comfort. the wicked doth perish.

1 THe righteous perisheth, and no man regardeth it in his heart: good godly people are taken away, and no man considereth it, namely, that the righteous is conueied away from the wicked.

2 He commeth into peace, and godly men rest in their chambers, and before the godly man goeth peace.

3 Come hither therefore ye charmers children, ye sonnes of the aduulterer, and the whore.

4 Wherein take ye your pleasure? vpon whom gape ye with your mouth, and bleare out your tongue? are ye not children of transgression, and a seede of dissimulation?

5 Ye make your fires vnder the okes, and vnder all greene trees, and ye offer children in the valleis and dennes of stone.

6 Thy part shall be with the stony rockes by the riuer, yea, euen these shall be thy parte part: for there thou hast powred meate & drinke offering vnto them: should I delight in that?

7 Thou hast made thy bedde vpon high mountaines, thou wentest vp thyther, & there thou hast slaine sacrifices.

8 Behynde the doores and postes hast thou set vp thy remembrance, when thou hadst discouered thy selfe to another then mee, when thou wentest vp, and made thy bedde wider, and with those idoles hast thou made a couenant, and louedst their couches where thou sawest them.

9 Thou wentest straight to kinges with ople and diuers ointments, that is, thou hast sent thy messengers farre off, and yet art thou fallen into the pit.

10 Thou art wearye for the multitude of thine awne wayes, yet saidest thou neuer, There is no hope: thou hast had the life that thy handes wrought, and therefore thou art careles.

11 For whome wilt thou be abashed or feare, seeing thou hast broke thy promise, and remembrest not me, neither hast me in thine heart? Thinkest thou that I also will hold my peace as afore time, that thou fearest me not?

12 Yea verily I wil declare thy goodnes and thy workes, but they shall not profite thee.

13 When thou criest, let thy chosen heape deliuer thee: but the winde shall blowe them foorth, and vanitie shall take them al away: neuertheles, they that put their trust in me, shall inherit ꝑ land, and haue my holy hill in possession.

Esai.40.4.and 62.10. 14 *And therefore thus hee saith, Make plaine, make plaine, and cleanse streete, take vp the stumbling blockes out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saieth the high and excellent, euen hee that dwelleth in euerlastingnesse, whose name is the holy one: I dwel high above, and in the sanctuarie, and with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit do I dwel, that I may reuiue a troubled minde, and a contrite heart.

16 For I chide not euer, and am not wroth without ende: but the blasting goeth from me, and is included in the breth, and I made the breath.

17 I am wroth with him for his couetousnesse, I smite him, I hide mee and am angry, and he turneth himselfe, and followeth the way of his owne heart.

18 I haue seene his wayes, and I heale him, I leade him, & restore to him comfort, and to those that were sory for him.

19 I make the fruites of thanksgiuing, ꝑ he may say, Peace, peace, vnto them that are farre off, and vnto them that are nigh, saith the Lord, I make him whole.

20 But the wicked are like the raging sea ꝑ cannot rest, whose water foameth with the mire and grauel.

Esa.48.22. 21 *Euen so the wicked haue no peace, saith God.

The lviii. Chapter.

1 The Lorde (by the mouth of the Prophet) reproueth the people for their fastings, 5 which were full of hypocrisie.

1 CRie nowe as loude as thou canst, leaue not off, lift vp thy voyce like a trumpet, and shewe my people their offences, and the house of Iacob their sinnes.

2 For they seeke me daily, and wil know my waies, euen as it were a people that did right, and had not forsaken the statutes of their God: they aske of me concerning right iudgement, and will bee nigh vnto God.

3 Wherefore fast we, say they, & thou seest it not? wee put our liues to straitnes, and thou regardest it not.

4 Beholde, when yee fast, your lust remaineth stil, for ye do no lesse violence to your debters: loe, yee fast to strife and debate, and to smite with your fist without mercie: nowe yee shal not fast thus, that your voyce might be heard aboue.

5 *Thinke ye this fast pleaseth me, that a man shoulde chasten himselfe for a day? and to hang downe his head like a bulrush, and to lye vpon the earth in an heary cloth? Should that be called fasting, or a day that pleaseth the Lord? Zach.7.5.

6 Doeth not this fasting rather please me, That thou loose the wicked bandes, that thou take off the ouer heauie burdens, ꝑ thou let the oppressed go free, and breake all maner of yoke?

7 *To deale thy bread to the hungry, and to bring the poore wandring home into thy house? when thou seest the naked, ꝑ thou couer him, and hide not thy selfe from thine owne flesh? Ezech.18.16. mat.25.35.

8 Then shal thy light breake forth as the morning, and thy health florish right hastily: righteousnes shal go before thee, and the glory of the Lorde shall embrace thee:

9 Then if thou call, the Lord shall answere thee, if thou cryest, hee shall say, Here I am: yea, if thou lapest away from thee thy burdens, and holdest thy fingers, and ceasest from vngratious talking:

10 If thou hast compassion vpon the hungry, and refreshest the troubled soule, then shal thy light spring out in ꝑ darknesse, and thy darkenesse shalbe as the noone day.

11 The Lorde shall euer bee thy guide, and satisfie the desire of thy heart in the time of drought, and fil thy bones with marowe: thou shalt bee like a fresh watered garden, and like the fountaine of water that neuer leaueth running.

12 *Then the places that haue euer bene waste, shalbe builded of thee, there shalt thou lay a foundatiõ for many kinreds: thou shalt bee called the maker vp of the breache, and the builder againe of the way to dwell in. Esa.61.4.

13 Yea, if thou turne thy feete from the Sabboth, so that thou doe not thy thing which pleaseth thy selfe in my holy day, and thou call the pleasant, holy, and glorious Sabboth of the Lorde, and that ꝑ giue him the honour, so that thou doe not after thine own imagination, neither seeke thine owne wil, nor speake thine owne wordes:

14 Then shalt thou haue thy pleasure in ꝑ Lorde, and I will carry thee high aboue the earth, and feede thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the Lordes owne mouth hath so promised.

The lix. Chapter.

1 The Lord is mighty to saue, and readie to heare our requests. 2 Our sinnes are the cause why God heareth not vs, neither graunteth our requests.

Esai. 50.2. num. 11.23. 1 BEholde, * the Lordes hand is not so shortened that it cannot helpe, neither is his eare so stopped ꝑ it may not heare.

2 But your mislikes haue separated you from your God, and your sinnes hide his face from you, that he heareth you not.

Esai. 1.15. 3 * For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with vnrighteousnes: your lippes speake leasings, and your tongue setteth out wickednesse.

4 No man regardeth righteousnesse, and no man iudgeth truely: euery man hopeth in vayne things, and imagineth deceite, * conceiueth wearinesse, and bringeth forth euil.

Iob. 15.35. Psal. 7.15.

5 They hatche Cockatrise egges, & weaue the Spiders webbe, who so eateth of their egges dyeth: but if one treade vpon them, there commeth vp a serpent.

6 Their webbe maketh no cloth, and they may not couer them with their labours: their deedes are the deedes of wickednesse, and the worke of robberie is in their handes.

Pro. 1.16. rom. 3.15. 7 * Their feete runne to euil, and they make haste to sheade innocent blood, their counsels are wicked counsels, harme and destruction are in their wayes.

8 But the way of peace they knowe not, in their goings is no equitie: their waies are so crooked, that whosoeuer goeth therein, knoweth of no peace.

9 And this is the cause that equitie is so farre from vs, and that righteousnesse cõmeth not nigh vs: we looke for light, loe, it is darknesse: for the morning shine, see, we walke in the darke.

10 We grope like the blinde vpon ꝑ wall, we grope euen as one that hath no eyes, we stumble at the noone day as though it were toward night in the falling places, like men that are halfe dead.

11 We roze all like Beares, and mourne shil like doues: we looke for equitie, but there is none: for health, but it is farre from vs.

12 For our offences are many before thee, and our sinnes testifie against vs: yea, we must confesse that we offend, and knowledge that we do amisse:

13 Namely, transgresse and dissemble against the Lord, and fall away from our God, vsing presumptuous & traiterous imaginations, and casting false matters in our hearts.

14 And therefore is equitie gone aside, and righteousnesse standeth farre off, trueth is fallen downe in the streete, and the thing that is plaine and open, may not be shewed.

15 Yea, the trueth is taken away, and hee that refraineth himselfe from euil, must bee spoiled: when the Lord saw this, it displeased him sore that there was no equitie.

16 Hee sawe also that there was no man righteous, and hee wondered that there was no man to helpe him: wherefore he helpe him by his owne power, and hee sustained him by his own righteousnes.

17 * He put righteousnesse vpon him for a brestplate, he set the helmet of health vpon his heade: he put on wrath in the stead of clothing, and tooke zelousie about him for a cloke. Eph. 6.17.1, thes. 5.8.

18 Euen as when a man goeth forth wrathfully to recompense his enemies, and to bee auenged of his aduersaries, hee will recompense and rewarde the Ilands.

19 They shall feare the name of the Lorde from the rising of the sunne, and his maiestie vnto the going downe of the same: for hee shall come as a violent water streame, which the wind of the Lord hath mooued.

20 But vnto * Sion there shall come a redeemer, and vnto them in Jacob that turne from wickednesse, saieth the Lord. Rom. 11.26.

21 I will make this couenant with them (saieth the Lorde:) My spirite that is vpon thee, and the wordes which I haue put in thy mouth, shall neuer goe out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy childrens children, from this time forth for euermore world without ende, saieth the Lord.

The lx. Chapter.

1 A consolation and comfort to Hierusalem. 5 The Church is gathered together among the Gentiles by preaching of the Gospel, 16 and aboundeth with al good things.

1 GEt thee vp betimes and be bright, O Hierusalem, for thy light commeth, and the glory of the Lorde is risen vp vpon thee.

2 For loe, while the darkenesse and cloud couereth the earth & the people, ꝑ Lorde shal shew thee light, and his glory shal be seene in thee.

3 The Gentiles shall come to thy light, & kinges to the brightnes that springeth foorth vpon thee.

4 * Lift vp thine eyes, and looke roumde about thee: all these gather themselues & come to thee, thy sonnes shal come vnto thee from farre, and thy daughters shall gather themselues to thee on euery side. Esai. 49.18.

5 Then thou shalt see this, & bee glorious, thou thou shalt marualle exceedingly, & thine heart shall bee opened: when the abundance of the sea shall be conuerted vnto thee, that is, when the riches of the Gentiles shall come vnto thee,

6 The multitude of Camels shall couer thee, the dromedaries of Madian and Epha: all they of Saba shall come, bringing gold and incense, and shewing the prayse of the Lord.

7 All the cattell of Cedar shalbe gathered vnto thee, the rammes of Nabaioth shal serue thee, to be offered acceptably vpon mine altar: and the house of my glorie will I garnish.

8 But what are these that flée here like the clouds, and as the doues flying to their windowes?

9 The Iles also shal wait for me, & specially the ships of Tharsis, that they may bring thy sonnes from farre, and their siluer and their gold with them, vnto the name of the Lord thy God, vnto the holy one of Israel that hath glorified thee.

10 Strangers shal build vp thy walles, & their kings shal do thée seruice: for when I was angry, I smote thée, and of my mercy I pardoned thée.

Apoc.21.24. 11 *Thy gates shall stande open still both day and night, & neuer be shut, that the host of the Gentiles may come, and that their kings may be brought vnto thee.

12 For euery people and kingdome that serueth not thee shall perish, and bee destroyed with vtter destruction.

13 The glorie of Libanus shall come vnto thee, the firre trées, bores, and Cedars together, to garnish the place of my sanctuarie: for I will glorifie the place of my fóte.

14 Moreouer, those shall come kneeling vnto thee that haue vexed thee, and all they that despise thee, shall fall downe at thy foote: thou shalt be called, The citie of the Lord, Sion the citie of the holy one of Israel.

15 Because thou hast bene forsaken & hated, so that no man went thorow thee: I will make thee glorious for euer & euer, and ioyfull throughout all posterities.

16 Thou shalt sucke the milke of the Gentiles, and kings breasts shall fede thee, and thou shalt know that I the Lord am thy sauiour and redéemer, the mightie one of Jacob.

17 For brasse, will I giue thée golde, and for iron, siluer: for wood, brasse: and for stones, iron: I will turne thine oppression into peace, and thine exactions into righteousnesse.

18 Violence and robberie shall neuer bée heard of in thy land, neither harme and destruction within thy borders: thy walles shalbe called health, and thy gates the prayse of God.

Apoc.21.23. 19 *The Sunne shall neuer bee thy day light, and the light of the moone shal neuer shine vnto thee: but the Lord himselfe shalbe thine euerlasting light, and thy God shall be thy glorie.

20 Thy Sunne shal neuer go downe, and thy Moone shall not be hid: for the Lorde himselfe shall be thine euerlasting light, and thy sorowfull dayes shalbe ended.

21 The people shall be all righteous and possesse the land euer, the flowre of my planting, the worke of my hands wherof I will reioyce.

22 The youngest and least shall growe into a thousand, and the simplest into a strong people: I the Lorde shall shortly bring this thing to passe in his time.

The lxi. Chapter.

He prophecieth that Christ shall be anointed and sent to preach,

1 THe spirit of the Lord is *vpon me: for the Lord hath anointed me, and sent me to preach good tidings vnto the poore, that I might binde vp the wounded hearts, that I might preach deliuerance to the captiue, and open the prison to them that are bound: Luke 4.18.

2 That I might declare the acceptable yéere of the Lord, and the day of the vengeance of our God: that I might comfort all them that are in *heauinesse: Mat.5.3.

3 That I might giue vnto them that mourne in Sion, that I might giue, I say, beautie in stead of ashes, ioyfull ointment for sighing, pleasant rayment for an heauy minde, that they might be called trées of righteousnesse, a planting of the Lord for him to reioyce in.

4 *They shall build the long rough wildernesse, and set vp the old desert: they shall repaire the waste places, and such as haue bene void throughout many generations, Esa.58.12.

5 Strangers shall stande and fede your cattel, and the aliants shalbe your plowmen, and dressers of your vines.

6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the Lorde, and men shall call you the seruants of our God: yee shall enioy the goods of the Gentiles, and triumph in their substance.

7 For your great reproofe you shall haue double ioy, and for shame shal they haue ioy of their portion: for they shall haue double possession in their land, & euerlasting ioy shall be with them.

8 For I the Lord which loue right, and hate robberie (though it were offred me) shall make their workes full of faithfulnesse, and make an euerlasting couenant with them.

9 Their séede also and their generation shall bee knowen among the Gentiles, and among the people: all they that see them, shall know that they are the high blessed séede of the Lord.

10 And therefore I am ioyfull in the Lord, and my soule reioyceth in God: for hee hath put vpon me the garment of saluation, and couered me with the mantle of righteousnesse: Ye shall decke me like a bridegroome, and as a bride that hath her apparell vpon her.

11 For like as the ground bringeth forth her fruite, and as the garden shooteth forth foorth séede: so shall the Lorde God cause righteousnes and praise to flourish foorth before all the heathen.

The lxii. Chapter.

A prophecie of the comming of Christ.

1 FOr Sions sake will I not holde my tongue, and for Hierusalems sake I will not cease, vntil their righteousnes breake foorth as the shining light, and their saluation as a burning lampe.

2 Then shall the Gentiles see thy righteousnesse, and all kings thy glorie: thou shalt be named with a new name, which the mouth of the Lord shall shew.

3 Thou shalt be a crowne in the hand of the Lorde, and a glorious garland in the hand of thy God.

4 From this time foorth thou shalt neuer be called, The forsaken, and thy land shall no more be called, The wildernesse: but thou shalt bée called, My pleasure is in her: and thy lande shall bée called, The maried woman: for the Lord loueth thée, and thy lande shall bée ioyned in mariage.

5 And like as a young man taketh a virgine to mariage, so shall thy sonnes bée maried vnto thée: and as a bridegroome is glad of his bride, so shall thy God reioyce ouer thée.

6 I haue set watchmen vpon thy walles, O Hierusalem, which shall neither cease day nor night to preach the Lord: and ye also that remember the Lord, ye shal not kéepe him close,

7 Nor leaue to speake of him, vntill Hierusalem be set vp, and made the praise of the worlde.

8 The Lorde hath sworne by his right hand and by his strong arme, that from henceforth he will not giue thy corne to be meate for thine enemies, nor thy wine wherein thou hast laboured, to be drinke for the strangers.

9 But they that haue gathered in the corne, shal eate it, and giue thanks to the Lord: and they that haue borne in the wine, shall drinke it in the court of my sanctuarie.

Esai.57.14. 10 *Goe you, goe you thorowe the gates, make cleane the way for the people, make plaine, make plaine the foorepath, and take away the stones out of it, and set out a token for the people.

Zach.9.9. mat.21.5. 11 Behold, the Lord proclaimeth vnto the ends of the worlde, *Tell the daughter Sion, Sée, thy sauiour commeth, behold, he bringeth his recompence with him, and his worke before him.

12 For they whome the Lord deliuereth, shall be called, The holy people: and as for thée, thou shalt be named, The greatly occupied, and not, The forsaken citie.

The lxiii. Chapter.

Of the redemption promised to the people.

The Epistle on the Munday before Easter.

1 WHat is hee this that commeth from Edom, with red coloured clothes from Bosra? He is honorably araied, and commeth in mightie with his power: I am he that teacheth righteousnes, and am of power to helpe.

2 *Wherefore then is thy clothing red, and thy raiment like his that treadeth in the wine presse? Apoc.19.13.

3 I haue troden the presse my selfe alone, and of all people there is not one with me: thus wil I tread them downe in my wrath, and set my feete vpon them in mine indignation, and their blood shalbe sprong vpon my clothes, and so will I stayne all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is assigned in my heart, and the yeere when my people shalbe deliuered, is come.

5 I looked about mee, and there was no man to helpe me any helpe, I marueiled that no man held me vp: then I held me vp mine owne arme, and my fiercenesse sustained me.

6 And thus will I treade downe the people in my wrath, and bathe them in my displeasure, and vpon the earth will I lay their strength.

7 I will declare the goodnesse of the Lord, yea and the prayse of the Lord for al that he hath giuen vs, for the great good that he hath done for Israel, which her hath giuen them of his owne fauour, and according to the multitude of his louing kindnesse.

8 For he said, These no doubt are my people, & no shrinking children: and so was he their sauiour.

9 In their troubles, he was also troubled with them, and the Angel that went forth from his presence deliuered them: of very loue and kindnesse that hee had vnto them hee redéemed them, hee hath borne them & caried them vp euer since the world began.

10 But after they prouoked him to wrath, and vexed his holy spirit, he was their enemie, & fought against them himselfe.

11 Yet remembred Israel the old time of Moses and his people, saying, *Where Exod.14.30. is he that brought them from the water of the sea, with the chiefe of his sheepe? Where is hee that hath giuen his holy spirit among them?

12 He led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arme, deuiding the water before them, whereby he gate him selfe an euerlasting name.

13 He ledde them in the deepe as an horse is ledde in the plaine, that they should not stumble.

14 As a tame beast goeth in the field, and the spirit of God giueth him rest: thus (O God) hast thou ledde thy people, to make thy selfe a glorious name withall.

15 *Looke downe then from heauen, and Deut.26.15. Baruc.2.16. behold from the dwelling place of thy sanctuarie and thy glorie: how is it that thy zeale, thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, and thy louing kindnesse will not be intreated of vs?

16 Yet art thou our father: for Abraham knoweth vs not, neither is Israel acquainted with vs: but thou Lord art our father father and redeemer, and thy name is euerlasting.

17 O Lord, wherefore hast thou ledde vs out of the way? wherfore hast thou hardened our hearts that we feare thee not?
Wee at one with vs againe for thy ser-uants sake, and for the generation of thine heritage.
18 Thy holy people haue had but a litle while thy sanctuarie in possessiō, for our enemies haue troden downe thy holy place.
19 And wee were thine from the beginning, when thou wast not their Lord, for they haue not called vpon thy name.

The lxiiii. Chapter.

The Prophet (vnder the person of the Iewes) bewaileth their exile and banishment. 6 Mans righteousnesse is like a cloth defiled.

1 O That thou wouldest cleane ꝑ hea-uens in sunder and come downe, that the mountaines might melt away at thy presence, 2 Like as at an hote fire, and that the malicious might boile away as ꝑ water doeth vpon the fire: wherebp thy name might be knowen among thine enemies, and that the Gentiles might tremble before thee.
3 When thou wroughtest wonderous strange workes, we looked not for them:
thou camest downe, and the hils melted at thy presence.
Esa.64.4. 4 *For since the beginning of the world, it hath not bene heard or perceiued, neither hath anp eye seene another God beside thee, which doest so much for them that put their trust in thee.
5 Thou helpest him that doeth right with cheerefulnesse, & them that thinke vpon thee in thy wayes: but lo, thou hast bene angrp, for wee offended, and haue bene euer in sinne, though ꝑ world haue cleaue to them, yet shall we be saued.
6 We are all as an vncleane thing, and all our righteousnes is as filthie ragges:
we fal euerp one as ꝑ leafe, for our sinnes carp vs awap like the winde.
7 There is no man that calleth vpon thy name, that standeth vp to take holde vp thee: therefore hidest thou thy face from vs, and consumest vs, because of our sinnes.
8 But now, O Lord, thou father of ours, we are thy clap, and thou art our potter,
and we all are the worke of thy handes.
Psal.78.9. 9 *Be not too sore displeased, O Lord, and keepe not our offences too long in thy remembrance: but consider that wee all are thy people.
10 The cities of thy sanctuarie lie waste, Sion is a wildernes, and Hierusalem a desert.
11 Our holy house, which is our beautie, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt vp: yea, all our commodities and pleasures are wasted away.
12 Wilt thou not be intreated, O Lord, for all this? wilt thou holde thy peace, and scourge vs so sore?

The lxv. Chapter.

The reiecting of the Iewes, and the calling of the Heathen.

1 THey *seeke mee, that hitherto haue not asked for me, they find mee, that hitherto haue not sought me: I haue said, I am here, I am here, I am found of a people ꝑ neuer called vpon my name.
2 For thus long haue I euer holden out mine handes to an vnfaithfull people, that go not the right way, but after their owne imagination:
3 To a people that is euer defying me to my face, they make their oblatiōs in gardens, & their smoke vpon altars of bricke.
4 They lurke among the graues, and lie in the dennes all night: they eate swines flesh, and vncleane broth is in their vessels.
5 If thou commest nigh them, they say, Touch mee not, for I am holier then thou: All these men when I am angrp, shalbe turned to smoke and fire that shal burne for ever.
6 Behold, it was written before my face, and shal not be forgotte, but recōpenced,
I will reward it thē into their bosome.
7 I meane your misdeedes, and the misdeedes of your fathers together, saith the Lord, which haue made their smokes vp-on the mountaines, and blasphemed me vpon ꝑ hils: therefore will I measure their old deedes into their bosome againe.
8 Moreouer, thus saith the Lord, Like as when newe wine is founde in the cluster, and one saith, Lose it not, for there is blessing therein: euen so will I doe also for my seruauntes sakes, that I will not destroy them all.
9 But I will take a seede out of Iacob, & out of Iuda one, to take possession of my hill: My chosen shall possesse it, and my seruants shall dwell there.
10 Saron shall be a sheepefolde, and the valley of Achor shall giue the stalling for the cattell of my people ꝑ seeke after me.
11 But as for you, yee are they that haue forsaken the Lord, and forgotten my holy hill: ye haue let vp an altar vnto Iupiter, and giuen riche drinke offerings vnto the planets:
12 Therefore will I number you to the swoorde, that ye shall bee destroyed altogether: *for that when I called, no man gaue me answere, whē I spake, ye hearkened not vnto me, but did wickednesse before mine eyes, and chose the things that pleased me not.
13 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God,
Behold, my seruants shall eate, but yee shall haue hunger: behold, my seruants shall drinke, but ye shall suffer thirst: be-holde, my seruants shall be merp, but ye shalbe confounded:
14 Behold, my seruants shall reioyce for verp quietnesse of heart, but ye shall crp for sorowe of heart, and complaine for veration of minde.
15 Your name shall yee leaue accursed among my chosen: for God the Lorde shall shall slap you, and call his seruants by another name.

16 Who so reioyceth vpon earth, shall reioyce in the true God, and who so sweareth vpon earth, shall sweare in the true God, for the olde afflictions shalbe forgotten, and taken away out of my sight.

3.Pet.3.13. Apoc.21.1. 17 * For loe, I shall make a newe heauen and a newe earth: and as for the olde, they shall neuer bee thought vpon, nor kept in minde:

18 But the Lord saith, Bee glad and euermore reioyce for the things that I shall doe: for why? beholde, I will make a ioyfull Hierusalem, & his people ioyfull.

19 Yea, I my selfe will reioyce with Hierusalem, and be glad with my people: & the voyce of weeping and wayling shall not be heard in her from thencefoorth.

20 There shall neither bee childe nor olde man that haue not their full dayes: but when the childe commeth to an hundred yeeres olde, it shall dye, and if bee that is an hundred yeeres of age doe wrong, he shalbe cursed.

21 They shall builde houses and dwell in them, they shall plant vineyardes, and eate the fruite of them.

22 They shall not build, and another possesse: they shall not plant, and another eate: but the life of my people shalbe like a tree, and mine elect shall enioy still the worke of their handes.

23 They shall not labour in vayne, nor beget with trouble: for they are the ioyfull seede of the Lord, and their fruits with them.

Psal.31.5. 24 * And it shalbe, that or euer they call, I will answere them, whyle they are yet but thinking howe to speake, I will heare them.

Esai.11.6. 25 * The wolfe and the lambe shall feede together, and the Lion shall eate hay like the bullocke, but earth shalbe the Serpents meate: there shall no man hurt nor slay another in all my holy hill, saith the Lord.

The lxvi. Chapter.

1 God dwelleth not in temples made by mens handes. 3 He despiseth sacrifices done without mercy and faith. 5 God comforteth them that are troubled for his sake. 23 Among the Christen the Sabboth is continually.

Act.7.48. 1 THus saith the Lord, * Heauen is my seate, and the earth is my footestoole: Where shall nowe the house stande that ye will builde vnto me? And where shalbe the place that I will dwell in?

2 As for these things, my handes hath made them all, and they are all created, saith the Lord, which of them shall I the regarde? Euen him that is poore and of a lowly troubled spirite, and standeth in awe of my wordes.

3 For who so slayeth an Oxe for me, doeth me so great dishonour as hee that killeth a man: hee that killeth a Sheepe for mee, ‖ knuckeyeth a dogge: he that bringeth me meate offerings, offereth swines blood: who so maketh me a memorial of incense, praiseth the thing that is wright: Yet take they such wayes in hande, and their soule delighteth in theyr abominations.

4 Therefore will I also haue pleasure in laughing them to scorne, and the thing that they feare, will I bring vpon them: * for when I called, no man gaue answere, when I spake, they wonde not heare: but did wickednesse before mine eyes, and chose the things that displeased mee. Pro.1.24. esa.65.12. ier.7.13.

5 Heare the word of God all ye that feare the thing which hee speaketh: your brethren that hate you, and cast you out for my names sake, say, The Lorde is heinous against vs: but you shall see him in ioy, when they shalbe confounded.

6 Then shalbe heard a great noyse from the citie and the temple, the voyce of the Lord that will rewarde and recompence his enemies:

7 Like as when a wife bringeth forth a manchilde, or euer she suffer the paine of the birth and anguish of the trauaile.

8 Who euer heard or sawe such things? doeth the ground beare in one day? or are the people borne all at once, as Sion trauailed in childbirth, & bare her sonnes?

9 For thus saith the Lord, Am I hee that maketh other to beare, and beare not my selfe? Am not I hee that beareth & maketh barren, saith thy God?

10 Reioyce with Hierusalem, and be glad with her all ye that loue her, bee ioyfull with her all ye that mourne for her.

11 For yee shall sucke comfort out of her breastes, and be satisfied: ye shal taste and haue delight in ꝑ brightnes of her glory.

12 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will let peace into her like a water flood, and the glorie of the heathen like a flowing streame: then shall yee sucke, yee shall be borne vpon her sides, and be ioyfull vpon her knees.

13 For like as a childe is comforted of his mother, so shall I comfort you, and yee shalbe comforted in Hierusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall reioyce, & your bones shal florish like an herbe: Thus shal the hand of the Lord be knowen amog his seruants, and his indignation among his enemies.

15 For beholde, the Lorde shall come with fire, and his charet shall be like a whirle winde: that he may recompence his vengeance in his wrath, and his indignation with the flame of fire.

16 For the Lorde shall iudge all flesh with the fire, and with his sword, & there shall be a great number slaine of the Lord.

17 Such as haue made themselues holy and cleane in the gardes, and chose that haue eaten swines flesh, mice, and other abominations, shalbe taken away together, saith the Lord.

18 For I doe knowe their workes, and thoughtes, and I will come to gather all people & tongues: then they shall come and see my glorie,

19 Vnto them shall I giue a token, and sende certaine of them that be delimered among the Gentiles, into Cilicia, Affrica, and Lydia, where men can handle bowes, into Italie, & also Greeke land:
the Iles farre off that haue not heard speake of me, and haue not seene my glorie, shall preach my prayse among the Gentiles,
20 And shal bring all your brethren for an offering vnto the Lord out of all the people, vpō horses, charets, and horslitters, vpō mules and carts to Hierusalem my holy hill, saith the Lord: like as the children of Israel bring the offring in cleane vessels to the house of the Lord.
21 And I shall take out certaine of them

Lorde.

seede and your name continue.
23 And it shall come to passe, that from on the carrions of them that haue transgressed against me: for their wormes shal not die, neither shall their fire bee quenched, and all flesh shall abhorre them.

The ende of the booke of the Prophet Esay.

The Booke of the Prophet Ieremie.

The first Chapter.

1 The storie of Ieremie, and in what time he prophe- cied. 6 He excuseth himselfe, and would refuse the office of a Prophet, because he is yong and vnexpert. 8 He is taught of the Lorde, and becommeth bolde.

1 THese are the Sermons of Ieremie the sonne of Helciah the Priest, one of them that dwelt at Anathoth in the lande of Beniamin,
2 When the Lorde had first spoken with him in the time of Io-siah the sonne of Amon king of Iuda, in the thirteenth yeere of his reigne:
3 And so during vnto the time of Iehoa-kim the sonne of Iosiah king of Iuda, and vntil the eleuenth yeere of Zedechiah the sonne of Iosiah king of Iuda were ended, when Hierusalem was taken, euē in the fift moneth.
4 The worde of the Lord spake thus vnto me,
5 Before I fashioned thee in thy mothers wombe, I did knowe thee: and or euer thou wast borne, I sanctified thee, and ordeined thee to bee a Prophet vnto the people.
6 Then said I, O Lorde God, I can not speake, for I am yet but yong.
7 And the Lord answered me thus, Say not so, I am too yong: for thou shalt go to all that I shall sende thee vnto, and whatsoeuer I command thee, that shalt thou speake.
8 Be not afraide of their faces: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, saith the Lorde.
9 And with that the Lorde stretched out his hand and touched my mouth: and the same Lord said vnto me, *Behold, I *Deut.18.7.
put my words in thy mouth.
10 And beholde, this day doe I set thee ouer the people and kingdomes, that thou mayest roote out, and breake off, destroy, and make waste, and that thou mayest build vp and plant.
11 After this, the Lord spake vnto me, saying, Ieremie, what seest thou? And I said, I [a] see a rod of an Almond tree.
12 Then said the Lord vnto me, Thou hast seene right, for I will make haste to speedy vpon my word to performe it.
13 It happened afterward that the Lorde spake to me againe, and said, What seest thou? And I said, I do see a seething pot, looking from out of the North.
14 Then said the Lorde vnto me, *Out of *Iere.4.6.
the North shall come a plague vpon all the dwellers of the land.
15 For lo, I will call all the kinreds of the kingdomes of the North, saith the Lord, and they shall come, and euery one shall set his seate in the gates of Hierusalem, and in all their walles round about, and in all cities of Iuda.
16 And through them shall I declare my iudgement vpon all the wickednesse of those men that haue forsaken mee, that haue burnt incense vnto strange gods, & worshipped the workes of their owne handes.
17 And therefore gird vp thy loynes, arise, and tel them all that I giue thee in commandement: Feare them not, least I destroy thee before them.

a strong fenced towne, an yron pillar, and a brasen wall against the whole land, against the kings and mightie men of Iuda, against the priests and people of the land.
19 They shall fight against thee, but they shall not be able to ouercome thee: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, saieth the Lord.

The ii. Chapter.

2 God rehearseth his benefites done vnto the Iewes.
8 Against priests and prophetes or preachers that contemne and despise God. 12 The Iewes are destroyed because they forsooke God, and because they runne a whorehunting after idoles.

1 Moreouer,

[a] God sheweth to Ieremie the destruction of the Iewes by the Babylonians, to be at hand.

1 MOreouer, the word of þ Lorde came vnto me, saying,
2 Goe thy way, cry in the eares of Hierusalem, & say, Thus saith the Lorde, I remember thee, the kindnesse of thy youth, and the loue of thy displaying, in that thou followedst me thorow the wildernesse, in an vntilled land.
3 Israel was an halowed thing vnto the Lord, & was his first fruits: all they that deuoure Israel shall offend, misfortune shall fall vpon them, saith the Lord.
4 Heare therefore the word of the Lorde, O thou house of Iacob, and all the generations of the house of Israel.
5 Thus saith the Lord, What vnrighteousnes founde your fathers in me, that they went so farre away from me, falling to lightnes, and being so vaine?
6 They thought not in their heartes, Where is the Lorde that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt, that led vs thorowe the wildernesse, thorowe a desert and rough land, thorowe a drie and deadly lande, yea a lande that no man had gone thorowe, and wherein no man had dwelt?
7 And when I had brought you into a pleasant fertile lande, that ye might enioy the fruites and all the commodities of the same, yee went forth and defiled my land, and brought mine heritage to abomination.
8 The priestes themselues sayde not, Where is the Lorde? They that had the lawe in their handes knewe me not, the shepheardes offended against mee, the prophetes did prophecie in Baal, and followed such things as shall bring them no profite.
9 Wherefore I am constrained, saith the Lord, yet againe to contend in iudgement with you, and with your childrens childrē.
10 Goe into the Iles of Cethim, and looke well: sende vnto Cedar, take diligent heede, and see whether such things be done there:
11 Whether the Gentiles themselues haue changed their gods, which yet are no gods in deede: but my people hath changed a their honour for a thing that may not helpe them.
12 Be astonished, O ye heauens, be afraid, & abashed at such a thing, saith the Lord.
13 For my people hath done two euils: they haue forsake me the well of the water of life, and digged them pits, yea pits and broken pits that can hold no water.
14 Is Israel a bond seruant, or one of the houshold? why is he then so spoyled?
15 They roare and cry vpon him as Lions, they haue made his land waste: his cities are so burnt vp, that there is no man dwelling in them:
16 Yea, the children of Noph and Taphnes shall cracke their crowne.
17 Commeth not this vnto thee, because thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, euen when he led thee by the way?
18 And what hast thou nowe to doe in the streete of Egypt, to drinke water out of b Nilus? either what makest thou in the way to Assyria, to drinke water of the flood?
19 Thine owne wickednesse shall reproue thee, & thy turning away shall condemne thee: that thou mayst know and vnderstand howe euill and hurtfull a thing it is that thou hast forsaken the Lorde thy God, and hast not feared me, saith the Lord God of hostes.
20 I haue euer broken thy yoke of olde, and burst thy bondes, yet sayest thou, I will no more transgresse: but like an harlot thou runnest about vpō al high hils, *and among all greene trees.
21 *Whereas I planted thee a noble vine, and wholy a right seede: howe art thou turned then into a bitter vnfruitful and strange grape?
22 Yea and that so sore that though thou wash thy selfe with Nitrus, and make thy selfe to sauour with that sweete smelling herbe of Iozith: yet in my sight thou art stained with thy wickednesse, saith the Lord thy God.
23 Howe sayest thou nowe, I am not vncleane, & I haue not followed Baalim? Looke vpon thine owne wayes in the valleyes what thou hast done: thou art like a swift dromedarie that goeth easily her way.
24 And thy wantonnesse is like a wilde Asse that vseth the wildernes, and that snuffeth and bloweth at her will: who can tame her? All they that seeke her, shal not faile but find her in her moneth.
25 Keepe thy foote from nakednesse, and thy throte from thirst, and thou thinkest in thy selfe, Tush, I will take no sorowe, for I haue loued the c strangers, & them will I follow.
26 Like as a thiefe that is taken with the deede commeth to shame: euen so is the house of Israel come to confusion, the common people, their kings and rulers, their priests and prophets:
27 For they say to a stocke, Thou art my father: and to a stone, Thou hast begotten me: yea, they haue turned their backe vpon me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble, when they say, Stand vp and helpe vs:
28 I shall answere them, Where are nowe thy gods that thou hast made thee? did them stand vp, and helpe thee in the time of thy neede: for looke how many cities thou hast, O Iuda, *so many gods hast thou also.
29 Wherefore then wil ye go to law with me? seeing ye are all sinners against me, saith the Lord.
30 It is but lost labour that I smite your children, for they receiue not my correction: your owne sworde destroyeth your prophets like a deuouring Lion.
31 O generation, hearken vnto the word of the Lord: Am I become a wildernes vnto the people of Israel? or a land that hath a Honour, that is, the faithfull and euerliuing God, in whome only they ought to glorie.

b God reproueth the people for that they sought remedies, which are meant by the water of Nilus and the flood, against their euils among the Egyptians and Assyrians, where as their onely remedie had bene to haue reconciled themselues vnto the Lord with faithfull repentance, Iere.3.6. Esa.5.1. mat.21.33.

c The property of idolaters is, not only to contemne the voice of the preacher calling them to repentance: but shamefully to proue þ loue of strangers and the following of them, that is, the worshipping of stockes and stones, and serueing of God against his word, after their owne deuices. Iere.11.13.

hath no light? wherefore saith my people then, We are lordes, we will come no more vnto thee?

32 Doeth a mayde forget her rayment, or a bride her stomacher? but my people hath forgotten me a very long while.

33 Why beautifiest thou thy wayes so highly, to obtaine fauour therethrough? therefore also hast thou taught wickednesse thy wayes.

34 Vpon thy wings is found the blood of poore and innocent people, whome thou diddest not finde in corners and holes: but thou sluest the Prophets for reproouing all these thynges.

35 Yet darest thou say, I am without sinne and guiltlesse. Truly, his wrath can not come vpon me. Behold, I will reason with thee, because thou darest say, I haue not offended.

36 Why gaddest thou so much hither and thither, to change thy wayes? for thou shalt be confounded as wel of Egypt as thou wast of the Assyrians.

37 Yea, thou shalt go thy way from thē, and smite thine hands together vpō thy head, because the Lorde shall bring that confidence and hope of thine to nought, and thou shalt not prosper withall.

The iii. Chapter.

1 God being merciful, calleth to repentance his people which he had forsaken for their whoredome with idoles. 20 He exhorteth Israel vnto repentance, promising them shepheardes that should haue the true knowledge of God. 23 The returne of Israel vnto God, confessing their offence.

1 COmmonly when a man putteth away his wife, and she goeth from him, and marrieth with another, then the question is, Shoulde he returne vnto her any more after that? (Is not that lande then defiled and vncleane?) But as for thee, thou hast played the harlot wt many louers, yet turne againe to me, saieth the Lord.

2 Lift vp thine eyes to the high places, & looke where thou hast not bene defiled: Thou hast waited for thē in the stretes, and as a murderer in the wildernesse, through thy whoredome and shamefull blasphemies is the land defiled.

3 This is the cause that the raine and euening deaw hath ceassed: thou hast gotten thee an whores forehead, & wilt not be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not hereafter say vnto mee, O my father, þ art he that hast brought me vp, and led me from my youth?

5 Wil God continue his wrath for euer? will he keepe our faultes in memorie to þ end? Neuertheless, thou speakest such wordes, but thou art euer doing worse & worse to the vttermost of thy power.

6 The Lord said also vnto me in the time of Iosiah the king, * Hast thou seene what that rebellious Israel hath done? how she hath runne vp vpon all þ hilles, and among all thicke trees, and there played the harlot?

4. Reg. 22. 2. Par. 34.

7 Hast thou seene also when she had done all this, howe I said vnto her, that she should turne againe vnto me, and yet she is not returned? Iuda that vnfaithfull sister of hers also sawe this:

8 Namely, that after I had well seene the aduiterie of the shrinking harlot Israel, I put her away, and gaue her a bill of diuorcement: for all this, her vnfaithfull sister Iuda was not ashamed, but went backe and played the whore.

9 Yea, and the wantonelle of her whoredome hath defiled the whole lande: for thee hath committed fornication with stockes and stones.

10 Neuertheless, her vnfaithfull sister Iuda is not returned vnto mee againe with her whole heart, but faindly, saith the Lord.

11 And the Lord said vnto me, The backesyder Israel, is more righteous then the vnfaithfull Iuda.

12 And therefore goe preache these wordes toward the North, and say, Thou disobedient Israel, turne againe, saith the Lorde, and I will not bring my wrath vpon you: for I am mercifull, sayth the Lorde, and I will not alway beare displeasure against thee.

13 But on this conditiō, that thou know thy great blasphemie, namely, that thou hast vnfaithfully forsaken the Lorde thy God, and hast made thy selfe partaker of strange gods vnder all greene trees, and hast had no will to heare my voyce, saith the Lord.

14 O yee disobedient children, turne againe, sayth the Lorde, and I will bee married with you: for I will take one out of the citie, and two out of one generation from among you, and bring you into Sion,

15 And will giue you heardmē after mine owne minde, which shall fede you with learning and wisedome.

16 Moreouer, whē ye be increased & multiplied in the land, then saieth the Lorde, There shall no more boast be made of the arke of the Lordes Testament: no man shall thinke vpon it, neither shall any mā make mention of it: for from thenceforth it shall neither bee visited, neither shall such thing be done any more.

17 Then shall Hierusalem bee called, The Lordes seate, and all Heathen shall bee gathered vnto it for þ name of þ Lords sake which shalbe set at Hierusalem: and from that time forth they shall followe no more the imagination of their owne froward heart.

18 Then those that be of the house of Iuda shall goe into the house of Israel, and they shal come together out of þ North, into the same lande that I haue giuen your fathers.

19 I haue thought thus, Howe shall I take thee among my children, and giue a pleasant lande for thine heritage, yea, and a goodly host of the Heathen? And I said, Call me father, and thinke not from me.

20 Truely,

20 Truely, like as a woman falleth her husband, so are ye vnfaithfull vnto mée,
O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord.
21 The voyce of the childre of Israel was heard on high, weeping and wailing, for that they haue defiled their way, & forgotten God their Lord.
22 O ye disobedient children, turne againe,
& so shall ye heale your backeturnings.
Loe, we come vnto thee, for thou art the Lord our God.
23 Truely in vaine is health hoped for from the hilles, bee they neuer so many:
but the health of Israel standeth onely vpon God our Lord.
24 Confusion hath deuoured our fathers labour from our youth vp, yea their sheepe and bullockes, their sonnes and daughters.
25 So doe we also sleepe in our confusion, and shame covereth vs: for wee and our fathers, from our youth vp vnto this day, haue sinned against the Lorde our God, and haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lord our God.

The iiii. Chapter.

3 The true repentance or returning to God. 4 Hee exhorteth to the circumcision of the heart. 5 The destruction of Iurie is prophecied for the malice of their hearts.

1 O Israel, if thou wilt turne thee, then turne vnto me, saieth the Lord: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, thou shalt not be moued,
2 And shalt sweare, The Lorde liueth in trueth, in equitie, and righteousnesse, & all people shalbe fortunable and topfull in him.
3 For thus saieth the Lorde to all Iuda Osee.10.12. and Hierusalem, * Plowe your lande, & sowe not among the thornes.
4 Be circumcised in the Lorde, and cut away the foreskinne of your hearts, all ye of Iuda, and all the indwellers of Hierusalem: that mine indignation breake not out like fire and kindle, so that no man may quench it, because of the wickednesse of your imaginations.
5 Preach in Iuda and Hierusalem, cry out and speake, blowe the trumpets in the lande, cry, that euery mã may heare, and say, Gather you together, and wée will goe into strong cities.
6 Set vp the token in Sion, speede you, Ier.1.14. and make no tarying: * for I wil bring a great plague, and a great destruction from the North.
7 For the spoyler of the Gentiles is broken vp from his place, as a Lion out of his denne, that hee may make thy lande waste, and destroy the cities, so that no man may dwell therein.
8 Wherefore girde your selues about with sackcloth, mourne and wéepe: for the fearefull wrath of the Lorde is not withdrawen from vs.
9 At the same time, saieth the Lorde, the heart of the king and of the princes shall be gone, the Priests shalbe astonished, & the Prophets shalbe sore afraide.
10 Then said I, O Lorde God, hast thou then deceiued this people and Hierusalem, saying, Ye shal haue peace, and now the sword goeth thorowe their lines?
11 Then shall it be said to the people and Hierusalem, A strong winde in the high places of the wildernesse commeth through the way of my people, but neither to fanne nor to cleanse.
12 After that shall there come vnto me a strong winde from those places, & then will I also giue sentence vpon them.
13 For loe, he ariseth like a cloude, and his charets are like a stormie winde, his horses are swifter then the Eagle: Woe vnto vs, for we are destroyed.
14 O Hierusalem, wash thine heart from wickednesse, that thou mayest be helped:
howe long shall thy vaine thoughtes re-maine with thee?
15 For a voyce from Dan, and from the hill of Ephraim speaketh out, & telleth of destruction.
16 Remember the Heathē, and giue Hierusalem warning, and preache vnto her, that watchers ouer her are comming from farre countreys, they haue cryed out against the cities of Iuda.
17 And they haue beset her about in euery place, like as the watchemen in the field:
for they haue prouoked mee to wrath,
saieth the Lord.
18 * Thy wayes and thy thoughts haue Wis.1.1.
brought thee vnto this, euen is thine owne wickednes and disobedience: and because it is a bitter thing, it hath stricken thee to the heart.
19 Ah my belly, ah my belly, shalt thou crye, howe is my heart so sore? my heart panteth within me, I cannot be still, for I haue heard the crying of the trūpets, and peales of warre.
20 They cry murder vpon murder, the whole land shall perish: Immediatly my tents were destroyed, and my hangings in the twinckling of an eye.
21 Howe long shall I sée the tokens of warre, & heare the noyse of the trūpets?
22 Neuertheless, this shall come vpon them, because my people are become foolish, & hath not knowen me: they are the children of foolishnesse, and without any dis-cretiō: to do euill they haue wit ynough, but to doe well they haue no wisedome.
23 I haue looked vpon the earth, and sée, it was waste and voyde: I looked toward heauen, and it had no shine.
24 I beheld the mountaines, and loe, they trembled, and all the hilles were in a feare.
25 I looked about me, and there was no body: and all the birdes of the ayre were away.
26 I marked well, and the plowed fielde was become waste, yea, all their cities were broken down at the presence of the Lord, and indignation of his wrath.
27 For thus hath the Lorde saide, The whole lande shall bee desolate, yet wil
I not

I not then haue done.
28 And therefore shall the earth mourne, and the heauen bee sory aboue: for the thing that I haue spoke to the prophets, purposed, and taken vpon mee to doe, shall not repent mee, and I will not goe from it.
29 The whole lande shall flee for the noyse of horsemen and bowmen, they shall run into denues, into woods, and clime vp the stone rockes: all the cities shalbe voyde, and no man dwelling therein.
30 What wilt thou nowe doe, thou being destroyed? For though thou clothest thy selfe with scarlet, and deckest thee with gold, though thou paintest thy face with colours nowe, yet shalt thou trimme thy selfe in vaine: For those that hitherto haue bene thy louers, shall abhorre thee, and goe about to slay thee.
31 For I heare a noyse like as it were of a woman trauailing, and one labouring of her first childe, euen the voice of the daughter Sion, that casteth out her armes, and swoneth, saying, Ah, woe is me, howe sore vexed and faint is my heart for feare of the murderers?

The v. Chapter.

1 In Iurie is there no righteous or faithfull man found, esther among the people, or the rulers, for whose sake the Lorde shoulde spare the citie. 15 Wherefore Iurie is destroyed of the Assyrians.

1 LOoke thorowe Hierusalem, beholde, and see, seeke thorowe her stretes also within, if ye can finde one man that doeth equall and right, or seeketh for the trueth, and I shal spare the citie, saith the Lord.
2 For though they can say, The Lorde liueth: yet they sweare to deceiue.
3 Whereas thou (O Lord) lookest onely vpon faith & trueth: Thou hast scourged them, but they tooke no repentance, thou hast corrected them for amendment, but they refused thy correction, they made their faces harder then a stone, and would not amend.
4 Therefore I thought in my selfe, Peraduenture they are so simple and foolish, that they vnderstand nothing of the Lordes way, and iudgements of their God.
5 Therefore will I goe vnto their heads and rulers, and talke with them, if they knowe the way of the Lorde, and iudgements of their GOD: But these in like maner haue broken the yoke, and burst the bonds in sunder.
6 Wherefore a Lion out of the wood hath hurt them, and a Woolfe in the euening shall destroy them, the Leopard doth lie lurking by their cities, to teare in pieces all them that come thereout: for their offences are multiplied, and their departing away is increased.
7 Should I then for all this haue mercie vpon thee? Thy children haue forsaken me, and sworne by them that are no Gods: and albeit that I fed them to the full, yet they fall to aduulterie, and haunt harlots houses.
8 * In the desire of vncleanly lust they are become like the stoned horse, euery man neigheth at his neighbours wife. Exec.22.11.
9 Should I not correct this, saieth the Lord? should I not be auenged of euery people that is like vnto this?
10 Clime vp vpon their walles, beate them downe, and [a] destroy them not vtterly: take away their battlements, because they are not the Lordes.
11 For vnfaithfully hath the house of Israel and Iuda forsaken mee, saieth the Lorde.
12 They haue denied the Lorde, and saide, It is not hee that looketh vpon vs, tush, there shall no misfortune come vpon vs, we shall see neither sword nor hunger.
13 As for the warning of the Prophets, it is but winde, yea, there is not the worde of God in them: such things shal happen vnto themselues.
14 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God of hostes, Because ye speake such wordes, behold, the words that are in thy mouth will I turne to fire, and make the people to be wood, that the fire may consume them.
15 Loe, I will bring a people vpon you from farre, O house of Israel, saieth the Lorde, a mightie people, an old people, a people whose speache thou knowest not, neither vnderstandest what they say.
16 Their arrowes are lodaine death, yea, they themselues be very Giantes.
17 This people shal eate vp thy fruite and thy meate, yea, they shall deuour thy sonnes and daughters, thy sheepe and thy bullockes, they shall eate vp thy grapes and figges: As for thy strong & well defenced cities wherein thou diddest trust, they shall bring to vnterrie, & that though the sword.
18 Neuertheless, I will not then haue done with you, saith the Lord.
19 * But if they say, Wherefore doth the Lorde our God all this vnto vs? Then answere them, Because that like as yee haue forsaken mee, and serued strange goddes in your lande, euen so shall yee serue strangers out of your land. Iere.16.10.
20 Preache this vnto the house of Iacob, and cry it out in Iuda, and say thus,
21 * Heare this, thou foolish and vnwise people, Yee haue eyes, but ye see not, eares haue ye, but ye heare not. Esa.6.9.
22 Feare ye not me, saith the Lorde? will ye not tremble at my presence? which binde the sea with the sand by a continuall decree, so that it cannot passe his boundes: for though it rage, yet can it doe nothing, and though the waues thereof doe swell, yet may they not goe ouer.
23 But this people hath a false and obstinate heart, they are departed and gone away from me.
24 They thinke not in their heartes, O let vs feare the Lord our God, who giueth vs raine early and late when neede is, which kepeth euer still the harueſt for vs verely.

[a] These words are not to be referred vnto the citie or walles which were vtterly destroyed: but to a remnant of the people whome God did reserue, that his whole Church should not vtterly perish, although but a few did remaine faithfull.

25 Neuertheleſſe, your miſdéedes haue turned theſe from you, and your ſinnes haue robbed you of good things.

26 For among my people are found wicked perſons, that priuilie lay ſnares and waite for men, to take them, and deſtroy them.

27 And like as a nette is full of birdes, ſo are their houſes full of that which they haue gotten with falſhood and deceite: Hereof commeth their great ſubſtance and riches.

28 Hereof are they fatte and wealthy, and are more miſchieuous then any other: *they miniſter not the lawe, they make no ende of the fatherleſſe cauſe, yea and they proſper: yet they iudge not þ poore accoyding to equitie. *Eſai.1.23. zach.7.10.

29 Should I not punish theſe things, ſaieth the Lorde? ſhould not I be auenged of all ſuch people as theſe be?

30 Horrible and grieuous things are done in the land.

31 The prophetes teache falſly, and the preachers receiue giftes, and my people hath pleaſure therein: what will come thereof at the laſt?

The vi. Chapter.

1 The ſinnes for which Hieruſalem is afflicted. 10 Vncircumciſed eares, 13 couetouſnes, 14 deceite. 20 The Lord reiecteth the ſacrifices of the Iewes. 22 The comming of the Babylonians is prophecied againe.

1 COme out of Hieruſalem, yee ſtrong children of Beniamin, blowe vp the Trumpets yee Thecuites, ſet vp a token vnto Bethcaran: for a plague and a great miſerie appeareth out from the North.

2 I will liken the daughter Sion to a faire and tender woman, and to her ſhall come the [a] ſhepheards with their flocks.

a The ſhepheardes with their flockes, that is, the princes & captaines with their armies.

3 Their tents ſhal they pitch round about her, and euery one ſhall feede in his place.

4 Make battaile againſt her, ſhall they ſay, ariſe, let vs goe vp while it is yet day: Alas the day goeth away, and the night ſhadowes fall downe.

5 Ariſe, let vs goe vp by night, and deſtroy her ſtrong holdes.

6 For thus hath the Lord of hoſtes commanded, Hewe downe her trees, and ſet vp bulwarkes againſt Hieruſalem: for the time is come that this citie muſt bee punished, for in her is all maliciouſneſſe.

7 Like as a conduite ſpowteth out waters, ſo ſhe ſpowteth out her wickednes: Robberie and vnrighteouſneſſe is heard in her, ſorowe and woundes are euer there in my ſight.

8 Amend thee (O Hieruſalem) leaſt I withdraw me my heart from thee, & make thee deſolate, and thy land alſo, that no man dwell in it.

9 For thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, The reſidue of Iſrael ſhalbe gathered as the remnant of grapes: and therefore turne thine hand againe into the basket, like the grape gatherer.

10 But vnto whom ſhal I ſpeake & whom ſhall I warne, that he may take heede? Their eares are ſo vncircumciſed, that they may not heare: behold, they take the worde of GOD but for a ſcorne, and haue no luſt thereto.

11 And therefore I am ſo full of thine indignation, O Lord, that I may ſuffer no longer, but ſhed it out vpon the children that are without, and vpon all young men: yea, the man muſt be taken priſoner with the wife, and the aged with the creple.

12 Their houſes with their landes and wiues ſhalbe turned into ſtrangers: for I will ſtretch out mine hande vpon the inhabiters of this land, ſaieth the Lord. Eſai.56.11.

13 * For from the leaſt to þ moſt they hang all vpon couetouſneſſe, and from the prophet vnto the prieſt, they goe about falſehood and lyes. ierem.8.10.

14 And beſide that, they heale the hurt of my people with ſweete wordes, ſaying, Peace, peace: when there is no peace at all.

15 Were they aſhamed when they had committed abomination? Truely nay, they bee paſt ſhame, and therefore they ſhall fall among the ſlayne, and in the houre when I ſhal viſite them, they ſhalbe brought downe, ſaieth the Lord.

16 Thus ſaieth the Lorde, Goe into the ſtreetes, conſider and make inquiſition for the olde way, and if it be the good and right way, * then go therein, that ye may finde reſt for your ſoules: but they ſay, We will not walke therein. Mat.11.29.

17 Moreouer, I will ſet watchmen ouer you, and therefore take heede vnto the voyce of the Trumpet: but they ſay, We will not take heede.

18 Heare therefore, ye Gentiles, and thou congregation ſhalt knowe what I haue deuiſed for them.

19 Heare thou earth alſo: Behold, I will cauſe a plague to come vpon this people, euen the fruite of their owne imaginations, for that they haue not bene obedient vnto my wordes, and to my lawe, but abhorred them.

20 * Wherefore bring ye me incenſe from Saba, and ſweete ſmelling Calamus from farre countreyes? þ your whole burnt offerings diſpleaſe mee, and your ſacrifices. Eſai.1.11. amos.5.21.

b Ceremonies although they be Gods ordinances, pleaſe him not without faith and pureneſs of minde.

21 And therefore thus ſaieth the Lord, Behold, I will lay ſtumbling blocks among this people, and there ſhall fall at them the father with the children, one neighbour ſhall periſh with another.

22 Thus ſaieth the Lorde, Beholde, there ſhall come a people from the North, and a great people ſhall ariſe from the endes of the earth.

23 With bowes and with dartes ſhal they bee weaponed, it is a rough and fierce people, and an vnmercifull people, their voyce roareth like the ſea, they ride vpon horſes horses well appointed to the battaile against thee, O daughter Sion.

24 The fame of them haue we heard, our armes are feeble, cheauinesse and sorowe is come vpon vs, as vpon a woman trauailing with childe.

25 Let no man goe forth into the fielde, let no man come vpon the high streete: for the sword and feare of the enemie is on euery side.

26 Wherefore girde a sackecloth about thee, O the daughter of my people, sprinckle thy selfe with ashes: mourne and weepe bitterly, as vpon thine onely beloued sonne, for the destroyer shall sodainely fall vpon vs.

27 * Thee haue I set for a strong towre, O thou Prophet, and a well fenced wall among my people, to seeke out and to try their wayes.

28 For they are all stubborne Apostates, and fallen away, walking deceitfully, they are cleane brasse and yron, for they hurt and destroy euery man.

29 The bellowes are burnt in the fire, the lead is not moulten, the melter melteth in vaine, for the euil is not taken away from them.

30 Therefore doe they call them naughtie siluer, because the Lorde hath cast them out.

e Soſoone as the hypocrites heare tell that Gods iudgements are at hand, their heart fayleth, and is full of ſorowe.

Ier.1.18.

The vii. Chapter.

1 Ieremie is commanded to ſhewe vnto the people the word of God, which truſteth in the outwarde ſeruice of the temple. 13 The euils that ſhall happen to the Iewes for the deſpiſing of their Prophets. 21 Sacrifices doeth not the Lord chiefely require of the Iewes, but that they ſhould obey his worde.

1 THese are the words that God spake vnto Ieremie, saying.

2 Stand vnder the gate of the Lordes house, and crye out these wordes there with a loude voyce, and say, Heare the worde of the Lorde all ye of Iuda, that goe in at this doore, to worshippe the Lorde:

3 Thus saieth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, *Amend your waies and your counsailes, and I will let you dwel in this place.

Ier.26.13.

4 Trust not in false lying wordes, saying, Here is the temple of the Lord, here is the temple of the Lord, here is the temple of the Lorde:

5 But rather in deede amend your waies and counsailes, and iudge right betwixt a man and his neighbour.

6 Oppresse not the stranger, the fatherles, and the widow, shead not innocent blood in this place, cleaue not to strange gods, to your owne destruction:

7 Then will I let you dwel in this place, yea, in the land that I gaue afore time to your fathers for euer.

8 But take heede, ye trust in lying tales to beguile you, and doe you no good.

9 For when ye haue stolen, murdered, committed adulterie, and periurie, when ye haue offered vnto Baal, following strange and vnknowen goddes: shall yee be vnpunished?

10 Yet then come ye, and stand before mee in this house (which hath my name giuen vnto it) and say, Tush, we are absolued quite, though we haue done all these abominations.

11 What, *thinke you this house that beareth my name, is a denne of theeues? And yet I see what you thinke, saieth the Lord.

Mat.21.13.mar. 11.14.luk.19.46.

12 Goe to my place in Silo, wherevnto I gaue my name afore time, *and looke wel what I did to the same place for the wickednesse of my people of Israel.

Pro.1.13. esa.65.12.

13 And nowe seeing yee haue done all these deedes, saieth the Lorde, and I my selfe rose vp euer betimes to warne you, and to commune with you, yet would ye not heare me, I called, yee would not answere:

14 Therefore, *euen as I haue done vnto Silo, so will I do to this house that my name is giuē vnto, and that ye put your trust in: yea, vnto the place that I haue giuen to you, and your fathers:

1.King.4.13.

15 And I shall thrust you out of my sight, as I haue cast out all your brethren the whole seede of Ephraim.

16 *Therfore thou shalt not pray for this people, thou shalt neither giue thankes nor bid prayer for them: make thou no intercession for them, for in no wise will I heare thee.

Ier.14.12.

17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Iuda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem?

18 *The children gather stickes, the fathers kindle the fire, the women knead the dowe to bake cakes for the queene of heauen: they powre out drinke offerings vnto strange gods, to prouoke mee vnto wrath.

Ier.44.19.

19 Howbeit they hurt not me, saieth the Lorde, but rather confounde and shame themselues.

20 And therfore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my wrath and indignation shalbe powred out vpō this place, vpon men and cattel, vpon trees in the fielde and fruite of the land: and it shall burne, so that no man may quench it.

21 Thus saieth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Heape vp your burnt offerings with your sacrifices, and eate the flesh.

22 For when I brought your fathers out of Egypt, I spake no word vnto them of burnt offerings and sacrifices.

23 But this I commanded them, saying, Hearken and obey my voyce, and I shalbe your God, and ye shalbe my people, so that yee walke in all the wayes which I haue commanded you that ye may prosper.

24 But they were not obedient, they inclined not their eares thereunto: but went after their owne imaginations, & after the motions of their owne wicked heart, and so turned themselues away, & conuerted not vnto me.

25 And this haue they done from the time that your fathers came out of Egypt, vnto this day: Neuertheless, I sent vnto you my seruantes the Prophetes, I rose vp early, and sent you word.

Iere. 16. 12. 26 *Yet would they not hearken, nor offer me their eares, but were obstinate, & worse then their fathers.

27 And thou shalt nowe speake all these wordes vnto thē, but they wil not heare thee: thou shalt cry vpon them, but they wil not answere thee.

28 Therefore shalt thou say vnto them, This is the people that neither heareth the voyce of the Lord their God, nor receiueth his correction: faithfulnesse and trueth is cleane rooted out of their mouth.

29 Wherefore cut of thine heare O Hierusalem & cast it away, take vp a complaint on high: for the Lord hath cast away and forsaken the people that bee is displeased withall.

30 For the children of Iuda haue done euil in my sight, saith the Lord, they haue set vp their abominations in the house that hath my name, and haue defiled it:

31 They haue also builded altars at Thophеth, which is in the valley of the children of Hennom, that they might burne their sonnes and daughters in fire: which I neuer commanded them, neither came it euer in my thought.

32 And therefore behold, the dayes shall come (saith the Lord) that it shal no more be called Thophеth, or the valley of the children of Hennom, but the valley of slaughter: for in Thophеth they shalbe buryed, because they shall els haue no rowme.

33 Yea, the dead bodies of this people shalbe eaten vp of the foules of the ayre: and wilde beasts of the earth, & no man shal fray them away.

Ezech. 26. 13. 34* And as for the voyce of mirth & gladnesse of the cities of Iuda and Hierusalem, the voyce of the bridegrome, and of the bryde, I will make them ceasse: for the land shalbe desolate.

The viii. Chapter.

1 The destruction of the Iewes. 4 The Lord mooueth the people to amendement, reckening vp their sinnes. 20 He reprehendeth the lying doctrine of the prophets and priestes.

1 AT the same time, saith the Lord, the bones of þ kings of Iuda, þ bones of his princes, the bones of the preachers and prophets, yea, and the bones of the citizens of Hierusalem, shalbe brought out of their graues,

2 And layd against the Sunne, and the Moone, and al the heauenly host, whome they loued, whome they serued, whome they came after, whom they sought and worshipped: they shall neither be gathered together, nor buryed, but shall lye as doung vpon the earth.

3 And al they that remaine of this wicked generation, shal desire rather to die then to liue, wheresoeuer they remaine, and whereas I scatter them, saith the Lord of hostes.

4 Thus shalt thou say vnto them also, Thus saith the Lord, Doe men fall, so þ they rise not vp againe? or if Israel repent, wil not God turne againe to thē? 5 Wherefore then is this people of Hierusalē gone so farre backe, that they turne not againe? They are euer the longer the more obstinate, and will not be conuerted.

6 For I haue looked and considered, but there is no man that speaketh a good worde, there is no man that taketh repentance for his sinne, that wil so much say, What haue I done? but euery man turneth to his owne course, like a fierce horse headlong to the battaile.

7 The stroke in the ayre knoweth his appointed time, the Turtle Doue, þ Swallowe and the Crane consider the time of their trauaple: but my people wil not know the time of the punishment of the Lord.

8 Howe dare ye say then, We are wise, we haue the lawe of the Lorde among vs? Truely in vaine hath hee prepared his penne, & vainely haue the writers written it.

9 Therefore shal the wise be confounded, they shalbe afraide and taken: for loe, they haue cast out the worde of the Lord, what wisedome can then be among thē?

10 Wherefore I wil giue their wiues vnto aliants, and their fields to destroyers: For *from the lowest vnto the highest Esa. 55. 11. they folowe filthie lucre, and from the Iere. 6. 13. prophet vnto þ priest, they deale all with lies.

11 Neuertheless, they heale the hurt of my people very slenderly, saying, Peace, peace: where there is no peace at all.

12 Fie for shame, how abominable things doe they, and yet they bee not ashamed, yea, they know of no shame: Wherefore in the time of their visitation, they shall fal among the dead bodies, and be ouerthrowen, saith the Lorde.

13 Moreouer, I will consume them in deede (saith the Lord) so that there shall not be one grape vpon the vine, neyther one figge vpon the figge tree, and the leaues shal be pluckt off, and the thing that I haue giuen them, shall bee taken from them.

14 Why prolong we the time, let vs gather our selues together, and goe into the strong citie, there shal wee bee in rest: for the Lord our God hath put vs to silence, and giuen vs water mixt with gall to drinke, because wee haue sinned against him.

15 *We looked for peace, and wee fare not Iere. 14. 19. þ better, we waited for the time of health, and loe, here is nothing but trouble.

16 The noyse of his horses is heard from Dan, the whole lande is afraide at the neyghing of his stroge horses: for they are come in, and haue deuoured the lande with all that is in it, the cities, and those that dwell therein.

17 Moreouer, I will send Cockatrices and Serpents among you (which will not be charmed) and they shall bite you, sayth the Lord.
18 I would haue had comfort against sorowe: but sorowe is come vpon mee, and heauinesse vexeth my heart.
19 For loe, the voyce of the crying of my people is heard for feare of them that come from a farre countrey: Is not the Lorde in Sion? Is not her king in her? Wherfore then haue they grieued mee with the Lord say, with their images and foolish strange fashions of a forreine God?
20 The haruest is gone, the Sommer hath an ende, and we are not helped.
21 I am sore vexed because of the hurt of my people, I am heauy and abashed.
22 Is there not triacle at Gilead? Is there no Physicion there? why then is not the health of my people recouered?

The ix. Chapter.

1 The complaint and bewayling of the Prophet. 3 The malice of the people. 24 In the knowledge of God ought we onely to reioyce. 26 The vncircumcision of the heart.

1 O Who will giue my head water ynough, and a well of teares for mine eyes, that I may weepe night and day for the slaughter of my people?
2 Would God that I had a cotage some where farre from folke, that I might leaue my people, and goe from them, for they be all adulterers, and a shrinking sort.
3 They bende their tongues like bowes to shoote out lyes, they ware strong vpon earth: As for the trueth, they may nothing away withall in the worlde, for they goe fro one wickednesse to another, and will not knowe me, sayth the Lorde.
4 Yea, one must keepe himselfe from another, no man may safely trust his owne brother: for one brother vndermineth another, one neighbor beguileth another.
5 Yea, one dissembleth with another, and they deale with no trueth: They haue practised their tongues to lye, and taken great paynes to doe mischiefe.
6 Thou sittest in the middes of a deceitful people, which for very dissembling falsehood will not know me, sayth the Lord.
7 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Beholde, I will melt them, and try them: for what should I els doe to my people?
8 Their tongues are like sharpe arrowes to speake deceit: * with their mouth they speake peaceably to their neighbour, but priuily they lay waite for him. Psal.28.3.
9 Should I not punish them for these things, sayth the Lorde? or should I not be auenged of any such people as this?
10 Vpon the mountaines will I take vp a lamentation, and a sorowfull cry, and a mourning vpon the fayre places of the wildernesse: namely, howe they are so burnt vp, that no man goeth there any more, yea, a man shal not heare one beast crie there: beyides and cattell are all gone from thence.
11 I will make Hierusalem also an heape of stones, & a den of venemous wormes: and I will make the cities of Juda so waste, that no man shall dwell therein.
12 What man is so wise as to vnderstand this? or to whom hath the Lorde spoken by mouth, that he may shewe this, and say, O thou land, why perishest thou so? wherfore art thou so burnt vp, and like a wildernesse that no man goeth thorowe?
13 Yea, the Lorde himselfe tolde the same vnto them that forsooke his lawe, and kept not the thing that hee gaue them in commaundement, neither lined therafter:
14 But followed the wickednesse of their owne hearts, and serued strange gods, as their forefathers taught them.
15 Therefore thus sayth the Lord of hostes the God of Israel. * Beholde, I will feede this people with wormewood, and giue them gall to drinke. Iere.25.15.
16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whome neither they, nor their fathers haue knowen: and I will sende a sword among them to persecute them, vntill I bring them to nought.
17 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Beware of the vengeance that hangeth ouer you, and call for mourning wiues, and send for wise women, that they come shortly, 18 And sing a mourning song of vs, that the teares may fall out of our eyes, and that our eye lids may gush out of water.
19 For there is a lamentable noyse heard of Sion: O how are we so sore destroyed? O how are we so pitifully confounded? Wee must forsake our owne naturall countrey, and we are shut out of our owne lodgings.
20 Yet heare the worde of the Lord (O ye women) and let your eares regard the words of his mouth, that ye may learne your daughters to mourne, and that euery one may teache her neighbour to make lamentation.
21 Namely thus, Death is climing vp in at our windowes, he is come into our houses, to destroy the child before the doore, and the young man in the streete.
22 But tell thou plainely, Thus sayth the Lorde, The dead bodies of men shall lye vpon the ground as the dounge vpon the fielde, and as the handfull after the mower, and there shall bee no man to take them vp.
23 Thus sayth the Lorde, * Let not the wise man reioyce in his wisedome, nor the strong man in his strength, neither the rich man in his riches. 1.Cor.1.31. 2.Cor.10.17.
24 But who so will reioyce, let him reioyce in this, that he vnderstandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lorde which doe mercie, equitie, and righteousnesse vpon the earth: therefore haue I pleasure in such things, saith the Lord.

25 Behold, the time commeth (saith the Lorde) that I will visite all them whose foreskinne is uncircumcised, and the circumcised, 26 The Egyptians, the Iewes, the Edomites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, and the shauen Madianites that dwell in the wildernes: for all the gentiles are all uncircumcised in the flesh, but all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

The x. Chapter.

2 The constellations of the starres are not to be feared. 5 Of the weakenesse of idoles, and of the power of God. 21 Of euill Curates.

1 HEare the worde of the Lorde that he speaketh vnto thee, O thou house of Israel.
2 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shal not learne after the maner of the heathen, and yee shall not bee afrayde for the tokens of heauen: for the heathen are afraide of such.
3 Yea, all the customes and lawes of the Gentiles are nothing but vanitie: They hewe downe a tree in the wood with the handes of the workeman, and fashion it with the axe.
4 They couer it ouer with golde or siluer, they fasten it with nailes and hammers, that it mowe not.
5 It standeth as stiffe as the Palme tree, it can neither speake, nor go on foote, but must be borne: be not ye afrayd of such, for they can do neither good nor euill.
6 * But there is none like vnto thee, O Lorde, and great is the name of thy power. Apoc. 15.4.
7 Who woulde not feare thee, O king of the Gentiles? for thine is the dominion: for among all the wise men of the Gentiles, and in all their kingdomes, there is none that may be likened vnto thee.
8 They are altogether brutish and vnwise in this one thing: [a] wood is the teaching of vanitie.
9 Siluer is brought out of Tharsis, and beaten to plates, and golde from Ophir, a worke that is made with the hande of the craftesman, & they are clothed with yellowe silke and scarlet: all these are the worke of cunning men.
10 But the Lorde is a true God, a liuing God, and an euerlasting king: if hee bee wroth, the earth shaketh, & the Gentiles may not abide his indignation.
11 As for their gods, thus shall you say to them, They are no gods that made neyther heauen nor earth, therefore shal they perish from the earth, & from all things vnder heauen.
11 * But as for our God, hee hath made the earth with his power, and with his wisdome doeth he order the whole compasse of the worlde, with his discretion hath he spread out the heauens.
13 At his voyce the waters gathered together in the ayre, hee draweth vp the cloudes from the vttermost parts of the earth: * Hee turneth lightning to rayne, and bringeth foorth the windes out of their treasures. Psal. 134.7.
14 His wisedome maketh all men fooles, and confounded bee casters of images: for that they cast is but a vaine thing, and hath no life.
15 The vayne craftesmen with their workes that they in their vanitie haue made, shall perish one with another in time of visitation.
16 Neuertheless, Iacobs portion is none such: but it is hee that hath made all things, and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the Lord of hostes is his name.
17 Gather vp thy wares out of the lande, thou that art in the strong place.
18 For thus saith the Lorde, Behold, I will nowe throwe as with a stone sling the inhabiters of this lande at this once, and I will bring trouble vpon them, that they shall proue true the wordes that I haue spoken by the Prophets.
19 Alas how am I hurt? alas how paineful are my scourges vnto me? for I consider this sorow by my selfe, and I must suffer it.
20 My tabernacle is destroyed, and all my cordes are broken, my children are gone from me, and can no where bee found: Nowe haue I none to spread out my tent, nor to set vp my hangings.
21 [b] For the heardmen are become foolish, and they haue not sought ꝑ Lord: therefore haue they dealt vnwisely with their cattell, and all are scattered abroad. b The kings, the rulers, the prophets, and the priests are blind, and so destroy the flocke.
22 Behold, the noyse is hard at hand, and great sedition out of the North, to make the cities of Iuda a wildernesse, and a dwelling place for Dragons.
23 Now I know (O Lord) that it is not in mans power to order his owne wayes, or to rule his owne steps and goings.
24 * Therefore chasten thou me, O Lorde, Psal. 6.1. but with fauour, and not in thy wrath, least thou bring me vtterly to nought.
25 * Powre out thine indignation vpon the Gentiles that knowe thee not, and vpon the people that call not vpon thy name, and that because they haue consumed, deuoured, and destroyed Iacob, and haue made his habitation waste. Psal. 79.6.

[a] By wood, is meant all kind of matter, where of images are woont to be made, which although they be garnished with gold and siluer, and clothed in purple and silke, and set vp (as some men say) to be lay mens bookes, yet teach they nothing (saith the Prophet) but vanitie. Gen. 1.6. Psal 13.5.

The xi. Chapter.

3 A curse to them that obey not the word of Gods promise. 10 The people of Iuda following the steppes of their fathers, worshippe strange gods. 15 The Lorde sayth that he will not heare the Iewes, and forbiddeth also Ieremie to pray for them.

1 THis is a sermon which the Lorde commanded Ieremie for to preach, saying,
2 Heare the wordes of this couenant, and speake vnto the men of Iuda, and to all them that dwell at Hierusalem,
3 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Cursed be euery one that is not obedient vnto the wordes of this couenant, 4 Which I commaunded vnto your fathers, what time as I brought them out of of Egypt from the yron fornace, saying, Be obedient vnto my voyce, and doe according to all that I commaunde you, so shall ye be my people, and I wil be your God:

5 And will keepe my promise that I haue sworne vnto your fathers, namely, that I would giue them a lande which flowerth with milke and hony, as yee see it is come to passe vnto this day. Then answered I, and sayde, Amen: let it be euen so Lord as thou sayest.

6 Then the Lorde saide vnto me againe, Preach this in the cities of Iuda, and rounde about Hierusalem, & say, Heare the words of this couenant, and keepe them.

7 For I haue diligently exhorted your fathers, euen since the time that I brought them out of the land of Egypt vnto this day, I gaue them warning betimes, saying, Hearken vnto my voyce.

8 Neuertheless, they would not obey me, nor encline their eares vnto me: but followed the wicked imaginations of their owne heartes, and therefore I haue brought vpon them all the wordes of this couenãt that I gaue them to kẽpe, which they notwithstanding haue not kept.

9 And the Lord said vnto me, It is found out that whole Israel, and all the cities of Hierusalem are gone backe.

10 They haue turned themselues to the blasphemies of their forefathers, which had no lust to heare my wordes: Euen likewise also haue these followed strange gods, and worshipped them: The house of Israel and Iuda haue broken my couenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will send a plague vpon them, which they shal not be able to escape, and they shal crye vnto mee, and I will not heare them.

12 Then shall the townes of Iuda, and þ citizens of Hierusalem goe and cal vpon their gods vnto whome they made their oblations: but they shall not be able to helpe them in time of their trouble.

Iere.2.28. 13 *For as many cities as thou hast, O Iuda, so many gods hast thou had also, and looke howe many streetes there bee in thee, (O Hierusalem) so many shamefull altars haue yee set vp, altars I say, to offer vpon them vnto Baal.

Iere.14.12. 14 *Therefore pray not thou for this people, bid neither praise nor prayer for thẽ: for though they cry vnto mee in their trouble, yet wil I not heare them.

15 What part hath my beloued in my house, seeing he hath wrought abomination, seruing many gods? The holy flesh offeringes in the temple are gone from thee, O Iuda, and thou, when thou hast done euil, makest thy boast of it.

16 The Lorde called thee a greene Olive tree, a faire one, a fruitfull one, a goodly one: but with great clamour hath the enemie set fire vpon it, and the branches of it are destroyed.

17 For the Lorde of hostes that planted thee, hath deuised a plagne for thee, (O thou house of Israel and Iuda) for the euill that yee haue done to prouoke him to wrath, in that yee did seruice to Baal.

18 This (O Lorde) haue I learned of thee, and vnderstande it: for thou hast shewed me their imaginations.

19 But I am as a meeke Lambe, an Oxe that is carried awap to be slaine, not knowing that they had deuised such a counsell against mee, saying, Wee will destroy his meate with woodde, and drive him out of the land of the liuing, that his name shall neuer be thought vpon.

20 *Therefore I will beseeche thee nowe, (O Lorde of hostes) thou righteous Iudge, thou þ tryest the reynes and þ heartes, let me see thee auenged of them: for vnto thee haue I committed my cause. 1. Chro. 28. 9. iere. 17. 10. & 20. 12. Psal. 7. 10.

21 The Lord therefore spake thus of the citizens of Anathoth that sought to slay me, saying, Preache not vnto vs in the name of the Lord, or els thou shalt dye of our handes.

22 Thus I say spake þ Lord of hostes, Behold, I wil visite you, your yong men shall perish with the sword, your sonnes and your daughters shall vtterlye dye of hunger.

23 So that none shall remayne: for vpon the citizens of Anathoth will I bring a plague, euen the yeere of their visitation.

The xii. Chapter.

1 *The prophet marueileth greatly at the prosperitie of the wicked, although he confesse God to be righteous. 7 The Iewes are forsaken of the Lorde. 10 He speaketh against the Curates and Preachers that seduce the people. 14 The Lord threateneth destruction vnto the nations that borowed vpon Iurie, which troubled and vexed it.

1 O Lorde, thou art more righteous then that I shoulde dispute with thee: neuertheless, let me talke with thee in things reasonable. *Howe happeneth it that the way of the vngodly is so prosperous? and that it goeth so well with them which without any shame offende and liue in wickednesse? Iob. 21. 7. abac. 1. 3.

2 Thou plantest them, they take roote, they grow and bring fourth fruite: they boast much of thee, yet art thou farre from their a reynes.

3 But thou Lorde to whome I am well knowen, thou that hast seene and proued my heart, take them awap, like as a flocke is carried to the slaughter house, & appoynt thẽ for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourne, and al the herbes of the fielde perish for the wickednesse of them that dwel therein? The cattel and the byrdes are gone, yet say they, Tush, God wil not destroy vs vterly.

5 Seeing thou art weary in running a By the reynes he meaneth the inward affections and secrecie of the minde.

with the footemen, howe wilt thou thē runne with horses? In a peaceable sure land thou maiest be safe: but howe wilt thou do in þ furious pryde of Iordane?

6 For thy brethren and thy kinred haue altogether despised thee, & cryed out vpon thee altogether: Beleeue thē not though they speake fayre wordes to thee.

7 As for mee, saith I, I haue forsaken mine owne dwelling place, and left mine heritage: I haue giuen that my soule b loued so wel into the hand of her enemies.

b He meaneth the citie, with the temple and the people whom he loued intirely.

8 Mine heritage is become vnto me as a Lion in the wood: it cryed out vpon me, therefore haue I forsaken it.

9 Is not mine heritage vnto me as a speckled bryde? are not the brydes rounde about against her? Come and gather yee together all ye beastes of the fielde, come, that ye may eate it vp.

10 Diuers heardmen haue broken downe my vinepard, and troden vpon my portion: of my pleasant portion they haue made a wilderne and desert.

11 They haue layd it waste, and now that it is waste, it sigheth vnto me: yea, the whole land lieth waste, and no man regardeth it.

12 The destroyers come ouer the borders in the desert euery way: for the sword of the Lord doth consume from the one end of the land to the other, and no flesh hath rest.

13 They haue sowen wheate, and reaped thornes, ‖they haue taken heritage in possession, but it doth them no good: and they were ashamed of your fruites, because of the great wrath of the Lorde.

‖Some reade, they were sicke and had no profite.

14 Thus sayth the Lorde vpon all my euil neighbours that lay hande on mine heritage which I haue possessed, euen my people of Israel. Beholde, I will plucke them namely Israel out of their land, and put out the house of Iuda from among them.

15 And when I haue rooted them out, I will be at one with them againe, and I wil haue mercy vpon them, and bring them againe euery man to his owne heritage, and into his land.

16 And if they, namely, that trouble my people will learne the wayes of them to sweare by my name, The Lorde liueth, like as they learned my people to sweare by Baal: then shal they bee built among my people.

17 But if they wil not obey, then will I roote out the same folke, and destroy thē, saith the Lorde.

The xiii. Chapter.

‖ The destruction of the Iewes is prefigured, and their scattering abroade. 11 Why Israel was receiued to be the people of God, and why they were forsaken.

1 Thus sayth the Lord vnto me, Goe thy way, and get thee a linnen girdle, and girde it about thy loynes, let it not be wette.

2 Then I got me a girdle, according to þ commandement of the Lorde, and put it about my loynes.

3 After this, the seconde time the Lorde spake vnto me againe.

4 Take the girdle that thou hast prepared, and put about thee, and get thee vp, and goe vnto Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rocke.

5 So went I, and hid it at Euphrates, as the Lorde commanded mee.

6 And it happened long after this, that þ Lorde spake vnto mee, Vp, and get thee to Euphrates, and fetch the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then went I to Euphrates, and digged vp, and tooke the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and beholde, þ girdle was corrupt, so that it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then sayde the Lorde vnto me,

9 Thus sayth the Lord, Euen so will I corrupt the pride of Iuda, and the high minde of Hierusalem.

10 This people is a wicked people, they will not heare my worde, they followe þ wicked imaginatiōs of their own heart, and hang vpon strange gods, them they serue and worshippe, and therefore they shalbe as this girdle that serueth for nothing.

11 For as straightly as a girdle lyeth vpon a mans loynes, so straightly did I binde the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Iuda vnto me, saith the Lord, that they might be my people, that they might haue a glorious name, that they might be in honour: but they would not obey me.

12 Therefore lay this riddle before them, and say, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Euery pot shalbe filled with wine. And they shall say vnto thee, Thinkest thou we knowe not that euery pot shalbe filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I shall fill all the inhabiters of this lande with drunkennesse, the kings that sit vpon Dauids stoole, the priests and prophets, with all that dwel at Hierusalem.

14 And I will set them one against another, yea, the fathers against the sonnes, sayth the Lord, I will not pardon them, I wil not spare them, nor haue pitie vpon them: but destroy them.

15 Heare, giue eare, take not disdaine at it: for it is the Lorde himselfe that speaketh.

16 Honour the Lorde your God or he take his light from you, and or euer your feete stumble in darkenesse at the hil: least when you looke for the light, hee turne it into the shadow and darkenesse of death.

17 But if yee will not heare me that giue yoursecret warning, I will mourne from my whole heart for your stubbernesse: *Piteously will I weepe, and the teares shal gush out of mine eyes, for the Lords flocke shalbe carryed away captiue. *Lamen. 1. 1.

18 Tell

18 Tell the king and the Quéene, Humble your selues, sit you downe lowe, for your dignitie shall bee throwen downe, and the crowne of your glorie shall fall from your head.
19 The cities toward the South shall bée shut vp, and no man shall open them: all Juda shalbe caried awap captiue, so that none shall remaine.
20 Lift vp your eyes, and beholde them that come from the North: where is the flocke O thou land that was giuen thée?
and where are thy fat and rich shéepe?
21 To whome wilt thou make thy mone when the enemie shall come vpon thee?
for thou hast taught them thy selfe, and made them maisters ouer thee: shall not sorow come vpon thée as on a woman trauailing with childe?
22 And if thou wouldest then say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things vpō me? Euen for the multitude of thy blas-phemies shall thy hinder partes and thy fœte be discouered.
23 May a man of Inde change his skin, and the cat of the mountaine her spots?
so, may yee that be exercised in euill, doe good.
24 Therefore will I scatter them like as the stubble that is taken awap with the South winde.
25 This shalbe your portion, and the portion of your measure wherewith ye shal be rewarded of me, saith the Lorde, because ye haue forgotte me, and put your trust in deceitfull things.
26 Therefore shal I turne thy clothes ouer thy head, and discouer thy shame.
27 Thy adulteries, thy neighings, thy shamefull whoredome on the hilles in the fields, and thy abominations haue I séene: Wo be vnto thée (O Hierusalem) wilt thou neuer be cleansed anp more? for when shall that be?

The xiiii. Chapter.

Of the dearth that shoulde come in Furie. 7 The prayer of the people asking mercie of the Lorde. 10 The vnfaithfull people are not heard. 12 Of prayer, fasting, and of false prophets that seduce the people.

1 THe word of the Lorde shewed vnto Jeremie, concerning the dearth of the fruites.
2 Juda hath mourned, his gates are desolate, they are brought to heauinesse, euen vnto the ground, and the crie of Hierusalem goeth vp.
3 The lords sent their seruants to fetch water, & when they came to the welles, they did finde no water, but caried their vessels home emptie: they bee ashamed and confounded, and couer their heads.
4 For the ground is dried, because there commeth no raine vpon it: the plowmen also be ashamed and couer their heads.
5 The hinde also forsooke the yong fawne that she brought forth in the fielde, because there was no grasse.
6 The wilde asses did stand in the high places, and drewe in their winde like the dragons, their eyes did fayle for want of grasse.
7 Doubtlesse, our owne wickednesse doth rewarde vs: but Lorde doe thou according to thy name, though our transgressions and sinnes be many, and agaynst thee haue we sinned.
8 For thou art the comfort and helpe of Israel in the time of trouble: Why wilt thou be as a stranger in the land, and as one that goeth his iourney, & commeth in one to remaine for a night?
9 Why wilt thou make thy selfe a coward, and as it were a gyant that yet may not helpe? But thou, O Lorde, art in the middest of vs, and thy name is called vpon of vs, forsake vs not.
10 Thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto his people, Séeing they haue had such a lust to wander abroade, and haue not refrained their fœte: therefore the Lorde hath no pleasure in them, but hee will nowe bring againe to remembrance all their misdéedes, and punish all their sinnes.
11 Yea, euen thus sayde the Lorde vnto me, *Thou shalt not pray to doe this people good. Iere.7.14.
12 For though they fast, I will not heare their prayers, and though they offer burnt offerings and sacrifices, yet I will not accept them: for I will destroy them with the sworde, hunger, and pestilence.
13 *Then answered I, O Lorde God, the prophets say vnto them, Tush, ye shall nede to feare no sword, and no hunger shall come vpon you: but the Lorde shall giue you sure rest in this place. Iere.23.31. & 27.21. & 29.8.
14 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, The prophets preach lyes in my name, whereas I haue not sent them, neither gaue I them any charge, neither did I speake vnto them: yet they preach vnto you false visions, charming, vanitie, and de-ceitfulnesse of their owne heart.
15 Therefore thus saieth the Lord, As for those prophets that preach in my name, whome I neuertheless haue not sent,
and that say, Tush, there shall no sword nor hunger bee in this land: with sword and with hunger shall those prophetes perish.
16 And the people to whom they preach, shalbe cast out of Hierusalem, die of hunger, and be slaine with the sword, and there shalbe no man to burie them, both they, and their wiues, their sonnes, and their daughters: for thus will I powre their wickednesse vpon them.
17 This shalt thou say also vnto them,
*Mine eies shal weepe without ceassing day and night: for my people shal be des-troyed with great harme, and shall pe-rish with a great plague. Lamen.1.16, and 2.18.
18 For if I go into the field, loe, it lieth all full of slaine men: If I come into the citie, loe, they be all famished of hunger:
yea, their prophets also and priests shall be led into an vnknowen land.
19 Hast thou then vtterly forsaken Juda?
Doest

doeſt thou abhorre Sion? Wherefore haſt thou ſo plagued vs, that we can bee healed no more? * We looked for peace, and there commeth no good, for the time of health, and loe, here is nothing but trouble.

Iere.8.15.

20 We knowledge (O Lorde) all our miſdeedes, and the ſinnes of our fathers: for we haue offended thee.

a The temple at Hieruſalem is called the ſeate of Gods honour, becauſe he had appointed that place wherein ſpecially to be honoured, and there to ſhewe the tokens of his honourable preſence.

21 Caſt vs not off (O Lord) for thy names ſake, forget not thy louing kindeneſſe, ouerthrow not the a throne of thine honour, breake not the couenant that thou haſt made with vs.

22 Are there any among the gods of the Gentiles that ſende raine, or giue the ſhowres from heauen? Art not thou thy ſelfe our Lord God? we will truſt in thee, for thou doeſt all theſe things.

The xv. Chapter.

1 The Lord will not heare Moſes and Samuel if they pray for the people, but will wrappe them in many miſeries. 6 The cauſe of ſuch great miſeries.

1 THus ſpake þ Lord vnto me, Though Moſes & Samuel ſtoode before me, yet haue I no heart to this people, driue them away, that they may goe out of my ſight.

2 And if they ſay vnto thee, Whither ſhal we go? then tell them, The Lord giueth you this anſwere, * Some vnto death, ſome to the ſworde, ſome to hunger, ſome into captiuitie.

Zach.11.9.

3 For I will bring foure plagues vpon them, ſayeth the Lorde, The ſworde ſhall ſlay them, the dogges ſhall teare them in pieces, the foules of the aire and beaſtes of the earth ſhall eate them vp, and deſtroy them.

4 I will ſcatter them about alſo in all kingdomes and landes to bee plagued, * becauſe of Manaſſes the ſonne of Ezecia king of Iuda, for the things that hee did in Hieruſalem.

4.Reg.21.11.

5 Who ſhall then haue pitie vpon thee, O Hieruſalem? Who ſhalbe ſorie for thee? Or who ſhall make intercellió to obteine peace for thee?

6 Seeing thou goeſt from me, and turneſt backward, ſaith the Lord, therefore I did ſtretch out my hand againſt thee to deſtroy thee, and I haue bene ſorie for thee ſo long that I am wearie.

7 I haue ſcattered them abroad with the fanne on euerie ſide of the lande, I haue waſted my people and deſtroyed them, yet they haue had no luſt to turne from their owne wayes.

8 I haue made their widowes moe in number then the ſandes of the ſea, vpon the mothers of their children did I bring a deſtroyer in the noone day: ſuddenly and vnawares did I ſende a feare vpon their cities.

9 She that hath borne ſeuen children, hath none, her heart is full of ſorowe, * the Sunne doeth faile her in the cleare day, ſhe is confounded and faintly for verie heauineſſe: As for thoſe that remaine, I wil deliuer them vnto the ſworde before their enemies, ſayth the Lord.

Amos 8.9.

10 O mother, alas that thou euer diddeſt beare me, a brawler and rebuker of the whole land: though I neuer lent nor receiued vpon vſurie, yet all men ſpeake euill vpon me.

11 And the Lorde anſwered mee, Verily thy a remnant ſhall haue wealth: Come not I to thee when thou art in trouble, and helpe thee when thine enemie oppreſſeth thee?

a By the remnant is meant the times towarde the laſt ende of his life, when God cauſed Nabuzaradã to ſhewe fauour vnto Ieremie, Ierem.40.

12 Doeth one pyon hurt another? or one metall, that commeth from the North, another?

13 As for thy riches and treaſure, I will giue them out into a pray: not for money, but becauſe of all thy ſinnes that thou haſt done in all thy coaſts.

14 * And I will bring thee with thine enemies into a land that thou knoweſt not: for the fire that is kindled in mine indignation ſhall burne vpon vp.

Deu.32.22.

15 O Lord, thou knoweſt, therfore remember me, and viſite me, reuenge me of my perſecuters, take me not from this life in the time of thy anger: thou knoweſt that for thy ſake I ſuffer rebuke.

16 When I had found thy wordes, I did eate the vp greedily, they haue made my heart ioyful and glad, for thy name was b called vpon me, O Lord God of hoſtes.

b I am called thy Prophet.

17 I dwel not among the ſcorners, neither is my delight therein: but I dwell alone becauſe of thy hande, for thou haſt filled me with bitterneſſe.

18 Shall heauineſſe endure for euer? Are my plagues then ſo great that they may neuer be healed? Wilt thou bee as one that is falſe, and as a water that falleth and cannot continue?

19 Vpon theſe words, thus ſaid the Lord vnto me, If thou wilt turne againe, I ſhall ſet thee in my ſeruice, & if thou wilt take out the thing that is precious from the vile, thou ſhalt be euen as my owne mouth: they ſhall conuert vnto thee, but turne not thou vnto them.

20 And ſo ſhall I make thee a ſtrong braſen wall againſt this people, they ſhall fight againſt thee, but they ſhall not preuaile: for I my ſelfe will be with thee, to helpe thee & deliuer thee, ſaith the Lorde.

21 And I will rid thee out of the handes of the wicked, and deliuer thee out of the hands of tyrants.

The xvi. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth the miſerie of the Iewes. 2 Hee ſheweth that the worſhipping of images, and the contempt of Gods lawe, is cauſe of their miſerie. 13 He propheciеth the captiuitie of Babylon, and their deliuerance from thence againe. 19 The calling of the Gentiles.

1 THus ſayth the Lord vnto me,

2 Thou ſhalt take thee no wife, nor beget children in this place.

3 For of the children that are borne in this place, of their mothers that haue borne them, and of their fathers that haue begotten them in this lande, thus ſayth the Lord,

Gods plagues.

4 They ſhall dye an horrible death, no man ſhall wepe for them, nor burye the, but they ſhall lye as doung vpon the earth: they ſhall periſh thyough the ſwoꝛde and hunger, and their bodies ſhalbe meate for the fowles of the ayre, & beaſtes of the earth.

5 For thus ſaith the Lord, Goe not thou into the houſe of mourning, nor come to mourne and wepe for them: for I haue taken my peace from this people, ſayeth the Lorde, yea, my fauour and my mercies.

6 And in this lande ſhall they dye olde & yong, and ſhall not be buried: no man ſhall bewepe them, no man ſhall cluppe or ſhaue himſelfe for them.

7 They ſhall not wring their handes in mourning wiſe on their dead, one to cõfort another: one ſhall not offer another the cup of cõſolation to forget their heauineſſe for their father and mother.

8 Thou ſhalt not go into their feaſt houſe, to ſit down to eate or drinke with them:

9 For thus ſauth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I ſhall take away out of this place the voyce of mirth & gladneſſe, the voyce of the bridegroome and of the bryde, yea, and that in your dayes, that ye may ſee it.

Ier.5.19. 10 * Nowe when thou ſhewest this people all theſe wordes, and they ſaye vnto the, Wherefore hath the Lord deuiſed al this great plague for vs? or what is the offence and ſinne that wee haue done againſt the Lord our God?

11 Then make thou them this anſwere, Becauſe your fathers haue forſaken me, ſaith the Lorde, and haue walked after ſtrange gods, whome they honoured & worſhipped, but me haue they forſaken, and haue not kept my lawe:

Ieremi.7.26. 12 * And ye with your ſhamefull blaſphemies haue exceded the wickednes of your fathers: for euery one of you hath followed the frowarde and euill imaginations of his owne heart, and is not obedient vnto me,

Ier.23.8. 13 * Therefore will I caſt you out of this lande, into a lande that ye and your fathers knowe not: and there ſhall ye ſerue ſtrange gods day and night, there will I ſhewe you no fauour.

14 Beholde, therefore, ſayth the Lord, the dayes are come that it ſhall no more be ſayde, The Lord liueth which brought the children of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt:

15 But it ſhalbe ſaide, The Lorde liueth that brought the children of Iſrael from the North, and from all landes where he had ſcattered them: for I will bring them againe into the lande that I gaue their fathers.

16 Behold, ſaith the Lord, I will ſend out many Fiſhers to take them, and after that will I ſend out many Hunters, to hunte them from all mountaines & hils, and out of the caues of ſtone.

17 For mine eyes beholde all their wayes, and they can not bee hid from my face: neither can their wicked dedes be kept cloſe out of my ſight.

18 But firſt will I ſufficiently reward their ſhamefull blaſphemies and ſinnes, becauſe they haue defiled my land with their ſtinking carions and their abominations, wherewith they haue filled mine heritage.

19 O Lord my ſtrẽgth, my power and refuge in time of trouble: the Gentiles ſhall come vnto the from the endes of the worlde, and ſay, Verily our fathers haue cleaued vnto lyes, their idols are but vaine and vnprofitable.

20 How can a man make thoſe his gods, which are not able to be gods?

21 And therefore I will once teach them, ſaieth the Lorde, I will ſhewe them my hand and my power, & they ſhall knowe that my name is the Lord.

The xvii. Chapter.

The frowardnes of the Iewes. 5 Curſed be thoſe that put their confidence in man, and thoſe bleſſed that truſt in God. 9 Mãs heart is wicked. 10 God is the ſearcher of the heart. 13 The liuing waters are forſaken. 21 The halowing of the Sabboth is commanded.

1 YOur ſinne, O ye of the tribe of Iuda, is written in þ table of your hearts, and grauen ſo vpon þ edges of your altars with a pẽne of yron, and with an Adamant clawe:

2 That as the fathers thinke vpon their children, ſo thinke you alſo vpon your altars, woods, thicke trees, high hilles, mountaines and fieldes.

3 Wherefore, O my mount that ſtandeth in the fielde, I will make all thy ſubſtance and treaſure to be ſpoyled, for the great ſinne that thou haſt done vpon thy high places, thoꝛowout al the coaſts of thy land.

4 Thou ſhalt bee caſt out alſo from the heritage that I gaue thee: and I will ſubdue thee vnder the heauie bondage of thine enemies, in a lande that yee knowe not: for ye haue minyſtred fire to mine indignation, which ſhall burne euermore.

5 Thus ſaith the Lord, Curſed be the mã that putteth his truſt in man, and that taketh fleſh for his arme, and hee whoſe heart departeth from the Lord.

Iere.48.6. 6 * Ye ſhalbe like the heath that groweth in wilderneſſe: As for the good thing that is for to come, he ſhall not ſee it, but dwell in a dyre place of the wilderneſſe, in a ſalt and vnoccupied land.

7 O bleſſed is the man that putteth his truſt in the Lorde, and whoſe hope is in the Lorde himſelfe.

Pſal.1,3. 8 * For he ſhall be as a tree that is planted by the water ſide, which ſpreadeth out the roote vnto moyſtnes, whom the heate can not harme when it commeth, but his leafe ſhalbe greene: And though there growe but litle fruite becauſe of drouth, yet is he not carefull, but hee neuer leaueth off to bring forth fruite.

a Gods ſeruice done according to his word, fauoureth ſweetely, that is, pleaſeth God: but Gods ſeruice and worſhip without his word, doeth ſauour like caryõ, that is, it abhorreth and much diſpleaſeth God.

9 Among

9 Among all things, man hath the moſt deceitfull and ſtubburne heart: Who ſhall then knowe it?

Reuel 2.23. Pſal. 7.10.

10 Euen I the Lord * ſearche out the grounde of the heart, & trye the reynes, and rewarde euery man accoyding to his wapes, and accoyding to the frut of his woykes.

11 The Partriche maketh a neſt of egges, which ſhe layde not: ſo commeth he by riches, but not righteouſly, in the midſt of his life muſt ſhe leaue them behinde him, and at the laſt ſhe founde a very foole.

12 But thou (O Lord) whoſe throne is moſt glorious, excellent, and of moſt antiquitie, which dwelleſt in the place of our holy reſt:

13 Thou art the comfort of Iſrael, all they that forſake thee ſhall bee confounded, all they that doe depart from thee ſhall be written in earth: for they haue forſaken the Lorde, the very conduite of the waters of life.

14 Heale mee, O Lorde, and I ſhall bee whole: ſaue thou mee, and I ſhalbe ſaued: for thou art my prayſe.

15 Beholde, theſe men ſay vnto me, Where is the word of the Lord? let it come now.

16 Whereas I neuertheleſſe obedientlie followed thee as a ſhepheard, and haue not vncalled taken this office vpon me, this knoweſt thou well: my wordes alſo were right before thee.

17 Be not thou terrible vnto me, O Lord: for thou art he in whome I hope when I am in perill.

18 Let my perſecutours bee confounded, but not me: let them be afraide, and not me: Thou ſhalt bring vpon them the time of plague, and ſhalt deſtroy them right ſore.

19 Thus hath the Lorde ſaide vnto mee, Goe and ſtande vnder the gate where thorow the people and the kings of Iuda goe out and in, yea vnder all the gates of Hieruſalem,

20 And ſay vnto them, Heare the word of the Lorde, yee kings of Iuda, and all thou people of Iuda, and all the citizens of Hieruſalem that goe thorowe this gate, 21 Thus the Lorde commandeth, Take heede for your liues that yee carie no burden vpon you in the Sabboth, to bring it thorowe the gates of Hieruſalē.

22 Yee ſhall beare no burden alſo out of your houſes in the Sabboth, you ſhall doe no labour therein: but halowe the Sabboth, as I cōmanded your fathers.

23 Yowbeit they obeyed me not, neither hearkened they vnto me: but were obſtinate and ſtubburne, & neither obeied me, nor receiued my correction.

24 Neuertheleſſe, if ye will heare me, ſaith the Lorde, and beare no burden into the citie thorow this gate vpon ꝑ Sabboth, if ye will halowe the Sabboth, ſo that ye do no woyke therein:

25 Then ſhall there go thorowe the gates of this citie kings and princes, that ſhall ſit vpon the throne of Dauid, they ſhalbe caried vpon charets, and ride vpon horſes, both they and their princes: yea whole Iuda, and all the citizens of Hieruſalem ſhall goe here thorowe, and this citie ſhall euer be inhabited.

26 There ſhall come men alſo from the cities of Iuda, from about Hieruſalem, and from the lande of Beniamin, from the plaine fields, from the mountaines, and from the wildernes, which ſhall bring whole burnt offerings, ſacrifices, oblations, and inceniſe, and offer vp thankeſgiuing in the houſe of the Lorde.

27 But if yee will not bee obedient vnto me, to halow the Sabboth, ſo that ye will beare your burdens thorowe the gates of Hieruſalem vpon the Sabboth: then ſhall I ſet fire vpon the gates of Hieruſalem, and it ſhall burne vp the houſes of Hieruſalem, and no man ſhall be able to quench it.

The xviii. Chapter.

1 God ſheweth by the example of a potter that it is in his power to deſtroy the deſpiſers of his word, and to helpe them againe when they amende. 18 The conſpiracie of the Iewes againſt Ieremie. 19 His prayer againſt his aduerſaries.

1 THis is another communicatiō that God had with Ieremie, ſaying,

2 Ariſe and goe downe into the potters houſe, & there ſhall I tell thee more of my minde.

3 Nowe when I came to the potters houſe, I founde him making his woyke vpon a wheele.

4 The veſſell that the potter made of clay brake among his handes: So he began a newe, and made another veſſell accoyding to his minde.

5 Then ſaid the Lord thus vnto me,

6 May not I doe with you as this potter doeth, O ye houſe of Iſrael, ſaith the Lord? Beholde, yee houſe of Iſrael, yee are in my hande, euen as the clay is in the potters hande.

7 * When I take in hande to roote out, to deſtroy, or to waſte awap any people or kingdome: Rom. 9.20. & 45.9.

8 * If that people againſt whom I haue thus deuiſed, conuert from their wickednes, I repent of the plague that I deuiſed to bring vpon them. Iere. 1.10.

9 Againe, when I take in hande to build or to plant a people or a kingdome:

10 If the ſame people doe euill before me, and heare not my voyce, I repent of the good that I haue deuiſed for them.

11 Speake nowe therefore vnto whole Iuda, and to them that dwell at Hieruſalem, Thus ſaieth the Lorde, Beholde, * I am deuiſing a plague for you, & am taking a thing in hand againſt you: therefore let euery man turne from his euill way, and take vpon you the thing that is good and right. Iere. 25.5. & 35. Ionas. 3.9.

12 But they ſaid, No more of this, we will followe our owne imaginations, and doe doe euery man according to the wilfulnesse of his owne minde.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Aske among the heathē if any man haue heard such horrible things, as the mayden Israel hath done?

a It is extreme madnes to forsake God the onely fresh spring of pure pleasant waters, who is nigh at hand, and to goe farre off to seeke fowle and filthy puddles, wherein there is nothing but vncleane and stinking water, Iere. 19 8. and 49. 10.

14 a Will a man forsake the snow of Libanus, which commeth from the rocke of the fielde? Or shall the colde flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 But my people hath forgotten me, they haue made sacrifice in vaine, and their prophets make them fall in their wayes from the ancient pathes, and to goe into a way not vsed to be troden of iust men.

16 * Wherethrough they haue brought their land into an euerlasting wilderues and scorne: so that whosoeuer trauaileth thereby shalbe abashed, and wagge their heades.

17 With an Eastwind will I scatter them before their enemies: and when their destruction cōmeth, I will turne my backe vpon them, but not my face.

18 Then said they, Come, let vs imagine some thing against this Jeremie: for the priests shall not be destitute of the lawe, neither shall the wise men be destitute of counsel, nor the prophets destitute of the worde of God: Come, and let vs smite him with the tongue, & let vs not marke all his wordes.

19 Consider me, O Lorde, and heare the voyce of mine enemies.

20 Shall they recompense euill for good? for they haue digged a pit for my soule: Remember how that I stoode before thee to speake good for them, and to turne away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore let their children die of hunger, and let them bee oppressed with the sword: let their wiues be robbed of their children and become widowes, let their husbands be slaine, let their young men be killed with the sword in the field.

22 Let the noyse bee heard out of their houses when thou bringest the murtherer suddenly vpon them: for they haue digged a pit to take me, and layd snares for my feete.

23 Yet Lord thou knowest all their counsell, that they haue deuised to slay mee, forgiue not their wickednesse, and let not their sinnes be put out of thy sight, but let them be iudged before thee as guiltie: this doe thou vnto them in the time of thine indignation.

The xix. Chapter.

1 He prophecyeth the destruction of Hierusalem, for the contempt and despising of the word of God.

1 THus saith the Lorde, Goe thy way and buy thee an earthen pitcher, and bring forth the senatours & chiefe priestes,

2 Vnto the valley of the children of Hennom, which lieth without the East gate, and shewe them there the wordes that I shall tell thee,

3 And say thus vnto them, Heare the worde of the Lord, ye kings of Juda, and ye citizens of Hierusalem, Thus saith the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring such a plague vpon this place, that the eares of all that heare it shall glowe:

4 And that because they haue forsaken me, and vnhalowed this place, and haue offered in it vnto strange gods, whome neither they, their fathers, nor the kings of Juda haue knowen: they haue filled this place also with the blood of innocents.

5 And they haue set vp an altar vnto Baal, to burne their children for a burnt offering vnto Baal, which I neither commanded nor charged them, neither thought once thereupon.

6 Behold therefore, the time commeth (saith the Lorde) that this place shall no more be called Thopheth, nor the valley of the children of Hennom: but the valley of slaughter.

7 For in this place will I bring to nought the counsell of Juda & Hierusalem, and kill them downe with the sworde before their enemies, and I will deliuer them into the handes of them that seeke their liues, & their dead carkeises will I giue to be meate for the foules of the aire, and the beasts of the field.

8 * And I will make this citie so desolate and despised, that whosoeuer goeth thereby shalbe abashed, and iest vpon her, because of all her plagues. Iere. 18, 16.

9 I will feede them also with the flesh of their sonnes and their daughters, yea, euery one shall eate vp another in the besieging and straitnesse wherewith their enemies that seeke their liues shall keepe them in.

10 And the pitcher shalt thou breake in sight of the men that go with thee.

11 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Euen so will I destroy this people and citie, as a man breaketh an earthen vessell that can not bee made whole againe: in Thopheth shall they bée buryed, for they shall haue none other place.

12 Thus will I doe vnto this place also saith the Lorde, and to them that dwell therein, yea, I will make this citie as Thopheth.

13 For the houses of Hierusalem, and the houses of the kings of Juda, shalbe defiled like as Thopheth, and so shall all the houses in whose roofes they did sacrifice vnto all the host of heauen, and powred drinke offerings vnto straunge gods.

14 And so Jeremie came from Thopheth, where the Lord had sent him to prophecie, and stoode in the court of the house of the Lord, and spake to all the people.

15 Thus saith the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring vpon this citie, and vpon euery towne about it, all the plagues that I haue deuised against them, because they haue bene obstinate, and would not obey my warnings.

The

The xx. Chapter.

a Ieremie is smitten and cast in prison, for preaching of the word of God. 4 He prophecieth the captiuitie of Babylon. 7 He complaineth that he is a mocking stocke for the word of God. 9 He is compelled by the spirit to preach the worde.

1 WHen Phashur the Priest, the sonne of Emmer, chiefe in the house of the Lorde, heard Ieremie preach these wordes so stedfastly,

2 He smote Ieremie, and put him in the prison that is in the high gate of Beniamin, towarde the house of the Lord.

3 The next day following, Phashur brought Ieremie out of the prison againe: Then said Ieremie vnto him, The Lorde shall call thee no more Phashur, that is, excellent and encreasing, but Magor, that is, fearefull and afrayd euery where.

4 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will make thee afraid, euen thy selfe, & all that fauour thee, which shall perish with the sword of their enemies, euen before thy face, and I will giue whole Iuda into the hands of the king of Babylō, which shall carrie some vnto Babylon prisoners, and slay some with the sword.

5 Moreouer, all the substance of the citie, what soeuer they haue gotten with their trauell, all their precious things, and all the treasure of the kings of Iuda, will I giue into the handes of their enemies, which shall spoile them, and carrie them vnto Babylon.

6 But as for thee (O Phashur) thou shalt goe into captiuitie with all thy housholde, and to Babylon shalt thou come, where thou shalt die, and be buried, thou and all thy fauourers, to whome thou hast preached lies.

a The Prophet assureth the trueth of his doctrine, against the slanderer: for it is the word of God, who cannot deceiue nor be deceiued.

7 O Lord, if I am deceiued, then hast thou b deceiued me, thou enforcedst mee, and hast preuailed: daylye am I despised, and laughed to scorne of euery man.

8 For since I began to preach, I cried out against violence, and exclaimed against oppression: for the which cause they cast the worde of the Lord in my teeth, to my reproch continually.

9 Wherefore I thought from henceforth not to speake of him, nor to preach any more in his name, but the word of the Lord was a very burning fire in my heart, and in my bones, which when I would haue stopped, I might not.

b The Priestes and such as were in authoritie with the king, stirred vp the people to watch narowly Ieremies sayings, if they could finde him to halt in any thing wherefore they might accuse him to the king.

10 Verily I heard the euill reports of many, terrour was on euery side of me: c complaine vpon him, say they, and wee will tell his tale: yea, all mine owne companions, and such as were conuersant with me, lay in wayt for my halting, saying, Peraduenture he will be deceiued, and so shall we preuaile against him, and be auenged of him.

11 But the Lord stood by me like a mightie Giant, therefore my persecutours fell, and could do nothing: they shall be sore confounded, for they haue done vnwisely, they shall haue an euerlasting shame, which shall neuer be forgotten.

12 And nowe, O Lorde of hostes, that triest the righteous, which knowest the reines and the very hearts, let mee see them punished: for vnto thee I haue declared my cause.

13 Sing vnto the Lord, and praise him, for he hath deliuered the soule of the oppressed from the hand of the violent.

14 *Cursed bee the day wherein I was borne, vnhappy be the day wherein my mother brought me forth.

*Iob. 3. 3.

15 Cursed be the man that brought my father the tidings to make him glad, saying, Thou hast begotten a sonne:

16 Let it happen vnto that man, as to the cities which the Lorde turned vpside downe, and repented not: let him heare crying in the morning, and at noone day lamentable howling.

c The most godly men are some times caried away with the vnruly rage of immoderate affection, albeit in this prophet the cause of his immoderate zeale was, for that he sawe his trauaile to saue the people to be in vaine, Gods word contemned, and all godlines scornefully despised.

17 Why slewest thou not mee as soone as I came out of my mothers wombe? or that my mother had bene my graue her selfe, that the birth might not haue come out, but remained still in her?

18 Wherefore came I forth of my mothers woombe, to haue experience of labour and sorowe, and to leade my life with shame?

The xxi. Chapter.

He prophecieth that Zedecias shalbe taken, and the citie burned.

1 THese are the wordes that the Lorde spake vnto Ieremie, what time as king Zedecias sent vnto him Phashur the sonne of Melchias, and Sophonias the sonne of Maasias Priest, saying,

2 Aske counsell at the Lorde, we pray thee on our behalfe, for Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon besiegeth vs: if the Lord peraduenture will deale with vs according to his marueilous power, and take him from vs.

3 Then spake Ieremie, Giue Zedecias this answere:

4 Thus saieth the Lorde God of Israel, Behold, I will turne backe the weapons that ye haue in your handes, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon and the Chaldees, which besiege you round about the walles, and I will bring them together into the middest of this citie.

5 And I my selfe will fight against you, with an outstretched hand, and with a mightie arme, in great displeasure and terrible wrath:

6 And will smite them that dwell in this citie, yea, both men and cattell shall die of a great pestilence.

7 But after this, (saith the Lord) I shall deliuer Zedecias king of Iuda, and his seruants, his people, and such as are escaped in the citie, from the pestilence, sworde, and hunger, into the power of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, yea into the hands of their enemies, into the handes of those that followe vpon their lines, which shall smite them with the sword, they shal not pitie them, they shal not not spare them, they shal haue no mer... vpon them.

8 And vnto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the Lord, *Behold, I lay before you the way of life and death. *Ier.38.2.

9 Who so abideth in the citie, shall perish either with the sword, with hunger, or pestilence: but who so goeth out to Holde on the Chaldees part that besiege it, he shall saue his life, and shall winne his soule for a pray.

10 For I haue set my face against this citie (saith the Lorde) to plague it, and to doe it no good: it must be giuen into the hande of the king of Babylon, and be burnt with fire.

11 And vnto the house of the king of Juda say thus, Heare the word of the Lord:

12 O thou house of Dauid,* thus saith the Lord, Minister righteousnesse, and that soone, deliuer the oppressed from violent power, or euer my terrible wrath breake out like a fire, and burne, so that no man may quench it, because of the wickednesse of your imaginations. *Ier.22.3.

13 Beholde, saith the Lorde, I will come vpon thee that dwellest in the valleyes, rockes, and fieldes, and say, Tush, who will make vs afrayd? or who will come into our houses?

14 For I will visit you, saith the Lord, because of the wickednesse of your inuentions, and will kindle such a fire in your wood, as shal consume all y is about you.

The xxii. Chapter.

a He exhorteth the king of Iudah to iudgement and righteousnesse. 9 Why Hierusalem is brought into captiuitie. 11 The death of Sellum the sonne of Josias is prophecied.

1 THus saith the Lord, Go downe into the house of the king of Juda, and speake there these words,

2 And say, Heare the word of the Lorde, thou king of Juda, that sittest in the kingly seate of Dauid, thou, and thy seruants, and thy people, that goeth in and out at these gates.

3 Thus the Lorde commandeth,* Keepe equitie and righteousnesse, deliuer the oppressed from the power of the violent, doe not griene nor oppresse the stranger, the fatherlesse, nor the widow, and shead no innocent blood in this place. *Jer.13.12.

4 And if ye keepe these things faithfully, then shall there come in at y dooze of this house, kings to sit vpon Dauids seate, they shalbe carried in charrets, and ride vpon horses, both they, & their seruants, and their people.

5 But if yee will not bee obedient vnto these commandements, I sweare by mine owne selfe, saith the Lord, this house shalbe waste.

6 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vpon the kings of Juda, Thou Gilead art vnto me the head of Libanus: shall I not make thee so waste as the cities that no man dwell in?

7 I will prepare a destroier with his weapons for thee, to hewe down thy especial Cedar trees, and to cast them in the fire.

8 And all the people that goe by this citie, shall speake one to another,* Wherefore hath the Lorde done thus vnto this noble citie? *Deut.29.24. 3.king.9.8.

9 Then shall it bee answered, Because they haue broke the couenant of y Lorde their God, and haue worshipped & serued strange gods.

10 Mourne not ouer the dead, and be not woe for them: but be sory for him y departeth away, for he commeth not againe, and seeth his native countrey no more.

11 For thus saith the Lorde, as touching Sellum the sonne of Josias king of Juda, which reigned after his father, Whe he is carried out of this place, he shall neuer come hither againe.

12 For he shall dye in the place whereunto he is ledde captiue, and shall see this lande no more.

13 Woe vnto him that buildeth his house with vnrighteousnesse, & his parlours with the good y he hath gotten by violence, which neuer recompenseth his neighbours labour, nor payeth him his hire:

14 Who thinketh in himselfe, I will build mee a wyde house and goigeous parlours, who causeth wyndowes to bee hewen therein, and the seelings & ioystes maketh he of Cedar, and paynteth them with Sinoper.

15 Thinkest thou to reigne now that thou hast inclosed thy selfe with Cedar? Did not thy father eate and drinke and prosper wel, as long as he dealt with equitie and righteousnesse?

16 Yea, when he helped the oppressed and poore to their right, the prospered he wel: from whence came this, but onely because he knew me, saith the Lord?

17 Neuertheless, as for thine eyes and thine heart they looke vpo couetousnesse, to shedde innocent blood, to doe wrong and violence.

18 And therefore thus saieth the Lorde against Jehoacim y sonne of Josias king of Juda, They shall not mourne for him as they vse to do, Alas brother, alas sister: neither shal they say vnto him, Alas sy, alas for that noble prince.

19 But as an Asse shall he be buried, corrupt, and bee cast without the gates of Hierusalem.

20 Clime vp the hill of Libanus, O thou daughter Sion, lift vp thy voyce vpo Basan, cry from all partes: for all thy louers are destroyed.

21 I gaue thee warning while thou wast yet in prosperitie: but thou saidest, I shall not heare: And this maner hast thou vsed from thy youth, that thou wouldest neuer heare my voyce.

22 All thy heardmen shall be driuen with the winde, and thy darlings shall be caried away into captiuitie: then shalt y be brought to shame and confusion, because of all thy wickednesse.

23 Thou that dwellest vpon Libanus, & makest thy nest in the Cedar trees, O hows litle shalt thou bee regarded when thy sorowe and pangs come vpon thee, as vpon a woma trauailing with child?

24 As truely as I liue, saieth the Lorde, Though ‖ Cononias the sonne of Ieshoacim king of Iuda were the signet of my right hande, yet will I plucke him off.

Or, Iechonias.

25 And I will giue thee into the hande of them that seeke thy life, and into the power of them that thou feareſt, euen into the power of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, and into the power of the Chaldees.

26 Moreouer, I will sende thee and thy mother that bare thee into a strange land where ye were not borne, and there shal ye dye.

27 But as for ỹ land that ye will desire to returne vnto, thee shall neuer come at it againe.

28 This man Cononias shall bee like an image robbed and torne in pieces, and like a vessell wherein there is no pleasure: Wherefore both hee and his seede shalbe sent awap, and cast into a lande that they knowe not.

29 O thou earth, earth, earth, heare the word of the Lord.

30 Thus saith the Lord, Write this man destitute of children: for no prosperitie shall this man haue all his dayes, neither shall any of his seede bee so happie as to sit vpon the seate of Dauid, and to beare rule any more in Iuda.

The xxiii. Chapter.

1 He speaketh against euill Curates that make hauocke of the flocke of the Lord. 5 The comming of the true shepheard Christ is prophecied. 9 Against false prophets. 32 The miracles of false prophetes.

Ezec. 34.2.

1 WOe vnto the * Shepheards that destroy and scatter my flocke, saith the Lord.

2 Wherefore this is the saying of the Lord God of Israel concerning the shepheardes that feede my people, Ye scatter and thrust out my flocke, and looke not vpon them: therefore nowe will I visite the wickednesse of your imaginations, saith the Lord.

Ezec. 34.12.

3 * And I will gather together the remnant of my flocke from all landes that I had driuen them vnto, and will bring them againe to their foldes, that they may growe and increase.

4 I will set Shepheardes also ouer the, which shall feede them: they shall no more feare and dread, and there shall none of them be lost, saith the Lord.

The Epistle on the xx. sunday after Trinitie.

Iere. 33.14 esay. 4.2. Deut. 33.28.

5 *Behold, the time commeth, saieth the Lord, that I will rayse vp the righteous branche of Dauid, which king shall beare rule, and he shal prosper with wisedome, and shal set vp equitie and righteousnesse againe in the earth.

6 * In his time shall Iuda be saued, and Israel shall dwell without feare: and this is the name that they shall cal him, The Lord our righteousnesse.

7 And therefore beholde, the time commeth, saith the Lorde, that it shall bee no more sayde, The Lorde liueth which brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt:

8 But, * The Lord liueth, which brought forth and ledde the seede of the house of Israel out of the North lande, and from all countreys where I had scattered the: and they shall dwell in their owne lande againe.

Ier. 16.13.

9 My heart breaketh in my body, because of the false prophets, all my bones shake, I am become like a drunken man, ỹ by reason of wine can take no rest for very feare of the Lord, and his holy words,

10 Because the lande is ful of aduulterers, and through swearing it mourneth, and the pleasant pastures of the desert are dryed vp: yea the way that men take is wicked, their power is nothing right.

11 For the Prophets & the Priests them selues are polluted by poorities, and their wickednesse haue I founde in my house, saith the Lord.

12 Wherefore their way shall be slipperie in the darkenes wherein they may stacker and fall: for I will bring a plague vpon them, euen the yeere of their visitation, saith the Lord.

13 I haue seene folly amõg the Prophets of Samaria that preached for Baal, and deceiued my people of Israel.

14 I haue seene also amõg the Prophets of Hierusalem foule aduulterie, and presumptuous lyes: they take the most shamefull men by the hande, flattering them, so that they can not returne from their wickednesse, all these with their citizens are vnto me as Sodome, and as the inhabiters of Gomorrhe.

15 * Therefore thus saieth the Lorde of hostes concerning these Prophets, Behold, I will feede them with wormes wood, and make them drinke the water of gal: for from the Prophets of Hierusalem is hypocrisie come into all the lad.

Iere. 9.15

16 And therfore the Lord of hostes giueth you this warning, Heare not the words of the prophets that preache vnto you, and deceiue you, truely they teache you banitie: for they speake the meaning of their owne heart, & not out of the mouth of the Lord.

17 They say vnto them that despise mee, the Lord hath spoken it, Truth, yee shall prosper right well: and vnto all them that walke after the lust of their owne heart, they say, Truth, there shall no misfortune happen you.

18 For who hath stoode in the counsell of the Lorde, that he hath heard and vnderstande what hee is about to doe? who hath marked his deuice, and heard it?

19 Beholde, the stormie weather of the Lorde, that is, his indignation shall goe forth, and a violent whirlewinde shall fall downe vpõ the head of the vngodly.

20 And the wrath of the Lorde shall not turne againe, vntill hee performe and fulfill fulfill the thought of his heart: and in the latter daies ye shall know this meaning.

Iere.14.13. and 27.21. 21 * I haue not sent these prophets sayeth the Lord, and yet they ranne, I haue not spoken to them, and yet they preached.

22 But if they had continued in my counsell, they had opened to my people my woyds, and they had turned my people from their euill wayes and wicked imaginations.

23 Am I then GOD that seeth but the thing which is nigh at hande, and not that is farre off, saith the Loyde?

24 May any man hide himselfe so, that I shall not see him, saith the Loyde? doe not I fulfill heauen and earth, saith the Loyd?

25 I haue heard well ynough what the prophetes say that preache lyes in my name, saying, I haue dreamed, I haue dreamed.

26 Howe long will this continue in the prophets heart to tell lies, and preach the craftie subtiltie of their owne heart?

27 Whose purpose is with the dreames that euery one tell, to make my people forget my name, as their fathers did when Baal came vp.

28 The prophet that hath a dreame, let him tell it, and he that vnderstandeth my woyde, let him shewe it faithfully: for what hath chaffe and wheate to doe together, saith the Loyd?

29 Is not my woyde like a fire, saith the Loyd, and like an hammer that breaketh the hard stone?

30 Therefore thus saith the Loyde, Beholde, I will vpon the prophetes that steale my woyd priuily from euery man.

31 Behold, here am I, saith the Loyde, against the prophetes that make tongues tender to speake, and to say, The Loyde hath sayd it.

32 Behold, here am I, saith the Loyd, against those prophets that dare prophecie lying dreames, and deceiue my people with their vanitie and inconstant deuices, yet I neuer sent nor commanded them: they shall doe this people no good at all, saith the Loyd.

33 If this people, either any prophet or priest aske thee, and say, What is the * burden of the Loyd? Thou shalt say vnto them, What burden? I will forsake you, saith the Loyd.

a The wicked mens heartes were so hardened against the trueth, that they vsed scornefully to scoffe at Gods threatning prophecies in mockage, calling them Gods fardle or burden.

34 And the prophet, priest, or people, that vseth this terme, The burden of the Loyd: him will I visite, and his house also.

35 But thus shall ye say euery one to another, and euery man to his brother, What answere hath the Loyde giuen? or what is the Loyds commandement?

36 And as for the burden of the Loyde, ye shall speake no more of it, for euery mans owne woyde is his burden: because ye haue altered the woydes of the liuing God, the Loyd of hostes our God.

37 Thus shall euery man say to the Prophets, What answere hath the Loyd giuen thee? or what saieth the Loyd?

38 And not once to name the burden of the Loyde. Therefore thus saieth the Loyde, For as much as ye haue vsed this terme, (The burden of the Loyde) whereas I notwithstanding sent vnto you, and forbade you to speake of the Loydes burden:

39 Beholde, therefore I will take you vp as a burden, and will cast you farre off from my presence, yea, and the citie also that I gaue you and your fathers:

Iere.20.11. 40 * And will bring you to an euerlasting confusion, and into a shame that shall neuer be forgotten.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1 The vision of the two panners of figges. 5 The first vision signifieth, that part of the people should be brought againe from captiuitie. 8 the seconde, that Zedecias and the rest of the people should bee destroyed.

1 THe Loyd shewed me a vision: behold, there stood two maundes of figges before the Temple of the Loyde, after that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had ledde away captiue Jechonias the sonne of Jehoiacim king of Juda, the mightie men also of Juda, with the workemasters and cunning men of Hierusalem, vnto Babylon.

2 In the one maunde were very good figges, euen like those that be first ripe: in the other maunde were very naughtie figges, which might not be eaten, they were so euill.

3 Then sayd the Loyd vnto mée, What seest thou, Jeremie? I said, Figges, whereof some be very good, and some so euill that no man may eate them.

4 Then came the word of the Loyde vnto me, after this maner:

5 Thus saith the Loyde God of Israel, Like as thou knowest the good figges: so shall I knowe the men led away, whom I haue sent out of this place, into the lande of the Chaldees for their profit:

6 And I will set mine eyes vpon them for the best, for I will bring them againe into this lande, I will builde them vp, and not breake them downe, I will plant them, and not roote them out.

Iere.1.33. 7 * I will giue them an heart to knowe howe that I am the Loyde, they shall bee my people, and I will be their God: for they shall returne vnto mee with their whole heart.

Iere.29.17. 8 * And like as thou knowest the naughtie figges which may not bee eaten, they are so euill: euen so will I, saieth the Loyde, cause Zedecias the king of Juda, yea, and all his princes, and the residue of Hierusalem that remaine ouer in this land, and them also that dwel in Egypt, to bee vexed and plagued in kingdomes and lands.

9 And I will make them to be a reproofe, a common byworde, a laughing stocke and shame in all the places where I shall scatter them.

10 I will send the swoꝛde, hunger, and pestilence among them, vntil I haue cleane consumed them out of the land that I gaue vnto them and their fathers.

The xxv. Chapter.

Ieremie prophesieth that they shalbe in captiuitie three score and ten yeres, because they contemned and despised the word of God.

1 A Sermon that was giuen vnto Ieremie vpon all the people of Iuda, in the fourth yeere of Iehoacim the sonne of Iosias king of Iuda (that was in the first yere of Nabuchodonosoꝛ king of Babylon,)

2 Which sermon Ieremie the Pꝛophet made vnto all the people of Iuda, and to all the inhabiters of Hierusalem, on this maner,

3 From the thirteenth yere of Iosias the sonne of Amon king of Iuda, vnto this present day (that is euen twentie and three yeeres) the woꝛde of the Lo͡ꝛde hath bene committed vnto me, and so haue I spoken vnto you, I haue risen vp earely,
I haue giuen you warning in season:
but ye would not heare me.

4 Though the Lo͡ꝛd hath sent his seruãts all the Pꝛophets vnto you in season: yet would ye not obey, ye would not encline your eares to heare.

4. King. 17. 13. Zech. 1. 4. 5 He said, *Turne againe euery man from his euill way, & from your wicked imaginations, and so shall yée dwell foꝛ euer in the lande that the Lo͡ꝛde pꝛomised you and your foꝛefathers.

6 And goe not after strange gods, serue them not, woꝛship them not, and anger me not with the woꝛkes of your owne handes, then will I not punish you.

7 Neuertheles, ye would not heare me, sayth the Lo͡ꝛde, but haue pꝛouoked mée to anger with the woꝛks of your hands, to your great harme.

8 Wheꝛfoꝛe thus saith the Lo͡ꝛd of hostes Because yee haue not hearkened vnto my woꝛde,

9 Loe, I will sende out and call foꝛ all the people that dwell in the North, sayeth the Lo͡ꝛd, and will pꝛepare Nabuchodonosoꝛ the king of Babylon my seruant, and will bring them vpon this land, and vpon all that dwell therein, and vpon all the people that are about them, and will vtterly roote them out: I will make them amazed, a mockage, and a continuall desert.

10 Moꝛeouer, I will take from them the voyce of gladnesse and solace, the voyce of the bridegrome, and ꝓ bride, the noyse of the millstones, and the light of the cres-sets.

11 And this whole lande shall become a wildernesse, & astonished: and these nations shall serue the king of Babylon three score yeres and tenne.

Iere. 26. 6. 2. chro. 36. 2. 1. esd. 1. 1. dan. 9. 2. 12 *When the three score and tenne yeres are expired, I will visite all the wickednesse of the king of Babylon, and his people, sayeth the Lo͡ꝛd, yea, and the land of the Chaldees, and will make it a perpetuall wildernesse,

13 And will fulfill all my woꝛds vpon that lande which I haue deuised against it:
yea, all that is written in this booke, which Ieremie hath pꝛophecied of all people.

14 So that they also shalbe subdued vnto diuers nations, and great kings: foꝛ I will recompense them accoꝛding to the deedes and woꝛks of their owne hands.

15 Foꝛ thus hath the Lo͡ꝛd God of Israel spoken vnto mée, *Take this wine cup Apoc. 16. 19.
of indignation fro my hande, that thou mayest cause al people to whome I send thée, foꝛ to drinke of it:

16 That when they haue drunken thereof, they may bee mad, and out of their wits, when the swoꝛd commeth that I will sende among them.

17 Then toke I the cup from the Lo͡ꝛdes hand, & made all people to drinke thereof, vnto whom the Lo͡ꝛd had sent me:

18 But first the citie of Hierusalem, and all the cities of Iuda, their kings and pꝛin-ces, to make them desolate, amazed, despised, and hissed at, and cursed, accoꝛ-ding as it is come to passe this day:

19 Pea, and Pharao the king of Egypt, his seruants, his pꝛinces, and his people, altogether one with another:

20 And all kings of the land of Hus, all kings of ꝓ Philistines land, Ascalon, Gazah, Accaron, and the remnant of Azoot,

21 The Edomites, the Moabites, and the Ammonites,

22 All the kings of Tyrus and Sidon, the kings of the Iles that are beyond ꝓ sea,

23 Dedan, Thema, Buz, and all them that dwell in the vttermost parts of ꝓ woꝛld,

24 All the kings of Arabia, and generally all the kings that dwell in the desert,

25 All the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, all the kings of the Medes,

26 All the kings towarde the North, whether they bee farre oꝛ nigh, euery one against his neighbour, yea, all the king-domes that are vpon the whole earth:
and the king of Sesach shall drinke also after them.

27 Theꝛefoꝛe say thou vnto them, This is the commandement of the Lo͡ꝛd of hosts the God of Israel, Drinke, and be drunken: spewe, and fall, that yé neuer arise, and that through the swoꝛd which I will send among you.

shall giue a great voyce like the grape gatherers, & the sound thereof shalbe heard vnto the endes of the world.

31 For the Lord hath a iudgement to giue vpon all people, and will hold his court of iustice with all flesh, and wil deliuer the vngodly to the swoorde, saieth the Lorde.

32 For thus saieth the Lord of hostes, Beholde, a miserable plague shall goe from one people to another, and a great storme water shall arise from all the endes of the earth.

33 And the same day shall the Lorde himselfe slay them from on ende of the earth to another: there shall no mone be made for any of them, none gathered vp, none buried: but shall lye as doung vpon the ground.

34 Mourne, O yee shepheardes, and cry, sprinkle your selues with ashes, O yee rammes of the flocke: for the time of your slaughter and breach is fulfilled, & ye shal fall like vessels that were much set by.

35 The shepheardes shall haue no way to flee, and the rammes of the flocke shall not escape.

36 Then shall the shepheardes cry horribly, and the rammes of the flocke shall mourne: for þ Lord hath consumed their pasture.

37 And their best fieldes lie dead, because of the horrible wrath of the Lord.

38 They haue forsaken their foldes like as a lion: for their land is waste, because of the spoylers furious crueltie, and of his fearefull indignation.

The xxvi. Chapter.

2 Ieremie mooueth the people to amendement. 7 He is taken of the prophets and Priests, and brought to iudgement. 23 Urias the Prophet is killed of Ioachim, contrary to the will of God.

1 IN the beginning of the reigne of Ioachim the sonne of Iosias king of Iuda, came this worde from the Lord, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lorde, Stande in the court of the Lords house, and speake vnto all them which (out of the cities of Iuda) come to doe worshippe in the Lordes house, all the wordes that I commaund thee to say: looke that thou keepe not one worde backe.

3 (If peraduenture they wil hearken and turne euery man from his wicked way, that I may also repent of the plague which I haue determined to bring vpō them, because of their wicked inuentiōs.)

4 And after this maner shalt thou speake vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde, If yee will not obey me, to walke in my lawes which I haue giuen you,

5 And to heare the wordes of my seruantes the Prophets whome I sent vnto you, rising vp early, and still sending, yet you haue not hearkened:

6 Then wil I do to this house, *as I did vnto Silo, and wil make this citie to bee abhorred of all the people of the earth.

*1.King.4.14.

7 And the priestes, the prophetes, and all the people heard Ieremie preache these wordes in the house of the Lorde.

8 Nowe when hee had spoken out all the words that the Lord commanded him to preache vnto the people, then the priests, the prophets, & al the people tooke holde vpon him, and saide, Thou shalt die:

9 How dareste thou be so bolde as to say in the name of the Lord, It shal happen to this house, as it did vnto Silo, & this citie shalbe so waste, that no man may dwel therein?

10 And when all the people were gathered about Ieremie in the house of the Lorde, the princes of Iuda heard of this rumour, and they came soone out of the kings palace into the house of the Lord, and sate them downe before the newe doore of the Lorde.

11 Then spake the priestes and the prophets vnto the rulers, and to al the people these wordes. This man is worthie to die: for he hath preached against this citie, as ye your selues haue heard with your eares.

12 Then saide Ieremie vnto the rulers, and to al the people. The Lorde hath sent me to preach against this house, and against this citie, all the wordes that ye haue heard.

13 *Therefore amende your wayes, and your aduisements, and be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God, so shal the Lorde repent of the plague that he hath deuised against you. Iere.7.3.

14 Now as for me, I am in your handes, doe with me as you thinke expedient & good:

15 But this shall ye knowe, if yee put mee to death, ye shall make your selues, this citie and all the inhabitants therof, guiltie of innocēt blood: for this is of a truth, that the Lorde hath sent me vnto you, to speake all these wordes in your eares.

16 Then saide the rulers and the people vnto the priests and prophets, This man may not be condemned to death, for hee hath preached vnto vs in the name of þ Lord our God.

17 The elders also of the land stoode vp, and said thus vnto al the people, 18 Micheas the Morasthite, which was a Prophet vnder Ezecias king of Iuda, spake to all the people of Iuda, Thus saith þ Lord of hostes, *Sion shalbe plowed like a field, Hierusalē shalbe an heape of stones, and the hil of the Lordes house shalbe turned to an high wood. Mich.3.12.

19 Did Ezecias the king of Iuda, and all the people of Iuda put him to death for this? No verily, but rather feared the Lorde, and made their prayer vnto him, for the which cause also the Lorde repented of the plague þ he had deuised against them: should wee then doe such ons or changeablenes: but God is said after the maner of men to repent, whē he doth not execute that he had denounced, or doth deferre the plague which he had threatned.

a shamefull deede against our soules?
20 There was a Prophet that preached stiffely in the name of the Lorde, called Urias, the sonne of Semaiah of Ciriathiarim: this man also preached against this citie, and against this lande, accordyng to all as Ieremie saieth.
21 Nowe when Iehoacim the king, with all the estates and princes, had hearde his wordes, the king went about to slay him: when Urias perceiued that, hee was afraide, and fled, and departed into Egypt:
22 Then Iehoacim the king sent seruants into the land of Egypt, namely, Elnathan the sonne of Achbor, and certaine men with him into Egypt:
23 Which fetched Urias out of Egypt, & brought him vnto king Iehoacim, þ slue him with the sword, & cast his dead body into the common peoples graue.
24 But Ahicam the sonne of Saphan helped Ieremie, that hee came not into the handes of the people to be slaine.

The xxvii. Chapter.

1 Ieremie at the commandement of the Lorde, sendeth bondes to the king of Iuda, and to the other kings that were nigh, whereby they are monished to become subiectes vnto Nabuchodonosor. 9 He warneth the people, and the kings and rulers, that they beleeue not false prophets.

1 In the beginning of the reigne of Iehoacim the sonne of Iosias king of Iuda, came this word vnto Ieremie frō the Lord, which spake thus vnto me,
2 Make thee bonds and chaines, and put them about thy necke,
3 And send them to the king of Edom, to the king of Moab, to the king of Ammō, to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Sidon, & that by the messengers which shall come to Hierusalem, vnto Zedecias the king of Iuda:
4 And bid them say vnto their masters, Thus saieth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Speake thus vnto your masters:
5 I am he that made the earth, the men, and the cattel that are vpon the ground, with my great power and stretched out arme, and hath giuen it to whom it pleased me.
6 And nowe will I deliuer all these landes into the power of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon my seruant: þ beastes also of the fielde will I giue him, to doe him seruice.
7 And all the people shall serue him, and his sonne, and his childrens childrē, vntill the time of the same lande be come, & his time also: yea many people & great kings shall serue him.
8 Moreouer, that people and kingdome which will not serue Nabuchodonosor, and that will not put their neckes vnder the yoke of the king of Babylō: the same people will I visite with the sword, with hunger and pestilence, vntil I haue consumed them in his handes saieth the Lorde.
9 And therfore follow not your prophets, soothslapers, expounders of dreames, charmers, and witches, which say vnto you, Ye shall not serue the king of Babylon.
10 For they preache you lyes, to bring you farre from your lande, and that I might cast you out, and destroy you.
11 But the people that put their neckes vnder the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serue him, those will I let remaine still in their owne land, saieth the Lorde, and they shal occupie it, and dwel therein.
12 All these thinges tolde I Zedecias the king of Iuda, and said, Put your neckes vnder the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serue him and his people, that yee may liue.
13 Why wilt thou and thy people perish with the sword, with hunger, with pestilence, like as the Lorde hath denised for al people that wil not serue the king of Babylon?
14 Therefore giue no eare vnto those prophets that tell you, Ye shal not serue the king of Babylon: for they preach you lyes.
15 *Neither haue I sent them saith þ Lord: Iere.14.15.
howbeit they are bolde falsely to prophecie in my name, that I might the sooner driue you out, and that ye might perish with your preachers.
16 I speake to the Priests also, and to all this people: thus saieth the Lorde, Heare not the wordes of your prophets that preache vnto you, and say, Behold, the vessels of the Lords house shal shortly be brought hither againe from Babylon, for they prophecie lyes vnto you.
17 Heare them not, but serue the king of Babylon, that ye may liue: wherefore wil ye make this citie to be destroyed?
18 But if they be true Prophets in very deede, & if the word of the Lord be committed vnto them, then let them pray þ Lord of hostes, that the remnant of the ornaments which are in the house of þ Lord, and in the house of the king of Iuda and at Hierusalem, bee not carryed to Babylon also.
19 *For thus hath the Lord of hostes spo- 4.King.25.13
ken concerning the pillars, the lauer, the seate, and the residue of the ornaments þ yet remaine in this citie, 20 Which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon tooke not, when he carried away Iechonias the sonne of Iehoacim king of Iuda, with all the power of Iuda and Hierusalem vnto Babylon captiue.
21 Yea, thus hath the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel spoken, as touching the residue of the ornaments of the Lordes house, of the king of Iuda his house, and of Hierusalem:
22 *They shalbe carryed vnto Babylon, 1.Esdr.1.
and there shall they remaine vntill I visite the, saieth the Lord: then will I bring them hither againe.

The xxviii. Chapter.

1 The falſe prophecie of Hananias the prophet. 12 Jeremie ſheweth that the prophecie of Hananias is falſe, by the example of the other Prophets.

1 AND it came to paſſe the ſame yeere, euen in the beginning of the reigne of Zedecias king of Juda, in the fourth yere, & fifth moneth, that Hananias the ſonne of Aſſur the prophet of Gibeon, ſpake to me in the * houſe of the Lord, in the preſence of the prieſts, and of all the people, and ſaide,

1.Kin.3.1.

2 Thus ſaieth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, I haue broken the yoke of the king of Babylon,

3 And after two yeres will I bring againe into this place all the ornaments of the Lordes houſe, that Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon carried awaye frō this place vnto Babylon,

4 Yea, I will bring againe Jechonias the ſonne of Jehoacim the king of Juda himſelfe, with all the priſoners of Juda that are carried vnto Babylon, euen into this place, ſaieth the Lorde: for I will breake the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 Then the Prophet Jeremie gaue anſwere vnto the prophet Hananias before all the prieſts, and before all the people that were preſent in the houſe of the Lorde.

6 And the Prophet Jeremie ſaid, Amen, the Lorde doe that, and graunt the thing which thou haſt prophecied, that he may bring againe all the ornaments of the Lords houſe, and reſtore all the priſoners from Babylon into this place.

7 Neuertheleſſe, hearken thou alſo what I will ſay, that thou and all the people may heare.

8 The Prophets that were before vs in time paſt, which prophecied of warre, or trouble, or peſtilence, 9 Either of peace vpon many nations and great kingdomes, were proued by this (if God hath ſent them in very deed) when the thing came to paſſe which the Prophet tolde before.

10 And Hananias the prophet tooke the chaine frō the Prophet Jeremies necke, and brake it.

11 And with that ſayd Hananias that all the people might heare, Thus ſaith the Lord ſpoken, Euen ſo will I breake the yoke of Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon from the necke of all nations, yea, and that within this two yeere. And ſo the Prophet Jeremie went his way.

12 Now after that Hananias the prophet had taken the chaine from the Prophet Jeremies necke, and broken it, the word of the Lorde came vnto the Prophet Jeremie, ſaying, 13 Goe and tell Hananias theſe wordes, Thus ſaith the Lord, Thou haſt broken the chaine of wood, but in ſtede of wood thou ſhalt make chaines of yron.

14 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, I will put a yoke of yron vpon the necke of all this people, that they may ſerue Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon, yea, and ſo ſhall they doe: and I will giue him the beaſtes of the fielde.

15 Then ſaid the Prophet Jeremie vnto the prophet Hananias, Heare me, Hananias, the Lorde hath not ſent thee, but thou cauſeſt this people into a falſe beliefe.

16 And therefore thus ſaith the Lord, Beholde, I will ſende thee out of the lande, and within a yere thou ſhalt die, becauſe thou haſt ſaide ſpoken againſt the Lord.

17 So Hananias died the ſame yere in the ſeuenth moneth.

The xxix. Chapter.

1 The Epiſtle of Jeremie ſent vnto them that were in captiuitie in Babylon. 10 He prophecieth their returne from the captiuitie after ſeuentie yeeres.

1 THeſe are the wordes of the booke that Jeremie the Prophet ſent from Hieruſalem vnto the priſoners, the ſenators, prieſtes, prophets, and all the people, whome Nabuchodonoſor had led from Hieruſalem vnto Babylon,

2 After the time that king Jechonias & his queene, his chamberlaines, the princes of Juda and Hieruſalem, the workemaſters of Hieruſalem, were departed thither.

3 Which booke Elaſah the ſonne of Saphan, and Gamariah the ſonne of Helcia did beare, whom Zedecias the king of Juda ſent vnto Babylon to Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon: theſe were the wordes of Jeremies booke.

4 Thus hath the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael ſpoken vnto all the priſoners that were led from Hieruſalem to Babylon:

5 Builde you houſes to dwell therein, plant you gardens, that you may enioy the fruites thereof.

6 Take you wiues to beare you ſonnes, and daughters, prouide wiues for your ſonnes, and huſbandes for your daughters, that they may get ſonnes & daughters, & that ye may multiply there, and decreaſe not.

7 Seeke after the peace and proſperitie of the citie wherein ye be priſoners, & pray vnto the Lorde for it: for in the peace thereof ſhall your peace be.

8 For thus ſaieth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, * Let not theſe prophets and ſoothſayers that be among you deceiue you, and beleeue not your owne dreames: Jere.14.14.

9 For why? they preach you lies in my name, and I haue not ſent them, ſaieth the Lord.

10 But thus ſaieth the Lorde, * When yee haue fulfilled ſeuentie yeres at Babylon, I will bring you home, and of mine owne goodneſſe I will carrie you hither againe into this place. Jere.25.10. 2.chro.36.22. 1.eſd.1.1. dan.9.1.

11 For I knowe what I haue deuiſed for you, ſaieth the Lorde: my thoughtes are to giue you peace, and not trouble, and to giue you an ende as you wiſh and hope to haue.

12 Ye shall crp vnto me, yee shall goe and call vpon me, and I will heare you.
13 Yee shall seeke mee, and find mee: yea, if so bee that you seeke mee with your whole heart,
14 I will be founde of you, saieth the Lord, and will deliuer you out of prison, and gather you together againe out of all places wherein I haue scattered you, saeth the Lord, and will bring you againe to the same place from whence I caused you to be carried awap captiue.
15 But whereas ye say that God hath raised you vp prophets at Babylon, 16 Thus hath the Lord spoken to the king that sitteth in the throne of Dauid, and to all the people that dwell in the citie, and to your brethren that are not gone with you into captiuitie:
17 Thus I say speaketh the Lord of hostes, *Beholde, I will send a swoorde, hunger and pestilence vpon them, and will make them like vntimely figges that may not be eaten for bitternesse: *Ier.e.24.8.
18 And I will persecute them with the swoorde, with hunger, and pestilence, I will deliuer them vp to bee vexed of all kingdoms, to bee cursed, abhorred, laughed to scorne, and put to confusion of all the people among whom I haue scattered them:
19 And that because they haue not bene obedient vnto my commandements, saith the Lorde, which I sent vnto them by my seruants the Prophets: I stoode vp earely, and sent vnto them, but they woulde not heare, saeth the Lord.
20 Heare therefore the word of the Lorde, all ye prisoners, whom I sent from Hierusalem to Babylon, 21 Thus hath the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel spoken of Ahab the sonne of Cholaiah, and of Zedecias the sonne of Maasiah, which prophecie lies vnto you in my name, Behold, I will deliuer them into the hand of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, that he may slay them before your eyes.
22 And all the prisoners of Iuda that are in Babylon, shall take this terme of cursing, and say, Howe God doe vnto thee as he did vnto Zedecias & Ahab, whom the king of Babylon rosted in the fire, 23 Because they haue shamefully in Israel: for they haue not onely defiled their neighbours wiues, but also preached lying woordes in my name, which I haue not commanded them: this I testifie and assure, saeth the Lorde.
24 But as for Semeiah the Nehelamite, thou shalt speake vnto him:
25 Thus saith the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Because thou hast sent letters in thine owne name vnto all the people that is at Hierusalem, and to Sophonias the sonne of Maasiah the priest, yea and sent them to all the priests, saying,
26 The Lord hath ordeined thee to be priest in the steade of Iehoiada the priest, that thou shouldest be chiefe in the house of the Lorde aboue all prophets and preachers, and that thou mightest set them vpon the pillorie, or in the stockes.
27 How happeneth it then that thou hast not reproued Ieremie of Anathoth, which neuer leaueth off his prophecying
28 And beside all this, hee hath sent vs word vnto Babylon, and told vs plainly that our captiuitie shall long endure, that we should builde vs houses to dwel therein, and to plant vs gardens, that we may enioy the fruites thereof.
29 Which letter Sophonias ꝑ priest read, and let Ieremie the Prophet heare it.
30 Then came the word of the Lorde vnto Ieremie, saying,
31 Send word to all them that bee in captiuitie, on this maner, Thus hath the Lord spoken concerning Semeiah the Nehelamite: Because that Semeiah hath prophecied vnto you without my commission, and brought you into a false hope:
32 Therefore thus the Lorde doth certifie you, Behold, I will visite Semeiah the Nehelamite and his seede, so that none of his shal remaine among this people, and none of them shall see the good that I will doe for my people, saeth the Lord, for he hath preached falsely of the Lorde.

The xxx. Chapter.

1 The returne of the people from Babylon. 8 God by his chastening sheweth that the people is sinfull. 16 The destruction of the enemies of Israel.

1 THese are the woordes that the Lorde sheweth vnto Ieremie, saying,
2 Thus saieth the Lord God of Israel, Write vp diligently al the woords that I haue spoken vnto thee in a booke.
3 For loe, the time commeth, saeth the Lord, that I will bring againe the prisoners of my people of Israel and Iuda, saieth the Lorde: for I will restore them vnto ꝑ land that I gaue to their fathers, and they shall haue it in possession.
4 Againe, these woordes spake the Lorde concerning Israel and Iuda, 5 Thus saieth the Lord, We haue heard a terrible crp, feare, and disquietnesse.
6 For what elle doeth this signifie that I see? namely, that all strong men smite euerie man his hand vpon his lopnes, as a woman in ꝑ paine of her trauaile? Who euer sawe a man trauaile with childe? Enquire thereafter and see, yea, all their faces are marueilous pale.
7 *Alas for this day, which is so dreadfull that none may be likened vnto it, and alas for the time of Iacobs trouble, from the which he shall yet be deliuered. *Ioel.2.11. amos.5.10. soph.1.15.
8 For in that day, saeth the Lorde of hostes, I will take his yoke from off thy necke, and breake thy bonds, and strangers shall no more haue dominion ouer him:
9 But they shall doe seruice vnto God their Lorde, and to Dauid their king, whome I will raise vp vnto them.
10 *And as for thee, O my seruant Iacob, feare not, saeth the Lord, neither be afraid, O Israel: for beholde, I will saue thee from a farre countrey, and thy seede from the land of their captiuitie, and Iacob shall returne, and shall be in rest, and prosperous, and none shall make him afraid. *Esai.44.1. luke.1.79.

feare not, saieth the Lorde, and be not afraide, O Israel: for loe, I will helpe thee also from farre, and thy seede from the land of their captiuitie: and Jacob shall turne againe, he shalbe in rest and haue a prosperous life, and no man shall make him afraide:

11 For I am with thee, to helpe thee, saith the Lorde: and though I shall destroy all the people, among whom I haue scattered thee, yet will I not destroy thee, but correct thee, and that with discretion: for I will not vtterly destroy thee.

12 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Thy bruisings are perilous, and thy woundes readie to cast thee into sickenesse.

13 There is no man to meddle with thy cause, or to lay a plaister vpon thee, or to binde vp thy woundes to heale thee.

14 All thy louers haue forgotten thee, and care nothing for thee: for I haue giuen thee a cruell stroke, and chastened thee roughly, and that for the multitude of thy mildeedes: for thy sinnes haue had the ouerhand.

15 *Why makest þ mone for thy harme? Leu.15.18.
In deede thou art sore wounded and in ieopardie: but for the multitude of thy mildeedes and sinnes I haue done this vnto thee.

16 And therefore all they that deuoure thee, shalbe deuoured, and all thine enemies shalbe led into captiuitie: all they that make thee waste, shalbe wasted themselues, and all those that robbe thee, will I make also to be robbed.

17 For I wil giue thee thy health againe, and make thy woundes whole, saieth the Lorde, because they reuiled thee, as one cast awap and despised: Sion saide they is shee whome no man regardeth.

18 For thus saieth the Lorde, Beholde, I wil bring againe the captiuitie of Jacobs tentes, and defende his dwelling place: the citie shalbe builded in her olde estate, & the houses shal haue their right foundation.

19 And out of them shall goe thankesgiuing and the voyce of ioy: I will multiplie them, and they shall not bee fewe, I will endue them with honour, and no man shal subdue them.

20 Their children shalbe as aforetime, and their congregation shall continue in my sight: and all those that vexe them will I visite.

21 A captaine also shall come of them, and a prince shall spring out from the midst of them, him will I chalenge to my selfe, and he shal come vnto me: for what is he that giueth ouer his heart to come vnto me, saieth the Lorde?

22 Ye shalbe my people also, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, on the other side shal the wrath of the Lord breake out as a stormie water, as a mightie whirle wind, and shall fall vpon the heades of the vngodly.

24 The terrible displeasure of the Lorde shall not leane off, vntil he hath done and performed the intent of his heart, which in the latter dayes ye shall vnderstand.

The xxxi. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth that the people of Israel shalbe restored againe vnto their prosperitie. 18 To bee turned from sinne, is the gift of God. 27 The birth of Christ is propheciied.

1 AT the same time saieth the Lorde, shall I be the God of all the generations of Israel, and they shalbe my people:

2 Thus saieth the Lord, The people of Israel which escaped in the wildernesse frō the swoorde, founde grace to come into their rest.

3 Euen so shall the Lorde nowe also appeare vnto me from farre, and say, I loue thee with an euerlasting loue, therefore by my mercie I haue drawen thee vnto me.

4 I wil repaire thee againe, O þ daughter of Israel, that thou maiest be fast and sure: thou shalt take thy tabrets againe, and goe foorth with them that leade the daunce:

5 Thou shalt plant vines againe vpon the hils of Samaria, & the grape gatherers shall plant, and commonly eate of it.

6 For þ dayes shal come when the watchmen vpon the mount of Ephraim shall crp, Arise, let vs goe vp vnto Sion to our Lord God.

7 For thus saieth the Lord, Reioyce with gladnesse because of Jacob, crp vnto the head of the Gentiles, speake out, sing & say, O Lord saue thy people the remnant of Israel.

8 Beholde, I will bring them againe frō out of the North lande, and gather them from the endes of the worlde, with the blinde and lame that are among them, with the woman that be great with child, and such as be also deliuered: and the companie of them that come againe shalbe great.

9 They shal come weeping, & with merciful pitie wil I bring them hither againe: I will leade them to the riuers of water in a straight way where they shall not stumble: for I am Israels father, and Ephraim is my first borne.

10 Heare the word of the Lord, O ye Gentiles, preach in the Iles that lie farre off, and say, Hee that hath scattered Israel shall gather him together againe, and shal keepe him as a sheepheard doeth his flocke.

11 For the Lord hath redeemed Jacob, & rid him from the hand of the violent.

12 And they shall come and reioyce vpon the hil of Sion, and shal haue plentifulnesse of goods, which the Lord shal giue them, namely wheate, wine, oyle, young sheepe, and calues: and their soule shalbe as a well watered garden, for they shall no more be hungry.

13 Then shall the maide reioyce in the daunce, yea both yong and olde folkes:

for I will turne their sorowe into gladnesse, and wil comfort them from their sorowes, and make them ioyful.

14 I will powre plenteousnesse vpon the hearts of ꝑ priests, and my people shalbe satisfied with my goodnesse, saieth the Lord.

Mat 2.18. 15 Thus saieth the Lord, *The voyce of heauinesse, weeping, and lamentation was heard on high, euen of Rachel mourning for her children, and would not bee comforted, because they were not.

16 But nowe, saieth the Lorde, leaue off from weeping & crying, withhold thine eyes from teares: for thy labour shalbe rewarded, saieth the Lorde, and they shal come againe out of the land of their enemies.

17 Yea, euen thy posteritie shal haue consolation in this, saith the Lorde, that thy children shal come againe to thee into their owne land.

18 Moreouer, I heard Ephraim that was led away captiue complaine on this maner, O Lord, thou hast corrected mee, and thy chastening haue I receiued as an vntamed calfe, conuert thou mee, and I shalbe conuerted: for thou art my Lord God.

19 Yea, as soone as thou turnest mee, I shall repent me my selfe, and when I vnderstande, I shall smite vpon my thigh, for verily I haue committed shamefull things: for I haue borne the reproche & confusion of my youth.

20 Vpon this complaint I thought thus by my selfe, Is not Ephraim my deare sonne? Is he not the childe with whome I haue had al my mirth & pastime? For since the time that I first communed with him, I haue him euer in remembrance: therefore my heart driueth me vnto him, gladly and louingly will I haue mercie vpon him, saieth the Lord.

21 Make thy selfe markes, set vp heapes of stone, set thine heart vpon the way ꝑ thou diddest walke, and turne againe, O thou daughter of Israel, turne againe to these cities of thine.

22 How long wilt thou go astray, O thou shrinking daughter? for the Lorde will worke a newe thing vpon earth: A woman shall compasse a man.

23 For thus saieth the Lords of hostes the God of Israel, It will come thereto, that when I haue brought Iuda out of captiuitie, these wordes shalbe heard in the land and in his cities, The Lorde bl esse thee, O thou dwelling place of righteousnesse, O thou holy hill.

24 And there shall dwell Iuda and all her cities, the Shepheardes and husbandmen:

25 For I will feede the hungry soule, & refreth all faint hearts.

26 When I heard this, I came againe to my selfe, I sawe like as I had bene waked out of a sweete sleepe:

27 Behold, saith the Lorde, the dayes come that I will sowe the house of Israel and the house of Iuda with men and with cattell.

28 Yea, it shal come thereto, that like as I haue gone about in times past to roote them out, to scatter them, to breake them downe, to destroy them, and chasten them: euen so wil I also go diligently about to build them vp againe, and to plant them, saieth the Lord.

29 Then shall it no more be said, *The fathers haue eaten a sowre grape, and the childrens teeth are set on edge. Exec. 18.2.

30 For euery one shall die for his owne misdeedes: so that who so eateth a sowre grape, his teeth shalbe set on edge.

31 *Behold, the dayes wil come, saieth ꝑ Lorde, that I wil make a newe couenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda: Heb. 8.8.

32 Not after the couenant that I made with their fathers, when I tooke them by the hande, and ledde them out of the lande of Egypt, which couenant they brake, yea, euen when I as an husbande had rule ouer them, saieth the Lorde.

33 But this shalbe the couenant that I wil make with the house of Israel after those dayes, saieth the Lorde, * I will plant my law in the inwarde parres of them, and write it in their hearres, and will be their God, and they shall bee my people. Iere. 24.7. Luke. 1.57. Heb. 8.10.

34 And from thencefoorth shall no man teache his neighbour or his brother, and say, *Knowe the Lorde: but they shall all know me from the lowest vnto ꝑ highest, saieth the Lord: *for I will forgiue their misdeedes, & will neuer remeinber their sinnes any more. Esa. 54.13. omos. 6.45. Act. 10.43.

35 Thus saieth the Lord, which gaue the Sunne to be a light for the day, and the Moone and the starres to shine in the night, which moueth the sea, so that the floods thereof waxe fierce, his name is ꝑ Lord of hostes, 36 Like as this ordinance shall neuer bee taken out of my sight, saieth the Lord, so shall the seede of Israel neuer ceasse, but allway be a people before me.

37 Moreouer, thus saieth the Lorde, Like as the heauen aboue cannot bee measured, and as the foundatiõs of the earth beneath may not be sought out, so wil I also cast out the whole seede of Israel, for that they haue committed, saieth the Lord.

38 Behold, the dayes come, saith the Lord, that the citie of the Lord shalbe enlarged, from the towre of Hananeel, vnto the gate of the corner wall.

39 From thence shal the right measure be taken before her vnto the hil top of Gareb, and shal come about Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead carkeises, and of the ashes, and all the fields, vnto ꝑ brooke of Cedron, & vnto the corner of the horsegate toward the East, it shalbe holy vnto the Lorde, and shall neuer be broken nor cast downe any more.

The

The xxxii. Chapter.

1 Ieremie is cast into prison, because he prophecied that the citie should be taken of the king of Babylon.

1 THese wordes spake the Lord vnto Ieremie, in the tenth yeere of Zedecias king of Iuda, which was the eighteenth yeere of Nabuchodonosor,

2 What time as the king of Babylons host layd siege vnto Hierusalem: but Ieremie the Prophet lay bound in ꝑ court of the prison, which was in the king of Iudaes house,

3 Where Zedecias the king of Iuda caused him to be layde, because he had prophecied on this maner, Thus sayeth the Lord, Behold, I will deliuer this citie into the handes of the king of Babylon, which shall take it.

4 As for Zedecias the king of Iuda, hee shal not be able to escape the Chaldees: but surely he shall come into the handes of the king of Babylō, which shal speake with him mouth to mouth, and one of them shall looke another in the face.

5 And Zedecias shalbe caried vnto Babylon, & there shall he be vntil the time that I visite him, sayeth the Lord: but if thou takest in hand to fight against the Chaldees, thou shalt not prosper.

6 And Ieremie said, Thus hath the Lord spoken vnto me,

7 Behold, Hananeel the sonne of Hellum thine vncles sonne shall come vnto thee, and require thee to redeeme the land that lieth in Anathoth vnto thy selfe: for by reasō of kinred it is thy right to redeeme it, and buy it out.

8 And Hananeel mine vncles sonne came to me in ꝑ court of the prison, according to the word of the Lorde, & said vnto me, Buy my land, I pray thee, that lieth in Anathoth in the countrey of Beniamin, for by heritage thou hast right to lowse it out for thy selfe, therefore redeeme it. Then I perceiued that this was the commandement of the Lord:

9 And so I bought the land from Hananeel of Anathoth mine vncles sonne, and weighed him there the money, euen seuen sicles, and ten siluer pence:

10 And I writ it in a booke, and sealed it, and tooke witnesses, and weighed him there the money vpon the weights.

11 So I tooke the euidence with the copie when it was orderly sealed.

12 And I gaue the euidence to Baruch the sonne of Neriah the sonne of Maaliah, in the sight of Hananeel my cosin, and in the presence of the witnesses that bee named in the euidence, and before all the Iewes that were there by in the court of the prison.

13 I charged Baruch also before them, saying,

14 The Lord of hostes the God of Israel commandeth thee to take this sealed euidence with the copie, and to lay it in an earthen vessell, that it may long continue.

15 For the Lord of hosts the God of Israel hath determined, that houses, fields, and vineyardes shall bee possessed againe in this land.

16 Nowe when I had deliuered the euidence vnto Baruch the sonne of Neriah, I besought the Lord, saying,

17 O Lord God, it is thou that hast made heauen and earth with thy great power and high arme, and there is nothing hid from thee, 18 *Thou shewest mercy vpon thousands, thou recompensest the wickednesse of the fathers into the bosome of the children that come after them. *Exod.34.7. deut.5.9.

19 Thou art the great and mightie God, whose name is the Lord of hostes, great in counsell, and excellent in worke, thine eyes looke vpon all the wayes of mens children, to reward euery one after his way, and according to the fruites of his inuentions.

20 Thou hast done great tokens and wōders in the land of Egypt, as we see this day, vpon the people of Israel, and vpon those men, to make thy name great, as it is come to passe this day.

21 Thou hast brought thy people of Israel out of the lande of Egypt with tokens, with wonders, with a mightie hand, with a stretched out arme, & with great terriblenesse:

22 And hast giuen them this land, like as thou hadst promised vnto their fathers, namely, that thou wouldest giue them a land that floweth with milke and hony.

23 Now when they came therein and possessed it, they followed not thy voice, and walked not in thy law: but all that thou commandedst them to do, that haue they not done, and therefore come all these plagues vpon them.

24 Beholde, there are bulwarkes made nowe against the citie to take it, and it shalbe wonne of the Chaldees that besiege it with sword, with hunger, & death: and looke what thou hast spoken, that same shall come vpon them, for loe, all things are present vnto thee.

25 Yet sayest thou vnto me, O Lord God, and commandest me that I shall buy a piece of lande vnto my selfe for money, and take witnesses therto: and yet in the meane season the citie is deliuered into the power of the Chaldees.

26 Then came the word of the Lord vnto Ieremie, saying,

27 Behold, I am the Lord God of al flesh: is there any thing then too hard for me?

28 Therfore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I shall deliuer this citie into the power of the Chaldees, and into the power of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, they shall take it:

29 For the Chaldees shall come and win this citie, and set fire vpon it, and burne it, with the gorgeous houses, in whose parlours they haue made sacrifice vnto Baal, and powred drinke offerings vnto strange gods, to prouoke me vnto wrath:

30 For

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Iuda haue only bene doing wickednesse before me from their youth vp, they haue bene onely prouoking mee to wrath with the workes of their owne handes, saith the Lord.

31 For what hath this citie bene else, but a prouoking of my wrath euer since the day that they builded it, vnto this houre wherein I cast it out of my sight?

32 Because of the great blasphemies of the children of Israel and Iuda, which they haue done to prouoke me, yea, they, their kings, their princes, their priestes, their prophets, the men of Iuda, and the citizens of Hierusalem:

33 When I stoode vp earely and taught them, and instructed them, they turned their backes to me, and not their faces, 34 They would not heare to be reformed and corrected: * but set their idoles in the house that is halowed to my name, to defile it. 4 Reg. 21. 4.

35 They haue builded hie places for Baal in the valley of the children of Hennom, to cause their sonnes and daughters to passe thorowe fire in the honour of Moloch, which I neuer commanded them: neither came it euer in my thought to make Iuda sinne with such abomination.

36 And now therefore thus hath the Lord God of Israel spoken concerning this citie, which as yee pour selues confesse, shalbe deliuered into the hand of the king of Babylon, when it is wonne with the sword, with hunger, and with pestilence.

37 Beholde, I will gather them together from all landes, wherein I haue scattered them in my wrath, in fearefull and great displeasure, and will bring them againe vnto this place, where they shall dwell safely:

38 * and they shalbe my people, and I will be their God. Ezec. 11. 19.

39 And I will giue them one heart & one way, that they may feare me al the daies of their life: that they and their children after them may prosper.

40 And I will set vp an euerlasting couenant with them, namely, that I will neuer cease to doe them good, and that I will put my feare in their hearts, so that they shall not runne away from me.

41 Yea, I will haue a lust and pleasure to doe them good, and faithfully to plant them in this land with my whole heart, and with my whole soule.

42 For thus saith the Lorde, Like as I haue brought all this great plague vpon this people: euen so will I also bring vpon them all the good that I haue promised them.

43 And men shall haue their possessions in this land, whereof ye say now that it shall neither be inhabited of the people, nor of cattell, but bee deliuered into the hands of the Chaldees:

44 Yea, landes shall bee bought for money, and euidences made therevpon, & sealed before witnesses in the countrey of Beniamin, and round about Hierusalem, in the cities of Iuda, in the cities that are vpon the mountaines, and them that lie beneath, yea, and in the cities that are in the South: for I will bring their prisoners hither againe, saith the Lord.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

1 The Prophet is monished of the Lorde to pray for the deliuerance of the people, which the Lord promiseth. 8 God forgiueth sinnes, and doth graciously to the people for his owne renowme. 15 Of the birth of Christ.

1 MOreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie againe when he was yet bound in the court of the prison.

2 Thus saith the Lord, who made Hierusalem, who fashioned the same to establish it, whose name is the Lord,

3 Cry vnto me, and I will answere, and shew thee great and high things which were vnknowen vnto thee.

4 Thus I say (speaketh the Lorde God of Israel, concerning the houses of this citie, and the houses of the kings of Iuda that are broken through the ordinance and the sworde.

5 The inhabitours of this citie haue come to fight against the Chaldees, & they are filled with the dead carkeises of men, who I haue slaine in my wrath and displeasure, when I turned my face from this citie, because of all her wickednesse.

6 Behold, saith the Lorde, I will repaire and heale their woundes, and make them whole: I will open them the large treasure of peace and trueth.

7 And will returne the captiuitie of Iuda and Israel, and will set them vp againe as they were before:

8 From al misdedes wherein they offended against me, I will cleanse them: and all their blasphemies which they haue done against me, when they regarded me not, I will forgiue them.

9 And this shall get me a name, a praise and honour among all the people of the earth, which shall heare all the good that I will shewe vnto them, yea, they shall bee afraped and astonied at all the good dedes and benefites that I will doe for them.

10 Moreouer, thus saieth the Lorde, In this place (whereof ye say that it shall be a wildernesse, wherein neither people nor cattell shall dwell) in like maner in the cities of Iuda, and in the stretes of Hierusalem (which also shalbe so voyde, that neither people nor cattell shall dwel there,)

11 Shal the voyce of gladnes be heard againe, the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride, the voyce of the that shal sing, Praise the Lorde of hostes, for he is louing, and his mercie endureth for euer: and the voice of them that offer vp gifts in the house of the Lorde: for I will restore the captiuitie of this land as it was afore, saith the Lord.

12 Thus

12 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, It shall come yet therto, that in this land which is voyde from men & cattel, and in all the cities of the lād, there shalbe set vp shepheards cottages to rest their flockes.
13 In the cities vpon the mountaines, & in the cities that lye vpon the plaine, and in the cities of the South, in the land of Beniamin, and round about Hierusalem, and in the cities of Iuda, shall the sheepe passe againe vnder the hande of him that telleth them, saith the Lord.
Ier.23.5. 14 *Behold, the time commeth, saith the Lord, that I wil performe ỹ good thing which I haue promised vnto the house of Israel, and vnto the house of Iuda.
15 In those dayes, and at the same time,
I will bring forth vnto Dauid the braūch of righteousnesse, and he shall do equitie and righteousnesse in the land.
Ier.33.28. 16 In those dayes shall Iuda be saued, *& Hierusalem shall dwell safe: & this shall be her name, a God our righteousnesse.
a This name hath God giuen to Christ, and doth properly belong to him alone, but here it is attributed vnto the Church, for that God the father hath espoused Christ his sonne vnto the Church, & hath endowed her with all that is his.
17 For thus the Lord promiseth, Dauid shal neuer want one to sit vpon ỹ throne of the house of Israel:
18 Neither shall the Priests and Leuites want one to offer alway before me burnt offerings, to kindle the meate offerings, and to prepare the sacrifices.
19 And the word of the Lorde came vnto
Jeremie after this maner,
20 Thus saith the Lord, May the covenant which I haue made with day and night be broken, that there should not be day and night in due season:
21 Then may my couenant also be broken which I made with Dauid my seruant, and so he not to haue a sonne to reigne in his throne, so shall also the Priestes and Leuites neuer kayle, but serue me.
22 For like as the starres of heauen may not be numbred, neither the lande of the sea measured: so will I multiplie the seede of Dauid my seruant, and the Le-uites my ministers.
23 Moreouer, the word of the Lorde came to Jeremie, saying, 24 Considerest thou not what this people speaketh? Two kinreds say they had the Lord chosen, and those same two hath he cast away: for so they haue despised my people, and they reputed them as though they were no people.
25 Therefore thus sayeth the Lorde, If I haue made no couenant with daye and night, and giuen no statute vnto heauen and earth:
26 Then will I also cast away the seede of Jacob and Dauid my seruant, so that I will take no prince out of his seede to rule the posteritie of Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob: but yet I will turne againe their captiuitie, & be merciful vnto thē.

The xxxiiii. Chapter.

He threateneth that the citie, and the king Zedecias also shalbe giuen into the hands of the king of Babylon.

1 THese are the wordes which the Lord spake vnto Jeremie, what time as Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, and all his hoste, and all the kingdomes that were vnder his power, and all his people, fought against Hierusalem and all the cities thereof.
2 Thus saieth the Lorde God of Israel, Goe and speake to Zedecias the king of Juda, and tell him, The Lorde sayeth thee this word, Behold, I will deliuer this citie into the hād of the king of Babylon, he shall burne it with fire.
3 And thou shalt not escape his handes, but shalt be taken prisoner, and deliu-red into his power: Thou shalt looke the king of Babylon in the face, and he shall speake to thee mouth to mouth, and thē shalt thou goe to Babylon.
4 Yet heare the word of the Lord, O Ze-decias thou king of Juda, thus saith the Lord vnto thee. Thou shalt not be slaine with the sword,
5 But shalt die in peace: * And as thy forefathers the kings thy progenitours were burnt, so shalt ỹ be burnt also, & in thy mourning they shal say, O Lord: for thus haue I determined, saith the Lord.
2.Chro.16.14. a Zedecias is promised to be burnt after his death, that is, to haue his funerals honourably done.
6 Then saide Jeremie the Prophet all these words vnto Zedecias king of Iu-da in Hierusalem,
7 What time as the king of Babylons hoste besieged Hierusalem, and the remnant of the cities, namely, Lachis, and Azzecath, which yet remained of the strong defenced cities of Iuda.
8 These are the woordes that the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie the Prophet, when Zedecias was agreed with all the people of Hierusalem, that there should bee proclaimed a libertie:
9 So that euery man should let his seruant and handmaide goe free, Hebrewe, and Hebrewesse, and no Iewe holde his brother as a bondman.
10 Nowe as they had consented, all the princes and all the people which had gathered vnto this agreemēt, that euery man should set at libertie his bondseruāt and bondwoman, and no longer to hold them bound: euen so they were obedient,
and let them goe free:
11 But afterward they repented, & tooke againe the seruants and handmaidens whome they had let go free, and so made them bonde againe.
12 For which cause the word of the Lorde came vnto Jeremie from the Lorde him selfe, saying,
13 Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I made a couenāt with your fathers, whē
I brought the out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, 14 * When seuen yeeres are out, euery mā shall let his bought seruant an Hebrewe goe free, if he haue serued him sixe yeeres:
but your fathers obeyed me not, & hearkened not vnto me.
Exod.21.2. deut.15.12.
15 As for you, ye were nowe turned, and did right before mee, in that yee proclaimed euery man to let his neighbour goe free, and in that ye made a couenant before me

foꝛe me in the tẏple þ beareth my name.
16 But yee turned your selues againe, and blasphemed my name, in this that euery man hath required his seruant & handmayde againe whom ye had let go quite and free, and compelled them to serue you againe, and so to bee bondmen and bondwomen.
17 And therfoꝛe thus saith þ Lord, Ye haue not obeyed me, euery man to proclaime freedom vnto his brother & neighbour: wherfoꝛe I will call you vnto freedome, saith the Lord, euen vnto the swoꝛde, to the pestilence, and to hunger, and will make you to bee plagued in all kingdomes of the earth.
18 Yea, those men that haue broken my couenant, and not kept the woꝛds of the appointment which they made befoꝛe me when they hewed the calfe in two, & when they went thoꝛow the two halfes thereof,
19 The princes of Iuda, the princes of Hierusalem, the gelded men, the priests, and all the people of the land which wẽt thoꝛow the two sides of the calfe:
20 Those men will I giue into the power of their enemies, and into the handes of them that followe vpon their liues: and their dead bodies shall bee meate foꝛ the foules of the ayre, and beasts of the field.
21 As foꝛ Zedecias the king of Iuda, and his princes, I will deliuer them into the power of their enemies, & of them that desire to slay them, and into the hand of the king of Babylons hoste, which is nowe departed from you.
22 But thoough my cõmandement (saith the Lord) they shall come againe befoꝛe this citie, they shall fight against it, win it and burne it: Moꝛeouer, I will lay the cities of Iuda so waste, that no man shal dwell therein.

The xxxv. Chapter.

He propoundeth the obedience of the Rechabites, and thereby confoundeth the pride of the Iewes.

1 THe woꝛdes which the Lorde spake vnto Ieremie in the reigne of Iehoacim the sonne of Iosias king of Iuda, are these:
2 Goe vnto the house of the Rechabites, and call them out, and bring them to the house of the Lord, into some cõmodious place, and giue them wine to drinke.
3 Then tooke I Iazaniah the sonne of Ieremie, the sonne of Habazniah, and his brethren, and all his sonnes, and the whole householde of the Rechabites,
4 And brought them into the house of the Lord, into the closet of the children of Hanan the sonne of Igedaliah the man of God, which was by the closet of the princes, that is aboue the closet of Maasiah the sonne of Sellum, which is the treasurer.
5 And befoꝛe the sonnes of the kinred of the Rechabites, I set pots full of wine, and cups, & saide vnto thẽ, Drink wine.
6 But they said, We will drinke no wine: foꝛ Ionadab the sonne of Rechab our father commanded vs, saying, Yee & your sonnes shall neuer drinke wine, builde houses, sowe no seede, plant no vines,
7 Yea, ye shall haue no vineyardes: but foꝛ all your time ye shall dwell in tentes, that ye may liue long in the land wherein ye be strangers.
8 Thus haue we obeyed the commandement of Ionadab the sonne of Rechab our father, in al that he hath charged vs, and so we drinke no wine all our life lõg, we, noꝛ our wiues, our sonnes, and our daughters, 9 Neither builde we any house to dwell therein: we haue also among vs neither vineyardes, noꝛ corne land to sowe:
10 But we dwell in tents, wee obey, and do according vnto all that Ionadab our father commanded vs.
11 But nowe that Nabuchodonoꝛ the king of Babylon came vp into the land, we said, Come, let vs goe to Hierusalem, that we may escape the hoste of the Chaldees and the Assyrians: and so wee dwell nowe at Hierusalem.
12 Then came the woꝛde of the Lord vnto Ieremie, saying,
13 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel, Goe and tell the men of Iuda, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem, Will ye not be reformed to obey my woꝛdes, saith the Lord?
14 The woꝛdes which Ionadab the sonne of Rechab commanded his sonnes, that they should drinke no wine, are fast surely kept, foꝛ vnto this day they drinke no wine, but obey their fathers commãdement: but as foꝛ me, I haue stande vp earely, I haue spoken vnto you, and giuen you earnest warning, and yet haue ye not bene obedient vnto me.
15 Yea, I haue sent my seruants all the Prophets vnto you, I rose vp earely, & sent you woꝛde, saying, * O turne you nowe euery man from his wicked way, amende your liues, and goe not after strange gods to woꝛship them, that ye may continue in the land which I haue giuen vnto you and your fathers: but ye would neither heare me, noꝛ folow me. Iere. 18. 11. and 25. 5. Ioha 3. 8.
16 The children of Ionadab Rechabs sonne, haue stedfastly kept their fathers cõmandement that he gaue thẽ: but this people is not obedient vnto me.
17 And therefoꝛe thus saith the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring vpon Iuda, and vpon euery one that dwelleth in Hierusalẽ, all the trouble that I haue deuised against them: foꝛ I haue spoken vnto them, but they would not followe, I haue called vnto them, neuertheles they would giue me no answere.
18 Ieremie also spake vnto the houshold of the Rechabites, Thus saieth the Lorde of hosts the God of Israel, foꝛ as much as ye haue obeyed the commandement of Ionadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he hath bidden:

19 There-

19 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Jonadab the ſonne of Rechab ſhal not faile, but haue one out of his ſtocke to ſtand alwap before me.

The xxxvi. Chapter.

Baruch writeth (as Jeremie inditeth) the booke of the curſes againſt Iuda and Iſrael.

1 IN the fourth yere of Jehoacim the ſonne of Joſias þ king of Juda, came the worde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, ſaying,

2 Take a booke and write therein all the wordes that I haue ſpoken to thee againſt Iſrael, againſt Juda, and againſt all the people, from the time that I began to ſpeake vnto thee in the reigne of Joſias, vnto this day:

3 That when the houſe of Juda heareth of the plague which I haue deuiſed for them, they may peraduenture turne euery man frō his wicked way, that I may forgiue their offences and ſinnes.

4 Then did Jeremie call Baruch the ſonne of Meriah, and Baruch wrote in the booke at the mouth of Jeremie, all the wordes of the Lorde which he had ſpoken vnto him.

5 And Jeremie cōmanded Baurch, ſaying, I am in priſon, ſo that I may not come into the houſe of the Lord.

6 Therefore goe thou thither, and reade the booke that thou haſt written at my mouth, namely, the wordes of the Lorde, and read them in the Lordes houſe vpon the a faſting day, that the people, whole Juda, and all they that come out of the cities, may heare.

a When Iehoacim the king of Iuda heard that the king of Babylons armie was comming to beſiege Hieruſalē, he appointed a ſolemne & publique faſt for all the people, commanding them to reſort vnto the temple at the time appointed, and there to make their humble prayers vnto God for peace and his fauour, as the maner of Gods people was in all their diſtreſſes to faſt and pray in faithfull repentance,

7 Peraduenture they will pray mekely before the face of the Lorde, and turne euery one from his wicked way: for great is the wrath & diſpleaſure that the Lorde hath taken againſt this people.

8 So Baruch the ſonne of Meriah did according to all that Jeremie the Prophet commanded him, reading the wordes of the Lorde out of the booke in the Lordes houſe,

9 And this was done in the fifth yere of Jehoacim the ſonne of Joſias king of Juda, in the ninth moneth, when it was commanded that all the people of Hieruſalem ſhould faſt before the Lorde, and they alſo that were come from the cities of Juda vnto Hieruſalem.

10 Then read Baruch the wordes of Jeremie out of the booke within the houſe of the Lorde, out of the treaſurie of Gamariah the ſonne of Saphan þ Scribe, which is beſide the higher loft of the new doore of the Lordes houſe, that all the people might heare.

11 Now when Micheas the ſonne of Gamariah the ſonne of Saphan, heard all the wordes of the Lord out of the booke, 12 He went downe to the kings palace, into the Scribes chamber, for there all the princes were ſet, Eliſama the Scribe, Dalaiah the ſonne of Semei, Elnathan the ſonne of Achbor, Gamariah þ ſonne of Saphan, Zedecias the ſonne of Hananias, with all the princes.

13 And Micheas told them all the words that he heard Baruch reade out of the booke before the people.

14 Then all the princes ſent Jehudi the ſonne of Nathaniah, the ſonne of Seleſmiah, the ſonne of Chuſi, vnto Baruch, ſaying, Take in thine hande the booke wherout thou haſt read before all the people, and come. So Baruch the ſonne of Meriah tooke the booke in his hande, and came vnto them.

15 And they ſaide vnto him, Sit downe & reade the booke, that we may heare alſo. So Baruch read, that they might heare.

16 Now when they had heard al þ words, they were abaſhed one vpon another, & ſaid vnto Baruch, We will certifie the king of all theſe words.

17 And they examined Baruch, ſaying, Tell vs, how diddeſt thou write all theſe wordes out of his mouth?

18 Then Baruch anſwered them, He ſpake al theſe words vnto me with his mouth, and I wrote them in the booke.

19 Then ſaide the princes vnto Baruch, Go thy way, hide thee with Jeremie, ſo that no man know where ye be.

20 And they wēt in to the king to þ court, (but they kept the booke in the chamber of Eliſama the Scribe) and told the king all the words, that he might heare.

21 So the king ſent Jehudi to fetch him the booke: which he brought out of Eliſama the Scribes chamber, & Jehudi read in it, that the king & all the princes which were about him might heare.

22 Now the king ſate in the winter houſe (for it was in the ninth moneth) & there was a fire before him.

23 And when Jehudi had read three or foure leaues thereof, he cut the booke in pieces with a penknife, and caſt it into the fire vpon the hearth, vntill the booke was al burnt in the fire vpon the hearth.

24 Yet no man was abaſhed thereof, nor rent his clothes, neither the king himſelfe, nor his ſeruāts, though they heard all theſe wordes.

25 Neuertheleſſe, Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gamariah beſought the king þ he would not burne the booke: notwithſtanding the king would not heare them, 26 But commanded Jerahmiel the ſonne of Amelech, Saraiah the ſonne of Ezriel, and Seleſmiah the ſonne of Abdeel, to lay hands vpon Baruch the Scribe, and vpon Jeremie the Prophet: but the Lord kept them out of ſight.

27 Now after that the king had burnt the booke, and the ſermons which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremie, þ word of the Lord came vnto Jeremie, ſaying, 28 Take another booke, and write in it all the former ſermons that were written in the firſt booke, which Jehoacim the king of Juda hath burnt.

29 And tell Jehoacim the king of Juda, Thus ſaith the Lord, Thou haſt burnt the booke, and thoughteſt within thy ſelfe, selfe, Why hast thou written therein, that the king of Babylon shall come, & make this lande waste, so that hee shall make both people and cattell to be out of it?

30 Therefore thus the Lord saith of Jehoiacim the king of Juda, There shall none of his generation sit vpon the throne of Dauid, his dead coarse shall bee cast out, that the heate of the day, and the frost of the night may come vpon him.
31 And I will visite the wickednes of him, of his seede, and of his seruants: Moreouer, all the euill that I haue promised them, though they heard me not, will I bring vpon them, vpon the inhabiters of Hierusalem, and vpon all Juda.
32 Then toke Jeremie another booke, and gaue it Baruch the Scribe the sonne of Neriah, which wrote therein out of the mouth of Jeremie, all the sermons that were in the first booke which Jehoiacim the king of Juda did burne: and there were added vnto them many moe sermons, like vnto the former.

The xxxvii. Chapter.

1 Zedecias succeedeth Cononiah: 3 He sendeth vnto Jeremie to pray for him.

2.*King.*24.4. 2.*chro.*36.10.
1 ZEdecias * the sonne of Josia, which was made king through Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, reigned in the land of Juda, in the stead of ‖Cononiah the sonne of Jehoiacim.
2 But neither hee, nor his seruants, nor the people in his lande would obey the words of the Lord which he spake by the Prophet Jeremie.
3 Neuertheless, Zedecias the king sent Jehucal the sonne of Selemiah, and Sophoniah the sonne of Maasiah the priest, to the Prophet Jeremie, saying, O pray thou vnto the Lord our God for vs.
4 Now Jeremie walked free among the people at that time, *and was not put in prison as yet.

*Ier.*36.26.

5 Pharaos hoste also was come out of Egypt: which whē the Chaldees which besieged Hierusalem perceiued, they departed from thence.
6 Then came the worde of the Lord vnto the Prophet Jeremie, saying,
7 Thus saith ꝓ Lord God of Israel, This answere shall ye giue to the king of Juda, that sent you vnto me for counsell: Beholde, Pharaos hoste which is come forth to helpe you, shall returne into Egypt into his owne land.
8 But the Chaldees shall come againe, & fight against this citie, winne it, and set fire vpon it.
9 For thus saieth the Lord, Deceiue not your owne minds, thinking on this maner, Tush, the Chaldees goe nowe their way from vs: No, they shall not goe their way.
10 For though ye had slaine the whole hoste of the Chaldees that besiege you, & that none remained of them but wounded men, yet should they stand vp, and set fire vpon this citie.
11 Now when the hoste of the Chaldees was broken vp from Hierusalem for feare of the Egyptians armie, 12 Jeremie went out of Hierusalem toward the land of Beniamin, to get him from among the people.
13 And when he came vnder Beniamins port, there was a porter called Jeriah, the sonne of Selemiah, the sonne of Hananiah, which fell vpon him, and toke him, saying, Thy mind is to runne to the Chaldees.
14 Then said Jeremie, It is not so, I goe not to the Chaldees: Neuertheles, Jeriah would not beleeue him, but brought Jeremie bound before the princes.
15 Wherefore the princes were angrie with Jeremie, and smote him, and layde him in prison in the house of Jonathan the Scribe: for they had made that house the prison.
16 Thus was Jeremie put in a dungeon and prison, and so lay there a long time.
17 Then Zedecias the king sent for him, and called him, and asked him quietly in his owne house, saying, Thinkest thou this businesse that now is in hande, commeth of the Lorde? Jeremie answered, Yea, that it doth: and thou (said he) shalt bee delinered into the king of Babylons power.
18 Moreouer, Jeremie sayde vnto king Zedecias, *What haue I offended against thee, against thy seruantes, or against this people, that ye haue put mee in prison? *Ier.*9.10.
19 Where are your prophets which haue prophecied vnto you, and said, That the king of Babylon shoulde not come against you and this land?
20 And therefore heare nowe, O my lord the king, let my praier be accepted before thee, and send me no more into the house of Jonathan the Scribe, that I die not there.
21 Then Zedecias commanded to put Jeremie in the forecentrie of the prison, and daily to bee giuen him a cake of bread of the bakers streete, vntill all the bread in the citie was eaten vp: Thus Jeremie remained in the fore entrie of the prison.

The xxxviii. Chapter.

By the motion of the rulers, Jeremie is put into a dungeon.

1 SAphatiah the sonne of Mathan, Gedaliah the sonne of Phashur, Jucal the sonne of Selemiah, and Phashur the sonne of Melchia, perceiued ꝓ words that Jeremie had spoken vnto all the people, namely on this maner,
2 Thus saieth the Lord, *Whoso remaineth in this citie, shall perish either with the sword, with hunger, or pestilence: but whoso falleth vnto the Chaldees, shall escape, winning his soule for a pray, and shall liue. *Ier.*21.9
3 For thus saieth the Lord, This citie no doubt must be delinered into the power of the king of Babylon, and he also shall winne it.

4 Then

4 Then saide the princes vnto the king, Sir, we beseech you let this man be put to death: for thus hee discourageth the handes of the souldiers that bee in this citie, and the handes of all the people, when he speaketh such wordes vnto the: This mã laboureth not for peace of the people, but mischiefe.

5 Zedecias the king answered, and said, Loe, he is in your handes: for the king may denie you nothing.

6 Then tooke they Ieremie, and cast him into the dungeon of Melchiah the sonne of Amelech, that dwelt in the fore entrie of the prison, and they let downe Ieremie with cordes into a dungeon where there was no water, but mire: So Ieremie stacke fast in the mire.

7 Nowe when Abedmelech the Mozian, being a chamberlaine in the kings court, vnderstoode that they had cast Ieremie into the dungeon,

8 He went out of the kings house, & spake to the king, which then sate vnder the port of Beniamin, these wordes,

9 My lord the king, whereas these men meddle with Ieremie the Prophet, they doe him wrong, namely, in that they haue put him in prison, there to dye for hunger: for there is no more bread in the citie.

10 Then the king commanded Abedmelech the Mozian, and saide, Take from hence thirtie men, whom thou wilt, and drawe vp Ieremie the Prophet out of the dungeon before he die.

11 So Abedmelech tooke the men with him, and went to the house of the king, & there vnder ꝑ treasurie he gate olde rags and worne clowtes, and let them downe by a cord into the dungeon to Ieremie.

12 And Abedmelech the Mozian said vnto the Prophet Ieremie, Put these rags and clowtes vnder thine arme holes, betwixt them and the cordes: and Ieremie did so.

13 So they drew vp Ieremie with cordes, and tooke him out of the dungeon: & he remained in the fore entrie of the prison.

14 Then Zedecias the king sent, and caused Ieremie the Prophet to be called vnto him, into the third entrie that is in the house of the Lord, and the king saide vnto Ieremie, I will aske thee somwhat, but hide nothing from me.

15 Then Ieremie answered Zedecias, If I bee plaine vnto thee, ꝑ wilt cause mee to suffer death: If I giue thee counsell, thou wilt not followe me.

16 So the king swore an othe secretly to Ieremie, saying, As the Lord liueth that made vs these soules, I will not slaye thee, nor giue thee into the hãds of them that seeke after thy life.

17 Then saide Ieremie vnto Zedecias, Thus saieth the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, If case bee that thou wilt goe forth vnto the king of Babylons princes, thou shalt saue thy life, and this citie shall not be burnt, yea, both thou & thy houshold shall escape with your lines:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to ꝑ king of Babylons princes, then shall this citie be deliuered into ꝑ hãds of the Chaldees, which shal set fire vpon it, & thou shalt not be able to escape them.

19 And Zedecias saide vnto Ieremie, I am afraid for the Iewes ꝑ are fled vnto the Chaldees, least I come into their hands, & so they to haue me in derision.

20 But Ieremie answered, No, they shall not betray thee: O hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord, I beseech thee, which I speake vnto thee, so shalt thou be well, and saue thy life:

21 But if thou wilt not go forth, the Lord hath told me this plainly,

22 Behold, al the women that are left in ꝑ king of Iudaes house, shal be led forth vnto the king of Babylons princes: & they shall saye, Thou art deceiued, and the men in whome thou diddest put thy trust haue gotten thee vnder, and set thy fæte fast in the mire, and gone their way from thee.

23 Therefore al thy wiues, with thy children, shall they leade forth vnto the Chaldees, and thou shalt not escape their handes, but shalt be the king of Babylons prisoner, and this citie shalt thou cause to be burnt.

24 Then saide Zedecias vnto Ieremie, Looke ꝑ no body knowe of these wordes, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes perceiue ꝑ I haue talked with thee, & come vnto thee, saying, O speake, what said the king to thee, hide it not from vs, and we will not put thee to death, tell vs (we pray thee) what said the king vnto thee?

26 See thou giue them this answere, I haue humbly besought the king that he would let mee lye no more in Ionathans house, that I die not there.

27 Then came all the princes vnto Ieremie, and asked him: and he told them after the maner as the king bade him. The they held their peace, and let him alone: for they perceiued nothing.

28 So Ieremie abode still in the fore entrie of the prison, until the day that Hierusalem was wonne.

The xxxix. Chapter.

1 Nabuchodonosor besiegeth Hierusalem. 4 Zedecias fleeth. 5 He is taken of the Chaldees. 6 His sonnes are slaine. 7 His eyes are thrust out.

NOw* whē the citie of Hierusalem was taken (for in the ninth yeere of Zedecias king of Iuda, the tenth moneth, came Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, and all his hoste, and belleged Hierusalem, and fought against it. 4.King.25.1. iere.52.4.

2 And in the eleuenth yeere of Zedecias, in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of ꝑ moneth, he brake into the citie.)

3 Then all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sate them down vnder the port: Nergel, Sarezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsachim, Rabsaris, Nergel, gel, Sarezer, Rabmag, with all the other prynces of the king of Babylon.

4 And when Zedecias the king of Juda with his souldiers, sawe them, then they fled, & departed out of the citie by night, thorowe the kings garden, and thorowe
the port that is betweene þ two walles, and so the king went towarde the wilderneſſe:
5 But the Chaldees hoste followed fast after the, and tooke Zedecias in the field of Hierycho, and brought him priſoner to Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon, vnto Reblath, that lieth in the lande of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vp-on him.
6 So the king of Babylon cauſed the children of Zedecias, and all the nobles of Juda, to bee ſlayne before his face at Reblath,
7 And made Zedecias eyes to bee put out, and bound him with two chaynes, and ſent him to Babylon.
8 Moreouer, the Chaldees burnt vp the kings palace, with the other houſes of the people, and brake downe the walles
of Hieruſalem.
9 As for the remnant of the people that were in the citie, and ſuch as were come to him, and whatſoeuer was left of the common ſort, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine caried them to Babylon.
10 But Nabuzaradan the chief captaine let the raſcall people, and thoſe that had nothing, dwell ſtill in the land of Juda, and gaue them vineyardes and corne fieldes at the ſame time.
11 Nabuchodonoſor alſo the king of Babylon, gaue Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine a charge concerning Jeremie, ſaying,
12 Take and cheriſh him, make much of him, ſee thou doe him no harme, but entreat him after his owne deſire.
13 So Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine, Nabuzarban, Rabſares, Nergel, Sare-zer, Rabmag, and all the king of Baby-lons lordes ſent for Jeremie, 14 And cauſed him to be fet out of the fore entrie of the priſon, and committed him vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan, that hee ſhoulde carp him home: and ſo hee dwelt among the people.
15 Nowe when Jeremie lay yet bound in the fore entrie of the priſon, the worde of the Lord came vnto him, ſaying, 16 Goe and tell Abedmelech the Moxian, Thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, the cruell and ſharpe plague that I haue denoũced for this citie, will I bring vpon them, and thou ſhalt
ſee it:
17 But I will deliuer thee in that daye, ſaieth the Lord, and thou ſhalt not come in the hands of thoſe men whom thou feareſt:
18 For doubtles I will ſaue thee, ſo that thou ſhalt not periſh with the ſworde: but thy life ſhall bee ſaued, and that becauſe thou haſt put thy truſt in me, ſaith the Lord.

The xl. Chapter.

1 Jeremie hath licence to goe whither he will. 14 Iohanan prophecieth death vnto Gedaliah.

THis is the worde that the Lorde ſpake vnto Jeremie, when Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine had let him goe free from Ramath, whither he had ledde him bound among all the priſoners that were caried from Hieruſalem and Juda, vnto Babylon.
2 The chiefe captaine called for Jeremie, and ſaid vnto him, The Lorde thy God ſpake mightily before of the miſerie vpõ this place.
3 Nowe the Lorde hath ſent it, and performed it, as he hath promiſed: for pée haue ſinned againſt the Lorde, and haue not bene obedient vnto his voyce, therefore commeth this plague vpon you.
4 Beholde, I looſe the bandes from thy hands this day: if thou wilt nowe goe with me vnto Babylon, vp then, for I will ſée to thee, and prounde for ther: but if thou wilt not goe with mee to Babylon, then remaine here: Beholde, all the land is at thy will, looke where thou thinkeſt conuenient and good for thee to bide, there dwell.
5 For as yet hee was not gone backe againe to Gedaliah: Therefore he ſaide to him, Go back to Gedaliah ſõne of Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan, whom þ king of Babylon had made gouernour ouer þ cities of Juda, & dwell with him among the people, or remaine whereſoeuer it pleaſeth thee. So þ chiefe captaine gaue him his expences, with a rewarde, and let him goe.
6 Then went Jeremie vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam, to Miſpa, & dwelt there with him among the people that were left in the land.
7 Nowe when the captaines of the hoſt of Juda, which with their fellowes were ſcattered abroade on euery ſide in the lande, vnderſtoode that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam gouernour in the lande, and that man, wife, and childe, yea and the poore men in the lande that were not led captiue to Babylon, ſhould be vnder his iuriſdiction:
8 They came to Gedaliah vnto Miſpa, namely, Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the ſonnes of Careah, Sareah the ſonne of Thanehumeth, the ſonnes of Ephai the Netophatite, Jezaniah the ſonne of Maachati, with their companions.
9 And Gedaliah, the ſonne of Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan ſware vnto them & 4. King. 25. 24 their fellowes in this maner, * Bee not afraide to ſerue the Chaldees, dwell in the lande, and doe the king of Babylon ſeruice, ſo ſhall ye proſper.
10 Beholde, I dwell at Miſpa, to bee an officer in the Chaldees behalfe, and to ſatiſfie ſuch as come to vs: therefore gather wine, corne, & oyle, and keepe them in your

in your warehouses, and dwell in your cities that ye haue in keeping.

11 Yea all the Iewes also that dwell in Moab vnder the Ammonites, Idumea, and in all the countreis, when they heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan gouernour vpon all them that were left in Iuda:

12 All the Iewes I say returned out of all places where they fled vnto, and came into the land of Iuda to Gedaliah vnto Maspa, and gathered wine and other fruites, and that very much.

13 Moreouer, Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaines of the host that were scattered on euery side in the land, came to Gedaliah to Maspa, and 14 said vnto him, Knowest thou not that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam beleeued them not.

15 Then sayde Johanan the sonne of Careah vnto Gedaliah in Maspa these words secretly, Let me goe, I pray thee, and I will slay Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, so that no body shall know it: Wherefore will hee kill thee, that all the Iewes which resort vnto thee, might be scattered, & the remnant in Iuda perish?

16 And Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam sayd to Johanan the sonne of Careah, Thou shalt not doe it: for they are but lies that thou saiest of Ismael.

The xli. Chapter.

2 Ismael killeth Gedaliah guilefully, and murthereth with him. 14 Iohanan followeth after Ismael.

1 BVt in the seuenth moneth, it happened that Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah the sonne of Elisama, one of the kings blood came, and the greatest about ꝑ king, & ten men with him, vnto Gedaliah ꝑ sonne of Ahicam to Maspa, and they did eate together in Maspa.

2 And Ismael ꝑ sonne of Nathaniah, with those ten men that were with him, start vp, and smote Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan with the sworde, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made a gouernour of the land.

3 Ismael also slewe all the Iewes that were with Gedaliah at Maspa, and all the Chaldees that hee found there waiting vpon him, and those that were able to fight, he slewe with him.

4 The next day after ꝑ he had slaine Gedaliah, the matter was yet vnknowen:

5 And there came certaine men from Sichem, from Silo and Samaria, to the number of fourescore, which had shauen their beards, rent their clothes, and were all heanie, bringing meate offrings and incense in their hands, to offer it in the house of the Lord.

6 And Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, went forth of Maspa weeping, to meete them: Now when he met them, he sayd, Goe your way to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam.

7 And when they came in the midst of the citie, Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, with them that were with him, slewe them euen at the midst of the pit.

8 Among these fourescore men there were ten that sayde vnto Ismael, Oh slay vs not, for wee haue yet a great treasure in the field, of wheate, barley, oyle, and honie: So he spared them, and slewe them not with their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ismael did cast the dead bodies of the men whome hee slewe because of Gedaliah, had king Asa caused to be made for feare of Baasa the king of Israel, and the same pit did Ismael fill with slaine men.

10 As for the remnant of the people, the kings daughters, and all the people that were left at Maspa, vpon whom Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine had made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam gouernour, Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah caried them away prisoners toward the Ammonites.

11 But when Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all they which had bene captaines ouer the kings hoste with him, heard of all the wickednesse that Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had done:

12 They tooke their companions, and went out for to fight with Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, and found him by the great waters that are at Gibeon.

13 Now when all the people whom Ismael led captiue, sawe Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the other captaines of the hoste, they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ismael had caried away from Maspa, were brought again: and when they returned, they came to Johanan the sonne of Careah.

15 But Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah fled from Johanan with eight companions, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaines of the hoste that were with him, tooke all the remnant of the people, whome Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had led away when he had slaine Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam, whom they also had returned from him, fighting men, women, and children, and gelded men, whom they brought againe from Gibeon:

17 And went from thence, and sate them downe at Geruth Chamaã, which lieth beside Bethlehem, that they might goe into Egypt for feare of the Chaldees:

18 Of whom they were afraide, because that Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had slaine Gedaliah Ahicams sonne, whom the king of Babylon had made gouernour in the land.

The xlii. Chapter.

1 The captaines aske counsel at Ieremie what they ought to doe. 19 Ieremie admonisheth the remnant of the people not to goe into Egypt.

1 SO all the captains, and Jonathan the sonne of Careah, Jezaniah the sonne of Osiah, came, with all the people frō
the least vnto the most,
2 And sayde vnto Jeremie the Prophet,
O heare our petition, that thou mayest
pray for vs vnto the Lorde thy God, namely, for all the remnant whereof there
be fewe of vs left of many, as þ seest vs:
3 That the Lord thy God may shewe vs
a way to goe in, and tell vs what wee should do.
4 Then Jeremie the Prophet sayd vnto them, I haue heard you: behold, I will pray vnto God your Lord as ye haue required me: and looke what answere the Lord giueth, I shall certifie you thereof,
and keepe nothing backe from you.
5 And they sayd vnto Jeremie, The Lord bee a true and faithfull witnes betwixt vs, that we will doe all that the Lord thy God commandeth vs.
6 Whether it be good or euill, wee will hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to whome wee send thee, that we may prosper when wee haue followed the voyce of the Lord our God.
7 And after ten dayes came the worde of the Lord vnto Jeremie.
8 Then called hee Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaines of the people that were with him, yea and all the people from the least to the most,
9 And sayd vnto them, Thus saieth the Lord God of Israel, vnto whom ye sent mee to lay foorth your prayers before him:
10 If you will dwell in this land, I will build you vp, & not breake you downe,
I will plant you, and not roote you out:
for I a repent as concerning the trouble
that I haue done to you.
11 Feare not the king of Babylon, of whom ye stand in awe, O be not afraid of him, saith the Lord, for I will be with you to helpe you, and deliuer you from his hand.
12 I will pardon you, I will haue mercie vpon you, & cause him to pitie you, and bring you againe into your owne lande.
13 Neuertheles, if ye purpose not to dwel in this land, nor to followe the voyce of the Lord your God:
14 But will say thus, We will not dwell here, but go into Egypt, where we shall neither see warre, heare the noyse of the trumpe, nor suffer hunger, there will we dwell:
15 Wherefore heare now the word of the Lord, O ye remnant of Juda, thus saith
the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, If ye be wholy purposed to go into Egypt,
and to dwell there as strangers,
16 The sword that ye feared shall ouertake you in Egypt: and the hunger whereof ye be afrayd, shall hang vpon you, and followe you into Egypt, and there shall ye die.
17 And all they that of set purpose vnder-
take to goe into Egypt to sojourne there,
shal perish with the sword, with hunger,
and pestilence, not one of them shall re-maine, there shall none escape the plague
that I will bring vpon them.
18 For thus saith the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Like as my wrath and indignation is mooued against the inha-biters of Jerusalem: so shal my displeasure be kindled against you also if yee goe
into Egypt, and there ye shal be reuiled, abhorred, brought to shame and confusion, and as for this place yee shall neuer
see it more.
19 The Lorde forbiddeth you (O yee remnant of Juda) that yee shall not goe into Egypt: and forget not that I haue warned you earnestly this day.
20 For ye haue dissembled with me: for ye sent me vnto þ Lord your God, & said,
O pray thou the Lorde our God for vs,
and looke what answere þ Lord our God giueth thee, that bring vs againe, and we will doe thereafter.
21 Now haue I shewed and declared vnto you, but ye haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lorde your God, for the which cause he hath sent me to you.
22 Now therefore be ye sure that ye shall perish with the sword, with hunger and pestilence, euen in the same place where your lust is to goe and dwell.

The xliii. Chapter.

1 Johanan carieth the remnant of the people into Egypt, contrary to the minde of Ieremie. 8 Ieremie prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

NOwe when Jeremie had ended all the words of the Lord his God vnto the people, which to declare, the Lorde their God had sent him to them,
euen all these words I say,
2 Azariah the sonne of Osaiah, and Jo-hanan the sonne of Careah, with all the stubborne persons, spake vnto Jeremie, Thou lyest; the Lord our God hath not sent thee to speake vnto vs, that wee should not go into Egypt, & dwell there:

voketh thee against vs, that hee might bring vs into the captiuitie of the Chaldees, that they might slay vs, and carie vs away prisoners vnto Babylon.

all the captaines of the host, and all the people, followed not the commandement of the Lorde, namely, to dwell in the lande of Juda:

12 He shall set fire vpon the Temple of the Egyptians gods, and burne them vp, & take themselues prisoners: moreouer, he shal aray himself with the land of Egypt, like as a shepheard putteth on his coate, and shall depart his way from thence in peace.

The xliii. Chapter.

1 Hee reproueth the people for their idolatrie. 15 They that set light by the threatning of the Lorde are chastened.

1 THis is the woorde that was shewed to Jeremie concerning all the Jewes which dwelt in Egypt, at Migdol, at Thaphnis, at Noph, and in the land of Pathures.
2 Thus saith the Lorde of hostes the God of Israell, Yee haue seene all the miserie that I haue brought vpon Hierusalem, and vpon all the cities of Juda: so that this day they are desolate, and no man dwelling therein,
3 And that because of the great blasphemies which they committed, to prouoke mee vnto anger, in that they went backe to doe sacrifice and worshippe vnto strange gods, whom neither they nor yee, nor your fathers haue knowen,
4 Howbeit, I sent vnto them my seruants all the Prophets, I rose vp earely, I sent vnto them, and gaue them warning. O do no such abominable things, and things that I hate.
5 But they would not followe nor hearken, to turne from their wickednesse, and to doe no more sacrifice vnto strange gods.
6 Wherefore mine indignation & wrath was kindled, and it burnt vp the cities of Juda, with the streetes of Hierusalem. so that they were made waste and desolate, as it is come to passe this day.
7 Nowe therefore thus sayth the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Howe happeneth it that yee doe so great euill vnto your owne soules, thus to destroy the men and women, children and babes of Juda, so that none of you is left,
8 Because ye prouoke mee to wrath with the workes of your owne handes, when ye offer vnto strange gods in the land of Egypt whereas ye be gone to dwel, that yee might vtterly perish, and that yee might be reuiled, and shamefully entreated of all nations?
9 Or haue ye nowe forgotten the wickednesse of your forefathers, the wickednes of the kings of Juda and their wiues, the wickednes that yee your selues & your wiues haue done in the lande of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem?
10 Yet are ye not sory this day, yee feare not, neither walke yee in my lawe, and in my commandements that I haue giuen vnto you and your forefathers.
11 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, *I am stedfastly adnised and determined to punish you, and to roote out all Juda. Amos 9.4.
12 As for the remnant of Juda that purposely went into Egypt there to dwel, I will take them, and they shall all bee destroied, in the lande of Egypt shall they perish, being consumed with the swoorde and with hunger: for from the least vnto the most, they shall perish with the swoord and with hunger: Moreouer, they shall be reuiled, abhorred, shamed, and confounded.
13 For I will visite them that dwel in Egypt, as I haue visited Hierusalem, with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence:
14 So that none of the remnant of Juda which are gone to dwel in Egypt shalbe left to come againe into the land of Juda, although they thinke to come thither againe, and to dwell there: for none shall come againe but such as are fled away.
15 Then all the men which knewe that their wiues had offered vnto strange goddes, and a great sort of wiues that stoode there, yea & all the people that dwelt there in Egypt in the citie of Phathures, answered Jeremie, and sayd,
16 As for the woordes that thou hast spoken vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, we wil in no wise heare them:
17 But what soeuer goeth out of our owne mouth, that wil we doe, wee will do sacrifice, and offer oblations vnto the Queene of heauen, like as wee and our forefathers, our kings and our heades haue done in the cities of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem: for then had we plenteousnesse of victuals, then were we in prosperitie, and no misfortune came vpon vs:
18 But since we left to offer and to do sacrifice vnto the Queene of heauen, wee haue had scarcenesse of all thinges, and perish with the swoord and hunger.
19 *Last of all, when wee women did sacrifice, and offered vnto the Queene of heauen: did wee make her cakes, and powre vnto her drink offrings, to do her Jere. 7.18.

1 SO all the captains, and Jonathan the sonne of Careah, Jezaniah the sonne
of Osiah, came, with all the people frō
the least vnto the most,
2 And sayde vnto Jeremie the Prophet,
O heare our petition, that thou mayest
pray for vs vnto the Lorde thy God, namely, for all the remnant whereof there
be fewe of vs left of many, as þ seest vs:
3 That the Lord thy God may shewe vs
a way to goe in, and tell vs what wee should do.
4 Then Jeremie the Prophet sayd vnto them, I haue heard you: behold, I will pray vnto God your Lord as ye haue required me: and looke what answere the Lord giueth, I shall certifie you thereof,
and keepe nothing backe from you.
5 And they sayd vnto Jeremie, The Lord
bee a true and faithfull witnes betwixt vs, that we will doe all that the Lord thy God commandeth vs.
6 Whether it be good or euill, wee will hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to whome wee send thee, that we may prosper when wee haue followed
the voyce of the Lord our God.
7 And after ten dayes came the worde of
the Lord vnto Jeremie.
8 Then called hee Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaines of the people that were with him, yea and all the people from the least to the most,
9 And sayd vnto them, Thus saieth the Lord God of Israel, vnto whom ye sent mee to lay forth your prayers before him:
10 If you will dwell in this land, I will build you vp, & not breake you downe,
I will plant you, and not roote you out:
for I a repent as concerning the trouble
that I haue done to you.
11 Feare not the king of Babylon, of whom ye stand in awe, O be not afrayd
of him, saith the Lord, for I will be with you to helpe you, and deliuer you from his hand.
12 I will pardon you, I will haue mercie vpon you, & cause him to pitie you, and bring you againe into your owne lande.
13 Neuertheles, if ye purpose not to dwel in this land, nor to follow the voyce of the Lord your God:
14 But will say thus, We will not dwell
here, but go into Egypt, where we shall neither see warre, heare the noyse of the trumpe, nor suffer hunger, there will we dwell:
15 Wherefore heare now the word of the Lord, O ye remnant of Juda, thus saith
the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, If ye be wholy purposed to go into Egypt,
and to dwell there as strangers,
16 The sword that ye feared shall ouertake
you in Egypt: and the hunger wherof ye be afrayd, shall hang vpon you, and followe you into Egypt, and there shall ye die.
17 And all they that of set purpose vnder-
take to goe into Egypt to sojourne there,
shal perish with the sword, with hunger,
and pestilence, not one of them shall re-
maine, there shall none escape the plague
that I will bring vpon them.
18 For thus saith the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Like as my wrath and indignation is mooued against the inha-biters of Hierusalem: so shal my displeasure be kindled against you also if yee goe
into Egypt, and there ye shal be reuiled,
abhorred, brought to shame and confusion, and as for this place yee shall neuer
see it more.
19 The Lorde forbiddeth you (O yee remnant of Juda) that yee shall not goe into Egypt: and forget not that I haue warned you earnestly this day.
20 For ye haue dissembled with me: for
ye sent me vnto þ Lord your God, & said,
O pray thou the Lorde our God for vs,
and looke what answere þ Lord our God
giueth thee, that bring vs againe, and we will doe thereafter.
21 Now haue I shewed and declared vn-
to you, but ye haue not obeyed the voyce
of the Lorde your God, for the which cause he hath sent me to you.
22 Now therefore be ye sure that ye shall perish with the sword, with hunger and pestilence, euen in the same place where your lust is to goe and dwell.

The xliij. Chapter.

1 Johanan carieth the remnant of the people into Egypt, contrary to the minde of Ieremie. 8 Ieremie propheseth the destruction of Egypt.

1 NOwe when Jeremie had ended all
the words of the Lord his God vn-

Lorde their God had sent him to them,
euen all these words I say,

The xliii. Chapter.

1 Hee reproueth the people for their idolatrie. 15 They that set light by the threatning of the Lorde are chastened.

1 THis is the worde that was shewed to Jeremie concerning all the Jewes which dwelt in Egypt, at Migdol, at Thaphnis, at Noph, and in the land of Pathures.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, *I am stedfastly aduised and determined to punish you, and to roote out all Juda. Amos 9.4.
12 As for the remnant of Juda that purposely went into Egypt there to dwel, I will take them, and they shall all bee destroied, in the lande of Egypt shall they perish, being consumed with the sworde and with hunger: for from the least vnto the most, they shall perish with the sword and with hunger: Moreouer, they shall be reuiled, abhorred, shamed, and confounded.

ſeruice, without our huſbandes willes?
20 Then ſayde Jeremie vnto all the people, to the men, to the women, and to all the folke which had giuen him that anſwere, 21 Did not the Lorde remember the ſacrifices, that yee, your forefathers, your kings and rulers, with all the people haue offered in the cities of Juda, in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem? and hath he not conſidered this in his minde?
22 In ſo much that the Lorde might no longer ſuffer the wickednelle of your inuentions, and the abominable thinges which yee did: Is not your lande deſolate and voyde, yea and abhorred, ſo that no man dwelleth therein any more, as it is come to paſſe this day?
23 Did not all this happen vnto you, becauſe yee made ſuch ſacrifice, and ſinned againſt the Lord? Ye haue not followed his voyce, to walke in his lawe, in his ordinances and ſtatutes: yea, this is the cauſe that all miſfortune happened vnto you, as it is come to paſſe this day.
24 Moreouer, Jeremie ſpake vnto all the people, and to al the women. Heare the word of the Lord all Juda that bee in the lande of Egypt.
25 Thus ſaieth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Ye and your wiues haue ſpoken with your own mouth the thing that ye haue fulfilled in deede, yea, thus haue yee ſayde, Wee will not fayle but performe the vowes that wee haue vowed, wee will doe ſacrifice, & powre out drinke offerings to the Queene of heauen: Purpoſelye will yee ſet vp your owne meanings, and performe your vowes.
26 And therefore heare the word of the Lorde all Juda that dwell in the lande of Egypt: Beholde, I haue ſworne by my great name, ſayth the Lorde, that my name ſhal not be rehearſed thorough any mans mouth of Juda in all the lande of Egypt, to ſay, The Lorde God liueth.
27 For I will watch to plague them, and not for their wealth: and all the men of Juda that be in the lande of Egypt ſhal periſh with the ſworde, and with hunger, vntill they be vtterly deſtroyed.
28 Neuertheleſſe, thoſe that fledde away for the ſworde, ſhal come againe out of Egypt into the lande of Juda, but there ſhall be very fewe of them: and all the remnant of Juda that are gone into Egypt there to dwell, ſhall know whoſe wordes ſhall bee founde true, theirs, or mine.
29 Take this for a token, that I will viſite you in this place, ſayth the Lorde, and ye may knowe howe that I without doute will performe my purpoſe vpon you, to punith you.
30 Beholde, ſayeth the Lorde, I will deliuer Pharao Hophra king of Egypt, into the handes of his enemies that ſeeke after his life: euen as I gaue Zedecias the king of Juda into the handes of Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon his enemie, which ſought after his life.

The xlv. Chapter.

Baruch is reproued of Jeremie.

1 THeſe are the wordes that Jeremie the Prophet ſpake vnto Baruch the ſonne of Neriah, after that hee had written theſe Sermons in a booke at the mouth of Jeremie, in the fourth yeere of Jehoiakim the ſonne of Joſias king of Juda, ſaying,
2 Thus ſayeth the Lorde God of Iſrael vnto thee, O Baruch:
3 Inſomuch as thou thoughteſt thus whē thou waſt writing, Woe is mee, the Lorde hath giuen mee payne for my trauell, I haue wearied my ſelfe with ſighing, and haue found no reſt:
4 Therefore tell him, O Jeremie, that the Lorde ſayth thus: Beholde, the thing that I haue builded, will I breake downe againe, and roote out the thing that I haue planted, yea, this whole land:
5 And ſeekeſt thou yet promotion? looke not for it, and deſire it not, for I will bring a miſerable plague vpon all fleſh, ſayth the Lorde: but thy life will I giue thee for a pray, in al places whitherſoeuer thou goeſt.

The xlvi. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth the deſtruction of Egypt. 27 Deliuerance is promiſed to Iſrael.

1 HEre followe the wordes of the Lorde to the Prophet Jeremie, which he ſpake againſt al the Gentiles.
2 Theſe wordes following preached he to the Egyptians, concerning the hoſte of Pharao Necho king of Egypt, when he was in Charchamis beſide the water of Euphrates, what time as Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon ſlewe him, in the fourth yeere of Jehoiacim the ſonne of Joſias king of Juda.
3 Make ready buckler and ſhielde, and go forth to fight.
4 Harneſſe your horſes, and ſet your ſelues vpon them, ſet your ſalletes faſt on, bring forth ſpeares, ſcoure your ſwords, and put on your breaſt plates.
5 But alas, howe happeneth it that I ſee you ſo afraide? why ſhrinke yee backe? Their worthies are ſlayne, yea, they runne ſo faſt away that none of them looketh behinde him: fearefulnes is falle vpon euery one of them, ſaith the Lord.
6 The lighteſt of foote ſhal not flee away, and the worthies ſhal not eſcape: toward the North by the water of Euphrates they did ſtumble and fall.
7 But what is hee this that ſwelleth vp as it were a flood, roaring, and raging like the ſtreames of water?
8 It is Egypt that riſeth vp like the flood, and caſteth out the waters with ſo great noyſe: And he ſaid, I wil goe vp, & will couer the earth, I wil deſtroy the citie with with them that are therein.

9 Get ye vp ye horses, rouse forth ye charets, come forth worthies, ye Ethiopians, ye Libyans with your bucklers, ye Lydians with your bowes.

10 But this day of the Lord God of hostes is a day of vengeance, that he may auenge him of his enemies: The sworde shall deuoure, it shall be satisfied and dashed in their blood, for the Lord of hostes shall haue a slayne offering toward the North, by the water of Euphrates.

11 Go vp vnto Gilead, and bring triacle, O virgin, thou daughter of Egypt: but in vaine shalt thou go to surgerie, for thy wounde shall not be stopped.

12 The Heathen haue heard of thy shame, and the land is full of thy confusion: for one strong man did stumble vpon another, and they are fallen both together.

13 These are the wordes that the Lorde spake to the Prophet Jeremie, concerning the comming of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, which was sent to destroy the land of Egypt:

14 Preach out through the land of Egypt, and cause it to be proclaimed at Migdol, Noph, and Taphnis, and say, Stande still, make thee ready, for the sworde shall consume thee round about.

15 Howe happeneth it that thy mightie worthies are fallen? why stood they not fast? euen because the Lorde thrust them downe.

16 The slaughter was great, for one fell euer still vpon another: and they sayde, Vp, let vs goe againe to our owne people, and to our owne naturall countrey, from the cruell sworde.

17 They did crye euen there, Pharao the king of Egypt is a king of troublesome nesse: hee hath ouerpast the appointed time.

18 As I liue (saith the king whose name is the Lord of hostes) so surely as Thabor standeth among the mountaines, and Charmel in the sea: euen so assuredly shall this mischiefe come vpon Egypt.

19 O thou daughter of Egypt, make ready thy geare to flit: for Noph shalbe waste and desolate, so that no man shall dwell therein.

20 The lande of Egypt is like a goodly fayre calfe: but destruction shall come out of the North, I say it commeth.

21 Her waged souldiers that bee with her are like fatte calues, they also shall flee away together, & not abide: for the day of their slaughter, and the time of their visitation shall come vpon them.

22 The crye of them shall make a noyse as the hissing of serpents: for they shall enter in with their hostes, & come against her with axes, as it were hewers downe of wood.

a Her wood, that is, the whole multitude of the people, which was like a great wood.

23 And they shall cut downe her a wood, saith the Lord, they shal be innumerable: for they shalbe moe in number then the grashoppers, so that no man shalbe able to tell them.

24 The daughter of Egypt is confounded, and deliuered into the hands of the people of the North.

25 Thus sayth the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Beholde, I will visite that restlesse people of Alexandria, Pharao, and Egypt, yea both their gods and their kings, euen Pharao and all them that put their trust in him:

26 Yea, I will deliuer them into the hands of those that seeke after their liues, namely into the power of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, and into the power of his seruants: & after all these things, it shall be inhabited as aforetime, saieth the Lord.

27 * Be not thou afrayd, O my seruant Jacob, feare not thou, O Israel: for lo, I will helpe thee from farre, and thy seede from the land of their captiuitie: Jacob also shal come againe & be in rest, hee shal prosper, and no man shal do him harme. Esai. 44.1. & 30.10.

28 Feare thou not (O Jacob my seruant) saith the Lorde, for I am with thee, and will destroy all nations among whome I haue scattered thee: neuerthelesse I will not consume thee, but chasten thee and correct thee, yea, and that with discretion, neither will I vtterly destroy thee.

The xlvii. Chapter.

The word of the Lord against the Philistines.

1 THese are the wordes that the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie the Prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharao smote the citie of Azah.

2 Thus saith the Lord, Beholde, there shal waters arise out of the North, and shall growe to a great flood, running ouer and couering the lande and all that is therein, the cities, and them that dwell therein: and the men shall crye, and all they that dwell in the land shall mourne,

3 At the noyse & stamping of their strong barbed horses, at the shaking of their charrets, and at the rumbling of the wheeles: the fathers shall not looke to their children, so feeble and weake shall their hands be.

4 At the same time when he shall be there to destroy the whole land of the Philistines, hee shall make waste both Tyrus, Sidon, and the residue of their ayde: for the Lord will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the yle of ‖ Caphtor.

‖ Or, Cappadocia.

5 Baldnesse is come vpon Azah, Ascalon is put to silence, with ‖ the rest of their valleis: How long wilt thou teare thy selfe?

6 O thou sworde of the Lorde, howe long wilt thou not cease? Turne againe into thy sheath, rest, and leaue off.

7 But how can it cease, when the Lorde him selfe hath giuen it a charge against Ascalon, and rapled it vp against the cities of the sea coast?

The xlviii. Chapter.

The word of the Lord against the Moabites.

1 THus sayth the Lorde of hostes, the God of Israel, against Moab, Woe be to the citie of Nebo, for it is layde waste, brought to confusion, and Kiriathaim is taken: Misgab is brought to shame and afrayde.

2 Moab can boast no more of Hesbon, for they haue deuised a mischiefe against it: Come, (shal they say) let vs roote them out: that they may be no more a nation, thou also shalt be destroyed, O Madmena, and the sword shall persecute thee.

3 A voyce shall crye from Horonaim: Great wasting & destruction shall come vpon them.

4 Moab is made desolate, her litle ones haue cryed out.

5 For at the going vp vnto Luith wee arose with lamentation and mourning, and downe towarde Horonaim they heard a cruell and deadly crye:

Iere.17.6. 6 *Get you away, saue your liues, and be like vnto the heath in the wildernesse.

7 For because thou hast trusted in thine owne workes and treasure, thou shalt be taken: Chamos with his priestes and princes shall go away into captiuitie.

8 The destroyer shall come vpon all cities, none shall escape: The valleys shalbe destroyed, and the fieldes shalbe layde waste, like as the Lord hath spoken.

9 Giue wings vnto Moab, that she get her away (speedily: for her cities shall bee made so desolate, that no man shall dwel therein.

10 Cursed bee hee that doeth the worke of the Lorde fraudulently, and cursed be he that keepeth backe his sword from shedding of blood.

11 Moab hath euer bene rich and careleſſe from her youth vp, she hath bene still setled vpon lees, she was neuer yet put out of one vessell into another, that is, she neuer went away into captiuitie, therefore her taste remaineth, and her sauour is not yet changed.

12 But loe, the time commeth, (saith the Lorde, that I shall send her trussers to trusse her vp, which shall remoue her frō her dwelling, and emptie her vessels, and breake her wine pots.

13 And Moab shalbe ashamed of Chamos, *like as Israel was ashamed of 3.King.12.29. Bethel, wherein she put her trust.

Esai.16.7. 14 Wherefore doe yee thinke thus, *We are mightie and strong men of warre?

15 Moab is destroyed, and her cities burnt vp, her chosen young men bee slaine, (saith the king, whose name is the Lorde of hostes.

16 The destruction of Moab commeth on apace, and her fall is at hand.

17 All yee neighbours mourne for her, and all ye that knowe her name, (say, O howe happeneth it that the strong staffe, and the goodly rodde is thus broken?

18 And thou daughter Dibon, come downe from thy glory, & sit in thirst: for he that destroyeth Moab, shall come vp to thee also, and breake downe thy strong holdes.

19 And thou that dwellest in Aroer, get thee to the streete, and looke about thee, aske them that are fled and escaped, and say, What thing is happened?

20 Oh, Moab is confounded & ouercome: mourne and crye, tel it out at Arnon, that Moab is destroyed:

21 For iudgement shall come vpon the playne lande, namely, vpon Holon, and Iahzah, and vpon Mephaath, 22 And vpon Dibon, vpon Nabo, and Beth Diblathaim, 23 Vpon Kiriathaim, and vpon Beth Gamul, vpon Beth Maon.

24 And vpon Carioth, vpon Bozra, and all the cities in the land of Moab, whether they bee farre or neere.

25 The horne of Moab is smitten downe, and her arme broken, (saith the Lord.

26 Make her drunken, for she magnified her selfe aboue the Lorde, that men may clap their handes at her vomite, and that she also may be laughed to scorne.

27 Diddest not thou laugh Israel to scorne, as though hee had bene taken with theft among thienes? for so often as thou makest mention of him, (shakest for ioy.

28 Ye Moabites, leaue the cities, and dwel in rockes of stone, & become like Doues that make their nestes in holes.

29 As for Moabs pride we haue heard of it, she is very high minded, I knowe her stoutnesse, her boasting, her arrogancie, & the pride of her stomacke, saith the Lorde.

30 I knowe (saith the Lord) her indignation, she doeth not right, her workes are lyes, and they haue not deale truely.

31 Therefore will I mourne for Moab, for whole Moabs sake: my heart shall lament the men of Kirchares.

32 O thou vinepard of Sabamah, I will weepe for thee as for Jazer: thy vine branches (hal come ouer the sea, vnto the sea of Jazer, the destroyer (hal breake into thy harnest and grape gathering.

33 *Ioyth and cheare (hall bee taken as Esa.16.10. away from the fertile fielde, and from the land of Moab: there shalbe no sweete wine in the presse, the treader (hall haue no stomacke to crye vnto him, 34 Which afore time were heard from Hesbon to Eleale, and Jahaz, which listed vp their voyce from Zoar vnto Horonaim, that bullocke of three yere old: the waters also of Nemrim shalbe dried vp.

35 Moreouer, I will make Moab cease, (saith the Lorde, from the offerings and censing that he hath made vnto her gods in high places.

36 Wherefore my heart mourneth for Moab like a crowde playing an heauie song, and for the mens sake of Kirchares my heart mourneth also, euen as a pipe that pipeth a doleful song: for their riches which they haue gathered, shalbe destroyed.

37 *All heads (hal be (hauen, & all beards Esa.15.2. clipped off, all hands bound, & all loynes girded about with sackcloth. 18.

38 Vpon all the house toppes and streetes of Moab, there shalbe lamentable mourning, for I will breake Moab like an vnprofitable vessel, (saith the Lord.

39 O how

39 O how is she destroyed? O how mourneth she? O how doeth Moab hang down her head, and is ashamed? Thus shall Moab bee a laughing stocke, and had in derision of all them that horound about her.

40 For thus saith the Lord, Beholde, the enemie shal come flying as an Egle, and spread his wings vpon Moab.

41 They shall take the cities, and winne the strong holdes: then the mightie mens heartes in Moab shalbe like the heart of a woman trauailing with childe.

42 And Moab shal be made so desolate, that she shall no more bee a people, because she hath set vp her selfe against the Lord.

43 Feare, pit, and snare shal come vpon thee, O Moab, saith the Lord.

44 *Who so escapeth the feare, shal fall into the pit, and who so getteth out of the pit, shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring a peere of visitation vpon Moab, saith the Lord. *Isa. 24. 17.

45 They that are able to flee, shall stande vnder the shadow of Hesbon, for there shal go a fire out of Hesbon, & a flame frō Sihon, and shall burne vp that vtmoste people of Moab, and the toppe of those seditious children.

46 Woe be vnto thee, O Moab, the people of Chamos shalt perish: yea thy sonnes and daughters shalbe led away captiue.

47 Yet at the last will I bring Moab out of captiuitie again, saith the Lord. Thus farre is of the plagme of Moab.

The xlix. Chapter.

1 The worde of the Lorde against the Ammonites, 7 against Idumea, 13 Damascus, 28 Cedar, 34 Elam.

1 AS concerning the Ammonites, thus the Lorde saith, Hath Israel no children? or is hee without any heire? Why hath your king then taken Gad in? Wherefore doeth his people dwell in his cities?

2 Beholde therefore, the time commeth, saith the Lord, that I will bring a noyse of warre into Rabbath of the Ammonites, and it shall be layde on a desolate heape, and her cities burnt vp, and the Israelites shalbe lordes ouer those that had them in possession afore, saith the Lorde.

3 Howle, Hesbon, for Ai shal be rooted out of the ground, saith the Lorde, the citie of Rabbath shal crye out, and girde themselues with sackecloth, they shall mourne and runne about the walles, for their king shalbe led away prisoner, and his priestes and princes with him.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the [a] valleys? thy valley hath flowed away, O thou rebellious daughter, and thinkest thou that thou art so safe by reason of thy treasure, that no man shall come to thee?

5 Beholde, I will bring a feare vpon thee, saith the Lorde GOD of hostes, from all those that bee about thee, so that ye shal bee scattered euery man from another, and no man shall gather them together againe that be fled.

6 But after that, I will bring the Ammonites also out of captiuitie againe, saith the Lord.

7 Vpon the Edomites hath the Lorde of hostes spoken on this maner, Is there no more wisedome in Theman? Is there no more good counsell among his people? Is their wisdome thus turned cleane to noughte?

8 Get you hence, turne your backes, creepe downe into the deepe, O yee citizens of Dedan: for I will bring destruction vpon Esau, yea and the day of his visitation.

9 *If the grape gatherers come vpon thee, should they not leaue some grapes? If the night robbers come vpon thee, should they not take so much as they thought were enough? *Abdi. 5.

10 But I will make Esau bare, and discouer his secretes, so that he shall not be able to hide them: his seede shall be wasted away, yea his brethren & his neighbours, and hee himselfe shall not be left behinde.

11 Thou shalt leaue thy fatherlesse children behinde thee, and I will kepe them, and thy widdowes shal take their comfort in me.

12 For thus hath the Lorde spoken, Beholde, they that men thought were vnmeete to drinke of the cuppe, haue dronken with the first: and thinkest thou then to be free? No, no, thou shalt neither be quit nor free: but thou must drinke also.

13 For why? I haue sworne by my selfe, saith the Lord, that Bozrah shal become a wildernesse, an open shame, a laughing stocke, and curssing, and all her citie shall be a continuall desert.

14 *For I am perfectly informed of the Lorde, that he hath sent a message alreadye vnto the heathen: Gather you together, and go forth against her, make you ready to battell. *Abdi. 1.

15 For loe, I will make thee but small among the heathen, and litle regarded among men.

16 Thy high stomacke, and the pride of thy heart hath deceiued thee, because thou doest dwell in the holes of stonie rockes, and hast the high mountaines in possession: Neuertheless, though thy nest were as high as the Egles, yet I will cast thee downe, saith the Lord.

17 Moreouer, Idumea shall be a wildernesse, who so goeth by it, shall bee abashed, and wonder at all her miserable plagues.

18 *Like as Sodome, Gomor, and the cities that lay threeabout were turned vpside downe, saith the Lorde: so shall no body dwell in Idumea, and *Gen. 19. 25.

[a] The plentifulnesse of the soyle, the strong situation of the place, and their great wealth caused the Ammonites like a retchlesse wanton gyrle, to blaspheme the Lord, to annoy his people, and to be without all feare of enemies.

no man shall haue his habitation there.

19 Beholde, like as the Lion, so shall a destroyer come vp from the pleasant mansiones of Iordane, vnto the strong dwelling place, and when I haue made him quiet, I will make him to flée from her, and all chosen men will I set in array against her: who is like vnto mee? what is hee that will strine with mee? *what shepheard may stand in my handes?

Iob. 41. 1.

20 Therefore heare the counsell of the Lord that hee hath taken vpon Idumea, and his purpose that hee hath deuised vpon the citizens of Theman: the least of the flocke shall traple them, and looke what fayre habitation they haue, they shall make it waste, and themselues also.

21 At the noyse of their fall the earth shall quake, the crye of their voyce shal bee heard vnto the red sea.

22 Behold, the enemie shall come and flée vp hither like as it were an Egle, and spreade his winges vpon Bozrah: then shall the hearties of the woorthies in Edom bee as the heart of a woman trauayling of childe.

23 Vpon Damascus, Hemath, and Arphad, shall come confusion: for they shall heare euill tidings, they shall bee tossed to and fro like the sea that can not stand still.

24 Damascus shalbe sore afrayd, and shal flee: trembling commeth vpon her, sorowe and payne shall ouertake her, as a woman trauailing of childe.

25 But howe happeneth it that the famous citie, the citie of my ioy, is not spared?

26 Her yong men shall fall in the streetes, & all her men of warre shall be taken away in that time, sayeth the Lorde of hostes.

27 I will kindle a fire in the walles of Damascus, which shall consume the palace of Benhadad.

28 As for Cedar and the kingdome of Hazor, whome Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon smote, the Lord hath spoken thus vpon them: Arise, and get you vp vnto Cedar, and destroy the people toward the East.

29 Their tents and their flockes shall they take away, yea, their hangings & their vessels, their Camnels also shall they carry away with them: they shal cry to them, Feare is on euery side.

30 Flee, get you farre away, creepe into caues, that ye may dwell there, O ye inhabitours of Hazor, sayth the Lord: for Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon hath holden a counsel concerning you, & concluded his deuise against you.

31 Arise, and get you vp against ponderich and careless people, sayth the Lord, which haue neyther gates nor bolte barres, but dwell alone.

32 Their Camels shalbe a pray, and the droues of their cattel driuen away: Moreouer, those will I scatter towarde all the windes, and to the farthest parts of the world, yea from al the sides therof will I bring their destruction, sayth the Lord.

33 Hazor also shalbe a dwelling for Dragons, and an euerlasting wildernesse, so that no body shall dwell there, and no man shall haue there his habitation.

34 These are the woordes that the Lorde spake to the Prophet Ieremie concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reigne of Zedecias king of Iuda.

35 Thus sayeth the Lorde of hostes, Beholde, I will breake the bowe of Elam, their principal strength.

36 And vpon Elam I will bring the foure windes from the foure quarters of heauen, and will scatter them against the same foure windes: and there shalbe no people, but some of Elam shall flée vnto them.

37 For I will cause Elam to be afraide of their enemies, and of them that seeke their liues, and will bring vpon them a mischiefe, euen my wrath, sayth the Lord: And I will persecute them with the sword, so long til I haue brought them to nought.

38 I will set my throne in Elam, I will destroy both the king and princes from thence, sayth the Lord: but in processe of time I will bring Elam out of captiuitie again, sayth the Lord.

The l. Chapter.

He prophecieth the destruction of Babylon, and the deliuerance of Israel, which was in captiuitie.

1 THe woordes that the Lorde spake vnto the Prophet Ieremie concerning Babylon and the lande of the Chaldees:

2 Preach among the Gentiles, let your voyce bee heard, make a token, cry out, keepe no silence, but say, Babylon is wonne, Bel is confounded, and Merodach is ouercome, yea their goddes bee brought to shame, & their images burst in pieces:

3 For out of the North there doeth come a people against her, which shall make her lande so waste, that no body shall dwel therein, neyther man nor beast, for they shall flee and depart from thence.

4 In those dayes, and at that time, sayeth the Lord, the children of Israel shal come, they and the children of Iuda, weeping and making haste, and shal seeke the Lord their God.

5 They shall aske the way to Sion, thether shall they turne their faces, saying, Come, & we will cleaue to the Lord in a conenant that neuer shalbe broken.

6 My people haue beene a lost flocke, my shepheardes haue deceiued them, & haue made them go astray vpo the hilles, they haue gone from the mountaine to the litle hill, and forgotten their folde.

7 All they that came vpon them, haue deuoured them, and their enemies saide, Wee haue made no fault against them, for they haue diſpleaſed the Lorde, yea, euen the Lorde which is the habitation of their righteouſneſſe, and the hope of their fathers.

for

8 Flee from Babylon, and departe out of the land of the Chaldees, and be ye as the rams that goe before the flocke.

9 For loe, I will wake vp an hoſt of people from the Northen land, and bring them vpon Babylon, theſe ſhall lay ſiege to it, and winne it: their arrowes ſhall not miſſe, like as a cunning archer ſheweth not wrong.

10 And the Chaldees ſhalbe ſpoyled, and all they that ſpoyle them ſhalbe ſatisfied, ſaith the Lord.

11 Although ye were ſo chearefull & glad to tread downe mine heritage, and fulfilled your pleaſures as the Calues in the graſſe, and triumphed ouer them like Bulles when ye had gotten the victorie, 12 Your mothers ſhalbe ſore confounded, and they that bare you ſhall come to ſhame, ſhe ſhall be the leaſt let vp among the nations, voyd, waſted, and dried vp.

13 No man ſhalbe able to dwell there for the feare of the Lord, but ſhe ſhalbe wholy deſolate: all they that goe by Babylon ſhall ſtand ſtill and be aſhamed, and ſhall wonder at all her plagues.

14 Go forth in your aray againſt Babylon round about, all ye that can handle bowes, ſhoote at her, ſpare no arrowes: for ſhee hath ſinned againſt the Lord.

15 Crie out againſt her round about: ſhe ſhall yeild her ſelfe, her foundations ſhal fall, and her walles ſhalcome downe, for it ſhall be the vengeance of the Lord, yea vengeance ſhall be taken of her: and as ſhe hath done, ſo deale ye with her.

16 Roote out the ſower from Babylon, and him that handeleth the ſickle in harueſt: for feare of the ſwoorde of the enemie, euery man ſhal get him to his owne people, and euery man ſhall flee to his owne land.

17 Iſrael is a ſcattered flocke, the Lions haue diſperſed them: * firſt the king of the Aſſyrians deuoured them, laſt of all this Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon hath bruſed all their bones.

18 Therefore thus ſaieth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Behold, I will viſite the king of Babylon and his kingdome, as I haue viſited the king of the Aſſyrians.

19 And will bring Iſrael againe to his pleaſant paſture, that he may feede vpon Charmel and Baſan, & be ſatisfied vpon the mount of Ephraim and Galaad.

20 In thoſe dayes, and at the ſame time, ſaieth the Lord, if the offence of Iſrael be ſought for, there ſhall none be found, if men enquire for the ſinne of Juda, there ſhalbe none: for I will be mercifull vnto them whom I ſuffer to remaine.

21 Goe downe O thou auenger into the enemies land, and viſite them that dwel therein: ſlay downe with them, and ſmite them vpon the backes, ſaieth the Lord, doe according to all that I haue commanded thee.

22 There is gone about the land a crie of a ſlaughter and great murder, namely on this maner, 23 How happeneth it that the hammer of the whole worlde is thus broken and bruiſed in ſunder? How chanceth it that Babylon is become a wilderneſs among the heathen on this maner?

24 I my ſelfe haue layde a ſnare for thee, and thou art taken vnawares, thou art trapped and ſnared: for why? thou haſt contended againſt the Lord.

25 The Lord hath opened his houſe of ordinance, and brought forth the weapons of his wrath: for that thing that is done in the land of the Chaldees, it is the Lord of hoſtes worke.

26 Come againſt her, for this is her ende, breake vp her cheſtes, throwe her as pot throughly come, deſtroy her, that nothing ſhalbe left.

27 Slay all their mightie ſouldiers, & put them to death: woe be vnto them, for the day & time of their viſitation is at hand.

28 Me thinke I heare already a crie of them that be fled and eſcaped out of the land of Babylon, to ſhew in Sion the vengeance of the Lord our God, the vengeance of his Temple, yea a voyce of them that crie againſt Babylon, 29 Call vp all the archers againſt Babylon, pitch your tentes round about her, that none eſcape, recompence her as ſhee hath deſerued, and according as ſhe hath done, ſo deale with her againe: for ſhee hath ſet vp her ſelfe againſt the Lord, againſt the holy one of Iſrael.

30 Therefore ſhal her young men fall downe in the ſtreetes, and all her men of warre ſhall bee rooted out in that day, ſaieth the Lorde.

31 Behold, I ſpeake vnto thee, O thou proude, ſaieth the Lorde God of hoſtes, for thy day ſhall come, euen the time of thy viſitation.

32 And the proud ſhall ſtumble & fall, and no man ſhall helpe him vp, I will burne vp his cities with fire, and it ſhall conſume all that is round about him.

33 Thus ſaieth the Lorde of hoſtes, The children of Iſraell and Juda ſuffer diſceite together, all they that haue them in captiuitie keepe them faſt, and will not let them goe.

34 But their auenger and redeemer is mightie, whoſe name is the Lord of hoſtes, he ſhall maintaine their cauſe, her ſhall make the land ſhake, & make them that dwell therein one with another.

35 The ſwoorde ſhall come vpon the Chaldees, ſaith the Lord, vpon them that dwell in Babylon, vpon their princes, and vpon their wiſe men.

36 The ſwoord vpon their ſoothſayers: as for thoſe they ſhall become fooles: the ſwoord vpon their worthies, ſo that they ſhall ſtand in feare.

37 The ſwoorde vpon their horſemen and charets,

* 2. Kin. 17. 24.

charets, and vpon all the common people that dwell among them, so that they shall become like women: & vpon hyr treasure, sayth he, shalbe stolen away.

38 A drought vpon their waters, so that they shall be dryed vp: for the land is full of graue images, and delighteth in wonderfully in idoles.

39 Therefore shall wild beasts, Iania, and Cat of mountaines, and Estriches dwell therein: for there shall neuer man dwell there, neither shall any man haue his habitation there for euermore.

Gen. 19. 25. & 13. 19. 40 *Like as God destroyed Sodome and Gomor, with the cities that lay there about, sayeth the Lorde: so shall no man dwell there also, neither shall any man haue there his habitation.

41 Behold, there shal come a people from the north with a great hand of men, and many kings shal stand vp from the ends of the earth.

42 They beare bowes & buckles, cruell are they and vnmercifull: their voyce roareth like the raging sea, they ride vpon horses, and come weaponed to fight against thee, O Babylon.

43 As soone as the king of Babylon heare tell of them, his hands shall wexe feeble, sorowe and heauinesse shall come vpon him as a woman trauailing with childe.

44 Behold, like as the Lion vanquisheth vp from the swelling of Iordane, into the dennes of Ethan, so will I driue them forth, and make them runne against her: but whome shall I chose out and ordeine to such a thing? * for who is like me? or who will strike with me? or what shepheard may stand against me?

Iob. 41. 1.

45 Therefore heare the counsell that the Lorde hath giuen vpon Babylon, and the deuice that hee hath taken vpon the land of the Chaldees. The least among the people shall drawe them out, & make what pleasant houses they haue, they shall lay them waste.

46 The noyse at the winning of Babylon shall moue the earth, and the crie shall be heard among the Gentiles.

The li. Chapter.

How Babylon should be ouerthrowen. 39 Ieremie comforteth Baruch his Seruant.

1 THus hath the Lord sayd, Behold, I will raise vp a pernicious wind against Babylon & her citizens that haue risen will against me.

2 I will send also into Babylon fanners, to fanne her out, and to destroy her land: for in the day of her trouble they shall be about her on euery side.

3 Whereof the Lord will say vnto the bowmen, and to them that aduance themselues in their armour: Ye shall not spare her yong men, kill downe all her host.

4 Thus the slaine shall fall downe in the land of the Chaldees, and the wounded in the streetes.

5 As for Israel and Iuda, they shall not be forsaken of their God, of the Lorde of hostes, yea, for the holy one of Israels sake, howe be the Chaldees filled their land full of sinne.

a For the holy one of Israels sake, that is, for the grieuous affliction & great iniurie done to Gods people, which he reputeth as done vnto himselfe.

6 Flee away from Babylon, euery man saue his life, that ye be not rooted out with her wickednesse: for the time of the Lordes vengeance is come, yea, he shall reward her againe.

7 Babylon hath bene in the Lordes hand a golden cup, that maketh all lands drunken: of her wine haue all people drunken, therfore are they out of their wittes.

8 *But suddenly is Babylon fallen and destroyed: howle for her, bring plaister for her woundes, if her may peradenture be healed againe.

Esa. 21. 9. Apoc. 18. 8.

9 We would faine haue made Babylon whole, say they, but she is not recouered: therefore will we let her alone, and goe euery man into his owne countrey: for her iudgement is come into heauen, and is gone vp into the cloudes.

10 The Lorde hath brought forth our righteousnesse, and therefore come on, we will shew in Sion the worke of the Lord our God.

b Howsoeuer the Iewes had deserued to be plagued at Gods hand, yet had the Chaldees no cause on their partes why to deale so cruelly with them, and so God declareth their rightousnesse in respect to the Chaldees, by punishing them, and deliuering his people.

11 Make sharpe the arrowes, and multiplie your shields: for the Lord shall raise vp the spirite of the king of the Medes, which hath alreadie a desire to destroy Babylon: this shall be the vengeance of the Lorde, and the vengeance of his Temple.

12 Set vp tokens vpon the walles of Babylon, make your watch strong, set your watchmen in array, yea, holde your watches, and prepare all that shall the Lorde goe forth with his deuice which he hath taken vpon them that dwell in Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest by the great waters, O thou that hast so great treasure and riches, thine ende is come, and the reckening of thy wickednesse.

14 *The Lorde of hostes hath sworne by himselfe, that he will ouerwhelme thee with men, like grashoppers in number, which with a corrage shall cry alarum alarum against thee.

Amos. 8. 8.

15 *Yea, euen the Lord of hostes that with his power made the earth, with his wisedome prepared the round world, & with his vnderstanding spred out the heauens.

Gen. 1. 6. psal. 135. 6. Iere. 10. 12.

16 As soone as he letteth his voyce be heard, the waters in the aire waxe fierce: he drawe the vp the clouds from the ends of the earth, he turneth the lightnings to raine, he bringeth the winds out of their secret places.

17 If they be esteemed by their owne wit, all men are brutish, confounded be all the casters of images, for the thing that they make is but deceipte, and hath no breath.

18 Vaine is it, & all erroneous worke: and in the time of visitation it shall perish.

19 The portion of Iacob is none such: but he that made all things, whose name is the Lord of hostes, he is the robbe of his inheritance.

20 Then

20 Thou haſt bene mine hammer and weapons for warre: for with thee haue I broken the people in pieces, and with thee haue I deſtroyed kingdomes.

21 Through thee haue I beaten to pouder horſe and horſemen, yea, the charets, and ſuch as ſate vpon them.

22 Through thee I haue broken man and woman, olde and yong, bacheler & mayden.

23 Through thee I haue deſtroyed the shepheard and his flock, the husbandman and his cattel, the princes & the rulers.

24 Therefore will I reward the citie of Babylon, and all the inhabitantes of Chaldea, with all the euill which they haue done vnto Sion, yea, that ye your ſelues ſhall ſee it, ſaith the Lord.

25 Beholde, I come vnto thee thou noyſome hill, ſaith the Lorde, thou that deſtroyeſt all landes, I will ſtretch out my hand ouer thee, and call thee downe from the ſtonie rockes, and will make thee a burnt hill.

26 So that neither corner ſtones ſhall be taken any more out of thee, but waſte and deſolate ſhalt thou lye for euermore, ſaith the Lord.

27 Set vp a token in the lande, blowe the trumpets among the Heathen, prouoke the nations againſt her, call the kingdomes of Ararat, Menni, and Aſcanes, againſt her, ſet the prince againſt her, bring as great a lost of terrible horſes as gainſt her, as if they were graſhoppers.

28 Prepare againſt them the people of the Medes, with their kings, princes, & all their chiefe rulers, yea, and the whole lande that is vnder him.

29 The lande alſo ſhall ſhake and bee afraid, when the deuice of the Lorde ſhall come forth againſt Babylon, to make the lande of Babylon ſo waſte, that no man ſhall dwell any more therein.

30 The worthies of Babylon ſhall leaue the battell, and keepe themſelues in ſtrong holdes, their ſtrength hath fayled them, they ſhall be like women, their dwelling places ſhall bee burnt vp, their barres ſhalbe broken,

31 One purſeuant ſhall meete another, yea, one poſt ſhall come by another, to bring the king of Babylon tydings that his citie is taken on euery ſide, 32 The foordes occupied, the fennes burnt vp, and the ſouldiers ſore afraide.

33 For thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, The daughter of Babylon hath bene in her time like as a threſhing floore, but thraſhed ſhall her harueſt come.

34 Nabuchadnezor the king of Babylō hath deuoured & deſtroyed me, her hath made me an emptie veſſel, he ſwallowed me vp like a dragon, and filled his belly with my delicates, he hath caſt me out.

35 My ſubſtance whereof he hath ſpoyled me, & the thing that was left me, which hee hath caried away, crye out againſt Babylon, ſaith the daughter that dwelleth in Sion, yea, & my blood alſo againſt the Chaldees, ſaith Hierusalem.

36 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord, Beholde, I will defend thy cauſe, and auenge thee, I will drinke vp her ſea, and dry vp her water ſpringe.

37 Babylon ſhall become an heape of ſtones, a dwelling place for Dragons, a fearefulneſſe and wondering, & no man ſhall dwell there.

38 They ſhall roare together like Lions, & as the yong Lions when they be angrie, ſo ſhall they bend themſelues.

39 In their heate I will giue them a dinner, and they ſhalbe dronken for ioy: that ſhall they ſleepe an euerlaſting ſleepe, & neuer wake, ſaith the Lord.

40 I will carry them downe to be ſlayne like ſheepe, like wethers, and goates.

41 O how was Seſach wonne? O howe was the glorie of the whole land taken? howe happeneth it that Babylon is ſo wondered at among the Heathen?

42 The ſea is riſen ouer Babylon, & hath couered her with her great waues.

43 Her cities are layd waſt, the land yeeth vnbuilded and voyde, it is a land where no man dwelleth, and where no man trauaileth thorowe.

44 Moreouer, I will viſit Bel at Babylō, & the thing that he hath ſwallowed vp, I ſatne that I plucke out of his mouth: the Gētiles alſo ſhal run no more vnto him, yea & the walles of Babylon ſhall fall.

45 O my people, come out of Babylon, that euery man may ſaue his life from the fearefull wrath of the Lord.

46 Be not faint hearted, and feare not at euery rumour that ſhall bee heard in the land: for euery yeere bringeth newe tidings, and in the yeere following newe tidings, and robbing in the lande, and lord vpon lord.

47 And loe, the time commeth, that I will viſit the images of Babylon, and the whole land ſhalbe confounded, yea, and her ſlaine ſhall lye in the middeſt of her.

48 Heauen & earth with all that is therin ſhall reioyce ouer Babylon, when the deſtroyers ſhall come vpon her from the North, ſaith the Lord.

49 Like as Babylon hath beaten downe and ſlayne many out of Iſrael, ſo ſhall there fall many, and be ſlayne in all her kingdome.

50 Ye that haue eſcaped the ſword, haſte you, ſtand not ſtill, remember the Lord a farre off, and thinke vpon Hierusalem.

51 For we are aſhamed to heare the blaſphemies, our faces were couered with ſhame, becauſe the ſtrange aliants came into the ſanctuarie of the Lord.

52 Wherefore beholde, ſaith the Lorde, the time commeth that I will viſit the images of Babylon, and through the whole land then ſhall mourne and fall.

53 Though Babylon climed vp into heauen, and kept her power on high, yet ſhal I ſend her deſtroyers, ſaith the Lord.

54 A piteous crye ſhall bee heard from Baby-a Thou haſt bene. This God ſpeaketh vnto Babylon, b Babylon is called an hill, although it ſtood e in a lowe place, & no hils about it for that her walles and buyldings were ſo great and high as mount ſines.

c The complaint of gods people,

Babylon, and a great miſeris from the lande of the Chaldees,

55 When the Lorde deſtroyeth Babylon, and when her dyneth out the high ſomacke and pryde boaſting, where with they haue bene as furious as the wawes of the great water flowde, & made great crakes with their wordes:

56 For the deſtroyer ſhall come vpon her, euen vpon Babylon, which ſhall take their worthies, & breake their bowes: for the God of recompence, euen the Lord ſhall ſufficiently recompenſe them.

57 Yea, ſaith the Lorde, I will make their princes, their wiſemen, their chiefe rulers, their nobles, and their worthies dronken, ſo that they ſhall ſleepe an euerlaſting ſleepe, & neuer wake: thus ſaith the king, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes.

58 Moreouer, thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, The thicke wall of Babylon ſhalbe wooken, and her high gates ſhalbe burnt vp, and the thing that the Gentiles and the people haue wrought with great trauaile and labour, ſhall come to nought, and be conſumed in the fire.

59 This is the charge that Ieremie the Prophet gaue vnto Saraiah the ſonne of Neriah the ſonne of Maaſiah, when he went toward Babylon with Zedecias the king of Iuda, in the fourth yere of his reigne: now this Saraiah was a peaceable prince.

60 Ieremie wrote in a booke all the miſeries that ſhould come vpō Babylon, yea, and all theſe ſermons that be written againſt Babylon,

61 And gaue Saraiah this charge, When thou commeſt vnto Babylon, ſee that thou reade theſe wordes, 62 And ſay, O Lord, thou art determined to roote out this place, ſo that neither people nor catteil ſhall dwell there anymore, but to lye waſte for euer.

63 And whē thou haſt read out the booke, binde a ſtone to it, and caſt it in the midſt of Euphrates, 64 And ſay, Euen thus ſhall Babylon ſinke, and be thruſt downe with the burden of trouble that I will bring vpon her: ſo that ſhee ſhall neuer come vp againe. Thus farre are the preachings of Ieremie.

The lii. Chapter.

1 He repeateth the taking of Zedecias. 4 Hieruſalem is taken of the Chaldees. 14 The Temple is ſpoyled and robbed.

4. King. 24. 17. 2. chro. 36. 11.

1 ZEdecias was one and twentie yeeres olde when hee was made king, and reigned eleuen yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name was Hamutal, Ieremies daughter of Lebna.

2 He lined wickedly before the Lord, euen as Iehoiakim did.

3 For the Lord was angry at Hierusalē and Iuda, ſo long till he had caſt them out of his preſence: and Zedecias fell frō the king of Babylon.

4. King. 25. 1. Ierem. 39. 1.

4 But in the ninth yeere of his reigne, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of the moneth, it happened that Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon with all his hoſte came before Hierusalem, and beſieged it, and made bulwarkes round about it.

5 And this beſieging of the citie endured vnto the eleuenth yeere of king Zedecias.

6 And in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, there was a great hunger in the citie, that there were no more victuals for the people of the land.

7 So all the ſouldiers brake away, and fled out of the citie by night, thorowe the way of the port, betwixt the two walles, by the kings garden: (Nowe the Chaldees had compaſſed the citie round about) yet went thoſe men their way thorowe the wildernesſe.

8 And ſo the Chaldees followed vpon them, and tooke Zedecias the king in the fielde of Iericho, when his hoſte was runne from him.

9 So they carried the king away priſoner to Reblath, vnto the king of Babylon, in the land of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vpon him.

10 The king of Babylon alſo cauſed Zedecias ſonnes to bee ſlayne before his face, yea, and put all the princes of Iuda to death at Reblath.

11 Moreouer, he put out the eyes of Zedecias, and cauſed him to bee bound with two chaynes, to bee caried vnto Babylon, and let him lye in priſon till he dyed.

12 Now the tenth day of the fifth moneth, in the nineteenth yeere of Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine, and the king of Babylons ſeruants, came vnto Hierusalem, 13 And burnt vp the houſe of the Lord: he burnt vp alſo the kings palace, all the houſes, and all the gorgeous buyldings in Hierusalem.

14 And the whole hoſte of the Chaldees that were with the chiefe captaine, brake downe all the walles of Hierusalē round about.

15 As for the poore people, and ſuch folke as was yet left in the citie, which alſo were fallen to the king of Babylon, yea, and what people as yet remained, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine caried away priſoners.

16 But the poore people of the countrey did Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine leaue in the land, to occupie the vineyards and fieldes.

17 The Chaldees alſo brake the braſen pillars that were in the houſe of the Lorde, yea, the ſeate and the braſen lauer that was in the houſe of the Lord, and caried all the metall of them vnto Babylon.

18 They tooke away alſo the Caldrons, Shouels, Fleſhhookes, Sprinklers, Spoones, and all the braſen veſſels that were occupied in the ſeruice,

19 With the baſons, colepans, ſprinklers, pottes, candleſticks, ſpoones, & cups, whereof whereof some were of golde, and some of siluer.

20 The chiefe captaine toke also the two pillars, the lauer, the twelue brasen bullockes that stode vnder the seats which king Solomon had made in the house of the Lorde: and all the vessels counteped so much metall, that it might not be weped.

21 For euerie pillar was eightéene cubits high, and the rope that went about it was twelue cubites, and foure fingers thicke, and rounde.

22 Now vpō the rope were brasen knops, and euerp knop was fiue cubits high, & vpon the knops were hoopes, & pomegranates round about of cleane brasse.

23 After this maner were both the pillars fashioned with the pomegranates, whereof there were an hundred, ninetie and sixe, which hanged vpon the hoopes round about.

24 The chiefe captaine also toke Saraiah the high Priest, and Sophoniah that was chiefe next him, and the three keepers of the doore.

25 Yee toke out of the citie a chamberlaine, which was captaine of the souldiours, and seuen men that were the kings seruantes, which were founde in the citie: and Sopher a captaine that vsed to muster the men of warre, with three score men of the countrie that were taken in the citie:

26 These Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine toke, and caried them to the king of Babylon, vnto Reblath:

27 And the king of Babylon caused them to be put to death at Reblath in the land of Hemath: and thus Juda was led away captiue out of his owne land.

28 This is the summe of the people whom Nabuchodonosor led away captiue: In the seuenth peere of his reigne, he caried away of the Iewes, three thousande, twentie and three.

29 In the eightéenth peere, Nabuchodonosor caried away frō Hierusalem eight hundred thirtie and two persons.

30 In the three & twentieth peere of Nabuchodonosor, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine toke away seuen hundred, fourtie & fiue Iewes, prisoners. The whole summe of the prisoners is foure thousand, and sixe hundred.

31 In the thirtie & seuenth peere after that Jehoacim the king of Juda was caried away, in the fiue and twentieth day of the twelfth moneth, Euilmerodach king of Babylon (the same peere that he reigned) gaue Jehoacim the king of Juda his pardon, and let him out of prison.

32 And spake louingly to him, and set his throne aboue the thrones of the other kings that were with him in Babylon.

33 He changed also the clothes of his prison, pea, and did eate with him all his life long.

34 And he had a continuall liuing giuen him of the king of Babylon, euerp day a certaine thing allowed him, al the dapes of his life, vntil he dyed.

The ende of the booke of the Prophet Ieremie.

The Lamentations of the Prophet Ieremie.

The first Chapter.

It happened after Israel was brought into captiuitie, and Ierusalem destroyed, that Jeremie the Prophet sate weeping, & sorowfully bewayled Hierusalem, and sighing and howling with an heauie and wofull heart, sayde.

1 ALas, how sitteth the citie so desolate, that sometime was ful of people? Howe is shee become like a widow, which was great among nations? Howe is shee brought vnder tribute, that ruled lands?

2 *She weepeth sore in the night, so that the teares run downe her cheekes: for among all her louers, there is none that giueth her any comfort, pea, her nere friends transgresse against her, and are become her enemies.

3 Juda went away by reason of the affliction and great bondage: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest, all they that persecuted her, toke her in strait places, where she could not escape.

4 The streetes of Sion mourne, because no man cōmeth no more to the solemne feastes: all her gates are desolate, her priests make lamentation, her maides are carefull, & she her selfe in great heauines.

5 Her enemies haue bene rulers ouer her, and her enemies haue prospered, because the Lord hath chastened her for her great wickednesse: her children are led away captiue before their enemies.

6 All the beautie of the daughter of Sion is away, her princes are become like harts that finde no pasture, they are driuen away before their enemie, so that they haue no more power.

7 Nowe Hierusalem remembred in the time of her miserie and bare estate, al her ioy and pleasure that shee hath had in times past, seeing her people is brought downe vnder the power of their enemies, and there is no man for to helpe her: her enemies stand looking at her, and laugh her Sabboth dapes to scorne.

8 Hierusalem hath sinned grieuously, therefore is she come in decay: all they that had her in honour, despise her, for they haue seene her filthinesse, pea, she sigheth,

*Jer.13.17.

for. and is turned backward.

slgheth, and is ashamed of her selfe.
9 Her skirts are defiled, she remembred not her last ende, therefore is her fall so wonderfull, and there is no man to comfort her: O Lord consider my trouble, for mine enemie hath the vpper hand.
10 The enemie hath put his hand to all the pzecious things that shee had, yea, euen before her eyes came the heathen in and out of the sanctuarie, whom thou neuertheless hast forbidden to come within thy congregation.
11 All her people seeke their bread with heauines, and looke what pzecious thing euery man hath, that giueth he for meat to saue his life: consider, O Lorde, and see how vile I am become.
12 Haue ye no regard all ye that go forby, behold, and see if there be any sorowe like vnto mine, wherewith ꝓ Lord hath troubled me in the day of his fearfull wrath.
13 From aboue hath he sent downe a fire into my bones, & it burneth them cruelly: he hath laide a net for my feete, and throwen me wide opē, he hath made me desolate, so ꝓ I must euer be mourning.
2 The bondage through sinne is most grieuous, which therefore is called the yoke of sinnes, fastened in or to Gods hand, because by no meanes it can be shaken off or remitted, but onely of Gods speciall grace and mercie. Iere. 14. 17.
14 The *yoke of my transgressions is bound fast to his hande, they are wrapped or wreathen and come vp about my necke: hee hath caused my strength to faile, the Lorde hath deliuered mee into those handes whereout I cannot quit my selfe.
15 The Lord hath destroyed all the mightie men that were in me, he hath proclaimed an appopnted time to slaughter all my best men: the Lorde hath troden downe the daughter of Juda, like as it were in a wine pzesse.
16 *Therefore do I weepe, and mine eyes gush out of water: for the comfort that should quicken me, is farre from me: my children are driuen away, for why? the enemie hath gotten the vpper hand.
17 Sion casteth out her hands, and there is no man to comfort her: the Lord hath layde the enemies rounde about Jacob, and Hierusalem is become abomination in the middest of them.
18 The Lord is righteous, for I haue pzouoked his countenance vnto anger: O take heede all ye people, and consider my heauinesse, my maidens and my young men are led away into captiuitie.
19 I called for my louers, but they beguiled me, for my pziests and counsaylours, but they perished, euē while they sought for meate to saue their liues.
20 Consider (O Lord) how I am troubled, my wombe is disquieted, my heart turneth about in me, and I am full of heauinesse, because I rebelled stubburnly: the swoade hurteth me without, & within I am like vnto death.
21 They heare my mourning, but there is none that will comfort me: all mine enemies haue heard of my trouble, and are glad thereof, because thou hast done it, and thou hast brought forth the time which thou calledst, when they also shal be like vnto me.
22 Let all their wickednesse come before thee, & do vnto them as thou hast done vnto me for all my trespasses: for my sorow is very great, & my heart is heauy.

The ii. Chapter.

1 ALas how hath the Lorde darkened ꝓ daughter of Sion in his wrath? as for the honor of Israel, he hath cast it downe from heauen vnto ꝓ earth, and he remembred not his owne a foote stoole when he was angry.
a By the foote stoole is meant the temple of Hierusalem.
2 The Lord hath cast out all the habitations of Jacob without any fauour, all the strōg places of ꝓ daughter of Juda hath he broke downe in his wrath, & throwen them downe to the ground, her kingdome & her princes hath he pzophaned.
3 In the wrath of his indignation he hath broken all the b horne of Israel, he hath withdrawen his right hand from the enemie, yea, a flame of fire is kindled in Jacob, & hath consumed vp al round about.
b By the horne is meant the power or strength.
4 He hath bent his bowe like an enemie, he hath fastened his right hande as an aduersarie, and euery thing that was pleasant to see, he hath slaine: he hath powred out his wrath like a fire into the tabernacle of the daughter of Sion.
5 The Lord is become like as it were an enemie, he hath deuoured Israel & all his palaces, yea, all his strong holds hath he destroyed, and filled the daughter of Juda with much sorow and heauinesse.
6 His tabernacle as a garden hath he destroyed, his solemne meetings hath he put downe, the Lorde hath brought it so to passe, that the high solemne feasts and Sabbaths in Sion are cleane forgotten: in his heaune displeasure hath he despised the king and Priests.
7 The Lord hath forsaken his owne altar, and hath abhorred his owne sanctuarie, & hath giuen the walles of their towres into the handes of their enemie: their enemies made a noyse in the house of the Lord, as it had bene a solemne feast day.
8 The Lord thought to breake downe the walles of the daughter of Sion, he stred out his line, and dzewe not in his hande till hee had destroyed them: therefore mourne the turres & the broken walles fall downe together.
9 Her gates are sunke downe to ꝓ ground, her barres are broke and smitten in sunder, her king and princes are caried away to the Gentiles: they haue not the law, neither her prophets haue any vision from the Lord.
10 The Senatours of the daughter Sion sit vpon the ground in silence, they haue strawed ashes vpon their heades, and girded themselues with sackcloth, the maidens of Hierusalem hang downe their heades to the ground.
11 Mine eies do faile through weeping, my bowels do swel, my liuer is powred vpō the earth, for ꝓ great hurt of ꝓ daughter of my people, seeing the children & babes did swoone in the stretes of the citie.

12 They

12 They haue saide to their mothers, Where is ‖bread and drinke? when they fell downe as wounded in the streetes of the citie, & when they dyed in their mothers bosome.

Or, where and when.

13 What shall I take to witnesse against thee, or what shall I liken to thee, O daughter Hierusalem? To whome shal I compare thee, O thou daughter Sion, to comfort thee with all? thy breach is like a mayne sea, who may heale thee?

14 Thy prophets haue loked out vaine and lowlish things for thee, they haue not shewed thee of thy wickednesse, to moue thee from captiuitie: but they haue seene out for thee ‖burdens of vanitie and daunishment.

& The false prophets tooke vpon them the name of Seers which was proper to the true prophets: but their vayne burdens, that is, their false prophecies brought the people vnder the grieuous burden of affliction and banishment.

15 All they that goe by the way, clappe their handes at thee, hissing and wagging their heads ouer the daughter Hierusalem, and saye, Is this the citie that men call so fayre, and the ioye of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies gape vpon thee, they hisse and grinde their teeth, saying, let vs deuoure, for the time that we looked for is come, we haue found & seene it.

Or, vaine prophecies.

17 The Lord hath fulfilled the thing that he was purposed to doe, & performed his word that he had ‖deuised long ago: he hath destroyed & not spared, he hath caused thine aduersary to triumph ouer thee, & set vp the horne of thine enemie.

Or, commanded.

Iere. 14. 17.

18 *Their heart cried vnto the Lorde. O thou ‖citie of the daughter Sion, let thy teares runne downe like a riuer day and night, rest not, and let not the apple of thine eye leaue off.

Or, O thou wall.

19 Stand vp, crye in the night in the beginning of the watche, powre out thine heart like water before the Lorde: lift vp thine handes towards him, for the liues of thy yong children that dye of hunger in the streetes.

20 Beholde, O Lorde, and consider to whome thou hast done thus: shall the women then eate their owne fruite, euen children of a spanne long? shall the Priests and Prophets bee slaine in the Sanctuarie of the Lorde?

21 Yong and olde lye thorowe the streetes vpon the ground, my maydens and yong men are slayne with the sworde, whom thou in the day of thy wrathfull indignation hast put to death, yea, euen thou hast put them to death, and not spared them.

Or, enemies whom I feared.

22 My ‖terrours that are round about me, hast thou called as it were to a feast day, so that in the day of the Lords wrath none escaped, neither was any left behinde: those that I haue brought vp and nourished, hath mine enemy destroyed.

The iii. Chapter.

1 I Am the man that haue seene the rodde of his wrath.

2 He droue me forth, and led me, yea, into darkenesse, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned, he turneth his hand daily against me.

4 My flesh and my skinne hath he made olde, and my bones hath he brused.

5 He hath builded against me, and closed me in with gall and trauaile.

6 He hath set me in darkenesse, as they that be dead for euer.

7 He hath hedged me in, that I can not get out, and he hath layd heauie chaines vpon me.

8 Though I cry and call ‖vehemently, yet heareth he not my prayer.

Or, strongly.

9 He hath stopped vp my wayes with squared stones, & made my paths crooked.

10 He layeth wayte for me like a Beare, & as a lion in a hole.

11 He hath marred my wayes, and broken me in pieces, he hath layd me waste.

12 He hath bent his bowe, and made me as it were a marke ‖to shoote at.

Or, for the arrow.

13 The arowes of his quiuer hath he shot, euen into my reynes.

14 I am laughed to scorne of all my people, they make songes vpon me all the day long.

15 He hath filled me with bitternesse, and made me drunken with wormewood.

16 Yea, hath smitten my teeth in pieces with stones, and rouled me in the dust.

17 My soule departed from peace: I forgat all good things.

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the Lord.

19 O remember yet my miserie and my trouble, the wormewood, and the gall.

20 Yea, in remembring my soule doeth still remember them, and is humbled within me.

21 I consider these things in my heart, & I get hope againe.

22 Namely, it is of the Lords mercies that we are not vtterly consumed, for truely his pitifull compassion hath not ceased.

23 New mercies shall the Lord shew vpon thee early in the day (springing) (O Lord) great is thy faithfulnesse.

24 The Lorde is my portion, saieth my soule, therefore will I hope in him.

25 O howe good is the Lorde vnto them that put their trust in him, and to the soule that seeketh after him?

26 The good man with stillnesse and patience tarieth for the health of the Lord.

27 Good is it for a man to take the yoke vpon him from his youth vp.

28 He sitteth alone, he boldeth him still, because he hath take the Lords yoke vpo him.

29 He layeth ‖his face vpon the earth, if there happen to be any hope.

Or, mouth.

30 He offereth his cheeke to the smiter, he will be content with reproches.

31 For the Lord will not forsake for euer,

32 But though he punish, yet according to the multitude of his mercies he recompenseth to grace againe.

33 For he doeth not plague willingly, nor afflict the children of men.

34 To treade all the prisoners of the earth vnder his feete,

35 To decline the iudgement of man before the most high,

‡ The Lord seeth it not.

36 To condemne a man in his cause: ‡ the Lord hath not pleasure in such things.
37 What is he then that saith, and it commeth to passe, and the Lord commanded it not?
Amos. 3. 6. 38 * Out of the mouth of the most high goeth not euill and good?
39 Wherefore then mourneth the liuing man? let him mourne for his own sinne.
40 Let us looke well vpon our wayes, & remember our selues, and turne againe to the Lord.
41 Let vs lift our hearts with our hands vnto God that is in the heauens.
42 We haue sinned and rebelled, therefore hast thou not spared.
43 Thou hast couered vs in thy wrath, & persecuted vs: thou hast slayne without any fauour.
44 Thou hast hid thy self in a cloude, that our prayers should not go thorow.
45 Thou hast made vs as the offcouring and refuse in the middest of the people.
46 All our enemies gape vpon vs.
47 Feare and a snare is come vpon vs, yea, desolation and destruction.
48 Whole riuers of water gush out of mine eyes, for the hurt of the daughter of my people.
49 Mine eye runneth, and can not cease, for there is no rest, 50 Till the Lord looke downe from heauen and consider.
51 Mine eyes breake my heart, because of all the daughters of my citie.
52 Mine enemies hunted me out sharpely like a birde, yea, & that without a cause.
53 They haue shut vp my life in a dungeon, and cast stones vpon me.
54 The waters flowed ouer my head: then thought I, now am I vndone.
55 I called vpon thy name, O Lord, out of the deepe pitte.
56 Thou hast heard my voyce, wherefore shut not thine eare from my sighing & crying.
57 Thou drewest nigh vnto mee when I called vpon thee: and hast sayde, Feare not.
58 Thou (O Lorde) hast maintained the cause of my soule, and hast redeemed my life.
59 O Lorde, thou hast seene my wrong, take thou my cause vpon thee.
60 Thou hast seene all their vengeance, & all their deuices against me.
61 Thou hast heard their despitefull woordes, O Lord, yea, and all their imaginations against me:
62 The lippes of them that rise against mee, and their deuices that they take against me all the day long.
63 Behold also their sitting down & their rising vp, howe I am their song.
64 Reward them, O Lorde, according to the workes of their handes.
For. fore ‖ of heart 65 Giue them (an obstinate heart, euen) thy curse.
66 Persecute them, O Lorde, with thine indignation, and roote them out from vnder the heauens.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 O Howe is the golde become so dimme? the most fine golde so changed? & the stones of the sanctuarie are scattered in the corner of euery streete.
2 The children of Sion that were alway in honour, and ‖ clothed with the most precious gold: howe are they nowe become like earthen vessels, the worke of the potters handes?
3 The dragos giue their pong ones sucke with their breasts: but the daughter of my people is cruell, like the Estriches in the wildernesse.
4 The tongues of the sucking children cleaue to the roofe of their mouthes for very thirst: the yong children aske bread, but there is no man that giueth it them.
5 They that were woont to fare delicately, perish in the streetes: they that afore were brought vp in purple, make nowe much of doung.
6 The sinne of the daughter of my people is become greater then the a wickednes of Sodom, that suddenly was destroyed, and ‖ not taken with hands.
7 Her ‖ abstainers were whiter then the snowe or milke, their colour was fresh, red as coral, their beautie like the Saphire.
8 But nowe their faces bee very blacke, in so much that thou shouldest not knowe them in the streetes: their skinne cleaueth to their bones, it is withered and become like a type stocke.
9 They that be slayne with the sword, are happier then such as dye of hunger, for these perish away as they were stricken throwe for the lacke of the fruites of the fielde.
10 The women which of nature are pitifull, haue sodden their owne children with their handes, that they might bee their meate in the miserable destruction of the daughter of my people.
11 The Lord hath performed his heate wrath, he hath powred out the furiousnesse of his displeasure: he hath kindled a fire in Sion, which hath consumed the foundations thereof.
12 Neither ‖ kings of the earth, nor all ‖ inhabiters of the world would haue beleeued ‖ the enemy & aduersarie should haue come in at the gates of Hierusalē.
13 Which nevertheless is come to passe for the sinne of her prophets, & for the wickednesse of her priestes, that haue shed innocent blood in the middest of her.
14 As blinde men went they stumbling in the streetes, and stained themselues with blood, so that the Heathen wouldne not touch their garments.
15 But they cryed vnto them, Fie pe polluted, away, get you hence, touche not: for they are vncleane, and be renowned, yea, they haue said among the heathen, They shall no more dwell there.
16 The ‖ countenance of the Lorde hath banished them, and shall neuer looke more.

a The grieuousnes of the punishmēt shewed their sinnes to exceede the sinnes of the Sodomites. The Sodomites were suddenly consumed with fire, but the Iewes were miserably tormented with hunger, pestilence, and the sworde, in a long and cruell siege. Gen. 19. 23.

‖ Or, compared to.

‖ Or, no camps were pitched against her.

‖ Or, Nazarens.

‖ Or, she would.

more vpon them: for they themselues neither ‖ regarded the priestes, nor pitied their elders.

17 Wherefore our eyes fayled vs, whyleste we yet looked for our vaine helpe, seeing we euer waited vpon a people that could doe vs no good.

18 They lay so sharpe wayte for vs, that we can not goe safe vpon the streetes, for our ende is at hande, our dayes are fulfilled, our end is come.

19 Our persecuters are swifter then the Egles of the ‖ ayre: they followed vpon vs ouer the mountaines, and laide waite for vs in the wildernesse.

20 The very breath ♭ of our ‖ mouth, euen the anointed of the Lord himselfe was taken in their net, of whom we said, Vnder his shadowe we shall be preserued alyue among the heathen.

21 And thou, O daughter Edom, that dwellest in the land of Huz, be glad and reioyce, for the cup shall come vnto thee also, thou shalt be dronken, and ‖ discouer thy nakednesse.

22 Thy sinnes are fully punished, O thou daughter Sion, he will no more carry thee away into captiuitie: but thy wickednesse, O daughter Edom, shall he visite, and will discouer thy sinnes.

The v. Chapter.

The prayer of Ieremie.

1 CAll to remembrance (O Lord) what is come vpon vs, consider and see our ‖ confusion.

2 Our inheritance is turned to the straungers, and our houses to the aliants.

3 Wee are vnderlings without fathers, and our mothers are as widowes.

4 We haue dronken our water for money, and our wood haue we by sale.

5 Our neckes are vnder persecution, wee are wearie, and haue no rest.

6 Aforetime wee yelded our selues to the Egyptians, and nowe to the Assyrians, onely that we might haue bread inough.

7 Our fathers (which now are gone) haue sinned, and we must beare their wickednesse.

8 Seruants haue the rule of vs, and no man deliuereth vs out of their handes.

9 We must get our ‖ liuing with the perill of our liues, because of the ‖ drouth of the wildernesse.

10 Our skinne is made blacke like as an ouen, for very sore hunger.

11 They rauished the wiues in Sion, and the maydens in the cities of Iuda.

12 The princes are hanged vp with their enemies hand, they haue not honoured the olde sage mens faces.

13 They haue taken yong men to grinde, and the boyes fainted vnder the burdens of wood.

14 The elders haue ceassed from the gates, and the yong men from their songs.

15 The ioy of our heart is gone, our ‖ ioyfull meeting is turned into mourning.

16 The ‖ garlande of our head is fallen: alas that euer we sinned!

17 Therfore our heart is full of heauinesse, and for these things our eyes are dimme.

18 Because of the hill of Sion that is destroyed: insomuch that the Foxes ruine vpon it.

19 But thou, O Lord, remainest for euer, and thy seate woylde without ende.

20 Wherefore wilt thou still forget vs, and forsake vs so long?

21 O Lorde, turne thou vs vnto thee, and so shall we be turned, renewe our dayes as in olde times:

22 But thou hast banished vs vtterly, and hast bene exceedingly displeased at vs.

The prophecie of Ezechiel.

The first Chapter.

a The time wherein Ezechiel prophecied, and in what place. 3 His kinred. 5 The vision of the foure beastes. 16 The fashion and worke of the wheeles. 26 The vision of the throne.

1 IT came to passe in the a thirtieth yeere, in the fourth moneth, in the fifth day of the moneth, that I being in the midst of the captiuitie, by the riuer Chebar) the heauens were opened, & I sawe visions of God:

2 In the fifth day of the moneth, which was the fifth yere of king Joachins captiuitie,

3 The word of the Lord came to Ezechiel the Priest, the sonne of Buzi, in the lande of the Chaldeans by the riuer Chebar, where the hand of the Lorde was vpon him.

4 And I looked, and behold, a stormie winde came out of the North, a great cloude, and a fire folding it selfe in the cloude, and a brightnes round about it, and fourth of the middest thereof as the colour of amber out of the middest of the fire.

5 And out of the midst thereof, the likenesse of foure ♭ beastes appeared, and this was their fourme: They had the likenesse of a man.

6 And euery one had foure faces, and euery one of them had foure wings.

7 Their feete were straight feete, and the sole of their feete like the sole of calues feete, and they glistered as the appearance of brasse burnished.

8 From vnder their wings vpon all the foure ‖ corners they had mens handes:

a After the Iubike, in which yeere the booke of the lawe was found, which was the 18. yeere of Iosias, so that 25. yeeres after this booke was found, Iechonias was led away captiue with Ezechiel (and many of the people) who the fifth yeere after, sawe these visions.

and they foure had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were ioyned one to another: when they went, they loked not backe, but eche one went straight forward.

10 But touching the similitude of their faces, they foure had the e face of a man, and the face of a lion on the right side, and they foure had the face of an ore on the left side, they foure also had the face of an Eagle.

e Euery Cherub had foure faces, the face of a mā and of a lion on the right side, and the face of a bullocke and of an eagle on the left side.

11 Thus were their faces: & their wings were spred out above, so that two wings of euery one were ioyned one to another, and two wings couered euery one of their bodies.

12 Euery one went straight forwarde: d whither as þ spirit led the, thither they went, and returned not in their going.

d Whither their will ormind was to goe,

13 And the fashion of the beastes, their appearance was like coales of fire, burning like the appearance of creslets, it ranne among the beastes, and the fire gaue a glister, and out of the fire there went lightning.

14 And the beasts ran, and returned like lightning.

15 When I had considered the beasts, behold, a wheele vpon the earth nigh to the beasts, to ‖ euery of the foure before his face.

‖ Or, hauing foure faces.

16 The fashion and worke of the wheeles was like þ colour of e Tharsis, and they foure had one fashion, and their fashion and their worke was as though it were a wheele in the middle of a wheele.

e That is, a precious stone of a goodly colour, thought to be the Tarkeis, 17 When they went, they went vpon their foure sides: they turned not when they went.

18 They had f rings, and height, and were fearefull to behold: and their rings were full of eyes round about them foure.

f The vtter compasse of the wheeles, which some cal strakes.

19 When the beastes went, the wheeles went also by them: and when the beasts were lift vp from the earth, the wheeles were lift vp.

20 Whither soeuer the spirit was to goe, they went, and thither was the spirit of the wheeles to go, and the wheeles were lift vp before them: for the spirite of the beasts was in the wheeles.

21 When the beasts went, they went, and when they stood, they stood, and when they were lifted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lifted vp before them: for the spirit of the beasts was in þ wheeles.

22 And the similitude of the firmament vpon the heads of the beasts, was like the colour of the stall, wonderfull, spred ouer their heads aboue.

g He noteth two maner of couerings, the one with wings stretched vpward to couer their faces, and the other with the neather wings to couer their bodies.

23 And vnder the firmament their wings were straight foorth one towards another, euery one had two couering them, and g euery one had two couering them, euen their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of many waters, as the voyce of the almightie, the voyce of speach as the noyse of an hoste: when they stoode, they let downe their wings.

25 And there was a voyce from the firmament, that was ouer their heads, when they stood, & had let downe their wings.

26 And aboue the firmament that was ouer their heads, there was the fashion of a throne like a Saphire stone: and vpon the similitude of þ throne by appearance, as the similitude of a man aboue vpon it.

27 And I sawe as the apearance of amber and as the similitude of fire round about within, from the appearance of his loynes vpward: and from the appearance of his loynes and downeward, I sawe as the likenes of fire, and brightnes round about it.

28 As the likenes of a bowe that is in a cloude in the day of rayne, so was the h appearance of the brightnes round about: this was the appearance of the similitude of the glory of the Lorde, and when I sawe it, I fell vpon my face, and hearkened vnto þ voyce of one that spake.

h Considering the maiestie of God, and the weakenes of flesh.

The ii. Chapter.

The Prophet is sent to call the people frō their errour.

1 AND then said he vnto me, Stand vp vpon thy feet (O thou sonne of man) and I will talke with thee.

2 And the spirit entred into me when he had spoken vnto mee, and set mee vpon my feete, so that I heard him that spake vnto me.

3 And he sayde vnto mee, Thou sonne of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious people, which haue rebelled against mee, both they and their fore fathers haue wickedly behaued themselues against mee, euen vnto this very day.

4 For they are children of a harde face, ‖ Or, impudent. and stiffe heart, I doe sende thee vnto them, and thou shalt say vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lord God.

7 And thou shalt speake my words vnto them, whether they will heare or refuse, for they are rebellious.

8 Therefore thou sonne of man, ‖ obey thou all things that I say vnto thee, and be not thou rebellious like the rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eate that I giue thee. ‖ Or, heare.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The Prophet being fedde with the worde of God, and with the constant boldenesse of the spirite, is sent vnto the people that were in captiuitie, 17 The office of true preachers.

1 AFter this saide hee vnto mee, Thou sonne of man, eate whatsoeuer thou findest, eate this roule, and goe thy way, and speake vnto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he fedde me with this roule.

3 And hee saide vnto mee, Thou sonne of man, thy belly shall eate, and thy bowels shalt thou fill with this roule that I giue thee: then did I eate, and it was in my mouth as sweete as hony.

4 And hee saide vnto mee, Thou sonne of man, goe, get thee vnto the house of Israel, and declare my wordes vnto them.

strange speach. 5 For not to a people of ‡ profound lips & hard language art thou sent, but vnto ᵖ house of Israel:

6 Not to many nations of a strang speach and hard languages, whose wordes thou vnderstandest not: certainely if I had sent thee vnto them, they woulde haue hearkened vnto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken vnto thee, for they will not hearken vnto me: For all the house of Israel haue stiffe foreheads, & stubborne hearts.

8 Beholde therefore, I haue made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an Adamant, harder then the flint stone haue I made thy foreheade: thou shalt not feare them, nor be abashed at their lookes, for they are a rebellious house.

10 He said moreouer vnto me, Thou sonne of man, all my words that I shal speake vnto thee, receiue in thine heart, & hearken with thine eares.

11 And go, get thee to the captiuitie, to the children of thy people, and thou shalt speake vnto them, and shalt say vnto thē, Thus saith the Lord God: but surely they will not heare, neither will they leaue off.

12 Then that the spirit tooke me vp, and I heard behinde mee a voyce of a great rushing, to wit, Blessed bee the glory of Iehouah from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the beasts ioyning one with another, & the rating of the wheeles that were before them, euen a noise of great rushing.

14 So the spirite lift me vp and tooke me away, I went in bitternesse & furie of my spirite: but the hand of the Lord vpon me was strong.

15 Then I came to the captiues in Thelabib that dwelt by the riuer Chebar, & I sate where they sate, and I remained there seuen daies astonished among thē.

16 And when the seuen daies were expired, the Lord said vnto me,

Ezek.33.7. 17 Thou sonne of man, *I haue made thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt heare the worde at my mouth, and giue them warning from me.

18 When I shall say vnto ᵖ wicked, Thou shalt surely die, and thou giuest not him warning, nor speakest to admonish the wicked of his euill way, and so to liue: then shall the same vngodly man die in his owne vnrighteousnesse, but his blood will I require of thine hand.

19 Neuertheless, if thou giue warning vnto the wicked, and he yet turne not from his vngodlinesse and from his wicked way: hee shall die in his owne wickednesse, but thou hast deliuered thy soule.

20 Againe, if a righteous man turne from his righteousnesse, and do the thing that is euill, I will lay a stumbling blocke before him: and he shall die, because thou hast not giuen him warning, die shall he in his owne sinne, so that his righteousnesse which hee hath done shall not bee thought vpon: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Neuertheless, if thou admonish that righteous man, that the righteous sinne not, and so the righteous doe not sinne: then shalt he liue, because he hath receiued thy warning, and thou hast deliuered thy soule.

22 And the hande of the Lorde was there vpon me, and he saide vnto me, ‖ Stand vp, and goe into the field, that I may there talke with thee.

‖ Or, arise.

23 So when I had risen vp, & gone forth into the field, beholde, the * glorie of the Lorde stode there, * like the glorie which I sawe by the riuer Chebar: then fell I downe vpon my face.

a Meaning, the vision of Cherubims and the wheeles. Ezech.1.3.

24 And the spirit came into me, which set me vp vpon my feete, and spake vnto me, and said vnto me, ‖ Go thy way, and shut thy selfe in thy house.

‖ Or, get thee in.

25 Beholde, O thou sonne of man, ‖ they haue prepared bonds against thee, and they will bind thee with them, and thou shalt not goe out among them.

‖ Or, they shal put bonds vpon thee.

26 And I will make thy ᵇ tongue cleaue to the roofe of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumbe, and not be as a reprouer vnto them: for they are a rebellious house.

b It is a great plague of God toward the people, when he causeth the ministers to cease preaching and rebuking of sinne.

27 But when I speake vnto thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say vnto thē, Thus saith the Lord God, Who so heareth, let him heare, who so leaueth off, let him leaue: for they are a rebellious house.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The siege of the citie of Hierusalem is signified. 9 The long continuance of the captiuitie of Israel. 16 A watcher is prophecied to come in the captiuitie.

THou sonne of man, take thee a tile stone, & lay it before thee, & purtray vpon it the citie of Hierusalem,

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it: set the campe also against it, and lay engines of warre against it rounde about.

3 Moreouer, take an iron panne, and set it betwixt thee and the citie for an iron wall, then set thy face towarde it to besiege it, and make an assault against it: this shalbe a toke vnto þ house of Israel.

4 But thou shalt sleepe vpon thy left side, and lay the sinne [a] of the house of Israel vpon it: according to the number of the dayes that thou shalt sleepe vpon it, thou shalt beare their iniquitie.

5 For I haue layed vpon thee the yeeres of their iniquitie, according to the number of the dayes, euen three hundred and ninetie ‡ daies, so shalt thou beare the iniquitie of the house of Israel.

6 When thou hast fulfilled these dayes, lie downe againe, and sleepe vpon thy [b] right side, * and beare the sinnes of the house of Iuda: fourty dayes haue I appointed thee, [c] a day for a yeere, euen a day for a yeere.

7 Therefore set now thy face towarde the siege of Hierusalem, and discouer thine arme, that thou mayest prophecie against it.

8 Beholde, I will lay ‖ chaines vpon thee, that thou shalt not turne thee from one side to an other, till thou hast ended the dayes of thy besieging.

9 Wherefore take vnto thee wheate, barley, beanes, lentils, millot, and fitches, & put these together in a vessel, and make thee loaues of bread thereof, according to the number of the dayes ‖ that thou must lie vpon thy side, that thou mayest haue breade to eate for three hundred and ninetie dayes.

10 And thy meate that thou eatest shalbe by weight, namely, twentie sicles euery day: and from time to time shalt thou eate thereof.

11 Thou shalt drinke also water by measure, namely, the sixth part of a Hinne: from time to time shalt thou drinke.

12 Barley cakes shalt thou eate, and them shalt thou bake in [d] mans dung before their eyes.

13 And with that saide the Lorde, Euen thus shall the children of of Israel eate their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I wil cast them.

14 Then saide I, Oh Lorde God, beholde, my soule was yet neuer stained, for from my youth vp vnto this houre, I did neuer eate of a dead carkeise, or of þ which was slaine of wilde beastes, neither came there euer any vncleane fleshin my mouth.

15 Whereunto he answered me, Loe, I will grant thee [e] cowcasins in stead of mans dung, and thou shalt make thy breade vp them.

16 And he saide vnto mee, * Behold I will breake the [f] staffe of bread in Hierusalem, and they shall eate their breade with weight and with care, and their water in measure and astonishment shal they drinke, 17 That they hauing a lacke of bread and water, may be astonied one at another, and be consumed in their iniquitie.

The v. Chapter.

1 The signe of the heares, by which is signified the destruction of the people. 6 The causes of the anger of God toward the people.

1 AND thou sonne of man, take thee the a harpe knife, namely, a barbers rasser, take that to thee, and cause it to [a] passe vpon thy heade and vpon thy heard: then take thee weight scales and deuide the heare.

2 Thou shalt burne with fire the thirde part in the midst of the [b] citie, when the dayes of the siege are fulfilled, and thou shalt take the other third part, and smite about it with a knife, and the last third part thou shalt scatter in the winde, and I will drawe out a sworde after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a fewe in number, and binde them in thy lap.

4 Of them yet shalt thou take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burne them in the fire: thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde God, This same is Hierusalem, which I set in the middest of nations and countries round about her.

6 But she hath changed my iudgements into wickednesse more then the nations, & my statutes more then the countries þ are round about her: for they haue refused my iudgements and my statutes, and haue not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God, For your [c] multiplying more then the Gentiles that dwell round about you, & because yee haue not walked in my lawes, neither haue ye kept my ordinances, no, yee haue not done according to þ iudgements of the nations that are rounde about you:

8 Therefore thus saieth the Lord God, Behold, I will also come against thee, I my self, I say: for in the midst of thee will I execute iudgement in the sight of the heathen.

9 And I wil doe in thee as I neuer did before, and as I will neuer doe the like from that time forth, and that because of all thine abominations.

10 For in the middest of thee the fathers shall eate their owne sonnes, and the sonnes shall eate their owne fathers, and I will execute iudgement in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the windes.

11 Wherefore, as truely as I liue, saieth þ Lord God, Surely seeing thou hast defiled my sanctuarie with all maner of abominations, and with al shamefull offences:

12 For this cause will I also destroy thee, mine eye shall not spare thee, neither wil I haue any pitie.

1 AND the wꝛode of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, [a] set thy face to the mountaines of Israel, and pꝛophecie against them,

3 And say, Heare the wꝛode of the Lorde God. O ye mountaines of Israel, Thus hath the Lord God spoken to the [a] mountaines, hilles, riuers, and dales, Behold, euen I will bring a swoꝛd vpon you, and I will destroy your high places.

4 Your altars shal be destroyed, and your images of the sunne shall bee broken downe, your slayne men will I cast downe before your idoles.

5 And the dead carkeises of the children of Israel will I ‖ cast before their idoles, your bones will I scatter round about your altars.

7 The slaine shall fall among you: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lord.

8 Yet will I leaue a remnant, that you may haue some that shal escape the swoꝛd among the nations, when ye shalbe scattered thꝛowe the countries.

9 And they that escape of you, shal thinke vpon me among the heathen where they shal be in captiuitie, because I haue bene ‖ broken: foꝛ their whoꝛish heart which hath departed from mée, & foꝛ their eyes that haue gone a whoring after their idoles: and ‖ they shall be abhoꝛred before their owne eyes foꝛ the euils which they haue committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall knowe that I am the Lord, and that I haue not said in vayne, that I would do this euill vnto them.

11 Thus saith the Lord God, ‖ Smite thine handes together, and stampe with thy foote, and say, Wo woꝛth all the abominations and wickednesses of the house of Israel: foꝛ they shall fall with the swoꝛde, with hunger, and with pestilence.

12 Whoso is farre off, shall die of the pestilence, he that is nigh at hand, shall perish with the swoꝛd, and the remnant that are besieged, shal die of hunger: thus will I satisfie my wꝛathfull displeasure vpon them.

13 And so shall yee knowe that I am the Lorde, when their slaine men shall bée among their idols round about their altars, vpon euery high hill and tops of mountaines, and vnder euery greene tree, and vnder euery thicke oke, euen in the places where they did offer swéete sauour to all their idols.

14 I will stretch mine hand out vpō them, and will make the land waste and desolate, [c] from the wilderneſſe vnto Diblath, thꝛoꝛowe all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

10 Behold the day, behold it is come, the morning is gone forth, the rod c flourisheth, pride hath budded.

c Meaning Nabuchodonosor, whom God had appointed to be a rod to scourge them.

11 Cruelty is waxen to a rod of wickednesse, none of them shall remaine, none of their riches, ‖ nor one of their seede, and no lamentation shalbe made for them.

‖ Or, none of their pleasures.

12 The time commeth, the day draweth nigh: who so byeth, let him not reioyce, he that selleth, let him not bee sory: for wyth ‖ wrath is vpon all the multitude thereof.

13 So that the seller shall not come againe to the thing that hee sold, although their life bée d yet with the liuing: for when the prophecie was preached vnto all the people, none returned, no man shall e strengthen himselfe in the iniquitie of his life.

d That is, in the yeere of Iubilee, when euery man returned to such possessions as he sold before, Leuit. 25.

e Iniquitie shall make no man strong against God.

14 f They haue blowen the trumpet, and made all readie, but none goeth to the battell: for my wrath is vpon the whole multitude.

f The Israelites made a brag, but their hearts failed them.

15 The sword shall be without, pestilence and hunger within: so that who so is in the field shall bee slaine with the sworde, and he that is in the citie shall be deuoured with hunger and pestilence.

16 But they that flée away from them, shall escape, and shall bee in the mountaines like the doues of the valleys, all they shall mourne, euery one for his iniquitie.

17 All hands shalbe let downe, and all knees shall be weake as the water.

Esai. 15. 3. Ier. 48. 37.

18 * They shal gird themselues with sackcloth, feare shall couer them, shame shall be vpon all faces, and baldnesse vpon their heads.

19 Their siluer shall they cast foorth in the streetes, * and their gold shal be despised: yea, their siluer & golde shall not be able to deliuer them in the day of the wrath of the Lorde, they shall not satisfie their soules, neither fill their ‖ bellies therewith, because it ‖ was a stumbling blocke of their iniquitie.

Pro. 11. 4. eccl. 5. 13. Soph. 1. 18.

‖ Or, bowels.

g Their gold & siluer brought thē to this ruine or destructiō.

‖ Or, this ruine is for their iniquitie.

20 Yée had also set the beautie of his h ornament in maiestie: but they made images of their abominations and ‖ filthinesse in it, therefore haue I set it farre from them.

h Meaning, the sanctuarie.

21 Moreouer, I will giue it into the hands of strangers to be spoyled, and to ‖ wicked of the earth for to bee robbed, and they shall pollute it.

‖ Or, idol.

22 My face will I turne from them, my secret place shalbe defiled: for ‖ burglers shall go into it, and pollute it.

‖ Or, destroyers.

23 Make a chaine: for the land is full of the i iudgement of blood, and the citie is full of extortion.

i That is, of sinnes that deserue death.

24 Wherefore I will bring the most wicked of the heathen to take their houses in possession, I will make the pompe of the mightie to cease, and their k sanctuaries shall be defiled.

k That is, their temple which was diuided into three parts, Ier. 6. 1.

25 When destruction is come, they shall seeke peace, but they shall haue none.

26 One mischiefe shall followe another, and one rumour shall come after another: then shall they seeke a vision in vayne at their prophet, the lawe shall perish from the priest, and counsell from the ancients.

27 The king shall mourne, the prince shall bee clothed with desolation, and the handes of the people in the land shall bee troubled: I will doe vnto them after their owne wayes, according to their owne iudgements will I iudge them: and they shall knowe that I am the Lord.

The viii. Chapter.

1 An appearance of the similitude of God. 3 Ezechiel is brought to Hierusalem in the spirite. 6 The Lorde sheweth the idolatries of the house of Israel, and chiefly of the priests.

1 AND it was in the a first yeere, in the first moneth, in the fifth day of the moneth, I sate in my house, and the elders of Iuda sate before mee, and the hand of the Lorde GOD fell there vpon mée.

a Of the captiuitie of Ieconias, so that there was foure yeeres betwixt the first vision & this.

2 Then I beheld, and loe, there was a likenesse as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loynes downeward, fire: and from his loynes vpward as the appearance of brightnesse, like the colour of Amber.

3 * And hee stretched out the likenesse of an hande, and tooke mee by an heare locke of my head, and the spirite lift mée vp betwixt earth and heauen, and b brought mée in a diuine vision to Hierusalem, into the entrie of the inner c gate that lieth toward the North, where remained the ‖ image of d emulation and of gaine.

Dan. 13. 35.

b This was in the spirit, and not in the body.

c The porch or court where the people assembled.

‖ Or, idol.

4 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was in the same place, euen as I had seene it afore in the field.

5 And hée sayde vnto mée, Thou sonne of man, lift vp thine eyes nowe towarde the North: then lift I vp mine eyes towarde the North, and beholde, Northwarde at the gate of the e altar this ‖ image of emulation was in the entrie.

d Of emulation, because it displeased God: of gaine, because it was set vp and worshipped for gaine & increase of their offrings, for the priests: and of their cattell & substance, for the people.

e That was in the court where the people had made an altar to Baal.

‖ Or, idol.

6 And hée sayde furthermore vnto mée, Thou sonne of man, seest thou not what these doe? namely the great abominations that the house of Israel commit in this place, to driue mée from my sanctuarie? But turne thee about, and thou shalt sée yet greater abominations.

7 And with that brought hée mée to the court gate, and when I looked, beholde, there was a hole in the wall.

8 Then sayd he vnto mée, Thou sonne of man, man, digge nowe in the wall: and when I digged in the wall, beholde, there was a doze.

9 And he sayd vnto mee, Goe thy way in, and looke what wicked abominations they doe here.

10 So I went in and sawe, and beholde, there were all maner of creeping things, f and abominable beastes, and all the idoles of the house of Israel painted vpon the wall rounde about.

11 There stoode also before the images threescore and tenne men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the middest of them stoode Iaazaniah the sonne of Saphan, with euery man his censor in his hand, and the smoke of the incense ascended as a cloude.

12 Then said he vnto mee, Thou sonne of man, hast thou seene what the ancients of the house of Israel doe ‖secretly, euery one in the g chamber of his imagerie? for they say, The Lord seeth vs not, the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

13 And he said vnto me, Turne thee yet againe, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they doe.

14 And with that hee brought me to the doze of the gate of the Lordes house toward the North, and beholde, there sate women mourning for h Thammuz.

15 Then saide he vnto me, Hast thou seene this, thou sonne of man? Turne thee yet about, and thou shalt see greater abominations then these are.

16 And so he brought me into the inward court of the Lordes house, and beholde, at the dooze of the Lordes house, betwixt the porche & the altar, there were about twentie and fiue men that turned their backes vpon the temple of the Lorde, and their faces towarde the Easte, and these worshipped the Sunne Eastward.

17 And he sayde vnto me, Hast thou seene this thou sonne of man? Thinketh the house of Iuda that it is but a trifle to do these abominations which they do here? for they haue filled the lande full of wickednesse, and haue returned to prouoke me to anger, and loe, i they are putting the ‖branches to their noses.

18 Therefore will I also doe something in my wrathfull displeasure, so that mine eye shall not spare them, neither will I haue pitie: yea, and though they cry in mine eares with a loude voyce, yet will I not heare them.

f Which were forbidden in the lawe, Leuit. 11.

‖Or, in the darke.

g For beside their common idolatrie, they had their particular seruice in their secret places or pewes.

h The Iewes say, this was a prophet of the idols, who after his death was once a yere mourned for in the night, onely of women. S. Hierome taketh it for Adonis, Venus louer. Other thinke it was Osyris an idol of the Egyptians.

i They smelled to their branches, flowers, or posies, in doing their sacrifice to the sunne, which yet before God was vile & stinking, how sweet soeuer they seemed to themselues.

‖Or, stinck.

The ix. Chapter.

1 The destruction of the citie. 4 They that shall be saued, are marked. 8 A complaint of the Prophet for the destruction of the people.

1 HE cried also with a loude voice in mine eares, saying, Drawe neere ye a visitations of the citie, euery man with a destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And behold, there came there b fiue men out of the streete of the vpper gate toward the North, & euery man a slaughter weapon in his hand: There was one amongst them that had on him linnen raiment, and a writers c inckehorne by his side: these went in, and stoode beside the brasen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone from the Cherub whereupon it was, to the doze of the house: and he called to the man that had the linnen raiment vpon him, and the writers inckehorne by his side.

4 And the Lord sayd vnto him, Goe thorowe the midst of the citie, euen thorowe the midst of Hierusalē, d and set a marke vpon the foreheads of them ‖ mourne and ‖ are sory for all the abominations that be done therein.

5 And to the other he saide, that I might heare, Go ye after him thorowe the citie, and smite, let your eyes spare none, neither haue ye any pitie:

6 Kill and destroy both olde men and yong, maidens, childre, and women: but as for all those that haue the marke vpon them, see that ye touch them not, and begin at my sanctuarie. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said vnto them, Defile ye the temple, fill the courts with the slaine, then goe your way forth. So they went out, and slewe downe thorow the citie.

8 Now when they had done the slaughter, and I yet escaped, I fell downe vpon my face, and cried, saying, Ah Lord God, wilt thou then destroy all the residue of Israel, in powring out thy wrath vpon Hierusalem?

9 Then said he vnto mee, The wickednes of the house of Israel and Iuda is exceeding great, so that the lande is full of blood, and the citie full of rebelling from God: for they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord seeth it not.

10 As touching me also, mine eie shal not spare them, neither will I haue pitie: but will recompense their wayes vpon their heads.

11 And beholde, the man that had the linnen raiment vpon him, and the writers inckehorne by his side, reported the matter, and sayde, As thou hast commanded me, so haue I done.

c To marke them that should be saued from destruction.

The x Chapter.

Of the man that tooke hote burning coales out of the middle of the wheeles of the Cherubims.

1 AND as I looked, beholde, in the firmament that was aboue the head of the a Cherubims, as it were a Saphire stone made like the similitude of a throne, was seene ouer them.

2 Then spake hee to him that had the linnen raiment vpon him, and said, ‖Creepe in betweene the wheeles that are vnder the Cherub, and take thine handfull of hote coales out from betweene the Cherubims, and scatter them ouer the citie. And hee crept in, that I might see.

a Which in the first chap. and fifth verse he called the foure beasts.

‖Or, goe.

‖Or, went in.

3 (Now the Cherubims stoode vpon the right side of the house when the man went in,) the cloud filled the inner court.
4 And the glory of the Lorde remoued frō the Cherubims, & came vpon the doore of the house: so that the temple was filled with a cloud, and the court was full of the shine of the Lordes glorie.
5 Yea, and the sound of the Cherubims wings was heard into the forecourt, like as it had bene the voyce of the almightie God when he speaketh.
6 Now when he had bidden the man that was clothed in linnen, saying, Take fire from the middest of the wheeles, & from the midst of the Cherubims, hee went & stoode beside the wheeles.
7 Then one Cherub reached foorth his hande from betweene the Cherubims, vnto the fire that was betweene þ Cherubims, and tooke thereof, and gaue it into the handes of him that had on the linnen rayment: which tooke it, and went out.
8 And vnder the winges of the Cherubims there appeared the likenesse of a mans hand.
9 I looked also, and behold, foure wheeles beside the Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, & another by another Cherub, and the wheeles were to looke vpon after the fashion of the precious stone Tharsis.
10 As touching their appearance (they were all foure of one fashion) as if one wheele had bene in another.
11 When they went forth, they went vpon their foure sides, not turning backe in their going: for which way the head of the first looked, after it they went, so that they turned not backe in their going.
Exech.1.8. 12 *And their whole bodies, their backes, their hands, and wings, yea, and the wheeles also, were full of eyes rounde about the foure wheeles.
13 And to the wheeles, he cryed to them in my hearing, O wheele.
14 Euery one of them had foure faces, so that the face of the first was the face of a Cherub, and the face of the second the face of a man, and of the thirde the face of a Lion, and of the fourth the face of an Egle.
15 And the Cherubims were lifted vp: this is the beast that I sawe at the water of Chebar.
16 Nowe when the Cherubims went, the wheeles went by them: and when the Cherubims lift vp their winges to mount vp from the earth, the same wheeles also turned not from besides them.
17 Shortly when they stoode, these stoode also, and when they were lifted vp, the wheeles lift vp themselues also with them: for the b spirite of the beast was in the wheeles.
18 Then the glory of the Lorde departed from aboue the doore of the temple, and remained vpon the Cherubims.
19 And the Cherubims flickered with their wings, and lift themselues vp from the earth in my sight: when they went, the wheeles were besides them, and they stoode at the doore of the East gate of the house of the Lorde: so the glory of the God of Israel was vpon them on high.
20 *This is the c beast that I sawe vnder the God of Israel by the riuer Chebar, and I perceiued that it was the Cherubims. Ezech.1.14. c That is, the whole body of the foure beasts or Cherubims, 21 Euery one had foure faces, and euery one foure wings, and vnder their wings the likenesse of mens hands.
22 The similitude of their countenances, were the very same countenances which I sawe at the riuer Chebar, and the selfe same appearances, euery one in his going went straight forward.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Who they were that seduced the people of Israel. 5 Against these he prophecieth, shewing them howe they shalbe dispersed abroad.

1 MOreouer, the spirit lift me vp, and bronght me vnto the East gate of the Lords house, which lieth Eastward: and beholde, at the entrie of the gate were fiue and twentie men, among whome I sawe Iaazaniah the sonne of Azur, and Pheltiah the sonne of Banaiah, the rulers of the people.
2 Then saide he vnto mee. Thou sonne of man, these men imagine mischiefe, and a wicked counsell take they in this citie,
3 Saying, It is not neere, let vs builde houses: this Hierusalem is the a caldron, and we be the flesh. a We shall not be pulled out of Hierusalem, till the houre of our death come, as the flesh is not taken out of the caldron till it be sodde.
4 Therefore thalt thou prophecie against them: yea, prophecie, O sonne of man.
Ezech.1.8. 5 And with that fell the spirit of the Lord vpon me, and saide vnto mee, Speake, Thus saieth the Lorde, On this maner haue ye spoken (O yee house of Israel) and I know the imaginations of your hearts.
6 Many one haue yee murdered in this citie, and filled the streetes full of the slame:
7 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God, The slaine men that ye haue laid in the midst of the citie are the b flesh, and this citie is the caldron: but I will bring you out of it. b Contrarie to their vaine confidence he sheweth in what sense this citie was the caldron, that is, because of the dead bodies, that haue bene murdered therein, and so lie as the flesh in the caldron.
8 Ye haue feared the swoorde, and I will bring a swoord ouer you, saith the Lorde God.
9 And I will bring you out of the middest thereof, and deliuer you into the handes of strangers, and will execute iudgements among you.
10 Ye shall fall by the swoorde, in the borders of Israel will I iudge you, and yee shall know that I am the Lorde.
11 This citie shall not bee your caldron, neither shall yee bee the flesh in the midst thereof: but in the borders of Israel will I punish you, c That is, in Riblath, 2. Kin. 23. ‖Or, iudge.

b There was one consent betweene the Cherubims and the wheeles.

12 That yee may knowe that I am the Lord, in whose commaūdements ye haue not walked, nor kept my lawes, but haue done after the customes of the heathen that lie round about you.

d It seemed this noble man died of some terrible death, & therefore the Prophet feared some strange iudgement of God toward the rest of the people.

13 Nowe when I prophecied, d Pheltiah the sonne of Banaiahu died: then fell I downe vpon my face, and cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Ah Lord God, wilt thou then vtterly destroy al the remnant in Israel?

14 And so the woyde of the Lord came vnto me on this maner, 15 Thou sonne of man, thy brethren, euen thy brethren the men of thy kinred, and all the house of Israel, wholy are they vnto whom the inhabitants of Hierusalem haue said, e Withdrawe ye farre from the Lord, for the land is giuen vs in possession.

e They that remained still at Hierusalem, thus reproched them that were gone into captiuitie, as though they were cast off, and forsaken of God.

16 Therefore tell them thus saieth the Lord God, Although I send them farre off among the Gentiles, and scatter them among the nations, yet will I be to them as a litle f sanctuarie in the lands where they shall come.

f They shall be yet a litle Church, whom he will preserue, though they be dispersed, and for a time afflicted. *Ier.*32.39. *Ezech.*36.27.

17 Tell them also, Thus saieth the Lord God, I wil gather you againe out of the nations, and bring you from the countreys where ye be scattered, and I will giue you the land of Israel againe.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all their idoles, and all their abominations from thence.

19 * And I will giue them one heart, and I will put a newe spirite within their bowels: that stonie heart will I take out of their body, and giue them a fleshly heart, 20 That they may walke in my commandements, and kepe mine ordinances, and do them, that they may be my people, and I their God.

21 But to the heart of their idols & their abominations their heart goeth, their wayes will I bring vpon their owne heades, saith the Lord God.

22 After this did the Cherubims lift vp their wings, and the wheeles beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was vpon them on high.

23 So the glory of the Lord went vp from the midst of the citie, and stod vpon the mount of the citie toward the East.

24 And the spirite toke me vp, & brought mée againe to Chaldea to the captiuitie in a vision by the spirite of God: then the vision that I had seene went vp from me.

g Those that were led away captiues with Iechonias.

25 So I spake vnto the g captiues all the woyds of the Lord which he had shewed mée.

The xii. Chapter.

1 The parable of the captiuitie. 10 The exposition of the parable, by which the taking of king Zedecias is signified.

1 THe woyd of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which haue eyes to see, and yet see not, eares haue they to heare, and yet heare they not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore (O thou sonne of man) ‡ prepare thee instruments to flit with, and remoue on the day time that they may see, yea euen in their sight shalt thou goe from thy place to another place, if peradventure they will consider that they be a rebellious house.

‡ Make thee vessels to goe into captiuitie.

4 Thou shalt bring foorth thine instruments as stuffe to flit with by the day time in their sight, & thou thy selfe shalt go forth also at euening before their eies, as they that go forth to flit.

5 Digge thorow the wall in their sight, and carie out therethy.

6 In their sight shalt thou beare vpon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the darke: hide thy face, that thou see not the earth, for I haue made thee a * shewe token vnto the house of Israel.

a That as thou doest, so shall they doe, and therefore in thes they shall see their owne plague and punishment.

7 And I did so as I was commanded, I brought forth my stuffe by day, as the stuffe of one that goeth into captiuitie: and in the euening I digged thorow the wall with my handes, and brought it forth in the darke, and bare it vpon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the woyde of the Lord vnto me, saying,

9 Thou sonne of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said vnto thee, b What doest thou?

b Doe not they deride & mocke thy doings?

10 Then tell them, Thus saieth the Lord God, This ‖ burden toucheth the prince at Hierusalem, and all the house of Israel that dwell among them.

‖ Or, prophecie.

11 Tell them, I am your shewe token, like as I haue done, so shall it be done vnto them, they shall goe into bondage and captiuitie.

12 The prince that is among them shall loade his shoulders in the darke, and get him away, they shall breake downe the wall, to carrie thorowe by it: he shall couer his face, that he see not the grounde with his eyes.

13 My net will I ‡ spreade out vpon him, and he shalbe caught in my ‡ net, and I will bring him to Babylon in the lande of the Chaldees, which he shall not see, and yet shall he die there.

c When the king shal thinke to escape by fleeing, I will take him in my net, as Ezec.17. and 32.

‡ Toolat.

14 As for all his helpers and all his bands that be about him, I will scatter them toward all the windes, and drawe out a swoorde after them.

15 So when I haue scattered them among the heathē, & strawed them in the lands, they shall know that I am the Lord.

16 But I will leaue a litle nūmber of them from the swoorde, hunger, and pestilence, to tell all their abominations among the heathen where they come, that they may knowe that I am the Lord.

17 Moreouer, the woyde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, with a fearefull trembling eate thy bread, with vnquietnesse and sorow drinke thy water.

19 And vnto the people of the land speake thou, Thus saieth the Lorde God vpon them that dwell in Hierusalem, and vpon the lande of Israel, They shall eate their breade with sorowe, and drinke their water with desolation, yea, the lande after plentifulnesse shall bee layde waste, for the wickednesse of all them that dwel therein.

20 And the cities that nowe be well inhabited, shall be voyde, and the lande desolate, that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

21 Yet came the worde of the Lorde vnto me againe, saying,

22 Thou sonne of man, what maner of prouerbe is that which ye vse in the land of Israel, saying, d The dayes are slacke in comming, and all visions faile?

d Because they did not see the prophecies accomplished, they contemned the as though they neuer should be fulfilled.

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saieth the Lord God, I will make that prouerbe to cease, and they shall no more vse it as a prouerbe in Israel: but say vnto them, The dayes are at hand, and the effect of euery vision.

24 There shall no vision bee any more in vaine, neither any flattering diuination within the house of Israel:

25 For I the Lorde speake it, and whatsoeuer I shal speake, it shalbe performed, and not be slacke in comming any more, yea, euen in your dayes, O rebellious house, will I speake the thing, and bring it to passe, saieth the Lord God.

26 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

27 Beholde, thou sonne of man, the house of Israel saieth on this maner, The vision that he seeth, it will be many a day or it come to passe: it is farre off yet the time that he prophecieth of.

28 Therefore say vnto them, Thus saieth the Lorde God, All my wordes shall no more bee delayed, loke what I speake, that same shall come to passe, saieth the Lord God.

The xiii. Chapter.

The worde of the Lorde against false prophets, which teach the people the counsels of their owne hearts.

Exec. 14. 9.

1 THe * worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, prophecie against those prophets of Israel, which prophecie, and say vnto them that prophecie out of their owne hearts, Heare the worde of the Lord,

3 Thus saith the Lord God, Wo be vnto those foolish prophets that followe their owne spirit, and haue seene nothing.

4 O Israel, the prophets are like † Foxes in a desert places.

a Watching to destroy the vineyardes, reade Cant. 2.

5 For ye haue not stande vp in the gaps, nor made a hedge for the house of Israel, to stande in the battaile in the day of the Lorde.

6 They haue seene vanitie and lying diuination, saying, The Lord saieth it: and the Lorde hath not sent them, and they haue made men hope that they would confirme the word.

7 Haue ye not seene vaine visions, and spoken false prophecies, when ye say, The Lord hath spoken it, whereas I neuer said it?

8 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God, Because ye haue spoken vanitie, & haue seene lies: therefore behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God:

9 Mine hand shall be vpon the prophets that see vanities, & diuine lies: they shall not be in the counsell of my people, nor written in the booke of the house of Israel, neither shall they come in the land of Israel, that ye may know how that I am the Lord God:

10 And that for because they haue deceiued my people, & tolde them of peace, where no peace was: one setteth vp a b wall, and they daube it with vntempered clay.

b What one false prophet did say (which is here called the building vp of a wall) another false prophet would affirme the same, though he had neither occasion nor good ground to beare him.

11 Therefore tell them which daube with vntempered morter, that it shall fall: for there shall come a great showre of raine, I will send haile stones to cause it to fall, and a great stormie of wind shall breake it.

12 Ar lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be sayd vnto you, Where is now your ‖ morter that ye daubed withall?

‖ Or, dawbing.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, I will cause a stormie winde to breake out in my wrathfull displeasure, so that in mine anger there shall come a mightie showre of raine, and haile stones in my wrath to destroy it.

c That is, whatsoeuer man of himself setteth forth, vnder the authoritie of Gods word, and God alloweth it not.

14 As for the wall that yee haue daubed with vntempered morter, I will breake it downe, & make it euen with the ground, so that the foundation thereof shalbe discouered, and it shall fal: yea, and ye your selues shall perish in the midst thereof, and ye shal know that I am the Lord.

‖ Or, is no more.

15 Thus will I performe my wrath vpon this wall, and vpon them that haue daubed it with vntempered morter, and then will I say vnto you, The wall is ‖ gone, and the daubers of it:

16 To wit the prophets of Israel, which prophecie vpon Hierusalem, and loke out visions of peace for it, whereas no peace is, saith the Lord God.

17 Wherefore, O thou sonne of man, set thy face against d daughters of thy people, which prophecie out of their own harts, and prophecie against them:

d These superstitious women for lucre would prophecie, tell euery man his fortune, giuing them pillowes to leane on and kerchiefes to couer their heads, that they might the more allure them & bewitch them.

18 And say, Thus saieth the Lorde God, Woe be vnto them that sowe d pillowes vnder all arme holes, and put kerchiefes vpon the heads of euery stature, to hunt soules. Will yee hunt the soules of my people, and giue life to the soules that come vnto you?

e These forcerers made the people beleeue that they could preserue life or destroy it, and that it should come to euery one according as they prophecied.

19 And will ye pollute mee to my people for handfulles of barley, and for pieces of bread, to kill the soules of them that die not, and promise e life to them that liue not, in lying to my people that heareth your lies?

f Making them flocke vnto you with deceiuable doctrine, as the fowlers doe the birdes with their stales and calles.

20 Wherefore, thus saith the Lorde God, Behold, I will vpon your pillowes wherewith ye hunt the soules to f make them flie, & I will teare them from your armes, armes, and will let the soules goe, euen the soules that ye hunt to make the flie.

21 Your kerchiefes also will I teare in pieces, & deliuer my people out of your handes, so that they shall come no more in your handes to bee hunted: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lord.
22 Seeing that with your lyes ye discõsite the heart of the righteous, whome I haue not discomfited: againe, for so much as ye encourage the hand of the wicked, so that he may not turne from his wicked way, in promising him life:
23 Therefore shall ye see no more vanitie, neither shall ye diuine diuinations, for I will deliuer my people out of your hand, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lord.

The xiiii. Chapter.

The Lorde denieth his worde to the people for their sinnes sake.

1 THere resorted vnto me certaine of the elders of Israel, and sate downe by mee.
2 Then came the word of the Lorde vnto me, saying,
3 Thou sonne of man, these men haue set vp their idols in their hearres, and put the stumbling blocke of iniquitie before their face: should I then answere them at their request?
4 Therefore speake vnto them, and say vnto them, Thus saieth the Lorde God, Euery man of the house of Israel that setteth vp his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquitie before his face, & commeth to the prophet: vnto that man will I the Lord my selfe giue answere when hee cometh, according to the *multitude of his idols:
5 That the house of Israel may be snared in their ᵇ owne heartes, because they be cleane gone frõ me all of them through their idols:
6 Wherefore tell the house of Israel, Thus saieth the Lorde God, Returne, and cause ᶜ to returne from your idoles, and turne your faces from all your abominations:
7 For euery man, whether he bee of the house of Israel, or a strãger that sojourneth in Israel, which departeth frõ me, and setteth vp his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling block of his wickednes before his face, and commeth to a Prophet for to aske counsell of mee through him: vnto that man will I the Lorde giue answere by mine owne selfe:
8 I will set my face against that man, & will make him to bee an example for other, yea, and a common byworde, and will roote him out of my people, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lord.
9 And if that Prophet bee deceiued when he telleth a thing, then I * the Lorde my selfe haue deceiued that Prophet, and will stretch out my hande vpon him, to destroy him out of my people of Israel.
10 And they shall bee punished for their wickednesse, according to þ sinne of him that asketh, shall þ sinne of þ prophet be:
11 That the house of Israel may wander no more from me, neither bee any more defiled in all their transgressiõs: but that they may be my people, & I their God, saith the Lord God.
12 And the word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,
13 Thou sonne of man, when the land sinneth against mee by committing a trespasse, I will stretch out my hand vpon it, * and breake their staffe of bread, and send dearth vpon them, to destroy man and beast forth of it. Exec.4.16. and 5.17.
14 And though Noe, Daniel, and Iob, these three men were among them: yet shall they in their righteousnesse deliuer but their owne soules, saieth the Lorde God.
15 If I bring noysome beastes into the lande, and they spoyle it, and it be so desolate that no man may passe thorowe it for beastes, 16 If these three men were also in the middest thereof, as truely as I liue, saith the Lord God, they shall saue neither sonnes nor daughters, but be onely deliuered themselues: and as for the lande, it shalbe waste.
17 Or, if I bring a sworde vpon the land, & say, Sworde goe thorowe this lande, so that I slay downe man and beast in it, 18 And if these three men were ‖therein: as truely as I liue, saieth the Lorde God, they shall deliuer neither sonnes nor daughters, but onely bee ‖ saued themselues. ‖Or, in the middest thereof. ‖Or, deliuered.
19 If I sende a pestilence into this lande, and powre out my sore indignation vpõ it in bloode, so that I roote out of it both man and beast, 20 And if Noe, Daniel, and Iob were ‖therein: as truely as I liue, saieth the Lorde God, they shall deliuer neither sonne nor daughter, but ‖ saue their owne soules in their righteousnesse. ‖Or, in the middest of it. ‖Or, deliuer.
21 Moreouer, thus saieth the Lord God, Howe much more when I sende my foure ‖troublous plagues vpon Hierusalem, þ sworde, hunger, perilous beasts, and pestilence, to destroy man and beast out of it? ‖Or, foure sore iudgements.
22 Behold, there shall be a remnant saued therein, which shall bring forth their sonnes and daughters: behold, they shal come forth vnto you, and ye shal see their way, and their enterprise, and yee shalbe comforted concerning the euill that I haue brought vpon Hierusalem, euen concerning all that I haue brought vpõ it:
23 They shall comfort you when ye shall see their way and workes, and yee shall know how that it is not without cause that I haue done all against Hierusalem as I did, saith the Lord God.

The xv. Chapter.

As the vnprofitable wood of the vine tree is cast into the fire, so saith he that Hierusalem shalbe burnt.

I The

a As his abomination hath deserued, that is, he shall be led with lyes, according as he delighted therein.
b That is, conuaine them by their owne consciences.
c All such as by your example haue declined from God.

Exe.13.1.

1 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,
2 Thou sonne of man, what commeth of the vine tree more then of euery other tree, and of the wilde vine among other trees of the forest?
3 Doe men take wood of it to make any worke withall? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessell thereon?
4 Behold, it is cast in the fire to be burnt, the fire consumeth both the ends of it, the midst of it is burnt: is it mete then for any worke?
5 Seeing then that it was mete for no worke being whole, much lesse may there any thing be made of it, when the fire hath consumed and burnt it.
6 And therefore, thus saieth the Lorde God, As the vine tree that is among the trees of the forest, which I haue giuen to the fire to be consumed, so will I giue the inhabitantes of Hierusalem.
7 And I will set my face against them, they shall goe out from the fire, and yet the [a] fire shall consume them: then shall ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I set my face against them.
a Though they escape one danger, yet another shall take them.
8 And when I make the lande waste, because they haue so sore offended, saith the Lord God.

The xvi. Chapter.

1 The Prophet declareth the benefites of God toward Hierusalem. 60 Mercy is promised to the repentant.

1 Againe the woord of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,
2 Thou sonne of man, shewe Hierusalem their abominations, a Thou boastest to be of the seed of Abraham, but thou art degenerate & followest the abominations of the wicked Chanaanites, as children doe the maners of their fathers, Esai. 1. 57.
3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God vnto Hierusalem, Thy habitation and kinred is of the land of [a] Chanaan, thy father was an Amorite, thy mother an Hittite.
b When I first brought thee forth of the land of Egypt, and planted thee in this land to be my Church. ‖Or, to soften thee.
4 In the day of thy birth, [b] when thou wast borne, the string of thy nauell was not cut off, thou wast not bathed in water to ‖ make thee cleane, thou wast not salted with salt, nor swadled in cloutes.
5 No eye pitied thee to doe any of these things for thee, for to haue compassion vpon thee: but thou waste vtterly cast out vpon the fielde, in contempt of thy person in the day of thy birth.
6 Then came I by thee, and saw thee defiled in thine owne blood, and I said vnto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Liue, euen when thou wast in thy blood, I said vnto thee, Liue.
c These words, blood, pollution, nakednes, and filthinesse, &c. are oft times repeated, to beate downe their pride, and to cause them to consider what they were before God receiued them to mercie, fauoured them, and couered their shame.
7 I caused thee to multiplie as the bud of the field, thou art growen vp, & waxen great, thou hast gotten a maruelous pleasant beautie, thy breastes are fashioned, thy heare is goodly growen, where as thou wast naked and bare.
8 Nowe when I went by thee, and looked vpon thee, beholde, thy time was come, yea euen the time to woo thee: then spred I my clothes ouer thee to couer thy [c] dishonestie, yea, I made an othe vnto thee, and contracted my selfe vnto thee (saith the Lord God) and so thou becamest mine owne.
9 Then washed I thee with water, and purged thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oyle.
10 I clothed thee with broydred worke, and shodde thee with Badgers skinne, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and couered thee with silke.
11 I decked thee with costly apparell, I put bracelets vpon thy handes, a chaine about thy necke, 12 And I put a frontlet vpō thy face, and earerings vpon thine eares, and a beautifull crowne vpon thine head.
13 Thus wast thou deckt with gold & siluer, and thy raiment was of fine linnen, and of silke, and of broydred worke: thou diddest eate fine flowre, hony, and oyle, maruelous beautifull wast thou, and thou diddest luckily prosper into a kingdome.
14 And thy name was spread among the heathen for thy beautie: for it was perfect through my beautie which I put vpon thee, saith the Lord God.
15 But thou hast put thy confidence in thine owne beautie, and played the harlot, because of thy renowne, and hast [d] powred out thy fornications with euery one that went by, ‖ thou wast his.
d There was none idolatrie so vile, wherewith thou diddst not pollute thy selfe. ‖Or, that thou mightest be his.
16 Thou diddest take thy garments, and deckt thy high places with [e] diuers colours, and played the harlot thereupon, [f] ‡ they come not, and it shall not be.
e This declareth howe the idolaters put their chiefe delight in those things which please the eyes and outward senses.
f In such sort, as the like hath not bene, nor shall be, for that they passed all nations in idolatrie. ‡there neither shal be, nor hath bene any that hath done the like.
17 The goodly iewels which I gaue thee of mine owne golde and siluer, hast thou taken & made thee mens images thereof, and committed whoredome with them.
18 Thy broydred garmentes hast thou taken, and deckt them therewith: mine oyle and incense hast thou set before them.
19 My meate which I gaue thee, as fine flowre, oyle, & honie, to feede thee withal, that hast thou set before thē for a swete sauour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.
20 Thou hast taken thine owne sonnes and daughters whome thou hast begotten vnto me, and these hast thou offered vp vnto them to bee deuoured: is this but a small whoredome of thine?
21 And thou hast slayne my children, and deliuered them, to cause them to passe thorowe the fire for them.
g Meaning, by fire, reade Leui. 18. 21. Reg. 23.
22 And yet in all thine abominations & whoredomes, thou hast not remembred the dayes of thy youth, howe naked and bare thou wast at that time, & wast defiled in thine owne blood.
23 After all this thy wickednesse (woe, woe vnto thee, saith the Lord God,) 24 Thou hast built vnto thee an high place, and hast made thee an high place in euery streete.
25 Thou hast built thine high place at euery ‡ head of the way, thou hast made thy ‡ Corner of the streete.

thy beautie to be abhorred, thou hast opened thy feete to euerp one that came by, and multiplied thy whoredome.

26 Thou hast cõmitted fornication with the h Egyptians thy neighbours which were great in flesh, and thus hast thou increased thine whoredome to anger me.

27 Behold, I did stretch out mine hand ouer thee, and did minish thine ordinarie foode, and deliuered thee ouer into the willes of them that hate thee, euen to the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thine abominable wayes.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast insatiable: yea, thou hast I say with them played the harlot, and yet hadst thou not ynough.

29 Thus hast thou furthermore multiplied thy fornication from the lande of Chanaan vnto the Chaldees, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weake is thine heart, saieth the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these, euen the workes of a presumptuous whorish woman?

31 Building thy high places at the heade of euerie way, and makest thy high places in euerie streete: thou hast not bene as another whore that holdeth scorne of a reward:

32 But as a wife that breaketh wedlocke, and taketh other in stead of her husband.

33 Giftes are giuen to all other whores: but thou giuest rewards vnto all thy louers, and rewardest them to come vnto thee on euerp side for thy fornication.

34 It is come to passe with thee in thy whoredomes contrarie to the vse of other women, yea, there hath no such fornication bene committed after thee: seeing that thou giuest giftes vnto other, and no rewarde is giuen thee, therefore thou art contrarie.

35 Therefore heare the worde of the Lord, O thou harlot.

36 Thus saieth the Lorde God, Because thou hast i powred out thy brasse, and discouered thy filthines through thy fornications with thy louers, and with all the idoles of thine abommations, and in the blood of thy children whome thou hast giuen them:

37 Beholde therefore, I will gather together all thy k loners with whome thou hast taken pleasure, yea, & al them whom thou hast loued, and euerp one that thou hatest: I will I say gather them together round about against thee, and will discouer thy shame before thee, that they may see all thy filthinesse.

38 * Moreouer, l I will iudge thee as a breaker of wedlocke & a murtherer, and recompense thee thine owne blood in wrath and ielousie.

39 I will giue thee ouer into their hands, and they shal destroy thy high place, and breake downe thy high places, they shal strippe thee also out of thy clothes: thy faire iewels shall they take from thee, and so leaue thee naked and bare.

40 Yea, they shal bring a companie vpon thee, which shal stone thee with stones, & thrust thee through with their swords.

41 * They shall burne vp thy houses with fire, and punish thee in the sight of many women: thus will I make thee ceasse from playing the harlot, so that thou shalt giue out no more rewards. 4. King. 25.9.

42 So will I make my wrath towarde thee to rest, and my ielousie shall depart from thee, and I will ceasse, and be angry no more.

43 Seeing thou remembrest not the dayes of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things: behold therfore, I wil bring thine owne wayes vpon thy head, saieth the Lorde God, so that m thou shalt not commit any more mischiefe vpon all thine abominations.

44 Behold, all they that vse common prouerbs, shal vse this prouerbe also against thee, saying, Such a n mother, such a daughter.

45 Thou art euẽ thy mothers own daughter, that hath cast off her husband & her children: yea, thou art the sister of thy o sisters, which forsooke their husbands & their children, your mother is an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 Thine eldest sister is Samaria, she and her p daughters that dwell vpon thy left hand: but thy ponger sister that dwelleth on thy right hand is Sodoma and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their wayes, nor done after their abommations, as a litle & litle: but in all thy wayes thou hast bene more corrupt then they.

48 As truly as I liue, saith the Lord God, Sodoma thy sister, with her daughters, haue not done as thou hast done and thy daughters.

49 * Behold, the sinnes of thy sister Sodoma, were these, q Pride, fulnesse of meate, and abundance of idlenesse, these things had she and her daughters: besides that, they strengthened not the hand of the poore and needie. Gen. 19.24.

50 And they were hawtie, & committed abommination before mee, therefore I tooke them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath r Samaria done halfe of thy sinnes, yea, thou hast exceeded them in thine abommations, and hast s iustified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Therefore thou which didst condemne thy sister, beare thine owne shame, for thine owne offences that thou hast committed more abominable then they did, which in deede are more righteous then thou art, be thou I say ashamed, & beare thy shamefull rebuke, seeing that thou hast iustified thy sisters.

53 Therefore I will bring againe their captiuitie, the captiuitie of Sodom and her daughters, and the captiuitie of Samaria and her daughters, and the captiuitie of thy captiues among them,

54 That

h He noteth the great impietie of this people who first falling from God to seeke helpe at strange nations, did also at length embrace their idolatry, thinking thereby to make their amitie more sure, i That is, lauished out thy money vpon images to thy shame. Or, by reason of your mother, k Egyptians, Assyrians, & Chaldeans, whom thou tookest to be thy louers, shall come and destroy thee. Ezec. 23.10.

l I will iudge thee to death as the adulterers and murderers, m Of all the hainous offẽces, this shal be the last: or, God will punish thee, so that thou shalt neuer sinne more.

n As were the Chanaanites and the Hittites, and other your predecessours, so are you their successours.

o That is, of Samaria, & Sodom.

p That is, her cities.

q He alleageth these foure vices, pride, excesse, idlenesse, and contempt of the poore, as foure principall causes of such abomination, wherefore they were horribly punished.

r Which worshipped the Calues in Bethel and Dan, 1. King. 12.

s Thou art so wicked, that in respect of thee Sodome and Samaria were iust, 54 That thou maiſt take thine owne confuſion vpon thee, and be aſhamed of all that thou haſt done, in that thou haſt [t] comforted them.

t In that thou haſt ſhewed thy ſelfe worſe then they, and yet thoughteſt to eſcape puniſhment.

55 And thy ſiſter Sodom and her daughters ſhall returne to their former ſtate, Samaria alſo and her daughters ſhall returne to their former ſtate, [u] when thou and thy daughters ſhall returne to your former ſtate.

u That is, as if he had ſaid, neuer.

56 For thy ſiſter Sodom was not [x] heard of by thy report in the day of thy pride, x Thou wouldeſt not call her puniſhment to minde, when thou waſt aloft, to learne by her example to feare my iudgements.

57 Before thy wickednes was [y] diſcouered according to the time of the reproch of the daughters of Aram, and of all the daughters of [z] Philiſtines round about her, which deſpiſe thee on all ſides.

y That is, till thou waſt brought vnder by the Syrians & the Philiſtines.

58 Thou haſt borne thy wickedneſſe and thine abomination, ſaith the Lord.

z Reade the eight verſe,

59 For thus ſaith the Lord God, I might by right deale with thee as thou haſt done, which haſt deſpiſed the [a] othe in breaking the couenant:

60 Neuertheleſſe, I will remember my couenant with thee in the dayes of thy youth, and I will eſtablish vnto thee an euerlasting couenant:

61 Then ſhalt thou remember thy wayes, and be aſhamed, when thou ſhalt receiue thy ſiſters, both thy elder & thy ponger: & I will giue them vnto thee for daughters, but not by thy couenant.

62 And I will eſtabliſh my couenant with thee, that thou mayeſt know that I am the Lord.

63 That thou mayeſt thinke vpon it, and be [a] aſhamed, and neuer open thy mouth any more for ſhame of thy ſelfe, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou haſt done, ſaith the Lord God.

a This declareth the fruites of Gods mercie, to wit, ſorowe and repentance for their former life.

The xvii. Chapter.

The parable of the two Eagles.

1 THe word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of man, put forth a parable, and ſpeake a prouerbe vnto the houſe of Iſrael,

3 And ſay, Thus ſaith the Lorde God, There came a great [a] Eagle with great wings, yea with a mightie long bodie, & full of feathers of diuers colours, vpon the mount of Libanus, and toke the higheſt branch of a Cedar tree, a That is, Nabuchodonoſor, who hath great power, riches, and many countreyes vnder him ſhall come to Hieruſalem, and take away Iechonias the king, as verſe 12.

4 And brake off the top of his twigs, and caried it into the lande of [b] Marchants, and ſet it in a citie of Marchants.

b Meaning, to Babylon.

5 He toke alſo of the [c] ſeede of the lande, and planted it in a fruitfull ground, hee brought it vnto great waters, and ſet it in ‖ an open trench.

c That is Zedecias, who was of the kings blood, and was left at Hieruſalem, and made king in ſtead of Iechonias, 2. King. 24. here. 37. ‖ Or, as a willowe tree.

6 Then did it growe, and was a [d] ſpreading vine, but [e] lowe of ſtature, whoſe branches turned towarde ‖ it, and the roote of it were vnder it: Thus there came of it a vine, and it brought forth branches, and ſhot forth buds.

d This was Zedecias kingdome. e That it might not haue power to rebell againſt Babylon, as verſe 14.

7 But there was another [f] Eagle, a great one, which had great wings, and many feathers: and beholde, the roote of this vine turned towardes it, and ſpread out her branches towardes it, that ſhee might water it by the trenches of her plantation.

f Meaning, the king of Egypt of whom Zedecias ſought ſuccour againſt Nabuchodonoſor.

8 It was planted vpon a good ſoyle beſide great waters, ſo that it ſhould haue brought out branches, and bome fruite, and bene a goodly vine.

9 Speake thou therefore, thus ſaith the Lord God, Shall this vine proſper? ſhall he not pull vp the rootes thereof, and deſtroy the fruite thereof, and cauſe the to dry? all the leaues of her bud ſhall wither without great power, or many people to plucke it vp by the rootes therof.

g Nabuchodonoſor vnder. ſtood by the firſt Eagle.

10 Behold, it was planted: ſhall it proſper therefore? ſhall it not be dryed vp and withered? when the [h] Eaſt winde ſhall touch it, it ſhall wither in the trenches where it grew.

h That is, the Babyloniant,

11 Moreouer, the worde of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

12 Speake nowe to the rebellious houſe, Know ye not what theſe things doe ſignifie? Tell them, Beholde, the king of Babylon is come to Hieruſalem, and hath taken the king therof, and the princes thereof, and hath led them with him to Babylon.

13 He toke of the kings ſeede, and made a couenant with him, and toke an othe of him: the princes of the lande toke hee with him alſo,

14 That the kingdome might be in ſubiection, and not lift vp it ſelfe, but keepe the couenant, and ſtand to it.

15 But he rebelled againſt him, and ſent his Ambaſſadours into Egypt, that he might haue horſes and much people: Should he proſper? ſhall he eſcape that doeth ſuch things? or ſhall he breake the couenant and eſcape free?

16 As truly as I liue, ſaith the Lord God, he ſhal die at Babylon in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whoſe othe he hath deſpiſed, and whoſe couenant he hath broken.

17 Neither ſhall Pharao with his great hoſt and multitude of people maintaine him in the warre, when they haue caſt vp mounts, and built a fort to deſtroy many perſons.

18 For ſeeing hee hath deſpiſed the othe, and broken the couenat (whereas he yet gaue his [i] hand thereupon) and done all theſe things, he ſhall not eſcape.

i Becauſe he tooke the name of God in vaine, and brake his othe which he had confirmed by giuing his hand, therefore the prophet declareth that God will not ſuffer periurie and infidelitie to eſcape puniſhment.

19 Therefore thus ſaith the Lorde God, As truely as I liue, I will bring vnto me othe that he hath deſpiſed, and my couenant that hee hath broken, vpon his owne heade.

20 I will ſpread my net vpon him, and he ſhal be caught in my net: & I will bring him to Babylon, and enter into iudgement with him there, for the treſpaſſe which he hath committed againſt me.

21 As for thoſe that flee from him, with all sower grapes.

all his hoste, they shall be slaine with the swoord, and the residue shall bee scattered towardes all the windes: and yee shall know that I the Lord haue spoken it.

22 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also take of the top of this high Cedar, and will set it, and cut off the top of the tender plant thereof, and will plant it vpon an high hill and a great.

23 Namely, vpon the high hill of Israel will I plant it, that it may bring forth boughes, and giue fruite, and bee an excellent Cedar, and vnder it shall remaine all birdes, and euerie fowle shall remaine vnder the shadowe of the branches thereof.

24 And all the trees of the fielde shall knowe that I the Lorde haue brought downe the high tree, and exalted the low tree, that I haue dried vp the greene tree, and made the dry tree to flourish, euen I the Lord that spake it, haue also brought it to passe.

The xviii. Chapter.

He sheweth that euery man shall beare his owne sinne. 21 To him that amendeth, is saluation promised.

1 The worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 What meane yee by this common prouerbe that yee vse in the lande of Israel, saying, The a fathers haue eaten sowre grapes, and the childrens teeth are set on edge.

3 As truely as I liue, saieth the Lorde God, ye shall vse this byworde no more in Israel.

4 Behold, all soules are mine: like as the soule of the father is mine, so is the soule of the sonne mine also: the soule that sinneth, shall die it selfe.

5 But if a man be iust, & doe that which is lawfull and right:

6 And hath not b eaten vpon the hilles, & hath not lift his eyes to þ idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbours wife, neither hath come neare a c woman remoued:

7 Neither hath oppressed any man, but hath restored to the debter his pledge: he that hath not spoyled any by violence, hath giuen his bread to the hungry, and hath clothed the naked:

8 And hath not giuen forth vpon vsurie, neither taken any increase, and hath withdrawen his hand from iniquitie, & hath executed true iudgement betweene man and man:

9 And hath walked in my statutes, and kept my iudgements to deale truely: this is a righteous man, he shall surely liue, saith the Lord God.

10 If he haue get a sonne that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and doe any one of these things:

11 Though he doe not all these things, but either hath eaten vpon the hilles, or defiled his neighbours wife:

12 Or hath oppressed the poore and needie, or spoyled by violence, or hath not restored the pledge, or hath lift vp his eyes vnto the idoles, or hath committed abomination:

13 Or hath giuen forth vpon vsurie, or hath taken increase: Shall this man liue? he shall not liue: Seeing hee hath done all these abominations he shall die the death, his blood shalbe vpon him.

14 Now if this man get a sonne also, that seeth all his fathers sinnes which he hath done, & feareth, neither doeth such like:

15 Namely, that hath not eaten vpon the hils, neither hath lift vp his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nor defiled his neighbours wife:

16 Neither hath oppressed any, nor hath withholde the pledge, neither hath spoyled by violence: but hath giuen his bread to the hungry, and hath couered the naked with a garment:

17 Neither hath withdrawen his hand from the afflicted, nor receiued vsurie nor increase, but hath executed my iudgments, and walked in my statutes: this man shal not die in his fathers sinne, but shall liue without faile.

18 As for his father, because hee hath cruelly oppressed and spoyled his brother by violence, and hath not done good among his people, loe, hee dieth in his owne sinne.

19 And yet say ye, Wherefore then should not this sonne beare his fathers sinne? Because the sonne hath done iudgement and righteousnesse, hee hath kept all my statutes, and done them: therefore shall he liue in deede.

20 * The same soule that sinneth shal die, the sonne shall not beare the fathers iniquitie, neither shall the father beare the sonnes iniquitie: the righteousnesse of the righteous shall be vpon him, and the wickednesse of the wicked shall be vpon himselfe also. Deut 24.16. 4.king.4.6. 2.chro.25.4.

21 But if the vngodly will turne away from all his sinnes that hee hath done, & keepe all my statutes, and doe the thing that is iudgement and right, doubtlesse he shall liue, and not die.

22 As for all his sinnes that he did before, they shall not bee mentioned vnto him: but in his righteousnesse that hee hath done, he shall liue.

23 For haue I any pleasure in the death of a sinner, saith the Lord God? shall hee not liue if he returne from his wayes?

24 Againe, if the righteous turne from his righteousnesse, and doe iniquitie, and shall doe according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth: shall he liue? All the righteousnesse that hee hath done shall not bee remembred, but in his transgression that hee hath committed, in his sinne that hee hath sinned, in them he shall die.

25 And yet ye say, * The way of the Lord is not d indifferent. Heare therefore yee house of Israel, Is not my way equall? or are not your wayes rather vnequall? Ezec.33.20.

26 When a righteous man turneth away a The people murmured at ſ chaſtiſings of the Lord, and therefore vſed this prouerbe, meaning that their fathers had ſinned, and they were punished for their tranſgreſſions, reade Iere 31.

b That is, if ye haue not communicated in the ſacrifices of idoles.

c Meaning, ſuch as were ſet apart in time of naturall and monethly diſeaſes, namely, in time of childebirth, leproſie, & ſuch like, as Leuit 20.

d In punishing the fathers with the children.

away from his righteousnes, and committeth iniquitie, and dieth in the same: in his iniquitie which hee hath committed shall he die.

27 Againe, whē the wicked turneth away from his wickednesse that he hath done, and doeth iudgement and right, he shall saue his soule aliue.

‡Considereth or remembreth his iniquitie.

28 Because hee ‡ seeth and turneth away from all his iniquitie that he hath committed, he shall surely liue, and not die.

29 And yet saieth the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equall. Are not my wayes equall, O ye house of Israel? are not your wayes rather vnequall?

30 Therefore I will iudge you, euery mā according to his wayes, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God, * returne and bring againe others from all your wickednes, so iniquitie shall not be your destruction.

Mat. 3.2.

31 Cast away from you all your transgressions wherebp ye haue transgressed, and make you a newe heart and a newe spirit: for why will ye die, O ye house of Israel?

2. King. 14. 14. ‖Or, cause therefore one another to returne.

32 * Seeing I haue no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saieth the Lorde God, ‖bring againe your selues then, and ye shall liue.

The xix. Chapter.

2 The captiuitie of Iehoas and Iehoiakim is signified by the Lions whelpes, and by the Lion.

1 THou also take vp a lamentation for the a princes of Israel, a Tharis, Iehoas and Iehoiakim Iosias sonnes, who for their crueltie and pride are compared vnto Lions.

2 And say, Wherefore lay thy mother that Lionesse among the Lions? she nourished her young ones among the Lions whelpes.

3 One of her whelpes she brought vp, & it became a Lion, it learned to catche the pray, and to deuoure folke.

b Meaning, Pharao Necho king of Egypt.

4 The b heathen heard of him, and caught him in their snare, and brought him in ‖ hookes vnto the land of Egypt.

‖Or, chaines.

5 Now when she sawe that she had waited, and her hope was lost, she tooke another c of her whelpes, and made him a Lion.

c Which was Iehoiakim.

6 Which went among the Lions, and became a fierce Lion, learned to catche the pray, and to deuoure folke.

‖Or, and he knewe their widowes.

7 He ‖ destroyed their palaces, and made their cities desolate, insomuch that the whole lande, and euery thing therein, were vtterly desolate through the voyce of his roaring.

d Nabuchodonosor with his great armie, which was gathered of diuers nations.

8 Then set the d heathen together on euery side of the countreyes against him, layde their nettes for him, and tooke him in their pit.

e He speaketh this in y reproch of this wicked king, in whose blood, that is, in the race of his predecessors, Hierusalem was and so should haue bene blessed according to Gods promises, and florish like a fruitfull vine.

9 So they put him in prison in chaynes, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they put him in holdes, that his voyce should no more be heard vpon the mountaines of Israel.

10 As for thy e mother, shee is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she brought forth fruite and braches by the abundant waters.

11 And she had strong roddes for the scepters of them that beare rule, and her stature was exalted on high among the branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But shee was pluckt vp in wrath, cast out vpon the grounde, * the East winde dried vp her fruite, her branches were broke off and withered, as for the roddes of her strength, the fire consumed them.

Ose. 13. 15.

13 And now she is planted in the wildernesse, in a dry and thirstie ground.

14 And there is a fire gone out of the rod of her branches, it hath deuoured her fruite, so that shee hath no strong rodde for a scepter to rule: This is a lamentation, and shalbe for a lamentation.

The xx. Chapter.

The Lord denieth that he will answere them whē they pray, for the offence of vnkindnesse which he here obiecteth.

1 IN the a seuenth yeere, the tenth day of the fifth moneth, certaine of the elders of Israel came for to aske counsell at the Lord, and sate downe before me.

a Of the captiuitie of Ieconias.

2 Then came the word of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

3 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto the elders of Israel, and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Are yee come to enquire of me? As truely as I liue, I ‖ will not be sought of you, saith the Lord God.

‖Or, when I am asked, I will not answere.

4 Wilt thou iudge them, sonne of man, wilt thou iudge them? cause them to vnderstand the abominations of their fathers.

5 And tell them, Thus saith the Lorde God, In the day when I chose Israel, & b lift vp mine hand vpon the seede of the house of Iacob, and was knowen vnto them in the land of Egypt, yea, when I lift vp mine hand ouer them, and saide, I am the Lord your God:

b This was a maner of swearing which was obserued in taking an othe of al antiquitie, and is yet in diuers countreyes vsed.

6 Euen in the day that I lift vp mine hād vnto them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt, into a land that I had prouided for them, which floweth with milke and hony, and is pleasant among all other landes:

7 Then saide I vnto them, Cast awaye euery man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not your selues with the idoles of Egypt: for I am the Lorde your God.

8 But they rebelled against mee, and would not hearken vnto mee, they did not cast away euery man the abominations of his eyes, neither did they forsake the idoles of Egypt: then I sayde I would powre out mine indignation ouer them, and accomplish my wrath vpon them, yea, euen in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 And I wrote for my names sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen among whom they were, to whom I was manifestly knowen, in bringing them forth of the land of Egypt.

10 Now

10 Howe when I had caused them to goe out of the lande of Egypt, and brought them into the wildernesse:

Leuit. 18.5. rom. 10.5.

11 * I gaue them my statutes, and shewed them my iudgements: which who so doeth, shall liue in them.

Exod. 20.8. and 31.13. deut. 5.12.

12 * I gaue them also my Sabboth daies, to be a token betwixt mee and them, and thereby to knowe that I am the Lorde which halowe them.

13 And yet the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wildernesse, they would not walke in my statutes, they haue cast away my iudgements, which who so doeth, shall liue in them, * and my Sabboth dayes haue they greatly polluted: then I said I would powre out mine indignation vpon them, and cõsume them in the wildernesse.

Exod. 16.28.

14 And I wrought for my names sake, least it should be defiled before þ heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet neuertheless I lift vp my hande vnto them in the wildernesse, þ I would not bring them into the land which I gaue them, that floweth with milke and hony, and is a pleasure of all landes:

16 And that because they cast away my iudgements, and walked not in my statutes, but haue defiled my Sabboths: for their heart was gone after their idoles.

17 Neuertheless mine eye spared them, so that I would not destroy them, nor consume them in the wildernesse.

18 Moreouer, I said vnto their sonnes in the wildernes, Walke not in the statutes of your [e] fathers, kéepe not their iudgements, and defile not your selues with their idoles.

e Whereby the holy Ghost confuteth them that say, They will followe the religion and example of their father, and not measure their doings by Gods worde, whether they be approueable thereby or no.

19 I am the Lord your God, walke in my statutes, kéepe my iudgements, and doe them.

20 Halowe my Sabboths, for they are a token betwixt me and you: that ye may knowe how þ I am the Lord your God.

21 Notwithstanding, their sonnes rebelled against mee also, they walked not in my statutes, they kept not my iudgementes to fulfill them, which hee that doth, shall liue in them, they prophaned my Sabboth daies, and I said, I would powre out mine indignation ouer them, and accomplish my wrath vpon them in the wildernesse.

22 Neuertheless, I withdrewe my hand, and wrought for my names sake, least it should be defiled in the sight of the heathen, before whom I had brought them forth.

23 I lift vp my hand to them also in the wildernesse, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and strawe them among the nations:

d Because they would not obey my lawes, I gaue them vp to the selues, that they should obey their owne fantasies, as verse. 39. Rom. 1.

24 Because they had not kept my iudgements, but cast aside my statutes, and broken my Sabboths, and their eyes were after their fathers idoles.

25 Wherefore I [d] gaue them also statutes that were not good, and iudgements wherein they should not liue.

26 And I defiled them in their owne gifts, in that they [e] caused all that openeth the e Causing their first borne to passe thorow the fire in sacrifice to Moloch.
wombe to passe, that I might destroy them, that they might knowe how that I am the Lord.

27 Therefore speake vnto the house of Israel, thou sonne of man, and thou shalt say vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lorde God, Yet in this also your fathers haue blasphemed mee, and grieuously transgressed against me:

28 For after I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted vp my hande to giue it vnto them, when they sawe euery high hill, and all thicke trees, they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented their offering of [f] anger, there also they made their swéete sauors, and powred out their wine offerings.

f Such offring as prouoked God to anger.

29 And I said vnto them, What is þ high place whereunto ye resort? and the name of it is called [g] Bamah vnto this day.

g Which signifieth an high place, declaring that they vaunted themselues of their idolatry and were not ashamed thereof, though God had commanded expressly that they should haue no altar lifted vp on high by staires, Exod. 20.

30 Wherefore speake vnto the house of Israel, Thus sayeth the Lorde God, Are yee not defiled in the wayes of your fathers, and commit yee not whoredome after their abommations?

31 For when yee offer your giftes, and make your sonnes to passe thorowe the fire, you are polluted with all your idoles vnto this day: shal I answere you when I am asked, O house of Israel? As I liue, sayth the Lord God, I [‖] will not be sought of you.

‖ Or, I will not answere when I am asked.

32 And that which commeth into your minde shall not be at all, which you say, We will be as the Gentiles, as the kinreds of countreys to serue wood & stone.

33 As truely as I liue, sayeth the Lorde GOD, I my selfe will rule you with a mightie hand, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out ouer you.

34 And I will bring you from the people, and gather you out of the countreys wherein ye are scattered, & with a mightie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out.

35 And I will bring you into the [h] wildernesse of the people, and there I [i] will be iudged with you face to face.

h That is, among strange nations.

i I will reason and pleade my cause with you, my selfe.

36 Like as I pleaded [illegible] your fathers in the wildernes of Egypt: so will I plead with you also, saith the Lord God.

37 I will cause you to passe vnder the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the couenant.

38 And I will [‖] purge out of you the rebels, and them that transgresse against mee, and bring them out of the lande of their habitation: as for the lande of Israel they shall not come in it, that you may knowe howe that I am the Lord.

‖ Or, cull.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus sayeth the Lorde GOD, Goe you and serue euery man his idoles, seing that yee obey not mee: and pollute no more my holy name with your gifts and your idoles.

40 For vpon my holy hill, euen vpon the high hill of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde God, ſhall all the houſe of Iſrael, and all that is in the lande worſhip mee: and in the ſame place will I fauour them, & there will I require your heaue offerings, and the firſtlings of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept your ſweete ſauour, when I bring you from the nations, and gather you together out of þ lands wherein ye haue bene ſcattered, that I may be halowed in you before the heathen.

42 And ye ſhall know that I am the Lord, when I ſhall bring you into the lande of Iſrael, into the lande for the which I lift vp my hande to giue it vnto your fathers.

43 There ſhall yee call to remembrance your owne wayes, and all your workes wherein ye haue bin defiled, and ye ſhall be cut off in your owne ſight for al your wickednesse that ye haue done.

1 Your owne conſcience ſhall condemne you as worthie to be cut off from the earth.

44 And yee ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I deale with you for my names ſake, and not after your wicked wayes, nor according to your corrupt workes, O yee houſe of Iſrael, ſaith the Lord God.

45 Moreouer, the worde of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

46 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face toward the way of [m] Themanah, and dropp thy word toward the [n] South, & prophecie toward the foreſt of the South fielde, 47 And ſay to the foreſt of the South, Heare the word of the Lord, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I will kindle a fire in thee, that ſhall conſume all the [o] greene trees, with all the drie: the continuall flame ſhall not bee quenched, and euery face from the South to the North ſhalbe burnt therein.

m To wit, the South.
n That is, toward Hieruſalē and Iuda, which was South from Babylon.
o That is, both ſtrong & weake in Hieruſalem.

48 And all fleſh ſhall ſee that I the Lorde haue kindled it, and it ſhall not be quenched.

49 Then ſaid I, Ah Lord God, they ſay of me, Doeth not he ſpeake [p] parables?

p Becauſe the people ſayd that the Prophet ſpake darkely, therefore he deſireth the Lord to giue them a plaine declaration thereof.

The xxi. Chapter.

He threateneth the ſword, that is to ſay, deſtruction to the cite of Hieruſalem.

1 THe word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face towarde Hieruſalem, and [a] dropp thy worde towarde the holy places, and prophecie againſt the lande of Iſrael.

a As doctrine is compared to raine, euen ſo here wordes are compared to droppes.

3 Say to the lande of Iſrael, Thus ſayth the Lord, Behold, I am againſt thee, and will drawe my ſworde out of the sheath, and cut off from thee both the [b] righteous and the wicked.

b That is, ſuch as ſeeme to haue an outward ſhew of righteouſneſſe by obſeruation of the ceremonies of the lawe.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee both the righteous and the wicked, therefore ſhall my ſworde goe out of his sheath againſt all fleſh from the [c] South to the North,

c Meaning, thorowe all § land.

5 That all fleſh may knowe how that I the Lord haue drawen my ſworde out of the sheath, & it ſhal not be put in againe.

6 Mourne therefore, O thou ſonne of man, yea, euen with [d] breaking of thy ioynts, mourne bitterly in their preſence.

d As though thou were in extreme anguiſh, wherewith thy ioynes ſhould breake.

7 And if they ſay vnto thee, Wherefore mourneſt thou? Then tell them, For the tidings that commeth: All hearttes ſhall melt, all handes ſhalbe letten downe, all ſtomackes ſhall faint, and all knees ſhall goe as water: beholde, it commeth, and ſhalbe brought to paſſe, ſaieth the Lord God.

8 Againe, the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

9 Thou ſonne of man, prophecie and ſpeake, Thus ſaith þ Lord God, Speake, The ſworde, the ſworde is ſharpened, and well fourbiſhed.

10 Sharpened is it to make a great ſlaughter, and fourbiſhed that it may glitter: Shall we then make mirth? It contemneth the [e] rodde of my ſonne as [f] all other trees.

e Meaning, the ſceptre, ſhewing that it will not ſpare the king, who ſhould be as the ſonne of God, and in his place.
f That is, the reſt of the people.

11 Hee hath giuen it to bee fourbiſhed, to holde it in the hande: this ſworde is ſharpened, and fourbiſhed, to giue it into the hand of the [g] ſlayer.

g To wit, vnto the armie of the Chaldeans.

12 Cry and howle, ſonne of man, for it cōmeth vpon my people, it commeth vpon all the princes of Iſrael: the terrours of the ſworde ſhall bee vpon my people, ſmite therefore thou vpon thy thigh.

13 Becauſe it is a trial, and what if [h] it cōtemne the rodde? it ſhalbe no more, ſaith the Lord God.

h Meaning, the ſword of the king of Babylon, which ſhall not ſpare the ſceptre of Iuda.

14 Prophecie, thou ſonne of man, & ſmite thy [i] handes together, and let the ſworde be doubled thrife, euen the ſworde of the great ſlaughter, entring vnto their priuie chambers,

i That is, encourage the ſword,

15 To make them faint at the hearttes, and to multiplie their falles, in all their gates haue I giuen the terrour of the ſworde: Ah, it is made bright, and dreſſed for the ſlaughter.

16 Get thee [k] one way or other, either vpon the right hande or vpon the left, whitherſoeuer thy face turneth.

k He ſpeaketh vnto the ſword, giuing it liberty to range at his pleaſure.

17 I will ſmite my handes together alſo, and make my wrathfull indignation to reſt: euen I the Lord haue ſaid it.

18 The worde of the Lord came yet vnto me againe, ſaying, 19 Thou ſonne of man, appoint thee two [l] wayes, that the ſworde of the king of Babylon may come: both theſe wayes ſhall goe out of one land, and chuſe thee a place, at the head of the cities wayes chooſe it.

l Where the way deuideth and leadeth to many cities.

20 Appoynt a way that the ſworde may come towarde Rabbath of the Ammonites, and toward [m] Iuda in the defenced Hieruſalem.

m The tribe of Iuda that kept themſelues chiefly in Hieruſalem.

21 For the king of Babylon ſtoode at the [n] parting of the waies, at the head of the two wayes, conſulting by diuination, he made his arrowes bright, conſulted with images, and looked in the liuer.

n To knowe whether he ſhould goe againſt the Ammonites, or them of Hieruſalem.

22 At his right hande was the ſoothſaying for Hieruſalē, to appoynt captaines, to open their mouth to the ſlaughter,

and

and to lift vp their voyce with the alarum, to set battel rammes against the gates, to cast a bulwarke and to builde a fort.

23 And it shalbe vnto them as a false diuination in their sight, for the [o] othes made vnto them: but [p] he will call to remembrance their iniquitie, to the intent they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Because ye haue made your iniquitie to bee remembred in discouering your transgressions, so that in all your workes your sinnes might appeare, because ye are come to remembrance, ye shalbe take by hand.

25 O thou shamefull wicked [q] prince of Israel, whose day is come, euen when wickednesse shal haue an ende, 26 Thus saith the Lord God, I will take away the [r] Diademe, and put of the crowne: this shalbe no more the same, I will exalt [p] humble, and abase him that is high.

27 Ouerthrowen, ouerthrowen, ouerthrowen will I put it, and it shal not be, vntil he come to whome the iudgement belongeth, and to whome I haue giuen it.

28 And thou, O sonne of man, prophecie & speake, Thus saith the Lord God to the children of Ammon, & their blasphemie, speake thou, The sworde, the sword is drawen forth already to slaughter, & fourbished to consume because of the glittering:

29 Whiles they see vnto thee vanitie and diuine a lye vnto thee, to put thee with the neckes of the wicked that be slayne, whose day is come when their iniquitie shall haue an ende.

30 Shoulde I cause it to returne into his sheath? In the place where thou wast created, in the lande of thine habitation will I iudge thee.

31 And I will powre mine indignation vpon thee, and will blowe vpon thee in the fyre of my wrath, and deliuer thee into [p] handes of desperate people, which are skilfull to destroy.

32 Thou shalt feede the fire, and thy blood shal be shedde in the middest of the lande: thou shalt be put out of remembrãce, for I the Lorde haue spoken it.

o Because there was a league betweene [p] Iewes and the Babylonians, they of Hierusalem shal thinke nothing lesse then that this thing shall come to passe.

p That is, Nabuchodonosor will remember the rebellion of Zedecias, and so come vpon them.

q Meaning, Zedecias.

r Some referre this to the Priests attyre, for Iehozadec the priest went into captiuitie with the king.

s That is, the state of the kingdome and priesthood shall euer more and more decay till Christ come, vnto whom of right both belong.

The xxii. Chapter.

The worde of the Lorde against Hierusalem for manslaughter, and denying due honour to their fathers and mothers, and other wickednesse.

1 MOreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, and sayde,

2 Thou sonne of man, wilt thou not [a] iudge, wilt thou not iudge this bloodie citie? wilt thou not shewe her all her abominations?

3 And tell them, Thus sayth the Lorde God, The citie sheadeth blood in the middest of it, that her [b] time may come, and maketh idoles [c] against her selfe, to defile her selfe.

4 Thou hast made thy selfe guyltie in the blood that thou hast shed, and defiled thee in the idoles which thou hast made: thou hast caused thy dayes to drawe nigh, and made the time of thy peres to come: therefore will I make thee a reproche among the heathen, and to be a mocking in all landes.

5 Whether they be nigh or farre from thee, they shall laugh thee to scorne, thou that hast gotten thee so foule a name, and art full of trouble.

6 Beholde the rulers of Israel, euery one in thee was readie to his power to sheade blood.

7 In thee haue they despised father and mother, in thee haue they oppressed the stranger, in thee haue they vexed the widowe and the fatherlesse.

8 Thou hast despised my holy things, and defiled my Sabboths.

9 ‖Tale tellers are there in thee to sheade blood, in thee are such as eate vpon the hilles, and in the middest of thee they committe abomination.

10 In thee they discouered their fathers shame, in thee they haue humbled her [p] was set apart for pollution.

11 *Euery man hath dealt shamefully [b] his neighbours wife, and abominably defiled his ‖daughter in law, in thee hath euery man forced his owne sister euen his fathers daughter.

12 Yea, giftes haue bene receyued in thee to sheade blood, thou hast taken vsurie and increase, thou hast oppressed thy neyghbours by extortion, and forgotten mee, sayth the Lord God.

13 Beholde, I haue [d] smitten my hands vpon thy couetousnesse that thou hast vsed, and vpon the blood which hath bene shedde in the middest of thee.

14 Is thy heart able to endure? or may thy handes be strengthened in the daies that I shal haue to doe with thee? Euen I the Lord that speake it, will bring it also to passe.

15 I will scatter thee among the heathen, and straw thee about in the landes, and will cause thy filthinesse to [e] cease out of thee.

16 Yea, and thou shalt be thine [f] owne inheritance in the sight of the heathen, that thou mayest know that I am the Lord.

17 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto mee, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, the house of Israel is vnto mee as drosse: all they are brasse, tin, yron, and leade in the middest of the furnace: euen drosse of siluer are they.

19 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Forasmuch as yee all are turned into drosse, therefore beholde, I will bring you together vnto Hierusalem.

20 Like as they gather siluer, brasse, yron, tynne, and leade into the middest of the furnace, and the fire is blowen thereunder to melt them: euen so will I gather you in mine anger & in my wrath, and let you remaine there, and caste you a That is, wilt thou winke at such horrible faults, and not vexe my iudgements against them?

b That is, the time of her destruction.

c To her owne vndoing.

o Othes.

p That is, he will remember.

d As sorowing and lamenting their wickednesse or in token of his wrath and vengeance.

e I will take away the occasion of thy wickednesse.

f Whereas before thou wast Gods inheritance, now thou shalt be left to thy selfe miserable and forsaken.

to ſ melt.

21 I will bring you together, and blow the fire of my wrath vpon you, and ye ſhalbe moulten in the middeſt thereof.

22 Like as the ſiluer is moulten in the middeſt of the furnace, ſo ſhall ye alſo bee moulten therein, that ye may know how that I the Lord haue powred my wrath vpon you.

23 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto mee, ſaying, 24 Thou ſonne of man, tell her, thou art an vncleane land, which is not [h] rained vpon in the day of wrath.

25 There is a [i] conſpiracie of her prophets in the middeſt thereof: as a roaring lion rauening his pray they deuoure ſoules, they haue taken the rich and precious things, they haue made her many widowes in the middeſt thereof.

26 Her prieſts haue broken my lawe, and defiled my holy things, they put no difference betweene the holy and vnholy, neyther diſcerne they betweene [p] cleane and vncleane: they turne their eyes frō my Sabboths, and I am defiled among them.

27 Thy rulers in the middeſt of thee are like wolues rauening the pray, to ſhedde blood, and deſtroy ſoules for their owne couetous lucre.

28 As for her [k] prophets, they dawbe with vntempered morter, they ſee vanities, and diuine lyes vnto them, ſaying, The Lord ſaith ſo: whereas the Lord hath not ſpoken.

29 The people in the land vſed wicked extortion & robberie, they vexed the poore and needie, and oppreſſed the ſtraunger againſt right.

30 And I ſought among them for a man that would [l] make vp the hedge, and ſet himſelfe in the gappe before me in the landes behalfe that I ſhould not deſtroy it: but I coulde finde none.

31 Therefore haue I powred out my cruel diſpleaſure vpon them, and conſumed them in the fire of my wrath: their owne wayes will I recompenſe vpon their heads, ſayth the Lord God.

The xxiii. Chapter.

Of the fornication, that is to ſay, of the idolatrie of Samaria and Hieruſalem, vnder the name of Aholah, and Aholibah.

1 THe worde of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying.

2 Thou ſonne of man, there were two women the daughters of [a] one mother.

3 And they committed fornication in [b] Egypt, they played the harlots in their youth: there were their breaſtes preſſed, and there they bruſed the teates of their virginitie.

4 The [c] names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her ſiſter, and they were mine, and they bare ſonnes and daughters: thus were their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Hieruſalem Aholibah.

5 Aholah played the harlot [d] when ſhee was mine, and ſhee was ſet on fire with her louers the Aſſyrians her neyghbours:

6 Which were clothed with blewe ſilke, both captaines and princes, they were all pleaſant yong men, and horſemen riding vpon horſes.

7 Thus thee committed her whoredome with them, being all choſe men of Aſſhur, and with all on whome ſhe doted, and defiled her ſelfe with all their idoles.

8 Neither left ſhe the fornication that ſhe vſed with [p] Egyptians: for in her youth they lay with her, they bruſed [p] breaſts of her maydenheade, and powred their whoredome vpon her.

9 Wherefore I delivered her into the handes of her louers, euen into the handes of the Aſſyrians vpon whome ſhe doted.

10 Theſe diſcouered her ſhame, tooke her ſonnes and daughters, and ſlue her with the ſworde, an euil name had ſhe among women: for they had executed iudgement vpon her.

11 Her ſiſter Aholibah ſawe this, and deſtroyed her ſelfe with inordinate loue more then ſhee, and with her fornications more then her ſiſter with her fornications.

12 She doted vpon the Aſſyrians captaines and princes her neighbours, clothed with all maner of gorgeous apparel, horſemen riding vpon horſes, being all pleaſant yong men.

13 Then I ſawe that ſhe was defiled, and they tooke both one way.

14 But ſhee encreaſed ſtil in whoredome: for when ſhee ſawe men paynted vpon the wall the [f] images of the Chaldees paynted with vermilion,

15 And girded with girdles vpon their loynes, and with dyed attyre vpon their heades, looking al like princes, after the maner of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land where they were borne:

16 As ſoone as ſhee ſawe them, ſhee burnt in loue vpon them, and ſent meſſengers vnto them into the lande of the Chaldees.

17 Nowe when the Babylonians came vnto her in the bedde of loue, they defiled her with their whoredome: and ſo was ſhe polluted with them, and her luſt was abated from them.

18 And ſhee diſcouered her whoredome, & diſcloſed her ſhame: then my heart forſooke her, like as my heart was gone from her ſiſter alſo.

19 Neuertheles, ſhe encreaſed her whoredome more, & remembred the dayes of her youth, wherein ſhe had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 She burnt in luſt vpon their lechers, whoſe fleſh was like the fleſh of aſſes, & their a Meaning Iſrael & Iuda, which came both out of one familie.

b They became idolaters, after the maner of the Egyptians.

c Aholah ſignifieth a manſion or dwelling in her ſelfe, meaning Samaria, which was the royall citie of Iſrael. and Aholibah ſignifieth My manſion in her, whereby is meant Hieruſalem, where Gods temple was.

d Or, vnder me, that is, vnder my gouernance, and named the people of God, they became idolaters, forſooke God, and put their truſt in the Aſſyrians, their iſſue like the iſſue of horſes.

21 Thus thou haſt called to remembrance the filthineſſe of thy youth, when thy teates were bruſed by the Egyptians, for the pappes of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus ſayth the Lorde God, I will raiſe vp thy louers againſt thée from whom thy heart is departed, and gather them together againſt thee on euery ſide.

23 Namely the Babylonians and all the Chaldees, ‖ rulers, wealthie, and mightie men, with all the Aſſyrians, all pleaſant young men, captaines and princes, all valiant and renowmed riding vpon horſes.

‖ Or, Peked, and Shuah, and Koa.

24 Theſe ſhall come vpon thee with charets, weapons, and wheeles, and great multitude of people, with buckler, ſhield, and helmet they ſhall beſet thée on euery ſide: ‖ I will giue iudgement before them, yea, they themſelues ſhall iudge thee according to their owne iudgement.

‖ Or, I will leaue the puniſhment with them.

25 I will lay mine indignation vpon thée, ſo that they ſhall deale cruelly with thée: they ſhal cut off thy noſe and thine eares, and thy remnant ſhall fall by the ſworde, they ſhall carp away thy ſonnes and daughters, and the reſidue ſhalbe deuoured by the fire.

26 They ſhall ſtrip thée out of thy clothes, and take away thy fayre iewels.

27 Thus will I make thy wickednéſſe to ceaſe from thee, and thy fornication out of the land of Egypt: ſo that thou ſhalt turne thine eyes no more after them, and caſt thy minde no more vpon Egypt.

28 For thus ſaith the Lord God, Behold, I will deliuer thee into the hands of them whome thou hateſt, yea, euen into the hands of them from whome thine heart is departed.

29 And they ſhall deale hatefully with thée, and take away all thy [g] labour, and leaue thee naked and bare, and the ſhame of thy fornications [h] ſhalbe diſcouered, both thy wickednéſſe and thy whoredome.

g All thy treaſures and riches which thou haſt gotte by labour.

h All the world ſhall ſee thy ſhamefull forſaking of God to thine idoles.

30 I will doe theſe things vnto thée, becauſe thou haſt gone a whoring after the heathen, and becauſe thou art polluted with their idoles.

31 Thou haſt walked in the way of thy ſiſter, therefore will I giue her cuppe into thine hande.

32 Thus ſayth the Lord God, Thou ſhalt drinke of thy ſiſters cuppe deepe and large, thou ſhalt be laughed to ſcorne, and had in deriſion, becauſe it conteineth much.

33 Thou ſhalt be filled with [i] drunkennéſſe and ſorowe, euen with the cuppe of deſtruction and deſolation, with the cup of thy ſiſter Samaria.

i Meaning, that the afflictions ſhould be ſo great, that they ſhould cauſe thée to loſe their ſenſes and reaſon.

34 Thou ſhalt drinke it, and ſucke it out, and thou ſhalt breake the ſhardes thereof, and teare thine owne breaſtes: for I haue ſpoken it, ſayeth the Lorde God.

35 Therefore thus ſayeth the Lorde God, Foraſmuch as thou haſt forgotten mée, and caſt me aſide behinde thy backe, ſo beare nowe thine owne wickednéſſe and whoredome.

36 The Lorde ſayde moreouer vnto mée, Thou ſonne of man, wilt thou not iudge Aholah, and Aholibah? ſhew them their abominations.

37 Namely that they haue broken their wedlocke, and blood is in their handes: and with their idoles haue they committed aduulterie, and haue alſo cauſed their ſonnes whom they bare vnto mée, to paſſe by the fire to be their [k] meate.

k That is, to be ſacrificed to their idoles: Reade Ezec. 16.

38 Yea, and this haue they done vnto me alſo, they haue defiled my Sanctuarie in the ſame day, and haue prophaned my Sabbothes.

39 For when they had ſlayne their children for their idoles, they came the ſame day into my ſanctuarie to defile it: and loe, thus haue they done in the middeſt of mine houſe.

40 And howe much more is it that they ſent for men to come from [l] farre, vnto whome a meſſenger was ſent, and loe, they came: for whom thou diddeſt waſh thy ſelfe, and painted thine eyes, and deckedſt thée with ornaments.

l They ſent into other countreys to haue ſuch as ſhould teach the ſeruice of their idoles.

41 Thou ſateſt vpon a ſtately bedde, and a [m] table ſpred before it, whereupon thou haſt ſet mine incenſe and mine ople.

m He meaneth the altars that were prepared for the idoles.

42 And a noyſe of a merrie companie at ‖ it, and with the men, beſide the multitude of the people, were brought men of Saba out of the deſart, which gaue them bracelets vpon their hands, and beautifull crownes vpon their heads.

‖ Or, the table.

43 And I ſayde vnto her that was worne in her adulteries, Nowe ſhall her fornications come to an ende, and ſhe alſo.

44 And they went in to her as they goe vnto a common harlot: euen ſo went they to Aholah and Aholibah, thoſe wicked women.

45 And the righteous men they ſhal iudge them after the maner of harlots, and after the maner of murderers: for they are harlots, and blood is in their handes.

46 Wherefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, I will bring a great multitude of people vpon them, and giue them to be ſcattered and ſpoyled.

47 And the multitude ſhall ſtone them with ſtones, and cut them downe with their ſwords, they ſhall ſlay their ſonnes and daughters, and burne vp their houſes with fire.

48 Thus will I cauſe wickednéſſe to ceaſe out of the lande, that all [n] women may bée taught not to doe after your wickednéſſe.

n Meaning, of other cities and countreies.

49 And ſo they ſhal lay your wickednéſſe vpon your owne ſelues, and the ſinnes of your idoles ſhall ye beare: and ye ſhall knowe that I am the Lord God.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

He proueth the ſiring of Hieruſalem by a parable of a ſeething pot.

a Of Iechonias captiuitie, and of the reigne of Zadecias, 2. King. 25.

b Called Tebeth, conteining part of December and part of Ianuarie, in which moneth and day Nabuchodonosor besieged Hierusalem.

c Whereby is meant Hierusalem.

d That is, the citizens & chiefe men thereof. ‖Or, heape.

e Signifiyng, they should not be destroyed all at once, but by litle and litle.

f Spare no state nor condition.

g The citie shewed her crueltie to all the world, and was not ashamed thereof, neyther yet hid it. Nahum. 3. 1. habac. 2. 12.

h Meaning, that the citie should be vtterly destroyed, and that he would giue the enemies an appetite thereunto. ‖Or, cast in spice. ‖Or, yes.

i I laboured by sending my prophet to call thee to repentance, but thou wouldest not.

k That is, the Babylonians.

l Meaning, his wife, in whome he delighted, as verie 18.

1 ¶ In the a ninth yeere, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of the b moneth, came the worde of the Lord vnto me, saying,

2 O thou sonne of man, write thee the name of this day, yea, euen of this present day: for the king of Babylon set himselfe against Hierusalem this selfe same day.

3 And shewe the rebellious house a parable, and speake vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lord God, Prepare a c pot, set it on, and powre water into it.

4 Gather the d pieces thereof into it, euerp good piece, the thigh and the shoulder, and fill it with the chiefe bones.

5 Take one of the best sheepe, ‖and burne also bones vnder it, let it boyle well, let the bones thereof seethe well therein.

6 With that sayde the Lord God on this maner, Woe vnto the bloodie citie, to the pot whose scumme is therein, and whose scumme is not gone out of it: bring it out e piece by piece, let no f lot fall vpon it.

7 For her blood is in the middest of it, vpon a high drie g stone hath shee powred it, and not vpon the grounde, that it might be couered with dust:

8 That it might cause wrath to arise, and take vengeance: I haue set her blood vpon an high drie rocke, that it should not be couered.

9 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde God, * O woe bee vnto the blood thirstie citie, for whome euen I my selfe will make a great fire,

10 And heape on much wood, and h kindle the fire, and seethe the fleth, and ‖spice the pot, so that the very bones shalbe burnt.

11 Moreouer, I will set the pot emptie vpon the coales, so that the brasse thereof may be hot and burnt, and the filthinesse of it may be molten in it, and the scumme of it shalbe consumed.

12 She hath wearied her selfe with ‖labour, yet her great scumme is not gone off her, in the fire her scumme must be consumed.

13 In thy filthinesse is wickednesse: because I i would haue purged thee, and thou wast not purged from thy filthinesse, thou shalt not be purged any more, till I haue caused mine indignation to rest in thee.

14 Euen I the Lorde haue spoken it: yea, it is come thereto alreadp that I will do it, I will not goe backe, I will not spare, I will not repent: but according to thy wayes and imaginations shall they k iudge thee, sayth the Lord.

15 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

16 Thou sonne of man, beholde, I will take away from thee the l pleasure of thine eyes with a plague, yet shalt thou neither mourne nor weepe, neither shall thy teares runne downe.

17 Mourne in silence, make no mourning of the dead, bind the tyre of thy head vpon thee, and put on thy shoes vpon thy feete, couer not thy lippes, and m eate no mans bread.

m For mourners were woont to eate bread sent vnto them by their neighbours in time of mourning.

18 So I spake vnto the people betimes in the morning, and at euen my wife dyed: then vpon the next morowe I did as I was commanded.

19 And the people sayde vnto mee, Wilt thou not tell vs what this signifieth towarde vs, that thou doest so?

20 I answered them, The worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

21 Tell the house of Israel, Thus sayth the Lorde God, Behold, I will pollute my sanctuarie, euen the glorp of pour power, the pleasure of pour eyes, & pour hearts delite: and pour sonnes and daughters whom pou haue left, shall fall through the swoorde.

22 Like as I haue done, so shall ye doe also: ye shall not couer pour lippes, ye shal eate no mans bread.

23 And pour tyre shal be vpon pour heads, and pour shoes vpon pour feete: ye shall neither mourne nor weepe, but ye shall pine awap in pour iniquities, & mourne one towards another.

24 Thus Ezechiel is pour shewetoken: according to al that he hath done, ye shal doe; when it commeth, then yee shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou sonne of man, shall it not bee in the day when I take from them their power, the ioy of their honour, the pleasure of their eyes, and the n lifting vp of their soules, their sonnes and their daughters?

n Their hearts delite.

26 In that day shall come one that is escaped, vnto thee, o and bring it to the hearing of thine eares.

o That is, bring thee tydings of the destruction of Hierusalem.

27 In that day shall thy mouth bee opened to him which is escaped, that thou mayest speake, and bee no more dumme: yea, thou shalt be their shewetoken, that they may know how that I am p Lord.

The xxv. Chapter.

The worde of the Lorde vpon the sonnes of Ammon, which reioyced at the fall of Hierusalem. 8 Against Moab and Seir, against Idumea, against the Philistines.

1 The worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde the Ammonites, and prophecie vpon them, a Becaule ye reioyced when the enemie destroyed my citie and temple.

3 And say vnto the Ammonites, Heare the worde of the Lord God, Thus sayth the Lord God, forasmuch as thou saidest a Ha, ha, ouer my Sanctuarie because it was polluted, and ouer the lande of Israel because it was desolate, and ouer the house of Iuda because they went into captiuitie:

b That is, to the Babylonians.

c They shall chase thee away, and take thy gorgeous houses to dwell in.

4 Beholde therefore, I will deliuer thee to the people of the b East, that they may haue thee in possession: these shall settle their c palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee, they shall eate thy fruite, and drinke vp thy milke.

d Called also Philadelphia, which was the chiefe citie of the Ammonites, and full of conduites, as 2. Sam. 12.

5 And for d Rabbath, I will make of it a stable for Camels, & of the Ammonites a sheepe-a shepefolde: and ye shal know that I am the Lord.

6 For thus saieth the Lorde God, Inso much as thou hast clapped with thine hands, and stamped with thy feete, yea, and reioyced ouer the land of Israel with all thy despite in heart:

Or, sicking of ioye.

7 Behold therefore, I wil stretch out my hand ouer thee, & deliuer thee to be spoyled of the Heathen, and roote thee out frō among the people, and cause thee to perish out of the lāds, yea, I will make thee to be destroyed, that thou mayest know that I am the Lord.

8 Thus saith the Lord God, For so much as Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Iuda is like as all Gentiles be:

9 Therefore behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from the cities I say of his frontiers, the pleasures of the countrey as namely Bethiesimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathiarim:

a Vnderstand out of the next former verse, I will open, &c.

10 a Vnto the children of the East, against the Ammonites, and will giue it into possession, so that the Ammonites shall no more be had in remembrance among the Heathen.

11 And I will execute iudgements vpon Moab: and they shal know that I am the Lord.

12 Thus saith the Lord God, For that Edom hath done in auenging reuengement vpon the house of Iuda, and hath done great offence, and auenged himselfe vpon them:

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I will reache out mine hand vpon Edom, and destroy man and beast out of it, I wil make it desolate from Theman, and Dedanah shall fall by the swoyde.

14 And I will execute my reuengement vpon Edom by the hande of my people Israel, they shal do in Edom according to my wrath and indignation, so that they shall knowe my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus saieth the Lord God, For that the Philistines did in vengeance, namely in auenging reuengement, with a despitefull heart to destroy it for the olde enmitie:

Sicking heart, as they often haue vsed before in seeking reuengements.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Behold, I wil stretche out my hand ouer the Philistines, & destroy the b Cerethites, and cause al the remnant of the sea coast to perish:

b Which were certaine garisons of Philistines, whereby they oft molested the Iewes, Of the Cerethites Dauid also had a garde, 2 Sam. 8.

17 A great vengeance will I take vpon them, with punishments of my wrath, that they may know that I am the Lord, when I shall lay my vengeance vpon them.

The xxvi. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth that Tyrus shalbe ouerthrown, because it reioyced at the destruction of Hierusalem.

1 AND it came to passe in the eleuenth yeere, the first day of the moneth, the worde of the Lorde came vnto mee, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, because that Tyre hath spoken vpon Hierusalem, Ha, ha, the gates of the people is broken, it is turned vnto me, for now that the is destroyed I shall be c filled:

c The trafficke of marchandise that was vsed in Hierusalem, shall be turned to me againe.

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, O Tyre, I will vpon thee, I will raise vp many nations against thee, like as when the sea ariseth with his waues.

c My riches and fame shall encrease: thus the wicked reioyce at their fall by whom they may haue any profite or aduantage.

4 They shall breake the walles of Tyre, & cast downe her towres, I wil scrape her dust from her, and make her a drie rocke.

5 She shalbe for a spreading of nettes in the sea, for I haue spoken it, saith the Lorde God, and she shalbe for a spoyle to the nations.

6 Her d daughters that are in the fielde shalbe slayne with the swoyde, that they may knowe how that I am the Lord.

d Meaning, the small townes & villages that were in the countrey or territory of Tyrus.

7 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will bring vpon Tyrus Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon frō the North, a king of kings, with horses, charets, horsemen, with a multitude, and much people.

8 The daughters that are in the field shal he slay with the swoyde: but against thee he shall make bulwarkes, and cast a mount against thee, and lift vp his speare against thee.

9 He shall set engins of warre before him against thy walles, and with his weapons breake downe thy towres.

10 The dust of his horses shall couer thee they shalbe so many, thy walles shall shake at the noyse of the horsemē, wheeles, and charets, when he shal enter into thy gates, as into the entrie of a citie broken downe.

11 With the hoofes of his horses shall he treade downe all thy streetes, he shal slay the people with the swoyde, and the pillars of thy strength shall fall downe to the ground.

12 They shal robbe thy riches, and spoyle thy marchandize, thy walles shall they breake downe, and destroy thy houses of pleasure, thy stones, thy timber, and dust shal they cast into the middes of the water.

13 * Thus will I cause the sound of thy songs to cease, and the noise of thy harps shall no more be heard.

Iere. 7. 34.

14 I wil bring thee into a drie rocke, thou shalt be for a spreading of nettes, thou shalt neuer bee built againe: for euen I the Lord haue spoken it, saith the Lorde God.

15 Thus hath the Lorde God spoken concerning Tyre, Shall not the Iles tremble at the noyse of thy fall, and at the crye of the wounded, when they shalbe slayne and murdered in the middest of thee?

16 All princes of the e sea shal come downe from their thrones, they shall lay away their robes, and put off their imbroidered garments, yea, with trembling shal they be clothed, they shal sit upon the ground, they shalbe astonished at euery moment, and be amazed at thee.

17 They shal mourne for thee, and say vnto thee, Howe art thou destroyed that wast inhabited of the [e] seas, the renowmed citie which was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which caused their feare to be on al þ haunted therein!

18 Nowe shall the inhabiters of the Iles bee astonished in the day of thy fall: yea, the Iles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord God, When I make thee a desolate citie, as other cities be that no man dwel in, and when I bring vp the deepe vpon thee, that great waters may couer thee:

20 Then will I cast thee downe vnto the that descend into the pit, vnto a people of [g] olde time, and set thee in a lande that is beneath, like the olde ruines, with them which goe downe to the graue, so that no man shall dwell moze in thee: but I wil reserue honour for the [h] land of þ liuing.

21 I will make thee terrours, and thou shalt be no moze: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou not be found for euermoze, saith the Lord God.

The xxvii. Chapter.

The Prophet is moued to bewayle the desolation of Tyrus.

1 The woꝛde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 O thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentable complaint vpon Tyre,

3 And say vnto Tyre that is situate at the entrie of the sea, which is the mart of the people for many Iles, Thus saith the Lord God, O Tyre, thou hast sayde, I am of perfect beautie.

4 Thy boyders are in the middes of the seas, thy builders haue made perfect thy beautie.

5 They haue made all thy shippe boardes of Fyrre trees of [a] Shenir, from Libanus haue they taken Cedar trees to make thee maste:

6 And the Okes of Bazan to make thée Oꝛes, they of Assyria haue made thy benches of Iuozie, brought out of þ Iles [b] Chittim.

7 Fine linen with imbroidered woꝛke out of Egypt was spredde ouer thee to bee thy sayle: blue silke & purple out of the Iles of Elishah was thy couering.

8 The inhabiters of Sidon and Arnad were thy mariners: and thy wise men, O Tyre, that were in thee, were the shipmasters.

9 The ancient and wisemen of Gebal were in thee thy [c] stoppers of chinkes: all shippes of the sea with their shippemen were in thee to occupie thy marchandise.

10 The Perses, Lydians, and Phutens, were in thy armies thy men of warre: these hanged vp their shieldes and helmets in thee, these set forth thyne honour.

11 They of Arnad were with thine hoste rounde about thy walles, & the [d] Pigmeians were thy watchmen vpon thy towres: these hanged vp their ‡quiuers round about thy walles, they made thy beautie perfect.

12 They of Tharsis were thy marchants for the multitude of all riches, in siluer, yron, tynne, & lead, which they brought to thy fayres.

13 Iauan, Tubal, and Meschech were thy marchantes concerning the [e] lines of men, and they brought vessels of brasse for thy marchandize.

14 They of þ house of Thogarma brought vnto thee, at the time of thy mart, horses, courlers, and mules.

15 They of Dedan were thy marchants, and many Iles the marchandize of thy hands, and brought thee [f] hornes, teeth, and [g] Hebenus, for presents.

16 They of Aram were thy marchants for the multitude of thy woꝛkes, and occupied in thy faires with Emeraldes, purple, imbroidered woꝛke, fine linen, coꝛrall, & pearle.

17 Iuda and the land of Israel occupyed with thee, and brought vnto thy markets wheate of [h] Minneth and Pannag, honie, oyle, and tryacle.

18 Damascus also vsed marchandize with thee, in the wine of Helbon, and white wool, because thine occupying was so great, and thy wares so many.

19 Dan, Iauan, & ‡Meusal haue brought vnto thy markets wrought yron: Cassia & Calamus were among thy marchandize.

20 They of Dedan were thy marchantes in pꝛecious clothes for chariots.

21 Arabia and all the princes of Cedar haue occupied with thee, in wethers, rammes, and goates: in these were they thy marchants.

22 The marchantes of Seba and Rema haue occupied also with thee in all chiefe spices, in all pꝛecious stones and golde, which they brought vnto thy markets.

23 Haran, Chenne, and Eden the marchants of Seba, Assyria and Chelmad, were doers with thee.

24 These were thy marchantes in all sorts of thinges, in rayment of blewe silke, and of broydred woꝛke, and in Cofers for ꝓ riche apparell, which were trussed with coꝛdes, and ‖Cedar boarde among thy marchandize.

25 The shippes of Tharsis were þ chiefe of thine occupying: thus thou wast replenished and in great woꝛship, euen in the middes of the sea.

26 Thy ‖rowers haue brought thee into great waters, the East winde hath broken thee in the middes of the sea.

The xxviii. Chapter.

The woorde of God agaynst the king of Tyrus for his pride.

1 THe word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, Tel the prince of Tyre, Thus sayth the Lord God, Because thou hast a proude heart, and hast sayde, I am a a God, I sit in the seate of God, in the middest of the sea: whereas thou art but a man, and not God, b though thou set thine heart, as the heart of God.

3 Beholde, thou thinkest thy selfe wiser then c Daniel, that there is no secrets hid from thee.

4 With thy great wisdome and thine vnderstanding thou hast gotten thee great wealthinesse, and gatherest treasures of siluer and gold.

5 With thy great wisedome and occupying hast thou encreased thy ‖ power, and because of thy great riches thy heart is proude.

6 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God, For so much as thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God:

7 Beholde, I will bring strangers vpon thee, euen the terrible nations, these shall draw out their swordes vpon the beautie of thy wisedome, and shall defile thy glorie.

8 They shall cast thee downe to the pit, so that thou shalt die the death of them that be slayne in the middest of the sea.

9 Wilt thou say then before them that slay thee, I am a God? whereas thou art but a man, & not God, in the handes of them that slay thee.

10 Die shalt thou the death of the d vncircumcised in the hands of the strangers: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 Moreouer, the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

12 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon the king of Tyre, and tell him, Thus sayth the Lorde God, Thou sealest vp the summe, e full of wisedome and perfite beautie.

13 Thou hast bene in the pleasant garden of God, thou art dect with all maner of precious stones, with Rubie, Topas, Diamonde, Turkeis, Onyx, Jasper, Saphyr, Emeralde, Carbuncle, and golde: the workemanshippe of thy Tymbrels, and of thy pypes that bee in thee, was prepared in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art an f anopnted Cherub that couereth, and I haue set thee in this dignitie, thou wast vpon the holy mount of God, thou hast walked in the middes of the stones of fire.

15 From the time of thy creation thou hast bene perfite in thy wayes, till wickednesse was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy marchandize they haue filled the middes of thee with cruelte, and thou hast sinned: I will cast thee as prophane out of the mount of God, and I will destroy thee, O couering Cherub, from the middes of the stones of fire.

17 Thy heart was proude in thy beautie, and through thy brightnesse thou hast destroyed thy wisedome: I will cast thee downe to the grounde, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy h sanctification with the great wickednesse of thine vnrighteous occupying: I wil bring a fire from the middest of thee, to consume thee, and will make thee to ashes vpon the earth, in the sight of all them that looke vpon thee.

19 All they that haue bene acquainted with thee among the heathen, shalbe astalbed at thee: thou hast bene a terrour, and neuer shalt thou be any more.

20 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

21 Thou sonne of man, set thy face against Sidon, and prophecie vpon it,

22 And speake, Thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, O Sidon, I will vpon thee, and I will be glorified in the middest of thee: that it may be knowen howe that I am the Lorde, when I shall haue executed iudgements in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

25 Thus sayth the Lord God, when I gather the household of Israel together againe from the nations among whome they be scattered, then shal I be sanctified in them in the sight of the Gentiles, and they shall dwell in the lande that I gaue to my seruant Iacob.

The xxix. Chapter.

He prophecieth against Pharao, & of the desolation of Egypt, with the sharkling abroad of the Egyptians.

1 IN the a tenth yeere, vpon the twelfth day of the tenth moneth, the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face against Pharao the king of Egypt, prophecie against him, and against the whole lande of Egypt.

3 Speake and tell him, Thus sayeth the Lorde God, Beholde, O Pharao, thou king of Egypt, I will vpon thee thou great Dragon, b that lieth in the mids of his riuers, thou that sayest, The riuer is mine, I haue made it for my selfe.

4 I will put c hookes in thy chawes, and hang thy fish in thy riuers vpon thy skales: after that, I will drawe thee out of the middes of thy riuers, yea, and all the fish of thy riuers shall hang vpon thy skales.

5 I will leaue thee [illegible] in the wildernesse both thee and all the fish of thy riuers: thou shalt fall vpon the open field, thou shalt not bee brought together, nor gathered: I haue giuen thee for meate to the beasts of the fielde, and to the foules of the ‖aire.

6 That all they which dwell in Egypt, may know that I am the Lorde, because they haue bene a staffe of reede to the house of Israel.

7 When they tooke hold of thee with their hand, thou brakest & rent all their shoulder: and when they leaned vpon thee, thou brakest and madest all their loynes to stand vpright.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will bring a sworde vpon thee, & destroy out of thee both man and beast.

9 Yea, the land of Egypt shalbe desolate and waste, and they shall know that I am the Lord, because he saide, The riuer is mine, I my selfe haue made it.

10 Behold therefore, I will vpon thee, and vpon thy riuers, I will make the land of Egypt vtterly waste and desolate, from the towre of Seueneh, vnto the borders of Ethiopia.

11 No foote of man shall passe by it, nor foote of beast shall passe by it, neither shal it be inhabited fourtie yeeres.

12 I will make the lande of Egypt to bee desolate among other waste countreys, and her cities destroyed fourtie yeeres among other destroyed cities: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and strawe them throwe the countreys.

13 Againe thus saith the Lord God, When the fourtie yeeres are expired, I will gather the Egyptians together againe out of the nations among whom they were scattered.

14 And I will bring the captiuitie of Egypt againe, and cause them to returne into the lande of Pathros, the lande of their habitation, and they shall be there a d small kingdome.

15 Yea, it shalbe the smallest among other kingdomes, neither shall it exalt it selfe any more aboue the nations: for I will so minish them, that they shall no more rule the nations.

16 And they shalbe no more vnto the house of Israel a trust, which bringeth their iniquitie to remembrance, when they shall looke after them: and they shall knowe that I am the Lord God.

17 In the e twentie and seuenth yeere, the first day of the first moneth, came the worde of the Lord vnto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon caused his armie to serue a great seruice against Tyre: euery head was made balde, and euery shoulder bare, yet had neither he nor his army any wages for Tyrus for the seruice which he serued against it.

19 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God, Behold, I will giue the land of Egypt vnto Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, that he may take away her multitude, & spoyle her spoyles, and take her pray to pay his host their wages withal.

20 For the ‡worke which he wrought about it, I haue giuen him the land of Egypt, because they wrought for me, saieth the Lord God.

21 In that day I will cause the horne of the house of Israel to bud forth, & I will giue thee the opening of thy mouth in the middes of them: and they shal know that I am the Lord.

The xxx. Chapter.

The destruction of Egypt, and of his cities is bewailed.

the slaine shall fall in Egypt: and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shalbe broken downe.

5 Pea, Ethiopia, Libya, & Lydia, all their common people, and Chub, and all that be confederate vnto them, shall fall with them through the swoꝛd.

6 Thus saieth the Lord, The maintainers of the lande of Egypt shall fall, the pride of her power shall come downe, euen from the towꝛe of [a] Seueneh shall they fall down in it with the swoꝛd, saith the Lord God.

7 Among other desolate countreys they shall bee made desolate, among other waste cities they shalbe wasted.

8 And they shall knowe that I am the Lord, when I haue set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall bee destroyed.

9 In that day shall messengers go foꝛth from me in shippes, to make the careleſſe Moians afraide, and feare shall come vpon them, accoꝛding to the day of Egypt: foꝛ loe, it commeth.

10 Thus saieth the Lord God, I will cause the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hande of Nabuchodonoloꝛ king of Babylon.

11 He, and his people with him, the terrible nations shall bee brought to destroy the lande: they shall drawe out their swoꝛds vpon Egypt, and fill the lande full of slayne men.

15 And I will powꝛe out my wꝛathful indignatiõ vpon Sin þ strength of Egypt, and I will destroy the multitude of No.

18 At Tehaphnees the day shalbe [e] darke, when I breake there þ barres of Egypt, and when the pompe of her power shal cease in her, a cloude shall couer her, and her daughters shall go into captiuitie.

19 Thus will I execute my iudgementes in Egypt, and they shall know how that I am the Lord.

20 And in the [f] eleuenth yeere, vpon the seuenth day of the first moneth, the woꝛd of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

21 Thou sonne of man, I haue [g] broken the arme of Pharao king of Egypt: and loe, it shall not be bound vp to be healed, to put a roller to binde it, to make it strong to hold the swoꝛd.

22 Therefoꝛe thus saieth the Lord God, Beholde, I will vpon Pharao king of Egypt, and breake his arme that was strong, but is broken: and I will cause the swoꝛd to fall out of his hand.

23 As foꝛ the Egyptians, I will scatter them among the nations, and straw them in the lands about.

24 Againe, I will strengthen the arme of the king of Babylon, and giue him my swoꝛd in his hande, but I will breake Pharaos armes, & he shal grone þ groninges of a deadly wounded man before him:

25 Yea, I will strengthen the king of Babylons arme, and the armes of Pharao shall fall downe: and they shall knowe that I am the Lord, when I shall [h] giue my swoꝛd into the hande of the king of Babylon, that he may stretch it out vpõ the land of Egypt.

26 And I will scatter þ Egyptians amõg the nations, & straw the in the lands about: & they shall know þ I am þ Lord.

The xxxi. Chapter.

1 A comparison of the prosperitie of Pharao with the prosperitie of the Assyrians. 10 He prophecieth a like destruction to them both.

1 In the eleuenth yere, þ first day of the third moneth, þ woꝛd of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, and to all his people, Whom art thou [b] like in thy greatneſſe?

3 Beholde, Assur is a Cedar in Libanon, with faire branches, & with thicke shadowing boughes of a high stature, & his top was among the thicke boughes.

4 The waters made him great, and the deepe set him vp on high, with the riuers running round about his plants, and set out her [c] litle riuers vnto all the trees of the fielde.

5 Therefoꝛe was hee higher then all the trees of the fielde, and his boughes were multiplied, and his braches were long, because of the multitude of the waters which the deepe sent out.

6 All foules of the ‖ aire made their nests in his branches, vnder his boughes did all the beastes of the fielde bring foꝛth their yong, and vnder his shadow dwelt all mightie nations.

7 Beautifull was he in his greatneſſe, & in the length of his branches: foꝛ his roote stood beside great waters.

8 No Cedar trée might [d] hide him in the garde of God, there was no fyrre trees like his branches, the Chesnut trees were not like the boughes of him: all the trees in the garden of God might not be compared vnto him in his beautie.

9 I made him faire with the multitude of his branches: insomuch that all the trees in the pleasant garden of God had enuie at him.

10 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God, for so much as he hath lift vp him selfe so high, and hath shot vp his top among the thicke boughes, and his heart is lift vp in his height:

11 I haue therfore delinered him into the handes of the c mightiest amog the heathen: he shall handle him, for in his wickednesse haue I cast him away.

12 And strangers haue destroyed him, enē the terrible nations, and haue left him: vpon the mountaines, and vpon all valleys haue his boughes fallen, and his boughes are d broken vp all the riuers of the land: and all the people of the earth are departed from his shadowe, & haue forsaken him.

13 Vpon his ruine shall all the foules of the || ayre remaine, and all the beastes of the fielde shalbe vpon his branches.

14 So that none of all the trees by the waters shall be exalted in their height, nor shoote vp their toppes among the thicke boughes, neither shall their trees stande in their height, as many of them as drinke water: for they are all deliuered vnto death in the neather partes of the earth, in the middes of the children of men, amōg thē that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saieth the Lord God, In the day when hee went downe to the graue, I caused a lamentation to be made, I e couered the deepe for him, I restrained the floods therof, and the great waters were staied, I caused Libanus to mourne for him, and all the trees of the field fainted.

16 I made the heathen shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: all the excellent trees of Eden, and the best of Libanus, all that f drinke waters, shal be g comforted in the neather parts of the earth.

17 They also went down to hell with him vnto them that be slaine with the sword, which were his arme, and dwelt vnder his shadowe in the midst of the nations.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glorie and in greatnes among the trees of Eden? yet thou shalt bee cast downe with the trees of Eden, vnto þ neather parts of the earth: in the middest of the vncircumcised shalt thou slepe with them that are slayne with the sword: This is Pharao and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

The xxxii. Chapter.

2 The Prophet is commaded to bewaile Pharao king of Egypt. 12 He propheciath that destruction shal come vnto Egypt through the king of Babylon.

1 In the a twelfth yere, the first day of the twelfth moneth, the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon Pharao the king of Egypt, and say vnto him, Thou art b like a Lio of the heathen, & as a Whale fish in the sea: thou dyvest out thy riuers, thou troublest the waters with thy feete, & stampest in their riuers.

3 Thus saieth the Lorde God, I will spreade my nette ouer thee with a great multitude of people, these shal make thee come vp into my nette.

4 For I will leaue thee vpon the lande, & cast thee vpon the open fielde, and I will cause all the foules of þ ayre to remaine vpon thee, and fill all the beastes of the fielde with thee.

5 Thy flesh will I lay vpon the hilles, & fill the valleys with thy d highnesse.

6 I will e water thy nme ouer flowing lande with thy blood, euen to the mountaines, and the riuers shalbe full of thee.

7 When thou art put out, I will couer the heauē, and make his starres dimme: I will spreade a cloude ouer the Sunne, the Moone shall not giue her light.

8 All the lightes of heauen will I make darke for thee: and bring darknesse vpō thy land, saith the Lord.

9 I will stirre vp to anger the hearts of many people, when I bring thy destruction among the heathen, and vpon the countrepes which thou knowest not.

10 Yea, I will make many people amased at thee, and their kings shall be astonished with feare for thee, when I shall make my swoorde to glitter against their faces: and they shall be afrayde at euery moment, euery man for his owne life, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saieth the Lorde God, The king of Babylons swoorde shall come vpon thee:

12 With the swords of the mightie will I smite downe thy multitude: they all shal be terrible nations, and they shal destroy the f pompe of Egypt, and the multitude thereof shall be consumed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts therof from the great waters sides, neither shall the foote of man trouble them any more, nor the hoones of beastes trouble them.

14 Thē will I make their waters g deepe, & cause their riuers to runne like h oyle, saith the Lord.

15 When I make the lande of Egypt desolate, and when the countrey with all that is therein shalbe layde waste, and when I smite all them which dwell in it, then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde.

16 This is the mourning wherwith they shall lament her, The daughters of the nations shall lament her, they shall make the lamentation ouer Egypt, & ouer all the people thereof, saith the Lord.

17 In the twelfth yere, the fifteenth day of the moneth, came þ word of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

21 The m mightie woorthies shall speake to her out of the middest of hell, and to her helpers: they are gone downe and sleepe with the vncircumcised that bee slaine with the swoorde.

22 Assur is there also with all his companie, and their graues rounde about him, which were slaine and fell all with the swoorde:

23 Whose graues are made in the side of the pit, and his multitude are rounde about his graue, to wit, all the slaine and fallen by the swoorde, which cause a feare to be in the land of the liuing.

24 There is Elam also, with all his people round about his graue, which all being slaine and fallen with the swoorde, are gone downe vncircumcised vnder the earth, which neuertheleste sometime brought feare into the land of the liuing: they beare their owne shame, with the other that bee gone downe to the graue.

n They which being aliue, were a terrour to all the world, now being dead, are despised both of the liuing and the dead.

25 They haue made his bed in the middest of the slaine, with all his multitude, their graues are rounde about him: all these vncircumcised slaine by the swoorde, although they caused their feare in the land of the liuing, yet haue they borne their shame with them that goe downe to the pit, they are layd in the middest of them that are slaine.

o That is, the Cappadocians, and Italians, or Spaniards, as Iosephus writeth.

28 Yea, and among the vncircumcised shalt thou be destroyed, and sleepe with them that perished through the swoord.

29 There is Edom with her kings and princes also, which with their strength are layd by them that are slaine with the swoorde: yea among the vncircumcised shall they sleepe, and with them which are gone downe into the pit.

q That is, the kings of Babylon.

30 Moreouer, there bee all the princes of the q North, with all the Sydonians, which are gone downe with the slaine: with their feare and strength they are come to confusion, and lie there vncircumcised among those that bee slaine with the swoorde, and beare their owne shame with them that be gone downe to the pit.

31 Pharao shall see them, and be comforted ouer all his multitude: Pharao and all his army shalbe slaine with the swoord, saith the Lord God.

r Like as the wicked reioyce when they see other partakers of their miseries.

32 For I haue giuen my feare s in the land of the liuing: but Pharao and all his people shalbe laid among the vncircumcised, & among them that be slaine with the swoord, saith the Lord God.

s I will make the Egyptians to feare me, as they haue caused other to feare them.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

He setteth out the office of the gouernours and ministers. 14 He strengtheneth them that despaire, and boldeneth them with the promise of mercie.

1 AGaine the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, speake to the children of thy people, and tell them. When I sende a swoorde vpon a lande, if the people of the lande take a man of their coastes, and set him to bee their t watchman:

t He sheweth that the people ought continually to haue gouernours and teachers, which may haue a care ouer them, and to warne them euer of the dangers which are at hand.

3 If when he seeth the swoord come vpon the land, he shall blowe the trumpet, and warne the people:

4 Then hee that heareth the noyse of the trumpet, and will not be warned, and the swoord come & take him away, his blood shalbe vpon his owne head.

5 For he heard the sound of the trumpet, and would not be warned, therefore his blood be vpon him: but he that receiueth warning, he shall saue his life.

6 Againe, if the watchman see the swoorde come, and blow not the trumpet, so that the people is not warned, if the swoorde come then, and take any man from among them: the same shall be u taken away in his owne sinne, but his blood will I require at the watchmans hand.

u Signifying, that the wicked shall not escape punishment, though the watchman be negligent: but if the watchman blow the trumpet, and then he will not obey, he shal deserue double punishment, Cap. 3.

7 And thou, O sonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt heare the woorde at my mouth, and thou shalt warne them from me.

x Which teacheth that he that receiueth not his charge & watchworde at the Lords mouth, is a spie and not a true watchman.

8 If I say vnto the wicked, Thou wicked, thou shalt surely die: and thou speakest not to admonish the wicked of his way: that wicked man shall die in his owne sinne, but his blood will I require at thy hand.

9 Neuertheleste, if thou warne the wicked of his way to turne from it, and he yet will not be turned from his way: then shal he die in his iniquitie, but thou hast deliuered thy soule.

10 Therefore, O thou sonne of man, speake vnto the house of Israel, yea, say thus, If our offences and sinnes lie vpon vs, & we be consumed in them, y how should we then liue?

y Thus the wicked when they heare of Gods iudgements for their sinnes, dispaire of his mercies, & murmure.

11 Tell them, As truely as I liue, saieth the Lord God, I haue no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but much rather that the wicked turne from his way, and liue: Turne you, turne you from your wicked wayes, for why will ye die, O ye of the house of Israel?

12 Therefore thou sonne of man, tell the children

childzen of thy people, The righteouſneſſe of the righteous ſhall not ſaue him in the day of his iniquitie: againe, The wickednesse of the wicked ſhal not ouerthrow him for it, in the day that hee returneth from his wickednesse: neither ſhall the righteous liue for e it in the day that he ſinned.

e Namely, his righteouſneſſe.

13 If I ſay vnto the righteous, He ſhall ſurely liue, and ſo hee truſt to his owne righteouſneſſe, and doe ſinne: then ſhall his righteouſneſſe bee no more thought vpon, but in his wickednes that he hath done, in it he ſhall die.

14 Againe, if I ſay vnto the wicked, Thou ſhalt ſurely die: and ſo he turne from his ſinnes, and f do the thing that is lawfull and right, f Hereby he condemneth all them of hypocriſie, which pretend to forſake wickednes, and yet declare not themſelues ſuch by their fruites: that is, in obeying Gods commandements, & by godly life, 15 Inſomuch that the ſame wicked man giueth the pledge againe, reſtoreth that he had taken away by robberie, walketh in the commandements of life, and doth none iniquitie: then ſhall he ſurely liue, and not die.

16 None of the ſinnes that he hath committed ſhall be mentioned vnto him: for inſomuch as he doth now the thing that is lawfull and right, he ſhall liue.

17 And yet the childzen of thy people ſay, The way of the Lord is not equall: but their owne way is rather vnequall.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteouſneſſe, and doth the thing that is wicked, he ſhall die therein.

19 But if the wicked turne from his wickednesse, doing the thing that is lawfull and right, he ſhall liue therefore.

g When the Prophet was led away captiue with Ieconias.

20 Yet ye ſay, The way of the Lord is not equall: O ye houſe of Iſrael, I will iudge euery one of you after his wayes.

h I was endued with the ſpirite of prophecie, cap. 8.

21 In the twelfth yeere, the fifth day of the tenth moneth of our g captiuitie, one which was eſcaped out of Hieruſalem came vnto mee, and ſayde, The citie is ſmitten.

i Whereby is ſignified, that the miniſters of God can not ſpeake till God giue them courage, and open their mouthes.

22 Nowe the h hand of the Lord had bene vpon me in the euening afore this man which was eſcaped came vnto mee, and i had opened my mouth, vntill the morning that he came to mee: yea, my mouth was opened, ſo that I was no more dumbe.

23 Then came the word of the Lord vnto me, and ſaid, k Thus the wicked thinke themſelues more worthy to enioy Gods promiſe then the ſaintes of God to whom they were made: and would bind God to be ſubiect to them, though they would not be bound to him.

24 Thou ſonne of man, theſe that dwell in the waſted lande of Iſrael talke and ſay, k Abraham was but one man and he had the lande in poſſeſſion: nowe are we many, and the lande is giuen vs to poſſeſſe alſo.

l As they that are readie ſtil to ſhead blood.

25 And therefore tell them, Thus ſaith the Lord God, In the blood haue yee eaten, your eyes haue ye lift vp to idols, and haue ſhed blood: ſhall yee then haue the land in poſſeſſion?

26 Ye l leane vpon your ſwordes, yee worke abominations, euery one defileth his neighbours wife: and ſhall ye poſſeſſe the land?

27 Say thou thus vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lorde God, As truely as I liue, they that are in the deſolate places ſhall fall by the ſworde, and him that is in the open field, will I giue vnto the beaſtes to be deuoured: and they that bee in the ſtrong holds and dennes ſhall die of the peſtilence.

28 For I will make the lande ſo deſolate and waſte, that the pompe of her ſtrength ſhall ceaſe: the mountaines of Iſrael ſhalbe ſo waſte, that no man ſhall trauaile thereby.

29 Then ſhall they knowe that I am the Lorde, when I make the land deſolate & waſte, becauſe of all their abominations that they haue wrought.

m This declareth that we ought to heare Gods word with ſuch zeale and affection, that we ſhould not onely delight therein to heare it preached, but alſo in all points obey it: elſe we abuſe the word to our owne condemnation, and make of the miniſters as though they were ieſtes to ſerue mens fantaſies.

30 And thou ſonne of man, the childzen of thy people that talke of thee by the waters and in the doores of their houſes, and ſpeake one to another, euery one to his brother, ſaying, Come, I pray you, let vs heare what worde is gone forth from the Lord:

31 They come vnto thee as the people vſeth to come, & my people ſit before thee and heare thy wordes, but they doe not thereafter: for in their mouthes they make a m ieſt of them, and their heart goeth after their couetouſneſſe.

n Or a ſong of paſſime and pleaſure.

32 And lo, thou art vnto them as a n ieſting ſong of one that hath a pleaſant voyce and can ſing well: for they heare thy wordes, but doe them not.

33 When this cometh to paſſe (loe it commeth) then ſhall they knowe that there hath bene a Prophet among them.

The xxxiiii Chapter.

Againſt ſhepheards that deſpiſe the flocke of Chriſt, and ſeeke their owne game.

1 AND the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

2 * Thou ſonne of man, prophecie againſt the ſhepheards of Iſrael, prophecie and ſpeake vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lord God vnto the ſhepheards, Woe bee vnto the a ſhepheards of Iſrael that feede them ſelues: ſhould not the ſhepheards feede the flocke?

* Iere. 23. 1.

a By the ſhepheardes he meaneth the king, the magiſtrates, prieſtes, and prophets.

3 Ye eate vp the fat, ye clothe you with the woll, the beſt fed do ye ſlay: but the flocke doe ye not feede.

4 The weake haue yee not ſtrengthened, the ſicke haue ye not healed, the broken haue yee not bound together, the driuen away haue yee not brought againe, the loſt haue ye not ſought: but with force and crueltie haue ye ruled them.

5 They are ſcattered without a ſhepheard, yea all the beaſts of the fielde b deuoure them, and they goe aſtray.

b For lacke of good gouernors and doctrine they periſh.

6 My ſheepe go wandring vpon all mountaines, and vpon euery high hill, yea my flocke is ſcattered through all the face of the earth, and there is no man that ſeeketh or ſearcheth after them.

7 Therefore, O ye ſhepheards, heare the word of the Lord.

8 As truely as I liue, ſayeth the Lorde God, for as much as my ſheepe are robbed and deuoured of all the wild beaſtes of of the fielde, hauing no shepheardes, and seeing that my shepheardes seeke not my sheepe, but the shepheardes feede themselues, and feede not my sheepe:

9 Therefore heare the worde of the Lord, O ye shepheardes,

10 Thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, I will vpon the shepheardes, and require my sheepe from their handes, and make them ceasse from feeding of the sheepe, yea, the shepheards shall feede themselues no more: for I will [c] deliuer my sheepe out of their mouthes, so that they shall not deuoure them after this.

c By destroying the couetous hirelings, and restoring true shepheardes.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I, euen I will seeke to my sheepe my self, and seeke them out.

12 Like as a shepheardes when hee hath bene among the flocke, seeketh after the sheepe that are scattered abroad: euen so will I seeke after my sheepe, and deliuer them out of all places where they haue bene scattered in the [d] cloudie and darke day.

d In the day of their affliction and miserie: and this promise is to comfort the Church in all dangers.

13 I will bring thē out from the people, and gather thē together out of the landes, I will bring them into their own lande, and feede them vpon the mountaines of Israel by the riuers, and in all the inhabited places of the countrey.

14 I will feede them in right good pastures, and vpon the high mountains of Israel shall their foldes bee: there shall they lye in a good folde, and in a fat pasture shall they feede, euen vpon the mountaines of Israel.

15 I will feede my sheepe, and bring them to their rest, saith the Lord God.

16 Such as be lost, will I seeke: such as are driuen awap, will I bring againe: such as be broken, will I binde vp: such as be weake, wil I make strong: such as be fat and strong, those will I roote out, and feede them with [e] iudgement.

e That is, by putting difference betweene good and bad, & sogiue to either as they deserue, 17 And as for you, O my sheepe, saith the Lord God, I will iudge betweene cattell and cattell, betweene the rammes and the goates.

18 Seemeth it a small thing to you to haue eaten vp the good [f] pasture, and to treade down the residue of your pasture with your feete also? to drinke the deepe waters, and to trouble the rest also with your feete?

f By good pasture and deepe waters is meant the pure word of God, & the administration of iustice, which they did not distribute to the poore till they had corrupted it.

19 Thus my sheepe must be faine to eate thing that yee haue troden downe with your feete, and to drinke it that ye with your feete haue defiled.

20 Therefore, thus saith the Lord God vnto them. Behold, I euen I will iudge betweene the fat cattel & the leane cattell.

21 Forsomuch as with side and shoulder ye haue shoued, and with your hornes haue pushed all the weake, till yee haue scattered them abroade.

22 I will saue my sheepe, so that they shal no more be spoiled, yea, I will iudge betweene cattell and cattell.

Ezec.34.12, &c.10.11.

23 * I will set vp ouer them a shepheard, and he shall feede them, euen my seruant Dauid, he shall feede them, and he shall be their shepheard.

g Meaning Christ, of whom Dauid was a figure, as Ose.3.

24 And I the Lord will be their God, and my seruant Dauid shalbe their prince: euen I the Lord haue spoken it.

25 Moreouer, I will make a couenant of peace with them, and cause euill beastes to ceasse out of the lande: so that they may dwell [h] safely in the wildernesse, & sleepe in the woods.

h This declareth, that vnder Christ the flocke should be truely deliuered from sinne and hell: and so be safely preserued in the Church, where they should neuer perish.

26 And I will set them as a blessing round about my hill, and I will cause raine to come downe in due season, and there shall be raine of blessing.

27 And the tree of the fielde shall yeelde her fruite, and the earth shal giue her increase: they shalbe safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord, when I haue broken the bondes of their yoke, & deliuered them out of the hands of those that serued themselues of them.

28 They shall no more bee spoyled of the heathen, nor deuoured with the beastes of the land: but safely shall they dwell, and no man shall fray them.

29 And I will raise vp for them a [i] plant of renowme, and they shalbe no more [k] clunged with hunger in the land, neither beare the reproch of the heathē any more.

i That is, the rod that shall come out of the roote of Iesai.

k Or, clembd or hunger starued.

30 Thus shall they vnderstande that I the Lord their God am with them, and that they, euen the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord God:

31 * And ye my sheepe, the sheepe of my pasture, are men: and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

Iohn.10.11.

The xxxv. Chapter.

The destruction that shal come on the mount Seir, that is, on the Idumeans, because they troubled the people of the Lorde.

1 MOreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde the mount [a] Seir, prophecie against it, a Where the Idumeans dwelt.

3 And say vnto it, Thus saith the Lorde God, Behold, O thou mount Seir, I will vpon thee, I wil reach out my hand ouer thee, yea, waste and desolate wil I make thee.

4 Thy cities will I lay waste, and thou shalt ye vnderstand, that I am the Lord.

5 For as much as thou bearest an old enmitie, and hast put the children of Israel to flight by the force of the sworde, in the time of their calamitie, when their iniquitie had an ende:

6 Therefore as truely as I liue, saith the Lorde God, I will prepare thee vnto blood, yea, blood shal follow vpon thee, except thou [b] hate blood, euen blood shall persecute thee.

b Except thou repent thy former crueltie.

7 Thus will I make the mount Seir desolate & waste, and cut out from it him that passeth out, and him that returneth:

8 His mountaines will I fill with his slayne men, thy hilles, valleys, and all thy riuers, the slayne with the sworde shall fall in them.

9 I will make thee a perpetuall wildernesse, so that thy cities shal not c returne:
that ye may knowe that I am the Lord.
10 And because thou hast saide, d Both these nations, and both these lands must be mine, and we will haue them in possession, whereas the Lord was there:
11 Therefore as truely as I liue, saith the Lord God, I will euen doe according to thy wrath, & according to thine enuying which thou hast vsed in thy hatred against them: & I will make my selfe f knowen amongst thee when I haue iudged thee.
12 Yea, and thou shalt knowe that I the Lorde haue heard all thy blasphemies, which thou hast spoken against the mountaines of Israel, saying, They are made waste, and giuen vs to deuoure.
13 Thus with your mouthes yee haue made your boastes against me, yea, and multiplyed your wordes against mee, which I haue heard.
14 Thus saieth the Lord God, To the ioy of all the world will I make thee waste.
15 And like as thou wast glad because the heritage of the house of Israel was destroyed, euen so will I doe vnto thee, thou shalt be destroyed, O mount Seir, and all Idumea wholly, and they shall knowe that I am the Lord.

c To wit, to their former e-state. d Meaning, Israel and Iuda.
e As thou hast done cruelly, so shalt thou be cruelly handled.
f Shewing, that when God punisheth the ene-mies, the godly ought to consider that he hath a care ouer the, and so praise his name: and also that the wicked rage, as though there were no God, till they feele his hand to their destruction.

The xxxvi. Chapter.

1 He promiseth to deliuer Israel from the Gentiles.
22 The benefites done vnto the Iewes, are to bee ascribed to the mercie of God, not vnto their deserunges.

1 THou sonne of man, prophecie vnto
the mountains of Israel, & speake, * Heare the worde of the Lorde, O
ye mountaines of Israel.
2 Thus saieth the Lorde God, Because your a enemy hath saide vnto you, Aha, the b high places of the worlde are nowe become ours in possession:
3 Prophecie therefore, and speake, Thus saieth the Lorde God, For because that they haue made you desolate, and swallowed you vp on euery side, that ye might be a possession vnto the residue of the Gentiles, and ye are taken vp in the c lippes and tongues of men, and to the reproche of the people:
4 Therefore heare the worde of the Lorde God, O ye mountaines of Israel, thus saieth the Lord God to the mountaines and hilles, to the riuers and valleys, to the waste and desolate places, and to the cities that are forsaken, which are spoy-led and had in derision on euery side, among the residue of the heathen:
5 Therefore thus saieth the Lorde God,
Surely in the fire of my iealousie haue I spoken against the residue of the Gentiles, and against all Edom, which haue
d appointed my land for their possession, which also reioyced from their whole heart, with a despiteful stomacke, to cast it out for a pray.
6 Prophecie therefore vpon the lande of Israel, and speake vnto the mountaines and hilles, to the riuers and dales, Thus Ezech. 6. 2.

a That is, the Idumeans.
b That is, the hill countreyes of Iuda.
c Ye are made a matter of talke and derision to all the world.
d They appointed with themselues to haue it, and therefore came with Nabuchodonosor against Hierusalem for this purpose.

saieth the Lord God, Beholde, this haue
I spoken in my iealousie & terrible wrath, because ye haue borne the e shame of the heathen:
7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I haue f lift vp my hande, surely the heathen that are about you, shal beare their shame.
8 But you, O mountaines of Israel, yee shall g shoote out your branches, & bring forth your fruite to my people of Israel:
for they are at hand to come.
9 Beholde, I come vnto you, and vnto you will I turne, that yee may be tilled and sowen.
10 I will multiply men vpon you, euen all the house of Israel wholly, the cities shalbe inhabited, and the decayed places shalbe repaired againe.
11 And I will multiplie vpon you man and beast, which shall increase and bring fruite: and I will cause you to dwell after your olde estate, and be better h vnto you then at the beginning: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lord.
12 Yea, I will cause men to walke vpon i you, euen my people Israel, and they shall possesse k thee, and thou shalt bee their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth deprive them of men.
13 Thus saieth the Lorde God, For so much as they say vnto you, Thou art an l eater vp of men, and a waster of thy people:
14 Therefore thou shalt eate no more me, neither destroy thy people any more,
saith the Lord God:
15 Neither will I cause men to heare in thee the shame of the heathen any more:
neither shalt thou beare the reproche of the people any more, nor cause thy folke to fall any more, saith the Lord God.
16 Moreouer, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,
17 O thou sonne of man, when the house of Israel dwelt vpon their own ground, they defiled themselues with their owne wayes and imaginations, so that in my sight their way was like the vncleansnesse of a remooued woman.
18 Wherefore I powred my wrathfull displeasure vpon them, because of the blood that they had shed in the land, and because of their idols wherewith they had defiled it:
19 I scattered them also among the heathen, so that they were strawed about in the lands: according to their wayes, and after their owne inuentions, so did I iudge them.
20 * And when they entred vnto the heathen whither they went, they polluted my holy name, when they said of them,
These are the people of God, and are gone out of his land.
21 Then spared I my holy m name, which the house of Israel had dishonoured among the Gentiles where they came.
22 Therefore tell the house of Israel, haue reproched me, if I had suffered my m And therefore would not suffer my name to be had in contempt, as the heathen would to perish.

Thus

Thus ſaieth the Lorde God, I * doe not this for your ſakes, O houſe of Iſrael, but for my holy names ſake, which ye diſhonoured among the heathen where ye came.

23 Therefore I will halowe my great name againe, * which among the Gentiles is polluted, for ye your ſelues haue diſhonoured it among them: and the Gentiles ſhal knowe that I am the Lord God, when I ſhalbe ſanctified in you before your eyes.

24 As for you, I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you together out of all countreys, and bring you againe into your owne land.

25 Then will I ſprinkle cleane * water vpon you, and ye ſhalbe cleane: yea from all your vncleanneſſe and from all your idoles ſhall I cleanſe you.

26 A newe heart alſo will I giue you, and a newe ſpirit will I put into you: as for that ſtonie heart I will take it out of your fleſh, and giue you a fleſhie heart.

27 I will giue my ſpirit among you, and cauſe you to walke in my commandements, & ye ſhall keepe my iudgements, and doe them.

28 And ſo ye ſhall dwell in the land that I gaue to your fathers: and ye ſhalbe my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will deliuer you from all your vncleanneſſe. I will call for the corne, and will increaſe it, and lay no famine vpon you.

30 I will multiplie the fruites of the trees, and the increaſe of the fielde, ſo that ye ſhall receiue no more reproche of hunger among the heathen.

31 Then ſhall ye remember your owne wicked wayes, and your imaginations which were not good: ſo that ye ſhalbe † irkſome in your owne eyes for your ſinnes and abominations.

32 But I will not doe this for your ſakes, ſaith the Lord God, be ye ſure of it: therefore, O ye houſe of Iſrael, bee aſhamed and confounded of your owne wayes.

33 Moreouer, thus ſaieth the Lorde God, What time as I ſhall cleanſe you from all your iniquities, then will I make the cities to bee inhabited againe, and the places that be decaped, ſhalbe repaired.

34 The deſolate lande that be tilled againe, which afore time lay waſte in the ſight of all them that went by.

35 And they ſhall ſay, This waſte lande was like the garden of Eden: and theſe waſte and deſolate and ruinous cities were ſtrong and inhabited.

36 Then the reſidue of the heathen that lie round about you, ſhall knowe that I the Lord † repaire that was broken downe, & plant againe that ‖ was made waſte: euen I the Lord haue ſpoken it, and will doe it in deede.

37 Thus ſaith the Lorde God, I will yet for this bee ſought of the houſe of Iſrael to doe it for them, I will multiply them as a flocke of men.

38 Like as the holy flocke, and the flocke of Hieruſalē are in the high ſolemne feaſts, ſo ſhall alſo the waſted cities be filled with flockes of men: and they ſhal know that I am the Lorde.

The xxxvii. Chapter.

He prophecieth the bringyng againe of the people being in captiuitie. 16 He ſheweth the vnion of the teenne tribes with the two.

1 THe hand of the Lord was vpon me, and caried me out in the ſpirit of the Lord, and ſet me downe in the midſt of a plaine fielde that was full of a bones.

2 And he led me rounde about by them, and behold, there were very many in the open fielde, and loe, they were very dry.

3 Then ſayd he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, thinkeſt thou theſe bones may liue againe? I answered, O Lorde GOD, thou knoweſt.

4 And he ſaid vnto mee, Propheciе thou vpon theſe bones, and ſpeake vnto them, Ye dry bones, heare the word of the Lorde.

5 Thus ſaieth the Lorde God vnto theſe bones, Behold, I will cauſe breath to enter into you, that ye may liue.

6 I will giue you ſinewes, and make fleſh growe vpon you, & couer you ouer with ſkinne, and ſo giue you breath, that ye may liue, and knowe that I am the Lord.

7 So I prophecied as I was commanded: and as I was propheciyng, there was a noyſe, and loe, a great motion, ſo that the bones came nere together, bone to his bone.

8 Now when I had looked, behold, they had ſinewes, and fleſh grewe vpon them, & aboue they were couered with ſkinne: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then ſayde he vnto mee, Thou ſonne of man, propheſie thou towarde the wind, propheſie and ſpeake to the wind, Thus ſaieth the Lorde God, Come, O thou ‖ breath from the foure windes, and ‖ blowe vpon theſe ſlaine, that they may liue.

10 So I prophecied as he had commanded me: then came the breath into them, and they receiued life, and ſtoode vp vpon their feete, a marueilous great armie.

11 Moreouer, he ſaid vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, theſe bones are the whole houſe of Iſrael: behold, they ſay, Our bones are dried vp, our hope is gone, and wee are cleane cut off.

12 Therefore propheſie thou, and ſpeake vnto them, thus ſaith the Lord God, Behold, I will open your graues, O my people, and cauſe you to come vp out of your ſepulchres, and bring you into the land of Iſrael againe.

13 So ſhall ye knowe that I am the Lord, whē I open your graues, O my people, and bring you b out of your ſepulchres.

14 My ſpirit alſo will I put in you, and ye ſhall liue, I will ſet you againe in your owne land: and ye ſhal know that I the Lord haue ſaid it, and fulfilled it in deede, ſaith the Lord.

a This excludeth from men all diligitie and meane to deſerue any thing by, ſeeing that God referreth the whole to himſelfe, and that onely for the glory of his name, Rom. 3. 24.

a By this viſion he propheciеth that the people of Iſrael ſhall be deliuered, whom he compareth to bones of dead men: for as drie bones ſeeme without al hope of life againe, ſo the Iſraelites thought they ſhould neuer returne into their countrey, as appeareth by their wordes in the 11. verſe, Our bones are dried vp, our hope is gone, &c.

b That is, when I bring you out of theſe places and townes where we are captiues.

b Vnder the abundance of temporall benefites, he concludeth the ſpirituall graces.

q Yeſhal come to true repentance, & thinke your ſelues vnworthy to be of the number of Gods creatures, for your ingratitude againſt him.

19 Then giue them this answere, Thus saieth the Lord God, Behold, I will take the d ‖ stocke of Ioseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and of the tribes of Israel his fellowes, and will put them with him, euen with the stocke of Iuda, and make them one ‖ stocke, and they shalbe one in my hand.

John 10.16.

22 * Yea, I will make one people of them in the land vpon the mountaines of Israel, and one king shalbe king to them all: they shall no more be two peoples, neyther be deuided from hencefoorth into two kingdomes.

23 They shall also defile themselues no more with their idoles and abominations, and all their wicked doings: I will saue them out of all their dwelling places wherein they haue sinned, and will so cleanse them, that they shalbe my people, and I will be their God.

24 * Dauid my seruant shalbe their king, and they all shall haue one shepheard: they shall walke in my iudgements, and my commandements shall they keepe, and fulfill them.

25 They shall dwell in the lande that I gaue vnto Jacob my seruant, wherein your fathers also haue dwelt, yea euen in the same land shall they, their children, and their childrens children dwell for euermore: and my seruant Dauid shalbe their prince for euer.

Psal. 109.4. iohn. 18.34.

26 Moreouer, * I will make a bond of peace with them, which shalbe vnto them an euerlasting couenant: I will settle them also and multiplie them, my sanctuarie will I set among them for euermore.

27 My tabernacle shalbe with them: yea I will be their God, and they shalbe my people.

28 Thus the heathen also shall know that I the Lord doe sanctifie Israel, when my sanctuarie shalbe among them for euermore.

The xxxviii. Chapter.

He prophecieth that Gog and Magog shall come with an appointed host into the land of promise.

1 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 * Thou sonne of man, set thy face against a Gog, the land of Magog, which is the chiefe prince of Meschech and Tubal, and prophecie against him, a Which was a people that came of Magog the sonne of Iapher, Gen. 10. Magog also here signifieth a certaine countrey, so that by these countreys which had the gouernment of Grecia and Italie, he meaneth the principall enemies of the Church, Apo. 20.

Apoc. 20.8.

3 And say, Thus saith the Lorde God, O Gog, thou chiefe prince of Meschech and Tubal, behold, I will vpon thee:

4 And I will ‖ turne thee backe, and put hookes in thy chawes, I will bring thee forth and all thine hoste, both horse and horsemen, al armed with all sortes of armour, a great multitude with speares and shieldes, all handling swordes.

‖ Or, destroy thee.

5 They of b Paras, of Chush, and Phut, with them euen all hauing shieldes and helmets, b The Persians, Ethiopians, and men of Aphrica.

6 Gomer and all his hostes, the house of Togarmia out of the North quarters & all his hostes, yea, and much people with thee.

7 Therefore prepare thee, set thy selfe in arap with all the people that are come vnto thee by heapes, and be thou their defence.

8 After many daies thou shalt be visited, and in the latter yeres thou shalt come into the land that hath bene turned and rost with the swoorde, and gathered together againe out of many people vpon the mountaines of Israel, which haue bene alwayes subiect to waste: but it is brought out of the people, and they dwel all safe.

9 Thou shalt ascende and come vp like a storme, as a cloude to couer the land shalt thou be: thou with all thine hostes, and a great multitude of people with thee.

10 Moreouer, thus saieth the Lorde God, At the same time shall things come into thy minde, so that thou shalt thinke e euil thoughtes, e That is, to molest and destroy the Church.

11 And say, I will vp to the land of d vnwalled villages, I will goe to them that be at rest, which dwell safely, all dwelling without walles, they haue neither barres nor gates:

d Meaning, Israel which had bene destroyed, and was not yet built again, declaring hereby also the simplicitie of the godly, who seeke not so much to fortifie themselues by outward force, as to depend on the prouidence and goodnes of God.

12 To spoyle the pray, and to take a bootie, to turne thy hand vpon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and vpon that people that is gathered together from among the heathen, which haue gotten cattel and goods, and dwel in the middes of the land.

13 Then shall Saba and Dedan, and the marchants of Tharsis with all their lions, say vnto thee, e Art thou come to spoyle a pray? hast thou gathered thy people together to take a bootie, to take away siluer and golde, to carrie away cattell and good, & to haue a great pray?

e One enemie shall enuie another, because euery one shall thinke to haue the spoile of the people of God.

14 Therefore, O thou sonne of man, thou shalt prophecie and say vnto Gog, Thus saieth the Lorde God, In that day when my f Shalt not thou espie thine occasions to come against the Church, when they suspect nothing?

g Meaning, in the last age, and from the coming of Christ vnto the ende of the worlde.

h Signifying, that God will be sanctified by maintening his Church and destroying his enemies, as Chap. 36. and 37.

Mat. 24. 29. Luke 21. 26.

i All meanes whereby man should thinke to saue himselfe, shall faile, the afflictions in those dayes shall be so great, and the enemies destruction shall be so terrible.

k Against the people of Gog and Magog.

imp people Israel / dwelleth safe, shalt thou not knowe it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the North parts, thou and much people with thee, which ride all vpon horses, euen a great multitude and a mightie armie.

16 Yea, thou shalt come vpon my people of Israel, as a cloude to couer the lande: this shall come to passe in the g latter dayes, and I will bring thee vp into my land, that the heathen may knowe mee, when I shalbe h sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God, Art thou not he of whome I haue spoken in olde time by the hands of my seruantes the Prophets of Israel, which prophecied in those dayes and yeeres that I should bring thee vpon them?

18 At the same time when Gog commeth vp into the lande of Israel, saieth the Lord God, shall mine indignation rise in my wrath:

19 For in my iealousie and fire of my wrath haue I spoken it, surely at that time there shalbe a great shaking in the lande of Israel.

20 *The very fishes in the Sea, the foules in the aire, the beastes of the fielde, and all that moue and creepe vpon the earth, and all the men that are vpon the earth, shal tremble at my presence, the hilles also shalbe turned vpside downe, the staires shall fall, and all walles shall fall downe to the ground.

21 I will call for a sword vpon k him in all my mountaines, saieth the Lord God: so that euery mans sworde shalbe vpon another.

22 With pestilence and blood will I pleade against him: I will raine an haile stones, fire and brimstone will I cause to raine vpon him and all his hostes, yea, and vpon all that great people that is with him.

23 Thus will I be magnified, sanctified, and knowen in the eyes of many nations: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

The xxxix. Chapter.

1 He sheweth the destruction of Gog and Magog.
13 The graue of Gog and his hoste.

1 THerefore, O thou sonne of man, prophecie against Gog, and speake, Thus saieth the Lord God, Beholde, O Gog, thou chiefe prince of Meiech and Tubal, I will vpon thee.

2 And I will turne thee about, and a I will a prouoke thee forward, and cause thee to come vp from the North partes, and bring thee vp to the mountaines of Israel.

3 And as for thy bowe, I will smite it out of thy left hand, and cause thine arrowes to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou with all thine host, and all the people that is with thee, shall fall vpon the mountaines of Israel: then will I giue thee vnto the b flockes of birdes, euen to all feathered foules and beastes of the fielde, to be deuoured.

5 Thou shalt fall vpon the open fielde: for I haue spoken it, saieth the Lorde God.

6 Into Magog, and among those that sitte so carelesse in the Iles will I send a fire, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 I will make also the name of my holinesse to be knowen among my people of Israel, and I will not let the pollute my holy name any more: but the very heathen also shall knowe that I am the Lord, the holy one of Israel.

8 Beholde, it is c come, and it is done, saith the Lorde God: this is the day whereof I haue spoken.

9 They that dwell in the cities of Israel, shall goe forth, and d set fire vpon the weapons, and burne them, shieldes and speares, bowes and arrowes, handestaues, and swordes, and they shal burne them with fire seuen yeere.

10 So that they shall eis bring no wood from the fielde, neither hewe downe any out of the wood: for with weapons shall they make their fire. they shall rob those that robbed them, and spoyle those that spoyled them, saith the Lord God.

11 At the same time will I giue vnto Gog a place to bee buried in Israel, euen the valley where through men goe towarde the East sea: those that trauaile thereby, shal stoppe their noses: there shal Gog and all his multitude be burped: and it shalbe called the valley of the multitudes of Gog.

12 Seuen moneths long shal the house of Israel be burying of the, that they may cleanse the lande.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shal burie them, and they shall haue a name when I shalbe glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 They shall choose out men to goe continually thorough the lande, to burp as they passe thorow those that remaine vpon the grounde, to cleanse it: after the ende of seuen moneths shall they make their search.

15 And the trauailers that passe thorowe the lande, where they see a mans bone, they shall set vp a token by it, til the dead buriers haue buried it also in the valley of the multitude of Gog.

16 And the name of the citie shalbe called f Hamonah: thus shall they make the land cleane.

17 And thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lorde God, Speake vnto all feathered foules, yea, and to all the beastes of the fielde, Assemble you together, and come gather you round about to my h sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, euen a great sacrifice vpon the mountaines of Israel, that yee may eate flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eate the flesh of the valiant, and drinke the blood of the princes of the lande, of the rammes of the wethers, of [Or, I will strike thee with sixe plagues.

[Or, I will leaue but the sixth part of thee.

a That is, I will encourage thee with clapping & stroking, as men doe horses when they will encourage them.

b Hereby he signifieth that which is wont to befall in warre: that the bodies of the slaine should be vnburied, c That is, this plagne is fully determined in my counsell, and cannot be changed.

d After this destruction shall be such peace and tranquillitie, that they shall neede no weapons of warre, but burne them all with fire.

[Or, Iaueling.

e For the stinke of the carkeises shall lie slaine there vnburied.

[Or, Hamon-Gog.

f Partly that the holy land should not be polluted, and partly for the compassion which the children of God haue euen vpon their enemies.

[Or, Hamon-Gog.

g So called, for the multitude of the people of Gog that should be slaine there.

h As solemne sacrifices were common feastes to great multitudes of people assembled, so was this slaughter as a great sacrifice and feast for all birdes and beastes to the goates, and of the bullockes, that bee all fedde at Basan.

19 Ye shal eate my fat pour belly full, and drinke blood til ye be drunken of my sacrifice, which I haue sacrificed for you.

20 Yee shall fill you at my table with horses, and ‖horsemen, with the valiant, and men of warre, saith the Lorde God.

‖ Or, chariots.

21 I wil set my glory also among the Gentiles, that all the heathen may see my iudgement that I haue executed, and my hand which I haue layde vpon the.

22 And the house of Israel shal know that I am the Lord their God, frō that day, and so forward.

23 And the heathen shall know þ wheras the house of Israel was led into captiuitie, it was for their wickednes sake, because they offended mee: for the which cause I hid my face from them, and deliuered them into the handes of their enemies, that they might all bee slaine with the sword.

i The heathen shall know that they ouercame not my people by their owne strength, neither yet by the weakenesse of mine arme, but that this was for my peoples sinnes.

24 According to their vncleannesse, and according to their transgressions haue I done vnto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Nowe wil I bring againe the captiues of Iacob, and haue mercy vpon þ whole house of Israel, and be ielous for my holy names sake,

26 After that they haue borne their shame, and all their transgression, whereby they haue transgressed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and no man to feare them:

27 And when I haue brought them againe from among the people when I haue gathered them together out of their enemies lands, and am sanctified in thē in the sight of many nations:

28 Then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde their God, which caused them to be led into captiuitie among the heathen, but haue gathered them againe into their owne land, and not left one of them any more there.

29 After that I will hide my face no more from them, but will powre out my spirit vpon the house of Israel, saith þ Lord God.

The xl. Chapter.

The restoring of the citie, and of the temple that was to come, is shewed vnto the Prophet.

a The Iewes counted the beginning of the yeere after two sortes: for feasts, they began to count in March: and for their other affaires, in September, so that this is to be vnderstand of September.

b Which was an angell in forme of a man, that came to measure out this building.

1 IN the fiue and twentieth yeere of our captiuitie, in the a beginning of þ yere, the tenth day of the moneth, that is, the foureteenth yeere after the citie was smitten, the self same day came the hand of the Lord vpon mee, and brought me thither:

2 Euen into the land of Israel brought he me in the visions of God, & set me downe vpon a marueilous high mountaine, whereupon there was as it had bene þ buylding of a citie toward the South.

3 Thither he caried me, and beholde, there was a b man, whose similitude was like brasse, which had a twisted line of flaxe in his hande, and a cane to measure with: and he stoode in the doore.

4 And that man said vnto me, Thou sōne of man, marke well with thine ᶜ eyes, hearken to with thine eares, & fasten it in thy heart whatsoeuer I shal shewe thee: for to the intent that they may bee shewed thee, therefore art thou brought hither, and whatsoeuer thou seest, thou shalt certifie the house of Israel thereof.

c By this and like Hebrue phraises, he exhorted him to behold, and marke diligently as a thing worth noting.

5 Beholde, there was a wall on the d outside of the house round about: the cane to measure with, that he had in his hād, was sixe cubites long by the e cubite, and a hād breadth: So he measured þ breadth of the buylding with one cane, and the height with one cane.

d Which compassed þ whole hill of Sion, in the top whereof the temple was builded.

e The cubite which he speaketh of, was longer then the common cubite by a hand breadth, that is, foure inches, and it was called the holy cubite: the common cubite conteined but fiue hand breadths, and this sixe, reade chap. 43.

6 Then came he to the gate which looketh toward the East, and went vp þ staires therof, and measured the poste of the gate one cane broad, and the other post of the gate one cane broade.

7 And euery chamber was one cane long, & one cane broad, and betweene the chābers, were fiue cubites and the post of þ gate by the porch of þ gate within, was one cane.

8 Yee measured also the porche of þ gate within with one cane.

9 Then measured hee þ porche of the gate eight cubites: and the ‖ pentises thereof two cubites, and the porche of the gate was inward.

‖ Or, fronts.

10 And the chambers of the gate Eastwarde, were three on this side, and three on that side: they three were of one measure, and the pentises had one measure on this side, and one measure on that side.

11 After this hee measured the breadth of the entre of the gate tenne cubites, and the height of the gate thirteene cubites.

12 The space also before the chambers, was one cubite on this side, and the space one cubite on that side: & the chambers, sixe cubites on this side, and sixe cubites on that side.

13 Yee measured the gate from the roofe of a chamber to his own roofe, þ breadth of fiue and twenty cubites, doore against doore.

14 Ye made ‖ frontes also of threescore cubites, euen vnto the front of the court rounde about the gate.

‖ Or, pentises.

15 And from the forefront of the entrie of the gate, vnto the forefront of the gate within were fiftie cubites.

16 And there were narrowe windowes in the chambers, and the frontes within the gate round about, and so in the arches: and the windowes were round about within, and vpon the fronts were Palme trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, whereas were chambers, and a pauement made for the court round about: thirtie chambers were vpon the pauement.

18 And the pauement was by the side of the the gates ouer against the length of the gates: and the pauement was beneath.

19 Then hee measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate without, vnto the forefront of the court within, a hundred cubites Eastward and Northward.

20 And the gate in the outwarde court that looked toward the North, measured hee after the length and breadth thereof.

21 And the chambers thereof were three on this side, and three on that side: and the frontes thereof, and the arches thereof were after the measure of the [f] first gate: the length thereof was fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

[f] That is, the East gate, as appeareth in the 6 verse.

22 And their windowes, and their arches, with their Palme trees were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the East: and the going vp vnto it had seuen steppes, and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court stoode ouer against the gate toward the North and toward the East, and he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubites.

24 After that, he brought mée toward the South, where there stoode a gate toward the South, and he measured the frontes thereof and the arches thereof according to those measures.

25 And there were windowes in it, and in the arches thereof rounde about like these windowes: the length was fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

26 And there were seuen steppes at the going vp to it, and the arches thereof before them: and it had palme trees, one on this side, and another on that side, vpon the front thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the South, and he measured frō gate to gate towarde the South a hundred cubites.

28 So he brought me into the inner court thorowe the South gate, and he measured the South gate according to those measures.

29 And the chambers thereof, the frontes thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures, and windowes in it: and in the arches thereof rounde about, fiftie cubites long, and fiue & twentie cubites broad.

30 And the arches round about were fiue and twentie cubites long, and fiue cubites broad.

31 And the arches thereof were towarde the vtter court, and palme trees vpon the frontes thereof, and the going vp to it had eight steppes.

32 Yee brought mee also into the inmost court toward the East, and measured the gate according to those measures.

33 And the chambers thereof, and fronts thereof, and the arches thereof were according to those measures, and there were windowes therein, and in the arches thereof round about, it was fiftie cubites long, and fiue and twentie cubites broad.

34 And the arches thereof were towarde the vtter court, and palme trees vpon the frontes thereof on this side, and on that side, and the going vp to it had eight steppes.

35 And he brought me to the North gate, and measured it according to those measures.

36 The chābers thereof, the frontes thereof, and the arches thereof, and there were windowes therein round about: and the length was fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

37 And the frontes thereof were towarde the vtter court, and palme trees were vpon the fronts thereof on this side and on that side, and the going vp to it had eight steppes.

38 And a chamber and the entrie thereof was vnder the frontes of the gates, there they washed the [g] burnt offerings.

[g] That is, the inwards or entrals of the sacrifice that was offered for a burnt offering.

39 And in the porche of the gate stoode two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, vpon the which they slue the burnt offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespasse offering.

40 And at the side without the steppes, at the entrie of the North gate stoode two tables, and on the other side which was at the porche of the gate were two tables.

41 Foure tables were on this side, and foure on that side, by the side of the gate, euen eight tables, whereupon they slue their sacrifices.

42 And the foure tables were of hewen stone for the burnt offering, of a cubite and a halfe long, and a cubite and a halfe broade, and one cubite high, whereupon were laide the instrumentes wherewith they slue the burnt offering, and the sacrifice.

43 And within there were ‡ hookes one hand breadth long fastened round about, and vpon the tables was the offering flesh.

‡ Trewes.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inwarde court, which was at the side of þ North gate, and their prospect was toward the South: and one was at the side of the East gate, hauing the prospect towarde the North.

45 And he sayd vnto me, This chamber whose prospect is towarde the South, is for þ priests that haue charge to keepe the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the North, is for the priests that haue charge to keepe the altar: these are the sonnes of Sadoc, which of the sonnes of Leui come neere to the Lorde, to minister vnto him.

47 So he measured the court, which had in length a hundred cubites, and a hundred in breadth, euen foure square: and the altar stoode before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porche of the h house, and measured the porche fiue cubites on this side, and fiue cubites on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this side, and three cubites on that side.

h That is, of the temple.

i From North to South.

49 The i length of the porche was twentie cubites, the breadth eleuen cubites, and by steppes went men vp to it: by the frontes also were pillars, one on this side, and another on that side.

The xli. Chapter.

The disposition and deuice of building against of the temple, and of the other things thereto belonging.

1 After this hee brought mee to the temple, and measured the frontes, fiue cubites broade on the one side, and fiue cubites broade on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 The breadth of the doore was tenne cubites, and the sides of the doore were fiue cubites on the one side, and fiue cubites on the other side, and he measured the length a thereof fourtie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites.

a Of the temple, from this doore to the most holy place.

3 Then went he in and measured the front of the doore two cubites: but the doore it selfe was fiue cubites, and the breadth on the other side of the doore was seuen cubites.

4 He measured the length thereof twentie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites before the temple: and he sayd vnto me, This is the most holy place.

5 He measured also the wall of the house fiue cubites, and the breadth of a chamber foure cubites round about the house on euery side.

‖ Or, three and three foote high.

6 And the chambers were chamber by on chamber, ‖ three and thirtie in order: & they entred the wall which was of the house for the chambers rounde about, that they might bee fastened, and not bee fastened in the wall of the house.

7 There was an enlarging, and a winding about, mounting still vpward to the chambers: for the staire of the house was mounting still vpwarde rounde about the house, therefore the house was larger vpwarde: so they went vp from the lowest chamber to the highest by the middest.

8 And I sawe the house high round about: the foundations of the chambers were a full cane of fiue cubites b by to the arme holes.

b That is, great and of the largest syse.

9 The thicknesse of the wall which was for the chamber without was fiue cubites, and that which remained was the place of the chambers that were within.

10 And betweene the chambers was the wideneſse of twentie cubites rounde about the house on euery side.

11 And the doores of the chambers were toward the ‖ place that remayned, one doore toward the North, and another toward the South: and the breadth of the place that remayned, was fiue cubites round about.

‖ Or, voyde space.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the ende towarde the West was seuentie cubites broade: and the wall of the building was fiue cubites thicke round about, and the length ninetie cubites.

13 So he measured the house, which was a hundred cubites long, and the separate place and the building with the walles, were a hundred cubites long also.

14 The breadth also of the forefront of the house, and of the separate place towarde the East, was a hundred cubites.

15 And hee measured the length of the building ouer against the separate place which was behinde it, and the chambers on the one side, and on the other side, a hundred cubites, with the temple within, and the porches of the court.

16 The doore postes, and the narrowe windowes, and the chambers round about, on three sides ouer against the doore, sieled with wood round about, and from the grounde vp to the windowes: and the windowes themselues were sieled.

17 And from aboue the doore vnto the house within and without, and vpon euery wal round about within and without, tooke he measure.

18 And it was made with c Cherubims and palme trees, so that a Palme tree was betweene a Cherub and Cherub, & euery Cherub had two faces.

c That is, Cherubims and Palme trees were graued and carued in the walles.

19 So that the face of a man was toward the Palme tree on the one side, and the face of a Lion toward the Palme tree on the other side: thus was it made through all the house round about.

20 From the grounde vnto aboue the doore were Cherubims and Palme trees made: and thus was the wall of the temple.

21 The postes of the temple were foure squared, and the fashion of the sanctuarie was d appearance like appearance.

d That is, the doore postes or cheekes of the sanctuary, were like the doore cheekes of the temple.

22 The altar of wood was three cubites high, and two cubites long: the corners, the length, and the walles thereof were of wood. And he sayd vnto me, This is the table that shalbe before the Lord.

23 The temple and the holiest of all had either of them two doores.

24 And the doores had two e doores apiece, euen two folding doores, two for the one doore, and two doores for the other.

e That is, two leaues, one on the one side, and the other on the other side, either of § doores.

25 And vpon the doores of the temple there were made Cherubims, & Palme trees, like as was made vpon § walles: and thicke beames vpon the forefront of the porche without.

26 And there were narrowe windowes and Palme trees on the one side, and on the other side, by the sides of the porche, and vpon the sides of the house, and thicke beames.

The xlii. Chapter.

Of the chambers of the temple for the priestes, and the holy things.

1 Then

1 Then led hee me into the vtter court by the way toward the North, & he brought me into the chamber that was ouer against the separate place, which was before the building towarde the North,

2 Before the length of an hundred cubites was the North doore: and the breadth was fiftie cubites.

3 Ouer against the twentie cubites which were for the inner court, & ouer against the pauement, which was for the vtter court, was chamber against chamber, three orders.

4 And before the chambers there was a walking place of tenne cubites wide inwarde, the way of one cubite: and their doores toward the North.

5 Thus the vpper chambers were alway narrower: for those chambers seemed to eate vp these, to wit, the lower and the middlemer of the building.

6 For they were in three orders, but had no pillars as the pillars of the courtes: therefore were they smaller then the neathermost and the middlemost to recken from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without ouer against the chambers, towarde the vtter court on the forefront of the chambers, the length thereof was fiftie cubites.

8 For the length of the chambers þ were in the vtter court, was fiftie cubites, and loe, before the temple was a hundred cubites.

9 And vnder these chambers was the entrie from the East, as one goeth vnto them from the vtter court.

10 In the thicknesse of the wall of the court toward the East, before the separate place, and before the building of the chambers.

11 And the way before them after the appearance of the chambers which were toward the North: as their length, so was their breadth: and all their entries were according to their fashion, and according to their doores.

12 And according to the doores of the chãbers that were toward the South, was a doore in the head of the way, euen þ way directly before the wall toward þ East as one entreth.

13 Then saide he vnto me, The chambers toward the North, and the chambers toward the South, which are before the separate place, those be holy chambers, wherein the Priestes that [a] approch vnto the Lord must eate þ most holy things, and there must they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering, and sinne offering, and trespasse offering: for it is a holy place.

14 When the priestes come therein, they shall not goe out of the holy place into the vtter court, but there they shall lay vp their garmentes wherein they minister, for they are holy: and shal put on [b] other garments, and so shall approche to those which are for the people.

15 Now when hee had finished the measuring of the house within, hee ledde mee forth toward the gate, whose prospect is toward the East, and hee measured it round about.

16 Hee measured the East side with the measuring cane, fiue hundred canes, euen with the measuring cane round about.

17 And hee measured the North side fiue hundred canes, euen with the measuring cane round about.

18 The South side also measured hee fiue hundred canes, by the measuring cane.

19 He turned about also to the West side, and measured fiue hundred canes, by þ measuring cane.

20 So he measured it by the foure sides: it had a wall round about, fiue hundred canes long, and fiue hundred broade, to make a separation betweene the sanctuarie, and the prophane place.

The xliii. Chapter.

He seeth the glory of God going into the temple, from whence it had before departed.

1 SO he brought me to the gate, euen the gate that turneth toward the East:

2 And behold, then came the glory of the God of Israel from out of the East, whose voyce was like a great noise of waters, and the earth was lightened w his glory.

3 * And according to the appearance of the vision which I sawe, euen according to the vision which I saw when I came to destroy the citie: and the visions were like the visions which I sawe by the river Chebar, and I fell vpon my face.

4 And the [b] glory of the Lord came into þ house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the East.

5 So a [‖] winde tooke me vp, and brought mee into the innerner court: and behold, the house was full of the glory of the Lord.

6 And I heard one speaking vnto me out of the house, and there stoode a man by me.

7 And he saide vnto me, O thou sonne of man, this roome is my seat, and the place of my footesteppes, whereas I will dwel among the children of Israel for euermore, so that the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they nor their kinges throughe their whoredome, and throughe the dead bodies of their [c] kings in their high places.

8 Albeit they haue set their threshholdes by my threshholdes, and their postes by my postes, and a wall betweene me and the: yet haue they defiled my holy name w their abominatiõs that they haue committed: wherefore I haue consumed the in my wrath.

9 But now let the put away their whoredome, and the dead bodies of their kings out of my sight, and I will dwel among them for euermore.

they may bee ashamed of their wickednesse, and measure themselues an example thereat.

11 And if they bee ashamed of all their workes: then shewe them the fourme of the house and paterne thereof, the going out, the comming in, al the maner thereof, yea, all the ordinances thereof, the figures, and all the lawes thereof, & write it in their sight, that they may keepe the whole fashion thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and doe them.

d Description. 12 This is the d lawe of the house: vpon the top of the mount shall all the limites thereof bee, rounde about the most holy place, loe, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the altar in cubites: (a cubite is a cubite & a handbreadth) the bottome shalbe a cubite, and the breadth a cubite, and the borders thereof by the edge thereof round about was one spanne, and this shalbe the height of the altar.

14 And from the bottome vpon the ground, vnto the lower piece, shalbe two cubites, the breadth one cubite: and from the litle piece to the great piece, shalbe foure cubites, and the breadth one cubite.

15 The altar was foure cubites high, and from the altar vpward stood foure hornes.

16 And the Altar was twelue cubites long, and twelue cubites broad, square in the foure corners thereof.

17 The frame of the altar shal be fourteene cubites long, and fourteene broad in the foure square corners therof, and the border about it shalbe halfe a cubite, and the bottome thereof shalbe a cubite about, & the steps thereof shalbe turned towarde the East.

18 And he saide vnto mee, Thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lord God, These are the ordinances of the altar, in the day when it is made, to offer burnt offrings thereupon, and to sprinkle blood thereupon.

19 And thou shalt giue to the Priestes, to the Leuites that be of the seede of Sadoc, and approche vnto mee, saieth the Lorde God, to minister vnto mee, a young bullocke for a sinne offring.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the foure hornes of it, & on the foure corners of the frame, and vpon the border rounde about: thus shalt thou cleanse it, and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullocke also of the sinne offering, and burne him in the appointed place without the sanctuarie.

22 The seconde day, take a goate bucke without blemish for a sinne offering, to cleanse the altar withal, likeas it was cleansed with the bullocke.

23 Now when thou hast made an ende of cleansing it, then offer a yong bullocke without blemish, and a ramme out of the flocke without blemish also.

24 Offer them before the Lord, and let the priests cast salt therupon, and giue them so vnto the Lord for a burnt offering.

25 Seuen dayes shalt thou prepare euery day a goate bucke for sinne, a yong bullocke and a ramme of the flocke, both without blemish shall they prepare.

26 Seuen dayes shall they reconcile and cleanse the altar, and c fill the place therof. c Or, consecrate it.

27 When these dayes are expired, then vpon the eight day, and so forth, the Priests shall make your burnt offrings, and peace offrings vpon the altar: so I will accept you, saith the Lord.

The xliiii. Chapter.

He sheweth what doore of the temple is shut. 6 He is commanded to vpbraide the people with their offence.

1 AFter this he brought me againe to the outwarde gate of the sanctuarie on the East side, and that was shut.

2 Then saide the Lorde vnto mee, This gate shall be still shut, and not opened, neither shall any man goe thorow it: for the Lorde God of Israel hath entred by it, and it shall be shut. a Meaning, from the common people, but not from the priests, nor the prince, chap. 46.

3 It is for the prince, the prince himselfe shal sit in it to eate bread before the Lord: he shall enter by the way of the porche of that gate, and shall goe out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me toward the North gate before the house: and as I looked, beholde, the glory of the Lorde filled the house of the Lorde, and I fell vpon my face.

5 So the Lorde spake vnto mee, O thou sonne of man, set thine heart, and behold with thine eyes, and heare with thine eares, al that I say vnto thee concerning al the ordinaces of the house of the Lord, and all the lawes therof, and marke wel the entring in of the house with euery going forth of the sanctuarie.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, euē to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lorde God, O house of Israel, yee haue ynough of all your abominations,

7 Seeing yee haue brought into my sanctuarie b strangers, hauing vncircumcised hearts, and vncircumcised flesh, to be in my sanctuarie to pollute my house, when ye offer my bread, fatte, and blood, and they haue broken my couenant because of all your abominations. b For they had brought idolaters which were of other countreyes, to teach them their idolatrie, chap. 13.

11 And they shalbe ministers in my sanctuarie, and keepe the gates of the house, and minister in the house: they shall slay the burnt offerings, and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stande before them, to serue them.

12 Because they serued before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquitie: therefore haue I lift vp my hand against them, saieth the Lord God, and they shall beare their iniquitie.

13 And they shall not come neere vnto me to doe the office of a Priest vnto me, neither shall they come neere vnto any of mine holy things in the most holy place: but they shall beare their owne shame and abominations which they haue done.

14 And I will make them keepers of the watch of the house, for all the seruice therof, and for all that shalbe done therein.

15 But the Priests, the Leuites, the sonnes of Sadoc, that f kept the charge of my sanctuarie when the children of Israel straied from mee, shall come to mee, to doe me seruice, to stand before me, and to offer me the fat and the blood, saieth the Lord God.

24 And in controuersie they shall stand to iudge, and giue sentence after my iudgements: and my lawes and my statutes shall they keepe in all my soleinne feasts, and hallow my Sabboths.

25 They shall come at no dead person to defile themselues, but to father or mother, sonne or daughter, brother or sister, that hath not had husbande, in those may they be h defiled.

h They may be at their buriall, which was termed a defiling.

26 And when he is cleansed, there shall bee reckoned vnto him seuen dayes.

27 And when he goeth into the sanctuarie vnto the inner court to minister in the sanctuarie, he shall bring his sinne offering, saith the Lord.

Of iust weights and measures.

1 WHen ye deuide the land by the lot for an inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation to the Lorde, a holy a portion of the lande, twentie and fiue thousand canes long, and ten thousande broad: this shalbe holy in al the borders thereof round about.

a Of all the land of Israel, the Lorde requireth onely this portion, for the temple and for the Priestes, for the citie, and for the prince.

2 Of this part there shall belong vnto the sanctuarie fiue hundred cubites in length with fiue hundred in breadth square round about: and fiftie cubites round about for the suburbes.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure, namely of the length of twentie and fiue thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand, and in it shall be the sanctuarie, and the most holy place.

4 That holy portion of the land shal pertaine vnto the Priests, which do seruice in the sanctuarie, which come neere to serue the Lord: and it shall be vnto them a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuarie.

5 And in the twentie and fiue thousande length, and ten thousand breadth, shal the Leuites that minister in the house haue their possession for twentie chambers.

6 Ye shall giue also vnto the citie a possession of fiue thousand canes broad, and twentie and fiue thousand long, ouer against the oblation of the holy portion that shalbe for the whole house of Israel.

7 And a portion shall be for the prince on this side and on that side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the citie, euen before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the citie, from the West corner Westward, and from the East corner Eastward: and the length shall be by one of the portions, from the West border vnto the East border.

8 In this lande shall be his possession in Israel: and my princes shal no more oppresse my people, and the rest of the lond shall they giue to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

b The prophet sheweth that the heads must be first reformed, afore any good order can be established among ỹ people.

14 Concerning the ordinances of the oyle, euen of the Bath of oyle, ye shall offer the tenth part of a Bath out of the Coy: ten Baths shall bee a Homer, because tenne Baths fill a Homer.

15 And one lambe from two hundred sheepe out of the fat pastures of Israel for a meate offering, whole burnt offering, and peace offring, to reconcile them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shal giue this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 Againe, it shall bee the princes part to offer whole burnt offerings, meate offerings, and wine offerings in the holy dayes, newe Moones, Sabboths, and in all the high feastes of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sinne offering, meate offering, whole burnt offering, and peace offering, to reconcile the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lorde God, The first day of the first e moneth, thou shalt take a pong bullocke without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuarie.

19 So the Priest shall take of the blood of the sinne offering, and put it vpon the postes of the house, and vpon the foure corners of the frame of the altar, and vpon the postes of the gate of the inner court.

20 And thus shalt thou do also the seuenth day of the moneth, for such as haue sinned of ignorance, or being deceiued, to reconcile the house withall.

21 Vpon the fourteenth day of the first moneth ye shall haue the Passeouer, a feast of seuen dayes, and ye shall eate vnleauened bread.

22 Vpon the same day shal the prince prepare for himselfe and al the people of the land, a bullocke for a sinne offering.

23 And in the seuen dayes of the feast, he shall make a whole burnt offering to the Lord, euen of seuen bullockes and seuen rammes without blemish, dayly for seuen dayes, and a hee goate daily for a sinne offering.

1 THus saith the Lorde God, The gate of the inner court toward the East, shalbe shut the sixe working dayes: but in the Sabboth, and in the day of the newe Moone it shalbe opened.

2 And the prince shal enter by the way of the porch of the gate without, and shall stande by the poste of the gate: and the Priests shall make his whole burnt offering, and his peace offerings, and hee shal worship at the threshold of the gate, and goe forth: and the gate shall not bee shut vntill the euening.

3 On the same maner shall the people of the land also do their worship before the Lord, at the doore of this gate vpon the Sabboths, and new Moones.

4 The whole burnt offering that the prince shall bring vnto the Lorde vpon the Sabboth, shall be sixe lambes without blemish, and a ramme without blemish.

5 And the meate offering shall bee an Ephah for a ramme, & the meate offering for the lambes a gift of his hand, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

a That is, as much as he will.

6 In the day of the newe moneth, it shall be a pong bullocke without blemish, and sixe lambes, and a ramme also without blemish.

7 With the bullocke hee shall giue an Ephah: and with the ramme an Ephah also for a meate offring: but to the lambs b according as his hand shall take, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

b According to his abilitie.

8 And when the prince shall enter, hee shall goe in by the way of the porche of that gate: he shall goe forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land come before the Lord in the high solemne feast, as many as come in by the North gate to do worship, shall go out againe at the South gate: and they that come in at the South gate, shall goe forth againe at the North gate: there shall none returne by the gate where he came in, but shall goe right forth ouer on the other side.

10 And the prince, he shall go in the mids of them when they goe in, and so come forth when they come forth.

11 Vpon the solemne and high feast dayes this this shalbe the meate offring: an Ephah to a bullocke, & an Ephah to a ramme, & to the lambes the gift of his hand, and a Hin of ople to an Ephah.

12 Nowe when the prince shall make a free whole burnt offering, or peace offerings freely vnto the Lord: one then shal open him the gate that turneth towarde the East, and hee shall make his whole burnt offerings, and his peace offrings, as he did on the Sabboth day: after, hee shall goe forth, & when he is gone forth, one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily make a whole burnt offering vnto the Lord of a Lambe of one yeere without blemish, thou shalt doe it euery morning.

14 Thou shalt prepare a meate offering for it euery morning, the sixth part of an Ephah, and the third part of a Hinne of ople to mingle with the fine floure: this meate offering shalbe continually by a perpetuall ordinance vnto the Lord.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lambe, the meat offering, and ople, euery morning, for a continuall whole burnt offering.

16 Moreouer, thus sayeth the Lord God, if the prince giue a gift vnto any of his sonnes: the inheritance thereof shall bee his sonnes: their possession shall bee by inheritance.

17 But if he giue a gift of his inheritance to one of his seruants, then it shalbe his to the [c] yere of libertie, and then returne to the prince: but the inheritance thereof is his sonnes, and shalbe theirs.

18 The prince also [d] shall take none of the peoples inheritance, nor put them from their possession: but to his sonnes shall he giue his own possession, that my people be not scattered abroade euery man from his possession.

19 And hee brought me thorowe the entrance at the side of the gate to the holy chambers of the Priestes, which stoode towarde the North, and beholde, there was a place vpon the West side of them.

20 Then sayde hee vnto mee, This is the place where the Priests shall seethe the trespasse and sinne offerings, and bake the meate offerings: that they neede not beare them into the outward court, and to [e] sanctifie the people.

21 So he brought me into the vtter court, and caused mee to goe by the foure corners of the court: and beholde, in euery corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the foure corners of the court there were courtes ioyned of fourtie cubites long, and thirtie broade: these foure corners were of one measure.

23 And there went a wall round about them, euen about those foure: and vnder the walles there were ‡ kitchins made round about.

24 Then sayde hee vnto mee, These are the cookes houses, where the ministers of the house shal boyle the sacrifice of the people.

2 Then led he me forth the North gate, and led me about by the way without vnto the vtter gate by the waye that turneth Eastward: and behold, there issued forth waters from the right side.

3 Now when the man that had the line in his hand went forth Eastwarde, hee measured a thousand cubites, and then he brought me thorowe the waters, the waters were to the ancles.

4 So he measured yet a thousande, and brought me thorowe the waters, the waters were to the knees: yet measured he a thousand, and brought me thorowe, the waters were to the lopnes.

5 After this he measured a thousande againe, then was it such a [b] riuer that I might not wade thorowe it, the waters were risen, and the waters did flowe as a riuer that might not be waded ouer.

6 And hee said vnto mee, Hast thou seene this, O thou sonne of man? and with that he brought me, and caused me to returne to the riuer banke againe.

7 Nowe when I returned, behold, at the banke of the riuer were very many trees [c] on the one side and on the other.

8 Then saide he vnto mee, These waters flowe out toward the East countrey, & runne downe into the plaine, & come into the [d] sea: which when it commeth into the sea, the [e] waters shalbe wholsome.

9 Yea, all that line and moue, whereunto this riuer commeth, shall liue: and there shall bee a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither, for they shalbe wholsome: and euery thing shall liue whither the riuer commeth.

10 By this riuer shall the Fishers stand, from Engaddi vnto En-eglaim, & there spread out their nets: for their fish shall bee according to their kindes as fish of the mame sea, exceeding many.

11 But the marishes thereof, and the pits thereof, shall not bee made wholsome, they shalbe made salt pittes.

12 By this riuer, vpon the bankes thereof on this side and on that side, shall growe all trees for meate, whose leaues shall not fade, neither shall the fruite thereof faile, but shall bring forth newe fruit according to his monethes, for the waters thereof runne out of the sanctuarie: and the fruite thereof shalbe for meate, and the leaues thereof for ‖ medicine.

16 Namely, Hamah, Berotha, Sabarim, which are betweene the borders of Damascus, and betweene the borders of Hamah, Hazar, Hatichon, that lieth vpon the coastes of Hauran.

17 Thus the borders from the sea North shalbe Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus, and the North Northwarde, and the borders of Hamah: this is the North part.

18 The East side shall yee measure from Hauran and Damascus, from Gilead & the land of Israel by Iordane, and from the border vnto the East sea: and this is the East part.

The xlviii. Chapter.

1 The lottes of the seuen tribes. 23 The lottes of the other tribes.

1 THese are the names of the tribes: from the North side to the coast toward Hethlon, till thou commest vnto Hamah, and Hazar Enan, the borders of Damascus Northward, p coast of Hamah, Dan shall haue his portion from the East quarter vnto the West.

2 Vpon the borders of Dan, from the East side vnto the West, shall Aser haue his portion.

3 Vpon the borders of Aser, from the East part vnto the West, shall Nephthali haue his portion.

4 Vpon the borders of Nephthali, from the East quarter vnto the West, shall Manasses haue his portion.

5 Vpon the borders of Manasses, from the East side vnto p West, shal Ephraim haue his portion.

6 Vpon the borders of Ephraim, from the East part vnto the West, shall Ruben haue his portion.

7 Vpon the borders of Ruben, from the East quarter vnto the West, shall Iuda haue his portion.

8 Vpon the borders of Iuda, from the East part vnto the West part, shall bee the a offring which they shall offer, of fiue and twentie thousand canes broade, and of length as one of the partes from the East side vnto the West side: and the sanctuarie shalbe in the middest of it.

a That is, the portion of the ground which they shall separate and appoint to the Lord, which shall be deuided into three partes, for the priestes, for the prince, and for the citie.

9 The oblation that yee shall offer vnto the Lord, shalbe fiue and twentie thousand long, and ten thousand broade.

11 This sanctified portion shall bee the Priestes that are of the children of Sadoc, which haue kept my charge, which went not astray in the errour of the children of Israel, like as the Leuites went astray.

12 Therfore this oblation of the land that is offered, shalbe theirs as a thing most holy, hard vpon the borders of the Leuites.

13 And ouer against the border of the Priestes, shall the Leuites haue fiue and twetie thousand long, and ten thousand broade: all the length shall bee fiue and twentie thousande, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 Of this portion they shall sell nothing, nor make any permutation thereof, nor alienate the first fruites of the lande: for it is holy vnto the Lord.

15 And the fiue thousand that are left in the breadth ouer against p fiue & twentie thousand, shalbe a prophane place for the citie, for housing and for suburbes: & the citie shall be in the middes thereof.

16 And these shalbe the measures thereof: The North part fiue hundred and foure thousand, and the South b part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the East part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the West part fiue hundred & foure thousand.

b Meaning, that it should be square.

17 The suburbes of the citie shall haue toward the North two hundred and fiftie, toward the South two hundred & fiftie, toward the East two hundred and fiftie, towarde the West also two hundred and fiftie.

18 And the residue in length ouer against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand towarde the East, and ten thousand toward the West: and it shall be ouer against the oblation of the holy portion, and the increase thereof shall be for their meate that serue the citie.

19 And they that serue the citie, they shall serue it out of all the tribes of Israel.

e Euery way it shall be fiue and twenty thousand.

20 All the oblation shal be fiue and twentie thousand c with fiue & twentie thousand: per shall offer this oblation foure square, for the sanctuary, and for the possession of the citie.

21 And the residue shalbe for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the citie ouer against the fiue and twentie thousande of the oblation towarde the East border, and Westward ouer against the fiue and twentie thousande towarde the West border, ouer against shalbe the portion for the prince: this shalbe ẏ holy oblation, and the house of the sanctuarie shalbe in the middest thereof.

22 Moreouer, from the possession of the Leuites, & the cities possession, that which is in the middest shalbe the princes, betwixt the border of d Juda, and the border of Beniamin shalbe the princes.

d So that Iuda was on ẏ North side of the princes and Leuites portions, and Beniamin on the South side.

23 Now of the other tribes: from the East part vnto the West, shal Beniamin haue his portion.

24 Vpon the borders of Beniamin, from the East side vnto the West, shall Simeō haue his portion.

25 Vpon the borders of Simeon, from the East side vnto the West, shall Issachar haue his portion.

26 Vpon the borders of Issachar, from the East side vnto the West, shall Zabulon haue his portion.

27 Vpon the borders of Zabulon, from the East part vnto the West, shall Gad haue his portion.

28 Vpon the borders of Gad at ẏ South side towarde Temanah, the border shall be from Thamar, vnto the waters of ſtrife to Cades, and to the riuer that runneth into the maine sea.

[Or, Meribath.

29 This is the land which ye shall diuide by lot for an inheritance vnto the tribes of Israel, & these be their portions, saith the Lord God.

30 These be the bounds of the citie, vpon the North part fiue hundred and foure thousand measures.

31 The gates of the citie shall haue the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates of the North side: one gate of Ruben, an other of Juda, the third of Leui.

32 Vpon the East side fiue hundred and foure thousād measures, with three gates: the one of Joseph, another of Beniamin, the third of Dan.

33 Vpon the South side fiue hundred and foure thousand measures, with the three gates: the one of Simeon, another of Issachar, the third of Zabulon.

34 And vpon the West side, fiue hundred and fiue thousand measures, with their three gates also: the one of Gad, another of Aser, the third of Nephthali.

35 Thus shall it haue eighténe thousand measures round about: and the name of the citie frō that time forth shalbe, ‡ The Lord is there.

The ende of the prophecie of Ezechiel.

The Booke of the Prophet Daniel.

The first Chapter.

1 The Prophet sheweth the captiuitie of Jehoakim king of Juda. 4 Of the children that were in captiuitie, the king commandeth to choose which of them should be taught the learning and language of the Chaldeans.

a Reade 2. Kin. 24. 10.

IN the a thirde yéere of the reigne of Jehoakim king of Juda, came Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon vnto Hierusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord deliuered Jehoakim the king of Juda into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he caried awap into the land of b Sennar, to ẏ house of his god, and he brought the vessels into his goddes treasurie.

b Which was a playne by Babylon, where was the temple of the great God, and is here take for Babylon.

3 And the king spake vnto Asphenaz the c chiefe chāberlaine, that he should bring him certaine of the children of Israel, of the kings seede, and of the princes:

c Or, master of the Eunuches.

4 Syngulars without any blemish, but well fauoured, studious in all wisdome, skilful for knowledge, able to vtter knowledge, & such as haue vnderstāding in them, that they d may stād in the kings palace: and whome they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

d As well to ſerue at the tables, as in other offices.

5 Vnto these the king appointed a daily prouision euery day of a portion of the kings meate, and of the wine which hée dranke, so to nourish them three yeeres, that afterward they might stand before the king.

6 Among these now were certaine of the children of Juda, namely, Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias.

7 Vnto these the chiefe Chamberlaine gaue e other names, and called Daniel, Baltassar: Ananias, Sidrach: Misael, Misach: and Azarias, Abednego.

e Either because they would declare their power, as conquerers, to change the names of them they ouercame, or els for hatred of their Hebrue names.

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that hee woulde not defile himselfe with the portion of the kings meate, nor with the wine which he dranke: therefore he required the chiefe Chamberlaine that he might not defile himselfe.

9 (And God brought Daniel into fauour and tender loue with the chiefe Chamberlaine.)

10 And

10 And the chiefe Chamberlains said vnto Daniel, I am afrayed of my lord the king which hath appoynted you your meate and your drinke: wherefore should hee see your faces worse liking then the lyngales of your age, and so ye shall make mee indanger my heade vnto the king.

11 Then Daniel sayde vnto Melallar, whome the chiefe Chamberlaine had set ouer Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias:

12 O proone but ten dayes with thy seruants, and let vs haue pulse to eate, and water to drinke.

13 Then let our countenances bee looked vpon before thee, and the countenances of the children that eate of the portion of the kings meate: and as thou seest, deale with thy seruants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proued them ten dayes.

15 And at the ende of ten dayes their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh then all the children which did eate the portion of the kings meate.

16 Thus Melallar tooke away the portion of their meate, and the wine that they should drinke, and gaue them pulse.

17 As for these foure children, God gaue them knowledge and vnderstanding in all learning and wisedome: also hee gaue Daniel vnderstanding of all visions and dreames.

18 Now when the time was expired that the king had appointed to bring them in, the chiefe Chamberlaine brought them before Nabuchodonosor.

19 And the king communed with them: but among them all were found none such as Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias: therefore stoode they before the king.

20 In all matters of wisedome and vnderstanding that the king enquired of them, hee found them ten times better then all the wise men & soothsayers that were in all his realme.

21 And Daniel abode still vnto the first yeere of king Cyrus.

f Or better liking.

g Meaning, liberal sciences & naturall knowledge, which was vsed where they were conuerſãt.

h So that he onely was a Prophet, and none of the other: for by dreames and visions God appeared to his prophets, num. 12.

k That is, he was esteemed in Babylon as a Prophet, and in authoritie so long as that common wealth stood.

The ii. Chapter.

1 The dreame of Nabuchodonosor. 2 He calleth vnto him soothsayers, and requireth of them both the dreame and the interpretation thereof.

1 IN the seconde yeere of the reigne of Nabuchodonosor, had Nabuchodonosor a dreame, wherethrough his spirit was troubled, and his sléepe brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded to call the wise men, and soothsayers, & sorcerers, and the Chaldees, for to shewe the king his dreame: So they came, and stoode before the king.

3 And the king sayd vnto them, I haue dreamed a dreame, and my spirite was troubled to know the dreame.

4 Vpon this the Chaldeans answered the king in the Syrians speach, O king, God saue thy life for euer: shewe thy seruants the dreame, and we shall shewe the interpretation.

5 The king answered and sayde to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: If ye will not make me vnderstand the dreame, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall bee drawne in pieces, and your houses made a iakes.

6 But if ye tell me the dreame, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receiue of me gifts, rewardes, and great honour, therefore shewe mee the dreame, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered againe, and sayde, The king must shew his seruats the dreame, and so shall wee declare the interpretation thereof.

8 Then the king answered, saying, I perceiue of a trueth that yee wouldе b redeeme the time, for so much as ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 Therefore if yee will not tell mee the dreame, this is your onely purpose, Ye haue prepared lying and corrupt words to speake before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dreame, that I may know that ye can declare me the interpretation thereof.

10 Wherewith the Chaldees gaue answere before the king, and sayd. There is no man vpon earth that can tell the thing which the king speaketh of, yea, there is neither king, prince, nor lord, that euer asked such things at a wise man, soothsayer, or Chaldean, 11 For it is rare matter that the king requireth, neither is there any that can certifie the king thereof, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For the which cause the king was wroth with great indignation, and commanded to destroy all the wise men at Babylon.

13 So the decrée went forth, and the wise men were slaine: they sought also to slay Daniel, with his companions.

14 Then Daniel staied the counsel and decree with Arioch the captaine of the kings gard, who was gone forth to put to death the wise men of Babylon.

15 He answered and said vnto Arioch the kings captaine, Why is the sentence so hastie from the king? Then Arioch tolde Daniel the matter.

16 Vpon this went Daniel, and desired the king that he would giue him leasure, and that he would shewe the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and shewed the thing to Ananias, Misael, and Azarias, his companions:

18 That they should beséech the God of heauen for grace in this secret, that Daniel and his fellowes, with other such as were wise in Babylon, perished not.

19 Then was this secrete reuealed vnto Daniel in a vision by night: then Daniel praysed the God of heauen.

20 Daniel also answered, and saide, *The name of God be praised for euer & euer: for b Ye seeke occasion of delayes, vntil some other affaires might happen, and make me forget the matter.

*Psal. 113.

a The father & the sonne were both called by this name, so that it is meant of the sonne whe he reigned alone: for he reigned also after a sort with his father. Or els in the second yeere of his generall conquest of other barbarous nations.

for wisedome and strength are his.
21 He changeth the times and seasons, he taketh away kings, he setteth vp kings: he giueth wisedome vnto the wise, & vnderstanding to those that vnderstand.
22 He reuealeth the deepe & secret things: he knoweth the thing that lieth in darknes, for the light dwelleth with him.
23 I thanke thee and prayse thee, O thou God of my fathers, that thou hast giuen me wisedome and strength, and hast shewed me nowe the thing that wee desired of thee: for thou hast declared the kings matter vnto vs.
24 Vpon this went Daniel in vnto Arioch, whom the king had ordeined to destroy the wise men at Babylon: he went and said thus vnto him, Destroy not the wise men of Babylon, but bring me before the king, and I shall shewe the king the interpretation.
25 Then Arioch brought Daniel before the king in all the haste, and saide thus vnto him, I haue founde a man among the children of Iuda that were brought captiues, that will declare vnto the king the interpretation.
26 Then answered the king and saide to Daniel, whose name was Baltassar, Art thou able to shewe me the dreame which I haue seene, & the interpretatiō thereof?
27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and saide, As for this secret which the king maketh inquisition, there can neither the men of vnderstanding, nor soothsayers, nor the wise mē, nor readers of destinies, declare it vnto the king:
28 But there is a [c] God in heauen that reuealeth secrets, and sheweth the king Nabuchodonosor, what is for to come in the latter dayes. Thy dreame, & that which thou hast seene in thine head vpon thy bed, is this.
29 O king, when thou wast in thy bedde, thoughtes came into thy minde what should come hereafter: so hee that is the opener of mysteries, telleth thee what is for to come.
30 As for mee, this secret is not shewed me for any wisedome that I haue more then any other liuing, but onely that I might shew the king the interpretation, & that thou mightest know þ thoughtes of thine owne heart.
31 Thou king sawest, and beholde, there was a great image: this great [d] image, whose brightnesse was excellent, stoode before thee, and the forme thereof was terrible.
32 This images [e] head was of fine gold, his breast and armes of siluer, his belly and his thighes of brasse.
33 His legs were of iron, his feete were part of iron and part of clay.
34 Thou beheldest it till a stone was cut without handes, which smote the image vpon his feete that were of iron & clay, and brake them to pieces.
35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brasse, the siluer and gold broken all together, & became like the chaffe of Sommer floores, and the winde caried them away, that no place was founde for them: and the stone that smote the image, became a great mountaine, and filled the whole earth.
36 This is the dreame: and now wil we shew before the king what it meaneth.
37 O king, thou art a king of kings: for the God of heauen hath giuen vnto thee a kingdome, power, strength and glorie.
38 And in al places where ouer the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the foules of the ayre hath he giuen into thy hand, and hath made thee ruler in them all: thou art this [f] head of gold.
39 After thee shall arise [g] another kingdome inferior to thee, & another [h] thirde kingdome of brasse, which shall beare rule ouer all the earth.
40 The [i] fourth kingdome shall be strong as iron; for as iron breaketh in pieces & subdueth all things, and as iron hurteth all these things, so shall it breake in pieces and hurte all.
41 Whereas thou sawest the feete and toes, part of potters clay, & part of iron, the kingdome shalbe [k] deuided, but there shall be in it of the strength of iron, for so much as thou sawest the iron mixt with the clay and earth.
42 And as the toes of the feete were part of iron and part of clay: so shal the kingdome be part strong, and part broken.
43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixt with clay and earth, they shall mingle themselues with the seede of men, and yet not ioyne one with another, as iron will not be mixt with clay.
44 And in the dayes of these kings shall the God of heauen set vp a kingdome, which shall neuer be destroyed, and this kingdome shall not be giuen ouer to another people: but it shall breake and destroy all these kingdomes, and it [l] shall stand for euer.
45 Like as thou sawest that [m] without any hands there was cut out of the mount a stone, which brake the yron, the brasse, the clay, the siluer and golde in pieces: so the great God hath shewed the king what shall come to passe after this: this is a true dreame, and the interpretation of it is sure.
46 Then the king Nabuchodonosor fell downe vpon his face, & bowed himselfe vnto Daniel, & commanded to offeine [n] rewardes and sweete odours for him.
47 The king answered Daniel, and saide, Of a truth [o] your God is a God of gods, and the Lorde of kings, and a reuealer of secretes, seeing thou couldest reueale this secrete.
48 So the king made Daniel a great man, and gaue him many and great gifts: hee made him ruler of all the countreys of Babylon, and the chiefe of the rulers aboue all the wise men of Babylon.
49 Then Daniel made request to þ king, & he set Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, ouer

c Hereby he inuiteth the king with a certaine feare and reuerence of God, that he might be the more apt to receiue the high mysteries that should be reuealed.

d By this is vnderstanded the worlde.

e By gold, siluer, brasse, and iron, are meant the Chaldean, Persian, Macedonian, & Romaine kingdom, which should successiuely rule the world, till Christ (which is here called þ stone) come himselfe and destroy the last.

g The second of the Persians.

h That is, of the Macedonians.

i That is, of the Romaines.

k That is, either by ciuill warres and discords, or els into two sorts of people: the one should be warrelike, and therefore compared to iron, the other factious and seditious, and therefore compared to clay & earth.

uer the charge of the prouince of Babylon: but Daniel sate in the kings gate.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The king setteth vp a golden image, which he commandeth to be worshipped. 8 Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego are accused, because they despised the kings commandement.

1 NAbuchodonosor the king made an image of golde, which was three score cubites high, and sixe cubites thicke: he set it vp in the plaine of Dura, in the prouince of Babylon.

2 Then Nabuchodonosor the king sent forth, to gather together the Dukes, lords, and Nobles, the iudges and officers, the deputies & sheriffes, with all the rulers of the prouinces, that they might come to the a dedication of the image which Nabuchodonosor the king had set vp.

3 So the Dukes, Lordes, and Nobles, the iudges and officers, deputies and sheriffes, with all the rulers of the prouince, gathered them together vnto the dedication of the image that Nabuchodonosor the king had set vp, & they stode before the image which Nabuchodonosor had set vp.

4 Then an Heralde cryed aloude, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

5 That when ye heare the noyse of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, Dulcimer, and all maner of instrumente of musike, ye fall down and worship that golden image that Nabuchodonosor the king hath set vp.

6 Whoso then falleth not downe & worshippeth, shall euen the same houre be cast into the middest of a hotte fierie furnace.

7 Therefore when all the folke heard the noyse of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, & all instruments of musike, then all the people, nations, & languages fell downe and worshipped the golden image that Nabuchodonosor the king had set vp.

8 Nowe were there certaine men of the Chaldees, that went euen then, & b cryed out an accusation of the Iewes.

9 They spake, and saide vnto the king Nabuchodonosor, O king, liue for euer.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that euery man that shall heare the sounde of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, Dulcimer, and all instruments of musike, shall fal downe & worship the golden image:

11 And whoso then fell not down, & worshipped not, that he should bee cast into the middest of an hot fierie furnace.

12 Nowe are there certaine Iewes, whom thou hast set ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon, namely c Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego: these men, O king, regarded not thy commandement: yea, they will not serue thy gods, nor worship the golden image that thou hast set vp.

13 Then Nabuchodonosor in his anger & wrath commanded that Sidrach, Misach and Abednego should bee brought vnto him: so these men were brought before the king.

14 Then Nabuchodonosor spake vnto them, and sayde, Is it true, O Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, will not you serue my gods, nor worship the golden image that I haue set vp?

15 Nowe therefore bee ready when ye heare the sound of the Cornet, Trumpet, harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, Dulcimer, and all instruments of musike, to fall down and worship the image which I haue made: for if ye worship it not, ye shalbe cast immediatly into the middes of a hot fierie furnace: for who is that God that can deliuer you out of my hands?

16 Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego answered the king, and said, O Nabuchodonosor, we are not d carefull to answere thee in this matter:

17 Beholde, our God whome we serue, is e able to deliuer vs from the hotte fierie furnace: and hee will deliuer vs out of thy hand, O king.

18 And though he will not, yet shalt thou knowe, O king, that wee will not serue thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set vp.

19 Then was Nabuchodonosor full of indignation, so that the countenance of his face changed vpo Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego: therefore he charged and cõmanded that they should heate the fornace one seuen times more then it was wont to be heat.

20 And he charged the most valiant men of warre that were in his armie, to bind Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the hot fierie furnace.

21 So these men were bounde in their coates, hosen, head attyre, with their other garments, and cast into the middes of the hot fierie furnace.

22 Therefore because the kings cõmandement was straite, and the furnace was exceeding hot, the men that put in Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, the flame of the fire destroyed them.

23 And these three men, Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, fell downe in the middes of the hot fierie furnace bounde.

24 Then Nabuchodonosor the king was astonied, and rose vp in all haste: he spake vnto his counsell, and said, Did not wee cast three men bound into the middes of the fire? They answered and said vnto the king, It is true, O king.

25 He answered and said, Loe, I see foure men loose, walking in the middes of the fire, and they haue no hurt: & the fourme of the fourth is like the f sonne of God.

26 Vpon this went Nabuchodonosor vnto a Shewing, that the idol is not knowen for an idol so long as it is with the workemen: but when the ceremonies and customes are recited and vsed, and the consent of the people is there, then of a blocke they thinke they haue made a god.

b That is, accused the Iewes with an outcrie.

c It seemeth that they named not Daniel, because he was greatly in the kings fauour, thinking if these three had bene destroyed, they might haue better occasion to accuse Daniel after: and this declareth that this policie of erecting this image, was inuented by the malicious flatterers, which sought nothing but the destruction of the Iewes, whom they accused of rebellion and ingratitude.

d They should haue done iniurie to God, if they should haue doubted in this holy cause, and therefore they say that they are resolued to dye for Gods cause.

e They ground on two poynts: first on the power and prouidence of God ouer them: secondly on their cause, which was Gods glory, and the testifying of his true religion with their blood, and so make open confession, that they will not so much as outwardly consent to idolatry.

f That is, an angel of God, 28 verse, 28.

vnto the mouth of the hot fierie furnace, he ſpake alſo, and ſayde, O Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, yee ſeruants of the high God, goe forth, and come hither. And ſo Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, came forth of the middes of the fire.

27 The Dukes, Lords, and Nobles, & the kings counſell came together to ſee theſe men, vpon whome the fire had no maner of power in their bodies: inſomuch that the very heare of their head was not burnt, and their clothes vnchanged, yea there was no ſmel of fire felt vpon them.

28 Then ſpake Nabuchodonoſor, and ſaid, Bleſſed be the God of Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, which hath ſent his angel, and delmered his ſeruants that put their truſt in him, and haue altered the kings commandement, and ieoparded their bodies, rather then they would ſerue or worſhip any god, except their owne God onely.

29 Therefore I make a decree, that euery people, nation, and language, which ſpeake any blaſphemie againſt the God of Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, ſhall bee drawen in pieces, and their houſes ſhall bee made a iakes: becauſe there is no god that can deliuer after this ſort.

30 So the king promoted Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, in the prouince of Babylon.

The iiii. Chapter.

Nabuchodonoſor dreameth againe.

1 NAbuchodonoſor king, vnto all people, nations, and languages that dwel vpon the a whole earth, peace be multiplied among you.

a Meaning, ſo farre as his dominiõ extended,

2 I thought it good to ſhewe the ſignes and marueilous workes that the high God hath wrought vpon me.

3 O how great are his ſignes, and howe mightie are his wonders? his kingdom is an b euerlaſting kingdome, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

b Reade Chap.2.

4 I Nabuchodonoſor being at reſt in my houſe, and flouriſhing in my palace, c This was another dreame, beſide that which he ſawe of the foure empires,

5 Sawe a c dreame, which made mee afrayde, and the thoughtes vpon my bed with the viſiõs of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree, that they ſhould bring al the wiſe men of Babylon before mée, that they might declare vnto me the interpretation of the dreame.

7 So came the wiſe men, the ſoothſayers, the Chaldeans, and wyſardes, to whom I tolde the dreame: but they couldc not ſhewe me the interpretation thereof.

8 Till at the laſt Daniel came before mée (whoſe name was Baltaſſar, according to the name of my god) which hath the ſpirit of the holy gods in him, and before him I told the dreame, ſaying,

9 O Baltaſſar, thou prince of wiſe men, for ſo much as I knowe that thou haſt the ſpirite of the holy gods, and no ſecret troubleth thée: tell me therefore the viſions of my dreame that I haue ſeene, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the viſions of my head vpon my bed: and behold, I ſawe a tree in the middeſt of the earth, and the height thereof was great:

11 A great tree & ſtrong, & the height thereof reached vnto the heauen, and the ſight thereof to the endes of all the earth.

12 The leaues thereof were fayre, and the fruite thereof much, and in it was meate for all: the beaſts of the fielde had ſhadowes vnder it, and the foules of the ayre dwelt in the boughes thereof: all fleſh fed of it.

13 I ſawe in the viſions of my head vpon my bed, and behold, a d watcher, and a holy one came downe from heauen, d Which was an angel of God.

14 And cried mightily, ſaying thus, Hewe downe the tree, breake off his branches, ſhake off his leaues, & ſcatter his fruite abroade, that the beaſtes may get them away from vnder him, and the foules from his branches.

15 Neuertheleſſe, leaue the ſtumpe of his rootes ſtill in the earth, and with a bande of yron and braſſe binde it among the graſſe of the fielde, and let it be wet with the dewe of heauen, and let his portion be with the beaſtes among the graſſe of the fielde.

16 Let his heart be e changed from mans nature, and let a beaſtes heart be giuen vnto him, and ſeuen times be paſſed ouer him.

e That is, let him be deprined of naturall reaſon, and mans vnderſtanding.

17 This ſentence is according to the f decree of the watchers, and the requeſt according to the word of the holy ones: becauſe liuing men ſhoulde knowe that the higheſt hath power ouer the kingdom of men, & giueth it to whom it liketh him, & ſetteth vp ouer it the baſeſt among men.

f This was the decree of God himſelfe, as appeareth in the 24. verſe following, but it is called § decree of the watch men or angels, becauſe they brought it and reuealed it: which the holy ones deſire to come to paſſe, conſenting to § decree of God, that the proude might bee brought downe, and the humble exalted.

18 This is the dreame that I king Nabuchodonoſor haue ſeene: therefore thou, O Baltaſſar, declare the interpretation thereof, for ſo much as all the wiſe men of my kingdome are not able to ſhewe mée what it meaneth: but thou canſt doe it, for the ſpirite of the holy gods is in thée.

g Partly conſidering the great iudgements of God in the horrible puniſhmẽt of this great prince: and partly moued with pitie of his cauſe, whom God had commanded the Iewes to wiſh well to, and pray for, as Ierc. 29.

19 Then Daniel, whoſe name was Baltaſſar, helde his peace by the ſpace of one houre, and his thoughts g troubled him. So the king ſpake, & ſayde, O Baltaſſar, let neyther the dreame, nor the interpretation thereof trouble thée. Baltaſſar anſwered, ſaying, O my lorde, this dreame be to them that hate thée, and the interpretation thereof to thine aduerſaries.

20 As for the tree that thou ſaweſt, which was great and mightie, whoſe height reached vnto the heauen, and the ſight thereof though all the world,

21 Whoſe leaues were fayre, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meate for al, vnder the which the beaſtes of the fielde had their habitation, and vpon whoſe branches the foules of the ayre did ſit:

22 It is thou, O king, which art great and mightie, for thy greatneſſe encreaſeth and reacheth vnto § heauen, ſo doth thy dominion to the endes of the earth.

23 But whereas the king sawe a watcher, and a holy one that came downe from heauen, and saide, Hewe downe the tree, and destroy it, yet leaue the stumpe of the rootes thereof in the earth, and with a band of yron and brasse binde it among the grasse of the fielde, and let it be wet with the dewe of the heauen, and let his portion be with the beastes of the fielde, till h seuen times passe ouer him:

24 This, O king, is the interpretation, yea, it is the verye decree of him that is highest of all, and it toucheth my lorde the king.

25 Thou shalt bee cast out from men, and thy dwelling shall bee with the beastes of the fielde: with grasse shalt thou bee fedde like i oxen, thou must be wet with the dewe of the heauen, yea, seuen times shall passe ouer thee, till thou k knowe that the highest hath power ouer the kingdom of men, and giueth it to whom he list.

26 Moreouer, whereas it was sayde that the stumpe of the roote of the tree should be left still: it betokeneth þ thy kingdom shal remaine whole vnto thee, after thou hast learned to knowe that the power commeth from heauen.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsell bee acceptable vnto thee, and l breake off thy sinnes by righteousnes, and thine iniquities by mercie toward the poore: loe, let there be a healing of thine errour.

28 All these things touch the king Nabuchodonosor.

29 So after twelue moneths, the king walked in the palace of the kingdome of Babylon.

30 And the king spake, and sayde, Is not this great Babylon that I haue built for the house of the kingdome by the might of my power, and for the honour of my maiestie?

31 While these wordes were yet in the kings mouth, there fel a voyce from heauen, saying, O king Nabuchodonosor, to thee be it spoken, Thy kingdome is departed from thee, 32 And thou shalt bee cast out of mens company, thy dwelling shall be with the beastes of the fielde: so that thou shalt eate grasse like oxen, and seuen times shal passe ouer thee, vntill thou knowest that the highest hath power vpon the kingdome of men, and giueth it vnto whome it pleaseth him.

33 The very same houre was this matter fulfilled vpon Nabuchodonosor, so that he was cast out of mens companie, and did eate grasse like oxen, and his body was wet with the dewe of heauen, till his heares were growen as Egles fethers, and his naples like birds clawes.

34 When this m time was past, I Nabuchodonosor lift vp mine eyes vnto heauen, and mine vnderstanding was restored vnto mee: then gaue I thankes vnto the highest, I magnified and prayed him that liueth for euermore, whose power is an euerlasting power, and his kingdome is from one generation to another.

35 All they that dwell vpon the earth are to bee reputed as nothing, and according to his will he worketh in the armie of heauen, and among the inhabiters of the earth: and there is none that may resist his hand, or say vnto him, What doest thou?

36 At the same time was mine vnderstanding giuen me againe, and I was restored to the honour of my kingdome, my glorie and my beautie was restored vnto me, and my counsaylours and n princes sought vnto mee, and I was established in my kingdome, and my glory was augmented toward me.

37 Now therefore I o Nabuchodonosor prayse, and extoll, and magnifie the king of heauen, whose workes are all trueth, and his wayes iudgement, and those that walke in pryde he is able to abase.

h Whereby he meaneth a long space, as seuen yeres, or seuen quarters of yeeres, or seuen moneths: for the interpretation is diuers.

i Not that his shape or forme was changed into a beast, but that hee was eyther stricken mad, and so auoyded mans cõpanie: or was cast out for his tyrannie, and so wandered among the beastes, and ate hearbes and grasse.

k Daniel sheweth ỹ cause why God thus punished him.

l Cease from prouoking God to anger any longer by thy sinnes, and where thou hast cruelly oppressed many poore, bee nowe mercifull vnto them in righteousnesse, so shall the errours of thy former life be redressed.

m That is, the seuen times, or yeres mentioned in the verses 16, 23, and 25.

n By whom it seemeth hee was put from his kingdome before.

o He doth not onely prayse God for his deliuerance, but also confesseth his fault, that God onely may haue the glory, and man the shame, and that he may be exalted, and man cast downe.

The v. Chapter.

Balthasar king of Babylon abusing the vessels of the Temple, seeth an hande writing on the wall. 8 The soothsayers called of the king, can not expound the writing.

1 KIng Balthasar made a great feast to a thousand of his princes, & dranke wine a before the thousand.

a That is, not alone, as commonly he was wont, but in a solemne banquet, wherunto he receiued all his nobles to accompanie him.

2 And Balthasar, when he had tasted the wine, commanded to bring him the golden and siluer vessels, which his father Nabuchodonosor had brought from the temple in Hierusalem, that the king, and his princes, and his wiues, and his concubines might drinke therein.

3 So were brought the golden vessels that they had taken out of the Temple of the Lorde house at Hierusalem: and the king, and his princes, his wiues, and his concubines dranke in them.

4 They dranke wine, and praysed the gods of gold, siluer, brasse, yron, wood, and stone.

5 In the very same houre there appeared fingers of a mans hande writing, right ouer b against the candlesticke vpon the plaster of the wall of þ kings palace, and the king sawe the knockles of the hande that wrote.

b That it might the better be seene.

6 Then changed the king his countenance, and his thoughtes troubled him, so that the ioyntes of his lopnes were loosed, and his c knees smote one against the other.

c So that he that before contemned God, was mooued by this sight to tremble for feare of Gods iudgements.

7 Wherefore the king cryed mightily, that they should bring the soothsayers, Chaldees, and wisardes: the king spake also to the wise men of Babylon, and sayde, Who so can reade this writing, and shewe mee the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with purple, and haue a chayne of golde about his necke, and shall bee the thirde ruler in the kingdome.

8 Vpon this came al the kings wisemen, but but they coulde neither reade the writing, nor shewe the king the interpretation.

9 Then was king Balthasar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his princes were astonied.

10 Nowe the [d] Quéene, by reason of the talke of the king and his princes, came into the banquet house: and the Quéene spake, and sayd, O king, liue for euer: let not thy thoughtes trouble thee, and let not thy countenance bee changed.

11 There is a man in thy kingdome that hath the spirit of the holy goddes within him: and in the dayes of thy father, light, and vnderstanding, and wisedome, like the wisedome of the gods was founde in him, whome the king Nabuchodonosor thy father, the king I say thy father made chiefe of the [e] wisemen, soothsayers, Chaldeans, and wysardes,

12 Because that such an abundant spirit, knowledge, & vnderstanding, to exponde dreames, to open secrets, and to declare hard doubtes, was founde in him, yea, euen in Daniel, whome the king named Baltassar: let Daniel be called, and hee shall declare the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought before the king: so the king spake vnto Daniel, and saide, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captiuitie of Iuda, whome my father the king brought out of Iurie?

14 I haue heard of thee that thou hast the spirit of the holy goddes, and that light and vnderstanding, and excellent wisedome is found in thée.

15 Now haue there bin brought before me wise men, and soothsayers, to reade this writing, and to shewe mee the interpretation thereof: but they coulde not declare the interpretation of the thing.

16 Then heard I of thée, that thou coulddest shewe interpretations, and dissolue doubtes: nowe if thou canst reade this writing, and shew me the meaning thereof, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and haue a chaine of golde about thy necke, and be the third ruler in the kingdome.

17 Then Daniel answered, and said before the king, As for thy rewardes kéepe thē to thy selfe, and giue thy giftes to another: yet I will reade the writing vnto the king, and shewe him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God gaue vnto [f] Nabuchodonosor thy father a kingdome, and maiestie, and honour, & glory.

19 And for the maiestie that he gaue him, all people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: he slewe whome hee would, hee smote whome it pleased him: againe, whome hee would he set vp, and whom he list he put downe.

20 But because his heart was lofte, and his minde strengthened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, & they tooke his glory from him.

21 He was driuen out from the sonnes of men, his heart was made like ṕ beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses, they fedde him with grasse like oxen, and his bodie was wet with the dewe of heauen, till he knewe that the most high God bare rule ouer the kingdome of men, & that he appointed ouer it whom soeuer he pleaseth.

22 And thou his sonne, O [g] Balthasar, hast not submitted thine heart, though thou knewest all these things:

23 But hast lift vp thy selfe against the Lorde of heauen, so that the vesselles of his house were brought before thee, that thou and thy princes, with thy wiues and concubines, might drinke wine thereout: and thou hast praysed the goddes of siluer, and golde, of brasse, and yron, of wood, and stone, which neyther see, heare, nor vnderstand: as for the God in whose hand consisteth thy breath, and all thy wayes, thou hast not glorified him.

24 & Then was the knockles of the hande sent from him, and hath written this writing.

25 And this is the writing that hee hath written: MENE, [h] MENE, THECEL, VPHARSIN.

26 Now the interpretation of the thing is this, MENE, God hath numbred thy kingdome, and brought it to an ende.

27 THECEL, Thou art weighed in the ballance, and art found wanting.

28 PHERES, Thy kingdome is deuided, and giuen to the Medes and Perses.

29 Then commanded Balthasar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, & a chaine of gold about his necke, and made a proclamation cōcerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdome.

30 The very same night was Balthasar the king of the Chaldees slaine.

31 And [i] Darius of the Medes toke the kingdome, being threscore and two yéres of age.

The vi. Chapter.

Daniel is made ruler ouer the lordes.

1 IT pleased Darius to set ouer his kingdome a hundred and twentie gouernours, which should bee ouer the whole kingdome.

2 Aboue these he set three princes, of whō Daniel was one, that the gouernours might giue accounts vnto them, and the king should haue no damage.

3 Now this Daniel was preferred aboue the princes and gouernours, for the spirit of God was plentyous in him, so that the king was minded to set him ouer the whole realme.

4 Wherefore the rulers and gouernours

d This some thinke was his mother, other, his grandmother, of all likelihood a woman of great age, that could remember the actes of Daniel.

e Read Chap. 4. and this declareth both that this name was odious vnto him, and also that he did not vse these vile practises, because he was not among them when all were called, f Before he read this writing, he declareth to the king his great ingratitude toward God, who could not bee mooued to giue him the glory, considering his wonderfull worke towarde his grandfather: and so sheweth that he sinneth, not of ignorance, but of malice.

g After that God had so long time deferred his anger, and patiently waited for thine amendment.

h This worde is doubled, not onely to exaggerate the certaintie of the matter, but also as some thinke, the one to signifie the ende of ỹ king, the other the ende of the kingdome.

i Cyrus his sonne in lawe gaue him this title of honour, although Cyrus in effect had the dominion.

Or, Belsasar.

a Thus the wicked can not abide the graces of God in others, but seeke by all occasions to deface them, therefore against such assaultes there is no better remedie thē to walke vprightly in the feare of God, & to haue a good conscience.

sought an occasion against Daniel, concerning the kingdome, but they coulde finde none occasion or fault: for hee was so faythfull, that there was no blame nor fault found in him.

5 Then sayd these men, We shall finde none occasion against this Daniel, except wee finde it against him concerning the lawe of his God.

6 Vpon this wēt the princes and lords together vnto the king, and sayd thus vnto him, King Darius, liue for euer.

7 All the rulers of the kingdome, the officers, and gouernours, the counsaylours and dukes haue consulted together to make a decree for the king, and to establish a statute, That who so desireth any petition eyther of any god or man within these thirtie dayes, except of thee, O king, hee shalbe cast into the Lions denne.

8 Nowe, O king, confirme the decree, and seale the writing, that it be not changed, according to the lawe of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius sealed the writing and decree.

b Because he would not by his silence shewe that he consented to this wicked decree, he set open his windowes toward Hierusalem when he prayed, both to stirre vp himselfe with the remembrance of Gods promises to his people whē they should pray toward the temple: and also that others might see that he would neuer consent in heart nor deede, for these few dayes, to any thing cōtrary to Gods glory.

10 Nowe when Daniel vnderstoode that hee had sealed the writing, hee went into his house, and the b windowes of his chamber towarde Hierusalem stoode open, there kneeled he downe vpon his knees three times a day, hee made his petition, and prayed his God, as he did afore time.

11 Then these men assembled, and founde Daniel making his petition, and praying vnto his God.

12 So they came to the king, and spake before him concerning his commaundement, saying, O king, hast thou not sealed the decree, that within thirtie dayes who so requireth his petition of any god or man, but onely of thy selfe, O king, hee shalbe cast into the denne of Lions? The king answered, and sayd, Yea, it is true, according to the lawe of the Medes and Persians that altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and sayde vnto the king, This Daniel which is of the children of the captiuitie of Iuda, O king, regardeth neither thee, nor thy decree that thou hast sealed: but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 When the king heard these wordes, he was sore displeased with him selfe, and set his heart on Daniel to deliuer him, & he laboured till the sunne went downe, to deliuer him.

15 Then these men assembled vnto the king, and sayde vnto him, Knowe this, O king, that the lawe of the Medes and Persians is, that the commaundement & statute which the king maketh, may not bee altered.

16 Then the king commaunded, and they brought Daniel, and they cast him into the Lions denne. Now the king spake vnto Daniel, & said, Thy God whom thou alwaye seruest, euen he will deliuer thee.

17 And there was brought a stone, & layd vpon the mouth of the denne, this the king sealed with his own ring, and with the signet of his princes, that the purpose concerning Daniel should not be changed.

18 So the king went into his palace, and remained fasting, neither was there any instruments of musicke brought in before him, and his sleepe went from him.

19 But betimes in the morning at the breake of the day, the king arose, and went in all haste vnto the denne of the Lions.

20 Now as he came nigh vnto the denne, he cryed with a piteous voyce vnto Daniel, yea, the king spake, and saide vnto Daniel, O Daniel, thou seruant of the liuing God, is not thy God whome thou seruest alwaye able to deliuer thee from the Lions?

21 Then sayde Daniel vnto the king, O king, liue for euer.

22 *My God hath sent his Angel, which hath shut the Lions mouthes, so that they might not hurt me, for mine d vnguiltines is found out before him: and as for thee, O king, I neuer e offended thee.

*Mat. 2.60.

d Mine vprightnesse in this thing wherein I was charged, was approued of God, 23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commaunded to take Daniel out of the denne: so Daniel was brought out of the denne, and no maner of hurt was founde vpon him, for hee f put his trust in his God.

e For he did not obey the kings wicked commandement to obey God, and so did no iniurie to the king, who ought to command no thing whereby God should be dishonoured, 24 And as for those men which had accused Daniel, the king commaunded to bring them, and to cast them into the Lions denne, them, their children and their wiues: so the Lions had the maistrie of them, and brake all their bones a sunder or euer they came at the ground of the denne.

f Because he committed himselfe wholy vnto God, whose cause he did defende, he was assured that nothing but good could come vnto him, wherein we see the power of faith, as Heb. 11.

25 After this wrote king Darius vnto all f people, nations and tongues, that dwelt in all landes, Peace bee multiplied vnto you:

26 My commandement is in al my dominion and kingdome, that men feare and stand in awe of Daniels God: for he is the liuing God which abideth euer, his kingdome shall not fayle, and his power is euerlasting.

27 It is he that deliuereth and saueth, he doeth wonders and marueilous works in heauen and in earth, hee hath preserued Daniel from the power of the Lions.

28 *So this Daniel prospered in the reigne of Darius, and in the reigne of Cyrus of Persia.

*Dan. 1.21.

The vii. Chapter.

A vision of foure beastes is shewed vnto Daniel.

1 IN the first yeere of Balthasar king of Babylon, sawe Daniel a dreame, and there were visions in his heade vpon his bed: which dreame he wrote, and declared the summe of the matter.

2 Daniel spake, and sayde, I sawe in my my vision by night, and behold, the foure [a] winds of heauen strone vpō ꝑ great sea.

3 And foure great beastes came vp from the sea, one diuers from another.
4 The first was a [b] Lion, and had Egles wings: I beheld till his wings were pluct from him, & he lifted vp from the earth, and set vpon his féete like a man, and there was giuen him a mans heart.
5 Beholde, another beast which was the seconde, was like a [c] Beare, and stode vpon the one side: betwixt his teeth in his mouth he had thrée ribbes, & it was said vnto him thus, Arise, eate vp much flesh.
6 Then I looked, and behold, there was another like vnto a [d] Leopard, this had wings as a foule, euen [e] foure vpon the backe: this beast had foure heads, and there was power giuen him.
7 After this I sawe in a vision by night, & behold, the fourth beast was [f] grimme and horrible, and marueilous strong: it had great yron teeth, it deuoured and destroyed, and stamped the residue vnder his feete, it was vnlike the other beastes that were before it: for it had x tenne hornes.
8 As I considered the hornes, beholde, there came vp among them another little horne, before whome there were thrée of the first hornes pluckt away: and behold, this horne had eyes like the eyes of a man, & a mouth speaking presumptuous things.
9 I beheld till the thrones were set vp, and the ancient of dayes did sit, whose garment was white as snowe, and the heares of his head like the pure woll: his throne was like the fierie flame, and his wheles as burning fire.
10 There issued forth a firie streame, and went out from before him: a thousande thousandes ministred vnto him, and tenne thousand thousands stode before him: the iudgement was set, and the bookes opened.
11 Then tooke I héede thereunto, because of the voyce of the proude wordes which the horne spake: I beheld till the beast was slayne, and his body destroyed, and giuen to be burnt in the fire.
12 As concerning the other beastes, they had their dominion take away, but their liues were prolonged for a certaine time and season.
13 I saw in visions by night, and behold, there came one in the cloudes of heauen, like the sonne of man, which went vnto the ancient of dayes, before whom they brought him.
14 And hee gaue him dominion & honour, and a kingdome, that al people, nations, and languages should serue him: * his dominion is an euerlasting dominion, which shall neuer bée taken away, and his kingdome shall neuer be destroyed.
15 I Daniel was troubled in my spirite in the middest of my body, and the visions of my head made me afrayde.
16 I gate mée vnto [h] one of them that stoode by, and asked him the trueth concerning all these things: so he tolde mee, and made me vnderstande the interpretation of these thinges.
17 These great beastes which are foure, are foure kinges which shall arise out of the earth.
18 But the [i] high saintes shall receiue a kingdome, and possesse a kingdome for euer, euen for euer and euer.
19 After this, I required to knowe the trueth concerning ꝑ fourth beast, which was so vnlike the other beastes, and so horrible, whose teeth were of yron, and his nayles of brasse, which deuoured and destroyed, and stamped the residue vnder his féete:
20 I desired also to knowe the trueth as touching the tenne hornes that he had vpon his head, and this other which came vp afterwarde, before whose face there fell downe thrée, which horne had eyes, and a mouth ꝑ spake presumptuous things, and looked with a grimmer visage then his [k] fellowes.
21 I beheld, and the same horne made battell against the saintes, pea, and preuayled against them, 22 Until the [l] ancient of dayes came, that the iudgement was giuen to the high saintes, and till the time came that the saintes had the kingdome in possession.
23 He gaue me this answere, That fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdome vpon earth, it shall bee vnlike to all the kingdomes: it shall deuoure, treade downe, and destroy all other landes.
24 The tenne hornes, are tenne kinges that shall arise out of the kingdomes: after whom there shall stande vp another, which shall be vnlike to the first, and he shall subdue three kings:
25 And he shall speake wordes against the Highest of all, hee shall destroy the high saintes, and thinke that he may change times and lawes: they shall be giuen into his hande vntil a time, and times, and the diuiding of a time.
26 But the iudgement shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it vnto the ende.
27 * And the kingdome and dominion, & the greatnesse of the kingdome vnder the whole heauen, shal be giuen to the [m] people of high saintes, whose kingdome is an euerlasting kingdome, and all power shall serue and obey it.
28 Hitherto the ende of the words: I Daniel had many cogitations which troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but ꝑ words I kept still in my heart.

The viii. Chapter.

A vision of a strife betweene a Ramme and a hee Goate.

1 IN the third yére of the raigne of king Balthasar, there appeared a vision vnto mée, euen vnto mée Daniel, after that which appeared vnto me at the first.

a Which signified that there should be horrible troubles and afflictions in the world in al quarters.
b The beastes are kings, kingdomes, or monarchies. By the Lyon, the kingdome of Babylon is vnderstanded, which speedily vanquished the nations adioyning: but after his wings were pluct, & his kingdome taken away, he returned to the condition of a man, and no Lion.
c The second monarchie of the Persians and Medes.
d The thirde monarchie of the Macedonians.
e That is, his foure chiefe captaines, which had the empire after his death deuided among them.
f That is, the Romane empire which was as a monster, and could not be cōpared to any beast, because the nature of none was able to expresse it.
g Which signifie ten Kings, as verse 24.
Mich. 4. 7. Luk. 1. 33.
h Meaning, the angels, as verse 20.
i That is, Gods elect people, which shall haue a kingdome and Church to continue in for euer.
k That is, the three other empires.
l That is, God which was before all times, as verse 9.
Luke 1. 33.
m That is, to the Church.
a After the generall vision he commeth to certaine particular visions as touching the destruction of the monarchie of the Persians and Macedonians, for the ruine of the Babylonians was at hād, & also he had sufficiently spokē therof.

that which I had seene in the beginning.
2 I sawe in a vision (and when I sawe it, I was in the palace of Susis, which is in the prouince of [b] Elam) and in the vision mee thought I was in the riuer of Vlai.
3 Then I looked vp, and sawe, and beholde, there stode before the riuer a [c] Ramme, which had two hornes, and these two hornes were high, but [d] one was higher then the other, and the highest came vp last.
4 I sawe that this Ramme pushed with his hornes against the West, against the North, and against the South: so that no [e] beastes might stande before him, nor defend them from his power, but he did as him listed, and became great.
5 And as I cõsidered, beholde, there came a [f] Goate from the West ouer the whole earth, and touched not the ground, and this Goate had a [g] horne appeared betwixt his eyes.
6 And he came vnto the Ramme that had the two hornes (whom I had seene standing by the riuer) and ranne fiercely vpon him with his might.
7 And I saw him drawe nigh vnto the Ramme, being very fierce vpon him, yea, he [h] smote the Ramme, and brake his two hornes, neyther had the Ramme so much strength as to stande before him: but he cast him downe to the grounde, trode him vnder his feete, and there was none able to deliuer the Ramme out of his power.
8 Therefore the Goate waxed exceeding great, and when he was at the strongest, his great horne was broken: then grewe there other foure notable ones in the steade of it, toward the foure windes of heauen.
9 And out of one of them came forth a litle horne, which waxed very great, towarde the South, towarde the East, and towarde the pleasant land.
10 [i] It grewe vp vnto the hoste of heauen, whereof it did cast some downe to the ground, and of the starres also, and trode them vnder foote.
11 Yea, it grewe vp against the [k] prince of the host, from whom the dayly sacrifice was taken away, and the places of the sanctuarie cast downe.
12 And power was giuen vnto it ouer the dayly sacrifice for the iniquitie, and it shal [l] cast downe the trueth to the ground: and thus shall it doe, and prosper.
13 Vpon this I heard one of the Saintes speaking, and one of the [m] Saintes spake vnto [n] Palmoni, saying, Howe long shal the vision of the dayly sacrifice and of the iniquitie of desolation endure, to giue both the sanctuarie and the power to bee troden vnder foote?
14 And he answered me, Vnto the [o] Euening and the Morning, two thousande and three hundred: then shal the sanctuarie be cleansed.
15 Now when I Daniel had seene this vision, and sought for the vnderstanding of it, behold, there stode before me [p] like the similitude of a man.
16 And I heard a mans voyce [q] betweene Vlai, which cryed, and said, * O Gabriel, [r] make this man vnderstand the vision.
17 So he came & stode by me, but I was afrayde at his comming, and fell downe vpon my face: then said he vnto me, Vnderstand, O thou sonne of man: for at the [s] time of the ende this vision shalbe.
18 Now as he was speaking vnto mée, I fell in a slumber vpon my face to the grounde: but he touched me, and set mée vp in my place.
19 And he sayd, Beholde, I will shewe thee what shall bée in the last wrath: for in the time appointed it shalbe fulfilled.
20 The Ramme which thou sawest hauing two hornes, is the king of the Medes and Persians.
21 And the Goate is the king of Grecia: and the great horne that is betwixt his eyes, that is the first king.
22 But whereas it brake, and foure other rose vp in the steade, it signifieth that out of one of this people shal stand vp foure kingdomes, but not so mightie as it.
23 And in the end of their kingdom, when the wicked are come to the full, a king of [t] fierce countenance, and vnderstanding hard sentences, shall stand vp.
24 His power shall be mightie, but not in [u] his strength, and he shall destroy wonderfully, hée shall prosper, and practise, and destroy the [x] mightie and the holy people.
25 And through his policie also he shall cause craft to prosper in his handes, hée shall extoll himselfe in his heart, and in prosperitie hee shall destroy many, and many one shall bee put to death in his wealthinesse: hée shall stande vp against the [y] prince of princes, but hée shalbe destroyed without [z] hand.
26 And the vision of the * Euening and the Morning which is declared, is true: therefore seale thou vp the vision, for it shall be after many dayes.
27 Vpon this was I Daniel feeble, so that I lay sicke certaine dayes: but when I rose vp, I went about the kings businesse, and was astonied at the vision, neuertheless, no man vnderstood it.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Daniel desireth to haue that performed of God, which he hath promised concerning the returne of the people from their banishment in Babylon. 26 The death of Christ.

[c] That is, the kingdome of the Persians and Medes now ioyned together.
[d] Meaning Cyrus, who after grewe greater in power then Darius his vncle and father in lawe.
[e] No kings or nations.
[f] Meaning Alexander, that came with great expedition.
[g] Though he came in the name of all Grecia, yet he bare the title and dignitie of the generall captaine, so that his strength was attributed to him, which is meant by this horne.
[h] Alexander ouercame Darius in two battels, and so had the kingdome of the Medes and Persians.
[i] That is, Antiochus, who raged against the elect of God.
[k] That is, God.
[l] This horne shall abolish for a time the true doctrine, and so corrupt Gods seruice.
[m] One of the angels.
[n] That is, a secret one, or a marueilous one, whereby is vnderstanded Christ the reuealer of all secretes.
[o] Euening and morning, do signifie a naturall day, that is, 2300. dayes.
[p] That is, Christ.
[q] That is, betweene the bankes of the riuer Vlai.
[r] This power to command the angel, declareth it was God.
[s] That is, the vision shall be fulfilled hereafter in time conuenient.
[t] That is, Antiochus, who should be impudent, shamelesse, subtill, and craftie.
[u] That is, not like Alexanders strength.
[x] Both the Gentiles that dwell about him, and the Iewes.
[y] Meaning, against God.
[z] God would destroy him with a notable plague, 2. Mac. 9. Reade ver. 14.
[a] Otherwise called Astyages.
[b] For Cyrus led with ambition, went about wars in other countreyes, and therefore Darius had the title, though Cyrus were king in effect.

* Dan. 9. 21.
* Jer. 29. 10.

spake vnto Ieremie the Prophet that he would accomplish seuentie yeeres in the desolation of Hierusalem.

3 And I turned my face vnto the Lorde God, and sought by prayer and supplication, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

4 I prayed vnto the Lord my God, and made my confession, *saying, O Lord God, great and fearefull, which keepeth couenant and mercie with them that loue ‡ him, and keepe his commaundements,

5 *We haue sinned, and haue committed iniquitie, and haue done wickedly, yea, wee haue rebelled, and haue departed from thy precepts, and from thy iudgements.

6 We woulde not obey thy seruants the Prophets that spake in thy name to our kings, and princes, to our forefathers, & to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousnesse belongeth vnto thee, vnto vs open shame, as is come to passe this day vnto euery man of Iuda, and to them that dwel at Hierusalem, yea, vnto all Israel, whether they bee farre or nigh, thorowout all the landes whither thou hast driuen them, because of their offences that they haue done against thee.

8 Yea, O Lorde, vnto vs, to our kings, & princes, to our forefathers that haue offended thee, belongeth open shame.

9 Vnto the Lord our God pertaineth compassion and forgiuenesse, though wee haue rebelled against him.

10 And wee haue not obeyed the [d] voyce of the Lorde our God, to walke in his lawes which he layde before vs, by the hand of his seruants the Prophets,

11 Yea, all Israel haue transgressed and gone backe from thy lawe, so that they haue not hearkened vnto thy voyce: wherefore the [e] curse and the othe that is written in the lawe of Moses the seruant of God, against whome wee haue offended, is powred vpon vs:

12 And he hath confirmed his words which he spake against vs, and against our iudges þ iudged vs, to bring vpon vs such a great plague as neuer was vnder heauen, like as it is nowe come to passe in Hierusalem.

13 Yea, all this plague, as it is written in þ law of Moses, is come vpon vs: yet made we not our prayers before the Lord our God, that wee might turne againe from our wickednes, and vnderstād thy trueth.

14 Therefore hath the Lorde watched vpon the plague, and brought it vpon vs: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we would not hearken vnto his voyce.

15 And now, O Lord our God, *thou that with a mightie hand hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt, to get thy selfe a name, which remayneth this day, wee haue sinned, we haue done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all thy [f] rightes ousnesse, I beseech thee let thine anger and thy wrath be turned away from the citie of Hierusalem, thy holy hill: for because of our sinnes, and for the wickednesse of our fathers, Hierusalem & thy people are a reproche vnto all them that are about vs.

17 Now therefore, O our God, heare the prayer of thy seruant, and his intercession: O let thy face [g] shine ouer thy sanctuarie that lyeth waste, for the [h] Lordes sake.

18 O my God, encline thine eare, and hearken, open thine eyes, behold how we be desolated, yea, and the citie also which is called after thy name: for we do not present our prayers before thee in our [i] owne righteousnesse, but in thy great mercies.

19 O Lord heare, O forgiue Lorde, O Lord [k] consider, and doe it, deferre not for thine own sake, O my God: because thy name is called vpon thy citie, & vpon thy people.

20 As I was yet a speaking at my prayers, knowledging mine own sinnes, and the sinnes of my people Israel, presenting so mine intercession before the Lord my God for the holy hill of my God:

21 Yea, while I was yet speaking in my prayer, the man Gabriel (whome I had seene afore in the vision) came flying, and touched me about the time of þ euening oblation:

22 And he enfourmed mee, and talked with me, and sayde, O Daniel, I am now come forth to giue thee knowledge and vnderstanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications, the commaundement came forth, and I am come to shew thee, for thou art greatly beloued: therfore vnderstand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 [l] Seuentie weekes are determined ouer thy people, and ouer thy holy citie, to finish the wickednesse, and to seale vp the sinnes, and to reconcile the iniquitie, and to bringin euerlasting righteousnes, to seale vp the vision and prophecie, and to anoynt the most holy.

25 Know therefore and vnderstand, that from the going forth of the commaundement to bring againe the people and to build Hierusalem, vnto Messiah the prince, there shalbe seuē weekes, and threescore and two weekes: and the streete shall bee built againe, and the wall, euen in the straitnesse of time.

26 After these three score and two weekes shall Messiah be slayne, and not for himselfe: and the people of the prince that shall come, shall destroy the citie and the sanctuarie, and the ende thereof shalbe with a flood, and vnto the ende of the battel it shall bee destroyed by desolations.

The x. Chapter.

1 There appeareth vnto Daniel a man clothed in linen, 11 which sheweth him wherefore he was sent.

a He noteth this third yeere, because at this time the building of the temple began to be hindered by Cambyses Cyrus sonne, when the father made warre in Asia minor against the Scythians, which was a discouraging to the godly, and a great feare to Daniel.

1 IN the a third yeere of Cyrus king of Persia, there was shewed vnto Daniel other wise called Baltassar, a matter, yea, a true matter, but it is yet a long time vnto it: he vnderstoode the matter, and perceyued what the vision was.
2 At the same time I Daniel mourned for the space of three weekes of dayes.
3 I ate no pleasant bread, as for flesh and wine there came none vnto my mouth: no, I did not once anoynt my selfe til the whole three weekes of dayes were fulfilled.
4 Vpon the foure and twentieth day of the first moneth, I was by the side of the great riuer, euen Hiddekel.
5 I lift vp mine eyes, and looked, and beholde, a man clothed in linen, whose loynes were girded vp with fine golde of Vphaz.
6 His bodie was like the Turkeis stone, his face to looke vpō was like lightning, his eyes as lampes of fire, his armes and feete were like in colour to pulished brasse, and the voyce of his woydes was like the voyce of a multitude.
7 And I Daniel alone saw this vision, for the men that were with me sawe not the vision: but a great fearefulnesse fell vpon them, so that they fledde away, and hid themselues.
8 Therefore I was left alone, and sawe this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my colour was turned in me into corruption, and I retrined no strength.
9 Yet heard I the voyce of his woydes: and when I heard the voice of his woyds, I fell astonyed vpon my face, and my face toward the earth.
10 And beholde, a hand touched me, which set mee vp vpon my knees, and vpon the palmes of my handes.
11 And he sayd vnto me, O Daniel, thou well beloued man, take good heede to the woyds that I say vnto thee, and stād in thy place: for vnto thee am I nowe sent. And when he had sayd these woyds vnto mee, I stood vp trembling.
12 The said he vnto me, Feare not, Daniel: for since the first day that thou diddest set thine heart to vnderstande, and to chasten thy selfe before thy God, thy woydes were heard, and I am come for thy woydes.
13 But the b prince of the kingdome of Persia withstoode mee one and twentie dayes: but lo, Michael one of the chiefe Princes came to helpe mee, and I remained there by the kinges of Persia.
14 And I am come to shewe thee what shall come vnto thy people in the latter dayes: for it will be long yet or the vision be fulfilled.
15 Now when he had spoken these woyds vnto mē, I cast downe my heade to the ground, and held my tongue.
16 And beholde, there touched my lippes one very like vnto a man: then opened I my mouth, and spake, and saide vnto him that stoode before mee, O my Lord, by the vision my ‖ ioyntes are turned out of their place, and I haue retained no strength.
17 For howe can the seruant of this my Lord talke with my Lorde, being such a one? And as for mee, straightway there remayned no strength in mee, neither is there breath left in mee.
18 Then there came againe and touched mee one like the appearance of a man, & he strengthened me:
19 And saide, O man greatly beloued, feare not, peace be vnto thee, be strong, & of good courage. So when hee had spoke vnto mē, I was strengthened, and said, Speak on, my Lord: for thou hast strengthened mee.
20 Thus sayd he. Knowest thou wherefore I am come vnto thee? nowe will I returne to fight with the Prince of the Persees: as soone as I goe forth, loe, the c Prince of Greeke land shall come.
21 Neuertheless, I will shewe thee that that is noted in the scripture of trueth: and there is none that helpeth mee in these things, but d Michael your Prince.

b Meaning, Cambyses, who reigning in his fathers absence, did not onely hinder thus long the building of the temple, but would haue further raged, if God had not sent mee to resist him: and therefore haue I stayed for the profite of of the Church.

‖ Or, my forces are turned vpon me.

c Meaning, that he would not onely bridle the rage of Cambyses, but also the other kings of Persia, by Alexander the king of Macedonia.

d For this angel was appointed for the defence of the Church vnder Christ, who is the head thereof.

The xi. Chapter.

1 A prophecie of the kings of Persia. 3 Of the kingdome of Greece. 5 Of the kingdome of Egypt, & of the bond thereof. 15 Of the battel with the kingdome of Syria.

1 AND in the first yeere of Darius of Media a I stood to comfort him, and to strength him.
2 And nowe will I shew thee the trueth: beholde, there shall stand vp yet three kings in Persia, but the fourth shalbe farre richer then they all: and by his strength and by his riches he shall stirre vp al against the realme of Grecke land.
3 Then shal there arise yet a mightie king, that shall rule with great dominion, and doe what him list.
4 And when he shall stande vp, his kingdome shalbe b broken, and shalbe deuided toward the foure windes of the heauen, and not toward his posteritie, nor according to his dominion which hee ruled: for his kingdome shalbe pluckt vp, euen for others besides these.
5 And the c king of the South shalbe mightie, and d one of his Princes, and he shall preuaile against him, and beare rule: his dominion shalbe a great dominion.
6 And in the ende of yeeres they shall be be ioyned together, e the kings daughter of the South shall come to the king of the North for to make agreement, but she shall not retaine the power of the arme, neither shall hee continue nor his arme: but she shall be deliuered to death, and they that brought her, and hee that begate her, and he that comforted her in these times.

7 But out of the budde of her rootes shal one stande vp in his steade, which shall come with an armie, and shall enter into the fortresse of the king of the North, and dos with them as hee lyst, and shall preuaile,

8 And shall also carp captiues into Egypt their gods, with their molten images, with their precious vessels of siluer and of gold, and hee shall continue more yeeres then the king of the North.

9 So the king of the South shal come into his kingdome, and shall returne into his owne land.

10 Wherefore his sonnes shall bee stirred vp, and shall gather together a mightie great hoste of people, and one shall come and ouerflowe, and passe thorowe: then shall he turne againe and be stirred vp at his fortresse.

11 Then the king of the South shall bee angrie, and shall come forth to fight with him, euen with the king of the North: for he shall set forth a great multitude, and the multitude shall be giuen into his hande.

12 Then the multitude shalbe proude, and their hearts shalbe lifted vp, for hee shall cast downe thousands: but he shall not still preuaile.

13 For the king of the North shal returne, and shall set forth a greater multitude then afore, and shal come forth (after certaine yeeres) with a mightie armie and great riches.

14 And at the same time there shall many stand vp against the king of the South, so that the seditious children of thy people also shal exalt themselues to establish the vision, but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the North shal come and cast vp a mount, & take the strong cities: and the armes of the South shal not resist, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 And when he commeth, he shall handle him as he list, & no man shal stād against him, he shall stand in the pleasant h land, which by his hand shalbe consumed.

17 Againe, he shal set his face to enter with the power of his whole kingdome, and his confederates with him, thus shall he do: and he shal giue him the i daughter of women to destroy her, but shee shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turne his face vnto the k Iles, and shall take many: but a prince shal cause his shame to light vpon him, beside that, he shall cause his owne shame to turne vpon himselfe.

19 For he shall turne his face towarde the fortes of his owne land: but he shall be ouerthrowen & fal, and be no more found.

20 Then shall stand vp in his place a raysser of taxes in the glory of the kingdome, and after a few daies he shalbe destroied, neither in wrath nor in battell.

21 In his steade there shall stand vp a vile person, to whom they shall not giue the honour of the kingdome: but hee shall come in peaceably, and obteine the kingdome with flatteries.

22 And the armes shalbe ouerflowed with a flood before him, and also the prince of the couenant.

23 And after the league made with him, he shall worke deceitfully, for he shall come vp, and ouercome with a small people.

24 He shall enter into the quiet and plentifull prouince, and hee shall doe that which his fathers haue not done, nor his fathers fathers: her shall deuide among them the pray, and the spoyle, and the substance, yea, and shall forecast his deuices against the strong holdes, euen for a time.

25 Also his power and heart shall he stirre vp with a great armie against the king of the South: the king of the South shal be moued vnto battell with a great and a mightie hoste also: neuertheless, he shal not stand, for they shall forecast deuices against him.

26 Yea, l they that feede of the portion of his meate shall destroy him, and his armie shall m ouerflow, and many shall fall and be slaine.

27 These two kings hearts shalbe to doe n mischiefe, and they shall talke of deceite at one table, but it shall not prosper, for yet the end shalbe at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he go home againe into his land with great o substance, and set his heart against the holy couenant, so shall he do, and returne to his owne land.

29 At the time appointed he shall come againe, and go toward the South: but the last shall not be as the first.

30 For the ships of Chittim shal come against him, therefore he shall be sory, and returne, and fret against the holy couenant: so shall he doe, he shall euen returne and haue intelligence with them that forsake the holy couenant.

31 And armes shall stande on his part, and they shal pollute the sanctuarie of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall set vp the abominable desolation.

32 And such as wickedly breake the couenant, shall he cause to sinne by flatteries: but the people of their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that vnderstand among the people, shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captiuitie, and by spoyle, many dayes.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little helpe: but many shall cleaue to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of vnderstanding shall fall, to trie them, and to purge, and to make them white, euen to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will, and exalt himself, and magnifie himself aboue euery god, and shall speake maruailous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnifie himself aboue all.

38 But in his seate shall he honour the god of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not, shall he honour with golde, and siluer, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the strongest of strong holdes with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge, and increase with glory: and cause them to rule ouer many, and shall deuide the land for gaine.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the South push at him: and the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlewinde, with charets, and with horsemen, and with many ships, and he shall enter into the countries, and ouerflow, and passe ouer.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be ouerthrowen: but these shall escape out of his hand, Edom, and Moab, and the chiefe of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also vpon the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall haue power ouer the treasures of golde and of siluer, and ouer all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the East and out of the North shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and vtterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace betweene the seas in the glorious holy mountaine: yet he shall come to his end, and none shall helpe him.

The xii. Chapter.

He propecieth the resurrection of the dead. 9 The darkenesse of the prophecie of Daniel.

1 AND at that time shall [a] Michaell stande vp, the great prince, which standeth for the children of thy people: for there shalbe a time of trouble, such as neuer was since there began to be a nation, vnto that same time: and at that time thy people shalbe deliuered euery one that shall be found written in the booke.

2 And manp of them that sleepe in the dust of the earth, [b] shall awake, some to euerlasting life, and some to shame and perpetuall contempt.

3 They that [c] be wise, shall shine as the brightnesse of the firmament: and they that [d] turne manp to righteousnesse, as the starres for euer and euer.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut vp the wordes, and seale the booke til the time of the end: manp shal [e] go about here and there, and knowledge shalbe encreased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, & beholde, there stoode other two, the one on this side of the banke of the [f] riuer, and the other on that side of the banke of the riuer.

6 And one sayde vnto the man clothed in linnen, which was ouer the waters of the riuer, When shall the ende of these wonders be?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linnen, which was ouer the waters of the riuer, when he held vp his right hand and his left hande vnto heauen, and sware vp him that liueth for euer, that it shall tarie for a [h] time, times, and a halfe: and when he shall haue accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shalbe finished.

8 Then I heard it, but I vnderstoode it not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the ende of these things?

9 And he saide, Goe thy way, Daniel, for the wordes are closed vp and sealed till the time of the ende.

10 Manp shalbe purified, made white, and tried: but the wicked shall doe wickedly, and none of the wicked shal haue vnderstanding, but the wise shall vnderstande.

11 And from the time that the [i] daylp sacrifice shalbe taken awap, & the abominable desolation set vp, there shall be a [k] thousand, two hundred, and ninetie dayes.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth and cōmeth to the thousand, three hundred, and fiue and thirtie dayes.

13 But goe thou thy way till the ende be, for thou shalt rest, and stand vp in thy lot at the ende of the dayes.

a The Angell here noteth two things: First, that the Church shall be in great affliction and trouble at Christs cōming. And next, that God will send his Angel to deliuer it: whom here he calleth Michael.

b Meaning, all shall rise at the generall resurrection, which here he mentioneth, that the faithfull may euer haue respect vnto it, for in earth shall they find no comfort.

c Or such as teach and instruct others: or such as haue kept the feare of God, and his religion.

d He chiefly meaneth the ministers of Gods word, and next, all the faithfull, which instruct the ignorant, & bring them to the true knowledge of God.

e Not wandring as vagabondes, but to search for the knowledge of God.

f Which was Tygris, in Hebrew Hiddekel, as Ezec. 10.

g Which was a double oth, and did the more confirme the thing.

h Whereby the Angell declareth rather that which perteineth to the comfort of the elect, that these afflictions should once haue a certaine ende, then that the time thereof should be certainely knowen, as a thing not expedient for creatures to knowe, Act. 1.

i From the time that Christ by his sacrifice shall take away the sacrifice and ceremonies of the lawe, and the destruction of the temple and citie, which is here meant by the abominable desolation.

k Signifying, that the time shall be long, & yet the children of God ought not to be discouraged, though it be deferred.

The ende of the prophecie of Daniel.

¶ The

The booke of the Prophet Oſee.

The firſt Chapter.

The time wherein Oſee prophecied. 2 The idolatrie of the people. 10 The calling of the Gentiles. 11 Chriſt is the head of all people.

1 THe woꝛd of þ Loꝛde came vnto Oſee the ſonne of Beeri, in þ daies of Ozia, Ioathan, Ahas, & Hezekias kings of Iuda, & in þ time of Ieroboam þ ſõne of Ioas king of Iſrael.

2 When the Loꝛde ſpake firſt vnto Oſee, he ſaide vnto him, Goe take vnto thée a wife of fornications, & children of fornications: foꝛ the land hath cõmitted great fornication, departing from the Loꝛd.

3 So he wẽt & tooke Gomer the daughter of Diblaim: which conceiued & bare him a ſonne.

4 And the Loꝛd ſaide vnto him, Call his name Iezrahel: foꝛ I will ſhoꝛtly auẽge the blood of Iezrahel vpon the houſe of Iehu, and will bring the kingdome of the houſe of Iſrael to an ende.

5 And in that daye will I alſo breake the bow of Iſrael in the valley of Iezrahel.

6 And ſhee conceiued againe, and bare a daughter: & the Lord ſaid vnto him, Call her name Loruhamah, that is, not obtaining mercie, foꝛ I will no moꝛe haue pitie vpon the houſe of Iſrael, but I will vtterly take them away.

7 Yet I will haue mercy vpon the houſe of Iuda, & will ſaue them, euen through the Loꝛde their God: and will not ſaue them by bowe, ſwoꝛde, battell, hoꝛſes, oꝛ hoꝛſemen.

8 Nowe when ſhe had weaned Lorũhamah, ſhe cõceiued againe, & bare a ſonne.

9 Then ſaid he, Call his name Leammi, that is, not my people: foꝛ yee are not my people, therefoꝛe I wil not be your God.

10 Yet the nũmber of the children of Iſrael ſhalbe as the ſande of the ſea, which can neither be meaſured noꝛ tolde, * and in the place where it was ſayde vnto them, Ye are not my people: it ſhall bee ſayde vnto them, Yee are the children of the liuing God.

11 Then ſhal the children of Iuda and the children of Iſrael be gathered together, and appoint themſelues one head, & they ſhall come vp out of the lande: foꝛ great ſhalbe the day of Iezrahel.

The ii. Chapter.

1 The people is called to repentance. 5 He ſheweth their idolatrie, and threatneth them, except they repent.

1 TEll your brethren that they are my people, and your ſiſters that they haue obteined mercie.

2 As foꝛ your mother, yee ſhall chide with her, and reproue her, foꝛ ſhée is not my wife, neither am I her huſband: let her therefoꝛe put away her whoꝛedome from her face, and her aduulterie from her breaſtes:

3 Leſt I ſtrip her naked, and ſet her euen as ſhe came into the woylde, and make her as a wildernes, and as a dry land, and ſlay her foꝛ thirſt.

4 And I will haue no pitie vpon her children: foꝛ they bee the children of fornication.

5 Their mother hath played the harlot, and ſhe that bare them is come to confuſion: foꝛ ſhe ſaid, I will goe after my louers, that giue mee my breade and my water, my wooll and flaxe, my ople and my drinke.

6 Therefoꝛe beholde, I will ſtoppe thy way with thoꝛnes, and make a hedge, that ſhe ſhall not finde her paths.

7 And though ſhe runne after her louers, yet ſhall ſhe not ouertake them: ſhe ſhall ſéeke them, but not finde them. Then ſhall ſhe ſay, I will goe and returne to my firſt huſband: foꝛ at that time it was better with me then nowe.

8 And ſhe did not knowe that I gaue her corne, and wine, and ople, and multiplied her ſiluer and golde, which they beſtowed on Baal.

9 Therefoꝛe wil I returne and take away my corne in the time thereof, and my wine in the ſeaſon thereof, and ſet againe my wooll and my flaxe, which I gaue her to couer her ſhame.

10 And now will I diſcouer her ſhame, euen in the ſight of her louers, & no man ſhall deliuer her out of my hands.

11 Moreouer, I will take away all her mirth, her holy dayes, her new Moones, her Sabbaths, & all her ſolemne feaſts.

12 I will deſtroy her vineyardes & figge trees, whereof ſhe ſaid, Theſe are my rewardes that my louers haue giuen me: I will make them as a wood, and wilde beaſtes ſhall eate them vp.

13 I will viſite vpon her þ dayes of Baal, wherein ſhe burned incenſe to him, and decked her ſelf with earings and iewels, ſhe folowed her louers, and foꝛgate mee, ſayeth the Loꝛd.

14 Wherefoꝛe beholde, I will allure her, and bring her into the wildernes, and ſpeake friendly vnto her.

15 From thence will I giue her her vineyardes againe, yea, and the valley of Achoꝛ foꝛ an entrie of hope: and ſhee ſhall ſing there as in the dayes of her youth, and as in the day when ſhee came out of the land of Egypt.

16 And at that day (ſaith the Loꝛde) thou ſhalt call me, My huſband, and ſhalt call me no moꝛe Baal.

17 Foꝛ I will take away thoſe names of Baal frõ her mouth, yea, ſhe ſhall neuer remember their names any moꝛe.

18 Then will I make a couenãt foꝛ them, with the beaſtes of the fielde, with the foules

a That is, one that of long time hath accuſtomed to play the harlot, nor that the Prophet did this in deed, but he ſawe this in a viſion: or els was commãded by God, to ſet forth vnder this parable or figure, the idolatrie of the Iſraelites, foules of the ayre, and with euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth: As for bowe, swoorde, and battell, I will destroy out of the lande, and will make them to slepe safely.

19 And I will marrie thee vnto mine owne selfe for euer, yea, euen to my selfe will I marrie thee, in righteousnesse, in iudgement, in louing kindnesse and mercie.

20 In faithfulnesse also will I marrie thee vnto my selfe, and thou shalt knowe the Lorde.

21 At the same time will I shewe my selfe gracious vnto the heauens, sayeth the Lorde, and the heauens shall helpe the earth.

22 And the earth shall helpe the corne, wyne, and oyle: and they shall helpe Jezrahel.

1. Pet. 2. 10. rom. 9, 25.

23 *And I will sowe her for my selfe in the earth, and will haue mercie vpon her that had not obteined mercy: and to them which were not my people, I will saye, Thou art my people: and they shal say, Thou art my God.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The Iewes shalbe cast off for their idolatrie. 5 Afterward they shall returne to the Lord.

1 THen said the Lord to me, Goe yet and loue a woman beloued of her husbande, and yet an adulteresse, according to the loue of the Lord toward the children of Israel: and yet they haue respect to strange gods, and loue the wine pottes.

2 So I gate her for fifteene siluerlings, & for an Homer and an halfe of barley,

3 And saide vnto her, Thou shalt bide with me a long season, thou shalt not play the harlot, thou shalt be to no other man, and I will be so vnto thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall sit a great while without King, without prince, without sacrifice, without image, without Ephod, and without Teraphim.

5 But afterward the children of Israel shalbe conuerted, and seeke the Lord their God, and Dauid their king, and in the latter dayes they shall worship the Lord, and his louing kindnesse.

The iiii. Chapter.

A complaint against the people, and the Priestes of Israel.

1 HEare the worde of the Lorde, O ye children of Israel, for the Lord hath a controuersie with the inhabitãts of the land: for there is no trueth, there is no mercy, there is no knowledge of God in the lande.

2 But swearing, lying, manslaughter, theft, and adulterie hath gotte the ouerhande, and one bloodguiltinesse followeth another.

3 Therefore shall the land mourne, and al they that dwell therein shall bee rooted out, the beastes of the fielde, the foules of the ayre, and the fishes in the sea, shall be consumed.

4 Yet let no man rebuke or reproue another, for thy people are as they that are at controuersie with the Priest.

||Or, contend.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the daye time, and the Prophet with thee in the night, and I will bring thy mother to destruction.

6 My people perish for lacke of knowledge: because thou hast refused knowledge, therefore will I refuse thee also, so that thou shalt no more be my Priest: & forsomuch as thou hast forgotten the lawe of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 The more they encreased in multitude, the more they sinned against me, therfore will I change their honour into shame.

8 They eate vp the *sinnes of my people, and encourage them in their wickednesse.

a That is, the priests seeke to eate the peoples offerings, and flatter them in their sinnes, Esa. 24. 2.

9 *Thus the Priest is become like the people: wherefore I will punish them for their wicked wayes, and rewarde them according to their imaginations.

10 They shall eate, and not haue ynough, they haue vsed whoredome, but shall not prosper, they haue forsaken the Lord, and not regarded him.

11 Whoredome, wine, and new wine take the heart away.

12 My people aske counsell at their stocks, and their staffe teacheth them: for the spirit of fornication hath caused them to go astray, and they haue committed fornication against their God.

13 They make sacrifices vpon the toppes of the mountaines, and burne their incense vpon the hilles, yea, vnder the Okes, Poplars, and Elmes, for there are good shadowes: therefore your daughters are become harlots, and your spouses haue broken their wedlocke.

14 I will not punish your daughters for being defiled, and your spouses that became whores, seeing the fathers themselues haue medled with harlots, and sacrificed with whores: but the people that will not vnderstande, must be punished.

15 Though thou Israel play the harlot, yet let not Juda sinne, come not ye vnto Gilgal, neither go ye to Bethauen, neither sweare ye, The Lord liueth.

16 For Israel is rebellious like an vnruly Heifer: nowe the Lord will fede them as a lambe in a large place.

17 Ephraim is become partaker of idoles, let him alone.

18 Their drunkennesse stinketh, they haue cõmitted whoredome: their rulers loue to say with shame, Bring ye.

19 The winde hath bounde them vp in her winges, and they shall be ashamed of their sacrifices.

The v. Chapter.

1 Against the Priestes and rulers of Israel. 13 The helpe of man is in vaine.

1 OYe Priestes, heare this, take heede, O thou houshold of Israel, giue eare, O thou house of the king, for iudgeiudgement is against you, because you are become as a snare on Mispah, and a spred nette vpon the mount of Thabor.

Or they were profound wise to offer sacrifices.

2 They ‖kill sacrifices by heapes, and turne farre from the Lorde, and I haue bene a rebuker of them all.

3 I knowe Ephraim well ynough, and Israel is not hid fro me: for nowe, O Ephraim, thou art become an harlot, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will not giue their mindes to turne vnto their God: for the spirit of fornication is in the midst of them, and they haue not knowen the Lord.

5 And the pride of Israel doeth testifie to his face, therefore both Israel and Ephraim shall fall for their wickednesse, and Iuda with them also.

6 They shall come with their shéepe and bullockes to seeke the Lord, but they shal not find him: for he is gone from them.

7 They haue transgressed against the Lord, and brought vp bastarde children: a moneth therefore shall deuoure them with their portions.

8 Blowe with the shawmes at Gibea, and with the trumpet in Ramah, crie out at Bethauen, after thee, O Beniamin.

9 In the time of the plague shall Ephraim be layd waste, in the tribes of Israel haue I shewed the trueth.

10 The princes of Iuda haue bene like them that remoue the land marks, therefore will I powre mine wrath vpon them like water.

Or because he begameth to goe about Idolatrie, that is, to worship Jeroboams calues.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in iudgement, because he willingly ‖followed the commandement.

12 Therefore will I be vnto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Iuda as a caterpiller.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickenesse, and Iuda his disease, Ephraim went vnto Assur, & sent vnto king Iarib, yet could not hee helpe you, nor ease you of your paine.

14 I will bee vnto Ephraim as a lion, and as a lions whelpe to the house of Iuda: I, euen I will spoyle, and go my way: I will take away, and no man shall rescue.

15 I will goe and returne to my place, till they knowledge that they haue sinned, and seeke mee. In their aduersitie they shall [a] earlie séeke me.

a That is, diligently.

The vi. Chapter.

1 Affliction causeth a man to turne to God, 2 The wickednesse of the priestes.

1 COme, let vs turne againe to the Lord: for he hath smitten vs, and he shal heale vs, he hath wounded vs, and he shall bind vs vp againe.

1.Cor.15.4. 2 *After two dayes shall he quicken vs, in the third day he shall raise vs vp, so that we shall liue in his sight.

3 Then shall we haue vnderstanding, and endeuour our soules to knowe the Lord: he shal go forth as the spring of the day, and come vnto vs as the raine, and as the latter raine vnto the earth.

4 O Ephraim, what shall I doe vnto thee? O Iuda, howe shall I entreate thee? for your goodnesse is like a morning cloude, and like a deawe that goeth early away.

5 Therefore haue I cut downe the prophets, and let them bee slaine for my words sake, so that thy punishment shal come to light.

Mat.9.17. and and 12.7. Eccl.4.17. 1.king.15.22. 6 *For I desired mercie, and not sacrifice: * and the knowledge of God, more then whole burnt offerings.

7 But euen like as Adam did, so haue they broken my couenant, and set me at naught.

8 Gilead is a citie of wicked doers, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as theeues armed wayte for him that passeth by the way: such is the consell of the priests, which with one agreed counsell murder cruelly such as keepe the way. yea, they dare doe all vnspeakable mischiefe.

10 Horrible things haue I seene in ꝑ house of Israel: there is the fornication of Ephraim, and Israel is defiled.

11 Yea, and thou Iuda keepest an haruest for thy selfe, when I returne the captiuitie of my people.

The vii. Chapter.

1 Of the vices and wantonnesse of the people. 12 Of their punishment.

1 WHen I vndertooke to make Israel whole, then the vngratiousnesse of Ephraim, and the wickednesse of Samaria came to light, for they go about with lyes, therefore the theefe robbeth within, and the spoyler destroyeth without.

2 They consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickednesse: now their owne inuentions haue beset them, which I see well ynough.

3 They make the king glad with their wickednesse, and the princes with their lyes.

4 All these burne in adulterie, as it were an ouen that the baker heateth when he hath left kneading, till the dough be leauened.

5 That is the day of our king, the princes haue made him sicke with bottels of wine, he hath stretched out his hande to scorners.

6 For whiles they lie in waite, they haue made readie their heart like an ouē, their baker sleepeth all night, in the morning it burneth as a flame of fire.

7 They are altogether as hot as an ouen, and haue deuoured their owne Iudges, all their kings are fallen, yet is there none of them that calleth vpon me.

8 Ephraim hath mixt himselfe among heathen people, Ephraim is become like a cake that no man turneth.

9 Strangers haue deuoured his strength, and he regardeth it not: he wareth full of grap heares, yet will he not know it.

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face.

face, yet will they not turne to the Lorde their God, nor seeke him for all this.
11 Ephraim is like a Doue that is beguiled, and hath no heart: nowe call they vpon the Egyptians, nowe goe they to the Assyrians.
12 But while they bee going here & there, I shall spreade my net ouer them, and drawe them downe as the foules of the aire: and according as they haue bene warned, so will I punish them.
13 Wo be vnto them, for they haue forsaken me, they must be destroyed, for they haue set me at nought: I am he that hath redéemed them, yet haue they spoken lies against me.
14 They call not vpon mee with their hearts, but lie howling vpon their beds: they will assemble themselues for corne and wine, but they rebell against me.
15 I haue bound vp and strengthened their arme: yet doe they imagine mischiefe against me.
16 They turne themselues, but not to the most highest, and are become as a braken bow, their princes shalbe slaine with the sworde for ꝓ malice of their tongues: this shall be their derision in the lande of Egypt.

The viii. Chapter.

The destruction of Juda and Israel, because of their idolatrie.

1 SEt the Trumpe to thy mouth, swiftly as an Eagle shall the enemie come against the house of the Lorde: for they haue broken my conenant, and transgressed my lawe.
2 Israel should haue said vnto me, Thou art my God, we know thée.
3 But hee hath refused the thing that is good, therfore shall ꝓ enemie pursue him.
4 They haue ordeyned kings, but not through mee, they haue made princes, and I knewe it not: of their siluer and gold haue they made them idoles, therefore shall they be destroyed.
5 Thy Calfe, O Samaria, hath cast thée off, for my wrathful indignation is gone forth against them: how long will they be without innocencie?
6 For the Calfe came from Israel, the workeman made it, therfore can it be no God: but euen in pieces shall the Calfe of Samaria be broken.
7 They haue sowne winde, therefore shal they reape a whirlewinde: it hath no stalke, the budde shall bring forth no meale: and if haply it do, strangers shall deuoure it vp.
8 Israel is deuoured, nowe shall they bée among the Gentiles as a vessel of no reputation.
9 For they haue gone vp to Assyria, and are as a wilde Asse solitarie by himselfe: Ephraim hath hyred louers.
10 And though they haue hyred them among the heathen, yet nowe will I gather them, & they shal begin to be wearie with the burden of the king & the prince.
11 Ephraim hath made many altars to do wickednesse, his altars I say he had to his sinne.
12 I haue written to them ꝓ great things of my lawe, but they are counted as a strange thing.
13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifice of mine offrings, and eate it, but the Lorde hath no pleasure in it: nowe will hee remember their iniquitie, and visite their sinnes, they shal returne into Egypt.
14 For Israel hath forgotten him that made him, and hath builded faire palaces, and Juda hath encreased strong cities: but I will send a fire into their cities, and it shall consume their palaces.

The ix. Chapter.

Of the hunger and captiuitie of Israel.

1 DOe not thou triumph, O Israel, make no boasting ouer ioyous things as do the heathen: for thou hast committed adulterie against thy God, whoryish rewardes hast thou loued more then all the corne floores.
2 The corne floore and the wine presse shall not fæde them: and the newe wine shall faile them.
3 They shal not dwell in the Lords land, but Ephraim shall turne againe into Egypt, and eate vncleane things among the Assyrians.
4 They powre out no wine for a drinke offering vnto the Lord, neither shall their slaine offerings bee pleasant vnto him, they shall bee vnto them as the bread of mourners, all they that eate shalbe defiled: for their bread a for their soules shall not come into the house of the Lord.
5 What will ye doe then in the solemne day, and in the feast day of the Lord?
6 For beholde, they are gone away for destruction, but Egypt shal gather them, and Memphis shall burie them: the nettles shall possesse the pleasant places of their siluer, thornes shall bee in their tabernacles.
7 The dayes of visitation are come, the dayes of recompence are come: and then shall Israel knowe that they were deceiued by a foolish, madde, and frantick prophet: for the multitude of their iniquitie God shall multiplie enemies against thee.
8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my b God, but the prophet is the snare of a fouler in all his wayes, and an abomination in the house of his God.
9 * They haue gone to the bottome, they are corrupt as in the dayes of Gibea: therefore he will remember their iniquitie, and visite their sinnes.
10 I found Israel like grapes in the wildernesse, and sawe their fathers as the first ripe in the figge tree at her first season, but they went to Baal Peor, and separated themselues to that shame, and became as abominable as their louers.
11 Ephraim their glory shal flee away like a bird: from the birth, from the wombe, and from the conception.
12 And though they bring vp children, yet a The sacrifice which they offred for their sinnes.

pet I will destroy them before they bée men: Yea, woe shall come to them whē I depart from them.

13 Ephraim (as me thinke) is planted in a pleasant place, like as is Tyrus: but nowe must she bring her owne children forth to the man slayer.

14 O Lord, give them: what shalt thou giue them? Give them an vnfruitfull wombe, and dry breasts.

15 * All their wickednesse is done at Gilgal, there do I abhorre them: for the vngrationsnes of their owne inuentions I will driue them out of my house, I will loue them no more, for all their princes are vnfaithfull.

16 Ephraim is smitten downe, their roote is dried vp, so that they shall bring no more fruite: yea, and though they bring forth any, yet will I slay euen the best beloued of their body.

17 My God shall cast thē away, for they haue not bene obedient vnto him, therefore shall they wander among þ heathē.

The x. Chapter.

1 Against Israel and his idols. 14 His destruction for the same.

1 Israel is an a emptie vine, yet hath it brought forth fruite to it selfe, according to the multitude of the fruit thereof he hath encreased þ altars, according to the goodnesse of their lande, they haue made them faire images.

2 Their heart is deuided, therefore shall they nowe be destroyed, the Lorde shall breake downe their altars, her shall destroy their images.

3 For nowe shall they say, Wee haue no king, because we haue not feared þ Lord, and what should then a king do to vs?

4 They haue spoken wordes, swearing falsly in making a b couenāt: thus c iudgment groweth as wormewood in þ furrowes of the field.

5 They that dwell in Samaria shall feare, because of the calfe of Bethauen, for the people thereof shall mourne ouer it, yea, and the Priestes also reioyced on it for the glorie thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shalbe brought to the Assyrians for a present to the king Jareb: Ephraim shall receiue shame, & Israel shalbe confounded for his owne imaginations.

7 Samaria with his king shall vanish away as the fome vpon the water.

8 The high places of Auen where Israel doth sinne, shalbe destroyed, thistles and thornes shall growe vpon their altars: * then shall they say to the mountaines, Couer vs, and to the hils, Fall vpon vs.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the dayes d of Gibeah: there they stoode, the battell in Gibeah against the children of iniquitie did not touch them.

10 It is my desire that I should chastise them, and the people shalbe gathered against them, when they shall ioyne themselues together in their two e furrowes.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer vsed to delite in f treading out the corne: but I will passe by her faire e necke, I will make Ephraim to b ride: Iuda shall i plowe, and Jacob shall breake his clods.

12 Sowe to your selues in righteousnesse, & reape the fruites of well doing, plough vp your fresh land: for it is time to seke the Lorde, till hee come and raine righteousnes vpon you.

13 For you haue plowed vngodlines, you haue reaped iniquitie, you haue eaten the fruit of lies, because thou puttest thy cōfidence in thine owne wayes, and leanest to the multitude of thy strong men.

14 There shall growe a sedition among thy people, all thy strong cities shall bee layde waste, euen as Salma destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battell, where the mother with the children were dashed in pieces.

15 Euen so shall Bethel doe vnto you, because of your malicious wickednes: in a morning shal the king of Israel be destroyed.

The xi. Chapter.

1 The benefites of the Lord toward Israel. 5 Their ingratitude against him.

1 When Israel was yong, I loued him, and called my sonne * out of the land of Egypt.

2 They a called them, but they went thus from them, they sacrificed vnto Baal, & burned incense to images.

3 I gaue to Ephraim one to leade b him, who should beare him in his armes: but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I led them with cordes of a man, euen c with bandes of loue: and I was to them as hee that taketh off the poke from their iawes, and I layde d meate to them.

5 He shall no more returne into Egypt, but Asshur e shalbe his king, because hee refused to conuert.

6 Therefore shall the swoorde fall on his cities, & shall cōsume his f braches, & deuoure thē, because of their owne counsels.

7 And my people shall be in a doubt for their rebellion against me: for when the Prophets called them to the most high, not one yet would giue him his glory.

8 Howe shall I giue thee vp Ephraim? howe shall I deliuer thee Israel? * howe shall I make thee as g Adama? howe shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled within me.

9 I will not execute the fiercenesse of my wrath, I will not returne to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man, the holy one in the midst of thee, and I will not enter into the citie.

10 They shall walke after the Lorde, hee shal roare like a Lion: when he shal roare, then the children of the West shall feare.

11 They ‖ shall feare as a sparowe out of Egypt, and as a doue out of the land of Asshur, and I will place them in their houses, saith the Lord.

g Which were two of the cities destroyed with Sodome.

‖ Or, flee.

12 Ephraim compasseth mee about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Juda yet ruleth [h] with God, and is faithfull with the saintes.

h Ruleth their people agreeing to Gods word.

The xii. Chapter.

He admonisheth by Iacobs example to trust in God, and not in man.

1 EPhraim is fed with the winde, and followeth after the East winde, he daply encreaseth lies and destruction, they be cõfederate with the Assyrians, their oyle is caried into Egypt.

2 The Lord hath a cõtrouersie with Juda, and will visite Iacob according to his wayes, according to their owne inuentions, will he recompence them.

3 *He toke his brother by the heele when he was yet in his mothers wombe, *and in his strength he wrestled with God:

Gen.25.25. Gen.32.24.

4 He stroue with the Angel, and gate the victorie, he wept and prayed to him, hee founde him at Bethel, and there he spake with vs.

5 Yea, the Lord God of hostes, euen the Lord himselfe is his memoriall.

6 Therefore turne to thy God, keepe mercie and iudgement, and hope still in thy God.

7 He is [a] Chanaan, the ballances of deceit are in his hand, he loueth to oppresse.

a More like to the wicked Canaanites, then to Abraham, and the godly patriarches.

8 And Ephraim hath saide, Tush, I am riche, I haue good ynough: in all my workes shall not one iniquitie be found wherein I haue offended.

9 Yet am I the Lorde thy God from the lande of Egypt, I will yet make thee dwell in the tabernacles, as in the high feast dayes.

10 I haue spoken through the Prophets, and haue multiplied visiõs, and shewed similitudes by the ministerie of the Prophets.

11 In Galaad is iniquitie, they are fallen to vanitie: at Gilgal they haue sacrificed oxen, and their altars are as heapes in the furrowes of the field.

12 *Jacob fled into the lande of Syria, & Israel serued for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheepe.

Gen.28.5.

13 *By a Prophet the Lord brought thē out of Egypt, and by a Prophet was he preserued.

Exod.14.21.

14 But Ephraim hath prouoked him to displeasure through his abominations, therefore shall his blood be powred vpon himselfe, and the Lord his God shall reward him his blasphemies.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 The abomination of Israel, 9 and cause of their destruction.

1 WHen Ephraim spake, there was trembling, he was exalted amõg the Israelites: but he hath sinned in Baal, and is dead.

2 And nowe they sinne more and more, & of their siluer they haue made thē molten images after the imaginations of their owne braines, that is very idols, and yet all is nothing but the worke of the craftesman, they say one to another, Whiles they [a] sacrifice a man, let them kisse [b] the calues.

a When they sacrificed their children to Moloch.

b That is, worship the Calues set vp by king Ieroboam. Esay.43.11.

3 Therefore they shalbe as the morning cloude, and as the deaw that early passeth away, & like as dust that the whirlewinde taketh away from the floore, and as smoke that goeth out of the chimney.

4 *Yet I am the Lorde thy God which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, & thou shalt knowe no God but me onely, neither is there any sauiour besides me.

5 I did knowe thee in the wildernesse in the land of drought.

6 But when they were well fed and had inough, they waxed proude, and forgate mee.

7 Therefore will I bee vnto them as a lion, and as a leoparde in the wayes to the Assyrians.

8 I will meete them as a shee beare that is robbed of her whelpes: and I will breake that stubborne heart of theirs, there will I deuoure them like a lion, yea, the wilde beastes shall teare them.

9 O Israel thine iniquitie hath destroyed thee: but in me onely is thy helpe.

10 I am: where is thy king nowe that should helpe thee in all thy cities? & thy iudges of whom thou saidest, *Giue me a king and princes.

1.Sam.8.5.

11 I gaue thee a king in my wrath, and in my displeasure I tooke him from thee againe.

12 The wickednes of Ephraim is bound together, and his sinne lieth hid.

13 Therefore shall sorowes come vpon him as vpon a woman þ trauaileth: an vndiscreete sonne is he, els would he not stand still at the time [c] of birth of children.

c As a woman not labouring at the birth of her child, destroieth her selfe and the childe: so the people, if they doe not repent when God punisheth for sinnes, are occasion of their owne destruction. Ezec.19.12.

14 I will redeeme them from the power of the graue, & deliuer them from death: O death, I will be thy death: O hell, I will be thy sting: yet can I see no cõfort.

15 Though he grew among his brethren, *the East winde euen the winde of the Lord shall come vp from the wildernes, and dry vp his veine, and his fountains shalbe dried vp: he shall spoyle the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

16 Samaria shall be made waste, for shee is disobedient vnto her God: they shall perish with the sword, their childre shall be dashed in pieces, & their women great with childe shalbe ript vp.

The xiiii. Chapter.

1 The destruction of Samaria. 3 He exhorteth the Israelites to turne to God, who requireth prayse and thankes.

1 O Israel, returne vnto the Lord thy God, for thou hast fallen through thine owne wickednesse.

2 Take these wordes with you when ye turne vnto the Lorde, and say vnto him, O forgiue vs all our sinnes, receiue vs graciously, and then will we offer calues of our lippes vnto thee.

3 Assur shall be no more our helper, neither will we ride vpon horses any more, neither will we say any more to þ worke of our handes, Yee are our gods: for in thee thee the fatherlesse findeth mercie.

4 I will heale their rebellion, I will loue them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.
5 I will be vnto Israel as the deawe, and he shall growe as the lilie, and his roote shall breake out as the trees of Libanus.
6 His branches shall spreade out abroad, and be as faire as the Olive tree, & smell as Libanus.
7 They that dwel vnder his shadow, shal returne and growe vp as the corne, and florish as the vine: he shall haue as good ‖ name as the wine of Libanus.
8 Ephraim shall say, What haue I to doe ‖ Or, sauour. ih idoles any more? I haue heard him, and looked vpon him. I am like a greene firre tree, vpon me is thy fruit found.
9 Who so is wise, shall vnderstand these things, and hee that is right instruct, will regard them: for the wayes of the Lord are righteous, such as be godly wil walke in them: as for the wicked, they shall stumble therein.

The ende of the prophecie of Osee.

The Booke of the Prophet Ioel.

The first Chapter.

1 A prophecie against the Iewes. 14 He exhorteth the people to prayer and fasting, for the miserie that was at hand.

1 THe word of the Lorde that came to Ioel the sonne of Pethuel.
2 Heare yee this you elders, and hearken with your eares all you that dwell in this land: was there euer such a thing in your dayes, or in the dayes of your fathers?
3 Of this thing tell your children, and let your children shewe it to their children, and their children to their posteritie afterward.
4 That which the caterpiller hath left, the grashopper hath eaten, and what the grashopper left, hath the a canker worme eaten, & what the canker worme left, the locust hath deuoured.
5 Awake ye drunkards and weepe, howle all yee wine bibbers for lacke of newe wine: for it is cleane taken away from your mouth.
6 For a nation is come vp vpo my land, mightie, and without number: his teeth are as the teeth of a lion, and he hath the iawes of a great lion.
7 He hath destroyed my vine, and barked my figge tree, he hath pilled it, and cast it from him, and hath left boughes thereof white.
8 Lament as a virgin girded with sackcloth, for the husband of her youth.
9 The meate offring and drinke offring is cut off from the house of the Lorde, the priestes I meane the Lordes ministers mourne.
10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth: for corne is destroyed, the newe wine is dried vp, the ople is vtterly taken away.
11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen, howle, O ye vine dressers, for the wheate and for the barley: for the harnest of the field is perished.
12 The vine is dried vp, and the figge tree is decayed, the pomegranate tree, and the palme, and the apple tree, euen all the trees of the field are withered vp: for ioy is withered away from the sonnes of men.
13 Gird your selues, and lament, O ye priests, howle ye out ye ministers of the altar, come, and lie all night in sackcloth ye seruants of my God: for the meate and drinke offerings are taken away from the house of your God.
14 * Proclaime a fast, call a congregation, gather the elders together, with all the inhabitants of the land, vnto the house of the Lorde your GOD, and cry vnto the Lord, Ioel.2.15.
15 Alas for this day, for the day of the Lord is at hand, euen as a destruction from the almightie shall it come.
16 Is not the meate cut off before our eyes, yea mirth and ioy from the house of our God?
17 The seede is rotten vnder their clods, the garners are destroyed, the barnes are ouerthrowen: for the corne is withered.
18 O how cattell mourne, the heards of beastes are in wofull case for lacke of pasture: and the flockes of sheepe are destroyed.
19 Vnto thee, O Lord, will I crie, for fire hath destroyed the fruitfull places of the desert, and the flame hath burnt vp all the trees of the field.
20 The beasts also of the field cry out vnto thee: for the riuers of water are dried vp, and fire hath deuoured vp the fruitfull places of the desert.

a That is, a worme that hath winges, shaneth off the vtmost rinde of herbes, and the tender barke of trees, feeding on them, Nahum 3. 6

The ii. Chapter.

1 He propheciesth of the comming & crueltie of their enemies. 13 An exhortation to moue them to conuert. 18 The loue of God toward his people.

1 BLowe vp a trumpet in Sion, and showte in my holy hill, let all the inhabitants of the earth tremble: for the day of the Lord is come, for it is nigh at hand.
2 A darke and gloomie day, a cloudy and blacke day: as the morning is spred ouer the mountaines, so is this populous and strong people: like vnto there was none from the beginning, nor shalbe hereafter for euermore.

3 Before him is a deuouring fire, and behinde him a burning flame: the land is as a pleasant garden before him, and behind him a waste desert, yea and nothing shall escape him.

4 The shewe of him is as the shewe of horses, and like horsemen, so shall they runne.

5 Like the noyse of charets vpon the tops of the mountaines they shall skippe, like the noyse of a flaming fire deuouring the stubble, and as a strong people prepared to battell.

6 Before his face shall the people tremble, the countenance of all folkes shall waxe blacke.

7 They shall runne like strong men, and clime the walles like men of warre: and euery one shall marche on his way, and they shall not linger in their pathes.

8 No man shall thrust another, but euery one shall walke in his path: and if they shall fall on the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall runne to and fro in the citie, they shall runne vp and downe vpon the wall, they shall clime into the houses, they shall enter in at the windowes like a thiefe.

Esai.13.10. ezech.32.7. mat.24.29. marr.13.24. luke 21.25.

10 *The earth shall quake before him, the heauens shall tremble, the sunne and the moone shalbe darke, and the starres shall withdrawe their shining.

11 And the Lord shall giue his voyce before his hoste, for his campe is exceeding great, for he is mighty that executeth his commandement: *for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible, and who can abide it?

Jerem.30.7. amos.5.12.

The Epistle on Ashwednesday.

12 But nowe, saieth the Lorde, Turne you vnto me with all your hearts, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning.

13 And rent your hearts, and not your garments, and turne you vnto the Lorde your God, *for he is gracious and mercifull, slowe to anger, and of great goodnesse, and he will repent him of the euill.

Psal.86.5. ionas 4.2.

Jonas 3.9.

14 *Who knoweth whether the Lord will returne and take compassion, and will leaue behind him a blessing, euen meate offring and drinke offring vnto the Lord your God?

Ioel.1.14.

15 *Blowe vp a trumpet in Sion, proclaime a fast, call an assemblie, sanctifie the congregation.

16 Gather the people, gather the elders, assemble the children and sucking babes: let the bridegrome come foorth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the Priestes the Lords ministers weepe betwixt the porche and the altar, & let the say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and giue not ouer thine heritage to reproch, that the heathen should rule ouer them: Wherefore should they say amongst the heathen, Where is their God?

18 And then the Lorde will be iealous ouer his land, and will spare his people.

19 Yea, the Lorde will answere and say to his people, Beholde, I will send you corne, and wine, and oyle, and will satisfie you therewith, and will not giue you ouer any more to bee a reproch among the heathen.
